It is through hearing My Word that a solid foundation is built in your life. For many years I have been building your faith. As I speak My Words into your life, quicken them, then confirm them, this builds your faith. This faith is an absolute assurance that even though you do not see Me, you know that I have spoken into your life and I am actively involved in taking care of you, loving you and surrounding you. This faith is like a pillow of comfort in which to lay your heart. This faith enables you to rest when everything around you is chaos. This faith is solidly and slowly built upon the building bricks of My Word, then mortared with experience and results. When it is set, there is a solid trust.

There is another kind of faith and it is called the gift of faith. This too is built on the same principal, yet it produces a different result. I know all things before they happen; thus in times when you need a breakthrough, when you need explosive faith, I prepare you with My Word to climax through the gift of faith. I know exactly the time it will take, the Words that you need to hear, the confirmations needed to set you, so that when you most desperately need a breakthrough, the gift of faith is there.

Any kind of faith is the creative element that dispatches forces with assignment in the unseen world.

The gift of faith is a sudden occurrence that explodes into the realm of the supernatural and it blasts away the obstacles in one blow. It is powerful upon impact. The gift of faith is declaring the passion of our joined assurance that what is decreed is NOW. And that is the gift of faith. Covet earnestly this gift and ask Me to build it within you for your breakthrough.

To Touch You

TO TOUCH YOU
My dear, dear Bride. I want you. I want all of you. With great anticipation I have waited for the consummation of our mutual love. With longings too deep to be expressed, I have patiently waited all these years for you to overcome your fears and be set free to receive the fullest expressions of My love for you. I have held back and waited. I have yearned over you that you would come to a place to be able to receive. All of Me.

Sometimes I yearn to touch you with infinite tenderness as I am stirred by your gentle spirit. And sometimes when the intensity of waiting mounts, I come upon you suddenly, as an explosion of expression. There are so many places I long to take you in our journey of togetherness. Do not hold your heart back from Me. Trust Me that I only want the best for you and I long to give you the fullest expression of My love. Tangible and pure is My holy Presence as it comes upon you with refreshing waves of liquid love. Let My tangible anointing flood your being like the tides of the oceans that come and go. Then let My anointing build up like molten lava that bursts it lids upon impact. Violent in nature, but only violent through love. Break free dear Bride. All of you for all of Me.

Song 8:6-7 NKJV
Set me as a seal upon your heart, As a seal upon your arm; For love is as strong as death, Jealousy as cruel as the grave; Its flames are flames of fire, A most vehement flame. Many waters cannot quench love, Nor can the floods drown it. If a man would give for love all the wealth of his house, It would be utterly despised.

Independence Or Emancipation?

Roy Resh

How often we try to deceive ourselves by setting high, honorable goals, but miss the mark by ignoring their intent! In their Declaration of Independence from foreign rule, US founding fathers proclaimed that “all men are created equal." Blacks, native Americans, and yes, women too, weren't among the “all men” who were “equal,” and therefore “endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, …Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.”

Fifty-odd brave men signed this lofty Declaration, placing their lives and property on the line. At that time, “Pax Britannica” (British peace) prevailed in a far-flung, huge Empire upon which the "sun never set." Should the Colonies lose their war for independence from Britain, the signers would meet certain death at the hands of the earth’s most powerful nation. To the developed European world, the American colonies represented a disorganized coalition, a weak rebel rabble. And Britain was known to be fiercely protective of its authority in the day of the US Independence Declaration. Great blessings came out of the US revolution. Victory over Britain gave government “of the people, for the people, and by the people” an opportunity to prove itself. But five (the number of God's grace) prevalent areas of self-deception remain today to threaten the very existence of the US.

First: The mortal human soul is not generally known as distinct and separate from the *eternal human spirit. This error colors every aspect of American life, and promotes a culture of self satisfaction to the detriment of the human spirit. Often in the face of high, holy goals, Christian religious institutions commonly advance the soul to the detriment of the spirit.

Second: The denial that every human spirit has the same value, regardless of a person's flesh-based actions, be they good or evil. Although some correction for the definition of “men” was made, the US still lives with carry-over from early self-deception that denied minority rights.

Next: The widespread but false assumption that people are born good, and only need proper education and opportunity to do good in their lifetimes. Most religious and psychological professionals fail to even acknowledge that the human spirit ought to come alive to regulate the psyche (soul). Many professionals consider those who give proper credence to the human spirit's need for salvation and nurture to be victims of an illness to be treated rather than having a good grasp of vital, eternal truth. Were humans truly born ‘good,’ a Savior isn't needed to bring release from satan’s hell and our own self-serving natures. Then Christianity is a false religion.

Next: ‘Prosperity’ in a material sense is often substituted for a personal relationship with Jesus Christ as Bridegroom. Large elements of self-serving ‘Christianity’ have embraced US economic affluence as a sign of God's approval. This self-deception reduces the effectiveness of our economic, political, or religious leadership and is very dangerous to the spiritual and natural health of our generation. In the eyes of the world, America is becoming almost synonymous with greed and self-indulgence.

Finally: Our divine betrothal to the King of Heaven and earth is not properly emphasized. Undue trust in institutions, professions, and elevation of the written word (Holy Bible) over the Living Word (Jesus Christ)… are simply self-deception. Jesus guides the footsteps of the righteous, so each of us is called to be in moment-by-moment communion with Him.

The theory of evolution (now unequivocally proven invalid by the very existence of animal DNA) supported many of these false assumptions, Marriage and family relations are not simply human choices, they are established by God. It was Adam and Eve's choice to disobey God that opened the door to every earthly evil, and no nation or person is truly innocent in His sight. The high US founding goals seemed good to the majority, but God's judgment on the slavery error permitted a disastrous Civil War. God's anger then may have been light compared with His fury against a "Christian" nation that eagerly murders His unborn children. Like the Jews during Nazi German rule, conceived US children have lost their status as 'persons,' and with this went equal protection under our law. Babies are not a 'choice' of their mothers, they are a gift of God.

Every segment of our society is being been exposed to spiritual diseases created by self-deception, and internal collapse looms. We have yet to correct our sins. When war breaks out, many are often wounded or even killed by 'friendly fire.' We have become a self-deceived, religiously institutionalized people who injure each other with legalistic "Churchianity" traditions.

An old axiom states that those who embrace deeper truth will be reviled and mocked at first, but in the end will be honored, even if not by their own generation. Does anyone out there care enough to challenge the prevailing spiritual storm winds created by widely embraced error? Who will stand for the deep truth that humans are eternal spirits who temporarily live in natural bodies, and ought to be treated as such by every member of all societies? Think of the changes that will occur, and the blessings that will flow when self-deception ends and real truth prevails. Let emancipation of the spirit be so now! Amen & Amen.

Glory, Glory, Hallelujah!!

Investigation Pt 2
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite, Oct. 14, 2005

We trust that those of you who kept the Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur) with Beit Yeudah were blessed. Traditionally the book of Jonah is read during that day, but we felt to read the Gospel of John, as Yeshua is our redeemer and kippur and has a lot to say to us as our blood (life) covering.

Before continuing the letter from two weeks ago I want to share some scriptures from John (Yochanan) Chapter 14:

Yeshua said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me. If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also; and from now on you know Him and have seen Him." Philip said to Him, "Master, show us the Father, and it is sufficient for us." Yeshua said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and yet you have not known Me, Philip? He who has seen Me has seen the Father; so how can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in Me? The words that I speak to you I do not speak on My own authority; but the Father who dwells in Me does the works. Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father in Me, or else believe Me for the sake of the works themselves. Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father. "the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him; but you know Him, for He dwells with you and will be in you [or is in you].

"I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. A little while longer and the world will see Me no more, but you will see Me. Because I live, you will live also. At that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you" (John 14:6-19).

"That which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Yeshua the Messiah. And these things we write to you that your joy may be full" (1 John 1:3-4). May it be so!

Continuation from letter 287 [Investigation]

Following in the footsteps of the previous matriarchs, Joseph's mother was very much like her predecessors. Her womb was also barren and not capable of conception. Again, Elohim, with the power of bringing forth life from the dead, intervened in the womb of Rachel. She named her firstborn son, "Joseph", as she prayerfully and prophetically claimed a future of being "added to" (that is, having more children). It is perhaps noteworthy that immediately upon Joseph's birth, Jacob his father petitioned his uncle to let him return to his own country. Is there a connection between the 'emergence' of Joseph and returning to the land (Gen. 30:24-25)?

Joseph, while just an infant and perhaps even when still strapped to his mother, watched Rachel steal the household idols from her father. This disposition seemed to have affected Joseph's offspring in later years, as they too had a very strong propensity toward idol worship. Moreover, Joseph's mother was very jealous of her sister Leah, Judah's mother (ref. Gen 30:1). Could it have been the same jealousy that was manifest in the tribe of Ephraim, Joseph's son, in his relationship with Judah in later years, concerning which the Prophet had a few things to say (ref. Is. 11:13)? However, the attitude of Leah's children toward Yoseph, as we know, was non too benevolent either.

Little signs of favoritism, by Jacob towards his beloved Rachel's oldest, began to come into view at the outset, influencing decisions he made concerning his family. One such example was the family's journey home from Haran. Upon running into his brother Esau, who wanted at one time to kill him for stealing his birthright, Jacob divided up the family for protection and possible escape. As Esau approached Jacob's camp with 400 men, it is not hard to guess who was hidden, last in line, behind his mother (Gen. 33:2).

Joseph's brothers of course did not take kindly to this partiality, and began to despise him, as it became obvious that His father was grooming him for a special place in the family. Joseph had lost his mother, who died when giving birth to his brother Benjamin, and thus did not enjoy maternal protection during his formative years. Leah, whose children were his half brothers only, might have treated him more like a stepbrother. However, Jacob transferred all the love and affection he had for Rachel on to Yoseph. This became quite evident when special garments were being given to him that had, in fact, the markings of royalty. The brothers' enmity began to change to outright hatred, especially after Joseph gave an evil report about them to their father. The text makes it hard to know what Joseph's exact intentions were regarding his brothers, but the result was not a positive one. The brothers hated him even more, and to add insult to injury, Joseph had a number of dreams in accordance with which he was destined to a superior role in the family. Being a teenager, of course, he had no compunctions in letting everyone know about them. He was slowly putting the nails into his own coffin. As seen in previous scriptural stories, brothers who entertain enmity and hatred ultimately are led to contemplate murder. The Apostle John, in his Torah dissertation, put it this way: "Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer" (1 John 3:15). The similarity of these two attitudes is unmistakable.

Finally, the day came when the brothers had their opportunity to get rid of this 'spoilt brat' once and for all, but YHWH's sovereignty and purposes prevailed, proving the wisdom and accuracy of His word: "A man's heart plans his way, but YHWH directs his steps" (Proverbs 16:9). Thus the prophetic mystery unfolds. Joseph's brothers stripped him of the outer garment that identified him, he was thrown into a pit (a dried up water well) of darkness and despair, only to be dragged off later and be sold as a slave to some Midianite merchants who were carrying special herbs and barks used for the preservation (mummifying) of corpses in Egypt. Next the brothers killed a male goat and dipped in its blood Joseph's cloak, which they presented to their father.

Now that we have gathered some of the evidence, it is 'lab' time. We need to examine the data accumulated thus far about Joseph's life circumstances, and in the course of this review ask ourselves if and how it applies to what eventually was to take place in the chronicles of Joseph's 'House'.

Shabbat Shalom,

Ephraim

Immigration Or Migration

Ephraim Frank

June 10,2005
Shalom Fellow Israelite

In the past few weeks there have been a number of emails, and other cyber communications, that have been discussing the Ephraimites' return to the land of Israel. As we all know, at this time there are many complications involved in this move, the main one being the Messiah of the Ephraimites - Yeshua. There are those in Judah, especially amongst the Orthodox, who understand that the lost tribes must return before the Messiah Son of David comes. They are also awakening to the possibility that these Christians, who are returning to Torah and to their Hebraic roots and identity, are these very ones. But at the same time this issue is also at the heart of a dilemma, as in the eyes of the religious Jews, opening up the gates for the Ephraimites would mean admitting hordes of potential missionaries of a "false" Messiah. Moreover, if recognition of some form is granted to "gentile" Ephraimites who are believers in "that Man", what about the Jewish believers in this same Messiah, who also want to return and be recognized for what they believe?

For the past year we have been hearing of the formation of a Sanhedrin in Tiberius and Zefat. We did not pay much attention to this, as there is so much division in the camps of the Orthodox and ultra Orthodox that we did not think it possible for them to find enough common goals and grounds for such a feat. However, in recent weeks we were informed that this body indeed does exist, and looking at the list of Rabbis we realized its significance. One reason, among others, for such an alignment might be a strategic and tactical one, in face of the present political climate in which the disengagement/retreat plan is being put into force. But will it affect Ephraim's return?

While on the one hand the Sanhedrin is convening, there is another group of religious Jews, some of them Rabbis, who are making an attempt to create a political avenue or lobby, so that laws may be passed for this purpose and some form of acknowledgement be granted to "Ephraimites". However, in a discussion with one of those Rabbis, he told me that it was not feasible for the Ephraimite to maintain their Christian "position", as this would be a contradiction in terms and would give the idea that being a Christian makes one eligible for immigrating to Israel. I hope you can understand their dilemma.

More on the immigration issue, although from an entirely different angle: Recently I had two dreams that I thought might pertain somewhat to the Ephraimite return. In the first one, I was standing at dusk, looking toward the west I saw huge flocks of geese arising into the air. Upon awaking I felt that these geese represented Ephraim arising from the west during a period of growing darkness. The word that came to my mind just then was "migration", as geese many times make their way to their next destination by night. Migrating birds usually make many stops along the way. This brought to my attention a scripture from Jeremiah: "Set up signposts, make landmarks; set your heart toward the highway the way by which you went." (Jer 31:21).

A few days later, in another dream, the setting was daytime. I saw smaller flocks of geese flying in V formations. Suddenly one of the leaders would drop out and the flock would go into disarray for a time, until another one would take the lead, and then the others would fall in behind him. Again, upon awakening I felt that this somehow had to do with Ephraim's migration. During this period, or season, maybe even before the actual migration, the groups would gather with this "day light" revelation understanding. While "flying" out to their feeding grounds - congregations, conferences, tours, workshops, meetings etc - the leadership would alternate or even change altogether while the "flocks" would seem to be out of order during these times of transition, but would resume formation when the next leader would take his place.

Migration rather than immigration may or may not be YHVH's plan for Ephraim's return, but certainly it is worth considering, as YHVH knows the season and the hour for this to happen. We all know beyond a shadow of a doubt that the Ephraimites are on the horizon of YHVH's full restoration.

Blessings and Shabbat Shalom, Ephraim

I Preserve My Remnant

Sandy Warner

Apr 10, 2005

I PRESERVE MY REMNANT 11/19/04

Throughout the throngs of history's making
I've preserved a remnant not forsaken.
Having forged the way through straight and narrow,
There remains today My quickened arrow.

Pressed through denominations and movements,
Like diamonds constrained among sediment,
My jewels of glory find their compressed way
Amidst growing darkness in the last days.

My clock keeps ticking with the sands of time
While My own separate as wholly Mine.
In the fear of their God they do tremble,
As others fall away and disassemble.

I allow stumbling blocks to bring a wedge
Trying the hearts of all those who have pledged.
Every person must decide at the line.
Demarcation is My way, to help redefine.

In these last days all mixture will divide,
As men set their minds and hearts to decide.
Strong meat is here, the menu for the day.
Hard to be chewed, there is no other way.

The holy and the righteous will stand apart.
While the unjust and the filthy will depart.
In the world and in the church all will see
Who belongs to Me with great clarity.

The ones who belong, lay low in My fear
Lest they too are deceived from what they hear.
Those who are sure will have willful mind-sets
Repeating and rewinding old cassettes.

Those who have learned not to trust themselves
Will find the book of Truth upon My shelf.
It reveals the hearts of those that are tender
Having born the fruit of decisions rendered.

They have learned from their mistakes how to win,
To lean upon Me and walk away from sin.
While others play with fire without feeling heat,
My own know the real, having faced defeat.

Strangers that are there will no longer be
At one with My own, building unity.

It is sad for all when the line is drawn
As My glory arises at this break of dawn.

Those who are in the middle of despair
As they mourn over those no longer there,
Must find My truth, resisting compromise,
Uniting their stand among those who are wise.

They shall shine like stars in the blackened sky.
As the darkness presses in on those who deny
The Truth of My Word and all that it contains About My holy seed, the remnant that remains.

Behold great darkness shall cover the earth,
The people greatly squeezed amid its girth.
But those that know the glory of their Lord
Will have died to self and all that they hoard.

Know ye not the One Whose hand is Sovereign?
Turning the earth, stirring hearts, whisked to churn.
He's the final One Whom all men must face
To know glory or the shame of disgrace.

So humbly bow low before Your Maker.
Pray to discern and to know what is sure.
He will guide and preserve His precious seed,
As His glory arises through faith and deed.

They fear each step lest they fall away too,
Not hiding their light as the dawn breaks anew.
Putting deeds to their faith and walk each day,
As signs unto Him, pointing towards His way.

His remnant is alive overcoming history.
Preserving a holy remnant, is His mystery.
Soon to be revealed His fullness of redemption.
As His own make known their promise of adoption.

Isa 60:1-2 KJV
Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee. For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

Bitter Words
Sandy Warner

Apr 4, 2005

BITTER WORDS
Many who were trained behind the scenes to witness the humanity of failing leaders, were sent as intercessors to keep watch. Some were sent to share the Words of wisdom so that the failure to measure up would become openly manifested and change would thus occur. This brought some degree of repentance and change. Other messengers faced the fortified walls of stubborn wills, mind-sets and foreheads set like flint. Thus, I sent them to speak My Word in prayer that the strongholds would fall.

Of those intercessors who received My wisdom to accurately discern My Word, some failed to understand that this truth would not be received, if they shared it with those who lack a humble and teachable spirit. Thus, in sharing, they became bitter victims of the Word of truth they gave. They were left with frustration, anger and bitterness over the truths they saw in misaligned leadership.

Dear ones, it is time to allow Me to uproot the buried anger and bitterness of what you have accurately discerned. I long to confirm that you indeed have heard My voice and have been honed to know My truth. However, I am not able to send you again until you get the wounds healed from the bitter taste of your past. If I send you now, others will hear only your anger and not My truth. Release to Me the frustration you feel over what you see going on within the walls of the church, and release to Me your pain over facing the stubbornness of mankind. Once you are set free, I will again send you, but this time as a vessel of honor with My favor of open doors. You shall release My truth in love.

1 Peter 1:22-23 NKJV
Since you have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit in sincere love of the brethren, love one another fervently with a pure heart, having been born again, not of corruptible seed but incorruptible, through the word of God which lives and abides forever.

Eph 4:15 NKJV
But, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head — Christ —from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love.

I Stop To Listen
Sandy Warner

Apr 6, 2005

I STOP TO LISTEN
With all that goes on around Me, and all that I do in the earth and in heaven, I bow My ear low and listen. What you have to say, My Beloved, is important to Me. I stop to listen, yes, to you. I cherish your words of innocent trust, even when you have not seen Me. I AM impacted to hear your words of courage even when you do not hear My voice. I AM deeply moved when in spite of all that you have gone through in your testings, schooling and persecutions, you have chosen to stay faithful and committed in believing in My goodness and My Papa's heart for you, My dear child. Yes, I stop and listen, for your faith has touched Me more than you possibly know. It is your gift to Me, as you lean on Me for your sustenance, strength and support. How MUCH I love you, dear one, how very, very much. Thank you.

Mal 3:16 NLT
Then those who feared the LORD spoke with each other, and the LORD listened to what they said. In his presence, a scroll of remembrance was written to record the names of those who feared him and loved to think about him.

Ps 139:6 NLT
LORD, you have examined my heart and know everything about me. You know when I sit down or stand up. You know my every thought when far away. You chart the path ahead of me and tell me where to stop and rest. Every moment you know where I am. You know what I am going to say even before I say it, LORD. You both precede and follow me. You place your hand of blessing on my head. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too great for me to know!

Music Has Been Intercession
Sandy Warner

Apr 8, 2005

MUSIC HAS BEEN INTERCESSION
I planted My heart and vision in My Levites who have been called to serve Me in prayer through their musician skills. Having My passion to stay in the Holy Place of My heavenly vaporous cloud, they became grieved over what they have witnessed behind the scenes in men's agendas. They suffered great loss and wounds due to their understanding of truth that others would not hear.

You have a standing ovation from the cloud of witnesses for all that you have stood for and all that you have suffered. I want to bless these dear ones who have suffered for My sake, and who have only longed to return to My cloud where nothing else matters but just to abide in My Presence. Let Me breathe upon you once again, and bring you back to life, My dear faithful Levites. I will repair and restore your losses and make you stronger than before. I AM beneath you 100%, I will raise you up.

2 Kings 3:15-17 NKJV
"But now bring me a musician ." Then it happened, when the musician played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him. And he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'Make this valley full of ditches.' For thus says the LORD: 'You shall not see wind, nor shall you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, so that you, your cattle, and your animals may drink.'

Israel - Replacement or Restoration?

Bill Somers

> Romans 10:1 Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.
> Romans 11:28
> 28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes.

For this article, the Lord has instructed us to deal with, or target, the doctrine of Replacement Theology. This is the teaching that says, because Israel broke their covenant with God, that they are forever, irrevocably cut off from the covenant promises of God. We are going to look at it in a couple forms and consider several levels of argument against it.

We will mention some articles by various writers as we go along, for convenience, we'll list the references first, plus a couple other interesting tidbits, with links directly to those files.

David Michael The Vision of the Return of Christ

The first step is to consider the source of the teaching. The second is to look at the fruit of it. We'll examine how it fails to consider both sides of the question, the outer appearance and the inner remnant, and how it does not consider the typology of Israel and The Church. Finally we will look at scriptural refutations and examine the end time pattern closely. Also we will not waste any time quibbling over who is a Jew, or who is a Hebrew, or who is an Israelite.

So what is Replacement Theology?
We will look at several definitions.

> Michael L Brown writes:
> Look at how relevant God's prophetic word is to our day and age. For centuries the Church, in arrogance, because of ignorance, claimed that she alone was the true Israel, that she had replaced the ancient covenant people. The Church taught that it was the Christians alone who were the true Jews. (How strange that these Christians were not claiming to be Jewish during the Holocaust!) The Church taught emphatically that the physical people of Israel (those who were ethnically Jewish and those who joined the nation through conversion to Judaism) were eternally rejected.

Here's a quote from a group that teaches Replacement Theology.

> "Whatever the Jews, as a nation, may do, now or in the time to come, is in no way related to the former promises made to them. With the crucifixion of Christ they forever forfeited their special position as God's chosen people. Any idea that the return of the Jews to their ancestral home, that is, to the new state of Israel, may in any way be related to Bible prophecy is the > product of wishful thinking on the part of misguided, even if sincere, religious enthusiasts, and is without valid Scriptural foundation." (Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, Vol. 4, p. 33)

Note what's being said here in that last quote from a solid Replacement Theology church. That is: The restoration of the Nation and State of Israel has nothing to do with bible prophecy. Talk about denying the obvious! That's like saying lightning has nothing to do with thunder

> Derek Prince writes:
> In ministering to the body of Christ, I have discovered that many Christians find fault with God because He is restoring the Jewish people—and they feel the Jews don't deserve it. But that is the very essence of favor: getting what you don't deserve. One result of that way of thinking is "replacement theology," which claims that because the Jews have fallen out of favor with God, all of their promises default to the church.
> By implication, "the church" does deserve God's favor. But this leaves me with an unresolved problem. In more than sixty years of ministry, I have yet to discover a church that actually does deserve God's favor.

Note here how Prince, with elegant simplicity, nails the key issue of grace, Gods undeserved favor. He says the very essence of favor: getting what you don't deserve.

> Ephesians 2:8 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:
> 9 Not of works, lest any man should boast.

It was Derek Prince who came up with the idea of parallel restoration. That is that Israel is being restored and at the same time the Church is being restored. This was based on comparisons of parallel events in recent history. Zionism became popular early in the 20th century while the church was having a the great Pentecostal revival. Israel became a state about the time of the great postwar healing revival. The recapture of Jerusalem took place about the time of the Charismatic renewal. So restoration was happening to both groups at the same time.
Back to our topic.

> Clarence H. Wagner, Jr. writes:
> Perhaps you have heard of the term Replacement Theology. However, if you look it up in a dictionary of Church history, you will not find it listed as a systematic study. Rather, it is a doctrinal teaching that originated in the early Church. It became the fertile soil from which Christian anti-Semitism grew and has infected the Church for nearly 1,900 years.
> Replacement Theology was introduced to the Church shortly after Gentile leadership took over from Jewish leadership. What are its premises?

He lists 5:

1. Israel (the Jewish people and the land) has been replaced by the Christian Church in the purposes of God, or, more precisely, the Church is the historic continuation of Israel to the exclusion of the former.
2. The Jewish people are now no longer a "chosen people." In fact, they are no different from any other group, such as the English, Spanish, or Africans.
3. Apart from repentance, the new birth, and incorporation into the Church, the Jewish people have no future, no hope, and no calling in the plan of God. The same is true for every other nation and group.
4. Since Pentecost of Acts 2, the term "Israel," as found in the Bible, now refers to the Church.
5. The promises, covenants and blessings ascribed to Israel in the Bible have been taken away from the Jews and given to the Church, which has superseded them. However, the Jews are subject to the curses found in the Bible, as a result of their rejection of Christ.

There is one more form of Replacement thinking that is sometimes found in the writings of teachers who are strongly anti-dispensational or anti pretrib rapture. This variation says that the Church has not replaced Israel but that the Church is Israel. By this they mean that God's covenant was never with the people of Old Israel as a whole but only with those within that nation who were truly believers. And so the congregation of Israel today consists of all the believers who put their faith in Jesus. So that we call the church as a believing body is just a continuation of the congregation of Israel from old testament times. That's what they mean by saying the church is Israel.

Wagner puts it like this: the Church is the historic continuation of Israel to the exclusion of the former …

We will look more at this idea later. Now while this is not strictly saying the church has replaced Israel, the results are the same as far as the attitude toward modern Israel. Modern Israel is totally disregarded.

Pt. One. The Source Of This Teaching.

Sometimes it's a good idea to consider the source. Who teaches and believes Replacement Theology?

Below is a list of the 25 largest churches in America. [I don't have any data for worldwide membership.] The churches that are highlighted in bold or have an 'R' after them are confirmed replacement theology churches.

So what is the point here?
The churches that embrace Replacement Theology 14, out of 25, are in general, not Spirit Filled. Also the ministries and teachers that you see embrace Replacement Theology are usually not Spirit Filled.

On the other side, most of those in this list that are not in boldface are dispensational in doctrine. They are various brands of Baptist, and Pentecostal churches [Bapticostal] They teach pretrib, and emphasize a strict division between Israel and the Church. You will find that while all these are well versed in the word of God, they are still a bit immature when it comes to understanding that word. The Baptists are certainly not Spirit Filled and the Pentecostals have all, for some odd reason, borrowed their teachings on prophecy from their doctrinal enemies. Go figure!

Well you may say, who does that leave? Well it leaves a great number of Spirit Filled teachers and prophetic ministries, who actually hear from God. Furthermore, rarely, if ever, will you find any of these ever teaching Replacement. Quite the contrary, they will usually emphasize support for Israel. And they will share God's heart for the salvation of the Jewish people. That should be a big clue; in fact that should be all the convincing you need. Man can argue scriptures with earthly wisdom but He that Hath an Ear will hear.

To put it another way, Replacement Theology is a product of man's wisdom, or maybe it's a doctrine of demons. Either way, looking at the source tells us a lot. Mature Ministries that draw upon God's 'wisdom from above' do not teach this doctrine.

Pt. Two – The Fruit of Replacement Theology

> Matthew 7:20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

Briefly, The Fruit of Replacement Theology is Anti-Semitism and persecution of the Jews. Beside that, it introduces utter confusion into prophetic studies. Of course eschatology, i.e. prophetic studies of the end times, is full of utter confusion anyway! This just muddies the waters even more.

Christian Anti-Semitism through the centuries.

The antagonism towards the Jews quickly became a theme among the early church fathers. Among the first were:

Justin Martyr (c. AD 160)
Irenaeus, Bishop of Lyon (c. AD 177)
Tertullian (AD 160-230)
Hilary of Poitiers (AD 291-371)
Eusebius In the early 4th century
St. Jerome (AD 347-407)
Gregory of Nyssa, Bishop of Cappadocia (died AD 394), John Chrysostom, the Bishop of Antioch, at the end of the 4th century and the great St. Augustine who tackled this issue in his "Sermon Against the Jews."

Anti Jewish rhetoric was present in the Church Council in Elvira (Spain) in AD 305, the Edict of Milan issued in AD 313 and the Council of Nicea (AD 325).
By the Middle Ages, the teachings of Christian anti-Semitism were solidly established.

The result of these anti-Jewish teachings continued onwards throughout Church history, producing such events and actions as the Crusades, the Inquisition, the ghettoes, the pogroms. Even the great Martin Luther and other reformation leaders fell into this error.

Ultimately, the Hitler Holocaust was 'justified' by such thinking. Today we also see it in the writings of those who deny that Israel has any right to the land, or any right to exist. Some even go so far as to openly side with Islamic Palestinian activists in opposing Israel.

Clarence Wagner writes about the bad fruit in greater detail. :

> What Happens When the Church Replaces Israel?
> 1) The Church becomes arrogant and self-centered.*

> 2) It boasts against the Jews and Israel.
> 3) It devalues the role of Israel or has no role for Israel at all.
> 4) These attitudes result in anti-Semitism in word and deed.
> 5) Without a place for Israel and the Jewish people today, you cannot explain the Bible prophecies, especially the very specific ones being fulfilled in Israel today.
> 6) Many New Testament passages do not make sense when the Jewish people are replaced by the Church.
> 7) You can lose the significance of the Hebrew Scriptures, the Old Testament, for today. Many Christians boast of being a New Testament (NT) Christian or a NT Church as in the Book of Acts. However, the Bible of the early Church was not the New Testament, which did not get codified until the 4th century, but rather the Hebrew Scriptures.
> 8) You can lose the Hebraic/Judaic contextualization of the New Testament, which teaches us more about Yeshua and how to become better disciples.
> 9) The Church loses out on the opportunity to participate in God's plan and prophecy for the Church, Israel and the world today.

Of this list, 3 and 5 stand out especially. If you follow Replacement Theology you get to a point where you teach that God has no end time dealings with Israel at all. You can’t explain the prophecies being fulfilled today. You have to argue that the rebirth of Israel in 1948 has nothing to do with prophecy. And you have to explain away a host of other passages and prophecies still remaining to be fulfilled. The battle of Armageddon for example, gets ‘spiritualized away’ by some writers. Some, called preterists, even go so far as to try and make you think that all of Revelation has already happened and Jesus has already returned! Like they say, be careful where you buy a used car!

Pt. Three – The Outer Appearance And The Inner Remnant

Asher Intrater in his article The Destiny of Nations states that in every nation there are two groups of people in God’s view. They are the general population and the believing remnant. The general populace is the mass of sinful rebellious people [like an outer shell] and a group of true born-again followers of Jesus [the inner core]. Of course God sees and deals with both. Man usually misses it.

> 1st Samuel 16:7 But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart*.*

He gives China as one example, a very wicked national government over a nation that has a very large underground church. His second example is the Palestinians, of all people. Here the leaders openly practice terror and oppression, yet there is a remnant of faithful Christian Arabs amongst them.

Then he challenges us to examine our attitude toward Israel. Do we see a nation led by atheist politicians and unbelieving Rabbi’s? Or, do we see that there is a believing remnant there. He cites the Lord’s rebuke to Elijah, as quoted in Romans 11 as a corrective example.

> Romans 11:2 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,
> 3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.
> 4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.
> 5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

Israel idolatry and Replacement theology.
If we miss seeing this we may end up in one of two errors that are polar opposites. Let me quote him directly.

> If you continue to try to see the spiritual destiny and purpose of Israel by looking only at the > unbelievers, you will only get confused either on one side or the other. Either you might become an "Israel-worshipper"; in which case you might start believing that a right-wing politician or religious rabbi is saved just because he can quote some things from the Bible.

> On the other hand, you might end up in "Replacement Theology", rejecting God's plan for Israel altogether because you say, ‘These people are not spiritual and not believers in Yeshua. Therefore they can't be Israel; and God has no special destiny for this nation.’ That is also a grave mistake. Both Israel idolatry and Replacement theology are errors. Both come from the mistake of missing the role of the Messianic remnant within the nation. The Messianic Remnant provides the correction for both Israel idolatry and Replacement theology.

Israel Idolatry is the unquestioning support of the State of Israel as a political entity, regardless of it’s policies. It is going far beyond supporting Israel and affirming her right to exist. In some cases this is called Christian Zionism. Commonly it’s a byproduct of dispensationalism, [try saying that 3 times real fast], which teaches the pre-tribulation rapture.

Replacement theology, as we have seen, goes back much farther in history. But in our time it is strengthened by a backlash [over-reaction] against dispensationalism.

Intrater sees the role of the Messianic remnant in Modern Israel to be the same as the remnant’s was in the time of Elijah, and the time when the book of Romans was written. And the existence of this remnant is why God has not cast off his people.

Pt. Four – Typology of Israel and the Church.

Types are pictures, figures, images, or patterns. The trendy buzzword for type is paradigm. The idea is derived from the word for footprint. A footprint gives the outline of the foot that made it; it’s just that the outline is not always a perfect outline. So type in a typewriter or in printing leaves a footprint on the page in the shape of the piece of type that made it. There is a built in vagueness that limits what you can do with types. The idea of a type comes into play when there are two things that resemble each other in some way, but not necessarily all. You can get the idea from the word similitude which is used in one place in the King James Version; it just means a comparison of things that are similar. Allegories are stories involving types, so are parables.
The idea that there is typology when it comes to Israel and the Church is contained in the following verse from first Corinthians, here the key word is example.

> First Corinthians 10:11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

This scripture is speaking of things that happened to the people of Israel that Moses led out of Egypt, and to Israel in general as recorded in the old testament. We must look upon them as examples and warnings for the church, especially as we move into the end times. This should serve as a clue that Israel can be considered as a type of the church. Here are some points to compare.

Israel is a group of people separated out from among all the nations to be holy unto the Lord.

The Church is also a group of people called out from among the nations of the world to be a special and holy before God.

Israel’s history is a continual cycle of falling away and coming back to God. God moves mightily on behalf of his people and delivers them from oppression. The following generation forgets God, and they are eventually turned over to an oppressor. Then the people return to God and cry for mercy. Then God delivers them once again.

The Church has a similar history of backsliding and revival in cycles. God grants a revival or awakening and many are saved. Later the people backslide again. As conditions get worse, some begin to pray and God visits them with another revival.

Israel is and was dedicated to God but always wanted to be like all the other nations.

The Church is supposed to be separate and not like the world, but is always slipping into worldly ways.

Israel is waiting for the coming of the Messiah.

The Church is waiting for the Second Coming of The Lord Jesus Christ.

Basically typology is a comparison or analogy. Old testament scripture that speaks of Israel or of certain places in Israel denotes God's people. Since we understand that the church is God's people, much of this scripture also can speak to the church. The typology of Israel and the Church also means that references to Israel, Jerusalem, Zion and the Temple, when they are prophetic, will often also refer to the Church. See my article, The Shape of Things To Come.

Typology must be witnessed by the Holy Spirit. Many cannot grasp it because they are using man's logic. For example, we say Israel is a type of the church. This means there are scriptures where Israel is mentioned and we can see, if we have eyes to see, that these apply equally to the church. Yet man's logic insists on all or none. It is based purely on our own limited understanding. When someone finds a scripture where 'Israel' clearly does not apply, they toss out the whole idea.

For example, the first time we find the word Israel is in Genesis 32.

> Genesis 32:28
> 28 And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

Here the scoffer would say that according to typology, God is saying Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but the Church. Well that's just plain silly! Let's use a little of that rare commodity, common sense, people!

Here are other verses where it's perfectly acceptable to substitute 'the church' for 'Israel'.

> Psalms 22:3
> 3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel.
> Luke 1:68
> 68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people,
> Ezekiel 43:10
> 10 Thou son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the pattern.
> Daniel 9:11
> 11 Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

So what is what?

If the church has not replaced Israel, then what? Some say the Church is the church and Israel is Israel; they are totally different. Others say the church is Israel. Which is it?

Intrater provides us with one way to resolve this. You can look at physical Israel and compare it with the physical or cultural church. Clearly these are different. But if you look at the believing remnant, the spiritual side, then they are the same.

We can say that the Church is the continuation of ancient Israel but not to the exclusion of modern or ethnic Israel. But we're talking about the believing remnant of the church as a continuation of the believing remnant of ancient Israel. This should be clear enough since we mean those who are standing on faith in the promises, and Habakkuk 2: says this.

> Habakkuk 2:4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.

And Hebrews 10 quotes this verse.

> Hebrews 10:38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

God’s People

A third way to look it is to say Israel and the Church are related by typology. Since we understand that Israel is God’s people, and we know that the church is God’s people, much of the scripture that talks about Israel also can speak to the church. New testament scripture tells us that the church is to be God’s dwelling place, a temple made up of living stones. This means that any old testament scripture which refers to God’s dwelling place, can also speak to the church. The dwelling place can be describes as a tent, a tabernacle, a house or a temple. One common use of types of this sort is when people quote Haggai and apply it to the church.

> Haggai 2:9 The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

Here Haggai is speaking of the rebuilt temple after the exiles returned from Babylon. Using typology, you substitute ‘church’ for ‘house’ and contrast the former and latter in a special way. Since ‘latter’ is used to mean latter day or end time, the ‘latter house’ therefore speaks of the end time church, and the former house speaks of the early church. Presenting it this way makes this scripture from Haggai a prophetic verse that in effect says the following. The glory of the end time church will be greater than that of the early church. Notice that typology is used twice here. First to compare the house of God, the temple with the church, and secondly to use the early church as a type of the end time church.

We mentioned earlier that God’s people are a group called out from among the nations. The first instance is Israel, which God chose from among the nations to be a holy people. The second instance is the church, who are the called out ones, believers from all nations. The third instance is the USA, made up of peoples from all nations. The pattern is the same in each case.

If we look these as Intrater suggests, the pattern continues. Each one has two elements, the outer appearance and the inner remnant. The institutional church, i.e. the ‘church system’ or organized religion is corrupt and ripe for judgment. At the same time the inner remnant is interceding to delay or mollify that judgment. Outwardly the USA, [and the other nations] are corrupt and ripe for judgment. While the inner remnant yet intercedes. The church system is often seen as Babylon; while many others offer proof that the USA is Babylon. Since the pattern is the same, could both be correct?

The Church of Israel?

The terms kahal [congregation in Hebrew], church [English], and ecclesia [called out in Greek] all mean the same thing. Only today we see a nation and people of Israel and a global movement of Christianity not linked to any one nation or people.

God’s Israel or God’s people. These should be seen as one group, the elect of God. This is so even if they are from Pre-Flood times, Old testament, New testament or End times. [so called tribulation saints]

Did the Church begin at Pentecost? Some say yes in Acts 2 and others say yes, in Exodus. But if God’s people are one group, then it goes back all the way to Adam and includes anyone who was justified by having faith in God’s promises. Like they say, it all depends on what you mean. So be careful when jumping to conclusions. Which is exactly what replacement theology does.

Judgment Begins At The House Of God

We spoke of scriptures that speak directly of Israel also possibly applying to the church. Here are a pair of verses, saying about the same thing, that mention Zion and Jerusalem.

> Jeremiah 26:18 Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.
> Micah 3:12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

Here Zion and Jerusalem apply both to Israel and to the church. This prophecy was partly fulfilled in ancient times, and yet also refers to Judgments yet to come on both the church and Israel. For we know that judgment has to begin at the 'house of God.' And of course the term 'house of God' is another way of expressing 'God's People' namely Israel and the church. This is how Israel and the church the paradox makes sense. Israel and the church are the same, yet different.

> 1 Peter 4:17
> 17 For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

Modern Israel and Jacob's Trouble
Here is a passage from Exodus that contains some prophetic typology. In this case it's not a case of Israel and the Church, but ancient Israel and Modern Israel.

> Exodus 3:18-21
> 18 And they shall hearken to thy voice: and thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and ye shall say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath met with us: and now let us go, we beseech thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.
> 19 And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not by a mighty hand.
> 20 And I will stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and after that he will let you go.

It breaks down like this. The king of Egypt is a type of Satan, and Egypt is the world. The king of Egypt has the Children of Israel, the Jews, in bondage [blindness]. The three days journey speaks of the end times. The Lord smiting Egypt with all his wonders speaks of the end time judgments of the tribulation. After that he will let you go speaks of the final deliverance of the Jews after the tribulation, [at the second coming]. This will have a bearing on the last segment of our discussion.

Pt. Five – Refutations from Scripture – What Does the Bible Say?

Here are the most common proof texts for Replacement Theology.

> Romans 4:13
> 13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

This is used to shore up the claim that the Church inherits the world, and not Israel. What it is actually saying is the heir of the world will inherit by faith, not by the law. This does not automatically exclude the Jews at all. It just brings out the importance of faith.

> Matthew 21:43
> 43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

This is given to support the idea that Jesus taught that the Jews would lose their spiritual privileges, and be replaced by another people. Here is the passage in context.

> Matthew 21:42-45
> 42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?
> 43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.
> 44 And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.
> 45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

Here in verse 25, you can see that Jesus is speaking of the Chief Priests and leaders of the people, not to the nation as a whole.

Even if it is talking about a nation it can’t possibly mean that the church has replaced Israel. Why? Because the church has not brought forth the fruits of the kingdom either. Jesus can say the exact same thing to today’s church: The kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a new generation of end time overcomers who will in fact produce the fruit God is looking for. Do you see the typology of Israel and the Church here? The church has failed to produce, just like ancient Israel failed. Here ancient Israel is not an example for the church, her fate is a prophecy for the church.

Next case:

> Romans 2:28-29
> 28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:
> 29 But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.
> Galatians 3:6-9
> 6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.
> 7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.
> 8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.
> 9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.
> Galatians 3:29
> 29 And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

These verses show the importance of faith being needed to inherit the promise. But they do not say anything about Israel being replaced by the church or cut off in any way. So go figure!

God’s Instrument
Some believers think of God’s people, Israel, as his servant or instrument. That is in playing a part in the story of mankind’s redemption.

The land and people played the central role in the first coming of Messiah, and they are destined to play a central part in the Second Coming. The church also plays a part but it has not taken over Israel’s part. In fact several scriptures indicate that if the people of Israel are not in the Land of Israel, there would be no second coming of Jesus.

Restoration Of Israel
Here are some of the passages which speak of the restoration of Israel. Of course, it God is finished with Israel, how do you explain that they began to be fulfilled in the post war years? I mean how can someone say that the rebirth of the State of Israel in 1948 is just a coincidence? Or how can they claim that it has nothing to do with bible prophecy, and still expect to be taken seriously?

> Isaiah 11:11-12
> 11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.
> 12 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.
> Jeremiah 16:14-15
> 14 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;
> 15 But, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.
> Jeremiah 31:35-37
> 35 Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name:
> 36 If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.
> 37 Thus saith the LORD; If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD.
> Isaiah 54:6-10
> 6 For the LORD hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.
> 7 For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.
> 8 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer.

It would be easy to come up with dozens more quotes that say similar things. The bible is full of them.

Here are some notes from Michael Brown:

> What if Israel broke the covenant? What would then happen to them? Listen to these unmistakably clear truths: "Though I completely destroy all the nations among which I scatter you, I will not completely destroy you. I will discipline you but only with justice; I will not let you go entirely unpunished" (Jeremiah. 30:11). God will completely destroy other nations, but He will not completely destroy Israel! He treats His people differently from other people; they are judged more strictly, but they will never be wiped out.
> This is not some worn-out old doctrine. It is on the increase again in our day. Yet the Lord is not surprised. Twenty-five hundred years ago, He already addressed this issue:
> The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: " Have you not noticed that these people are saying, 'The LORD has rejected the two kingdoms He chose?' So they despise My people and no longer regard them as a nation. This is what the LORD says: 'If I have not established My covenant with day and night and the fixed laws of heaven and earth, then I will reject the descendants of Jacob and David My servant and will not choose one of his sons to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes and have compassion on them' " (Jer.33:23-26)
> Not only did He promise to bless Abraham and make him into a great nation; not only did He promise to multiply his seed; not only did He promise to make him the father of many nations; not only did He promise to bless those who blessed him and curse those who cursed him; He also promised Abraham the land of Canaan, with clearly defined borders, as an everlasting inheritance to his natural descendants –until this earth is no more.
> Amazingly, some teachers have tried to get out of this perpetual land promise to Israel. They claim that in the New Testament, neither Jesus nor the apostles ever reiterate this particular aspect of the covenant. But why should they reiterate it? When almost all of the New Testament was being written, about one million Jews were living in the Land, Jerusalem was the spiritual and national capitol and the Temple was still standing. And Jesus made it clear that, despite Jerusalem’s soon-coming destruction – a destruction that would last "until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled" – He would come back to a Jewish Jerusalem (Luke 21:24; Matt. 23:37-39).Obviously Jews would be in the Land!
> His covenant with Abraham is just as unconditional and everlasting as His covenant with David. Read Genesis 15carefully. In ancient days, that is how covenants were made. Sacrificial animals were cut in two and their severed bodies placed in two lines. Both parties entering into the covenant would then walk between the carcasses. By doing so they were symbolically saying, "If I break this binding agreement, if I fail to uphold my side of the pact, then let me suffer the same fate that these animals have suffered." But something was different in Genesis 15. Only God passed through the pieces! This was a one-way deal (see Gen.15:17-21)
> God's covenant with Abraham is just as unconditional and everlasting as His covenant with the Church. The Lord "saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of His mercy" (Titus 3:5). Praise God, we were chosen by grace! But we are not the only recipients of the Lord's unmerited favor. To Israel, Moses said:
> The LORD did not set His affection on you and choose you because you were more numerous than other peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples. But it was because the LORD loved you and kept the oath He swore to your forefathers that he brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you from the land of slavery, from the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt (Deut. 7:7-8).

> Sounds familiar, doesn't it? God's covenants with Israel and with the Church are based on His promise, not our performance.
> Old Testament Israel and the new Testament Church both stood, and still stand, by grace. Both received God's eternal promises. Together we make up the family of God: The faithful ones of Israel and the chosen ones from every nation become one new man out of the two, one body, one people. "For through Him[Jesus!] we both have access to the Father by one Spirit" (Eph. 2:18). Great is the wisdom of God.

Derek Prince wrote:

> The current restoration of the Jewish people is a unique mark of God's favor. In God's calendar, there is a set time to favor Zion. I believe we are either living in it now or we are approaching it.
> There are two words in that verse that describe something we can never earn: favor and mercy. The very fact that we need mercy means we cannot earn it.

Part 6 - Return To The Lord

Replacement Theology affects your understanding of scripture in 2 major areas.

1. The return of the Jews to their land, and
2. The salvation of the Jews in the Day of the Lord.

To put it another way the two issues are Return to the Land and Return to the Lord! Clearly a great number of Jews have returned to the land, and a great number more shall return in days to come. But also it's quite clear that they have not yet returned to the Lord. You still have the veil of blindness on Israel and they are still enemies of the gospel as Romans 11 indicates. We have pretty well covered Return to the Land in the previous section. So let's get into the most important area, Return to the Lord.

The Redemption Of Natural Israel

The key question is will All Israel be saved? And how and when will they be saved? Or to put it another way, what exactly does it mean in Romans 11 when it says:

> Romans 11:26 And so all Israel shall be saved: ….

In a larger context, we have an end time sequence of events that form a finale to all that God has done. These are: a time of great tribulation, signs in the heavens, the second coming of Jesus Christ, the resurrection of the dead [life from the dead], translation of the remnant, the redemption of natural Israel, and the final battle. All this happens in roughly the order given. The redemption of natural Israel is the sticking point. It can mean one of two things.

A. That all the Jews remaining alive after the tribulation will be saved, all at once, or it can mean:
B. That only a tiny remnant of the Jews remaining alive at that time will be saved.

Replacement Theology, or any theory which says that God has no more dealings with Israel will pick item B. This thinking is especially common to those who claim that the Church has not replaced Israel but that the Church is Israel. They deny that Israel has any claim to the Land, that God is through with them as a nation and that in the end only a remnant will be saved. And that remnant saved will be by means of the same repentance and acceptance of Jesus as any other people. Here they imply that it will only be a tiny minority, like the 2-3% of the population that are saved in normal times. This is stressed heavily in their writings to counter the Dispensationalist claim that ALL ISRAEL will be saved and have a physical earthly kingdom, ruling over the earth with Jesus as King and it's capitol in Jerusalem. While the church, an entirely different entity will have a spiritual kingdom in the heavens. A typical case, and the source of these arguments is I Want To Be Left Behind by Ted Noel.

The major arguments against Israel’s redemption en masse are the following.

- Romans 11:26 is being misinterpreted.
- God’s covenant was only to those who believed, not to all Jews.
- Romans 9:27 states that only a remnant will be saved.
- God makes no distinction between Greek and Jew, and since he does not play favorites, he would not grant mass salvation to one group of people.
- Hosea’s prophecy of restoration applies to the Gentiles, not the Jews.

Rebuttals

Lets start with the first, that Romans 11:26 is being misinterpreted.

> Romans 11:26 And so all Israel shall be saved: ….

Some critics of this notion [mass salvation of the Jews] state that in Romans 11:26 where it says ‘And so all Israel shall be saved’ has two problems. First to think that ‘so’ can be understood as then when it should be translated as in like manner, or thusly. This approach says it means ‘in this manner all Israel shall be saved’. The manner in they are talking about is the process of repentance and being graft back into the olive tree as described in vs. 23 and 24.

And second that ‘all Israel’ can’t possibly mean ‘all Israel’. [Duh!] No seriously, the idea is that ‘all Israel’ has to mean Israel and the church. In this case, one can only be talking about the believing remnant, not the whole of physical Israel alive at the time. Or, it must mean, all who are of Israel throughout the age. And this cannot be since we are told only a remnant would be saved. Do you follow that?

Well lets look at the Strong’s definition of the word they translate as ‘so’ in verse 26. You’ll notice the parts in bold show that it can be translated either or both ways.

> [Greek. 3779] houto (hoo'-to)
> adverb from 3778; in this way (referring to what precedes or follows):--after that, after (in) this manner, as, even (so), for all that, like(-wise), no more, on this fashion(-wise), so (in like manner), thus, what.

So which way fits the context? Look again at these key verses.

> Romans 11:25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.
> 26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:
> 27 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.
> 28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes.

If ‘so’ in verse 26 means ‘after that’, then ask yourself, after what? After the fullness of the Gentiles comes in is what. Then in following we read: There shall come … the deliverer, who shall turn away ungodliness, and shall take away their sin. Three ‘shalls’ in rapid fire succession that tell what happens next. So this has to be talking about a before and after situation. The sequence is that first the full number of Gentiles come in, then the blindness is removed from Israel and then they are saved, because God takes away their sin.

Who does this happen to? Jacob! All Israel! The gentile church can’t be the subject here because, it happens after the fullness of the Gentiles is come in. Here are some Old Testament quotes that say the same thing.

> Isaiah 59:20-21
> 20 And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.
> 21 As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

> Jeremiah 31:34
> 34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

Therefore saying Romans 11:26 means ‘then all Israel will be saved’ makes perfect sense.

Now lets look at the question of what do we mean by ‘all’ in ‘all Israel’. The scripture usually cited at this point is from Romans 9:

> Romans 9:27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

The verses just before that are then taken to refer only to the salvation of the Gentiles, not the restoration of the Jews. [This is done in spite of the very mention of the Jews in verse 24.]

> Romans 9:24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?
> *25 As he saith also in Osee, [Hosea] I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.*
> 26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.

Also those that argue against ALL Israel being saved have to ignore quite a few parts of the bible. One of them following right on after Romans 9 is Romans 10: 1

> Romans 10:1 Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

Here God is saying he wants Israel to be saved. [God can speak to himself in the third person and get away with it because he is a trinity.]

Now lets take a closer look at the logic of saying only a remnant will be saved. One idea is that in the end times there will only be a small number of Jews saved, just like any other people. To accept this view, [B] you have to ignore a lot of scripture and interpret others in special ways.
The other view [A] is that all Israel will be saved in the end. To see this we will look at a lot of the scripture that supports it.

The support for the remnant idea is this verse from Romans 9; it refers back to Isaiah 10:

> Romans 9:27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

> Isaiah 10:20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.
> 21 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God.
> 22 For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness.

> 23 For the Lord GOD of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land.

This passage, in verse 20, is talking about a remnant of Israel that survives through a series of judgments and afflictions, so it is a minority of them that make up the remnant. But at the same time it's saying all those who are part of the remnant turn to the Lord.

So it all hinges on your understanding of 'all' in 'all Israel'. It's clearly not all the Children of Israel from all time, but it certainly speaks of all of them who survive and are alive at the time. That is all of the remnant, not a tiny fraction. This passage from Isaiah 4 says something quite similar. He that is left in Zion is the same as saying all of the remnant.

> Isaiah 4:
> 2 In that day shall the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel.
> 3 And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion*, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem:*
> 4 When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning.

Also compare the Lord shall have washed away the filth to Romans 11:27 where it says: I shall take away their sins.

> Romans 11:26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:
> 27 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

What the Lord is saying is he will save all the remnant on that day by taking away their sins. Later we will look at just exactly how he does that.

The next point to refute is this.

- God makes no distinction between Greek and Jew, and since he does not play favorites, he would not grant mass salvation to one group of people over another.

We find this in Galatians 3. [Also Colossians 3:10-11]

> Galatians 3:26-29
> 26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.
> 27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.
> 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.
> 29 And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

These verses speak of those who are already in the Kingdom and baptized into Christ. There is still a difference between Jew and Gentile before they come into the faith. Once again Romans 11:27 speaks of 'my covenant with them' i.e. the Jews.

Next the idea that God does not play favorites comes from such verses as these:

> Acts 10:34
> 34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:
> Romans 2:11
> 11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

These verses are talking about individuals only, not tribes or nations, so it's a mistake to use them in trying to deny God's covenant with Israel.

Then there is the idea that Hosea's prophecy of salvation for those who were not my people applies to the Gentiles, not the Jews. Which is to say that the salvation promised in Romans 9:25 refers to the Gentiles mentioned in verse 24. In spite of the fact that the Jews are mentioned in verse 24 also.

Even if you fall for that one, there are other promises of restoration found in Hosea, which clearly focus on the Jews; Here we go.

> Hosea 1:10
> 10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.
> Hosea 2:23
> 23 And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

This is the verse quoted in Romans 9:25. Next quote:

> Hosea 3:5
> 5 Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days.
> Hosea 5:14-15
> 14 For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.
> 15 I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

In the verses above, the Lord is speaking about how he will tear them as a lion, and go away till they repent and seek him. Below Israel is speaking about how they have been torn, and now they will seek their God once again.

> Hosea 6:1-3
> 1 Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.
> 2 After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.
> 3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.
> Hosea 13:14
> 14 I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction: repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.
> Hosea 14:1-5
> 1 O Israel, return unto the LORD thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.
> 2 Take with you words, and turn to the LORD: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips.
> 3 Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses: neither will we say any more to the > work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

> 4 I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.
> 5 I will be as the dew unto Israel: he shall grow as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon.

All of these passages either mention Israel or refer to her in context. You really have to bend over backwards and make like an Olympic gymnast to pretend otherwise. Some of these verses can apply more generally, typology again, to the Church and or to the Gentiles; especially Hosea 6:1-3 . But this does not take away the fact that they also apply to Israel.

Speaking of her that had not obtained mercy in Hosea 2:23 is a cross reference to the discussion in Romans 11.

> Romans 11:7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded
> Romans 11:30-31
> *30 For as ye [Gentiles] in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:*
> *31 Even so have these [Israel] also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.*

Blindness and Restoration

There is a passage in Micah 5 that provides a major clue to what is going on here. Verse 2 is usually the only one quoted; because it speaks of the birth of Jesus, prophesying that it will take place in Bethlehem. Verse 3 is a little harder to figure. It concerns the blindness and restoration of Israel to take place at the second coming. And verse 4 alludes to the Glory of the Second Coming.

> Micah 5:2 But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting.
> 3 Therefore will he give them up, until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.
> 4 And he shall stand and feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall abide*: for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.*

Here in Micah 5 verse 2 is the Father speaking prophetically of his son who was to be born in Bethlehem. He is said to come forth unto me meaning he will come out of Bethlehem and return to the father. He is to be ruler in Israel meaning he shall reign as King of Kings, the Messiah spoken of in Isaiah 9.

> Isaiah 9:
> 6 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.
> 7 Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

Also to say his goings forth are from old, and everlasting, is clearly referring to an eternal being, one of the trinity.

Then in verse 3 we read Therefore will he give them up. ‘He’ of course refers to Jesus, the Messiah in his earthly ministry at the first coming. ‘Therefore he will give them up’ speaks of giving up Israel because they rejected him at the first coming. He is giving them up but only for a certain time; until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth. The giving up is a reference to the blindness spoken of in Romans 11.

> Romans 11:7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded
> 8 (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.
> 9 And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:
> 10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.
> 11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.
> 12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?
> Romans 11:25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

Romans verse 25 mentions the fullness of the Gentiles, and notice how verse 12 mentions the fullness of the Jews. The number of Israeli's [Israelites] to be saved is called the fullness or the full number or the full completion. The word used here can also be translated multitude, a lot of people.

The second part of Micah 5:3 reads until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth. This tells us that the time of the fullness of the gentiles, which leads to the removing of the blindness, is linked to the time that she which travails has brought forth. So what's that all about?

Travail refers to the pain of childbirth. It can be used describing judgment coming on someone, or describing the process of intercessory prayer or repentance. Here are some quotes on travail. In Galatians it is used speaking of intercession. In the quotes following it tells of repentance. In John, travail is linked with sorrow, and in Second Corinthians sorrow is linked with repentance. Then in Isaiah, Jeremiah, and Revelation it speaks of she which travaileth.

> Galatians 4:19
> 19 My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you,
> John 16:20-22
> 20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.
> 21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.
> 22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.
> 2 Corinthians 7:10
> 10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.
> Isaiah 66:8
> 8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.
> Jeremiah 4:31
> 31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

> Revelation 12:1-2
> 1 And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:
> 2 And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

Zion here can mean Israel, the church or both. Travail is a purging process that goes with repentance. So the passage from Isaiah is talking about travail and repentance producing results in one day. And the whole passage in Micah 5:3 is saying He will give them up until they repent! We are looking forward to a time when the blindness or hardness will be removed from Israel. As this happens, the heavens are open and the light of the gospel will be free to shine upon those who before were enemies of the gospel. How can this be done for an entire nation or people at once?

Granting Repentance
Romans 11.15 where it talks about Israel's acceptance meaning 'life from the dead' speaks of all Israel as all those who are still in unbelief. But they don't just repent all on their own because it suddenly sounds like a cool thing to do. And they don't just all of a sudden repent all on their own to call on God because they are surrounded by enemy armies with no chance of survival. At Masada, they chose another option.

No that's not what happens. They repent because God grants repentance. Romans 11:23 says 'God is able to graft them back in again'. That is God does it, for his names sake, by granting repentance. He takes away their sin, because that is what he promised when he promised the new covenant.

There are many places where God calls for repentance in his word. Certain passages make it clear that a special grace is also needed. God is able to graft them in again because he can grant them repentance. Here are some passages that deal with the idea of God granting repentance.

> Acts 5:31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel*, and forgiveness of sins.*
> Acts 11:18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.
> Romans 2:4 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance*?*
> 2 Corinthians 7:9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.
> 10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

The Promise
In Genesis 12 the Lord makes a multi part promise to Abraham.

> Genesis 12:1 Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:
> 2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:
> 3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

Let's focus on the final part of that promise, the blessing to all the families on earth. Galatians 3 talks about it as follows.

> Galatians 3:6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.
> 7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.
> 8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.
> 9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.
> 10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.
> 11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

Here the meaning of the blessing is spelled out. That God would justify the heathen by faith. Also in verse 8, this promise is described as the gospel! [In old testament texts you will find the phrase glad tidings.]

The gospel, then is a promise to the nations that they would be justified and receive this blessing, if they have faith like Abraham. For Abraham believed God and this was accounted as his righteousness, verse 6.

What God promised to Israel is to become a great nation, inherit the land of Canaan and to be a blessing to the nations. Is there an explicit promise of salvation? Is Israel among the nations to be blessed?

To put it another way, will all Israel be justified by faith. When the son of man comes will he find faith?

> Luke 18:
> 7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?
> 8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

Is there an explicit promise of salvation? A very clear one is found in Daniel; one which is to follow a time of great trouble. [Tribulation]

> Daniel 12.1:
> And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered*, every one that shall be found written in the book.*

Once again we are looking at the idea of mass salvation of Israel after the tribulation, at the second coming. Let’s look at exactly how the blindness is removed, and repentance is granted at the time of the second coming.

Removing the Veil.
That blindness on the part of Israel is symbolized by a veil. Here we find it mentioned in second Corinthians.

> 2 Corinthians 3:13 And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:
> 14 But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.
> 15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.
> 16 Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

The key idea here is the blindness is removed when Israel's heart returns to God.

In the Gospels Jesus weeps over Jerusalem, knowing they will miss the time of their visitation. Then he states a condition they must meet before he will come to them again. And in the same breath, he prophesies that they will meet that condition at a set time. The condition is that they must call upon him, saying: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. The time for this to happen comes, as we read in Romans 11 above, after the fullness of the gentiles comes in. Then follows the completion of the redemption of natural Israel. This is a key factor in the Second Coming.

> Luke 13:
> 34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!
> 35 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.
> Deuteronomy 4:30-31,
> "When you [Israel] are in distress and all these things have come upon you, in the latter days, you will return to the LORD your God and listen to His voice. For the Lord your God is a compassionate God; He will not fail you nor destroy you nor forget the covenant with your fathers which He swore to them." [Some translations say: if you will return.]
> 3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

Here the word for turn can also be translated return. And seeing it this way makes it a direct reference to the second coming. This really blew me away when I first saw it. Like God is saying to Israel: Return to me and I will return to you. Luke 13:35 quoted above says you won't see me again till you repent and say Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Which means that when you repent, etc. you will see me again. And here in Zechariah 1 he is saying when you repent, I will return. Exactly the same thing! And here is how he grants that repentance:

> Zechariah 12:10
> And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

Revelation 1 refers to the same scripture.

> Revelation 1
> 7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

Here are a few more references that link the redemption of Israel with the second coming.

> Jeremiah 50:
> 4 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God.
> Jeremiah 50:
> 20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon > them whom I reserve.

> Amos 4:
> 12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel
> 13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name.

Here in Amos, verse 12 speaks of Israel meeting their God while verse 13 where it says maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth speaks of the second coming. In effect this is saying Israel will meet their God at the second coming.

A Wrap Up
Let's spell this all out very clearly. God grants repentance to 'all Israel' just prior to his second coming. He does this by removing the blindness and pouring out his spirit on them as a group. Then they 'look unto the hills' and call upon Jeshua, the salvation of YHVH and declare: Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Replacement theology and it's variants would deny this, but the bible indicates otherwise.

> Ezekiel 39:
> 25 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name;
> 26 After that they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.
> 27 When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations;
> 28 Then shall they know that I am the LORD their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.
> 29 Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

Summation
1. We know the Spirit is needed to properly understand scripture. Also, we can see that Replacement Theology comes from sources that are not likely to be hearing from the Spirit.
2. The fruit or results of Replacement Theology are a lot of really bad news.
3. The theory of Replacement Theology does not take the believing remnant into account.
4. Replacement Theology has no grasp of typology. Hence it has very limited understanding of the word. This is a direct result of point 1 above.
5. It's very easy to find bible verses that contradict Replacement Theology.
6. Replacement Theology goes against a fundamental understanding of end time events.

Folks, it just doesn't cut it!

Teachers of this theory point out that God is only in covenant with the faithful remnant, but they forget that His promises of restoration are to the whole people, backslidden and unbelieving enemies of the gospel though they may be. Otherwise how God speak of his covenant with them and speak of them as enemies of the gospel at the same time?

> Romans 11:32-36
> 32 For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.
> 33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!
> 34 For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?
> 35 Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

Irredentist

Last Shabbat, while Rimona and I engaged in a discussion, I suddenly had a thought filled notion. "I just got an iridescent idea", I blurted. Rimona, being very sensitive to the usage of words, commented that she was not sure that I could use "iridescent" in that way. So to prove (or disprove) my point I grabbed my falling apart American Heritage Dictionary and tried to find this word. Being the speller that I am, I started searching for the word with double r's.

While I was looking for this word that seemed to elude me, what took place was more akin to that which occasionally happens when one reads the Bible. A certain word caught my attention and stood out to me like a soar thumb: "IRREDENTIST". "What in the world is that?!" I exclaimed to myself. To my surprise here is what I read: n. One who advocates the recovery of territory culturally or historically related to his nation but now subject to a foreign government." "Oh my gosh!!!!!" "I'm not a goose after all, I'm an Israelite Irredentist!" I had never wanted to be a dentist, nor to meet one too often (to all my dentist friends out there, don't take this personally.), but to be an Israelite "irre-dentist" might be something else altogether!

With this new definition in hand, I would like to point to the Judahite irredentists down in the Gaza, especially in Gush Katif. Rimona and I, and many others, have met these unique people that the world has labeled "settlers". Their one outstanding quality is their faith and trust in the Elohim of Israel and the Torah. Because of this they have a very deep moral conscience. The claim that these folks will stand up and fight, and even take the lives of the "law enforcers", I believe, is only a government fear tactic to keep the citizens of this country from supporting the cause of these Zionists.

In the past month or so they have been gaining sympathy and a growing support, whilst Sharon's Disengagement Plan has been under suspicion even by some of the left wing news reporters, two of whom have written a book called "Boomerang", exposing facts which may be behind this "Plan". It shows that Sharon and sons may be resorting to these means as a smoke screen and a diversion to cover their tracks of corruption. The other issue, which anyone who understands the true motive of the Islamic world knows, is the disastrous effects that this will have on Israel's security and the absurdity of rewarding terror. Therefore those who are true to Torah Zionism have been campaigning to get these messages across to the Israeli public and to the world. They have been doing this by having to live with terror almost every day. But more recently have been more vocal through resistance and protests that they have organized. There have been a few instances of blocking roads, but in general there has been no disruption in the normal activity of the State. They have thus succeeded in turning many Israelis to their cause; so much so that all poles showed that before long those opposing the disengagement would be in the majority.

However, if something horrific were to happen it could turn the tables on this successful campaign. And so, wouldn't you know it - some hooligans materialized in Gaza and fortified themselves in an empty Arab dwelling. Shortly thereafter scuffles with the local Arab population began. This led to a stoning episode in which a young Arab boy almost lost his life. This appalling episode took place in the vicinity of a former hotel, which in the past few weeks has been serving as a stronghold of some staunch supporters of the resistance. Seizing the opportunity (of what was termed the "lynching" episode), the military stormed the hotel/outpost yesterday, removed all of its residents and imposed a military closure on the entire Gaza strip, barring the entry of Jews (except for local residents) to the area. (This is supposed to be lifted off today). Oh, just one "minor" point, none of those involved in the scuffles with the Arabs were residents of the Gaza settlement block, and neither were those who stayed in the hotel, the latter group having had nothing to do with the former (that is, with the hooligans who took over the Arab house). Who are those hooligans that were involved in the episode with the Arabs? What did they have to do with those staying in the hotel? What danger did the latter pose that required storming the place (which housed families with young children), and how was that related to the closure of an entire region? Take a guess!

One does not have to explain the obvious here. It was not the desperation of the irredentists that caused this. The "settler movement" has been very successful in turning this nation against the Sharon policy by peaceful protests. The only conclusion, therefore, is that a desperate Sharon gang in trying to manipulate the circumstances so as to bring to a halt the increase of support for the Gush residents.

This week we have heard the voices of some of the resistant leaders and were again reminded that these people have a moral conscience. When they were taken out yesterday by the government forces they went out kicking and screaming their slogans, but they did not try in any way to hurt our policemen or soldiers. Another noteworthy fact is that the residents of the settlements did not come and help those that were in the hotel. This could be an example when the time comes for the evacuation of homes. The police and other security forces will have to carry them bodily and put them on buses and take them out. I do not believe that there will be a civil war, as even though the settlers' faith and convictions are strong, so is their moral conscience.

Unfortunately the ploy of besmirching the Gaza residents has gained some momentum by the last few days' machinations, and thus the general Israeli populous, at present, is switching its sympathies toward the Disengagement Plan. This superficial and easily swayable attitude indicates that moral conscience and standards are not the plumb line in the lives of those who are Torah-less.

Pray for Abba's will to be done, and for those who are slated to be extracted from their homes.

I'm Right, You're Wrong

As of late, with the discovery of the "aviv" by those who believe in this approach, and with their declaration of the first month already in progress, a major controversy has arisen in the Messianic community. Emails have been flying back and forth and up and down the cyber universe, arguing the date of Passover. Then of course there are those who claim that the day of the sighting of the New Moon, as pronounced by others, is off by one day. Consequently some of the brethren have even decided to disfellowship those who do not adhere to their understanding regarding these matters. Shaul, the apostle, openly calls the ones indulging in this form of behavior, "babes": "And I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual people but as to carnal, as to babes in Messiah…For where there are envy, strife, and divisions among you, are you not carnal and behaving like men of the flesh" (1Cor. 3:1, 3).

Even within the same movement there are letters of rebuke being addressed by one rabbi toward another. Fellowships are breaking up over these issues, while those who are perceptive to the Spirit of Holiness are sensing the Father's grief. We are in a time of the restoration of all things, but that cannot justify letting unholy spirits of religious Babylon creep in and make void the sacrificial death of our Messiah!

There may be a great deal of validity to arguments and discussions about the "correct" calendar. As a matter of fact, YHVH's appointed times are not to be taken lightly. However, when we partake of the spirit of "I'm right you're wrong", we are actually eating once again from the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, and of course are also bearing its fruit. When the Spirit of Holiness brings to light a Torah truth, so that it may be established, we must be careful not to take that twig from the Tree of Life and try and graft it into the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil and fertilize it with carnal reasoning and traditions. Each person must be led of the Holy One in order to grow in the knowledge of truth. If you have been convicted or led by YHVH's Spirit, then walk in obedience to that present truth, but don't judge or condemn others if they have not received that same revelation from Him. However, if they are of the same conviction, but yet walk in disobedience or compromise the truth, we should correct them in a spirit of humility, guarding our own turf so that we do not sin with a holier than thou attitude.

The apostle writes:
"Who are you to judge another's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. Indeed, he will be made to stand, for YHVH Elohim is able to make him stand. One person esteems one day above another; another esteems every day alike. Let each be fully convinced in his own mind. He who observes the day, observes it to YHVH; and he who does not observe the day, to YHVH he does not observe it. He who eats, eats to YHVH, for he gives YHVH Elohim thanks; and he who does not eat, to YHVH he does not eat, and gives thanks. For none of us lives to himself, and no one dies to himself. For if we live, we live to YHVH, and if we die, we die to YHVH. Therefore, whether we live or die, we areYHVH's. For to this end Messiah died and rose and lived again, that He might be the governing authority of both the dead and the living" (Rom 14: 4-9).

What I have found in many of these letters of rebuttal is that no mention is made of the reason that the Most High established His Feast days. Why is it that He wants us to start a month at the new moon, or declare a feast day? What was YHVH's intent for doing this in the first place? Surely He does not have to prove to anyone that He has need of any of these days, nor that He is the Almighty and sovereign over the heavenly bodies and over the times and seasons! It is us who have to be reminded that He IS:

HE IS the One who created everything that is.
HE IS the One who formed us from the dust of the earth and put into us the breath of life.
HE IS the One who chose us before the foundation of the world to be His people.
HE IS the One who made a covenant with our forefathers and has remained faithful to it.
He IS the One who sowed the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob into all nations.
HE IS the One who has kept us and preserved us throughout every generation.
HE IS the One who brought us out of Egypt with His mighty right arm.
HE IS the One who led us through the wilderness and gave us food, water and protection.
HE IS the One who brought us to Mount Sinai on the wings of eagles.
HE IS the One who gave us the commandments for life.
HE IS the One who brought us to the land of promise.
HE IS the One who went out before us as a consuming fire.
HE IS the One who gives us the rain in due season.
HE IS the One who gave us His only begotten Son to be the lamb sacrifice to take away our sin.
HE IS the One who raised His Son from the dead.
HE IS the One who set His faithful Son at His right hand to rule His kingdom on earth.
HE IS the One who sent us His Spirit so that we may be taught and led into all truth.
HE IS the One who transferred us from the kingdom of this world to the kingdom of His beloved Son.
HE IS the One whom we honor on Shabbat and on each of HIS Feast Days.

I hope that you will continue to add to the list, as we celebrate each Shabbat and Shabbaton/Feast Day. I also pray that you will avoid all unnecessary strife and contention as we pass through these times of restoration and reconciliation. The Holy Days were for holy convocations, and not for unholy provocations. Let us not follow the spirits of religious pride, no matter what title or Babylonian garment they might display or don. But let us press on to the upward call that is in our Messiah and manifest the nature of the one New Man, who is the image and the likeness of Elohim. If we will each follow the risen King, walk in obedience to the leading of His Spirit and keep His commandments of love He will destroy all the works of the devil and restore all that is Torah Truth.

I would like to say “Hag Same'ach”, whether you are celebrating Purim or Passover. If it is Purim, please note that the Purim one year cycle started on the day before Passover on the 13th of the1st month (ref. Esther 3:7-12).

I Saw Fire In The Sky

Judy Curmi

This was a very vivid dream. The dream occurred on a bright sunny day.

I was walking along a black-topped road. My mother and sister Rosie were with me. We were in an upscale salt-water community, perhaps along the coast of California or Florida. Along the sides of the road were guardrails made of steel rods and thick beams of wood painted white, in keeping with a nautical theme.

To our right a ramp went down steeply to wooden docks holding a number of small pleasure craft. Due to the steepness of the ramp, I assumed there was an extra low tide and the tide was out. Right ahead of us the road became a bridge across the water. The length of the bridge was perhaps 75-100 feet.

On the other side of the bridge was more land and a new two story white stucco condominium development. The condos were upscale without being “ritzy”. The condominiums were flying a number of colorful pendants in different colors to advertise that the buildings were now open for inspection and purchase.

There were some people present, both around the condominium development and on our side of the bridge, but it was not crowded with pedestrians.

Suddenly I looked up in the sky, which was a beautiful clear robin’s egg blue. I pointed and said, “Look”! There was a very strange cloud formation. It was a “Tic-Tac-Toe”. The “clouds” were strung together in a long tubular fashion and looked like fluffy marshmallows, whipped egg whites or shaving cream foam.

There was one long stringy cloud set slightly apart from the “marshmallow Tic-Tac-Toe.” I estimate the length of this strange Tic-Tac-Toe at approximately 600 x 600 square feet. It was “up in the air”, but not high up.

Suddenly, along the whole length of the cloud, the single separated individual cloud burst into flames The flames were vivid and very colorful, in shades of red, green, orange, etc. I was reminded of a presto log that has had chemicals added to make “pretty colors” as it burned. Soon the “cloud” began to have black edges – like a roasting marshmallow.

Just after the cloud caught fire and looked like it was melting, it suddenly fell to the ground in one long piece. It fell right in front of the new condominium directly across the bridge, in the direction that we were walking.

As the “cloud” hit the ground it seemed to slither, like a snake or two kids playing together, jerking on a long rope. Luckily the force of the fall caused the flames to be immediately extinguished and no people, cars or buildings had been hit.

My mother turned to go down the boat ramp, but we had to keep going straight ahead, as our destination was on the other side of the bridge, beyond where the “cloud” had fallen.

As we continued to look up, one of the clouds in the actual “Tic-Tac-Toe” suddenly burst into flames. I knew if it fell onto one of the condominiums, the building might catch on fire. I said, “They are practicing!”

I knew whoever was behind this project would keep on working until the pseudo chemical clouds could not be extinguished when they fell to the earth, but would keep burning. Soon they would be used to terrorize populations and start very large fires causing huge property damage and killing or maiming many people.

As I was writing the dream down the thought came to me: “A laser is what will be used to ignite the pseudo chemical clouds”.

I'm Still Not Praying For Obama

> Psalms 107:13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

First of all I want to thank all those who responded to my Original Article, Why I Am Not Praying For Obama. See Original Article Below

We are now seeing quite a few prayers and prophecies about God somehow changing Obama. Some are asking God to capture his heart, save him and fill him with the Spirit. Some are prophesying that God is planning to do just that. This kind of talk usually lasts about two months, then we forget about it.

Could it be that we are thinking, well we didn't get the man we wanted. Let's pray that God changes the man we got. Then we'll have a righteous leader in power and everything will be ok, copasetic, or hunky dory, or sunshine and roses, and peace and prosperity will be restored. Our worries will be over.

Shouldn't we be praying for mercy because we have sinned? And that God would change our hearts, not just Obama's?

At the beginning of the earlier article, we cited a rabbi's prayer for the Tsar.

> May The Lord God bless and keep the Tsar - - - far from our village.

Here is a perfect example of a religiously correct, hypocritical prayer. One that is prayed out of a sense of obligation. But there was no real intention to bless the Tsar there.

Naturally I'm not pleased with the outcome of the American elections. What got to me most was all the talk that now we are required to pray for Obama. How to pray, what to pray, and so on.

Legalism

If you follow carefully what I have said in the first article, you will see that I'm coming against legalism and legalistic prayers. If your pastor, rabbi or leadership is calling for prayer for Obama on the basis of a scripture in the written word. And if the Spirit of the Lord is leading you to pray in some other manner. Who do you obey?

If you are not obeying the Spirit, isn't that sin? That's why we ended our list of scriptures with one that said: whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

Remember, the letter of the law kills but the spirit gives life. The sermon on the mount tells us not to pray like the hypocrites do. Pray as the Holy Spirit leads.

Now this idea that somehow Obama is going to change is just what people said about Bill Clinton for 8 years. So I'm inclined to discount that possibility. There are some that say or pray that God will overturn the election results. Would that fix everything?

Why Cry for Mercy?

Let's ask ourselves this. Have we truly humbled ourselves? Have we turned from our wicked ways? Have we put away our idols? Or have we prayed some little bit and then gone back to business as usual?
What will be more effective, a regime change in the white house or a regime change in our hearts?

Let's face the music: We have sinned. And we have been turned over to an oppressor.

Julie Meyer prophesied that When the cry for mercy is louder than the cry for change, that will tip the balance. Could it be that these calls to pray for Obama are just another cry for change, and God is still waiting, listening for the cry for mercy?

See Ezra 9 and Daniel 9 for examples.

PS. A Clue for the Clueless

Take a sheet of paper and list the names of all the Christian songs that you know of that either ask forgiveness, cry for mercy, or express repentance. Then scratch off those that never made the Christian Hit Parade.

Well, let's see, there's The Lords Prayer, and ….

PPS. Now if you are truly led to pray for Obama, don't let me stop you. You may be led to pray for mercy at the same time, and while you are at it throw in a prayer for me too!

Why I Am Not Praying For Obama

> In the musical Fiddler On The Roof, there is a point where the village rabbi is asked to pray for the Russian Tsar, their oppressor. What he comes up with is a sort of politically correct bit of lip service and sarcasm. He says:
> May The Lord God bless and keep the Tsar - - - far from our village.

In the aftermath of this election, much of the leadership is calling us to pray for Obama as we are commanded to in the word. So how can I have a problem with that, you may ask?

I feel we must consider the whole counsel of God. In other words it also says in the word to pray the prayer of faith, and that without faith, it is impossible to please him.

It also says that the word must be mixed with faith to be profitable, and that faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word. The word I am hearing is to cry for mercy.

If I am praying dry legalistic prayers, and do not have unfeigned faith, then I'm just making a lot of noise. I am become as sounding brass or tinkling cymbal.
And whatever is not of faith is sin.

> James 5:15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.
> Hebrews 11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.
> Hebrews 4:2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.
> *Romans 10:17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.
> 1 Timothy 1:5 Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:
> *1 Corinthians 13:1 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.
> Romans 14:23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

Summary
To be brutally honest, I am not walking in pure charity. And I do not have the faith to pray as we are being told it's our responsibility to pray for our rulers. So why should I pretend?

Dear friends,

I just want to share two reports which came in and which may help in prayer. One other important point I want to share is, that I got two notes by friends, that it is highly time for the US to pull out of Iraq. Somehow this makes sense, I am convinced, that the Lord has used the US to go there, but I was truly triggered by the Holy Spirit, when I got this two messages from two totally different people, so please pray for this....

I was in the Spirit and seeking the Lord very much for His Heart when He began to speak to me about Gaza which has been heavy on my heart. This was yesterday morning.

He took me to 2 Chrinicles 19 and 20 in which Jehoshaphat faces the Ammonites, Seirites--the people God had commanded them not to kill and as I walked through the verses with God, I saw how the Lord had laid out the battle plan there. At first, I read it through and then, God spoke to me and told me that this is how we will stop Israel from losing Gaza.

The battle is the Lord's. He is the King over ALL the Kings of the earth. He alone can save her now, but this may be the time when Israel looks up and sees that He is Messiah!!

We must get the saints everywhere to PRAISE God and pray the prayer that Jehoshaphat prayed for God to come and deliver Gaza. God does not want us to kill the Palestinians, but they are determined on killing and taking the land from the Jews. Only God can deal with this, because only God can stop them and bring Justice. ONLY HE really recognizes that this is Israel's land and the others who would take it from her are defying her.

Many years ago, it was noticed that when Israel gained territory, the Holy Spirit broke out all over the world. After the wars of the '60's there was a massive outpouring of the Spirit over the earth. Losing Gaza would have grave spiritual implications for the world and it may be the way that satan intends on stopping the revival that is all over the world now.

But this is not hard. When Jehoshaphat set the singers praising, God won the battle. We MUST DO THAT. Please email all your friends that love Israel and tell them to Praise God and ask HIM to deliver Israel and establish His Will over this situation. God will do it with or without us.

Israel's Troubles

Nov. 21 2005 released on Dec. 7. 2005

First Vision by Charlotte

Dear friends I want to share some visions (that we feel are most important in this hour) that I have received from the Lord for Israel and the End Times.

About 3 years go in Israel I was with friends up on a Moshav Kissalon Ramat Razielon the mountain across from Ein Karem, (where Mary, the mother of Christ went to visit Elizabeth, and when Elizabeth saw Mary the child she was carrying leaped in her womb). From the top of the mountain the view is exceptional and we were at a place called the Scroll of Fire. It is a monument and actual Scroll and you can walk within the rolled pages. It tells the story of the rebirth of the nation from the Holocaust up to the Six Day War. The sculpture commands a spectacular view of its surroundings. Just below we find "The Martyrs Forest" is comprised of six million trees ? truly, a living memorial. Four and half million pine trees represent the adults who perished in the Holocaust while a million and (one) half cypress trees account for the children who perished. The Forest runs deep through this area, and the mountains are very high.

Several of us were there praying and I had an open vision. I saw a shaking begin in the Forest below us and then I saw a earthquake begin to open up very, very deep on the forest floor and start quickly to run towards Jerusalem. The trees started disappearing suddenly deep into the earth.

A few weeks ago my husband Ueli and I were praying here in US, I went into an open vision where I first saw a lot of missiles going up to attack/counter the missiles that were coming into Israel as a kind of invasion. and immediately I saw the same vision of the Earthquake that I had seen 3 years ago, again and it was quite devastating. "The Lord spoke to me that these "mountains will be brought down low" and then I heard Him say that this is the "Beginning of the day of the Lord", as we asked the Lord about a timeline for this earthquake.... I received 2007!

Then the Lord gave me the following scriptures.

Daniel 9:7 (New Living Translation) "Lord, you are in the right; but our faces are covered with shame, just as you see us now. This is true of us all, including the people of Judah and Jerusalem and all Israel, scattered near and far, wherever you have driven us because of our disloyalty to you."

Ezekiel 38:19 (New Living Translation) For in my jealousy and blazing anger, I promise a mighty shaking in the land of Israel on that day.

Revelation 16:18 (New Living Translation) Then the thunder crashed and rolled, and lightning flashed. And there was an earthquake greater than ever before in human history.

a few thougths by Ueli

I was deeply touched by this Vision and I knew in my Spirit, that this Vision is right on. To me it is an answer to a important question I had this spring, studying Ezekiel 38-39 and knowing, that this conflict is starting very soon and part of the beginning is a very strong earthquake. I believe that this earthquake represents the firing shoot for the beginning of the race in scripture called "The Day of the Lord". The best description of "The Day of the Lord" is given in Zechariah 12-14, showing 3 parts of "The day of the Lord" where Ezekiel 38-39 is showing another view to Zechariah 12, the first part of the 3.

Second Vision by Charlotte

Then I saw Ariel Sharon in the backseat (Left Door) of a car, slumped over, lifeless...I saw men run over and take him out of the vehicle. My impression was that he was hurt by an assassin... We started to pray and as we prayed I again saw Sharon getting up and then standing up, he appeared unharmed at that time. I believe the Lord is going to save him.

A few thoughts by Ueli

This was for me again a very important vision to continue to pray for Ariel Sharon, specially for his salvation! I am very much aware, that he did a big mistake in giving away Land and many other things. But I also believe that he truly loves God and God wants to show, that he is stronger and then more real then the curse spoke by many Rabbis (and many Christians) against him, as the Heart of the Lord is to save him!

May the Lord bless you and refresh you! Ueli and Charlotte

Israel’s Situation Shown In A Dream

Joseph Paranéra

Nov. 3 2004

The last night I had this spiritual dream :

I was with my young son (9 years old)in the south of the Old City of Jerusalem, and it was time to go. I knew that the road was to go straight, but my son did not want to follow me and said that the right road was to go in another direction, and he stopped to take my hand and decided to walked in his direction saying to me : "follow me, Dad !" After trying a persuasive voice, I ordered him with a strong voice: "Come here and, you, follow me !".

But, obstinately, he refused and began to walk in his own direction. At first, I said to him : "OK, follow your road alone!" and hoped that he would change his mind and follow me. But that was not the case, and, as it was not possible for me to leave him, because of my love for my son, I came back to him and ordered with a strong voice that he must follow me. In my dream, I was so afraid that I woke up with a start and half asleep.

At this time, the Lord spoke to me: "Yes, I love my beloved son, but he does not listen too, because he won't listen to anybody. That is the reason I withdraw and I let him drive in his bad ways. But is a father able to totally abandon his child? That is why, despite his attitude, I permit this nation to prosper and be established in the promised country, in hope that they will come back to me and follow my way. Nevertheless, if they want to survive, my children of Israel have to confess the sins of their fathers : the impatience of Abraham, the pride of Isaac, the cunning of Jacob, the disobedience of Moshe, the sin and the violence of David, the ingratitude and the idolatry of Salomon. And if they want to be saved and to be recognized as my children, it will be not sufficient to be the son of Israel and to vindicate this natural link : they will have to recognize my Son as the Messiah, Him who was crucified by their fathers."

I Saw The Line In The Sand

Two years ago I was given this most amazing vision, you know, like one that can begin to change your whole life. It was as if I were actually standing on the sand and it really got my attention. I saw a hand with an arm reaching and extending down from heaven. I knew immediately within my spirit it was the hand of God. A finger began to point and began to draw a line in the sand. Once this line had been drawn, I began to hear: "No longer can you be My unfaithful adulterous bride." I then began to have understanding that there has been this gray area where the church has stood for quite a long time now in her lukewarmness, and our Father has been patient and longsuffering. But - now He has begun to prepare His Son's bride to make herself ready, for soon the Father will tell his Son to Go!

The Lord was showing me it is no longer acceptable to be in the gray area. -What does darkness have with light? The line has now been drawn and it was now either black or white and we must choose which side of the line we will stand. Gray represents the bride's lukewarmness and now that the line has been drawn it is no longer acceptable for it makes the bridegroom sick - Nor are our lusts for this world's pleasures, our idols, any longer an option. Both of these represent the unfaithful and adulterous bride.

It was as if the wheat and tares were beginning to be separated. A separation of the real church from the false. I believe the real bride of Christ is beginning to make such a departure from this world's system and the standards of the lukewarm church - it will soon be mind-boggling to many. It will soon be evident who belongs to Christ and who is the false church - who preaches a Jesus the early church would not recognize.

God is beginning to separate the precious from the vile and in this, the pure word of God will spring forth with a vengeance and will begin to expose many lies. God's remnant will begin to turn to that which is pure.

Revival will come and this is what it will take - A Holy people - consecrated to a Holy God - speaking forth the unadulterated pure word of God, bringing truth to a dying world, and many will be set free.

I was also given a dream late last year, 2004, about the Laodicean church we see today in most of our churches, and it literally shattered my heart, so many falling away from the truth of God's word. It is still hard to think about.

The Lord woke me up this year, February of 2005, out of a dead sleep at 2:22 AM. And I heard "TELL THEM I AM COMING SOON AND TO PREPARE!" I immediately sat alert and said, "Oh Lord, if only the five Christians virgins had been prepared in Jesus' parable, they would not have had the door shut on them. If they would have been prepared!" This kept going through my mind. It was very sobering. I asked the Lord at least three times if not more, "This is what you would like me to tell them? Am I to tell them this now?" I pondered for a few minutes more and I was reminded of the scripture 2 Peter 3:4, where it talks about people scoffing at His coming. I knew I was to begin to tell people, He is coming soon.

I see such an apostate falling away from sound doctrine and accountability to our Lord by those who claim Jesus that I am very concerned for their salvation. They are so week in their faith and struggle with so much sin, I fear for them for what is about to come upon us will take them totally by surprise, and many will walk away. Even some of Jesus' disciples walked away from Him and they had been with Him.

Most are still on milk and I believe it is because the gospel for the most part is a soft shoed gospel.... The word says "Sin separates you from God". It also says God does not even hear your prayers when you are living in sin, especially against your wife. And even though repentance has come forth and forgiveness given there can still be consequences to sin.

I John 3:14 - "Dear children, DO NOT let anyone DECEIVE you about this: When people do what is right it is because they are righteous BUT when people Keep On sinning it is because they belong to the devil. Those who have been born in to God's family DO NOT SIN because God's life is in them. SO they CAN NOT SIN because they have been born of God."

Does this sound like the "security in sin" doctrine preached today?

Romans 8:13 - "For if you live according to the sinful nature YOU WILL DIE, but if by the spirit you put to death the misdeeds of the flesh YOU WILL LIVE."

In These Days I Shall Strengthen You

Bill Burns

I want you, My people, to know and understand how much I love you and care for you. Even though you have failed from time to time, I do not look upon your failure as a shortcoming. I look at that which I have designed for you and to the end of the race. I look at the place of your strength and power and the place of your overcoming. It is I, the Lord, who calls those things which are not as though they were. Do not be discouraged, for indeed in these days I shall strengthen you beyond what you can imagine. The power of the kingdom is about to be revealed in My house. The glorious Church is about to arise to the greatness of her calling. I am the King of Glory, the Master of all creation, and that which I have created I shall bring forth to perfection and into the fullness of My design, says the Lord. I say, gird up the loins of your spirit. Strengthen the hands that hang down and the weakness of your knees; your walk shall now come forth in power. I have not left you, forgotten you, or forsaken you. I am the Lord who provides all of your needs, who heals you and who guides you. Be encouraged and strengthened.

Marsha Burns

January 24, 2005: I am the author and finisher of your faith, and I will test and try your faith until it comes forth with purity. Do not despise or disdain the opportunities that you are given to learn to trust Me, for they offer occasions for progress and self-discovery that will reap great rewards. Even when you feel like you have failed all is not lost, for each situation will bring greater light and clarity to your walk in the Spirit. So, beloved, give yourself a break and rejoice, for these moments are priceless treasures.

Bill Burns

Have I not come and spoken to you and revealed Myself to you? Have you not had a burning desire within your heart to know Me in greater ways? All you have to do is come to Me, for the Spirit and the Bride say, "Come." I have spoken to you about the changing of the guard, but what you have missed is that I am about to use you. You will become the young eagles. I have called you forth and have had My servants preach and prophesy to you. Will you receive it? It has been said and noised abroad that you have had a pastoral anointing, but in this hour, in this day the prophets must be as eagles and spread their wings and arise. The war of the end of the age is about to begin, and I am calling you from pastoral anointings to prophetic anointings. It is My desire that all of My people would have the word of the Lord in their mouths and prophesy. Be instant in season and out of season, ready to deliver that which I impart to you. I will give you the word, but you must first believe and then receive. Again I say, "Come." Arise in spirit. When I visit you in the night times, awaken. Shake off the slumber, and receive the vision and the word of the Lord. Begin to prophesy that word into the heavenlies, for surely I shall perform every word that is given by My Spirit to My servants. As you speak forth, I will perform that word. I am the Lord God Almighty.

To My Psalmists: The Lord says, you about to move into a new phase of ministry, a new phase of psalming where that which is heavenly will be heard on the earth. That which comes by the Spirit shall flow from you like a river. This river shall go forth and carry peoples and even nations into the presence of the Lord. These are the days of My glory, says the Lord, and My chosen vessels shall now receive fresh anointing and new revelations and shall arise, for they are a generation that will not retreat, for My hand has been upon them from the beginning. These are the days that those who have been hidden in the house shall come forth into the light and glory of this hour. The sound of heaven will fill your heart and refresh and renew and encourage. The sound of God is about to invade the earth like never before. My people shall dance the dance of victory and dance the Jubilee, for they will hear My word and believe and receive. The rain of this season is falling to refresh, renew and cause you to spring forth as a garden. The seed of the Lord is in you, growing and coming forth. It will bring forth the fruit of the Spirit.

Marsha Burns

January 17, 2005: I am stirring you, My people. I have given you a sense of restlessness. But, many of you have interpreted that restlessness as boredom. You feel that you have become bored with life and with situations. But, I say, don't look to one another to be entertained or to be stirred up or fulfilled. Come, and go with Me. Journey with Me, says the Lord. There is no greater adventure than that of faith. I am bringing you to a higher level spiritually, to a new plateau, and this restlessness will enable you to release what you currently depend on for stimulation and give you the necessary courage to move forward.

It Has Begun

12th January 2005
The earth convulses; it is just the beginning of sorrows Beloved. Stay close to My Heartbeat Beloved, in that secret place next to My heart, under My wing of protection.

What you have seen is just the beginning of many sorrows to come upon the face of the earth; roaring seas, lava flows and earthquakes, nation rising against nation, the rising up of ungodly rulers, and the ways of men becoming even more evil.

Mat 24:7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. Mat 24:8 All these are the beginning of sorrows

Did I not say to you Beloveds that these things would come to pass before My return, therefore let not your hearts be troubled, for My return is nigh. I am coming with a rod of iron and to rule with a swift sword. My feet shall soon be planted on the Mount of Olives and it will be split in two. I am coming and My reward is with Me for My faithful ones. My glory shall shine from the East to the West and all shall know that I am the great I AM.

Rev 22:12 And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.
Matthew 24:27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

Knees will tremble and hearts will fail with fear as they behold the one that they rejected, then will come the final battle of good against evil but this time on the face of the earth and not in the heavenlies, where the battle has raged for some time. I AM ALWAYS VICTORIOUS MY BELOVEDS, AND AS YOU ARE HID IN ME, SO SHALL YOU BE!

Rev 1:7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

Oh My Beautiful Beloveds how I long to gather you under My wings for all eternity, how I long for sweet fellowship for all eternity; I long for the time when My Bride will be always with Me. But for now My eyes weep silent tears for that which has been sown must be reaped. The seals have been opened and the vials are soon to be poured forth; rivers will flow with blood to the height of a horses bridle.

Rev 14:20 And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

You say in your heart that how can these things be for Father is a God of love. I am a God of love but also of HOLINESS AND JUSTICE. Long have I refrained from pouring forth justice, but the time now is.

Revelation 15:3 And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty*; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.*

Go forth quickly to those who will hear and repent, that they may escape the wrath to come, for it not so long now before men will cry for the rocks to fall upon them, to escape the sight of Me and the plagues and pestilences upon them and the face of the earth.

Rev 6:16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: Rev 6:17 For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

Beloved keep close to Me, let your hearts not fail for fear, nor grow cold, for if you endure and remain faithful an exceedingly great award awaits you. I have crowns of life and *mantles of purple with gold edging awaiting those who endure and overcome to the end. YOU ARE MY BELOVED AND I WILL NEVER FORSAKE YOU IN THE TIMES TO COME UPON THE FACE OF THE EARTH.

Rev 20:6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.
Rev 21:7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.
Rev 2:10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.
Mat 24:13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

Rev 22:20 He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

In The Heat of the Desert

Linda Patterson

You have given me many things but the one thing that is of greatest and dearest value that you have given Me is your heart. You have learned many issues of warfare and have overcome. In the heat of the desert you did not harden your heart when you were tried and tested. Through great odds and difficulties you pressed into Me with all of your heart. You cried out to Me alone. In these secret times I poured out My mercy, My glory, My grace. It was in these times that My heart was being formed within you.

You watched, waited and listened in the stillness of the cave and now I bring you forth into the brightness of the day. I shine upon you with My glory. You have been faithful in very difficult situations and circumstances keeping your eyes fastened only on Me. Your heart has been steadfast when your flesh was screaming and your mind was in turmoil. Within you now beats a pure heart, a united heart yoked together with mine. My strength and vitality are flowing through your veins.

Although it may appear to others that you are in a dark place and it looks like things around you are caving in, I bring you forward. I have My eye on you! My light is about to break forth from you. I raise you up, for true revival is when all has been stripped away and you come to Me regardless of the cost, regardless of how you appear. Regardless of the circumstances around you, you run to Me. True revival is what’s exploding within your heart. When you cry out with passion and desire for the lost and when you have lost self in My love, that is true revival. You have allowed Me to take you into the depths of My love and from there the two of us will journey forth to gather in that final harvest.

You will see much devastation and destruction throughout the earth in the days ahead. Keep your eyes fastened on things eternal and you will walk through unscathed, unharmed. Your hope is in Me I surround you with My presence, I cover you with My love and grace. Many will be crying out for a saviour and you will have the answer. This is the beginning of the great and glorious harvest. For my light, My love and My glory shall radiate forth through you. Many will be drawn to the light for I have set My flame within you, a flame of revival, a flame of hope. You will have the answers, eternal answers in the devastating days ahead. For truly My light is arising over you My glorious ones as I take you forward in victory for we are bonded together in an everlasting covenant. You are Mine!

Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord rises upon you. See, darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the Lord rises upon you and his glory appears over you.

Psalm 51:10
Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me.

Israel, the Land, and Middle East Peace

Vern Kuenzi

The Bible has much to say about the land of Israel. First and foremost, God says that the land is His. He is jealous for it, He established the geographical boundaries of it, and when the dust has finally settled, Israel will possess the entirety of that land which He gave to them in eternal covenant.

The issues today in the Middle East are drawing in all the nations of the world as a result of the implacable hatred between Jacob and his relatives. At the center of these issues is the issue concerning the land. God simply says that the land is His and that He will judge the nations who divide it up. The United States is deeply involved in the push for a Palestinian state in the land of Israel, and as a result can expect to reap the judgment of which God warns.

Terrible injustices have been committed against the peoples on both sides. As important as these concerns are, they are symptoms of the violation of a deeper primary issue. Though logical resolution would seem to point to the portioning out of the land to remedy the situation and establish peace, additional wrongs will not make the situation right.

Joel 3:1-2 "For behold, in those days and at that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem, I will gather all the nations and bring them down to the valley of Jehoshaphat. Then I will enter into judgment with them there on behalf of My people and My inheritance, Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations; and they have divided up My land. "

Dividing up the land is also described in Daniel as the politics of the antichrist system.

Daniel 11:39 He [the antichrist] will take action against the strongest of fortresses with the help of a foreign god; he will give great honor to those who acknowledge him and will cause them to rule over the many, and will parcel out land for a price . . .

The United States seems perfectly content to lead the parade of nations who choose to ignore God's clear word concerning the land. All political agreements, truces, cease fires, peace treaties, etc., which compromise God's word are doomed to failure. There may be an interim false peace one of these days that many will celebrate with a sigh of relief, but it will only be "peace, peace, but there is no peace." Peace will not be established until the Prince of Peace returns and sets up His throne in Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 6:14: "They have healed the brokenness of My people superficially, saying, 'Peace, peace,' but there is no peace."

In light of this, it is particularly disturbing to read of Christians who embrace the politics of the antichrist system by advocating the dividing up of the land and establishing a Palestinian state.

Zechariah 1:14-15 So the angel who talked with me said to me, "Cry out, thus says the Lord of hosts: 'I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. And I am very angry with the nations that are at ease; for while I was but a little displeased, they helped forward the affliction and disaster.; "

In other words, as sincere as our state department may be in promoting peace by pressing for a Palestinian state, they are only worsening the situation and storing up judgment against this nation because they are not viewing these issues from God's perspective.

Zechariah 2:8 For thus says the LORD of hosts, “After glory He has sent me against the nations which plunder you, for he who touches you, touches the apple of His eye.”

Zechariah 14:2-3 For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city will be captured, the houses plundered, the women ravished and half of the city exiled, but the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city. Then the LORD will go forth and fight against those nations, as when He fights on a day of battle.

Ezekiel 36:4-6 Therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD. Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and to the hills, to the ravines and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the forsaken cities which have become a prey and a derision to the rest of the nations which are round about, therefore thus says the Lord GOD, "Surely in the fire of My jealousy I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, who appropriated My land for themselves as a possession with wholehearted joy and with scorn of soul, to drive it out for a prey." Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel and say to the mountains and to the hills, to the ravines and to the valleys, Thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I have spoken in My jealousy and in My wrath because you have endured the insults of the nations.'

Proverbs 16:7 When a man's ways are pleasing to the LORD, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.

This holds true as well for the ways of a nation, and the Bible reveals distinct periods of time when God caused the enemies of Israel to be at peace with them when the nation was pleasing to God. It takes no imagination to realize the situation today is a direct result of Israel’s deeper disobedience.

Bulldozing Palestinian homes is not the answer. Building separation walls is not the answer. Even peace treaties are not the answer. There is only one answer, and He will step in and resolve this issue when Israel finally says, “Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord.” Until that time, the situation will only worsen, and Israel will increasingly find herself between a rock and a hard spot. And those who meddle in the affair will find themselves squeezed as well.

May God have mercy on this nation. May He open the eyes of our leaders so that our nation is not further terrorized and judged by meddling in affairs contrary to the word of God. But as it stands today, unfortunately, we are taking our place among those nations who will reap judgment as a direct consequence of violating God’s clear word.

Joel 2:15-17 NKJV Blow the trumpet in Zion, Consecrate a fast, Call a sacred assembly; 16 Gather the people, Sanctify the congregation, Assemble the elders, Gather the children and nursing babes; Let the bridegroom go out from his chamber, And the bride from her dressing room. 17 Let the priests, who minister to the LORD, Weep between the porch and the altar; Let them say, "Spare Your people, O LORD, And do not give Your heritage to reproach, That the nations should rule over them. Why should they say among the peoples, 'Where is their God?'"

Joel 2:21-32 NKJV 21 Fear not, O land; Be glad and rejoice, For the LORD has done marvelous things! 22 Do not be afraid, you beasts of the field; For the open pastures are springing up, And the tree bears its fruit; The fig tree and the vine yield their strength. 23 Be glad then, you children of Zion, And rejoice in the LORD your God; For He has given you the former rain faithfully, And He will cause the rain to come down for you — The former rain, And the latter rain in the first month. 24 The threshing floors shall be full of wheat, and the vats shall overflow with new wine and oil.

25 "So I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, The crawling locust, The consuming locust, And the chewing locust, My great army which I sent among you. 26 You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, And praise the name of the LORD your God, Who has dealt wondrously with you; And My people shall never be put to shame. 27 Then you shall know that I am in the midst of Israel: I am the LORD your God And there is no other. My people shall never be put to shame.

28 God's Spirit Poured Out "And it shall come to pass afterward That I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh; Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, Your old men shall dream dreams, Your young men shall see visions. 29 And also on My menservants and on My maidservants I will pour out My Spirit in those days. 30 "And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: Blood and fire and pillars of smoke. 31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, And the moon into blood, Before the coming of the great and awesome day of the LORD. 32 And it shall come to pass That whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved. For in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be deliverance, As the LORD has said, among the remnant whom the LORD calls.

Then the Lord said to me:

“Come, let us go up to Mt Zion, the city of our God. Let us go and rejoice on the Holy Mountain of God. For He is our King, and the Shepherd of our flocks. He is great and greatly to be praised! Let us sing and Dance and rejoice greatly in our GOD for HE is the King Of all the earth! His name will be great among all nations. For He will show His arm of strength and the prideful will Be humbled and the wicked will be astonished and angry When He pours out His great power!

For He says, I have a controversy with the nations. And I will show them Who is God and bring to nothing the Gods of stone and wood and the vanity of their imaginations! I am arising with healing in My wings, and there will be a great Tumult in the nations but you, my sons and daughters will arise with My glory radiating from you and bring healing and deliverance to the peoples of the earth. The earth will be filled with the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the seas.

The shakings have begun, so sing and rejoice, and be glad in The Lord Your God, for He is great and worthy of all praise! Surely the heavens declare the glory of the Lord, and His glory Will be SEEN UPON YOU in the days ahead…and many shall come To the brightness of your rising! Fear not little flock for your King is coming to you and you will suddenly be transfigured and Shine with the brightness of His glory. THUNDER out your praises And let the heathen know that I am YOUR KING AND MASTER! Let the nations hear the good news, and make your lights to SHINE in all the earth! I tell you that My praises will be sung in all nations.

My praises are rising in the earth, even as the darkness is rising, I am arising in you and you will shine like the stars in the heavens When I am finished making you the jewels in My crown! Come Unto ME, you who are heavy laden and I WILL give you rest. I will Transform those you care for and reach out to, as you speak My Word And proclaim My Praises! Shout a shout of victory! Blow the trumpets In Zion and proclaim My goodness in all the earth. I will have the victory, And those who endure to the end will be blessed!

Sing My warriors and wave your banners high! Shout to the Mountains and I will lay them low! Make a shout in the camp of The enemy and I will slay the dragons and break every chain that Binds. I will release the captives as you release your heart completely To ME. For I am enraptured with My bride and I will perfect you And crown you, and pour out My gifts to you. And you will walk in Great authority as I do my magnificent and mighty work in your Midst!

Isa 60:1-22 AMPLIFIED
1 ARISE [from the depression and prostration in which circumstances have kept you--rise to a new life]! Shine (be radiant with the glory of the Lord), for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you! [Zech 8:23.]
2 For behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and dense darkness [all] peoples, but the Lord shall arise upon you [O Jerusalem], and His glory shall be seen on you. [Isa 60:19-22; Mal 4:2; Rev 21:2,3.]
3 And nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising. [Isa 2:2,3; Jer 3:17.]
4 Lift up your eyes round about you and see! They all gather themselves together, they come to you. Your sons shall come from afar, and your daughters shall be carried and nursed in the arms.
5 Then you shall see and be radiant, and your heart shall thrill and tremble with joy [at the glorious deliverance] and be enlarged; because the abundant wealth of the [Dead] Sea shall be turned to you, unto you shall the nations come with their treasures. [Ps 119:32.]
6 A multitude of camels [from the eastern trading tribes] shall cover you [Jerusalem], the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all the men from Sheba [who once came to trade] shall come, bringing gold and frankincense and proclaiming the praises of the Lord. [Matt 2:11.]
7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered to you [as the eastern pastoral tribes join the trading tribes], the rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you; they shall come up with acceptance on My altar, and My glorious house I will glorify.
8 Who are these who fly like a cloud, and like doves to their windows?
9 Surely the isles and distant coastlands shall wait for and expect Me; and the ships of Tarshish [shall come] first, to bring your sons from afar, their silver and gold with them, for the name of the Lord your God, for the Holy one of Israel, because He has beautified and glorified you.
10 Foreigners shall build up your walls, and their kings shall minister to you; for in My wrath I smote you, but in My favor, pleasure, and goodwill I have had mercy, love, and pity for you.
11 And your gates shall be open continually, they shall not be shut day or night, that men may bring to you the wealth of the nations--and their kings led in procession [your voluntary captives]. [Rev 21:24-27.]
12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you in that day [Jerusalem] shall perish; yes, those nations shall be utterly laid waste.
13 The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, the cypress, the plane, and the pine [trees] together, to beautify the place of My sanctuary; and I will make the place of My feet glorious.
14 The sons of those who afflicted you shall come bending low to you, and all those who despised you shall bow down at your feet, and they shall call you the City of the Lord, the Zion of the Holy one of Israel. [Rev 3:9.]
15 Whereas you have been forsaken and hated, so that no man passed through you, I will make you [Jerusalem] an eternal glory, a joy from age to age.
16 You shall suck the milk of the [Gentile] nations and shall suck the breast of kings; and you shall recognize and know that I, the Lord, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty one of Jacob.
17 Instead of bronze I will bring gold, and instead of iron I will bring silver; and instead of wood, bronze, and instead of stones, iron. [Instead of the tyranny of the present] I will appoint peace as your officers and righteousness as your taskmasters.
18 Violence shall no more be heard in your land, nor devastation or destruction within your borders, but you shall call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.
19 The sun shall no more be your light by day, nor for brightness shall the moon give light to you, but the Lord shall be to you an everlasting light, and your God your glory and your beauty. [Jer 9:23,24;

Rev 21:23.]
20 Your sun shall no more go down, nor shall your moon withdraw itself, for the Lord shall be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning shall be ended.
21 Your people also shall all be [uncompromisingly and consistently] righteous; they shall possess the land forever, the branch of My planting, the work of My hands, that I may be glorified.
22 The least one shall become a thousand [a clan], and the small one a strong nation. I, the Lord, will hasten it in its [appointed] time.

Delight Yourself in Me

The Lord said " Delight yourself in Me", when I asked Him if He wanted to speak something to us.

Ps 37:3 KJV Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed. 4 Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

Where it says, thou shalt be fed…this is the word. Jesus is our Jehovah Raah…Our Good SHEPHERD. He is our Supreme Pastor.

ra` ah (raw-aw'); a primitive root; to tend a flock; i.e. pasture it; intransitively, to graze (literally or figuratively); generally to rule; by extension, to associate with (as a friend): KJV - break, companion, keep company with, devour, eat up, evil entreat, feed, use as a friend, make friendship with, herdman, keep [sheeper]-), pastor, shearing house, shepherd, wander, waste.

Job 22:25-26 NKJV Yes, the Almighty will be your gold and your precious silver; 26 For then you will have your delight in the Almighty, And lift up your face to God.

Job 33:25-30 NKJV His flesh shall be young like a child's, He shall return to the days of his youth. 26 He shall pray to God, and He will delight in him He shall see His face with joy, For He restores to man His righteousness.

Isa 58:13-14 NKJV "If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on My holy day, and call the Sabbath a delight, The holy day of the LORD honorable, and shall honor Him, not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking your own words, 14 Then you shall delight yourself in the LORD; and I will cause you to ride on the high hills of the earth, and feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father. The mouth of the LORD has spoken."

" I am the Desire of all nations. I am the Beginning and the End, the Door through which all men must come to be with the Father. I am the Bright and Morning Star! I am Your Delight and I will make you the jewels in My crown.

Come to Me and delight yourselves in Me, for I am longing to be one with you! I am not an ogre, nor am I condemning you for your weaknesses, but I am the Resource for everything you need. Apart from Me, you can do nothing.

John 15:4-8 NKJV Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me. 5 "I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me you can do nothing. 6 If anyone does not abide in Me, he is cast out as a branch and is withered; and they gather them and throw them into the fire, and they are burned. 7 If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, you will ask what you desire, and it shall be done for you. 8 By this My Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit; so you will be My disciples.

I am catapulting many of you into eternity’s revelation and into divine destiny in the days ahead. I will reveal more to you than you can imagine.

I am opening up a treasure chest of secrets that have been locked up for many, many years. YOU are my treasured possessions and I am longing for you to be free, for I am going to pour out such glory that will startle those around you so much, they will be shocked into submission to My Kingdom.

Do not consider your life anything compared to the glory that is to come!

Lay down your lives and live totally for ME. There is a great harvest of souls coming.

The earth is groaning and more tumult will come. You cannot reverse the process of what is happening in the earth. Are you GOD? Did you write the scriptures? Do you think they can be re-written? Destiny is at the door.

I am knocking. Will I find you home? Will you AVAIL yourselves to ME for MY PURPOSES? Will you say yes to My plan? Lay aside your own plans and allow ME the driver’s seat! Am I not supposed to be your ADONAI? If in fact I am your master, then why must you think YOU can plan your days apart from Me?

Look for ME! Keep your minds stayed on ME to keep your peace in Me. Practice My presence! Walk in the light as I am in the light! Again I tell you to delight yourself in Me. Worship ME in Spirit and in Truth, and I will make you holy! I will wash away all the dross, if you will worship and lay down your life and pick up MINE! Know that eternity is a the door. I AM calling you to live for ME. Some of you will die for ME. Some of you will go through and partake of many supernatural experiences in the days ahead.

Lift your expectations. Be not afraid! For I am coming to dwell within you in a way you’ve not experienced. Hold on My beloveds.

The King is at the door of your heart and beckoning to you to STAY in My presence when you can. I am pouring out glory in My presence. I am stoking the fires of My passion for mankind. I am a JEALOUS GOD, and I will have no gods before ME. The tragedy of lost lives should be a reminder to you to look around and see which of your neighbors have you prayed for lately?

Are you as interested in saving souls as I am? Do you have my heart for the lost? I do not delight in the death of multitudes. I am not a man that I should lie, nor a son of man that I should change my mind. My word is being lived out. It is the end times, and many are still asleep. I say WAKE UP the LOST! WAKE UP the sleepers! Escalation is HERE NOW! Consider eternity when you make decisions. Is this important? Will it be important when I stand before the Almighty shortly? Listen for My instructions and obey them and you will be guided in all you do. I will order the steps of righteous men. My Son has paid a great price that you be called righteous!

The BLOOD of the LAMB of GOD covers you as you TRUST fully in ME, and not in yourselves!

Come to My feet and lie down and let me finish My work in you My Beloveds.

You can see the times are changing. Come and let me whisper My secrets.

Shakings will continue till I have shaken all that can be shaken! Put ALL your trust in ME. Put ALL YOUR TRUST IN ME! For I care FOR you more than you can imagine. “

Ps 1:1-2 NKJV The Way of the Righteous and the End of the Ungodly

Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the path of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful; 2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and in His law he meditates day and night.

Ps 16:3 NKJV As for the saints who are on the earth, "They are the excellent ones, in whom is all my delight."

Ps 51:16-17 NKJV For You do not desire sacrifice, or else I would give it;

You do not delight in burnt offering. 17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit, A broken and a contrite heart — These, O God, You will not despise.

Ps 119:16 NKJV I will delight myself in Your statutes; I will not forget Your word.

Ps 119:24-25 NKJV Your testimonies also are my delight and my counselors.

25 DALETH - My soul clings to the dust; Revive me according to Your word.

Ps 119:70 NKJV Their heart is as fat as grease, But I delight in Your law.

Ps 119:92 NKJV Unless Your law had been my delight, I would then have perished in my affliction.

Ps 147:10-12 NKJV He does not delight in the strength of the horse;

He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man. 11 The LORD takes pleasure in those who fear Him, In those who hope in His mercy. 12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem! Praise your God, O Zion!

Prov 8:29-32 NKJV When He assigned to the sea its limit, So that the waters would not transgress His command, When He marked out the foundations of the earth, 30 Then I was beside Him as a master craftsman; And I was daily His delight, Rejoicing always before Him, 31 Rejoicing in His inhabited world, and my delight was with the sons of men. 32 "Now therefore, listen to me, my children, For blessed are those who keep my ways.

Sacrificial Rights
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Jan 2nd, 2004

" I was the innocent spotless Lamb, that came down from heaven to redeem mankind. I did nothing wrong. I committed no sin. I did not give into temptation. I gave up all the rights to My throne in heaven to lay down My life for you. So will you now sacrifice what rights you think you have to live for ME alone and to build My kingdom?

Are you willing to do something for Me? Are you willing to die to what YOU WANT, and to live for what I want, knowing that I know what is best for you? I am the Good Shepherd Who laid down His life for His sheep! I laid down My rights, to gain a Bride! I laid down My right to do things My way, and just did what My Father wanted.

Will you do the same? Will you follow ME? Will you?
Testings of even greater magnitude are ahead, so I want you to be filled up with Me. Come to My side and drink in My Spirit so that you might be filled to the full with My presence.
Kindred hearts will be drawn together in this hour.
The wedding feast in heaven is being prepared.
There is so much excitement in heaven about what is coming!
Saints are anticipating what they longed to see for ages!

Are you excited My beloveds? For I am excited to come and have communion with you! I am longing for this moment and it comes quickly!
I will surprise you with My glory! I will dazzle you with My love!
Prepare your hearts! Do not be afraid as I reveal even the darkest plans of men, for their plans will not work out. Their plans will never supercede My plans! They may triumph for a time , but I win in the end. And I will stand beside My Bride as a Faithful WARRIOR KING! I will fight along side you and comfort you as the times get more perilous.

Prepare the way of the Lord! Prepare His way.
Behold Your King comes with many chariots, and many will be startled by My mighty work! I am so in love with you My Bride! GREAT GRACE is on it's way! "

Irresponsible Shepherds
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Dec. 30th, 2004
www.upstreamca.org

Tonight the Lord led me to this passage in Ezekiel and I believe He is speaking a warning. This is not the first using this scripture, as for many years He has used this in many prophecies from various prophets of God. But tonight I have a more stern sense of His fulfilling this shortly in the Church. For many of these conditions exist now as they did in the time that Jesus came to earth.

Ezekiel 34 NKJV
And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD to the shepherds: "Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

What does the Lord mean when He says they feed themselves and not the flock?
Is He only speaking of food in the natural? No, I think He is speaking of the responsibility shepherds have to TEACH/feed His sheep good food of the WORD.
Are there people today who have starved their sheep? Are there people who only teach opinion, or who feed them biscuits while they dine on meat?- so as to seem intelligent, but really they are hoarding the food for themselves and not responsibly teaching the sheep. Do they take the TIME to really disciple them, and make them into shepherds also…since the five fold is to EQUIP the saints to do the work?

3 You eat the fat and clothe yourselves with the wool; you slaughter the fatlings, but you do not feed the flock. 4 The weak you have not strengthened, nor have you healed those who were sick, nor bound up the broken, nor brought back what was driven away, nor sought what was lost; but with force and cruelty you have ruled them.

Fat in this sense refers to OIL…and the anointing. Do the shepherds today teach so as to reproduce those who also heal and deliver others, and evangelize, and raise the dead, etc…? The weak you have not strengthened, He says. Do the shepherds today strengthen the sheep and prepare them for what is ahead. Do they spend their time in counseling, healing and delivering those who come to them, and being a true shepherd who CARES for the sheep's concerns? Do they heal up the wounds from being mauled by mountain lions and wolves in sheep's clothing? Do they bind up the brokenhearted and love on them till they are convinced of HIS love? Some have, but sadly many have not.

4 So they were scattered because there was no shepherd; and they became food for all the beasts of the field when they were scattered. 6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill; yes, My flock was scattered over the whole face of the earth, and no one was seeking or searching for them."

Jesus said that the Good Shepherd searches for the one who is lost. You can come and go in today's congregations without any shepherd ever seeking you out, unless of course you maybe are a big tither. It says the sheep became food for the BEASTS of the earth…meaning the people are wending their way, being eaten by the enemy's forces of darkness, and being deceived and deluded and undelivered, and unhealed from their wounds. Who is searching for the lost? How many leave the confines of the church building to go looking for the broken and wounded, for the homeless and sick and crippled?

7 'Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:
8 "As I live," says the Lord GOD, "surely because My flock became a prey, and My flock became food for every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, nor did My shepherds search for My flock, but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My flock" —
9 therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD!
10 Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require My flock at their hand; I will cause them to cease feeding the sheep, and the shepherds shall feed themselves no more; for I will deliver My flock from their mouths, that they may no longer be food for them."

The Lord promises to remove those who are not feeding their sheep nor looking for the lost, and caring for the poor, broken and outcast. He says, I WILL DELIVER my flock from their MOUTHS. Meaning they are being devoured or neglected by their shepherds.

In the didache…at the end it says this:
Be vigilant on behalf of your life. Do not let your lamps be extinguished, and do not relax your loins. But become prepared. For you do not know the hour in which our Lord is coming. Now you will gather together often, seeking the things that are appropriate for your souls. For all the time of your trust will not profit you, if you do not become complete in the last season.
For in the last days, the false prophets and the corruptors will be multiplied, and the sheep will be turned into wolves, and love will be turned into hate. For when the lawlessness increases, they will hate one another, and they will persecute and deliver up, and then the deceiver of creation will appear as God's son, and he will do signs and wonders. And the land will be given up into his hands. And he will do lawless things which have never been done from the age.
Then human creation will come into the fire of examination, and many will stumble and be destroyed. But those who endure in their trust will be saved from this accursed thing. And then the signs of truth will appear. First, the sign of an opening in Heaven, then the sign of a trumpet's sound, and thirdly, a resurrection of dead people. But not of all people; on the contrary, as it was declared, "The Lord will come, and all the holy ones with him." Then creation will see the Lord "coming on the clouds of the sky."
http://reluctant-messenger.com/didache.htm
This also indicates in these times, it is not only the shepherds who are sick or weak, but lawlessness increases such that the body also become wolves, mixed in among the sheep, biting and devouring.
11 God, the True Shepherd

'For thus says the Lord GOD: "Indeed I Myself will search for My sheep and seek them out. 12 As a shepherd seeks out his flock on the day he is among his scattered sheep, so will I seek out My sheep and deliver them from all the places where they were scattered on a cloudy and dark day. 13 And I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land; I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, in the valleys and in all the inhabited places of the country. 14 I will feed them in good pasture, and their fold shall be on the high mountains of Israel. There they shall lie down in a good fold and feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. 15 I will feed My flock, and I will make them lie down," says the Lord GOD. 16 "I will seek what was lost and bring back what was driven away, bind up the broken and strengthen what was sick; but I will destroy the fat and the strong, and feed them in judgment."

I will make them to lie down…He is speaking of entering His rest. To no longer be tormented and driven by various winds, and devoured by the beasts of the earth.
There is a sense of no more fear or darkness. True shepherds will receive those who are plucked from the false. God will appoint HIS shepherds/shepherdesses to feed the flocks, who will take time with them. Who will truly CARE for the sheep.
And those who refuse to change will have their candles extinguished…meaning their church/ministry will die. Like Ezekiel 47 says;

Ezek 47:8-11 NKJV
Then he said to me: "This water flows toward the eastern region, goes down into the valley, and enters the sea. When it reaches the sea, its waters are healed. 9 And it shall be that every living thing that moves, wherever the rivers go, will live. There will be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters go there; for they will be healed, and everything will live wherever the river goes. 10 It shall be that fishermen will stand by it from En Gedi to En Eglaim; they will be places for spreading their nets. Their fish will be of the same kinds as the fish of the Great Sea, exceedingly many. 11 But its swamps and marshes will not be healed; they will be given over to salt.

Like Lot's wife who looked back disobeying instructions, and was turned to salt…so shall the the places where His water is not allowed to flow be turned into marshes and swamps, and places like the DEAD SEA…too salty for fish to swim in!

Lest you think that God is too kind to kill anyone, remember the priest who went into the Holy of Holies wearing a rope and bells on his tunic…so that if he was not walking in holiness, they'd have to drag him out because the Lord's glory/presence would slay him! You might say, that couldn't happen today. We are under GRACE. However it happened in the early church with Ananias and Sapphira, remember? And all it took for them was to PRETEND – to tell a lie. Seems like not that great an offense these days does it? Yet when the glory comes, it EXPOSES. Many of you have been getting more glory and not realizing it, because your sins are being exposed to you, by the grace and glory of God. That is His favor. For if He didn't favor you, you would be allowed to continue to bask in your pride and ignorance of your sin, your spiritual blindness.

Do not allow the enemy to gloat over you as you discover your heart is not as pure as you thought. Thank the Lord for that weakness and thank Him that He is helping expose it and He is helping you overcome it. Thank Him daily if necessary, but REJOICE in Him, and praise Him. For HE is readying you for the EXPLOSION He is about to do…Just like the tsunami that just happened, due to an earthquake that has been described as equivalent of 100 atom bombs. 100 is the number for GOD's ELECTIONS OF GRACE!!!! Hallelujah!
And for years, the Lord has been speaking of sending a TSUNAMI of His love and power into our lives to heal us and deliver us and empower us! PRAISE HIS GLORIOUS NAME!! HE IS OPENING A DOOR. But the door swings both ways. Glory cleanses we know, because He sanctified the first temple with His glory the Word says…
Ex 29:42-43 NKJV And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by My glory.

Ex 19:16-18 NKJV Then it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were thunderings and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain; and the sound of the trumpet was very loud, so that all the people who were in the camp trembled. 17 And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain. 18 Now Mount Sinai was completely in smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire. Its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly.

The 9.0 earthquake in Sumatra was a sign, and the tsunami a sign…of His glory about to come. The number of the Holy Spirit is 9 - 9 gifts, 9 fruits, etc.
Glywn had a vision that had to do with blocks spelling out the words DOOR in three dimensions with blocks…and Judy had a word about the DOOR being opened. God is bringing judgment on evil. But so often we misunderstand HIS judgment.

Ps 119:120 NKJV My flesh trembles for fear of You, And I am afraid of Your judgments.

Ps 119:137 NKJV TSADDE
Righteous are You, O LORD, and upright are Your judgments.

Prov 19:29 NKJV Judgments are prepared for scoffers,and beatings for the backs of fools.

Isa 26:9-10 NKJV With my soul I have desired You in the night, Yes, by my spirit within me I will seek You early; For when Your judgments are in the earth, The inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.
10 Let grace be shown to the wicked,Yet he will not learn righteousness;In the land of uprightness he will deal unjustly,And will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

Jer 1:16 NKJV I will utter My judgments against them concerning all their wickedness, because they have forsaken Me, burned incense to other gods, And worshiped the works of their own hands.

Ezek 5:7-9 NKJV therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Indeed I, even I, am against you and will execute judgments in your midst in the sight of the nations. 9 And I will do among you what I have never done, and the like of which I will never do again, because of all your abominations.

Ezek 25:10-11 NKJV And I will execute judgments upon Moab, and they shall know that I am the LORD."

Ezek 28:20-22 NKJV Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 21 "Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against her, 22 and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against you, O Sidon; I will be glorified in your midst; And they shall know that I am the LORD, When I execute judgments in her and am hallowed in her.

Ezek 28:25-29:1 NKJV Israel's Future Blessing
'Thus says the Lord GOD: "When I have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and am hallowed in them in the sight of the Gentiles, then they will dwell in their own land which I gave to My servant Jacob. 26 And they will dwell safely there, build houses, and plant vineyards; yes, they will dwell securely, when I execute judgments on all those around them who despise them. Then they shall know that I am the LORD their God.""

Ezek 30:19 NKJV Thus I will execute judgments on Egypt, Then they shall know that I am the LORD.""

Zeph 3:15 – NKJV The LORD has taken away your judgments, He has cast out your enemy. The King of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst; You shall see disaster no more.
16 In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: "Do not fear; Zion, let not your hands be weak. 17 The LORD your God in your midst, The Mighty One, will save; He will rejoice over you with gladness, He will quiet you with His love, He will rejoice over you with singing."
18 "I will gather those who sorrow over the appointed assembly, Who are among you, To whom its reproach is a burden. 19 Behold, at that time I will deal with all who afflict you; I will save the lame, and gather those who were driven out; I will appoint them for praise and fame In every land where they were put to shame. 20 At that time I will bring you back, Even at the time I gather you; For I will give you fame and praise Among all the peoples of the earth, When I return your captives before your eyes," Says the LORD.

All these scriptures seem to focus on the fact that God judges wickedness and when something happens that is disastrous, is it because He is judging? or is it because the enemy is trying to do something to steal and rob souls? Or is it possible that the earth is even on a course that is in God's control, and nothing we can do can halt the earth's groanings? Haven't we been warned of what is happening…and maybe some hoping that it would not be yet?

Rom 8:22-23 NIV We know that the whole creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time. 23 Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies.

Matt 24:7-28 AMP
7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in place after place;
8 All this is but the beginning [the early pains] of the birth pangs [of the intolerable anguish].
9 Then they will hand you over to suffer affliction and tribulation and put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations for My name's sake.
10 And then many will be offended and repelled and will begin to distrust and desert [Him Whom they ought to trust and obey] and will stumble and fall away and betray one another and pursue one another with hatred.
11 And many false prophets will rise up and deceive and lead many into error.
12 And the love of the great body of people will grow cold because of the multiplied lawlessness and iniquity, 13 But he who endures to the end will be saved.
14 And this good news of the kingdom (the Gospel) will be preached throughout the whole world as a testimony to all the nations, and then will come the end.

had not been shortened, no human being would endure and survive, but for the sake of the elect (God's chosen ones) those days will be shortened.

Ps 102:19-22 NKJV
19 For He looked down from the height of His sanctuary;
From heaven the LORD viewed the earth,
20 To hear the groaning of the prisoner,
To release those appointed to death,
21 To declare the name of the LORD in Zion,
And His praise in Jerusalem,
22 When the peoples are gathered together,
And the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

It’s Time To Get Up!

As I was reading John 5, the Lord opened my eyes and ears to receive a message for the Body of Christ in this day. The account is of the man with the infirmity lying at the pool of Bethesda.

This pool was at the place where the sheep enter into Jerusalem, the sheep gate. In other words, it represents the gate of salvation by which souls (sheep) enter Zion, the New Jerusalem. The name ‘Bethesda’ means 'house of kindness, favor and mercy'. This is the place where the church of today finds itself. The pool represents the organized formal church structure and most of the Body of Christ is sitting waiting for a fresh move of God within the parameters of the church structure. We are earnestly waiting and praying and longing for the stirring of the waters within the four walls of the church. These moves do come periodically, when God’s favor is seen on the church but only a certain number are touched and those who are not quick enough are left to wait upon God’s next kairos moment. We need to look more closely at the situation of this pool Bethesda.

Surrounding this pool are the five archways or porches, five being the number of grace and favor This word ‘porch’ comes from the Latin, meaning ‘ a gate, entrance or passage’. In those days, this porch was a place where disciples were taught. The Greek word translated here as ‘porch’ comes from a root word carrying with it the idea of a covenant. So this pool was surrounded by the gates of a covenant of grace (because there were five gates). From these gates there was access to the rest of Jerusalem and one could wander wherever one wills. However, we see that there were a large number of people lying in these archways, waiting. They are in the place where disciples are taught but:

John 5:3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

Although these are the gates or entranceways of the covenant and from this place God’s people can enter the rest of the New Jerusalem and access the fullness of their inheritance, sadly, it is here that the great multitude of people remain in a state of waiting and the Bible tells us they are impotent. This word means: to be feeble (in any sense): - be diseased, impotent folk (man), (be) sick, (be, be made) weak.
A large portion of the Body of Christ are sitting in the entrance hall of Mount Zion in a weak or unfruitful state. They are physically or spiritually blind, crippled, withered and dry; waiting for the stirring of the water OR WAITING FOR A MOVE OF GOD TO HEAL THEM AND SET THEM FREE because then they believe they will be able to be of use to the Kingdom of God.

They know that if they wait and pray long enough, eventually a new move of the Spirit will sweep through the Church.

John 5:4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water:

The word for ‘certain season’ is ‘kairos’ and God does stir the waters of the Church at His appointed seasons – most of the Body of Christ is waiting for God's appointed time to be released to enter into the fullness of their inheritance and to be freed from any hindrances and chains.

The word for 'angel ' can also be translated 'pastor' or 'messenger'. So all these people lying here are waiting for a move of God or a message from the pastor which will set you free. But look at the place you are lying in – it is the place where the covenant gates of favor and grace stand continually open. There are no doors on these archways. They are permanently open – no man is able to shut them and through them we can gain entrance into the whole of the New Jerusalem, because the covenant we possess was paid for with the blood of the Lamb. This is the place where most of the church is still lying, impotent and lame, waiting for the next move of God and if they manage to reach it first, they will be released into the fullness of their destiny in the Kingdom. Whoever can manage to be at the forefront in discerning the next move of God will be the favored one who is pronounced whole. We are all crying out for wholeness, for a fullness of the revelation of Christ within us, and yet we seem sentenced to lie and wait for a divine intervention on our behalf if we are quick enough to be first in the queue!!

John 5:5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty eight years

This man represents you and I, man made in the image of God but there is something wrong. This word 'infirmity' is translated:

feebleness (of body or mind); by implication malady; moral frailty: - disease, infirmity, sickness, weakness.

And comes from the root word meaning:

strengthless (in various applications, literally, or figuratively and morally): - more feeble, impotent, sick, without strength, weak (-er, -ness, thing).

What a state the Body of Christ is in! Many are impotent and without strength –we have managed to get through the gates of salvation only to lie just inside the doorway of the house of grace and favor and wait for God to bring your kairos opportunity for deliverance and freedom to be a fully functional son of God!
What is the 38 years a symbol of? The first mention of the number thirty eight is in Deuteronomy 2:

Deu 2:13 Now rise up, said I, and get you over the brook Zered. And we went over the brook Zered
Deu 2:14 And the space in which we came from Kadesh-barnea, until we were come over the brook Zered, was thirty and eight years;

The people of Israel wandered in the wilderness for thirty eight years until they came to this crossing place.The word ' brook' comes from the root:

to inherit or (generally) to occupy; causatively to bequeath, distribute, instate: - divide, have ([inheritance]), take as an heritage, (cause to, give to, make to) inherit, to be made to possess

So too the church has been in the wilderness for a figurative 38 years and the time has come to cross over this brook Zered – which means 'to be exuberant in growth'. God is saying to His church, "cross over and come into the fullness of your inheritance, grow exuberantly and come to the fullness of mature manhood as the sons of God in the earth." As Deut 2:13 says, His word to the Church is:
' Now rise up, said I, and get you over the brook Zered' not tomorrow, not next year but NOW and what's more, God is not going to carry you over, you must get up and cross over yourself. We are waiting for God's appointed times of intervention in the affairs of men, just like the crowd of people were waiting for the stirring up of the pool, but He is saying 'it is finished! I have equipped you with everything you need for life and godliness, it is up to you to embrace the fullness of your inheritance. Everything that needed to be taken care of was accomplished at the cross of Calvary - this is the place of covenant, the place of complete provision.

Look at the situation at the pool of Bethesda. Jesus saw this man; who represents believers, saved but weak and without strength, and He knows the Church has been in this place a very long time. It is the place of freedom from Egypt and slavery, the place of teaching and hearing continually of the the provision of the promised land of inheritance and yet not having any tangible experience of it, only now and again seeing one or two who manage to lay hold of an appointed move of God as a vehicle to propel them from this waiting place into the full freedom of the sons of God. The question He asks is: 'Do you want to be whole? Do you want to leave this place of inactivity where you can view the move of God but not be an active part of it? Do you really want to leave the security of an environment you are familiar with to walk into the fullness of your inheritance? There are lots of people camped here. Are you sure you want whatever is beyond those archways or are you comfortable with this place you're in, comfortable with all the parameters of your paralysis, comfortable being able to talk the talk without having to walk the walk? You see, if you become whole, everything will change, you won't be able to stay in your old environment and be a spectator on the sidelines of what God is doing .Have you counted the cost of possessing the fullness of your inheritance purchased at the cross - it means upheaval and change. Are you ready? Do you really want what you are praying for?'

You see some of us have been in this place of paralysis so long that we have Bachelors degrees in the various characteristics of our individual causes of passivity and impotency. We have investigated all the ins and outs of what is wrong with us, be it in body or soul - we have theories on what has caused it, how it manifests and some even know the names of the chains that bind us. We have valid theological reasons why we cannot just plunge into what God is doing. We are having counseling or inner healing or doing foundational courses so we are properly equipped with water wings to swim in the pool. We think we must experience healing in this pool before we are able to walk into the fullness of what God has for us. This man blamed his condition on the lack of help to carry him into the pool. He was of the mindset that in his condition, his only hope was for someone else to help him to the place where God could touch him and make all his problems go away. He couldn't just access it by himself. He needed a pastor or a messenger from God to activate His divine appointment. Without that he was sentenced to just watch from the sidelines as others were touched and left rejoicing. Week after week he attended meetings, waiting to be singled out for a touch from God. In actual fact God was waiting for him and yes, Church, God is waiting for us!

Without this man realising who is approaching him, Jesus, the Truth walks in and says, “you don’t have to wait for a move of God or a man to connect you to His power. You are surrounded by open doors.In fact, you are lying right in these doorways. Embrace the truth of what the covenant has purchased for you and walk through the doorway of grace!”. It is a word with authority, the same word spoken to the children of Israel after thirty eight years in the wilderness:

'Rise, take up thy bed, and walk'

This word 'rise' in the Hebrew can be translated:

to waken that is, rouse (literally from sleep, from sitting or lying, from disease, from death; or figuratively from obscurity, inactivity, ruins, nonexistence)

In other words, it is another instance of saying,”Lazarus , come forth! You've been in this place of death and inactivity long enough. It's time to rise up, wake up and get up!”

Did you know that the place the Israelites were instructed to cross the brook Zered at was called Ar? This word 'Ar' comes from the root word 'ur' meaning:

to wake (literally or figuratively): - (a-) wake, lift up (self), raise (up), stir up (self).

So for both the Israelites and the man at Bethesda, the word that came from God was to wake up and rise up. We can be in a place of bondage for years but when the Truth walks in and you perceive what He is saying, you are set free!

John 5:1 tells us that the reason Jesus was in Jerusalem was for a Jewish festival. Since He was the Word made flesh, everything He did during His time on earth was to reveal to people that He was the fulfilment of what was written. So during the feasts He demonstrated the principles of truth embodied in those feasts. Just as during Hanukkah Jesus stood up and said, "I am the light of the world" – in other words, " here I am ,the visual depiction of what you are celebrating"; so too, I believe that the feast Jesus went up to in this incident must have been the Feast of Trumpets or Rosh Hashanna because it also known as the Feast of the Awakening Blast! What this man heard was a voice, a trumpet blast in the heavens calling him to arise and he responded. It is the same trumpet blast that goes forth in Isaiah 60:1:

'Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.'

The amplified bible says,' arise from the depression and prostration in which circumstances have kept you, arise to a new life' Is not this the call that came to the man lying prostrate and depressed at Bethesda? And for those who have ears to hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church, is not this the trumpet sound that going forth over the Church in this day? John 5:9 tells us that immediately, as he responded to this call, he was made whole and walked out of that place. As I said before, we have been waiting for God when in actual fact He has been waiting for us to see the Truth and respond.

I was given a vision recently in which I saw the church all lying cheerfully on hospital beds, with various ailments. They were fellowshipping and enjoying one anothers' company but doing nothing, waiting for healing. Then suddenly in the heavenlies there was a trumpet blast, like a rallying call of an army and as the people perceived it, they rose from their beds and answered the call. As they did so, the bandages fell off and they were healed. And therein lay the key. In answering the trumpet call, they received what they had been waiting and longing for. It reminds me of the lepers who asked Jesus if He was willing to heal them and He said ," I am .Be clean" and told them to go and show themselves to the priest and as they went in obedience, they were healed. They did not wait for a manifestation of their healing before being obedient to the command of Jesus. This, Church, is the key. If we will respond to the trumpet call in the heavens over us to arise and shine, we will receive the fullness of that for which we have waited and prayed. The man at Bethesda thought his answer was in the next move of God, in the ability of someone else to connect him to the Father. He did not grasp that if only he would obey the word that was spoken to him, within himself would well up the strength to arise. And it is the same with us. God has given us everything we need for life and godliness already - we just need to tap into it within us. Christ in us is the hope of glory, not a man, not a move of God that will come and go but the living Christ manifesting the fullness of Himself within us. And this is the year of His favor - in fact, the place you have been waiting in for years is Bethesda, the house of kindness, grace and favor. You are not at a station waiting for a train to take you to the place of your destiny. His word sounds over you now - Arise and cross over; arise and shine; arise, take up your bed and walk! You are in the place where the covenant gateways to the fullness of your destiny stand open, beckoning you through them. The word of Jesus to you is that to the church at Philadelphia in the book of Revelation:

Rev 3:8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

He knows that you have but little strength, that you have been kept in this place by your infirmity of soul and body, just like the man at Bethesda and He doesn't condemn you because, in spite of these things holding you back, you have been faithful and have not denied Him. However, today He sets before you an open door that no man can shut. You have need of no man to help you through this door. The Christ within you shall arise if you will only respond to this call and thrust yourself through the archways of grace into the harvest field. Don't say that there are still three months to harvest. Don't say you still need time to get all your ducks in a row, don't say you're not ready. Open your eyes - the fields are white unto harvest

Rom 10:14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?
Rom 10:15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

God is calling His church to arise and shine because His glory IS risen upon them. It is time to pick up our beds, those comfort systems that we have had in place to support our passivity and spiritual paralysis and to walk in the fullness of our destinies in Christ. The reason why this man had to pick up his bed is so that there was no opportunity to return to his former position. He had to burn his bridges so to speak, so that he could only go forward, not back. Jesus stood up in the temple and read from Isaiah 61. It was a public acknowledgment that He understood His purpose and destiny as the Son of God and after this, there was no going back:

(Isaiah 61:1) The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; to proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn; to appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

We, like the first-born of many brethren, have the same calling. Jesus said, “ as the Father sent Me, so send I, you”. This is how we will shine once we have arisen. This is how the glory of God will cover the earth as the waters cover the sea. We are not only to walk through the doorways of grace, we are to become doorways of grace for others to enter into the full expression of His kindness. We need to violently take hold of who we are in Christ and arise.

The passage in John 5 also shows us that the first thing that met this man who rose up to embrace his destiny, was a religious spirit, stating that it was illegal for him to have dismantled his bed. Satan is a legalist and will attempt to discourage and confuse you by throwing the book of the law at you, giving you ten good reasons why you could not possibly be whole or embrace your freedom because you have not gone through the proper channels of predetermined structure or protocol. You will be asked who it is that has released you to do this, in other words, who are you connected to, who supported you in connecting into the move of God? These are all the strategies of the religious spirit who seeks to make you lie down in paralysis again. Jesus sent out His disciples to heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers. It was a personal commissioning to the first members of the Body of Christ and they needed no man to access the power to fulfill this commission. The Body of Christ worldwide has the same calling, to walk as Jesus did in the earth and do the works they see the Father doing.

It is interesting that this man did not even know who Jesus was, he just obeyed the call that came to him. He did not question the people next to him as to who this was and whether He had authority to say this. He didn't wait for a confirmation that it was God speaking to him. In fact, he had no idea that it was God speaking to him. He just heard an instruction which, if obeyed, would remove him from the circumstances he had been in for 38 years. That was enough for him. It was a word of life and thanks be to God, the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus sets us free from the law of sin and death. That is enough answer for the religious spirit that would contend with us as we step through the doors that God has opened for us. The price has been paid, our sin is cancelled and we are debt-free because we wear the robe of righteousness that has been purchased for us. This covenant robe is what qualifies us to possess the fullness of our inheritance, nothing more, nothing less. Later Jesus revealed Himself to him in the temple. It was here the man realised who Jesus was and was able to testify of Him, because he had seen Him face to face and spoken with Him. When he was in a state of infirmity, he had no revelation of Jesus yet he was within the sheep-gate, representing salvation, and he was lying within gates of the house of grace and favor; he just couldn't see his true position in Christ. It took the awakening blast of the trumpet to awaken him and cause him to take hold of the revelation of Christ within him. This is where the church is at, waiting within the house of grace and favor for something that has already been bought for us. We must grasp this truth and arise. We must cross over the brook Zered. We must respond to the voice calling us from the tombs where we lie still bound by the law of sin and death although the price has been paid.

As for the matter of the Sabbath, this was created for man to rest from his labors and God is calling us to rest from our fleshly works and enter into His rest. What is the rest of God? It is to do the works of God, just as Jesus demonstrated on this Sabbath. In John 5:17 Jesus explained to the Jews who complained that He was working on the Sabbath:

John 5:17 My Father works until now(He has never ceased working), and I too must be working

To enter into the Sabbath rest is to begin to work the works of God. On the Sabbath the Jews were instructed to cease from their own pleasures and this is also what the Lord wants of His people, for us to be like Jesus, doing only what we see the Father doing.

It is time. 2005 is the year of His grace and favor. He has come to loose the chains of our religious mindsets which cause us to wait for the official move of God before we feel we have permission to arise and plunge into what God is doing. As Jesus said, God the Father is always working. He has never ceased working. Allow the revelation of Christ within you to well up and become a river of life to a needy world. Dismantle that comfortable religious bed of infirmity and weakness and walk into the fullness of your inheritance in Christ. The kingdom of God is within you. Arise and shine!

Into The Unknown

John Eldredge

What Are You Waiting For?

Where would we be today if Abraham had carefully weighed the pros and cons of God's invitation and decided that he'd rather hang on to his medical benefits, three weeks paid vacation and retirement plan in Ur? What would have happened if Moses had listened to his mother's advice to "never play with matches" and lived a careful, cautious life steering clear of all burning bushes? You wouldn't have the gospel if Paul had concluded that the life of a Pharisee, while not everything a man dreams for; was at least predictable and certainly more stable than following a voice he herd on the Damascus road. After all, people hear voices all the time and who really knows whether it's God or just one's imagination. Where would we be if Jesus was not fierce and wild and romantic to the core? Come to think of it, we wouldn't be at all if God hadn't taken that enormous risk of us in the first place.

Most men spend the energy of their lives trying to eliminate risk, or squeezing it down to a more manageable size. Their children hear "no" far more than they hear "yes"; their employees feel chained up and their wives are equally bound. If it works, if a man succeeds in securing his life against all risk, he'll wind up in a cocoon of self-protection and wonder all the while why he's suffocating. If it doesn't work, he curses God, redoubles his efforts and his blood pressure. when you look at the structure of the false self men tend to create, it always revolves around two themes: seizing upon some sort of competence and rejecting anything that cannot be controlled. As David Whyte says, 'The price of our vitality is the sum of all our fears.'

For murdering his brother, God sentences Cain to the life of a restless wanderer, five verses later Cain is building a city (Genesis. 4:12, 17). That sort of commitment-the refusal to trust God and the reach for control-runs deep in every man. Whyte talks about the difference between the false self's desire "to have power over experience, to control all events and consequences, and the soul's wish to have power through experience, no matter what that may be." You literally sacrifice your soul and your true power when you insist on controlling things, like the guy Jesus talked about who thought he finally pulled it all off, built himself some really nice barns and died the same night. "What will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul?" (Mark 8:36 NKJV). You can lose your soul, by the way, long before you die.

Too many men forsake their dreams because they aren't willing to risk, or fear they aren't up to the challenge, or are never told that those desires deep in their heart are good. But the soul of a man, isn't made for controlling things, he's made for adventure. Something in us remembers, however faintly, that when God set man on the earth he gave us an incredible mission-a charter to explore, build, conquer; and care for all creation. It was a blank page waiting to be written, a clean canvas waiting to be painted. Well, sir, God never revoked that charter. It's still there, waiting for a man to seize it.

If you had permission to do what you really want to do, what would you do? Don't ask how, that will cut your desire off at the knees. How is never the right question, how is a faithless question. It means "unless I can see my way clearly I won't believe it, won't venture forth." When the angel told Zechariah that his ancient wife would bear him a son named John, Zechariah asked how and was struck dumb for it. How is God's department. He is asking you what is written in your heart? What makes you come alive? If you could do what you've always wanted to do, what would it be? You see, a man's calling is written on his true heart, and he discovers it when he enters the frontier of his deep desires. To paraphrase Bailie, don't ask yourself what the world needs, ask yourself what makes you come alive because what the world needs are men who have come alive.

The invitation in the book shop, I must note, was given to me some years into my Christian life when the transformation of my character was at a point that I could hear it without running off and doing something stupid. I've met men who've used advice like it as permission to leave their wife and run off with their secretary. They are deceived about what it is they really want, what they are made for. There is a design God has woven into the fabric of this world, and if we violate it we cannot hope to find life. Because our hearts have strayed so far from home, he's given us the Law as a sort of handrail to help us back from the precipice. But the goal of Christian discipleship is the transformed heart, we move from a boy who needs the Law to the man who is able to live by the Spirit of the law. "My counsel is this: Live freely, animated and motivated by God's Spirit. Then you won't feed the compulsions of selfishness... Legalism is helpless in bringing this about, it only gets in the way" (Galatians 5 v 16, 23 The Message).

A man's life becomes an adventure, the whole thing takes on a transcendent purpose when he releases control in exchange for the recovery of the dreams in his heart. Sometimes those dreams are buried deep and it takes some unearthing to get to them. We pay attention to our desire. Often the clues are in our past, in those moments when we found ourselves loving what we were doing. The details and circumstances change as we grow; but the themes remain the same.

To recover his heart's desire a man needs to get away from the noise and distraction of his daily life for time with his own soul. He needs to head into the wilderness, to silence and solitude. Alone with himself, he allows whatever is there to come to the surface. Sometimes it is grief for so much lost time. There, beneath the grief, are desires long forsaken. Sometimes it even starts with temptation, when a man thinks that what will really make him come alive is something unholy. At that point he should ask himself, "what is the desire beneath this desire? What is it I'm wanting that I think I'll find there!" However the desire begins to surface, we pick up that trail when we allow a cry to rise from the depths of our soul, a cry, as Whyte says, "for a kind of forgotten courage, one difficult to hear, demanding not a raise, but another life."

INTO THE UNKNOWN

"The spiritual life cannot be made suburban," said Howard Macey. "It is always frontier and we who live in it must accept and even rejoice that it remains untamed." The greatest obstacle to realising our dreams is the false self's hatred of mystery. That's a problem, you see, because mystery is essential to adventure. More than that, mystery is the heart of the universe and the God who made it. The most important aspects of any man's world-his relationship with his God and with the people in his life, his calling, the spiritual battles he'll face-every one of them is fraught with mystery. But that is not a bad thing, it is a joyful, rich part of reality and essential to our soul's thirst for adventure.

As Oswald chambers says:

Naturally, we are inclined to be so mathematical and calculating that we look upon uncertainty as a bad thing.. Certainty is the mark of the common-sense life; gracious uncertainty is the mark of the spiritual life. To be certain of God means that we are uncertain in all our ways, we do not know what a day may bring forth. This is generally said with a sigh of sadness, it should rather be an expression of breathless expectation. (My Utmost for His Highest).

There are no formulas with God. Period. So there are no formulas for the man who follows him. God is a Person, not a doctrine. He operates not like a system-not even a theological system-but with all the originality of a truly free and alive person. 'The realm of God is dangerous," says Archbishop Anthony Bloom. "You must enter into it and not just seek information about it." Take Joshua and the Battle of Jericho. The Israelites are staged to make their first military strike into the promised land and there's a lot hanging on this moment - the morale of the troops, their confidence in Joshua, not to mention their reputation that will precede them to every other enemy that awaits. This is their D-Day, so to speak, and word is going to get around. How does God get the whole thing off to a good start? He has them march around the city blowing trumpets for a week; on the seventh day he has them do it seven times and then give a big holler. It works marvelously, of course. And you know what? It never happens again. Israel never uses that tactic again.

There's Gideon and his army reduced from thirty-two thousand to three-hundred. What's their plan of attack? Torches and water pots. It also works splendidly and it also never happens again. You recall Jesus healing the blind, he never does it the same way twice. I hope you're getting the idea because the church has really been taken in by the world on this one. The Modem Era hated mystery, we desperately wanted a means of controlling our own lives and we seemed to find the ultimate Tower of Babble in the scientific method. Don't get me wrong, science has given us many wonderful advances in sanitation, medicine, transportation. But we've tried to use those methods to tame the wildness of the spiritual frontier. We take the latest marketing methods, the newest business management fad, and we apply it to ministry. The problem with modern Christianity's obsession with principles is that it removes any real conversation with God. Find the principle, apply the principle -what do you need God for? So Oswald Chambers warns us, "Never make a principle out of your experience, let God be as original with other people as he is with you."

Originality and creativity are essential to person-hood and to masculine strength. The adventure begins and our real strength is released when we no longer rely on formulas. God is an immensely creative Person and he wants his sons to live that way too. There is a great picture of this in Raiders of the Lost Ark, of all places. Of course Indiana Jones is a swashbuckling hero who can handle ancient history, beautiful women, and a forty-five with ease. But the real test of the man comes when all his resources have failed. He's finally found the famous ark, but the Germans have stolen it from him and loaded it onto a truck. They're about to drive off with his dreams under heavy Nazi military protection. Jones and his two companions are watching helplessly as victory slips through their fingers. But Indiana is not finished, oh no, the game has just begun.
He says to his friends:

Jones: Get back to Cairo. Get us some transport to England... boat, plane, anything. Meet me at Omars. Be ready for me. I'm going after that truck.

SAULACK: How?

Jones: I don't know... I'm making this up as I go.

I have studied many times
The marble which was chiseled for me
A boat with a furled sail at rest in a harbor.
In truth it pictures not my destination
But my life.
For love was offered me, and i shrank from its disillusionment; sorrow knocked at my door, but I was afraid
Ambition called to me, but I dreaded the chances.
Yet all the while I hungered for meaning in my life
And now I know that we must lift the sail
And catch the winds of destiny
Wherever they drive the boat.
To put meaning in one's life may end in madness,
But life without meaning is the torture
Of restlessness and vague desire
It is a boat longing for the sea and yet afraid.

In The Valley Of Decision

IN THE VALLEY OF DECISION
Looking at the valley of decision,
I see many wrestle with derision.
Nations of people are circling with care
Through a revolving door that's standing there.

Over and over they circle and strive.
Contemplating lives, and what they've contrived.
Tis time to harvest their baskets of seed.
Acknowledging the fruits of all their deeds.

Wandering and circling through that door,
They grow sick of knowing what's in store.
More of the same from patterns engrained
Until they choose no more of the same.

Having gone through the sifter with pain
Finally facing the truth and with shame.
Hardened places are broken and refined.
Facing fact of what's passed through time.

Moving forward at the crossroads of choice
With wrenching hearts and with cheeks that are moist,
They look to the right and look to the left.
Weighing the losses from what is bereft.

The flesh or My Spirit, which will they choose?
Their flesh has kicked and become so bruised.
Will they turn back through the revolving door?
Or make their choice not knowing what is in store?

The flesh reaps corruption, loss and decay.
My Spirit brings life, walking in My way.
The road is narrow, with purpose and plan.
Counting flesh for loss from the heart of man.

My glory is coming, My joy made known.
My treasures revealed from depths not shown.
My love's forever; eternity's here.
Heaven's on earth, My Presence is near.

To the left or the right, all will elect.

One way to embrace, one way to reject.
People will split at the crossroads of life.
Making their choice about all their strife.

Others will wait for loved ones to revolve
Through that door of what's not resolved.
But lines of demarcation are coming for real.
Separating lives with passion and zeal.

One for the flesh and one for My Spirit.
Producing their fate, from what they merit.
Oh God have mercy for those on the turn.
Draw them to You, let Your love not be spurned.

We are all human and fail in our sin,
Seeking comfort for flesh thinking we'll win.
Only with Your grace can we follow truth
Separating our lives from what's uncouth.

Your Spirit wont strive forever with men.
Let us be prompt to lay down the sin.
Move us forward past that revolving door.
Towards the right, seeking You for more.

Joel 3:14 NKJV

Let Go And Hold On

LET GO AND HOLD ON!
You will know when it is time to uproot a weed, when suddenly something within you becomes paramount and shouts for resolution. These were tiny seeds that have been watered in your life, perhaps through generations. I have allowed them to grow to climax, in order to preserve My good work in your life. If I had dealt with these issues sooner, it would have so deeply disturbed the soil of your foundations, that you would not have had the strong roots to be able to hold on to My good plantings within you.

Cry out to Me to uproot the weed that is now full grown. Precious one, I do NOT condemn you. I know this issue screams for resolution and you know that it does not measure up to My image. As you release and yield to Me this part of your soul, hold onto what I have spoken into your life. I have planted many good plants in you, My beautiful flower. Do not allow the sifting of a sudden upheaval take the roots of your beauty and sweet smelling fragrance. Hold onto My Words, hold onto Me, hold onto our intimacy, hold onto My love for you. Do not allow self condemnation to cause you to let go of what we have held together as precious.

Matt 13:28-30 NLT
" 'Shall we pull out the weeds?' they asked. "He replied, 'No, you'll hurt the wheat if you do. Let both grow together until the harvest. Then I will tell the harvesters to sort out the weeds and burn them and to put the wheat in the barn.' "

Popping The Egg

POPPING THE EGG
Yes My love. All those years of delay have been accumulating. You have been sitting on a large nest egg and it has grown larger and more valuable with time. Did you think that when I gave you My promise, and then you had to wait, that I would give you a stone? Never, My love.

Those seeds of My Words in your life, the ones that you held onto, the ones that you brought into your dwelling place, those rich and fertile eggs are like multiplied pearls ready for harvest. Each and every year that you have waited and trusted Me, I have added increased wealth to your basket. Rich and full and overflowing, My abundance is popping out all over. Travail is very painful, it is true. But oh such joy comes when the baby is birthed!

John 16:21-23 AMP
A woman, when she gives birth to a child, has grief (anguish, agony) because her time has come. But when she has delivered the child, she no longer remembers her pain (trouble, anguish) because she is so glad that a man (a child, a human being) has been born into the world. So for the present you are also in sorrow (in distress and depressed); but I will see you again and [then] your hearts will rejoice, and no one can take from you your joy (gladness, delight). And when that time comes, you will ask nothing of Me [you will need to ask Me no questions]. I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, that My Father will grant you whatever you ask in My Name [as presenting all that I AM]. [Ex 3:14.]

Return To Your Resting Place

RETURN TO YOUR RESTING PLACE
Are you desperate to hear Me, My love? It is only as your heart, body, soul and spirit are at rest that you will be able to find that deep place of peace to connect with Me. It is there when all striving is set aside and all is still that you know without a doubt that I have spoken.

When confusion comes, return to your last Word which was the most prominent and anchored with confirmation. Then you will be able to stand and say, "God said." You will be able to hang on without doubt and without wavering. My Words are your resting place. I AM your resting place. Return to Me, dear one. If you can not find Me where you are, then remember where you last found Me. Return and we will move forward together into a new place and seasoned with great grace.

"The LORD preserves the simple; I was brought low, and He saved me. Return to your rest, O my soul, For the LORD has dealt bountifully with you. For You have delivered my soul from death, My eyes from tears, And my feet from falling. I will walk before the LORD In the land of the living." (Ps 116:6-9 NKJV)

The Ivory House

by Bill Somers

> Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he made, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? (1 Ki 22:39 KJV)

This is an attempt to relate a very unusual word from the Lord. I will include the reasoning behind it and the dramatic way in which He confirmed it at the conclusion.

It is my common habit to listen to the bible on cassette tape when I am driving. Often the Lord will quicken a passage or impart understanding to me as I do. One day about a year ago my listening took me to the book of Amos, chapter 3. Here is the passage of interest.

Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jacob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts, That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him I will also visit the altars of Bethel: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground. And I will smite the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD. (Amos 3:13-15 KJV)

Now I remembered the passage quoted above from 1 Kings 22, and so I knew that the mention of Ivory Houses in Amos was a reference to King Ahab. Now what the Lord spoke to me that was so unusual here were these three words: THE WHITE HOUSE.

As I listened on the following verses at the end of chapter four aroused my interest.

Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel. For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name. (Amos 4:12-13 KJV)

Here what the Lord showed me was a reference to His second coming. Verse 13 can be broken down into 6 clauses.

1. For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, ...
2. and createth the wind, ...
3. and declareth unto man what is his thought, ...
4. that maketh the morning darkness,
5. and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, ...
6. the LORD, The God of Hosts is his name.

Clauses 1,2,3 and 6 are essentially God revealing something about himself. In other words, The Revelation of Jesus Christ. Clauses 4 and 5 refer specifically to the time called the great and terrible day of the Lord. The day in which he will come again in glory and return to this world in his physical form. This also is the Revelation of Jesus Christ for in that day every eye shall see him as it says in Revelation 1:7.

Clause 4, "that maketh the morning darkness, " speaks of turning day into night. as it says in Joel 2:31 "The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come."

Clause 5, "and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, " speaks of the Lords judgment on the heavenly powers, wicked rulers in high places mentioned in Ephesians 6. In Isaiah 34:4-5 we read: "And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree. For my sword shall be bathed in heaven: behold, ..." And in Micah 1:3 it says "For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth." These are the high places referred to in Amos 4:13.

So clause 4 and 5 refer to the time of the Lords physical return, what we usually call the Second Coming of Christ.

The day the Lord physically reveals himself is also the day he reveals himself to Israel. So He says in Amos 4:12, "...prepare to meet thy God, Oh Israel." Revelation 1:7 says, "Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him ...."

And in Zechariah we read:

"And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn. (Zec 12:9-10)

Now that I've said all that, let me confess that I didn't realize at that time what the Lord was trying to tell me. In fact, I shared these two revelations at a home group meeting as mere curiosities, not relating them to any larger understanding of God's purposes.

Shortly afterward, the Lord chided me for not realizing that this particular revelation was a confirmation of some earlier insights he had given me. This reinforces the idea that every revelation the Lord grants is only the foundation for the next one.

Now in order to tie all this together, we need to start and the end and back track to get to our conclusion. It all starts with something having to do with King Jehoshaphat.

King Jehoshaphat is first mentioned in 1st Kings 15. His story continues through until 2nd Kings 8. The story is repeated in 2nd Chronicles chapters 17-20. However the story in Chronicles includes a great battle against Moab, Ammon and their allies that is not covered in Kings. There is also a mention of Jehoshaphat in the book of Joel.

Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD. Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about. Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great. Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision. The sun and the moon shall be darkened, ...". (Joel 3:11-15)*

Now this again is a reference to the Second Coming, Here are a few cross references that make it clear.

Zep 3:8 Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.

Zec 14:2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

Zec 14:3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

Re 16:14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

Re 16:16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

Now all these scriptures in Joel, Zephaniah, Zechariah, Revelation (and many other places) speak of the great battle of Armageddon. This is because Revelation 16:16 identifies the site as Armageddon. It is sometimes called the vale or valley of Megiddo in the old testment.

What puzzled me is why is it called the valley of Jehoshaphat in Joel. This could be because valley of Jehoshaphat was another name for Megiddo, but I could not find any reference saying this was so. Or it could be that the battle that Jehoshaphat fought in 2nd Chronicles 20 was fought at Armageddon. But we read in 2 Chron 20:20,

And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper. (AV)*

Now the wilderness of Tekoa is roughly the opposite direction from Armageddon, so that's not it.

So I was still quite puzzled about this, being unable to figure it out by myself. Then the Lord in his mercy showed me that it was a tip-off. A Clue! Joel refers to this taking place in the valley of Jehoshaphat as a clue pointing out that the Jehoshaphat battle in Chronicles is a type or picture of the Battle of Armageddon!

In the Battle of Armageddon, Israel will be attacked by a great multitude of nations and will have no other choice than to call upon the Lord to deliver her. This is the situation in 2 Chron 20.

In Zechariah 12 we read:

"And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications ..."

In the battle of 2 Chronicles 20, Judah was attacked by a great multitude and had no other choice than to call upon the Lord.

In 2 Chron 20 we read:

3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. 4 And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask help of the LORD: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

This exactly corresponds to the spirit of grace and of supplications that Zechariah mentions. The great victory that was won came because the Lord fought for his people that day, just as it is prophesied in:

Zec 14:3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

So this means that the Jehoshaphat Battle is a type or prophetic foreshadowing of Armageddon.

Now lets start to backtrack. Why was it that Jehoshaphat had no other choice than to call upon the Lord. Because he was completely without any allies. If you read back in 2 Chronicles, you will see that he had just lost his only real ally. He had gone up to battle at Ramothgilead, with King Ahab of the northern kingdom of Israel, to fight the Syrians. In this battle they were defeated and Ahab was killed. The condition of Israel at that point was foretold by a prophet who said

Then he said, I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace. (2 Chron 18:16)

That is to say, Israel at that point, while not totally destroyed, was in Chaos, having no leadership nor military might. And so unable to help Judah in its crisis.

Now when it comes to the Battle of Armageddon, why will it be that Israel will have no choice than to call upon the Lord? Similarly because by that time she will have lost her only real ally, the United States. Which means that by then the Lord will have brought judgment on the US.

Now this judgment's severity may be greater or lesser depending on the prayers of his people, but it must be severe enough to prevent the US from any military activity. So at the minimum, the US must be reduced to chaos, lacking leadership and military might.

The Lord was showing me that there is an analogy between today's Israel and Jehoshaphat's Judah. That the USA corresponds to northern Israel under Ahab.

Now this latest word about the Ivory House and The White House was given as a confirmation to what He had showed me earlier. This extended the analogy implying that the Clintons are Ahab and Jezebel and that the events referred to in Amos 4 are dependent on the events referred to in Amos 3. In other words the Return of Jesus Christ to fight for Israel at the battle of Armageddon must come after His judgment on America because that judgment sets the stage for the final later one.

So he will bring judgment on the White House of Bill Clinton just as he brought judgment on the Ivory House of King Ahab. And that with the redemptive purpose of preserving his people in Jerusalem.

Now some time after this, a week perhaps, I received another confirmation. In my drive time, the Lord reminded me of all this and led me through this entire line of reasoning. I felt a sense of excitement as it all seemed to make good sense. And I felt especially blessed in that He had confirmed it with the rhema word about the White House.

Just then He prompted me to turn my car radio on to the local Christian station. As I did so, I heard the voice of J. Vernon McGee, on the Through the Bible Radio program. He was reading from Amos Chapter 3! And that was the confirmation.
After concluding the chapter, he began to discuss how Ahab's Ivory house was located on the Hill of Samaria. A dominant position from which you can see many miles in all directions. He mentioned the many ivory artifacts that have been discovered on the site as being why it was called the Ivory House. He also commented that God's judgment on that site was so great that nothing was ever built there again.

"I have heard what the prophets say who prophesy lies in my name. They say, 'I had a dream! I had a dream!' Jer. 23:25

“I tell you that there are many prophets in this hour that speak words of what the public wants them to hear. I tell you that this is true even among the “well-known” prophets. For words go out and meetings are held that bring these types of people to together. Has this not happened in the past? Were there not prophets who spoke like this during the time of Jeremiah? I tell you that pride and notoriety has clouded their vision. They will lose their mantle. I tell you that no longer will I accept these types of messages. If We Do, He Will Heal Our Land

Joni Ames

After having several dreams about tsunami on our east AND west coast, recent dreams about volcanoes where lava was running down city streets, and visions and sensations of earthquakes, I was surprised when the Lord gave me a different type of open vision and the verse:

"If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their LAND." I Chron. 7:14 - I saw the word LAND very big and bold.

I said, "Wow, Lord! Do you REALLY mean that you would heal our LAND? - LITERALLY?!" Then I saw, under ground, lava flowing into the cracks of huge earthquake faults, as if it was hot welding material, sealing up the cracks. When that release happened, it then calmed the volcanoes.

I said, "Lord, some may think I'm crazy if I say this!" So then He led me to read this.... "But if they had stood in My counsel, And had caused My people to hear My words, Then they would have turned them from their evil way And from the evil of their doings. " - Jer 23:22 - That would certainly be my prayer!

So, I don't care what others think - I'm trusting and believing in the Lord. And I'm believing that He was showing me that He actually could and would do what He said - IF we, as a nation, would publicly:
(1) Humble ourselves and acknowledge Him, our need for Him, and our trust in Him,
(2) Pray to Him,
(3) Seek His Face
(4) Turn from our wicked ways - meaning repent of and no longer do that which needs repented for.

I believe this is a time of grace - a "grace period" - when the Lord is saying that, as a nation, He is giving us a "space to repent" so that things like what we've seen happen overseas does not happen here. I believe the many hurricanes we had last year were a sign to us as well that our nation is being "blown upon" and called to repentance.

As a nation, some of those things I saw that we were to corporately pray for and repent of (turn from) in this time would be abortion, homosexuality, etc. - And individually, whatever that would also mean for each of us.

The Bible is clear that we all sin and fall short of the glory of God. So this is a call to all of us to participate in whatever way the Lord leads each of us to do so.

The Lord speaks to us as He spoke to Israel:

Jer. 3:19-22:
(19) "...How can I put you among the children and give you a pleasant land, a beautiful heritage of the hosts of the nations?"..... "You shall call Me, 'My Father' and not turn away from Me."

(20) Surely, as a wife treacherously departs from her husband, So have you dealt treacherously with Me..."
(21) A voice was heard on the desolate heights, Weeping and supplications of the children of Israel. For they have perverted their way; They have forgotten the Lord their God."
(22) "Return, you back-sliding children, And I will heal your backslidings...."

Jer. 4:1-2:
(1) "IF you will return..." says the Lord, Return to ME, and IF you will put away your abominations out of My sight, Then you shall not be moved."
(2) And you shall swear, 'The Lord lives,' In truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; The nations shall bless themselves in Him, And in Him they shall glory."

PRAYER
Lord, we cry out to you, individually, and agree together that we have sinned and are sorry, and that we want revival and healing in our land, and healing OF our land.

We thank you for Your Word and Your promises, and we repent on behalf of our nation for abortion, homosexuality, and all of the other things that are a stench in your nostrils, including our personal sins (and each of us can list those to Him here.)

We acknowledge and repent from our sins, we receive your cleansing, sanctification, and the covering of the blood of Jesus, and we ask your help in staying away from them. And we DO ask for and believe that you can heal our LAND! In Jesus' name, Amen.

I Will Deliver Thee

Bill Yount

"FOR THE YEAR '2006' "I WILL DELIVER THEE IN 'SIX' TROUBLES!" .... YEA, IN SEVEN THERE SHALL NO EVIL TOUCH THEE!" Job 5:19-26

Introduction to this word....

Notice this verse says 'in' troubles. God doesn't always steer us away from trouble but He majors in delivering us 'in' our troubles. Trouble is a pretty good sign that God is with you! The three Hebrew children; Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego discovered that the king's order to 'heat the furnace seven times hotter' was the perfect recipe for their miracle deliverance and their fiery furnace was transformed into a 'four man' dance hall! Daniel found his greatest deliverance take place inside of a lions' den, never having to fear lions again!

Are you in any kind of trouble right now? Then you qualify for deliverance in the midst of your trouble this coming year.... as you set your love upon Him!

If you compare your troubles to yourself, you are in trouble. But if you compare your troubles to God, your troubles are in trouble!

2006 - "A YEAR NOT TO FEAR!"

"IN FAMINE HE SHALL REDEEM THEE FROM DEATH: AND IN WAR FROM THE POWER OF THE SWORD." Job 5:20

Psalm 37:25 David said, "I have been young and now am old; yet I have not seen the 'righteous' forsaken, nor his seed begging bread." God prepares a table (provision) before us in the presence of our enemies. That means our enemies get to watch us eat while they are going hungry. But don't forget in the rough times ahead to feed your enemies and tell them as from one begger to another who is feeding you in the time of famine! God delivers us from the power of the sword and protects us from our enemies so we can live long enough to bless them! Imagine a God who fed millions in the wilderness and gave them water out of a rock and caused their clothing and shoes not to wear out for forty years....sounds like their clothing actually grew with them!

Recently on the national television program "It's a Miracle," there was a small church with 20 members who fixed a Thanksgiving dinner for the needy. As the people kept coming in to eat they were concerned about running out of food. But as the people kept coming in, to their surprise they discovered the food was not running out! The 20 members who cooked the food figured they could only feed about four hundred people....but as the day ended they counted around two thousand people who had eaten and there was still food left over so they delivered the extra food throughout the neighborhood!

After coming back to the church one needy family came late and was hungry and the food was all gone. To their amazement the church members saw this fresh warm baked loaf of bread on the kitchen counter that no one had brought or baked. They then noticed the cupboards that were emptied out for the dinner had one cupboard door ajar. As they went to close it they found more food in it, even a turkey platter! As long as there were hungry people the Lord kept multiplying the food! We can expect these multiplying miracles to increase as food becomes scarce!

"THOU SHALT BE HIDDEN FROM THE SCOURGE OF THE TONGUE: NEITHER SHALT THOU BE AFRAID OF DESTRUCTION WHEN IT COMES!" Job. 5: 21

If there are those who are speaking evil of you, talk to Jesus about it. If there is some truth in it, repent and grow from their 'constructive' criticism. "Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me. it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head; for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities." Psalm 141:5

There have been times and probably still will be when I have been reproved in my ministry. It's humbling but I have discovered as I receive it with a right spirit, it's not long afterwards that I experience fresh oil pouring over me, healing my hurt and anointing me with fresh oil. This often happens to us when God wants to refine our gifting to use us in a greater way. More important these reproofs and grindings do wonders in conforming us into His image, His ultimate purpose.

Remember 'a soft answer turns away wrath.' The tongue has probably brought more destruction to people than anything else. We ourselves are snared (brought into bondage) by the words of our own mouth. When we bless those who speak evil against us we cancel the assignment of their words.

"AT DESTRUCTION AND FAMINE THOU SHALT LAUGH: NEITHER SHALT THOU BE AFRAID OF THE BEASTS OF THE EARTH!" Job 5:22

What appears to be destruction in the natural is really construction taking place in the earth in the Spiritual realm from God's perspective and 'all things are working together for our good and for God's purposes.' Many times destruction is necessary before construction of something new and wonderful can take place.

In this verse it says that we shall not be afraid of the beasts of the earth. I believe the word 'beast' represents anything the enemy can try to use to destroy us including sickness, disease and infirmities. We must not give in to fear as certain plagues such as the bird flu break out. We must pray against them and believe Psalm 91 for our protection. "Surely He shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler." Recently in a large gathering I sensed fear rising as the threat of the bird flu was being mentioned. I was wondering fearfully myself how devastating this bird flu could be. I then saw the Dove of the Holy Spirit who is greater than any bird and any flu flutter into the conference and light upon us. I sense as we trust under His wings and feathers we are in for not only our protection, but we will experience an outbreak of divine healing attacking our spirit, soul, mind and bodies! Healing that is contagious, spreading to others as healed people heal people! Healing that will capture the attention of world news that a cure for cancer, aids and a cure for other incurable diseases has been discovered through the name of Jesus! On our Father's side, healing runs through our veins, through our arteries, through our bloodstream and into our bone marrow! Healing runs in our family! Decree this coming year..."I'm being attacked by healing!"

"FOR THOU SHALT BE IN LEAGUE WITH THE STONES OF THE FIELD: AND THE BEASTS OF THE FIELD SHALL BE AT PEACE WITH THEE." Job 5:23

God is releasing His authority in us to take dominion over the earth and all that is in it. The earth is groaning for the manifestation of the sons of God to come forth to take back the authority that was given to us through Jesus to subdue the kingdoms of this world to become the kingdoms of our God! When we sin we give up our authority to the enemy. Lord, help us to come into full repentance to be filled with You, to have your authority over all the works of the enemy and take dominion over what you have given us.

"AND THOU SHALT KNOW THAT THY TABERNACLE SHALL BE IN PEACE; AND THOU SHALT VISIT THY HABITATION AND SHALT NOT SIN." Job 5:24

The very peace of God shall guard our hearts and minds in these perilous times. Our homes will become the dwelling place of God as we allow Him to cleanse us from all sin and fill us with His presence.... Healing homes of refuge for the stranger, the lost and the afflicted including the prodigals coming home.

"THOU SHALT KNOW ALSO THAT THY SEED SHALL BE GREAT AND THINE OFFSPRING AS THE GRASS OF THE EARTH." Job 5:25

This coming year expect your seed and seed's seed to become great in God and grow rapidly in the Spirit as the grass grows upon the earth in the spring time! Your children will be as signs and wonders in the earth and God will increase you more and more, you and your children. Don't call your lost children a drug addict or an alcoholic, call them a royal priesthood, a chosen generation! Call their destiny forth in God! Even treat them as though they are already saved! (they will think you got saved!) Accept them right where they are and love them and you will see God take over from there!

"THOU SHALT COME TO THY GRAVE IN A FULL AGE, LIKE AS A SHOCK OF CORN COMETH IN, IN HIS SEASON!" Job 5:26

What a promise! "With long life will I satisfy you and show you my salvation!" Make plans to live a long life! We shall live and not die and declare the works of the Lord! When we really believe that God promises us a long life then we know that He will deliver us out of all our afflictions and troubles! Enjoy and appreciate life like it is your last day on earth but live like you will never die!

"LET GOD FIX WHAT YOU CANNOT FIX IN 2006!....DON'T TRY TO 'FIX' ANYTHING THIS COMING YEAR!"

I sense this coming year will be a year when many frustrated saints will finally let God be God and stop trying in themselves to fix things, to fix people and to fix their own problems. We are not called to fix anything. You cannot fix yourself. My wife still cannot fix me! Only Jesus can fix anything and everything. And He has been waiting along time for many of us to let Him do it.

Bob Mumford teaches that "If you get in a fix and you fix the fix before God fixes it, He will fix another fix to fix you...until you let Him fix it!" Let God fix the fix you are in this coming year!

AS THE YEAR 2005 COMES TO A CLOSE, I SENSE THE FATHER SAYING,....."I WILL TAKE OVER FROM HERE!"

I Will Dress You For This Hour

Stephen Hanson

Nov. 12, 2005

29 But Moses replied, "Are you jealous for my sake? I wish that all the LORD's people were prophets and that the LORD would put his Spirit on them!" Numbers 11:29

Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need. Hebrews 4:16

(The spirit of the Lord showed me a scene of a man who was approaching Him. He seemed downcast in appearance and seemed to think that he was unworthy. As his head was down and he was standing before the Lord, I noticed the Lord pick him up and cradle him in His arms. But it was strange because it was as if he were immobilized and couldn't move. He almost seemed like a statue in appearance. Then the Lord was pouring something over his body. With this liquid, He was cleansing him and refreshing him. After this, the man then was in a prone position before the Lord. As his head was bent down in adoration of the Lord, a beautiful robe was then wrapped around him. It was kingly in appearance. Then the vision faded.)

"I tell you, this is the way it is in this hour. Many think that they are not worthy to come before Me. They pretend that they are something else. They clothe themselves in other garments. But I tell you that I will make you as kings and queens before Me. I will give you the clothes of my kingdom. Let Me prepare you and raise you up in this hour. Then you will be as Joshua before the battle. I am creating a Moses generation. I would have that all my people are prophets, but I tell you that not all are. But each of you can come up before Me. I will be as a burning bush before you. I will write my words on the tablets of your hearts. "

Let My Anointing Sustain You

Stephen Hanson

Nov. 19, 2005

(Dear friends, thank you for the many prayers and insights that you have sent to me concerning my recent prayer concern. I believe that it is helping. I have anointed my classroom a couple of times, and have seen some progress because of this. I ask for your continued prayers in this matter, as I will pray for your needs as well. Thank you.)

27As for you, the anointing you received from him remains in you, and you do not need anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all things and as that anointing is real, not counterfeit-just as it has taught you, remain in him. 1 John 2:26-28

Now I know that the LORD saves his anointed; he answers him from his holy heaven with the saving power of his right hand. Psalm 20:6

The LORD is the strength of his people, a fortress of salvation for his anointed one. Psalm 28:8

"Come to Me all of you who are weary and heavy-laden and I will give you rest. I will give you rest in a season of great battles. I tell you the battles have increased for many of my servants. They have increased now because the time is near because this world is being thrown into the last signs that are coming upon the earth. The schemes of the enemy have increased; for he knows that these are the last days. But the anointing that has been given to you will give you great increase. It will sustain you in the days ahead. It will serve you well in the many battles that you face. It is the very thing that covers you in the midst of many trials. It will cover you from head to feet. No gap or crevice of the enemy will be able to creep in. These are the days that you have heard of. You have seen them on your TV screens. The whole entire world is in a state of unrest. The world stands upon a precipice. It stands upon a precipice that will shake it to its roots. What will remain after the shaking? You have been warned about these things; now what will you do with that warning? Grab a hold of that anointing that I give to you. Run the race that is set out before you. Run as you have never run before; and when you have finished running, keep running. "

I Am The God Of The Furnace And The Fire
Stephen Hanson

Nov. 16, evening, 2005

So Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego came out of the fire, 27 and the satraps, prefects, governors and royal advisers crowded around them. They saw that the fire had not harmed their bodies, nor was a hair of their heads singed; their robes were not scorched, and there was no smell of fire on them. Daniel 3 26, 27

(The Lord have this word to me this evening as a reminder to me and others, that He controls the fiery furnace. This was also spoken to me because of the trial that I am presently going through at the school where I teach.)

"I AM the God who lifts everyone out from the miry pit. As King David came to Me in times of battle, so will you my people. There are many difficulties and trials in this life. The righteous man will have many of them, but I will deliver him out of all of them. This is a time of great testing that I AM bringing many of my people into. You will be tried in the furnace, but I tell you, the heat will not overwhelm you. As my servants were in the fiery furnace and they did not burn up, so it will be with you. My rod and my staff, they will comfort you. I will prepare a table for you in the midst of your enemies. The fiery furnace will burn down to embers. I control the heat and I know how much each of my servants can handle. I AM the engineer of this furnace. There are trials in this life and I know how to use them for my glory. I AM the God of the furnace and the fire."

I Will Fulfill My Word

Musa Opiyo

Oct 8, 2004

Many days, months, weeks, even years have passed and yet the fulfillment of my promise has not come, some have said.
Am I not God?
Do I not perform My Word in My own timing?
Do I need your help in fulfilling My Word?
Certainly I have promised that the dew shall fall to the ground, but that word which I speak shall not return to Me void. Yet because of no outward sign of progress, many of you have simply given up and abandoned the dreams and desires which I placed in you.

For some this season has been a test of faith where you have held fast to every promise I have spoken despite the outward circumstances telling a different story. I am not slack concerning My Word. I will perform that which I have spoken and in the manner which I have purposed. I also see some of My people who are walking in presumption because you heard Me speak one way yet interpreted it to be another way. Have I not promised that I would clearly give direction to those who wait on Me? This is a time in history to walk in the clear knowledge of what to do and where you are to go. Trust Me to direct your steps and lead you around the traps that have been set by the enemy.

My Word is true and I will fulfill that which I have spoken as a promise.

Blessings,

I Will Keep My People Safe In Spite Of What Is Coming

Stephen Hanson

Dec. 2, 2005

16 This is what the LORD says: "Stand at the crossroads and look; ask for the ancient paths, ask where the good way is, and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls. But you said, 'We will not walk in it.' 17 I appointed watchmen over you and said, 'Listen to the sound of the trumpet!' But you said, 'We will not listen.' 18 Therefore hear, O nations; observe, O witnesses, what will happen to them. Jer. 6:16-18

(During the midst of this word, I saw an image of a King who was pondering these things in his mind. I also saw various images of tanks and other military gear, as they came across the scenery. Lastly, I saw an image of the White House from the front. This was important, because a decision was to be made from there.)

"On the wings of my spirit I will carry my people in these days. I will carry them to places of nourishment. I will uphold them. I will give them strength. "

"For behold, from a distant land they come. Hordes of people are coming. Over the leagues of the sea they have come. What will your generals do in that hour? Will their armies be ready? What will the decision be made from the White House? I tell you, your nation will be taken by surprise. "

"Have your prophets told you the truth about these things? How many have truly stood upon the walls and warned the people? How many prophets speak their own words? How many prophets speak for a profit? Truly, during those days, you will know who has stood up for the truth, but my people will be brought to safety. In spite of these things, I watch over my people, and I will keep them safe. "

I Will Shake And Roar

Judy Curmi

4-1-2005 by

I received this message the morning following the death of Terri Schaivo. Terri died of thirst and dehydration in a hospital in Clearwater, Florida following the removal of her feeding tube. Clearwater is on the West Coast of Florida near St. Petersburg and Tampa.

[Isa. 59:14-19 NKJ] Justice is turned back and righteousness stands afar off; for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter. So truth fails and he who departs from evil makes himself a prey.

Then the Lord saw it, and it displeased Him that there was no justice. He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor; Therefore His own arm brought salvation for Him; and His own righteousness, it sustained Him.

For He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on His head; He put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak.

According to their deeds, accordingly He will repay, fury to His adversaries, recompense to His enemies; The coastlands He will fully repay.

So they shall fear the name of the Lord from the west, and His glory from the rising of the sun; When the enemy comes in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord will raise up a standard against him.

My people, nothing you have gone through has been in vain. Everything has a Purpose. Nothing happens that is not taken into consideration in my Plans and nothing happens without my consent.

The LION is about to ROAR in such a mighty way that the whole world will be awakened from its slumber. The world has been slumbering for a long time and it will take a great shaking to wake them up. Hold onto me and stay hidden in me. Be sure not to be ruled by your flesh or your emotions, but inquire of me.

Man is not going to have the answers in the days ahead. In fact, people in positions of authority are going to have no idea whatsoever as to what to do when I, the King of Kings, start roaring and showing my mighty power. They will look at things through carnal eyes instead of the eyes of my Spirit. Therefore all of their choices or options will be BAD and their decisions will be WRONG.

I AM going to separate the holy from the profane. I AM going to separate those who belong to me from the world. People are going to have to make a choice and will no longer be allowed to sit on the fence or speak out of both sides of their mouths.

I said that your yea was to be yea and your nay, nay (yes or no). I will no longer tolerate people speaking in MY name and acting on MY behalf, but they listen to and follow the devil!

My Word is sharper than a two-edged sword. I am going to take this sword of mine and I am going to start dividing. Some will fall on one side and some will fall on the other. If you side with mammon or position, it will be the wrong choice.

Things are going to start happening very rapidly. Man will not have time to catch his breath, settle down or get back into old mind-numbing routines that have characterized the past.

I will shake, shake, shake. Everyone will know that something is "wrong" or that something "strange and amiss" is going on. Everyone knows if a fully-grown elephant is stomping and trumpeting at their doorstep! So it will be in the days ahead.

I will have MY way in the earth. I will establish MY kingdom and there is not one thing that kings or rulers can do to stop me. [Ps. 2] I AM going to reign in righteousness. The days of unrighteous rulers and unrighteous judges are about end. The days of corporate greed and stealing the rightful wages of workers and laborers are about to end. [Jas. 5:1-8]

I did not establish earth for man to trample on and destroy, or for a few to turn into their private playground at the expense of everyone else!

I have seen the many tears and I have heard the cries of pain and anguish that ascend from all over the earth. I AM about to answer and I AM going to answer in a very big way.

Your world is coming down, Oh man. Your King is coming and I will take charge. Everything is going to change. I will shake and I will roar. The corrupt and defiled will come tumbling down. NOW is the day. The hour is at hand.

IT IS THE DAY OF MY POWER.*

You may curse me, but you won’t mock me anymore. You may conspire as much as you please. Your plate will be left empty and your house desolate, for the Great I AM is on the way.

The Most High

Ps 110 The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.*
The Lord shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion; rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.
Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.
The Lord hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.
The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.
He shall judge among the heathen. He shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he shall wound the heads over many countries.
He shall drink of the brook in the way: therefore shall he lift up the head. [KJV]

I Will Shine

Lanna Perry

My church, how I love you. I love each of you with such an everlasting love that you simply cannot comprehend. I love you with a love that will reach deep into those places that no one else can, and will bring those places that have been dead and wounded to life.

Many of you are choosing to walk in the flesh, and choosing to gratify the flesh and not walk by My Spirit. I am calling out to My church 'repent' for the time of My return is near.

The spirit of control is rampant in the lives of my children, and churches today. Jezebel, she longs to crush, kill, and contain so that My Spirit cannot move. Many of you are allowing her to control thought patterns and actions. Many of you are not listening to My voice and what I am speaking and are continually walking in the ways that you know is not of Me.

Control is trying to crush My work and My church. Nothing will crush Me, for I am a Mighty Fortress, the Almighty God, and nothing is greater than Me.

Church, relinquish control. Relinquish the control of your lives, and surrender completely to Me, so that I may shine. Many of you are holding onto situations and the reigns of your lives so tight because of fear, and unbelief. Let go, and watch the Lord Almighty work. Allow Me the room to shine in your lives.

I am pouring My grace over each of you in great ways because of My love for you, but it grieves Me deeply to see My children holding so tightly to their own agenda's and their own plans. This is not My heart and not what I am calling My church too.

I am moving quickly, and I am preparing the way for My return. Like in a game of chess, I am placing all My warriors, My children in place to play out My victory, as the victory has already been won, but many of you cannot take up the positions that I have for you, because you are not relinquishing control. You are continually choosing to push aside that which I am speaking and continuing to walk in the ways that you feel are easier.

My precious, precious children, your way is not easier. It may seem easier to begin with, and the enemy will tell you it's easier, but the road of one who does not relinquish control to Me, leads to bondage. A life of not fulfilling that which I have called you too.

The great shaking is beginning. The world is only now feeling slight tremors, but the world is going to see an even greater shaking that will come about, to give mankind yet another opportunity to see that there is NO life without Me. Nothing is secure except Me. I am continually giving people chances to see Me, and obey Me, because I love them, and want NONE to perish but long to have all in My arms. Many refuse to hear though. Many who do not know Me refuse to hear, and many who do know Me refuse to hear.

Control is chewing away at the lives of My children and churches, and the only way this is to be broken, is by My church and children repenting of doing things their way.

I am a God who looks at the heart. I look at each of your hearts, and I know that you long to serve Me, and I love that.

Relinquish control. Relinquish your needs to have things done your way, and take a mighty leap of faith My children, and watch Me catch you, and provide for you in greater ways than ever before.

Many of you have to come to Me and allow me to heal past wounds. For many of you are stuck where you are because of these wounds. Come to Me, and continue to sit before Me and allow Me to place My healing balm of Gilead upon you, and bring you healing, so that you may be free.

Come, My church, I am longing to shine brighter through each of you, more than you could ever imagine. Control must be crushed and relinquished. Repent church, Repent my children of your preconceived ideas and plans, so that I may have free reign to shine brighter than ever before.

I Am The Way The Truth And The Life

Catharina Schouten

After I searched for the Lord and spent some time worshipping, and some time in silence, with Him, I tried to get some sleep.
But as soon as I closed my eyes I saw short visions. I thought if this is from the Father, I will remember it tomorrow and write it down, but I could not get peace in my heart. Lights on and lights out trying to sleep. Something deep within my spirit, a deep ringing inside told me to get up and write it down.
And there came a point, that I felt in my heart I must come out of my bed, and I must write it now.

Visions:
Mountain: The mountain can be a "mountain of trouble", adultery, etc.
It should be a Mountain of the Lord to come meet Your Lord.

I saw a mountain, it was a Mountain built of keys. Next, I saw people running back and forth and throwing their keys on the mountain.
After the vision, I saw raindrops falling down on a stone. And the last vision was a vision of a sunflower.

Interpretation of the visions:
The keys represent: your own steps to receive something. The keys reveal our own systems, self made formulas our own steps to our solutions, but is must be: I Am The Way!
My Key to open My Kingdom, the Father said.
The keys represent our own systems our own steps. Who must lead to solutions?
It must be I, I Am the Key.

The Mountain of Keys represents gold calves, keys to our own way to minister healing, deliverance, etc.
It is not your seven steps this is wrong because Yeshua Is The Key!

Raindrops:

The raindrops falling on the stone represent: if we take those keys to healing, delivering, steps to our way of thinking how it should be done, we take them as our truths and take them above Yeshua.
Constant water running over time on a rock, can cut like a knife if it goes on long enough.
Taking keys over Yeshua means that these little drops become our belief in these keys/ formulas and they will wearing down, cutting our faith in Yeshua.
We are taking these keys over and over again filling our heart with them, and not with Yeshua.

It is also standing for the opposite, His living water is falling on a heart of stone.
The same vision:

His living water falling down on a heart of stone, because we closed our heart to Him, but opened our heart to the keys.
He is trying to pull out the Living Water out of us, but we closed our heart for HIS simple truth! We opened our hearts to fake solutions. So, more and more, we walk further away from our position as a simple child of God, further and further away from His hand, away from the simple trust as a simple child.

When we return to Him, Yeshua, and repenting, (teshuva = return repent) the Living Water will be our everything, our all and all.
I Can Be Your All and All, In All your difficulties.
Likewise, raindrops falling down on the stone, so shall it be with our faith in Him making tremendous changes in us.
Like a stone wears out through the falling of drops, so shall our hearts change from a heart of stone coming into a heart of fire for Him.
and we will change into children who simply trust Him.

Example of a heart of stone: People who try to find all peace in their ways, they think they have all the wisdom and truth within themselves without Yeshua, but instead we must be like children.

Interpretation of the Sunflower: victory will shine like the sun with healing in its rays

Malachi 4: 1 - 6 The Day of Judgment
4 The Lord said:
1 The day of judgment is certain to come. And it will be like a red-hot furnace with flames that burn up proud and sinful people, as though they were straw. Not a branch or a root will be left. I, the Lord All-Powerful, have spoken! 2 But for you that honor my name, victory will shine like the sun with healing in its rays, and you will jump around like calves at play. 3 When I come to bring justice, you will trample those who are evil, as though they were ashes under your feet. I, the Lord All-Powerful, have spoken!

The Word of the Lord:
"Return, return to Me! Because even your own systems, your own statements become like golden calves if you place them above Me.
*I will give you peace for your souls. Am I not a Father who wants the best for His Children?
Don't I say Myself, My Yoke is easy and My Burden is light? All of the Law and the law of the Prophets is about one thing, LOVE.
First of all, love Me, listen to My voice, come before My throne in worship and I will make it.
My Bride, you will be like cows coming out of the stable and I will send you.
I will be The Truth."

The interpretation of children, children and babes, we can take this literally, but spiritually meaning we must be as little children.
Simply believe! Mark 10:15

Mattew 11: 30

This yoke is easy to bear, and this burden is light.

Mattew 7: 12
Treat others as you want them to treat you. This is what the Law and the Prophets.

Mattew 21: 15 Jesus in the Temple
15 But the chief priests and the teachers of the Law of Moses were angry when they saw his miracles and heard the children shouting praises to the Son of David.
The men said to Jesus, "Don't you hear what those children are saying?"
"Yes, I do!" Jesus answered. "Don't you know that the Scriptures say, 'Children and infants will sing praises'?" 17 Then Jesus left the city and went out to the village of Bethany, where he spent the night.

Mark 10: 15

14 When Jesus saw this, he became angry and said, "Let the children come to me! Don't try to stop them. People who are like these little children belong to the kingdom of God.
l 10.14 People who are like these little children belong to the kingdom of God: Or "The kingdom of God belongs to people who are like these little children."

15 10.15 Mt 18.3
I promise you that you cannot get into God's kingdom, unless you accept it the way a child does."

I Will Withhold Nothing From You

June Anne Garber

Walk in righteousness, goodness, and truth!

Hearken unto the Lord and arise and walk in the "goodness and righteousness of the Lord" , and as you walk in goodness and righteousness and in the truth, you will find yourself in My presence and I will withhold nothing from you. So, continue to pursue and to seek Me, and continue to pursue and seek My face, and continue to walk in all that you know that is good and righteous.

For in doing this, the clouds of adversity that loom over you will be split and My Son will shine upon you with healing in His wings and will cause the darkness that attempts to blanket you and attempts to suffocate and stifle you to be surrendered to My authority as you walk in My righteousness. For you must appropriate that authority, that the clouds be wiped away from those who you pray for that they may see the light of the glorious Gospel on you and thru you, for it is I that will pierce that darkness for them also, as I have for you that My Word and My Glory continue to be increased throughout the whole earth.

Jesus And The Children

John Piper

Pondering Children as Pride Detectors

One thing to watch for when assessing a person's spiritual fitness for ministry is how he or she relates to children. Put a child in the room and watch. This is what Jesus did to make his point. Children are the litmus paper to expose the presence of pride.

You might think that the main thing Jesus would do is to say, "Don't be proud, become like children." He did say essentially that in Matthew 18:3, "Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." But he said something else even more striking. When Jesus saw that his disciples were arguing over which of them was the greatest, "He sat down and called the twelve. . . .And he took a child and put him in the midst of them, and taking him in his arms, he said to them, 'Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me, receives not me but him who sent me.'" (Mark 9:34-37).

Receiving a child into your arms in the name of Jesus is a way to receive Jesus. And receiving Jesus is a way to receive God. Therefore how we deal with children is a signal of our fellowship with God. Something is deeply amiss in the soul that does not descend (or is it really ascend?) to love and hold a child.

Therefore, it may be good to call to mind the ways Jesus related to children. Ponder these and let them stir in you the longings of Christ. What could be more significant than receiving Christ and receiving God the Creator in him? Amazingly, Jesus says we may do this in ministry to children.

1. Jesus was a child.

For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder. (Isaiah 9:6)

2. Jesus took children in his arms and blessed them.

"Let the children come to me; do not hinder them." . . . And he took them in his arms and blessed them, laying his hands on them. (Mark 10:14-16)

3. Jesus healed a child of a foreign woman.

"O woman, great is your faith! Be it done for you as you desire." And her daughter was healed instantly. (Matthew 15:28)

4. Jesus cast a demon out of a child.

And Jesus rebuked him, and the demon came out of him, and the boy was healed instantly. (Matthew 17:18)

5. Jesus raised a child from the dead.
Taking her by the hand he said to her, "Talitha cumi," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise." And immediately the girl got up. (Mark 5:41-42)

6. Jesus used a child's loaves and fish to feed five thousand people.
"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are they for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." (John 6:9-10)

7. Jesus said you should become like a child.
"Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 18:3-4)

8. When Jesus came, children cried "Hosanna!" to the Son of David.
The chief priests and the scribes saw . . . the children crying out in the temple, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" (Matthew 21:15)

9. Jesus predicted the terrible days when fathers would give their children up to death.
"And brother will deliver brother over to death, and the father his child." (Mark 13:12)

10. Jesus said that if you receive a child in his name, you receive him and the one who sent him.
"Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me, receives not me but him who sent me." (Mark 9:37)

May the Lord teach us this profound truth—that loving children in the name of Christ is loving God the Son and God the Father. Indeed it is more: It is welcoming and receiving and communing with God. Nursery work "in the name of Christ" is no small wonder.

Judgment Aligned With Christ
Arlette Pollard

Revelation 16:1-2

For loves sake
Captives are set free
As the healing touch of the Savior
Removes the bonds of fear and misery
For loves sake
Truth will chase away the night
Delivering men unto salvation
To stand righteous in God’s sight
For loves sake
Mercy will take aim
Gaining victory over sin
So men give glory to God’s name.

God’s holy voice proclaims
There is freedom
From sin’s unholy reign
It will found
By walking down
The road that love has paved.

For righteousness sake
Love came down from heaven
Established truth on earth
Proclaimed men’s sins were forgiven
For righteousness sake
Loves voice now sings
Of hope and mercy
Of God’s majesty
For righteousness sake
Judgment will be known
By the strength of love
That Jesus has shown.

God’s holy voice proclaims
There is freedom
From sin’s unholy reign
It will be found
As you walk down
The road that love has paved.

> “And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth. And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshiped his image.” Revelation 16:1-2
> “For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; because that which may be known of God is > manifest in them; for God hath showed it unto them. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened." Romans 1:18-21

"In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." A man who denies the person of the Lord Jesus Christ, walks blinded to the goodness of God, darkness overtakes his life so that he is not able to appreciate the value of God's holy Word. Turbulent thoughts aligned with the darkness of unbelief haunt his soul, so that he runs to and fro in hope of escape from mental suffering. This is his own personal tribulation, brought about by thoughts of grief and discouragement. By denying Jesus Christ, he continues to deny God's hand of salvation which could deliver him from unrighteous suffering.

This man denies, because he does not understand, the One who stands ready to welcome him through the gates of eternal, abundant life. Until the Light, who is Jesus Christ, pierces through the darkness that blinds the man to the goodness of God, the man will not understand that only through faith in God's perfect love toward him, is found the way to overcome his thoughts of frustration, despair, anger, and fear that impact his spirit, soul and body.

All of creation declares the handiwork of God. The Spirit of God, who has been with God from the beginning, and who alongside of God, has brought into physical being that which the eye can see. Those who partake of God's Spirit of holiness, through faith in Jesus Christ, will not only have eyes to see God's hand upon all of creation, but will have ears to hear what the Spirit is saying to them through the message of God's Word, so that they are led of the Spirit of truth, and not of the spirit of error. Those who deny the creator's handiwork are those who have eyes to see, yet are blind to the glory of God that surrounds them; they also have ears to hear, but their unbelief in God causes them to remain deaf to the message of God's love and desire toward them.

All men who have walked in the darkness of unbelief, have received their share of spiritual wounds, and will naturally desire to find something that will be as a healing balm to their souls. Those spiritual wounds are as grievous sores that plague the souls of men blind to God's love toward them. The grievous sores have been caused by the arrows of hatred, vengeance, anger, fear and feelings of being unloved, which lodged deeply into their conscience, so that, though they are spiritual wounds, they are as painful, crippling and destructive to their well being as is a physical injury to their body. Because of man's blindness and deafness to the goodness of God, idols are exalted and images are created that do not exalt the incorruptible God, but corruptible man, all in hope of finding something that will heal their many grievous sores.

> "Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand. Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face. Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance." Psalm 89:13-15

God is the faithful judge over all of creation, who is able to declare that which is right and true, and that which stands in error and falsehood. Because God is righteous in all His ways, His judgment will always stand right and true. When man disobeyed God in the garden by partaking of that which God told him not to partake of, God's judgment against man's behavior was right and true. God's love toward man, which He created in His own image, remained perfect, just as His judgment against man's disobedience was right and true. Though He loved man, God, who is righteous in all His ways, could not bless man's works of unrighteousness.

In right and true judgment, God determined that man's punishment for disobedience was for man to be cast out of the garden, where God had provided man shelter from all suffering. Man's disobedience against God caused God to rightly pronounce judgment against man's disobedience, which God would call sin. When man exalted his own opinion above God's, by partaking of that which God forbad, suffering was introduced into his life. Physical and mental suffering were to be experienced in his life because of sin.

Through the seed of Adam, a sin nature, which rebelled against the goodness of God, would be passed down to future generations of men. Man's sin against God caused man to partake of suffering, which would be as grievous wounds to his soul that could not be healed. Though the Lord God would be known to the Tribes of Israel as the, "Lord of our defense," God's right and true judgment against sin would stand. God would continue to judge the sin nature, which naturally exalted self above God, in righteousness. When men rebelled against God, exalting self above God, they sinned against His holy name, bringing suffering into their lives. God would judge unrighteousness, according to His righteousness, which is right and true.

God would give to the Tribes of Israel, men who were born of the seed of Adam, commandments to help them live their lives unto God in righteousness. Men who obeyed the commandments would be judged by the Lord, and would be rewarded according to their faithfulness in keeping His commandments. Men of the Tribes of Israel who disobeyed His commandments, would also be judged according to the righteousness of God, and receive His right and true punishment.

From the day that God escorted man out of the Garden of Eden, God had purposed, through a promised Deliverer, victory over the sin nature, so men would be led out of the captivity that sin had placed upon their lives. God promised that a Savior would lead men into a relationship with Him, where men would have victory over sin, so that grievous wounds that could not be healed would be healed, and the sin which produced suffering would no longer rule and direct the desires of a man's spirit, soul and body.

The promise of freedom and victory over the Adamic, carnal nature that naturally sins against God, was given to the Tribes of Israel. And now, because of the perfect obedience of Jesus Christ, both Jew and Gentile are given the opportunity to partake of the blessings that are revealed from heaven. As the promised Deliverer, Jesus Christ ascended on high to sit at the right hand of the Lord God, the heavenly veil was torn in two, which caused the heavenly blessings of God's Spirit to be released from God's throneroom on high, making it possible for both Jew and Gentile to partake of the spiritual blessings of God's eternal kingdom.

The spiritual kingdom of God's glory would fill the earth as the heavenly veil was torn in two. And according to God's plan of redemption, not only the Jew would be allowed to partake of God's spiritual kingdom, where a man's grievous wounds would be healed as the Spirit moved in power upon his spirit, body and soul, but the Gentile would be welcomed to partake as well. God had promised the Deliverer would come through the Tribes of Israel, and it would be through Him, that all nations would be blessed.

> "For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son: that all men should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He that honoreth not the Son honoreth not the Father which hath sent him. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life." John 5:22-24

When Jesus Christ ascended on high, purging the heavenly things themselves with His precious blood, the blessings of heaven were released into men's lives who stood upon the earth. Today, those who turn toward Jesus Christ in sincere faith, will partake of God's spiritual blessings, so that their spirit, soul (heart and mind) and body are influenced by God's divine nature. The spirit, soul and body once aligned with the Adamic, carnal, beastly nature, which naturally exalts self above God, will be brought into submission to God's will, as His Holy Spirit moves in power and authority upon their lives. God's Holy Spirit is able to war and gain victory over the carnal nature. The wounds that were received in the night, that pierced a man's soul under the influence of the Adamic nature, will be cured as the healing balm of God's holiness, speaks of God's love toward the man.

As God's sanctifying Spirit moves in power within a man's life, the eyes of his understanding will be opened to see that, when the carnal, Adamic self focused nature ruled and reigned over his life, exalting his own opinions and desires above God, suffering and torment influenced his spirit, soul and body. This man will learn that, to cast aside thoughts that do not express the heart and nature of God, will bring peace into his life. He will begin to realize there is nothing in the carnal, Adamic nature, that will profit his spirit, soul and body. The Holy Spirit is sent of God to subdue the beastly, carnal, Adamic nature of man, so that the lusts of the flesh give way to the holiness of God. A man's faith in the goodness of God will mature as God's Spirit moves in power within his life, so that much good fruit worthy of God's kingdom is produced.

Before Jesus Christ ascended on high, God judged the Tribes of Israel according to the law, now God judges all men by the righteousness of His Son Jesus Christ. It is His Son, Jesus Christ, who God uses to judge the hearts of men. Those whose faith is toward Jesus Christ, will be judged worthy of receiving the Holy Spirit, who is able to heal the wounds that pierced their souls, so that they experience peace in their lives. Those who deny that Jesus is the Christ will be judged unto unrighteousness, so that peace escapes them. God's judgment against those who deny His Son, Jesus Christ, proclaims that men's sins condemn them, so that their souls will experience no healing of their many grievous wounds. Yet, if today they should hear God's voice calling to them, and turn toward Jesus Christ in sincere faith, then they too shall be counted worthy to bear the righteousness of Christ, found in the Holy Spirit.

God has sent to the world Jesus Christ, to deliver men from the influence that the Adamic nature has upon men's spirits, souls, and bodies. But if a man denies that Jesus Christ is the Savior, then, his sins will condemn him, so that he continues to experience the suffering that exists within the darkness of unbelief. The spiritual grievous sores caused by fear, anger, hatred, vengeance, feelings of not being loved, or of worth, will continue to plague his life.

> "And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." 1 Thessalonians 5:23

God breathed into the nostrils of Adam His breath (life force, spirit) so that Adam became a living soul. It is the spirit, the breath of God, which gives life to all mortal men. The spirit is the immaterial part of the inner person that responds to God. God uses the word "soul" to represent the functions of a man's heart (emotions) and mind (thoughts and opinions).

A man, who is born bearing the image of the first man Adam, in that he has a living soul, but does not posses the Holy Spirit so that self is exalted above God, is said to be under the influence of the Adamic nature. He is not filled with the Holy Spirit, and cannot understand the things of the Holy Spirit, the leading and purposes of the Holy Spirit. He has no spiritual discernment. In all ways, spirit, soul, and body he is subject to the Adamic nature, which is representative of the nature of the first Adam born on the 6th day, who does not possess the Holy Spirit, so that self is exalted above God.

A man who bears the Adamic nature, his soul (heart and mind) will be held under the influence of self, his spirit will be under the influence of self, and his body will be under the influence of self. His spirit, soul and body, will bear the marks of the Adamic nature, which exalts self above God.

Self-preservation, self-satisfaction, and self-exaltation, will be of primary focus to the Adamic, earthly, carnal man. Yet, the wounds that plague the Adamic man will not be healed as he gives all glory to self. To bear the mark of the beast, is to bear the mark of the carnal, earthly, Adamic man born of the 6th day, in that he is a living soul, yet is not filled with the life transforming power and glory of the Holy Spirit. To live his life unto a holy God is of no value to the Adamic natured man. It is self he worships, and it is self that he will create images of, in which to worship and praise.

> "Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world." Hebrews 4:1-3

A man who has entered into God's rest, has entered into God's gates of salvation, through faith in Jesus Christ. On the 7th day, God rested from all His work He had made, those who are in Christ, as He is in them, will rest from their laboring according to the Adamic nature. A man who bears the image of the second Adam, Jesus Christ, is a man filled with God's life transforming Spirit who will be led of the Spirit, so that his laboring according to the Adamic nature will cease. A man led of the Spirit will give all glory to God, and not to man.

The Holy Spirit, who is able to present a man blameless before God, is purposed of God to perform God's good work of sanctification within a man's life. It is the Spirit who will expose the hidden works of darkness, so that all things are brought out into the Light and dealt with by the healing hand of God. It is faith in Jesus Christ, that will establish God's kingdom within a man's life, so that his spirit, soul, and body are divinely influenced by the God's Spirit of holiness. It is the Holy Spirit who will lift all condemnation from a man's shoulders as He reveals to the man God's great love toward him. Healing will occur as the Holy Spirit reveals that God's purposes toward the man are for good, to prosper his soul, and not to harm him.

> "For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." Hebrews 5:12-13

Just Being There

JUST BEING THERE

Loved ones, I am calling My people to be connected. Each and every one of you fight levels of insecurity and instability. It is a part of your humanity and a part of living in unstable times where the world can shift under your feet at any moment. Precious ones, I do not want you to be independent any longer. I AM moving Mine own ones into families, adopting the church orphans and church widows, and all those who have walked alone. Allow Me to do this work in your hearts and lives. Stand along side the other Christians I have placed in your life. Stand with them and be transparent with your own needs. It is a powerful weapon, - simply to be understood and heard.

On the other side of this, there are those of you who are so overwhelmed with the needs in your own lives, you don't know how to even begin to help others. Simply remember, that all you need to do is listen and pray and be there when you are able. Often, just your presence is enough. Lean on Me to take care of the problems, and simply be there as the faithful friends you really are. Thank you for being My listening ear and My tangible touch for those for whom I weep. over.

John 15:13 NKJV
"Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends. "

Ex 2:23-25 AMP
…And the Israelites were sighing and groaning because of the bondage. They kept crying, and their cry because of slavery ascended to God. And God heard their sighing and groaning and [earnestly] remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. God saw the Israelites and took knowledge of them and concerned Himself about them [knowing all, understanding, remembering all]. [Ps 56:8,9; 139:2.]

Triumphant Ears

TRIUMPHANT EARS

Many have been sifted, not being able to discern between their own thoughts, the enemy's thoughts and My still small voice. You will grow into this as you mature, having been weaned from milk and able to chew and separate strong meat.

I know how deeply you want to be firmly established in hearing My voice. I AM sending angels to help you filter what you hear and re-wire any short circuits which have taken place through your fallen faith. I have also planted discernment inside of you and I shall show you the way out of the maze. Follow the instincts within your heart.

Heb 5:12-14 NKJV
For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the first principles of the oracles of God; and you have come to need milk and not solid food. For everyone who partakes only of milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, for he is a babe. But solid food belongs to those who are of full age, that is, those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

Jesus In The Kitchen

Bill Somers

Jesus in the Kitchen or What is God cooking up anyway?

Part One: The Pickle Recipe

Some time back I copied the following definitions from the On Line Bible program. This definition of baptism came with a very interesting word study that illustrates what God is about to do in the Church. There are two words closely related to baptism; Bapto and Baptizo.

quoted text---

baptizo {bap-tid'-zo}

1) to dip repeatedly, to immerse, to submerge (of vessels sunk)

2) to cleanse by dipping or submerging, to wash, to make clean with water, to wash one's self, bathe bapto {bap'-to}

1) to dip, dip in, immerse

2) to dip into dye, to dye, colour

Not to be confused with baptizo. The clearest example that shows the meaning of baptizo is a text from the Greek poet and physician Nicander, who lived about 200 B.C. It is a recipe for making pickles and is helpful because it uses both words. Nicander says that in order to make a pickle, the vegetable should first be 'dipped' (bapto) into boiling water and then 'baptised' (baptizo) in the vinegar solution. Both verbs concern the immersing of vegetables in a solution. But the first is temporary. The second, the act of baptising the vegetable, produces a permanent change.

When used in the New Testament, this word more often refers to our union and identification with Christ than to our water baptism. e.g. Mark 16:16. 'He that believes and is baptised shall be saved'. Christ is saying that mere intellectual assent is not enough. There must be a union with him, a real change, like the vegetable to the pickle! Bible Study Magazine, James Montgomery Boice, May 1989.

The interesting idea here is that union with Christ is what He requires and when this is real there will come a real, permanent change in us. Like the vegetable is radically transformed, well so must we be transformed.

All the great moves of God in the past have just been bapto's, temporary changes. The revivals of the past have had long term permanent effects of course but the awesome holiness, the irresistible power of the Lord has only lingered on for short periods.

Even this refreshing called the new wine or the river is just a bapto. A bapto is the ankle deep water of the river. the knee deep and waist deep, the chest deep water is still a bapto. At these levels you can always get back out of the water. When it gets over your head, it's baptizo. When you can no longer go on your own way, it's baptizo. When you have to change from walking to swimming, never to go back it's baptizo. It's a permanent change. It's the kingdom of God come into your life and you entering into the kingdom. Its the manifesting of the sons of God.

Like the pickle is changed, we will take on the texture, the color, the taste and the aroma of the Lord God of Heaven. We will be like Him because we will see Him as He is. The world will forget what we were like before because they will see Jesus in us.

Part Two: The Red Hot Sauce!

The Prophetic Necktie

One summer a few years back, I came across a pastor I knew and found him wearing a prophetic necktie. It seems that the McIlheny company of Avery Island Louisiana had marketed a series of new products to diversify advertise and to capitalize on the name of their Tabasco sauce. These included ash trays, coffee cups, napkins, towels, coasters and other house-wares; and neckties.

On this particular necktie you could see a bottle of the famous Tabasco sauce in the foreground and the night sky in the background. In the night sky there were 4 or 5 bright stars, and one of them was especially brighter than the others. Proceeding from this bright star was a ray of light that led directly to the Tabasco bottle. An interpretation instantly leapt to mind. So I told this pastor that his tie was prophetic and depicted the Bright and Morning Star [Jesus] sending down the Fire!

God's Hot Sauce

[reposted from an earlier article]

In South Louisiana a standard table item is the bottle of hot sauce. Several years back while applying this to some of my wife's home cooking, the Lord showed me a parallel between it and the church. This seemed good to share at this time, as I believe we are about to see it come to pass.

Hot sauce has three ingredients. Water, cayenne pepper and vinegar. And in these we can see a picture of the Church

Water represents the people of the Church. The pepper is the fire of God, or the anointing, and vinegar speaks of purging or cleansing. The vinegar is needed to keep the pepper mixed in the water.

The problem with this product is that if you let a bottle of hot sauce sit for a long time without using it the pepper separates out and floats to the top. There it forms a crust. Since the neck of the bottle is very narrow, it doesn't take much time before it is completely clogged. No hot sauce will flow if the neck is clogged.

This is like a church that has sat inside its four walls and did little or nothing to reach the outside world. It has become useless.

God is desiring to use his Church to bring in a great harvest of souls in these end times, but the church has become like that bottle of hot sauce; clogged up and useless.

Now imagine that the harvest is like a big plate of jambalaya. That’s a rice dish with chicken, shrimp, ham, pork or sausage; seasonings and spices all mixed in. And before you eat this jambalaya you want to spice it up a bit with some hot sauce!

Well before God can bring in His harvest, he has to pour out his fire on the world and get some people saved.

But the instrument intended for this, his Church, has become of little or no use! What will he do?

The same as I would do with a bottle of hot sauce which was clogged up. Shake it!

One shaking is never enough either; it takes repeated shaking to clear up the stoppage. And after each time you shake it you bring it very close to your face so you can see if you have cleared up the blockage. If it's not ready, you shake it again.

God is about to shake his Church. And with each shaking, we will draw it closer to Himself, examine it and judge it. And then shake it again till its composition is restored to usability. And all the little fragments have been put back into the mixture where they belong.

Then when he is ready, watch out world. His people will pour out of the old dead churches and astonish the world by showing them what Jesus is really like. They will be on fire for God and used mightily for His kingdom. Just like the burning bush, afire with the presence of God and not consumed.

Jehu's Wild Ride

Bill Somers

> … the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he driveth furiously

We hear and real a lot these days about the Church coming into the Third Day and the changes this will bring about. In this article, I want to take a look past the transformation of the Church, toward what this is all leading to. That is The Second Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ.

> And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people ….. Ex 19:11

The quote about driving above is taken from 2 Kings Chapter 9, where we see this discussion of Jehu's wild ride. Here is the complete text.

> So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram
> And there stood a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take an horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace
> So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again
> Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me
> And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he driveth furiously
> And Joram said, Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite
> And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, What peace, so long as the whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many
> And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah
> And Jehu drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot
> Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this burden upon him
> Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, saith the LORD; and I will requite thee in this plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the LORD. (2 Kings 9:16-26)

Jehu's ride is a picture of Jesus Second Coming

What caught my attention in this passage, and led to the Lord opening up my understanding of it, is the detail of Jehu's driving. This is seemingly an insignificant historical tidbit. But the point of it is that the people watching could tell it was Jehu coming while he was still a long ways away. They knew who it was before he even came close! Hallelujah! Now what does that remind you of except the Second Coming?

> And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. Mt 24:30
> And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. Lu 21:27
> Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. Re 1:7

So the way Jehu drives is not just some trivial tidbit, but a vital clue that this entire story has end time meaning. The story continues through chapter 9 and into chapter 10 up to verse 28, where it says:

> Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel. 2 Ki 10:28

Here are some other points of comparison between Jehu's Wild Ride and The Second Coming.

A. He is joined by a small party that goes out to meet him.
This is the so called rapture, but it is only a small remnant [those still remaining alive] of the saints at this time.

> Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 1Th 4:17

B. He destroys the two Kings,
These stand for the 'Beast' and the 'False Prophet'.

> And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. Re 19:20

C. He calls for the Overthrow of Jezebel,
In Revelation Chapter 2, Jesus calls for the overthrow of a Jezebel. Notice that in the story of Jehu, he does not personally destroy Jezebel, it is the eunuchs who do so. The reason they can do so is they are on the same level as her.

> And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window.
> And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had Zimri peace, who slew his master?
> And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs.
> And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot. 2Ki 9:30-33

Here we see that Jezebel looks out from a window. This means that she is in the palace on some upper floor. This is a picture of a wicked ruler in a high place. A spiritual high place held by a demonic power.

Who are these eunuchs? I believe they are prophetic intercessors. Those who are able to operate in heavenly realms, having made themselves pure in order to do so. These can throw down the spirit of Jezebel because they can reach her level and execute judgment there.

> For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it,

> let him receive it. Mt 19:12

D. He slaughters all of the worshippers of Baal,
Jehu called for a great sacrifice to Baal and required all the worshippers of Baal to wear special clothing that easily identified them. Then he commanded his troops to slay them all. The special clothing speaks of the Mark of the Beast.

> And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,
> The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: Re 14:9-10
> And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh. Re 19:21

E. The Meaning Of Naboth's Vineyard.
This speaks of the martyrdom of the saints.

In 2 Kings 9:25-26, quoted above we find Jehu's primary stated reason for returning to Jezreel. And that is to avenge the blood of Naboth. Here Jehu refers to an incident that took place during the reign of Ahab. This is given in 1 Kings 21; the entire chapter is devoted to telling this story. So what's so important about Naboth that the bible spends an entire chapter on him?

Naboth, whose name means fruit or fruits, owned a vineyard near Ahab's palace. Ahab wants the vineyard, but only to use the land for growing something else. So Ahab offers to buy the vineyard or trade him a better one but Naboth stands up to him and refuses.

> 1Ki 21:3 And Naboth said to Ahab, The LORD forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee.

Jezebel then arranges for Naboth to be falsely accused of the capital crime of blasphemy against the Lord and the King. Naboth and his sons are killed and Ahab takes over the vineyard. Then the Lord sends Elijah to meet Ahab and prophesy the judgment on him that Jehu refers to above.

Now when you see or hear the word 'vineyard' in the bible, your spiritual ears should listen up because the vineyard is a type of God's people. [Isaiah 5]

Since we see that Jehu's wild ride is a picture of the Second Coming of Christ, it should be no surprise that there is an end time allegory to be found in these passages.

Let's identify some of the elements of this allegory.

The vineyard: this is a type of God's people, the planting of the Lord. It can designate Israel, the Church or both. [Israel is also a type of the Church]

The plat [plot or lot] of ground: This is the world.

Naboth and his sons: Naboth means fruit, this also means God's people, especially those who 'become the sons of God'; the end time saints.

The crime of blasphemy against God and the King: this speaks of persecution on religious and secular grounds.

Ahab: Secular Powers

Jezebel: Spiritual Powers

Ahab's intention: [He wants the land for his own use, not to produce Godly fruit.] The kingdom of the beast wants to eradicate any knowledge of the True God.

Ahab's palace: kingdom of the beast or Satan's kingdom.

Summary: Ahab, with Jezebel's help, has Naboth & Sons killed so they can take over his vineyard. Likewise, end time secular and religious forces take over the world, destroy the church and kill God's people. [martyrdom of the saints]

This is saying the same thing as Daniel says in Chapter 7:

> I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; Da 7:21

And the same idea is put another way in Revelation 13

> And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. Re 13:7

And this is the primary stated reason for the Second Coming of the Lord, to avenge the blood of his saints.

> He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white. Joe 1:7

Other passages that speak of revenging of blood.

> And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground. Ge 4:10
> That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar. Mt 23:35
> From the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation. Lu 11:51
> For, behold, the LORD cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain. Isa 26:21

Revelation Martyrs

Let's look at the Revelation Martyrs, who also cry for vengeance.

> And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:
> And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?
> And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled. Re 6:9-11

Here it is indicated that there are many more martyrs yet to come before their blood would be avenged. In chapter 15 we see the rest of them.

> And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God. Re 15:2

These here are the martyrs referred to in Chapter 12

> And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. Re 12:11

Here these martyrs have gotten the victory because they were willing to die for the Lord. How does this get them victory over the adversary? Hebrews tells us that the devil has the power of death, and through fear of death he is able to keep men in bondage.

> Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;
> And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. Heb 2:14-15

So this tells us that by overcoming the fear of death, you overcome Satan. And the proof or demonstration that you have overcome the fear of death is simple. Die without fear. In Romans we read these instructions:

> I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.
> And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. Ro 12:1-2

Here it speaks of proving the will of God. At the end of Romans 12 we find this expression of God's will.

> Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Ro 12:19

So extending our train of thought, we see that the revelation martyrs get the victory over the enemy by dying willingly, without fear; and thus 'giving place to wrath'. And this wrath is the avenging of our blood that takes place at the Second Coming and is depicted in the story of Jehu's wild ride.

Jepthah's Daughter:
A Figure of the End Time Church
Bill Somers

Jepthah or Jiphtah means "he opens" or Whom God sets free, or the breaker through.

The Story of Jepthah is found in Judges 11:1 to 12:7 On first reading of this passage, you may think that it depicts a horrifying, senseless act of barbarism. For that reason, most readers will not want to spend much time going back over the story. But hold on here, there end time implications if you study the typology.

The End Time implications can be seen once you realize that Jepthah is a type of Jesus Christ; and Jepthah's brethren represent Israel. Further meaning becomes clear when you see that Jepthah's daughter is a type of the End Time Church. And her sacrifice, as a necessary part of God's End Time Plan. I didn't want to believe this myself when the Lord first showed it to me. But if you read carefully, the pieces fall into place.

Jepthah as a type of Jesus

Jepthah was the son of Gilead, but by a harlot. This means he was of the royal line, but illegitimate.

> Jesus is the Son of God, but his mother was unmarried when he was conceived. [This was well know among the people of his day. In John chapter 8, the Pharisees attacking him make reference to it. "… Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God. John 8:41]

Jepthah was rejected by his brothers and left to live in a distant country.

Jesus was rejected by his brethren and left, returning to sit at the right hand of the Father.

Jepthah's return as a type of the Second Coming

> "It came to pass in the passage of time that the children of Ammon made war against Israel." Judges 11:4

And Jepthah's people called for him to come and be their captain. And Jepthah required that they make him their head.

At the end of the age, Jesus brethren, the people of Israel will be attacked by all the nations of the world, leading to the battle of Armageddon. Then they will seek help from their God. They will repent and acknowledge him as their Lord and Messiah. They will make Him their head, saying Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. And He will come and fight their battle for them. And the Lord, His Father, will deliver His enemies into His hand.

The Price of Victory

> And Jephthah vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou shalt without fail deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands,
> Then it shall be, that whatsoever cometh forth of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, shall surely be the LORD'S, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering. (Judges 11:30-31)

Jepthah's daughter as a type of the End Time Church

Jepthah's daughter was his only child, and he loved her deeply, she was the apple of his eye..

Jesus' Church is his beloved bride whom he loves with a infinite divine love.

Whatsoever cometh forth shall surely be the Lord's

The daughter comes out of the house to meet him with timbrels and dancing.

The End Time Church will come out from institutional religion into the freedom of Revival. She will celebrate being in the presence of her Lord with great praise and rejoicing.

Her Destiny Revealed

Jepthah tells her about his vow and she willingly accepts her fate out of great love for Jepthah and total agreement with his purposes. This is part of the Revelation of Jesus Christ!

She is seen asking for a short time go out on the mountain before she must die. This is like Caleb's daughter who says you have given me land, now give me springs of water to water it. Which speaks of the Church who has been given the great commission but needs the great outpouring of the Spirit, living waters, to bring in this harvest.

When the Lord reveals Himself to His church, in revival, she will become willing to obey in all things. Like Mary who said, "Be it unto me according to thy word." The church will be willing in the day of His power to offer herself a living sacrifice which is her reasonable service. Her obedience is her worship. When you place your self at God's disposal you give him the right to dispose of you.

Jepthah's daughter goes out for a short time to go up and down the mountains.

The church will then have a short season to bring in the harvest moving in the miraculous end time power of God. She will be the one spoken of as how lovely on the mountains, [nations], are the feet of them that bring good news, [feet shod with the preparation of the gospel], and announcing the Kingdom of God is at hand.

Jepthah's Daughter meets her end as an offering to the Lord.

The End time Church will offer themselves a living sacrifice. [Rom. 12:1] When the beast is given power To Make War With The Saints, And To Overcome Them (Revelation 13:7)

The Mighty Men

There is another parallel with the sacrifice of the church in the story of David when he yearned for a drink from the well of Bethlehem.

> And three of the thirty chief went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto the cave of Adullam: and the troop of the Philistines pitched in the valley of Rephaim.
> And David was then in an hold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.
> And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!
> And the three mighty men brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: nevertheless he would not drink thereof, but poured it out unto the LORD.
> And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this: is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men. 2 Sam 23:13-17

What David does here is pour out the water as a sacrifice to the Lord, calling it the blood of his mighty men. This speaks of Jesus offering up the lives of those who risk all for Him. It also speaks of Jepthah offering whatsoever comes forth out of his house, his daughter, in order that he might gain the victory over Israel's enemies.

The Key to this whole thing is Jepthah's vow, the sacrifice of his daughter and what it means in terms of the church.

So we must consider how it is that Jesus comes and gets the victory in the battle of Armageddon. Or in other words, exactly how does the Second Coming come about?

Three things must happen.

The Gospel must be preached to all the world [Matt. 14.24]
The Powers of Heaven must be removed and Israel must call upon their Lord to come and save them.

If Jepthah's daughter represents the End Time Church, her role is in part one. But her sacrifice is needed for part two.

Let's look at them in reverse order.

One point is that Israel must repent before Jesus can return. He said 'you will not see me again till you say blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

We hear it spoken in several places that Israel will repent when she sees herself surrounded by enemies and has no other choice but to call on the Lord.

Here is a quote From "America Will Burn" by Dimitru Duduman:

> "When Israel realizes she does not have the strength of America behind her, she will be frightened. That's when she will turn to the Messiah for deliverance. That's when the Messiah will come. Then, the church will meet Jesus in the air, and He will bring them back with Him to the Mount of Olives. At that time the battle of Armageddon will be fought."

And here from Tom Cooper in an article titled "Update Israel"

> … Syria, Iran, Iraq, and just about everyone else wants to go to war against Israel and liberate "Palestine". I think Egypt is planning to join this challenge as well. They have recalled their ambassador to Israel, and called up their reserve forces (two things they have only done before when preparing to go to war) I believe we are headed for a full scale war.
> I also am sorry to say that my long predicted blow out between the U.S. and an allied Russia and China seems to be looming ever closer. China will take Taiwan, pulling the U.S. into a war, and Russia will attack the U.S. mainland. This will free the road to Israel once the U.S. has been taken out of the picture.
> Whether this is a couple years down the road I am not sure, but the Middle East is set to explode this summer in my humble opinion. This will lead to the destruction of Damascus the Bible speaks of. Israel will use nuclear weapons, and the world will quake. The end result will be the U. N. putting ground troops in Israel, and dividing the land, which Joel tells us is the precise reason God gathers the nations for judgment, because they divided His land.
> I believe all of this is going to force Israel into absolute seclusion, and a desperate situation that only the Mercy of God can deliver them (us) from. This is what will make them cry out Baruch Ha Ba B'Shem Adonai (Blessed be Him who comes in the name of the Lord.) It is then that Jesus will come again to His people, and the veil will be lifted.

This next point is crucial, I can't emphasize it enough.

> It is not enough that Israel is attacked on all sides by all nations of the world.
> It is not enough that Israel is forced into a desperate situation.
> It is not enough that Israel is frightened and facing annihilation.
> These conditions only reflect the physical situation. To make her repent something more is needed, a change in the spiritual situation.

We can't say that Israel will have no other choice but to call on the Lord in this situation. There is another possibility. This has happened before and she fought to the death in 70 AD at the destruction of Jerusalem and later at Masada where all the Jews committed suicide. This time she has an arsenal of nuclear weapons at her disposal. [Anwar Sadat knew this and decided to make peace. Today's Arab leaders seem to have forgotten it.]
There is one more condition needed for Israel to repent and that is that her spiritual blindness must be removed. Otherwise, to call on the Lord will not be considered an option.

That spiritual blindness is due to the presence of the powers of heaven. These are spiritual powers that exercise influence on the minds of those beneath them. They are the cause of spiritual blindness; the spiritual blindness that we speak of as a veil. [It would take another very detailed teaching to go into exactly how this happens. Ralph Mahoney, for example, has an excellent 6 tape series on 'Spiritual Influences On The Mind'. But it is these spiritual influences that come into play here.]

The second point is that Jesus can't return till the powers of heaven are removed.. And what exactly does that mean?

Let's look at two parallel cases in the bible which speak of Jesus return. The first involves Moses, and we need to consider this as an example of prophetic typology where Moses is acting as a type of Jesus.

> Exodus 4
> 18 And Moses went and returned to Jethro his father in law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.
> 19 And the LORD said unto Moses in Midian, Go, return into Egypt: for all the men are dead which sought thy life.
> 20 And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt: and Moses took the rod of God in his hand.

His return to his people depended on the removal of those who sought his life.

And in Mathew 2 where Jesus, as a young boy, or Moses as a type of Jesus cannot return to the land of his people till those who sought his life are dead.

> But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt,
> Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.
> And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. Mat 2:19-21

Once again, His return to his people depended on the removal of those who sought his life.

At the end of the Tribulation, the battle of Armageddon, His return to his people will depend on the removal of those who sought his life.
Who are they that sought his life?

Now who is it that sought his life but the Kings of this world, or the powers of the air. The principalities and powers ruling in heavenly places. The Powers of Heaven.

And it is they who must die, [fall like Adam], for Jesus to return. The following scripture reference speaks of those who sought his life.

> 6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:
> 7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:
> 8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. 1 Corinthians 2:6-8

Before He returns these powers of heaven must be taken out.

Here's a set of scriptures relating to the Lord's return, the powers of heaven and the repentance of Israel.

> Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. Revelation 1:7
> The burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it. Isaiah 19:1
> And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Mark 14:62
> And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn. Zechariah 12:10
> In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God. Jeremiah 50:4
> In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve. Jeremiah 50:20
> Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.
> For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name. Amos 4 12-13

One of the final judgments is that the powers of heaven will be shaken and the stars will fall. This means the satanic kingdoms of the air will be judged and the demonic princes who sit in those thrones [Prince of Persia etc.] will all fall to earth.

> And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken. Mark 13:25
> Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. Luke 21:26

> Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: Matthew 24:29

One way that every eye might see Jesus when He comes is that He will orbit the planet. Perhaps he will do so several times like the space shuttle, as He carries out this judgment against the heavenly powers.

Why must these powers of heaven be removed? And what does this result in?

Because these powers make up the veil of spiritual blindness, and removing them removes the veil. Once this phase of the judgment is complete, the veil will be gone from over the nation of Israel. She will still be facing all her enemies coming to the battle of Armageddon. But then she will see clearly her need for Jeshua her Messiah and call upon him for deliverance in the day of trouble. Jesus will already be on the way, having heard the prayer before it was made.

A third condition for Jesus return is the gospel must be preached to all the world. This is the church completing the great commission and bringing in the harvest. After this the beast is given power to make war and overcome the saints.

We know that when the fullness of the gentiles comes in the veil will be removed. And we see that removing the veil means judging the powers of heaven. And this is because they are the ones who enforce spiritual blindness on Israel. They are the veil over their [Israel's] minds that must be taken away. What causes the powers of heaven to be judged, and why at this time?

The death of the church by persecution of the beast is what triggers the final wrath of God.

In Romans 12 He says:

> Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Romans 12:19

That's not just a warning, it's a promise.

> Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.
> Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good. Romans 12:20-21

The Church that is willing to be martyred is the church that overcomes evil.

We read in Joel where God is speaking of the nation attacking His people and the beast who leads them:

> He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white. Joel 1:7

Figuratively this speaks of the final persecution of the church bringing about the wrath of God upon his enemies.

So perhaps the fullness of the gentiles coming in means not just coming into salvation but coming into the throne room of heaven which means they must be martyred. This is what is spoken of by the vow of Jepthah. Just as Jepthah had to honor his vow which gave him the victory, it is the death of the church that will "give place unto wrath".

He Comes To Avenge The Blood Of His Servants.

At any rate the death of the church is what's required to trigger God's vengeance. This vengeance comes first on the powers of heaven. These are the men who sought his death, and when they are out of the way, this removes the veil of spiritual blindness from Israel. As Israel repents, the final condition for Jesus' return is met and He comes to fight their battle for them at Armageddon.

We have read many testimonies where people who get a very powerful visitation from God, confess their willingness to die for him. This can be seen in the scriptures as well. We will experience the same thing in revival.

What's unusual in this allegory of Jepthah's daughter is that her sacrifice comes after the battle is fought, but Jepthah is required to carry out his vow.

If we can see that the sacrifice of the [gentile] church is necessary we can also remind ourselves that Jesus has already fought the battle and won the victory for us.

Recap:

The End Time Church 'comes out' of the institutional church.
She receives a Revelation of Her Lord and Grace to accomplish His purposes.
When the Harvest is complete, great persecution comes. All but a small remnant perish.
When this reaches it's end, the Lord Rises up [with a shout!] to judge the powers of heaven.
This removes the veil of spiritual blindness from the nation of Israel, who then call upon the name of the Lord.
Thus fulfilling the final condition for The Second Coming.

Now what does it take to get her to come out?

Chapter 10
Lord, there is no one like you! For you are great, and your name is full of power. 7 Who would not fear you, O King of nations? That title belongs to you alone! Among all the wise people of the earth and in all the kingdoms of the world, there is no one like you.
8 The wisest of people who worship idols are stupid and foolish.
The Coming Destruction HIS ANGER
17 "Pack your bag and prepare to leave; the siege is about to begin," 18 says the Lord. "For suddenly, I will fling you from this land and pour great troubles upon you. At last you will feel my anger."
19 My wound is desperate, and my grief is great. My sickness is incurable, but I must bear it. 20 My home is gone, and no one is left to help me rebuild it. My children have been taken away, and I will never see them again. 21 The shepherds of my people have lost their senses. They no longer follow the Lord or ask what he wants of them. Therefore, they fail completely, and their flocks are scattered. 22 Listen! Hear the terrifying roar of great armies as they roll down from the north. The towns of Judah will be destroyed and will become a haunt for jackals.
Chapter 11
Then the Lord said, "Broadcast this message in the streets of Jerusalem. Go from town to town throughout the land and say, `Remember the covenant your ancestors made, and do everything they promised. 7 For I solemnly warned your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, repeating over and over again to this day: "Obey me!" 8 But your ancestors did not pay any attention; they would not even listen. Instead, they stubbornly followed their own evil desires. And because they refused to obey, I brought upon them all the curses described in our covenant.' "
9 Again the Lord spoke to me and said, "I have discovered a conspiracy against me among the people of Judah and Jerusalem. 10 They have returned to the sins of their forefathers. They have refused to listen to me and are worshiping idols. Israel and Judah have both broken the covenant I made with their ancestors. 11 Therefore, says the Lord, I am going to bring calamity upon them, and they will not escape. Though they beg for mercy, I will not listen to their cries. 12 Then the people of Judah and Jerusalem will pray to their idols and offer incense before them. But the idols will not save them when disaster strikes! 13 Look now, people of Judah, you have as many gods as there are cities and towns. Your altars of shame-altars for burning incense to your god Baal-are along every street in Jerusalem.
14 "Pray no more for these people, Jeremiah. Do not weep or pray for them, for I will not listen to them when they cry out to me in distress. 15 What right do my beloved people have to come to my Temple, where they have done so many immoral things? Can their sacrifices avert their destruction? They actually rejoice in doing evil!
16 "I, the Lord, once called them a thriving olive tree, beautiful to see and full of good fruit. But now I have sent the fury of their enemies to burn them with fire, leaving them charred and broken. 17 I, the Lord Almighty, who planted this olive tree, have ordered it destroyed. For the people of Israel and Judah have done evil, provoking my anger by offering incense to Baal."
PROSPERITY MESSAGE IS OF GREED AND PROMOTES SELF...
Chapter 10
Jeremiah's Prayer and
A plot to kill a TRUE PROPHET People will not listen to the truth.
23 I know, Lord, that a person's life is not his own. No one is able to plan his own course. 24 So correct me,

Lord, but please be gentle. Do not correct me in anger, for I would die. 25 Pour out your wrath on the nations that refuse to recognize you-on nations that do not call upon your name. For they have utterly devoured your people Israel,* making the land a desolate wilderness.
Then the Lord told me about the plots my enemies were making against me. 19 I had been as unaware as a lamb on the way to its slaughter. I had no idea that they were planning to kill me! "Let's destroy this man and all his words," they said. "Let's kill him, so his name will be forgotten forever."
Chapter 11
20 O Lord Almighty, you are just, and you examine the deepest thoughts of hearts and minds. Let me see your vengeance against them, for I have committed my cause to you.

So this is what the Lord Almighty says about them: "I will punish them! Their young men will die in battle, and their little boys and girls will starve. 23 Not one of these plotters from Anathoth will survive, for I will bring disaster upon them when their time of punishment comes."

DROUGHT COMING

Chapter 14
Judah wilts; her businesses have ground to a halt. All the people sit on the ground in mourning, and a great cry rises from Jerusalem. 3 The nobles send servants to get water, but all the wells are dry. The servants return with empty pitchers, confused and desperate, covering their heads in grief. 4 The ground is parched and cracked for lack of rain. The farmers are afraid; they, too, cover their heads. 5 The deer abandons her newborn fawn because there is no grass. 6 The wild donkeys stand on the bare hills panting like thirsty jackals. They strain their eyes looking for grass to eat, but there is none to be found."

THEY CRY OUT FOR THEIR LACK AND GOD SAYS
Then the Lord said to me, "Do not pray for these people anymore. 12 When they fast in my presence, I will pay no attention. When they present their burnt offerings and grain offerings to me, I will not accept them. In return, I will give them only war, famine, and disease."

LOOK AT THEIR LIARS THAT THEY HAD AND WE HAVE THEM TOO.

13 Then I said, "O Sovereign Lord, their prophets are telling them, `All is well-no war or famine will come. The Lord will surely send you peace.' "
14 Then the Lord said, "These prophets are telling lies in my name. I did not send them or tell them to speak. I did not give them any messages. They prophesy of visions and revelations they have never seen or heard. They speak foolishness made up in their own lying hearts. 15 Therefore, says the Lord, I will punish these lying prophets, for they have spoken in my name even though I never sent them. They say that no war or famine will come, but they themselves will die by war and famine! 16 As for the people to whom they prophesy-their bodies will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem, victims of famine and war. There will be no one left to bury them. Husbands, wives, sons, and daughters-all will be gone. For I will pour out their own wickedness on them.

JEREMIAH THEN CRIES OUT FOR HIS PEOPLE BUT GOD SAYS....

Chapter 15
Inevitable Doom
Then the Lord said to me, "Even if Moses and Samuel stood before me pleading for these people, I wouldn't help them. Away with them! Get them out of my sight! 2 And if they say to you, `But where can we go?' tell them, `This is what the Lord says: Those who are destined for death, to death; those who are destined for war, to war; those who are destined for famine, to famine; those who are destined for captivity, to captivity.'
3 "I will send four kinds of destroyers against them," says the Lord. "I will send the sword to kill, the dogs to drag away, the vultures to devour, and the wild animals to finish up what is left. 4 Because of the wicked things Manasseh son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, did in Jerusalem, I will make my people an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.
5 "Who will feel sorry for you, Jerusalem? Who will weep for you? Who will even bother to ask how you are? 6 You have forsaken me and turned your back on me," says the Lord. "Therefore, I will raise my clenched fists to destroy you. I am tired of always giving you another chance. 7 I will winnow you like grain at the gates of your cities and take away everything you hold dear. I will destroy my own people, because they refuse to turn back to me from all their evil ways.
8 "There will be more widows than the grains of sand along the seashore. At noontime I will bring a destroyer against the mothers of young men. I will cause anguish and terror to come upon them suddenly. 9 The mother of seven grows faint and gasps for breath; her sun has gone down while it is yet day. She sits childless now, disgraced and humiliated. And those who are left, I will hand over to the enemy to be killed," says the Lord.

TYPES OF JUDGMENT COMING

Chapter 16

The Lord gave me another message. He said, 2 "Do not marry or have children in this place. 3 For this is what the Lord says about the children born here in this city and about their mothers and fathers: 4 They will die from terrible diseases. No one will mourn for them or bury them, and they will lie scattered on the ground like dung. They will die from war and famine, and their bodies will be food for the vultures and wild animals.

Judah's Coming Punishment

5 "Do not go to their funerals to mourn and show sympathy for them," says the Lord, "for I have removed my protection and peace from them. I have taken away my unfailing love and my mercy. 6 Both the great and the lowly will die in this land. No one will bury them or mourn for them. Their friends will not cut themselves or shave their heads in sadness. 7 No one will offer a meal to comfort those who mourn for the dead-not even for the death of a mother or a father. No one will send a cup of wine to console them.

8 "And do not go to their feasts and parties. Do not eat and drink with them at all. 9 For the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: In your own lifetime, before your very eyes, I will put an end to the happy singing and laughter in this land. The joyful voices of bridegrooms and brides will no longer be heard.

10 "When you tell the people all these things, they will ask, `Why has the Lord decreed such terrible things against us? What have we done to deserve such treatment? What is our sin against the Lord our God?' 11 Tell them that this is the Lord's reply: It is because your ancestors were unfaithful to me. They worshiped other gods and served them. They abandoned me. They did not keep my law. 12 And you are even worse than your ancestors! You stubbornly follow your own evil desires and refuse to listen to me. 13 So I will throw you out of this land and send you into a foreign land where you and your ancestors have never been. There you can worship idols all you like-and I will grant you no favors!

Chapter 17

This is what the Lord says: "Cursed are those who put their trust in mere humans and turn their hearts away from the Lord. 6 They are like stunted shrubs in the desert, with no hope for the future. They will live in the barren wilderness, on the salty flats where no one lives.

7 "But blessed are those who trust in the Lord and have made the Lord their hope and confidence. 8 They are like trees planted along a riverbank, with roots that reach deep into the water. Such trees are not bothered by the heat or worried by long months of drought. Their leaves stay green, and they go right on producing delicious fruit.

9 "The human heart is most deceitful and desperately wicked. Who really knows how bad it is? 10 But I know! I, the Lord, search all hearts and examine secret motives. I give all people their due rewards, according to what their actions deserve."

Chapter 18

Then the Lord gave me this message: 6 "O Israel, can I not do to you as this potter has done to his clay? As the clay is in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand. 7 If I announce that a certain nation or kingdom is to be uprooted, torn down, and destroyed, 8 but then that nation renounces its evil ways, I will not destroy it as I had planned. 9 And if I announce that I will build up and plant a certain nation or kingdom, making it strong and great, 10 but then that nation turns to evil and refuses to obey me, I will not bless that nation as I had said I would.

11 "Therefore, Jeremiah, go and warn all Judah and Jerusalem. Say to them, `This is what the Lord says: I am planning disaster against you instead of good. So turn from your evil ways, each of you, and do what is right.' "

MORE PERSECUTION

18. Then the people said, "Come on, let's find a way to stop Jeremiah. We have our own priests and wise men and prophets. We don't need him to teach the law and give us advice and prophecies. Let's spread rumors about him and ignore what he says."

ABORTION --CHILD KILLING

Chapter 19

Listen to this message from the Lord, you kings of Judah and citizens of Jerusalem! This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I will bring such a terrible disaster on this place that the ears of those who hear about it will ring!

4 " `For Israel has forsaken me and turned this valley into a place of wickedness. The people burn incense to foreign gods-idols never before worshiped by this generation, by their ancestors, or by the kings of Judah. And they have filled this place with the blood of innocent children. 5 They have built pagan shrines to Baal, and there they burn their sons as sacrifices to Baal. I have never commanded such a horrible deed; it never even crossed my mind to command such a thing! 6 So beware, for the time is coming, says the Lord, when this place will no longer be called Topheth or the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter.

ASTROLOGY ETC. CONDEMNED

all the houses in Jerusalem, including the palace of Judah's kings, will become like Topheth-all the houses where you burned incense on the rooftops to your star gods, and where drink offerings were poured out to your idols.' "

14 Then Jeremiah returned from Topheth where he had delivered this message, and he stopped in front of the Temple of the Lord. He said to the people there, 15 "This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I will bring disaster upon this city and its surrounding towns just as I promised, because you have stubbornly refused to listen to me."

JEREMIAH WAS ARRESTED BY THE RELIGIOUS LEADERS mmmmm
Chapter 20
Now Pashhur son of Immer, the priest in charge of the Temple of the Lord, heard what Jeremiah was saying. 2 So he arrested Jeremiah the prophet and had him whipped and put in stocks at the Benjamin Gate of the Lord's Temple.
Jeremiah's Complaint
7 O Lord, you persuaded me, and I allowed myself to be persuaded. You are stronger than I am, and you overpowered me. Now I am mocked by everyone in the city. 8 Whenever I speak, the words come out in a violent outburst. "Violence and destruction!" I shout. So these messages from the Lord have made me a household joke. 9 And I can't stop! If I say I'll never mention the Lord or speak in his name, his word burns in my heart like a fire. It's like a fire in my bones! I am weary of holding it in!

I PRAY THAT WE ALL ALLOW GOD TO PUT WITHIN US HIS WORD SO MIGHTILY THAT IT BURNS AND CANNOT QUENCHED EVEN IN THE FACE OF DEATH!!

10 I have heard the many rumors about me. They call me "The Man Who Lives in Terror." And they say, "If you say anything, we will report it." Even my old friends are watching me, waiting for a fatal slip. "He will trap himself," they say, "and then we will get our revenge on him."
11 But the Lord stands beside me like a great warrior. Before him they will stumble. They cannot defeat me. They will be shamed and thoroughly humiliated. Their dishonor will never be forgotten. 12 O Lord Almighty! You know those who are righteous, and you examine the deepest thoughts of hearts and minds. Let me see your vengeance against them, for I have committed my cause to you. 13 Now I will sing out my thanks to the Lord! Praise the Lord! For though I was poor and needy, he delivered me from my oppressors.
Chapter 21
This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: I will make your weapons useless against the king of Babylon and the Babylonians* who are attacking you. Yes, I will bring your enemies right into the heart of this city. 5 I myself will fight against you with great power, for I am very angry. You have made me furious! 6 I will send a terrible plague upon this city, and both people and animals will die. 7 And then, says the Lord, even after King Zedekiah, his officials, and everyone else in the city have survived war, famine, and disease, I will hand them over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. He will slaughter them all without mercy, pity, or compassion.'
8 "Tell all the people, `This is what the Lord says: Take your choice of life or death! 9 Everyone who stays in Jerusalem will die from war, famine, or disease, but those who go out and surrender to the Babylonians will live. 10 For I have decided to bring disaster and not good upon this city, says the Lord. It will be captured by the king of Babylon, and he will reduce it to ashes.'
THE SINNERS BOAST OF THEIR PROTECTION AND FALSE SENSE OF SECURITY BUT..... SOUNDS FAMILIAR ??
`Listen to this message from the Lord! 12 This is what the Lord says to the dynasty of David: Give justice to the people you judge! Help those who have been robbed; rescue them from their oppressors. Do what is right, or my anger will burn like an unquenchable fire because of all your sins. 13 I will fight against this city of Jerusalem that boasts, "We are safe on our mountain! No one can touch us here."
14 And I myself will punish you for your sinfulness, says the Lord. I will light a fire in your forests that will burn up everything around you.' "

ONLY A REMNANT WILL BE LEFT...
Chapter 23
This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says to these shepherds: "Instead of leading my flock to safety, you have deserted them and driven them to destruction. Now I will pour out judgment on you for the evil you have done to them. 3 But I will gather together the remnant of my flock from wherever I have driven them. I will bring them back into their own fold, and they will be fruitful and increase in number. 4 Then I will appoint responsible shepherds to care for them, and they will never be afraid again. Not a single one of them will be lost or missing," says the Lord.

FALSE DREAMS AND FALSE PROPHETS.....
"I have not sent these prophets, yet they claim to speak for me. I have given them no message, yet they prophesy. 22 If they had listened to me, they would have spoken my words and turned my people from their evil ways. 23 Am I a God who is only in one place?" asks the Lord. "Do they think I cannot see what they are doing? 24 Can anyone hide from me? Am I not everywhere in all the heavens and earth?" asks the Lord.

25 "I have heard these prophets say, `Listen to the dream I had from God last night.' And then they proceed to tell lies in my name. 26 How long will this go on? If they are prophets, they are prophets of deceit, inventing everything they say. 27 By telling these false dreams, they are trying to get my people to forget me, just as their ancestors did by worshiping the idols of Baal. 28 Let these false prophets tell their dreams, but let my true messengers faithfully proclaim my every word. There is a difference between chaff and wheat! 29 Does not my word burn like fire?" asks the Lord. "Is it not like a mighty hammer that smashes rock to pieces?
30 "Therefore," says the Lord, "I stand against these prophets who get their messages from each other-31 these smooth-tongued prophets who say, `This prophecy is from the Lord!' 32 Their imaginary dreams are flagrant lies that lead my people into sin. I did not send or appoint them, and they have no message at all for my people," says the Lord.
False Prophecies and False Prophets
33 "Suppose one of the people or one of the prophets or priests asks you, `What prophecy has the Lord burdened you with now?' You must reply, `You are the burden!* The Lord says he will abandon you!' 34 If any prophet, priest, or anyone else says, `I have a prophecy from the Lord,' I will punish that person along with his entire family. 35 You should keep asking each other, `What is the Lord's answer?' or `What is the Lord saying?' 36 But stop using this phrase, `prophecy from the Lord.' For people are using it to give authority to their own ideas, turning upside down the words of our God, the living God, the Lord Almighty.
37 "This is what you should say to the prophets: `What is the Lord's answer?' or `What is the Lord saying?' 38 But suppose they respond, `This is a prophecy from the Lord!' Then you should say, `This is what the Lord says: Because you have used this phrase, "prophecy from the Lord," even though I warned you not to use it, 39 I will forget you completely. I will expel you from my presence, along with this city that I gave to you and your ancestors. 40 And I will make you an object of ridicule, and your name will be infamous throughout the ages.' "

THIS IS HAPPENING NOW-- IDOLATRY, PERSECUTION, LYING, EVIL DOINGS, WRONG MOTIVES, KILLING THE UNBORN AND THE YOUNG, PIOUS UNHOLY MINISTRIES FLEECING THE FLOCK OF GOD.. ETC...
I BELIEVE GOD IS VERY ANGRY NOW JUST AS HE WAS THEN...
WHO SHALL BE ABLE TO STAND??? GOD IS HOLY, RIGHTEOUS AND TRUE.
WE MUST OBEY HIM AND KNOW HIM IN ALL AREAS, YES HE IS LOVE, BUT DO NOT TAKE ADVANTAGE AND TRAMPLE ON THE HOLY BLOOD OF CHRIST AND THINK YOU WILL GET AWAY WITH IT!!
MANY ARE BEING WARNED TIME AND TIME AGAIN.. WILL YOU LIVE FOR HIM OR NOT? LISTEN.....
CHOICE LIFE OR CHOOSE DEATH... SOON THERE WILL BE NO MORE TIME
GIVEN FOR YOU TO REPENT.... DO IT NOW!!!

Moses and Jethro: An End Time Allegory

by Bill Somers

> 16. Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters: and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.
> 17 .And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.
> 18 .And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, How is it that ye are come so soon to day?
> 19 .And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock.
> 20 .And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left the man? call him, that he may eat bread.
> 21 .And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter. Exodus 2:16-21 (KJV)

This story follows the pattern a Lord revealed to me. I talk about this pattern in my article, End Time Outline. To quickly summarize it is that the end time events will follow a five step progression. The five phases are Kingdom, Judgment, Redemption, Harvest and Finale. These steps are illustrated in many places throughout the bible, once you know what to look for.

The key element in this progression is the transition from judgment to redemption. The purpose of judgment is redemption. We need to embrace and rejoice in His judgments, for when we see these things happen, our redemption draws near. The redemption we speak of in nothing less that the transformation of the church of today into the bride that Jesus is going to wed. The redemption is the reformation of the church.
A key verse to meditate on is Isaiah 1:27 "Zion shall be redeemed with judgment and her converts with righteousness."

In this story there are elements and actions:
The Elements:
The 7 daughters of Jethro [Ruel] are the church, or more correctly, the remnant of the church that is truly seeking after the things of God. The Number 7 here speaks of the perfection coming to the church.

Jethro is The Father.

Moses is The Lord Jesus Christ

The shepherds are the other company in today’s church, the establishment that resists the move of God.

The Actions:

The daughters of Jethro come to the well seeking to draw water.
This is the refreshing that parts of the church have going today, Toronto, Pensacola, etc.
This is the Kingdom Phase.

The shepherds oppose them.
This is the opposition to revival.

There is strife between them.
This could be called Civil War in the Church.

Moses comes on the scene.
This is the increasing presence of God in the revival.

Moses stood up
Let God Arise!

Moses drives away the shepherds who are hindering Jethro’s daughters.
This is the Lords judgments against false shepherds.
Let His enemies be scattered.
This is the Judgment Phase.

Moses waters the flock! The Well is opened!
This is the oft spoken of End Time Outpouring of the Spirit, i. e. Real Revival.
This is the Redemption Phase

The sheep are watered.
This is the harvest.! The sheep are provided for, all who thirst may come and drink.
This is the Harvest Phase

Moses and the women return to Jethro.
This is the resurrection of the saints and our gathering together unto Him.
This is the Finale.

Jethro gives Moses one of his daughters to marry.
Jesus receives his long awaited bride at the Marriage Supper.

I believe we are now at a point where things are going to get worse before they get better. So how do you handle it when things get worse? Just keep in mind that they are going to get better! Look UP!

Jezebel’s Affliction

Kriston Couchey

April 29, 2005

Jezebel’s Affliction

We are entering the time of Jezebel’s affliction. The AV New Testament word “affliction” is the same Greek word used for “tribulation”. In Revelation 2:18-29 Jesus speaks to the church of Thyatira telling them He is about to place Jezebel on a bed of affliction, along with those who commit adultery with her. Also, He says He will put to death her children.

Who was Jezebel?

Jezebel in Revelation is one who takes upon themselves a title, draws others into illicit relationships, and teaches others how to do it. She causes others to get nourishment through things used in idolatry.

In I Kings, Jezebel raises up her own acceptable prophets, attacks the true prophets, steals anothers vineyard, and is enemy to Elijah.

Who is Jezebel?

Today Jezebel is SELF, manifested in individuals and organizations. These take upon themselves titles, seduce people for money, submission, and affections. These also teach people to do the same. Those SELF-driven individuals and organizations take the place of Christ! (Spiritual adultery) These cause people to eat of the fruit of fleshly endeavors that are nothing more then self-serving idolatry.

Jezebel today attacks true prophets, labeling them as rebels, mavericks, unsubmitted, dangerous and not to be listened to or trusted. Yet she promotes and condones “prophets” that will approve of and defend her controlling, manipulative grip on the spotlight; and the grip on people’s affection, submission, and money.

Who is committing adultery with Her?

Anyone who submits to her seduction by giving themselves to her teaching and ways, and eats the fruit dedicated to her idols.

Who are her children?

All of the things birthed out of SELF and its fleshly desires.

Who is the cause of the affliction (Tribulation)?

Ahab united himself to Jezebel and followed her practices. According to Ahab, Elijah is the cause of tribulation. But Elijah declared the true cause of the trouble; it was because Ahab had followed after the idolatry of Jezebel. Men operating under the influence of Jezebel (SELF) cause the trouble.

What is the Affliction (Tribulation) for?

The reason tribulation comes is so that there is a change of heart. This is mercy so that all that are in bed with her might repent. Most of the church operates under the influence of Jezebel (SELF) right now. God is going to free us from her through tribulation. Yet it is for God’s purposes. Many will fight against it.

2Co 4:17 For our tribulation, which is momentary and light, prepares an exceeding and eternal weight of glory unto us;

Re 7:14 And I said unto him, lord, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are those who came out of great tribulation and have washed their long robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Jesus Is Coming Yet People Yawn And Not Yearn

Jan Markell

Sep 30, 2005

I recognize we're an apathetic generation that loves to be entertained rather than think real serious thoughts. At least some feel that way. But there is one form of apathy I don't get and that is the fact that people are yawning over the return of the King of kings and not yearning for it. This is the greatest news on earth. Titus calls it our "blessed hope." The Lord will put an end to all sorrow, sighing, tears, disasters, broken relationships, and more.

The apathy factor has grown since 9/11. America was torn for a few months and then many forgot because it wasn't in their neighborhood. People went back to sleep while the evil doers in this country continue their plotting.

The tsunami of late 2004 shook some folks up when they saw the carnage and Hurricane Katrina did the same for a while. But memories are short when it comes to bad news and apathy returned. But why the apathy to the good news that the King is coming? The world is starving for good, uplifting news. It doesn't make the nightly news because to them only bad news counts! Christians have the best news on earth, and at the top of the list is that God has an end-time plan, and evil will be vanquished with the return of the Lord.

Then I realized that Jesus would return in the generation that wasn't thinking about it! He says, "be ready for in such an hour as you think not, the Son of man cometh" (Matt. 24:44). Our Lord said he would intentionally choose a time frame when many believers were indifferent and not waiting and watching.

I have concluded that we are the "think not" generation. As a matter of fact, if the Lord returned today He just might find some churches pretty cozy with a sinful world and some of them majoring in minors when it comes to even preparing people for eternity. The new "seeker-sensitive" church movement doesn't want anybody to be uncomfortable and the message of Bible prophecy is labeled "doom and gloom." What is "doom and gloom" about focusing on the eternal Home Jesus has prepared for His believing church? Yet church after church has tossed this wonderful, uplifting theme which is also the major theme of the Bible from beginning to the end.

If believers can get ecstatic about a sports event, why not about the return of the Lord? It doesn't matter what view of eschatology one holds. Some believe in a Rapture and some in only the Second Coming. Either way, we need to be yearning and not yawning. Jesus rebuked the Jewish spiritual leaders of His day in Matthew 16 for not knowing the signs of the times or recognizing His first coming. I believe He is equally displeased that spiritual leaders and Christians today give little thought to His coming again. Jesus enthusiastically engaged His disciples in a discussion of His return in Matthew 24 and 25. From that I conclude that we can be assured that the quest for an understanding of His return is a worthy pursuit.

This world is not our home. God has prepared a glorious place for us. Life is short this side of Heaven. Sinners are lost and need to know this good news.

It grieves me, but I wonder what God thinks about this? I believe He is yearning for us to join Him in His Heavenly Kingdom, yet many of His followers seem to care less, or at the very least, put no emphasis on this in their thinking or theology.

Judgment Is Here

Bill Somers

Just a short note by way of commentary. Here are some recent signs.

- Large earthquake near Japan
- Another earthquake in Italy the same week
- Fires is Mexico and Guatemala sending smoky haze into Texas and Louisiana
- Food riots and mass destruction in Indonesia

Add this to the content of the prophetic material we are seeing lately, and you may well conclude that, as Thomas Gibson writes, we have entered into the time of judgment. This is the beginning of sorrows.

The USA is in the process of turning its back on Israel in the middle east. This will trigger judgments falling on the USA. And this is because it removes the main reason God restrains Himself from Judging the USA.

As our abandonment of Israel continues, expect to see increasing judgments. But also with this, increasing World Revival!

Judgment Must Begin

Bill Somers

[Revised from an earlier article on 1/3/99]

For the Lord would say to his people:
The time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God:
For I am setting my Throne in the midst of my people to establish my kingdom on this earth.
And That Throne that I set in your midst is a Judgment Seat.
The Judgment seat of Christ.
Yea there is Judgment coming to my house, for I shall set my house in order.
My House must be fitly framed before I can allow it to grow.
Yea I shall overturn the tables of the money changers and make my house a house of prayer.
Yea there is Judgment coming but my word says, that when my judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.
I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.
A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembers no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.
Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth?
Yea the dragon stands before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.
But I say this manchild shall come forth as I have ordained.
Yea, many tongues shall rise against thee in judgment; but I say thou shall condemn them all.
Yea the gates of hell are open. They are the doors you have opened by sin.
Yea the foxes have holes, the gates of hell. They are the holes that the foxes can use to enter my vineyard and spoil my vine.
Yea, The enemy shall come in like a flood, but I shall raise up a standard against him.
Yea, there are many weapons being formed against you, but I say No weapon that is formed against you shall prosper;.
When Jesus said to Peter, 'thou are Peter' he pointed at Peter.
When he said "and on this rock I will build my church" he pointed to Himself.
But I will build my church on this rock - The Lordship of Jesus - and even though the gates of hell are open, and even though the hordes of hell flood in, they shall not prevail against you.
Submit unto God! Come under the Lordship of Jesus, then when you resist the Devil, he will flee.
Yea the enemy has dug a pit for you, but he shall fall into that very pit himself which he dug.
Yea the wolf shall come and the sheep will be scattered, but the hireling shall flee, because he is just a hireling. And I shall give you true shepherds which shall be men after my own heart.

Yea Judgment is coming; Zion shall be plowed like a field. but that is how the fallow ground will be broken up. Then that fallow ground will receive the seed of my word. And my word shall go forth to the nations.

This great mountain that man has built in his image will be bought low and humbled. It will become a plain. Then I will bring forth the Chief cornerstone, the Headstone.

And I will set my king upon Zion, my holy hill, and He that believeth shall not be ashamed.

Yea my hand shall lay the foundation and my hand shall finish the work and the glory of the latter house shall be greater than that of the former house.

You have said show us the Father and that will be sufficient, and I say the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall show you plainly of the Father.

For whom the Father loveth he chasteneth, and if ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for this coming Judgment is for your profit, that ye might be partakers of his holiness.

Yea this Judgment that is coming to my house shall be grievous: nevertheless afterward it shall yield the peaceable fruit of righteousness to my people.

For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

And you shall find that the Judement Seat I am setting up in your midst is also the Throne of Grace!

Behold I have told you these things before hand so that when you see them come to pass, you will believe.

And when you see these things begin to happen, look up for your redemption draweth near.

Joshua’s Big Battle

Bill Somers

> Psalms 121:1 I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.
> Psalms 124:8 Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

The first half of the Book of Joshua contains an allegory of the end times. We are going to take a brief look at some of its features and point out some interesting details. It is one of those places in the bible where Israel and the Church are represented by different types which bring out different features.

Beginning in chapter 3 we see the people preparing to cross over the Jordan River and completing the crossing in chapter 4. This is made possible by the miraculous drying up of the waters. One of the meanings of Jordan is death. What we see here is God’s people coming to the point of death to self, allowing them to enter into a new dimension of unity as the Lord’s army.

Chapter 5 mentions the circumcision of the people and the appearance of The Lord as Captain of the Host. This speaks of cutting off of the flesh, and thereby coming to a place of being led by the Spirit. The arrival of the [angel of] the Lord is very significant. It relates to the last days outpouring of the Spirit also called the Latter Rain. When the King takes up his throne, the people can proclaim: Our God Reigns!

These features of chapters 4 and 5 are widely recognized as having to do with the transition into the end times. That is, Israel crossing the Jordan is a figure of the Church entering the end times. The Promised land, speaks of the Promise of the Father. We are going to concentrate on chapters 9 and 10 as they relate to natural Israel in the end times and the final battle of Armageddon, which is typified by Joshua’s Big Battle.

Here are the main points of the story.
Israel crossing the Jordan is an allegory of the last days.
The Jordan typifies death to self; crossing it is entering into God’s Sabbath rest.
Israel is a type of the church.
The Promised Land is the Kingdom of God.
Gibeon is a type of Israel.
The alliance with Gibeon illustrates the proper attitude and stance of the Church toward Israel.
Joshua and the Israelites at the time of making this alliance are a type of the end time church.
The great battle in the first part of Chapter 10 is a figure of the Battle of Armageddon, the second coming of the Lord.
The Canaanites attacking Gibeon at this time speaks of the nations of the world coming to attack Israel.
Joshua and the Israelites coming to the aid of Gibeon, are a type of Jesus returning with the armies of heaven to fight for Israel.

The two keys to seeing this allegory are these. A. To see Gibeon as Israel, and B. to see the battle for Gibeon as the Battle of Armageddon. Once you have this, the rest falls into place. And the upshot is the understanding that the Church needs to stand with the people of Israel, and support their right to exist as a nation. This of course does not mean we have to agree with everything the government of Israel may do.

This lines up with the wording in Romans 11, which tells us they are enemies of the gospel. This means that even though they may resist the gospel and actively oppose the church, we are to regard them as brothers in the Lord.

> Romans 11:28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes.

Indications that Gibeon stands for Israel.
From Joshua chapter 9:

> 9 And they said unto him, From a very far country thy servants are come because of the name of the LORD thy God: for we have heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt,

This speaks of the fact that Israel has a relationship with the Lord, and remembers how he brought them out of Egypt.

> 12 This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we came forth to go unto you; but now, behold, it is dry, and it is mouldy:

Here the Bread speaks of the oracles of God entrusted to them, which are now the dead letter of the word; stale, dry and moldy.

> 13 And these bottles of wine, which we filled, were new; and, behold, they be rent: and these our garments and our shoes are become old by reason of the very long journey.

The ruptured wine skins means the loss of the wine, which is the Joy of the Lord. The old clothing and shoes tell of dead and useless traditions. And the long journey points to the 4000 years since Abraham.

> 16 And it came to pass at the end of three days after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them.
> 17 And the children of Israel journeyed, and came unto their cities on the third day*. Now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjathjearim.*

In verses 16 and 17 the references to the third day are a clue to an end time application of this story. When the children of Israel discover that Gibeon is an enemy nation, [enemies of the gospel], they do not come against them in any way.

> 18 And the children of Israel smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel. ….

Joshua pronounces a curse on Gibeon in verse 23.

> 23 Now therefore ye are cursed, ….

This is a reflection of the curse on the Jews as they have been scattered among the gentiles all through history. Zechariah 8 mentions it, along with a promise of salvation for them.

> Zechariah 8:13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

The end time church will come to realize this promise; and that they are beloved of the father. Thus we will put away all forms of replacement theology, and become a blessing to Israel.

The Battle For Gibeon As The Battle Of Armageddon
From Joshua chapter 10, these are the key verses.

> 3 Wherefore Adonizedec king of Jerusalem, sent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying,
> 4 Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon: for it hath made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.
> 5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Gibeon, and made war against it.

Here the picture is that all the kingdoms around Gibeon come up to attack her. The end time parallel is that all nations of the world come to attack Israel.

> Zechariah 12:1-3
> 1 The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.
> 2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.
> 3 And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.
> Zechariah 12:8-10
> 8 In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.
> 9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.
> 10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.
> Zechariah 14:1-3
> 1 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.
> 2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.
> 3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

The day of battle mentioned in Zechariah 14:3 is speaking of this very battle here in Joshua 10. [As it also refers to second Chronicles 20 which is another picture of the battle of Armageddon.]

> 6 And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Slack not thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us.

This verse showing Gibeon calling for help from Joshua is a picture of end time Israel calling on the Lord for their deliverance. See Zechariah 12:10 above.

Here Joshua comes to their aid.

> 9 Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night.

> 12 Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.
> 13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day.
> 14 And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the LORD fought for Israel.

The end time parallel here is the day of the Lord. It will be longer than an ordinary day, and will have special signs in the sun and the moon. It will also be a day of vengeance on Israel's enemies.

> Zechariah 14:5-7
> 5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.
> 6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark:
> 7 But it shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening time it shall be light.
> Joel 2:10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:
>
> Joel 2:31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.
> Matthew 24:29 Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:
> Revelation 6:12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

One Other Confirming Feature

At the beginning of Joshua 9, it speaks of all the Canaanite kings banding together to fight against Joshua. Then it digresses into the story of Gibeon making alliance with Joshua. Then in chapter 10, we see all the Canaanite kings banding together to fight against Gibeon. What happened? Here we see them totally ignoring Joshua and coming against Gibeon. Then Joshua marches all night and comes on them by surprise so they are totally routed and beaten.

Joshua chapter 10 says the Canaanites feared an alliance of Gibeon and Israel, and so they decided to jump Gibeon while they had the chance. Joshua's deal with Gibeon was not a military alliance however. It was what we would call in these days a non aggression pact.

This situation points to the end time parallel we are looking at. The reason the Canaanites ignore Joshua in the story is they think Joshua is too far away to interfere with their siege of Gibeon. The end time parallel is this. By the time the nations of the world come against Israel, the church is no longer a factor. Whether or not you buy into any sort of rapture theory, there are still end time saints. But at this time the saints are no longer an issue because they are all martyred as you read in Revelation 13.

> Revelation 13:7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

So when Joshua comes and takes them by surprise, we see a foreshadowing of the Second Coming. As it says in Zecharaiah 14:5 and the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee. This is a vision of the Lord coming with the clouds of his saints and angels to the final battle.

> Jude 1:14-15
> 14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,
> 15 To execute judgment upon all, ….

Here we reprint the two chapters under discussion from Joshua.

> Joshua 9
> 1 And it came to pass, when all the kings which were on this side Jordan, in the hills, and in the valleys, and in all the coasts of the great sea over against Lebanon, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard thereof;
> 2 That they gathered themselves together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord.
> 3 And when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done unto Jericho and to Ai,
> 4 They did work wilily, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors, and took old sacks upon their asses, and wine bottles, old, and rent, and bound up;
> 5 And old shoes and clouted upon their feet, and old garments upon them; and all the bread of their provision was dry and mouldy.
> 6 And they went to Joshua unto the camp at Gilgal, and said unto him, and to the men of Israel, We be come from a far country: now therefore make ye a league with us.
> 7 And the men of Israel said unto the Hivites, Peradventure ye dwell among us; and how shall we make a league with you?
> 8 And they said unto Joshua, We are thy servants. And Joshua said unto them, Who are ye? and from whence come ye?
> 9 And they said unto him, From a very far country thy servants are come because of the name of the LORD thy God: for we have heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt,
> 10 And all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites, that were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan, which was at Ashtaroth.
> 11 Wherefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spake to us, saying, Take victuals with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say unto them, We are your servants: therefore now make ye a league with us.
> 12 This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we came forth to go unto you; but now, behold, it is dry, and it is mouldy:
> 13 And these bottles of wine, which we filled, were new; and, behold, they be rent: and these our garments and our shoes are become old by reason of the very long journey.
> 14 And the men took of their victuals, and asked not counsel at the mouth of the LORD.
> 15 And Joshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, to let them live: and the princes of the congregation sware unto them.
> 16 And it came to pass at the end of three days after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them.
> 17 And the children of Israel journeyed, and came unto their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjathjearim.
> 18 And the children of Israel smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the princes.
> 19 But all the princes said unto all the congregation, We have sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel: now therefore we may not touch them.
> 20 This we will do to them; we will even let them live, lest wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we sware unto them.

21 And the princes said unto them, Let them live; but let them be hewers of wood and drawers of water unto all the congregation; as the princes had promised them.
22 And Joshua called for them, and he spake unto them, saying, Wherefore have ye beguiled us, saying, We are very far from you; when ye dwell among us?
23 Now therefore ye are cursed, and there shall none of you be freed from being bondmen, and hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God.
24 And they answered Joshua, and said, Because it was certainly told thy servants, how that the LORD thy God commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you, therefore we were sore afraid of our lives because of you, and have done this thing.
25 And now, behold, we are in thine hand: as it seemeth good and right unto thee to do unto us, do.
26 And so did he unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not.
27 And Joshua made them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the altar of the LORD, even unto this day, in the place which he should choose.

Joshua 10
1 Now it came to pass, when Adonizedec king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them;
2 That they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty.
3 Wherefore Adonizedec king of Jerusalem, sent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying,
4 Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon: for it hath made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.
5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Gibeon, and made war against it.
6 And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Slack not thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us.
7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valour.
8 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear them not: for I have delivered them into thine hand; there shall not a man of them stand before thee.
9 Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night.
10 And the LORD discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth up to Bethhoron, and smote them to Azekah, and unto Makkedah.
11 And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Bethhoron, that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: they were more which died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.
12 Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.
13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day.

14 And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the LORD fought for Israel.
15 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.
16 But these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah.
17 And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah.
18 And Joshua said, Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to keep them:
19 And stay ye not, but pursue after your enemies, and smite the hindmost of them; suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the LORD your God hath delivered them into your hand.
20 And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, that the rest which remained of them entered into fenced cities.
21 And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: none moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.
22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me out of the cave.
23 And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.
24 And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of war which went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them.
25 And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight.
26 And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening.
27 And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.
28 And that day Joshua took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he utterly destroyed, them, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain: and he did to the king of Makkedah as he did unto the king of Jericho.
29 Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, unto Libnah, and fought against Libnah:
30 And the LORD delivered it also, and the king thereof, into the hand of Israel; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain in it; but did unto the king thereof as he did unto the king of Jericho.
31 And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, unto Lachish, and encamped against it, and fought against it:
32 And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, which took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah.
33 Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.
34 And from Lachish Joshua passed unto Eglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it, and fought against it:
35 And they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.
36 And Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, unto Hebron; and they fought against it:

37 And they took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but destroyed it utterly, and all the souls that were therein.
38 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir; and fought against it:
39 And he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining: as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the king thereof; as he had done also to Libnah, and to her king.
40 So Joshua smote all the country of the hills, and of the south, and of the vale, and of the springs, and all their kings: he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded.
41 And Joshua smote them from Kadeshbarnea even unto Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even unto Gibeon.
42 And all these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.
43 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

Judgments of God

The reason that the church must also endure these judgments of God (911, hurricanes, earthquakes, tsunamis, etc..) is because...

(1) for too long man (flesh) has dictated how and when the Spirit of the living God should be allowed into the building. Many times the Spirit is ushered OUT because He doesn't fit into their agendas for that day's program.
(2) Most Christians fear the conviction that the Spirit brings into their lives because it is easier to think they are okay, despite knowing they are in sin.
(3) The Bible was written for Believers, NOT Unbelievers. Yet, most Christians today barely know the Word, let alone live it!
(4) The CHURCH today is serving up a watered-down version of the truth. IE... it is okay for homosexuals to hold positions in the church and even Pastor!
When was the last time you heard a sermon on HELL, Hellfire, and Damnation?
(5) Pastors themselves justify their own lifestyles... on the down low, adultery, fornication, yes, even abortion sometimes!

GOD the Father is not pleased with the church and her perversions!

Let us read these verses from Joel Chapter 2...

1) Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand; 2) A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations. 3) A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them. 11) And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it? 12) Therefore also now, saith the LORD, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: 13) And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. 15) Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: 16) Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. 17) Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God? 18) Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity his people. 21) Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do great things. 22) Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength. 23) Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month. 24) And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. 25) And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpiller, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you. 26) And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed. 27) And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed. 28) And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: 29) And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit. . 32) And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

CHURCH, call out to the Living, Righteous God and ask Him to forgive our sins! SINNERS, call out to the Merciful, Gracious God and ask Him to forgive your sins! Then, shall we ALL turn from our wicked ways that God may forgive our sins and heal our land?

If We Repent, God May Relent
Sheryl Rice

Sep 22, 2005
Repent -
To feel remorse, contrition, or self-reproach for what one has done or failed to do; be contrite. To feel such regret for past conduct as to change one's mind regarding it: repented of intemperate behavior. To make a change for the better as a result of remorse or contrition for one's sins. Turn away from sin or do penitence (syn: atone)

Relent -
To become more lenient, compassionate, or forgiving. (See syn. at yield) To cause to slacken or abate. To cause to soften in attitude or temper. To give in, as to influence or pressure (syn: yield, soften)

Genesis 6:6 - And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

Genesis 6:7 - And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them. Exodus 32:14 - And the LORD repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

Numbers 23:19 - God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

1 Samuel 15:29 - And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent. Psalms 106:45 - And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. Psalms 135:14 - For the LORD will judge his people, and he will repent himself concerning his servants.

Jeremiah 4:28 - For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black; because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it. Jeremiah 18:8 - If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them. Jeremiah 26:3 - If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings. Jeremiah 26:13 - Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you. Ezekiel 14:6 - Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Repent, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.

Ezekiel 18:30 - Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord GOD. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

Ezekiel 24:14 - I the LORD have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord GOD. Joel 2:13 - And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Jonah 3:9 - Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

Jonah 3:10 - And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not. Matthew 3:2 - And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Matthew 4:17 - From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Matthew 11:20 - Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not: Mark 1:15 - And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

Mark 2:17 - When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

Mark 6:12 - And they went out, and preached that men should repent. Luke 13:3 - I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

Luke 13:5 - I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

Luke 15:7 - I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

Luke 15:10 - Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth. Luke 24:47 - And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

Acts 2:38 - Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

Acts 3:19 - Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord. Acts 8:22 - Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee. Acts 17:30 - And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: 2 Corinthians 7:10 - For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. 2 Peter 3:9 - The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. Revelation 2:21 - And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

Revelation 2:22 - Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds. Revelation 3:3 - Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee. Revelation 3:19 - As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

Revelation 9:20 - And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

Revelation 9:21 - Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

Revelation 16:9 - And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.

Revelation 16:11 - And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

Let us each examine ourselves according to these Scriptures and may we be quick to REPENT, that our heavenly Father may RELENT.

Sound The Alarm
Gary Rice

Sep 22, 2005
As a prophet, I MUST sound the alarm. Time to arise from our slumber. We seem to be concentrating on ALL Americans in these past and coming judgments. However, we have forgotten that as Godly men and women, it has been our responsibility to teach the people. The Word of God says in 2 Timothy 4:2 - Preach the Word, be instant in season and out of season.... We have been slack in our responsibility, some have been preaching a watered-down version of the gospel, and there has been dullness of hearing on the part of those we have been sent to. Nevertheless, we MUST fall on our faces and repent... for judgment must first begin at the house of the Lord! How can we say these judgments (911 / Katrina / Rita), and those yet coming are not first and foremost for God's people? 2 Chronicles 7:14 says, "If MY people, which are called by MY name, shall humble themselves, pray, seek MY face, and turn from their wicked ways, THEN will I hear from heaven, forgive their sins, and heal their land." We cannot sound the alarm until we've fallen on our knees and repented for OUR part which has brought these judgments upon us.

Jealousy of Moses
Marion Guenther

I have been meditating of Moses lately, the prototype of all following apostolic and prophetic leadership. The common perception today is that Moses had made a huge mistake in killing the Egyptian he found beating an Israeli, that he had acted prematurely out of pride and arrogance. Upon checking Acts 7, however, I see that Stephen had a much different take on this event:

Act 7:20 In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

Act 7:21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

Act 7:22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

Act 7:23 And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

Act 7:24 And seeing one [of them] suffer wrong, he defended [him], and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:

Act 7:25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

Act 7:26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

Act 7:27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

Act 7:28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

Act 7:29 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.

In the context of Stephen's description of the incident, Moses was one of many prophets and deliverers sent to Israel, against whom they had rebelled. Moses "thought that they would understand that God was granting them deliverance through him, but they did not understand." The story was not an indictment of Moses's immaturity, but rather of the rebellious hearts of his Israeli brethren. Moses had been forced to flee Egypt and wait in the wilderness of Midian for 40 more years for a new generation who would receive him. The Lord had promised that Israel would leave Egypt after 400 years. So why did they leave 430 years later (to the exact day)? Moses appeared to the Israelis in the 390th year. Presumably it would have taken ten years to organize leadership and seek release from Egypt. Instead, an extra 30 years was added to Israel's exile, and then later a further 40 years before they actually entered their promised land. This was clearly not the Lord's first intention, but was rather forced on Israel by its own reaction.

Act 7:35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send [to be] a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

Act 7:36 He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

Act 7:37 This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear.

Act 7:38 This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and [with] our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give unto us:

Act 7:39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust [him] from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt,

It is possible that much of the suffering and seemingly endless 'wilderness' tribulations over the past years have come because of the same rebellion in the church. We have cried out for revival, and have seemingly not been heard. But the jealousy shown by the Israelites of Moses' position in the Pharaoh's household, ("who made you a ruler and judge over us?") has been rampant in the church, especially in the 80's and 90's. We refused to be 'ruled over' by another who was no better than we were, just 'luckier.' Obsolete positions and titles were fiercely defended, and in the process, many of the true deliverers and rulers whom God had prepared for His church were cruelly persecuted and rejected.

But they did not die!!! These precious sent-ones have been kept in the wilderness by God for the time when they would be received. In that wilderness they have gained in holiness and meekness, and their authority has likewise grown. As they are even now appearing, their faces shine, and their eyes are alight with the glory of heaven. They are accompanied by signs and wonders never yet seen on earth, and the powers of darkness tremble at their appearing.

Jonah, Not Such A Bad Guy After All

Over the years I have read numerous articles and commentaries concerning Jonah. He has been given such derogatory titles as ‘Jonah the Reluctant Prophet’, ‘Jonah the Running Prophet’, or even ‘Jonah the Angry Prophet’. If there are any other critical titles left unstated, here is a __________ to fill the rest in. I would like to propose a new title for Jonah. How about ‘Jonah the Successful Prophet’?

Now how can a guy who ran from God’s word, got disgruntled with our Father over a silly plant and was discontent with the outcome of his proclamation come close to being labeled ‘successful’? With spiritual eyes, look at Jonah contrasted against most other prophets. Virtually all the other prophets in the Bible warned of great disasters to befall various peoples. Rarely did whole nations listen, kings repent or cities rend their hearts. Mostly the masses went about their business while listening to the ear ticklers of their day. And the word of the prophets came to pass and the calamities hit right on time with full force, thus many perished. But now Jonah you see, he wasn’t so fortunate to have his prophesies come to pass. This amazing little thing called ‘Repentance’ followed by a great wave of God’s Mercy swept across an entire city. What Almighty God specifically told Jonah would befall Nineveh did not happen as He stated (Wow, you mean God’s Mercy surpasses Deuteronomy 18:22? Who would have guessed that the Mercy seat sits above the Law?)

So I ask now, who then was really the successful prophet? The one who was accurate to the point that whole nations did not heed the word and they perished? It seems the Law and those whom are dreadfully lawfully minded would say ‘Yes’ to this one. Or was it the little discontent man who got barfed up by a large fish on a beach and hundreds of thousands of people believed his seemingly foolish claim and were thus saved? I hear the Spirit saying ‘Amen’. I too would rather people hear, respond and be rescued than a word or person be ‘validated’.

A Few Thoughts About Jordan Thu, 21 Jul 2005

Dear friends,

It’s now close to a week that I am in Jordan and I just want to give you a few thoughts about this precious country.

Since last fall as I was writing down the word the Lord gave me for Great Britain, suddenly this thought came to me which did not let me go over the past few months, that Jordan is the twin-brother of Israel....! well we know it, that Esau was Jacobs twin-brother and we all know its story, a story of much struggle, especially later on, when some deep hatred was grown, especially in the people of Edom.

It is true, that since the creation of the state of Israel, the Lord and especially many Christians have given much attention and care to Israel, and I fully support this, yes it is truly important, but the thought did not let me go in this past few month, but what about Jordan....? if we look in History, when Israel (or better say Jacob) was created in the 20this and 30this and then came to its rebirth in 48 it had again a twin-brother and again there was again a deep struggle between the two since its birth. But the truth of the matter is, that the Lord wants to restore this Nation exactly like He is restoring Israel (actually still much more Jacob)

Isaak released a very powerful call to Esau, after giving the blessing of the firstborn to Jacob which especially included the spiritual blessing of Abraham to the Nations and a great economic blessing as much as leadership. Yes Jacob (Israel has been greatly blessed over the centuries, but to be true it has failed also in a great way, especially to release the spiritual blessings to the Nations....and so did Esau in abusing especially the sword which was given to him....:

"Behold, your dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth And of the dew of heaven from above

By your sword you shall live, and you shall serve your brother and it shall come to pass, when you become restless, that you shall break his yoke from your neck."

Exactly as we are in a time where the Lord is restoring and fulfilling the call and the promises to Israel, the ingathering of the Jews around the world and the release of the blessing of Abraham to all the Nations, by the grace of Jeshua, I sense very strongly that Jordan has a call which will be very crucial especially for Israel to fulfill its calling.

I believe that the Lord has given a sword of Authority and warfare to Esau/Jordan, which is not given to Israel, its a sword Esau has greatly abused, we can read about this in the book of Obadja, but through the redemption and grace of the cross, Jordan will be able to get this call restored and to use it to truly serve his brother Jacob/Israel.

As Israel (Jacob) is in the process of coming back into his land, a very powerful struggle is awaiting him, exactly like Jacob had to wrestle with an Angel at Manahaim and only after this his Name was changed into Israel, so also for Israel a great struggle awaits, which its called the time of Jacobs struggle (Jer. 30,7) and it is through this time, that its name will be truly become Israel, called after the Spirit. I believe that the Lord wants to raise up Jordan for this time to serve its brother, to serve him and helping him to get rid of its religious bondages/yokes, the yokes of witch craft and also the yoke of free masonry which is very, very strong in Israel, exactly like it is written in the calling given to him through Isaac. I consider this so precious that I want to ask you to pray for Jordan and consider this thoughts before the Lord...!

And through this process the Lord will bless both Israel and Jordan and in a new way restore and release the Gospel of Grace, but specially the Gospel of the fulfillment of His promises to and through Israel and bless the Nations with resurrection power. I believe in the same way the Lord will equip Jordan with the Gospel of His great Mercy to the Nations and touch specifically its old allies Ishmael, which is the Arab world and the Hethits [Hittites] which is today Turkey, to bring life from the dead to this Nations which have been under the oppression of the spirit of Persia for far too long!

May the Lord bless you all and please keep the two brothers in your prayers!

Shalom from Amman, Jordan Ueli

Joy Of The Harvest

Bill Burns

July 17, 2005

In recent messages the Lord has had me preaching about the Garden of Renown that Ezekiel saw.

Ezekiel 34:26-29 "I will make them and the places all around My hill a blessing; and I will cause showers to come down in their season; there shall be showers of blessing. Then the trees of the field shall yield their fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase. They shall be safe in their land; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke and delivered them from the hand of those who enslaved them. And they shall no longer be a prey for the nations, nor shall beasts of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely, and no one shall make them afraid. I will raise up for them a garden of renown, and they shall no longer be consumed with hunger in the land, nor bear the shame of the Gentiles anymore."

The purpose of the garden is to produce a harvest, and this harvest will produce great joy.

Isaiah 9:3 You have multiplied the nation and increased its joy; they rejoice before You according to the joy of harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

This message has been fully expounded in the last two series of messages that I have preached, and those who have listened have the revelation of the times and seasons that we are presently living in.

There is a spiritual progression, which is outlined in the book of Ezekiel. The Garden of Renown is revealed in chapter 34 and the results are found in: Ezekiel 36: 33-38 "Thus says the Lord GOD: On the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will also enable you to dwell in the cities, and the ruins shall be rebuilt. The desolate land shall be tilled instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who pass by. So they will say, 'This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden; and the wasted, desolate, and ruined cities are now fortified and inhabited.' Then the nations which are left all around you shall know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt the ruined places and planted what was desolate. I, the LORD, have spoken it, and I will do it." Thus says the Lord GOD: "I will also let the house of Israel inquire of Me to do this for them: I will increase their men like a flock. Like a flock offered as holy sacrifices, like the flock at Jerusalem on its feast days, so shall the ruined cities be filled with flocks of men. Then they shall know that I am the LORD."

Ezekiel finishes with a statement that this season will be like Israel's feast days.

The Jubilee

The Lord has spoken to us about a special Jubilee for 2005. The significance of this sabbatical year is found in Leviticus chapter 25. The Grand Jubilee took place in 1998, 50 years after Israel became a nation in 1948. This special Jubilee that we have entered into is a "Sabbath of Solemn Rest" seven years from 1998.

I had a progressive vision, hearing and then seeing ... hearing and seeing. I heard the Lord say, "Come and get your Jubilee baskets." He said that again and again. Then, when I was reading the Word, I began to see the vision of a table. The Lord was standing behind the table filled with baskets of different shapes, colors and sizes. I began to look in the baskets and I found that the baskets were full of seeds. Then there was a label that said, "Spring-time Seeds." And, the Lord said, "I want you to purchase your basket and sow these seeds for the spring harvest of the Jubilee." Some of the seeds will grow very quickly, like radish seeds, and some will take longer, like corn seeds. Then, I asked the Lord about the price of these baskets. He said, "You who have no money come and purchase, for the price is your faith. If you will have faith to believe, you may receive these seeds now and begin to sow them for the upcoming harvest." Some of the seeds were labeled healing, and some were labeled provision, joy, revelation knowledge, understanding of the times and the seasons, peace. Anything you need will be found in those baskets.

Spring-time Seeds

Our spring conference was held during the season of the spring feasts. It was a time of planting seeds and imparting an anointing to water the seeds of Jubilee. Some of those seeds have brought the blessings of the barley and wheat harvests (provision) to those who watered their seeds by prophesying God's promises over their seed. But, many of the seeds planted by faith will produce a harvest during the fall feasts.

The Joy of The Harvest

The fall feasts take place during the "fruit of the vine" harvest. The fruit of the vine will produce the new wine and oil of the new season that we are about to enter into.

The four living creatures (Revelation 4:7-8) have prophetically forbidden the enemy from spoiling this harvest of oil and wine (Revelation 6:6). So this Jubilee season will produce its fruit for those who have planted and watered. It is not too late for all to plant, water, and harvest in this season.

Where Eagles Gather Conference

Our Where Eagles Gather Conference theme is the "Joy of The Harvest." At this conference we will take the spoil of the Jubilee blessings according to Isaiah 9:3. I believe that the Lord will provide the anointing to possess the promises of the Lord. It's harvest time, a time to rejoice over the seeds of the harvest. The Lord of the Harvest is coming to provide for His saints that which they need and that which they desire. People of the Lord, I exhort you to begin to rejoice over your seed (prayer requests) because the Lord is increasing our ability to have joy (again … Isaiah 9:3).

Rejoice, and again I say, rejoice – it's harvest time!

Marsha Burns
July 19, 2005: Expect to resume progress in every area of life. You will gain momentum and accelerate as you rejoice by way of proclamation of victory. Hope is once again restored as you see evidence of change in the spiritual atmosphere. Do not be afraid to forge ahead with new vigor and strength of purpose. Nehemiah 8:10 Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat, drink the sweet, and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our LORD. Do not sorrow, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

July 20, 2005: Quiet your soul. Be sensitive to My Spirit, and look to see what I am doing. Discern My presence, My leading, but do so apart from your soulish desires. For, My people, now it is time for you to know the areas of your life where presumption rules. If you can look in the face of the pure, unadulterated truth, you will not be led astray. Be done with being pulled away by fantasy, idolatry, and false hopes. Galatians 5:16 I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.

July 21, 2005: Keep moving ahead. Don't turn back, get discouraged, or quit. I am bringing you to a new level of awareness, says the Lord, but to achieve My purposes you must continue to go forward. There are areas in your life that you had a foretaste of revelation and then allowed the enemy to talk you out of it. Take the time to re-establish that new ground and claim it as your own possession. The devil would love nothing better than to stop you short of the point of celebration and jubilation.

July 22, 2005: Beloved, why do you weep and wail because of the opinions of others? Why should you take notice of rejection from others when I do not reject you, says the Lord? Certainly, I will deliver you from trouble, and no evil shall touch you. Do not be afraid of what man can do to you, for the deeds of the wicked are only vapor, passing smoke. Rise up from this place of condemnation and dwell in the safety of My presence. Proverbs 29:25 The fear of man brings a snare, but whoever trusts in the LORD shall be safe

A New Level Of Faith
Bill Burns

You have broken through into a new level of faith. You have believed that I am the Lord God Almighty and that I am able to deliver you. You have believed that I am able to heal you. You have believed that I am able to provide for you. You have believed, for I have given to you the sure mercies of David, and I have quickened your faith. I have brought from heaven My sound that will cause you to rejoice in your inner man. Therefore, I say, stand up and shout. When you shout the walls shall fall and the enemy shall be defeated, says the Lord. You have entered into a new realm of faith, and you have demonstrated the power of that faith. The faith that I give is an evidence of the new season, but you will see greater faith than this arise, for I am the Author and the Finisher of your faith, and I will come and write a new chapter in your life. This new level of faith will only increase, for My people shall know the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. Rejoice, I say, and rejoice again, for I have come to set you free and bring you into the fullness of the Jubilee.

Marsha Burns

July 11, 2005: Stand still. Listen closely. I am imparting new and exciting revelation of My word, times and seasons to those who will pay attention. This is no time to allow distractions to keep you from the cutting edge of what I am doing, says the Lord. Rather, be alert, stay awake spiritually, and receive all that is available for you at this time. Truly, those whose heads rest against My breast will hear the beating of My heart and know the love I have for My people, and they will hear the whispers of My still, small voice giving instruction and wisdom for this hour.

July 12, 2005: Beloved, if you wish to prosper in other ways you need to begin to prosper in your soul. Healing needs to spring forth in your mind and emotions. Truly, there is a great need for healing because My body has been fragmented, torn apart by division, strife and contention. And, now is the time for you to forgive those who have hurt you and release yourself from all bitterness and hatred. When healing flows it will bring unity and peace, and it will be a sweet thing.
3 John 1:2 "Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers."
2 Chronicles 7:14 "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land."

Jerusalem

Kathleen Pirl

To YOU who have ears to hear,

The Context:
This weekend in Ft. Worth the Battalion of Deborah is hosting a Christian Allies Caucus with six or so reps. from the Knesset to facilitate support for an undivided Jerusalem. If our national policy continues to progress towards dividing Jerusalem to be the Palestinian Capitol we as a nation will reap severe judgment from the Lord.

I believe Bob Jones prophesied a while back that the entire south eastern coastland of the USA will be redefined. I believe that it is beginning with Katrina.

The Word:
Also, regarding Rev 8:1-6 which says the Lamb breaks open the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour that is what we are in right now. Then the angels were given seven trumpets. Another angel took the golden censer with the prayers of the saints he filled it with fire and cast it upon the earth. Now this is what is going to happen and there were thunders, lightning, and an earthquake. I believe an earthquake is going to happen. I believe October will be an extremely intense month. On October 3 the Eve of the Feast of Trumpets the seven angels will prepare to blow their trumpets. This year Ramadan begins the same time the Feast of Trumpets begins. The warfare is going to increase very dramatically in October. Listen I had a vision lying on my bed last night. I saw the East Gate of Jerusalem and the Dome of the Rock. I saw Satan as a fallen angel in front of the East Gate prowling around blocking the entrance with darkness, great darkness. He shape shifted into a Chinese dragon with a very serpent like man's tongue coated in silver. He was prowling over the walls around the Old City of Jerusalem looking for whom he could devour. He shape shifted again into a coiling serpent writhing around the walls. He is after a throne on the Temple Mount. His wrath is great for Satan knows his time is short. Rev 12

For I know the plans I have says the Lord YVHV!
I have a strange and peculiar work that I am about to work
Who can know my mind or counsel me, the Everlasting Creator?
For before and from of old I WAS and I AM!
I shall be highly exalted and the world shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD as the waters cover the seas!

Who is like me?

NONE !!! no there is none other, even from Everlasting to Everlasting I AM!

Be still and know that I AM GOD!
Do not fear for I will be with you when the floods would try to overwhelm you. Do not fear I will be with you, the fire will not kindle upon you! For you are precious in my sight. Is 43

Let me reiterate we are about to come into Ezekiel 38 & 39. The day of the Lord is soon to be upon us and Zech 12 is coming swiftly.

The Redemption:
Then the Lord says:
[5]And I myself will be a wall of fire around it (Jerusalem) declares the LORD, 'and I will be its glory within.'
[6]"Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north," declares the LORD, "for I have scattered you to the four winds of heaven," declares the LORD.
[7]"Come, O Zion! Escape, you who live in the Daughter of Babylon!" [8]For this is what the LORD Almighty says: "After he has honored me and has sent me against the nations that have plundered you—for whoever touches you touches the apple of his eye—[9]I will surely raise my hand against them so that their slaves will plunder them.[£] Then you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me.
[10]"Shout and be glad, O Daughter of Zion. For I am coming, and I will live among you," declares the LORD. [11]"Many nations will be joined with the LORD in that day and will become my people. I will live among you and you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me to you. [12]The LORD will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land and will again choose Jerusalem. [13]Be still before the LORD, all mankind, because he has roused himself from his holy dwelling." Zech 2:5-13

Jacob’s Trouble at Hand

Celia Rose Okhuysen (USA)

“And it is the time of Jacob’s trouble, but he shall be saved out of it.”

(Jeremiah 30:7)

[Late one night in 1999, I had just watched CBN’s daily 700 Club’s news segment. [http://cbn.com — Host: Pat Robertson] One of the news items concerned the conflict that was taking place in Israel, and the pressure being exerted on Israel by America to turn the Golan Heights over to Syria. After the news coverage, I turned the TV off and went to bed.]

DREAM — August 2, 1999

I dreamt of watching a large group of Middle Eastern people dine on a large square wooden table covered with a beautiful tablecloth with gold fringe all around it. After they finished eating, most of the people left. I then found myself alone with three men who remained behind.

Next, I stood by the empty table without the tablecloth. An orange cantaloupe melon, a large knife, and a crumpled transparent piece of plastic cover materialized on the table. I reached out and handled it with both hands. The melon’s skin had been peeled off. When I touched the melon, it was mushy with no firmness to it. I then picked up the knife and sliced the melon in half. I was careful not to cut into the plastic cover.

As I sliced the melon, juice spilled out and the seeds were exposed. One half of the melon with seeds remained in tact on the table to the left. However, the other half melon with seeds on the right fell apart into quarter size pieces. Then one of the quarter pieces with seeds fell apart into two smaller eighth size pieces, identical in size. I then noticed that the half piece of melon on the left had vanished from the table, and there were now only three pieces of melon with seeds on the table.

Next, one of the three men approached and stood behind me, somewhat to the right yet out of my sight. He was observing what was taking place on the table. As I picked up the melon pieces, they vanished in my hands. Instantly in their place, there appeared a large frog! It then hopped about 16-18 inches to the right. Then, in its place there appeared a smaller frog. That frog also hopped to the right and sat alongside the first frog. THEN-N-N, in the second frog’s place, there appeared a third smaller frog half formed! It’s lower torso and hind legs were missing. The half formed frog remained motionless on the table. The two other men moved to the right side of the table to take a closer look at the three frogs.

Next, I loudly cried out to someone in another room, “There are three frogs on the table that came out of the melon!” A few seconds later a woman’s voice yelled back, “What?” Again I cried out louder, “THERE ARE THREE FROGS ON THE TABLE THAT CAME OUT OF THE MELON!!!” Silence. The woman did not respond. — END

[NOTE: I urge the reader to read this document with a Bible in hand for spiritual clarity, revelation, and understanding through the Word of God. Bolded, capped, and underlined emphases in the KJV and NKJV scriptures are mine.]

INTERPRETATION

The Middle Eastern people symbolize Middle Eastern nations that had dwelled on Israel's land since her dispersion after the destruction of Solomon's Temple (rebuilt by Herod) in 70 A.D. (Mt. 23:37, 38; 24:1, 2) The large wooden table symbolizes Israel. The gold-fringed tablecloth symbolizes Jerusalem.

[For a prophetic declaration of the end time by Lord Jesus, read all of Matthew 24]

Taking a still closer look, the table represents "real estate" (Israel's land) that has been discussed at length (bargained about) between Israel and other Arab leaders over the past few decades.

The missing tablecloth is "off the table" as far as negotiations for any peace settlement is concerned. Apparently, from all appearances it seems that Israel will never agree to "dice" (cut up — section off) Jerusalem. Or, will this possibly come to pass in the near future? The highly coveted "prize" continues to be Jerusalem.

[See Daniel 11:29-39 — Symbolically, the Antichrist (Antiochus) is revealed here and his "exploits" in the end time as annotated in Dake's Annotated Reference Bible. Study these scriptures with an annotated Bible or Bible Commentary.]

The color "orange" (warning — danger) and the rotting melon (falsehood — deceit) sum up a clear picture of what have become evil attempts to wipe out the Jewish people from the land of Israel (David) by the surrounding Arab nations (Goliath) through past wars.

The rotting melon symbolizes previous attempts toward peace between Israel and her Arab neighbors. It has over-ripened to the point that the "fruit thereof" has spoiled and has been in a transparent (crumpled plastic) disintegrating phase over the years. However, up until September 13, 1993, attempts to deceive Israel into submission in giving up land had failed.

[Normally, there is no smell in decaying melons. Still, the rotting melon's symbolism of evil intentions against Israel must bring a "strong stench to the nostrils of God" Who gave Israel the land of Canaan. (Gen. 12:1-7) Historically, this has been the largest land grant by God to anyone. (GOD'S LAND GRANT TO ISRAEL is indexed with Scripture in this document further down.]

The knife is symbolic of the Word of God (Eph. 6:17), and of a sword — a weapon of victory over enemies:

>> *"I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and none will make you afraid; I will rid the land of evil beasts, and the sword will not go through your land. You will chase your enemies, and they shall fall by the sword before you. Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight; your enemies shall fall by the sword before you. For I will look on you favorably and make you fruitful, multiply you and confirm My covenant with you. You shall eat the old harvest, and clear out the old because of the new. I will set My tabernacle among you, and My soul shall not abhor you. I WILL WALK AMONG YOU AND BE YOUR GOD, AND YOU SHALL BE MY PEOPLE.

"I AM THE LORD YOUR GOD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their slaves; I have broken the bands of your yoke and made you walk upright"* (Lev. 26:6-13).

I am symbolic of a Watchman who, through understanding the prophetic Word of God, "handles" the rotting fruit (observes repeated attempts toward peace between Israel and her bordering enemy neighbors). Understanding Israel's Biblical prophesied conflict that would be "center stage" before the eyes of the world in the end time, (the time of Jacob's trouble), I take the knife (sword—Word of God) in hand to slice open the rotting fruit and expose its seeds of hatred toward Israel as revealed in the Bible. The seeds symbolize discrimination — persecution — bigotry — prejudice — torment — murder of Jews in gas chambers — racism — EVIL SLANDER — harassment — maltreatment — attempts to eliminate the Jewish people from the face of the earth. Over the years, Israel has endured great, great, GREAT abuse — ill-treatment — cruelty — violent deaths through terrorism, and denial of their God ordained right to their own land*.* (Gen. 12:1-7) They were called by Almighty God to be a blessing to all nations (Gen. 12:2).

The quarter size melon separated itself from the two small eighth size melon pieces that fell apart by themselves. One of the small pieces symbolizes a failed attempt to establish peace between Israel and the Palestinians. Thus, they fell apart. However, the quarter piece has yet to do its "exploits."

Therefore, the three remaining melon pieces are as follows: the quarter piece represents the unidentified yet emerging Antichrist who is "waiting on the side." The two smaller pieces represent Egypt and the current Palestine in the Gaza Strip.

The vanished large half of the melon represents America. Its size symbolized its great power and might. However, its disappearance symbolically reveals that somehow America will not be at Israel's side in the end time. She simply is not there.

Israel and Egypt, (one of the two smaller melon pieces), began "tearing down fences" when Egypt's President Anwar Sadat and Israel's PM Menachem Begin signed a peace treaty on September 17, 1978 in Washington D.C.

[NOTE: The Camp David Accords were signed by Egyptian President Anwar Sadat and Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin on September 17, 1978, following twelve days of secret negotiations at Camp David. The two agreements were signed at the White House, and were witnessed by United States President Jimmy Carter. The first agreement dealt with the future of the Sinai Peninsula and peace between Israel and Egypt. This was concluded six months later with the signing of the Israel—Egypt Peace Treaty. The second was a framework agreement establishing a format for the conduct of negotiations for the establishment of an autonomy regime in the West Bank and the Gaza Strip.
A historical and comprehensive index on Israel's ONGOING search for peace with her bordering neighbors can be viewed at ARIGA, http://www.ariga.com/treaties/index.shtml*. A daily update on the current peace initiatives at hand between PM Ariel Sharon and PA President Mahmoud Abbas can be viewed at* http://www.ariga.com/today.shtml. Another excellent source is ISRAEL MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS daily updates at http://www.israel.org/MFA/]

Palestine is represented by the other smaller melon piece. It is important to mention the fact that the current presence of Palestinians living in the Gaza Strip in the land of Israel is without statehood. They are "settlers." A comprehensive outline of the Oslo Accords can be viewed at http://www.multied.com/Israel/Documents/Oslo.html — DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES ON INTERIM SELF-GOVERNMENT ARRANGEMENTS — September 13, 1993.

One of the two men (represented by the two small frogs) represents Yassir Arafat and his failed peace negotiations with PM Ehud Barak during the summer of 1999. The third man standing behind me represents the Antichrist. He is currently "incognito." Although his identity is still unknown (yet "arising" from the European Union — former Roman Empire), he will be the "chief architect" in the current effort to bring a peace settlement between Israel and Palestine. [A "summit" meeting was recently held in Egypt between PM Ariel Sharon and the new PA President Mahmoud Abbas at the beginning of February, 2005. Arafat died November 11, 2004, at age 75.]

The evaporating three pieces of melon thus reveal three frogs that symbolize demons and unclean spirits (Ex. 8:1-15 — Ps. 78:43-45 — Rev. 16:13, 14). Here, these frogs can be understood to represent an "evil intended presence" whose attempt to eradicate—eliminate—get rid of—wipe out—destroy—exterminate—do away with—remove the Jewish people from God's land grant to Israel (Gen. 12:1-7) is now at its zenith—peak—summit—pinnacle—high point.

At the time of this dream (1999), the three frogs represented the Antichrist (large frog), Egypt (smaller frog), and Palestine (half formed frog). Since Palestine does not have legitimate rights as a nation, the half formed frog without legs symbolized Yassir Arafat, and the now new Palestinian president. Arafat did not have legs to stand on, OR better said, he had "no roots." The Palestinian status has not changed since then.

The number "three" occurs three times within the dream. "Three" symbolizes the Triune Godhead —Divine Confirmation — Witness (Deut. 19:15 — Mat. 18:16 — 1Tim. 5:19). Thus the following: three men — three pieces of melon — three frogs: 3 x 3 = 9 — number of judgment. God's judgment upon Israel's enemies, persecutors, tormentors, oppressors, and barbaric murderers will be swift when Lord Jesus returns to destroy them and the Antichrist during the Battle of Armageddon at Meggido in northwest Israel. This battle will take place at the end of the 7-year Tribulation period that immediately begins after the Rapture of the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, which is so imminent.

~~~~~~~~~~

[NOTE: As I see and discern the "swirling whirlwind" in Israel's "delicate" political movements, the European Union and NATO's overtures to Israel in persuading her to "possibly" join them can only give Israel a stronger sense of security. She will most likely join them for a "stronger and firmer alliance" against Iran's threat of using nuclear weapons against her. This would then keep Iran from following through its "possible" intended threat against Israel. Thusly, at last Israel comes face to face with the Antichrist, Et Cetera, Et Cetera, Et Cetera.]

~~~~~~~~~~

My crying out to a woman in the next room about the melon and frogs symbolizes her as the worldwide Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. I caught her by surprise as revealed by her yelling back, "What?" After repeating my statement, her lack of response reveals her total lack of concern. It seems that I woke her up from her slumber, and her lack of response clearly portrays her as going back to sleep.

SAINTS OF GOD, WAKE UP!!!

~~~~~~~~~~

>> And do this, knowing the time, that NOW IT IS HIGH TIME TO AWAKE OUT OF SLEEP, FOR NOW OUR SALVATION IS NEARER THAN WHEN WE FIRST BELIEVED. The night* [sinful age] is far spent [overextended], the day [of the Lord] *is at hand (Rom. 13:11, 12 — NKJV).

GENEALOGY OF ISRAEL

The following is a study of Noah and his family's genealogy, found in 1Chronicles. It begins with Adam. Beginning in 1Chr. 1:4 Noah's three sons' names are listed as Shem, Ham, and Japheth. (Another excellent and detailed genealogy of Noah is found in Genesis 10. For a thorough study of Israel's origin read Genesis Chapters 10 through 33). From Adam to Noah are ten generations.

1Chr. 1:8-16 — Ham's four sons are listed, two of which are Canaan and Mizraim. (A third son's name is Cush who bore Nimrod. The beginning of Nimrod's kingdom was called "Babel" (Gen. 10:10) which eventually evolved into Babylon. It is now present day Iraq.)

1Chr. 1:12 — Mizraim had seven sons, one of whom is listed as, "...Casluhim, (of whom came the Philistines)...." (Goliath was a Philistine — 1 Sam. 17:4)

1Chr. 1:17 — Shem had nine sons. One of them was named Arphaxad of whom came Abram (renamed "Abraham" by God in Gen. 17:5), whose son, Isaac, bore twins Esau and Jacob (who was later renamed "Israel" by God in Gen. 32:28*). From Shem to Abraham are ten generations.

1Chr. 1:28 — Abraham's sons' names are listed as Isaac and Ishmael. Although Ishmael was born (Gen 16:1-4, 15, 16) before Isaac (Gen 17:19; 21:1-5), Isaac is placed first over Ishmael, as Isaac was Abraham's legitimate heir. Isaac's mother, Sarah (a free woman), was the true wife of Abraham. Hagar, mother of Ishmael (father of the Arab nations), was Sarah's bondservant (a slave). She was an Egyptian slave given to Abraham and Sarah by Pharaoh (Gen 12:16, 20).

Commentary: Ishmael, like Jacob (Israel), had twelve sons, the heads of twelve tribes (1Chr. 1:29-31), making twenty-four tribes descending from Abraham through only two of his sons. They were the fulfillment of a prediction made by God of Ishmael, a prediction of twelve princes that would multiply exceedingly (Gen. 17:20; 25:12-18. See also Gen. 21:13, 18, 20). (There were six other sons born to Abraham by Keturah, his second wife (Gen. 25:1 2), after he was one hundred years of age (1Chr. 1:32, 33). How many tribes descended from them is not known. The six tribes that came from Keturah settled in the country of Arabia.)

1Chr. 1:34 — Isaac's twin sons' names are listed as Esau and Israel (Jacob).

Gen. 25: 5 — And Abraham gave all that he had unto Isaac. 6) But unto the sons of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his son*, while he yet lived, eastward, unto the east country. 7) And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, an hundred threescore and fifteen years. 8) Then Abraham gave up the ghost and died in a good old age, an old man, and full of years; and was gathered to his people. 9) And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah .... 10)...there was*

Abraham buried, [with] Sarah his [first] wife.

Commentary: This genealogy and record of the death of Abraham were given here because no more was to be said of him in the Genesis story. He lived until Jacob (Israel) was fifteen years old, dying at the age of 175 years.

Jubilee

JUBILEE For Those Who Sow Into The Islands Of The SEA

God never changes. He is the same yesterday, today and forever. When one small soul perishes on earth, tears flow like rivers through the golden streets of heaven. I believe that the latter half of 2005 will be a year of great storms across the Pacific, as torrential rains begin to fall from heaven like tears over Asia and the South Pacific. Today the Holy Spirit spoke to me that this would be a year of Jubilee for those who sow into the islands of the sea, and that those who sow tears of intercession would reap a harvest of great joy and miracles in the days ahead. I plead with you to join us in this hour to intercede for the souls of men, women and children across the Pacific region, from the Antarctic in the south to Alaska in the north, and every coastline in between. It is time to intercede for this area while a great battle is being waged in the heavenlies over the destiny of nations, peoples and tongues. On May 18, many will be finishing their 40-day fast, while others will just be beginning. God's timing is never late, but always right on time. Please join with us in interceding for the Pacific region. Many events of latter half of 2005 are currently being weighed in the balance. The recent 9.3 quake in Indonesia was a forewarning of greater events yet to come, which can be delayed if we are willing to pay the price. It is now time to sow tears of intercession across the Pacific as we journey across the land and take spiritual authority over this tiny blue planet which God has give us stewardship and dominion.

Blessings,

The Coming Jubilee

by Bill Somers

A prophetic look at Israel, Pentecost and the Last day outpouring; an outline.

Pentecost was the 50th day after the Father raised his firstborn from the dead, namely Jesus.
One key feature of this is that 50 days after the first born was raised, He poured out His Spirit on the Church.
The Jubilee is a celebration to take place on the 50th year after Israel came into the Land.
The Jubilee Year for the Nation of Israel is 1997. The state of Israel came into being in 1948, 1998 will be the 50th anniversary but 1997 is the 50th year, the Year of Jubilee!. Figuratively speaking, The Lord raised Israel, also His firstborn, from the dead in 1948.
If you observe the Jewish calendar, the Year of Jubilee will begin September 14 of 1996! This makes 1996/97 The Jubilee Year.
So that 50 years after the first born was raised, He will be pouring out His Spirit on the Church again! The prophetic element in this must include the fact that this leaves a 3 and one half ; year interval till the spring (Passover) of the year 2000. The year that many look for his return, and that many missions agencies target for completion of the Great Commission.

Other points of Interest on the 1996/97 Jubilee Year:

The 1996/97 jubilee year is when Israel is celebrating Jerusalem 3000, commemorating the 3000th year since David took the city. Consider David as a type of Messiah and Jerusalem as a type of the Church and this speaks of Christ coming to His Church. It is a foreshadowing of revival. And Jubilee is a type of revival!

The 1996/97 jubilee year is also the 2000th anniversary of the Birth of Jesus, given the most probable date of 5 B. C.; on the feast of tabernacles or there about.

The 1996/97 jubilee year must also mark the beginning of the new millenium. It is the start of the 7th thousand year period in God's creation. It is the 7th day of his week, spoken prophetically as the 7th day and also as the 3rd day. The 3rd day since Jesus birth.

The 1996/97 jubilee year had been hailed by the prophets. Several major prophetic voices have indicated that God is doing something special for 1997; Bob Jones, Bill Hamon, and Larry Randolph.

The passage quoted below from Leviticus 25 is often taken to mean that God instructed Israel to celebrate a Jubilee every 50 years. It could just as well be interpreted to mean that God instructed Israel to celebrate the Jubilee only once. Only on the 50th year after entering the Land, were they to celebrate. The bible does not record any occasion where Israel actually obeyed this statute in her history.
The 1996/97 jubilee year could well be the single fulfillment of the Jubilee statute.

Here are the relevant scriptural passages:

Jubilee.
"And the LORD spake unto Moses in mount Sinai, saying," (Leviticus 25:1)
"Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land which I give you, then shall the land keep a sabbath unto the LORD." (Leviticus 25:2)

"And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years." (Leviticus 25:8)
"Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the jubilee to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month, in the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land." (Leviticus 25:9)
"And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubilee unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family." (Leviticus 25:10)
"But the field, when it goeth out in the jubilee, shall be holy unto the LORD, as a field devoted; the possession thereof shall be the priest's." (Leviticus 27:21)
"In the year of the jubilee the field shall return unto him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land did belong." (Leviticus 27:24)

"Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the LORD your God.
Wherefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; and ye shall dwell in the land in safety.
And the land shall yield her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety." (Leviticus 25:17-19)

Pentecost. "And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:
Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days; and ye shall offer a new meat offering unto the LORD.
Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baken with leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the LORD." (Leviticus 23:15-17)

The firstborn.
"And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD, Israel is my son, even my firstborn:" (Exodus 4:22)

Messiah as the firstborn.
"I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him:"
"With whom my hand shall be established: mine arm also shall strengthen him."
"The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness afflict him."
"And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him."
"But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him: and in my name shall his horn be exalted."
"I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers."
"He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father, my God, and the rock of my salvation."
"*Also I will make him my firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth."
"My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him."
"His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven." (Psalms 89:20-29)

Jubilee: 2 Prophetic Aspects

by Bill Somers

> Is there not an appointed time to man upon earth?
> are not his days also like the days of an hireling? Job 7.1

Introduction
We have written an earlier article called The Coming Jubilee, which outlined some interesting prophetic features of the biblical idea, "the year of jubilee'".

In that article we stated :

The Jubilee is a celebration to take place on the 50th year after Israel came into the Land.
The Jubilee Year for the Nation of Israel is 1997. The state of Israel came into being in 1948, 1998 will be the 50th anniversary but 1997 is the 50th year, the Year of Jubilee!.

The 1996/97 jubilee year is when Israel is celebrating Jerusalem 3000, commemorating the 3000th year since David took the city. [David recaptured the city as Joshua had taken it earlier.] Consider David as a type of Messiah and Jerusalem as a type of the Church and this speaks of Christ coming to His Church. It is a foreshadowing of revival.

Jubilee is a type of revival! The Jubilee represents the End times, a time of revival.

The 1996/97 jubilee year is also the 2000th anniversary of the Birth of Jesus, given the most probable date of 5 B. C.; on the feast of tabernacles or there about.

The 1996/97 jubilee year must also mark the beginning of the new millenium. It is the start of the 7th thousand year period in God's creation. It is the 7th day of his week, spoken prophetically as the 7th day and also as the 3rd day. The 3rd day since Jesus birth.

2 Aspects in the prophetic
The Jubilee has two other overlooked prophetic aspects relating to the end times. The Holy Spirit led me to them by raising my curiosity about a particular phrase that occurs in Isaiah in a couple places. That phrase is 'the years of an hireling'. [also days of an hireling or time of an hireling or hired servant]

> Isaiah 21:16 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Within a year, according to the years of an hireling*, and all the glory of Kedar shall fail:*
> Isaiah 16:14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of an hireling*, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble.*

As I researched this phrase, years of an hireling, I was led to these relevant passages in Leviticus

> And if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and be sold unto thee; thou shalt not compel him to serve as a bondservant:
> But as an hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and* shall serve thee unto the year of jubilee:*
> And then shall he depart from thee, both he and his children with him, and shall return unto his own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he return. Leviticus 25:39-41

The Hireling Will Depart
Now the prophetic element here, in the bold text, is thus. A hired servant shall serve until the year of jubilee, and then he shall depart. In other words the hireling will depart during the year of jubilee.

But all this is meaningless until you consider the New Testament context or usage of the term hireling!

> But he that is an hireling, and not the* shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.*
> The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.* John 10:12-13

Here the hireling is contrasted with the shepherd. The shepherd or pastor is such a common metaphor for the leader of a local Church that we sometimes forget that it is a figure of speech. Here the Lord is speaking of shepherds vs. hirelings or true vs. false pastors. The conclusion is that the hireling refers to false pastors in the Church. And further that the departure of the hireling then represents the purging of the Church and the end of oppression within the Church [i. e. the Civil War, or Judgment that begins at the house of God]

We see the false shepherds [hirelings] spoken of in these passages:

> Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;
> Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and > cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them. Ezekiel 34:9-10

> Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. Jeremiah 12:10

And the true shepherds raised up in this passage, clearly speaking of repentance and revival:

> Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever.
> Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD.
> Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:
> And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. Jeremiah 3:12-15

The exciting conclusion to this is that we can expect to see this to happen or begin to happen during the year of jubilee!

The Field Shall Return …
Now while researching the phrase 'years of an hireling' I came to this verse in Job.

> Is there not an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of an hireling? Job 7.1

Here Job is lamenting his sorry condition and wishing for death. He says that the hireling has an appointed time to serve and man has an appointed time to live. So that eventually the hireling will go free and mans [Job's] suffering will end.

But prophetically this is saying is that the time of man's rule upon earth will come to an end!

> The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD'S: but the earth hath he given to the children of men. Ps 115:16

God has given the earth to man to rule. And he by his fall has in turn given it to Satan. But in Leviticus it says:

> "The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; for ye are strangers and sojourners with me." (Leviticus 25:23)

There is an appointed time for the land [or the earth or the field] to be under man's rule, but:

> "In the year of the jubilee the field shall return unto him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land did belong." (Leviticus 27:24)

And Isaiah identifies the owner of the land in this verse:

> And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.* Isaiah 8:8

The Owner of the Land is Immanuel, or Jesus. In the year of the jubilee the field shall return unto him!

The Millennium
The time of man on the earth is the 6000 years of man's time to rule. Then the land returns to its original owner, God. Since this takes place, or begins to take place in the year of jubilee, the jubilee is the beginning of the Kingdom of God on the earth. And therefore, the jubilee is the beginning of the millennial reign of the Lord Jesus Christ. And since these events will happen before Jesus' Second Coming, the Second Coming takes place during the millenium, not before it. As it says in Exodus, where the third day speaks of the millenium: [See The Third Day in Prophecy by Bill Somers]

> And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people ….. Exodus 19:11

This well known verse from Hosea, indicates that revival, and the resurrection take place 'after two days, in the third day' that is on the third day, which means in or during the millenium.

> After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight. Hosea 6:2

The common understanding is that the millenium, the 1000 years of Jesus rule, begins after the second coming. Our understanding is that it begins with the Jubilee. Two scriptural allegories support this view.

Solomon vs. Adonaijah [1 Kings 1]

Kind Solomon was anointed and proclaimed king while his half brother, Adonijah was ruling. Here Solomon is a type of Christ and Adonijah a type of antichrist. Both begin to reign about the same time, yet Solomon prevails and Adonijah is destroyed.

Joash vs. Athaliah [2 Kings 11:1-16]

In this story from 2nd Kings, Joash is a type of Christ and Athaliah a type of Satan.

> And when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal.
> But Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons which were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bedchamber from Athaliah, so that he was not slain.
> And he was with her hid in the house of the LORD six years. And Athaliah did reign over the land.*
> And the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and shewed them the king's son. 2 Kings 11:1-4
> And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, God save the king.* 2 Kings 11:12

Here, King Joash, a type of Christ, is proclaimed King in the house of the Lord [the Church] while Athaliah is still ruling the rest of the city outside. In the Jubilee, Jesus begins His rule in the Church while antichrist takes over the outside world.

A similar case is seen in the new testament in Revelation 11

> And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.
> But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.* Revelation 11:1-2

In this case, measuring the temple and the worshipers means judging or ruling the Church. The area outside is left alone, and not judged. So again, this speaks of Jesus Kingdom beginning with the Church, while the outside world remains under Satan. The same thing is seen in Isaiah 60

> Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.
> For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee. Isaiah 60:1-2

This passage speaks of the Glory of the Lord, [The Kingdom of God] coming upon the Church, while the great darkness [the power of the enemy] covers those outside.

Again this takes place, or begins to take place in the year of jubilee. It is the beginning of the thousand year reign of Christ. Those who overcome satan as he did will join Him, ruling and reigning in heavenly places.

> And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. Revelation 20:4

Judgment

David Wikle

Oct 8, 2005

The big talk today is that God is good and does good things while the Devil is bad and does bad things.

911 and 2 mean hurricanes and yet there is no cry for repentance seeing that God's judgment has come upon our nation. No cry for repentance from our government and none from the church either. The church will not touch this saying it came from God.

God is a God of judgment (Have to read the Old Testament?). He does judge and it is just and final when He does it.

Last Sunday, my Pastor said that God does not do bad things and the hurricanes were bad so it came from the Devil. This talk has been repeated all across our land. God would not judge us; He is a good God that does good things. These things are just natural, they happen, but God has nothing to do with

Judgments in the Earth

by Bill Somers

Preface:

This is a fairly long article with a long appendix at the end. This article was first written in 1991 and revised in '92. It was never released for several reasons, the main being that a particular individual refused to be quoted. And the material I quoted from him made up one of the most important parts of the article.

This past week, July, 1998, the Lord has greatly impressed me to release the article and to deal with its subject matter. I have planned to greatly revise and correct it, but instead I will give it out in its present form. I will substitute references to Brother Anonymous for certain quotes, and leave the rest unchanged, however dated it may be.
There are minor revisions made July 25, 1998

> Isaiah 26.9 With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments [are] in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

What I am about to present here is a Prophetic Word for America. Rather it is a series of words from various times and sources and my one commentary about what they mean.

God is going to punish America. He will use food shortages, economic chaos, diseases, natural disasters and enemy attack. In Old Testament language this would be judgment by famine, pestilence and sword. In this article we will look at the Sword Judgment, the last and worst in the series of God's judgments.

It is important to see that the sword judgment is coming. And to know why the Lord is sending Judgment. But it is also important to know what the judgment will be and what end result, what purposes of God will be accomplished by it.

WHY JUDGMENT?
All prophecies of judgment must be regarded as conditional. We know that the Lord delights in mercy. We stand in intercessory prayer to give Him reason to grant mercy and reason to avoid bringing judgment. Yet we also know that he loves judgment. His throne is established on mercy and judgment. His is continually showing mercy but he is also continually bringing judgment. The bible is full of examples of judgment coming after many words of warning. But how many examples are there of judgment averted by heeding the word of warning?

So we must realize that any word of judgment is conditional and can be stayed. But we must also see that there a great potential element of inevitability involved in any word of judgment.

I do not claim to be a Prophet, nor to hold the Office of a Prophet. But I have assembled some prophecies. And I have heard from the Lord myself, confirming them. And I have His word of instruction saying "Publish, Conceal Not!" So I humbly submit this to the Body of Christ, to be judged by the apostles and prophets.

WHEN PROPHECY CONFLICTS WITH THEOLOGY Now traditional eschatology teaches that Christ will judge the nations of the world at the last battle, Armageddon. For seven years prior to this there will be increasing plagues, wars and other judgments leading up to Armageddon. Just before this he will withdraw his people, the Church, from the world and the wrath poured out on the world, through an event called the Rapture. Now in recent years we find words of prophecy coming along that do not line up with the traditional theory.

> 20. And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.

The Word of God instructs us to believe in Him and to believe his prophets. So lets look at what the prophets are saying. (A quick comment on the Rapture. Those who teach on Rapture are not prophets. Those who are prophets do not teach Rapture. So the Church is going to be here for the duration. Jesus said 'Occupy till I come.')

Let every word be confirmed by two or three witnesses (2 Cor. 13:1). This is the principle of confirmation. When one word comes along that is out of the ordinary, highly specific and or not directly confirmed by the Bible, it 'goes on the shelf.' When confirming words come along, then it must come back off the shelf!

WILKERSON BLEW A TRUMPET
First let's consider that of David Wilkerson.

David Wilkerson wrote 'Set the Trumpet to Thy Mouth' in 1985. the first paragraph of chapter one reads thus.

> America is going to be destroyed by fire! Sudden destruction is coming and few will escape. Unexpectedly, and in one hour, a hydrogen holocaust will engulf America -- and this nation will be no more.
> It is because America has sinned against the greatest light. Other nations are just as sinful, but none are as flooded with gospel light as ours. God is going to judge America for its violence, its crimes, its backsliding, its murdering of millions of babies, its flaunting of homosexuality and sadomasochism, its corruption, its drunkenness and drug abuse, its form of godliness without power, its lukewarmness toward Christ, its rampant divorce and adultery, its lewd pornography, its child molestation's, its cheatings, its robbings, its dirty movies, and its occult practices.
> In one hour it will all be over. To the natural mind it is insanity to come against a prosperous, powerful nation and cry out, "It's all over! Judgment is at the door! Our days are numbered!" The Church is asleep, the congregations are at ease, and the shepherds slumber. How they will scoff and laugh at this message. Theologians will reject it because they can't fit it into their doctrine. The pillow prophets of peace and prosperity will publicly denounce it.
> I no longer care. God has made my face like flint and put steel in my backbone. I am blowing the Lord's trumpet with all my might. Let the whole world and all the church call me crazy, but I must blow the trumpet and awaken God's people. Believe it or not, America is about to be shaken and set aside by swift and horrible judgments. Many other praying believers who have been shut in with God are hearing the very same message - "Judgment is at the door! Prepare, awaken!"
> Ever since this message came to me, I have been searching God's Word from cover to cover. No prophecy is valid unless it is positively confirmed by God's holy Word. I discovered in the Word God's pattern of judgment.....

He goes on to say, later in the chapter that, this will be an attack from Russia. And "The great holocaust follows an economic collapse in America. The enemy will make its move when we are weak and helpless."

He says that

> "America will not Repent"...."God promised to preserve America only if it turned from its evil....This nation has not repented but has turned its back....I see almighty God even now slowly turning His back on this nation. America is on the verge of committing the unpardonable sin by resisting the Holy Ghost. Soon, there will be repentance only for individuals, but not for the nation."

The remainder of the book discusses at great length the sins of America and the Scriptural basis for her judgment at the hand of God.

Note that he says that America will be destroyed in this attack. The attack will come well before Armageddon, the day of the Lord. And that America will not repent, but will suffer judgment unto total desolation.

He does not hold out any hope of staying God's judgment through prayer or by the coming of revival. He feels the judgment is unavoidable, perhaps because he feels America will not repent.

The Lord has shown David Wilkerson that Judgment, by the sword, is coming. And anointed him greatly to preach the word of warning and the reasons for this judgment. But I believe that the Lord does not reveal all that he is doing to any one individual. There may be more to the picture here and we need to look at what others are hearing from the Lord.

WHAT SHALL WE SAY TO ALL OF THESE THINGS?

One approach is to totally ignore it. It's just alarmist ravings.

Another is to accept it understanding that Christians will be raptured and are not going to suffer any wrath. This approach boils down to ignoring it also. Saying it's coming, we can't do anything about it but we don't have to worry either. (The great flaw in Dispensational theology is it's allowing you to ignore the Word of God.)

Another approach is to intercede for mercy and revival, hoping to delay inevitable judgment.

Another approach is to intercede and seek revival. But to also prepare for judgment and its aftermath. This means operating in a greater understanding of God's purposes and direction. The need to seek the Lord is top priority at any time; especially now.

What have the other prophets been saying?

END TIME EVENTS
Sometime in 1989, a friend gave me a pair of tapes that contained a very unusual prophecy. By Brother Anonymous, was a tape of a television program on some Christian station somewhere. I could not identify the show or the personalities involved. The broadcast took place sometime during the second Reagan term, from the context anyway.

In the interview, he went into the problems and sins of America; and the coming judgments and revival. And then he started to discuss the coming war. Here is an excerpt of his speech.

> "Crisis draws us together. Every time there's a crisis, people come. It's been that way from the very beginning. God told the children of Israel "When I do these things, then you'll seek me early. When I do these things, then you'll call upon my name. When I do these things to you, then you'll know that I am God." It's been that way always. It's still that way today. And God still moves that way to get us to bow our knee.
> "Crisis is coming to America. To get us to repent, to bow our knees. To get us to give Jesus Christ Lordship over our lives. Not just to know Him but to know all of Him. Not just to have heard of him but to know all about him. To be intimate. We're gonna end up bowing our knee before God Almighty. And God will save us.
> "In the war that's coming we will not be defeated, but we will be hurt. We will be neutralized. We're not going to come out of it unscathed. China and Russia are both going to invade our territory. There's going to be tremendous nuclear, or limited nuclear warfare. But tremendous bombing and a new type of weaponry that is going to hit the east and the west coasts of the United States. And those cities. The purpose in that is to desolate the populous areas. So then when invasion troops and invasion forces come in there'll be fewer people that they have to deal with.
> "And they are not really after our cities; they are gonna be after our farms. They're gonna be after our agricultural land. That's what they're coming after. That's why they are gonna wipe out the populous areas, or try to, and then invade the middle of America.
> "I've seen missiles coming from submarines, to do it. And for some reason, the Lord told me, the missiles that Russia has are not accurate, and so they won't depend on those greatly. But they'll depend on submarine warfare. The missiles will come from submarines. But they don't have a long range and so they'll mainly attack the coastal areas.
> "But the great thing is that we'll win. It'll look like were going to be defeated. It'll bring us to our knees. But were gonna win. At the same time, not only will we be neutralized but Russia will be neutralized. Russia will have - nothing - after it's all said and done. And we'll have nothing after it's all said and done. Basically, we'll have life. There'll be some life left.
> "But when Russia's neutralized and America's neutralized, then you'll see the Anti-Christ arise in power. That's when he'll arise. And he'll say 'Ah, now' to himself or to those around him, 'since I don't have anything to worry about in America, I'll leave it alone. The United States, I don't have to worry about it; it's no longer a power. I don't have anything to worry about with Russia, it's no longer a power. So I'm gonna concentrate all my forces upon this European segment.
> "But there is a force, Israel, I've got to deal with. Because it's a thorn in my side. And God says 'I'll put a hook in your jaw and I'll draw you out. He's gonna put a hook in the jaw and He's gonna draw him out. And they're gonna come against Israel. But they won't have the United States to worry about. They won't have Russia to contend with. It'll be the anti-Christ forces that are gonna bring this invasion of Israel.
> "But were gonna be neutralized and we won't be able to intervene. Only God can intervene. And in a way, that's what God wants. Is that when Israel can't say 'Help!' to anybody but God. Only God will they be able to say help to. And when they say, 'Daddy, help me!' he'll help them. And he'll intervene, Miraculously!
> "But that's the time period that were coming to. And so not a lot of people have thought that China would be involved in the invasion. But China is gonna be involved in the invasion. A lot of people said well that's impossible because Russia and China hate each other. Well they're gonna unite for a common cause. And when you unite for a common cause, each one of them will probably be thinking, 'Well when it's over with, I'll take care of the other guy.' And so were gonna be invaded.
> "China will still have enough people, after it's said and done. China will still have enough people to send millions and millions. A hundred million marching toward Israel. They won't be technological giants. But they'll be giants in physical numbers, numbers of men. Numbers in the army that they'll still be able to amass. But they'll join, they're gonna join Russia in this coming invasion.
> "God will supernaturally intervene. But the time frame it's gonna leave us with is that you'll see a lot more horse and buggy's on the roads than you'll see cars. I've seen a time when there's very, very few automobiles on the road, and a lot of horses. A lot of buggies; a lot of wagons. Some of them are really strange wagons. It's like they didn't know how to build them. They just constructed anything that would haul something. It's like people who didn't know how to do, how to build but did the best they could. And so you saw a lot of strange things on the road.
> "When I have visions, like this, the Lord gives me visions or dreams, it's as if I went through this time period. So I can remember seeing certain things. Just like I can close my eyes and I can see 'em just like I can see you. It's like I lived through it. I lived through the horse and buggies. I lived through a time when there was no radio. I lived through a time when there was no TV. I lived through a time when the people didn't know if there was any government.
> "So for a period of time, there was government by God through the people. And God literally formed theocracy. Not a democracy, not a monarchy, not a king. But a theocracy. For He told people what to do.

> Men were led by the Spirit of God. They made decisions based upon what the Holy Spirit of God said to do. And they lived.
> "And if they needed water, they walked out. The Holy Spirit says "here!" They drilled; Here; and there was water. They didn't have to drill ten times. They drilled one time. There was the water.
> "So it's gonna be an interesting time period that were entering into. A lot of people are anti that. I can't help it. This is actually what's going to take place in the United States of America.
> "But I tell you the Power of God! The power of God that's coming in this next move. That will move here is going to be quite dramatic....
> "The Lord wants this word to come out. He wants the church to hear. The Lord God is with them in all these things that are coming in the earth; coming stock market crash; coming famine; coming gangs that are going to start roaming when welfare is greatly cut back. Eventually there will be no welfare.

At the end, you will note , he mentions the power of God coming in this next move. He is referring to the coming revival, and spends a lot of time later in his talk about what will take place then. Notice in the last paragraph he mentions social chaos and economic collapse. These are the other judgments that precede the sword judgment, they are the pestilence and famine. The time of revival will also be a time of judgment. There will be increasing judgment but along with it will come increasing revival.

I found this word intriguing and encouraging, offering more hope in that it balances the warnings with encouragement's.

RICK JOYNER
The Harvest by Rick Joyner also considers this coming time period. He sees a time of increasing anointing for harvest (revival) and increasing chaos throughout the world, and the U.S. He mentions some judgments in passing but does not elaborate on them. Neither does his prophecy follow through to the end of the period.

GEORGE WASHINGTON, PROPHET
Shortly after obtaining this tape, I suddenly remembered that I had read something very similar several years earlier. In a book by Gordon Lindsay, "Will our President Die in Office?" there was a chapter that recorded "George Washington's Vision". (CFNI) I had packed the book away one time when moving, but was able to find it right away. The details of the vision were remarkably similar. So in effect this is a confirmation of Brother Anonymous's prophecy, in a vision given 200 years earlier. Here are the pertinent details.

> "The following is an account of a vision supposedly received by George Washington while at Valley Forge.
> "I do not know whether it is owing to the anxiety of my mind or what, but this afternoon, as I was sitting at this table engaged in preparing a dispatch, something in the apartment seemed to disturb me. Looking up, I beheld standing opposite me a singularly beautiful being. So astonished was I, for I had given strict orders not to be disturbed, that it was some moments before I found language to inquire the cause of the visit. A second, a third, and even a fourth time did I repeat my question, but received no answer from my mysterious visitor except a slight raising of the eyes.
> "By this time I felt strange sensations spreading through me. I would have risen but the riveted gaze of the being before me rendered volition impossible. I assayed once more to speak, but my tongue had become useless, as if paralyzed. A new influence, mysterious, potent, irresistible, took possession of me. All I could was to gaze steadily, vacantly at my unknown visitor.
> "Gradually the surrounding atmosphere seemed to fill with sensations, and grew luminous. Everything about me seemed to rarefy, the mysterious visitor also becoming more airy and yet more distinct to my sight than before. I began to feel as one dying or rather to experience the sensations which I have sometimes imagined accompany death. I did not think, I did not reason, I did not move. All were alike impossible. I was only conscious of gazing fixedly, vacantly at my companion.
> (Here, Washington describes the vision given him by the angel. The First and Second perils come and go and now the third...)
> "Again I heard the mysterious voice saying, 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' At this the dark, shadowy angel placed a trumpet to his mouth, and blew three distinct blasts; and taking water from the ocean, he sprinkled it upon Europe, Asia, and Africa.
> Then my eyes beheld a fearful scene. From each of these continents arose thick black clouds that were soon joined into one. And throughout this mass there gleamed a dark red light by which I saw hordes of armed men. These men, moving with the cloud, marched by land and sailed by sea to America, which country was enveloped in the volume of cloud. And I dimly saw these vast armies devastate the whole country and burn the villages, towns and cities which I had seen springing up.
> As my ears listened to the thundering of the cannon, clashing of swords, and the shouts and cries of millions in mortal combat, I again heard the mysterious voice saying, 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' When the voice had ceased, the dark shadowy angel placed his trumpet once more to his mouth and blew a long and fearful blast.

> Instantly a light as of a thousand suns shone down from above me, and pierced and broke into fragments the dark cloud which enveloped America. At the same moment the angel upon whose head still shone the word 'UNION,' and who bore our national flag in one hand and a sword in the other, descended from the heavens attended by legions of white spirits. These immediately joined the inhabitants of America, who I perceived were well-nigh overcome, but who immediately taking courage again, closed up their broken ranks and renewed the battle.
> "Again, amid the fearful noise of the conflict, I heard the mysterious voice saying, 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' As the voice ceased, the shadowy angel for the last time dipped water from the ocean and sprinkled it upon America. Instantly the dark cloud rolled back, together with the armies it had brought, leaving the inhabitants of the land victorious.
> "Then once more I beheld the villages, towns and cities springing up where I had seen them before, while the bright angel, planting the azure standard he had brought in the midst of them, cried with a loud voice: 'While the stars remain, and the heavens send down dew upon the earth, so long shall the Union last.' And taking from his brow the crown on which blazoned the word 'UNION' he placed upon the Standard while the people, kneeling down said, 'Amen'!
> "The scene instantly began to fade and dissolve, and I at last saw nothing but the rising, curling vapor I at first beheld. This also disappeared, and I found myself once more gazing upon the mysterious visitor, who, in the same voice I had heard before, said, 'Son of the Republic, what you have seen is thus interpreted; Three great perils will come upon the Republic. The Most fearful for her is the third. But the whole world united shall not prevail against her. Let every child of the Republic learn to live for his God, his land and Union.' With these words the vision vanished, and I started from my seat and felt that I had seen a vision wherein had been shown me the birth, the progress, and destiny of the United States."

When I had first read this vision, some years earlier, I dismissed it as so far out it was incredible. It seemed totally beyond the realm of possibility. Today I see it as confirmation of the other prophecies.

I received a rhema word from the Lord, saying "I have prepared a sword against this land." Now was this also a 'Nineveh' word that could be averted through revival and repentance? It seemed that the Lord intended to send judgment but desired to give revival! Apparently he will do both!

AMERICA WILL BURN!

My next confirmation came by way of a tape circulating around with the appealing title "America Will Burn!" Here is the core of the message of that tape.

(This material is taken from a tape titled America Will Burn! which is distributed by the League of Prayer PO Box 4038, Montgomery AL 36104. It consists of a conversation between an interviewer, Duduman and an interpreter. The language of the revelations is somewhat awkward because the interpreter is doing a running translation of Duduman speaking in his native tongue.)

Duduman tells something of his experiences under communist persecution in Romania, and his supernatural deliverance with the assistance of the Angel Gabriel.

He leaves Romania and comes to America but is greatly disappointed by his treatment here. At a time of deep discouragement, he once again encounters the Angel Gabriel....

> "He said "America will burn." I said "How will America burn?" I said why did you bring me here, why didn't you let me die in jail in Romania." He said, "I told you to have patience." and he said get on this here next me. I got on something. It wasn't a vision. It wasn't a dream. I was awake like I'm awake now. And he showed him all over California. He showed him Las Vegas. And he said, 'Do you see what I've shown you here?" He said this is Sodom and Gomorra and all of this, in one day it will burn."
> "He went and he showed him New York and he said "This is New York. And he said this is Sodom and Gomorra. In one day it will burn." He went and showed him Florida. And he said, "This is Florida." And he said, "Everything that I've shown you, in one day it will burn." "I said, 'How will it burn in one day?'" Because the Russian spies have found out the most powerful nuclear warehouses in America. And when the Americans will think it's peace and safety, the communists from America will start a Revolution against the government, and the government will be busy with them. And then, he said, from the ocean, from Cuba, from Nicaragua, from Mexico, and he told him two other countries but he don't remember these. And they will bomb the nuclear warehouses. And America will burn."
> ...And the Angel said also; he said that "The Lord has blessed this country. Because of the Jewish people that is in this country." He said that "over here he has 7 million Jewish. Which they never tasted of torture. They never went through tortures; through hard times; and the Lord has blessed them in this country. But they don't want to recognize the Lord. They started sinning. And they started all kinds of evil things. And the Lord wants to punish them together with America. And Israel is not recognizing the Messiah, because they put their faith on the Jewish people from America. And the Lord will punish America.
> And then when America will be punished, all the people will be frightened. The Lord will give power to China and Japan, and other nations. And they will go against the Russians and they will beat the Russians. He said they will push them all the way to the gates of Paris. Over there they will make a treaty of peace.

> And all the people, they will turn towards Israel. That's when the war of Armageddon will be. He said that Israel will be frightened. They will not have the help from America no more. And then they will call upon the Messiah. That's when the Messiah will come. In the help of Israel.
> But the church must meet the messiah. We must get ourselves ready so we can meet the Lord. Because Christ will set on the Mount of Olives together with the church."
> And he told him this, "Tell this to all the people. Tell them to read from the bible." I asked him, he said, "If you're the Angel of the Lord, where does it say in the bible what you just told me?" And he said "Tell them to read this. In Jeremiah 51:8-15, and Revelation, chapter 18. Over there it tells exactly what will happen to America. And how America will burn. And the battle that Christ will go against, he'll fight against all the nations. How Christ will fight against all the nations." He said "Tell them to read from Zechariah, chapter 14."

Brother Anonymous's vision and Washington's agree in many details. Duduman's message from the angel only covers only the bombing attack. Note how it mentions specific areas to be bombed which fit in with the coastal areas mentioned by Brother Anonymous. He also gives other details of how this attack comes about. The full text of the Duduman message is included in the appendix.

PUNISHMENT OR A FINAL END?
To my mind these prophetic 'words' clearly support each other. The Lord quickened a scripture from Jeremiah and gave me to understand that it expressed his heart and intention toward America as he brings this judgment on us.

> Jeremiah 30: 10. Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make [him] afraid.
> 11. For I [am] with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

My understanding of this is that the coming judgment is a chastisement. That the Lord will "not make a full end of" America but "will correct ... in measure, and will not leave ... unpunished."

He also gave part of Isaiah 48, later.

> 3 I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I showed them; I did [them] suddenly, and they came to pass.
> 5 I have even from the beginning declared [it] to thee; before it came to pass I showed [it] thee:....
> 9. For my name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.
> 10 Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.
> 20 Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it [even] to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath redeemed his servant Jacob.

Another scripture the Lord gave me regarding this situation is Jeremiah 50.2.

> Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, [and] conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

The words "PUBLISH, AND CONCEAL NOT" are the Lords instructions for what he has shown me.

PERSONAL CONFIRMATION
One of the signs that you have begun to really believe something, is when you begin to base your reasoning on it. I found myself thinking about these prophecies and speculating on what the situation would be like in America, if or rather when they came to pass.

The Lord show me in quick succession one week that these visions were of him. He showed me our vulnerability to invasion. And our vulnerability to sneak attack.

I am employed as a two way radio technician in the rural area just up river from New Orleans. I have a wide variety of dealings with business, industrial and governmental clients.

One of our regular customers is the Strategic Petroleum Reserve in St. James Parish. This agency is under the US Department of Energy. Their mission is to purchase and store vast quantities of crude oil as a strategic reserve, in case we were once again cut off from foreign imports.

One day while I was there I got to see a map of the locations of the underground storage depots for the crude oil . All but two are right on the Gulf Coast. The other 2 slightly inland in Louisiana.

Being something of a military buff, (I once had a lifetime subscription to Strategy & Tactics Magazine) it struck me that the crude oil reserves we supposedly depend upon are extremely vulnerable to capture by invading forces, being so close to the seacoast. That same day I got hold of a petroleum resource catalog. This showed books and maps available of our oil and natural gas pipeline and distribution network. Most of it comes up through Texas and Louisiana, to be distributed to the northern cities. Again strategically vulnerable to capture.

Invading forces that were after our agricultural lands could have extra effect by invading the south. They would want to capture the port of New Orleans. This gives them access to ship docking and stevedoring facilities. Plus all the major grain elevators we use to export our products to feed the world. They would want to move up the Mississippi River to the heart of America's farmlands. And in doing so, they could also cut off all the oil & gas pipelines. This would deprive the remaining northern cities of a major source of energy.

This seemed to reinforce the implications of Brother Anonymous's vision of the horse and buggies, and very few cars. And The strange looking wagons. All of that would result from a severe shortage of oil.

The very next day, my work took me to a local civil defense headquarters. My assignment there was just to assist technicians on the other end of a circuit. So I had a bit of time to kill waiting for them to do something on their end. The room I was working in had many dozens of books and manuals on the shelves. A certain curiosity got hold of me, a Spirit led curiosity as it turned out. The first manual I looked into was a collection of materials from an emergency preparedness course.

I read a fascinating account of lessons learned from WWII. How the British coped with having to evacuate London during the Blitz. It dealt with how they moved families into the villages and country side and doubled them up with other families, two to a home. How would you like a second family to move in with you for several years?

THE SOVIETS
Other articles went into Russian experience in WWII. Theories of Civil Defense and Strategic Bombing. A comparison of Soviet and US Civil Defense Programs. An evaluation of the nuclear strategy of each country, an excellent strategic survey of the history and development of Soviet nuclear strategy since WWII. Its title was 'Why the Soviet Union thinks it could fight and win a nuclear war' by Richard Pipes of Harvard University. (See Appendix)

I could easily see several conclusions from this material. (Some of which I was allowed to take copies of.)

1. Practically speaking we have no civil defense program.

2. Soviet nuclear strategy is militarily practical and realistic. It's called counter-force strategy; and its based upon destroying your enemy's ability to fight or to strike back.

3. American nuclear Strategy (mutual deterrence) is based on wishful thinking, and political expediency. A fantasy that Russia would never attack.

4. If we were to be attacked, while weak and unprepared, the results would be exactly as predicted in the prophecies.

HORSE AND BUGGY
I have no doubt the Lord led me to find this information for the exact purpose of confirming the prophecies. Especially after what I happened to see the very next day!

Now I had been especially struck with the significance of one detail of Brother Anonymous's prophecy - the strangely built wagons. That following day I got a chance to see one!

On the way to another job, on a sunny Friday afternoon, I saw a horse drawn wagon. It was sitting atop the Mississippi River levee in Destrehan Louisiana, near the Hale Boggs bridge. It was also sitting on four automobile tires, instead of wagon wheels! What could be more obvious! If you had to build a horse drawn wagon, make the body of wood. It's light. But don't make wooden wheels when car wheels are abundant! I was so excited by the discovery and amused by the way it was built that I radioed my office to report the presence of this great curiosity. (I never saw it again, nor discovered anything more about it.)

The combination of these three experiences, all one after another, impressed me tremendously. It was another way the Lord had of giving confirmation.

ANOTHER WARNING OF JUDGMENT
Another confirmation came in 1991, through a prophetess, Peggy Richards. It came out during the Gulf War and was quoted by Pastor Rod Aguillard in one of his messages. What follows next is a quote of that prophecy and some discussion of the relevant issues.

The following dialogue is taken from 'Seven Prophetic Events' a tape by Bro. Rod Aguillard 1-23-91, available from Reserve Christian Fellowship, POB AA, Reserve LA, 70084.

Questioner in audience: "Do you think David Wilkerson's Prophecy that America is doomed is inevitable or where do we stand on this?"

Pastor Aguillard: "I think that if we continue to intercede and if we stay true to Israel that God's hand of Judgment can be stayed. But then when the United States of Europe comes into power, we are going under...."

Second questioner in audience: "Don't you think David Wilkerson's prophecy is more of a Nineveh type prophecy? That we can stay God's hand of judgment through our repentance, just like Nineveh did with Jonah."

Pastor Aguillard: "Yea, I believe we can....

"Sister Peggy (Richards) prophesied in a meeting Mary and I was at. She just came up and started prophesying.

"I see a nation," thus saith the lord, "there's a nation that hates you more than the nation you're fighting. [IRAQ] That is waiting for you to get weakened. And then they will invade your waters and invade your land and your cities will be on fire."

"And she spoke that through prophecy.

"Now that can happen! You know that's a Nineveh prophecy. And that agrees with Wilkerson's that our nation would be sieged with bombs and partly destroyed. The guy from Romania that came in, he has a tape out, God showed him a vision of our cities on fire.

"I don't know if were going to suffer that, but I think a lot of that can be stayed. That's Judgment unto desolation. It can be stayed. If we do what God's asked. He said 'If I can find me intercessors, I desire not to destroy the land.'

"We're targets for destruction because of the shedding of innocent blood, and the idolatry and adultery in our land.

"But that Judgment can be stayed, number one because of Israel, but not just Israel, I think its going to take intercessors working. It'll take both. If those two things don't happen, I believe we are going to be judged to desolation. I hope we are going to obey God. If we don't, we'll die with the wicked in Judgment."

REVIVAL IN NINEVEH

Now what exactly is a Nineveh Prophecy? It refers to the preaching of Jonah to Nineveh in the book of Jonah.

> Jonah 3
> 4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.
> 5 So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.
> 10 And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

The principle here is that God gave the prophet a word for Nineveh, but because they repented the word did not come to pass. A "Nineveh Prophecy" is a Word warning of Judgment; Judgment that can be stayed by repentance.

Now in order for these prophecies we have been discussing to be "Nineveh Prophecies", we must hope for a revival and national repentance like they had in Nineveh. They all repented 'from the greatest of them even to the least of them.'

The hope of a Nineveh Prophecy is the hope for a Nineveh Revival. It is also a hope for a delay in judgment. We know that eventually God judged Nineveh. Much of the thinking that we can stay or delay God's judgment includes the thought that it must eventually come no matter what. And that the judgment, the final wrath will be utter desolation. The Nineveh revival is typical of many revivals throughout history, where the moral climate of nations was changed, almost overnight. I do not believe this is the type of revival we will have. And therefore I do not believe these are "Nineveh Prophecies".

ECONOMY, RELIGION AND GOVERNMENT

On Friday, Jan 24 1992, I had a discussion with a couple of the men in my home group. We got into the fall of Communism and the coming fall of Islam. I shared how I was shown that these things had to come in order to prepare for the end time rule of AntiChrist.

Prophecy shows us that in the end time, very soon, there will be a one world economy; a one world religion; and a one world government. We agreed that for there to be a one world economy, Communism had to fall. I then stipulated that for there to be a one world religion, Islam must fall. Islam is a strict monotheistic faith. As such it would be in the way of a movement that leads to worship of a man. Which is the coming one world religion. (All the world will worship the beast.)

Next I related how I had shared this same idea with Bro. Tony Foster, who is now starting a church in Russia. The fall of communism opens the opportunity for harvest in communist lands that we see today. The coming fall of Islam will likewise open opportunities for harvest in Islamic lands.

Then I mentioned how the Lord had challenged me after the conversation with Bro. Tony. He said, "There's a third part to this, that you're not willing to face up to!" The third part is: What must happen for there to be a one world govt. The answer is that America must fall! They easily agreed with me, anticipating at worst an economic collapse of the U.S.

HOW ARE THE MIGHTY FALLEN

It seemed to me, ironic, I pointed out that just lately we saw America at the peak of her power and influence. In the Gulf War, the United States exerted her military might on the other side of the globe. We saw decisive use of overwhelming force produce an astonishing rapid victory. From that point on to today and to the foreseen future we are headed straight down. How far down is the question; how great will the judgments against us be?

> How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished! (2 Samuel 1:27)

The next day the Lord reminded me of the above verse from 2nd Samuel. He had given me that same scripture in the first days the gulf war. At that point we were still quite fearful of high casualties or possible adverse outcomes of the war. And I understood the reference to be to America. But as the war progressed, it seemed that the verse must have applied to Iraq. Yet Iraq did not then seem so mighty. And her weapons of war seemed paltry.

But now I see that this was referring to America. One purpose of the war was to show the might of America and to mark the peak of her power. This was our high point and marked the magnitude of our fall.

BENHADAD, KING OF SYRIA
While preparing to revise this article, my morning devotion took me to 1 Kings 20 one day.

> 1. And Benhadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together: and [there were] thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it.

I worked my way into the chapter finding mostly familiar material. I had not planned on reading in that part of the bible anyway so I was ready to skip over to proverbs, when I came to verse 13.

> 13 And, behold, there came a prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thine hand this day; and thou shalt know that I [am] the LORD.

At this point the Lord showed me that here was an example of God giving a victory to a wicked nation. Israel under king Ahab was backslidden, wicked and far from God's favor. Yet he gave the victory so "Thou shalt know that I am the LORD!"

> 21 And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

This example is written for us, I realized. Our 'miracle victory' in the Gulf War can in no way be seen as a sign of God's favor or approval. (It can certainly be seen as a sign that God had a hand in it.)

Later that day I meditated on the comparison to the Gulf War. The US as Israel, and Iraq as Syria was the analogy clearly established in my mind. As I considered how to incorporate this into my article, I got a second revelation that shook me to the core. I remembered what happened in the rest of the Chapter! And the word of Judgment pronounced against Israel and King Ahab in the end!

> 28 And there came a man of God, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Because the Syrians have said, The LORD [is] God of the hills, but he [is] not God of the valleys, therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that I [am] the LORD.

Here the Lord gave Israel a victory not because they called on him but because of the Syrians actions. The Syrians made the war a contest between their gods and the God if Israel! Now recall that Saddam Hussein made a great public show, on world wide television, of prayer to Allah! That he called for Jihad, or Holy War, and counted on Allah for victory!

President Bush had Billy Graham come into the White House to pray. And he issued a proclamation of prayer after the manner of Abraham Lincoln.

Once again the war was a contest between the God of Israel and false religion. And once again God gave the victory to a wicked, backslidden nation: America.

> 29 And they pitched one over against the other seven days. And [so] it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined: and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

But Benhadad of Syria escaped from the battle and pled for mercy.

> 32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Benhadad saith, I pray thee, let me live....
> 34 ... Then said Ahab, I will send thee away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away.

(Our leadership in the Gulf War allowed the Iraqi army to slip from the trap and still permits Hussein to remain in power.)

But the Lord was angry and sent the prophet again.

> 38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with ashes upon his face.
> 42 And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Because thou hast let go out of [thy] hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people.
> And this is another word of judgment for us as well.

AMERICA REDUCED
America's fall from being a world power in implied in yet another prophecy from many years back.

(This is taken from an article called "As I See It" by Lance Lambert which appeared in Christ for the Nations Vol 43 nr 2, May 1990.

> ...There was a prophecy given in 1911 that shortly an evil would take Russia, and wherever this evil would go, rivers of blood would flow. It was not the Russian soul; it was not an ideology or a philosophy, but a spirit > from hell. In the last days, the prophecy went on to say, Germany would be divided; Italy would be judged by natural disasters; France would be nothing much; Britain would lose her empire and come almost to ruin, but would be saved by praying women; the U. S. would feed the world and be the greatest power, but would finally be reduced. In the end Russia would be free and believers would go forth from Russia and China taking the Good News to all the earth before the antichrist.

But there is good news here too. While America is declining as a world power there is a move of reformation, restoration and revival coming to pass. One turning point was the summer of 1988 when Operation Rescue began to act as the Church is supposed to and became doers of the word and not hearers only.

WITCHITA KANSAS - AUGUST 1991
The summer of 91 marked another turning point in our restoration as a Godly covenant nation.

In the summer of 1991, I participated in the Operation Rescue's Summer of Mercy in Witchita Kansas. I was privileged to accompany my pastor, Rod Aguillard and a group of other pastors and lay ministers. This was the third time our local church had sent a party to participate in the rescues taking place there.

During the time prior to the trip, I was deeply impressed in my spirit that this was going to be a critical time. A critical moment for America and that our obedience was critical to God's purposes.

We were given a prophecy the day we left that we were going into an intense spiritual battle. To pray and war. And that "the Enemy was about to overstep his limits!"

To make a long story short, we (radical fence jumpers) spent 3 days in jail. We were facing serious Federal charges and a severely high bail bond requirement.

But we saw God move mightily. I witnessed an awesome move of the Spirit in the cell block on the second night. The lord spoke through one of the men there. "I am beginning to turn this thing around. I am raising up a Joshua people, a people who will take a stand for me." The very next day, legal barriers fell one after another, securing the release of all those in our party, in an astonishing way. Everyone got back home before the weekend was out. (Including Gorbachov, for that was the week of the failed Soviet coup. It proved to be a critical time for the whole world.)

My understanding of the Word given in the jail cell was two fold. Not only did God "turn this thing around" and get us out of jail quickly. God was turning around the abortion situation. Shortly thereafter Clarence Thomas was confirmed to the Supreme Court. And He was turning around the Church and beginning to give Revival.

KING JOSIAH AND REVIVAL
Then He showed me that it was to be a Josiah revival....I regularly listen to the bible on tape; sometimes the Lord will illuminate some passage and give its application. He gave me this scripture speaking of King Josiah. And quickened it as applying to America!

> 2 Kings 23
> 25. And like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there [any] like him.
> 26 Notwithstanding the LORD turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocation's that Manasseh had provoked him withal.
> 27 And the LORD said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there.

The Josiah revival as described in Kings is the pattern that will come to pass in America. There is a great revival, a cleansing and repentance, yet the Lord still said he would bring judgment upon Judah for the sins of Manasseh, for the innocent blood he shed.

Here is a pattern of revival followed by judgment. Consider there remarks by Mary Stewart Relfe of the League of Prayer, commenting on the Word from Dimitri Duduman.

> "Revival, for which League of Prayer is praying, is always accompanied by or followed by Judgment. Judgment is not a pleasant subject. The prophet Isaiah calls judgment Gods "strange work" (Isaiah 28:21).
> For example, after the great revival of 1858, when millions of people were won to the Lord in this nation, The Civil War soon broke out and took the lives of multitudes, many of whom God had saved.
> After the great Wales awakening, that swept the world in 1904 through 1912, World War I broke out and millions of people who were saved in that great revival, their lives were taken in the war. It seems that God always extends his great hand of mercy, before he sends judgment. (The same pattern is seen in the Cambodian Revival of the early 1970's.)
> While America goes happily along, I can assure that the Holy Spirit has born witness in my heart that the Church is on the Cutting Edge of a great outpouring of God's Spirit in America."

REVIVAL AND JUDGMENT
There is a Great revival coming to America, but for the Sin of Abortion, the shedding of innocent blood, the price must be paid.

> Jeremiah 15
> 4 And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for [that] which he did in Jerusalem
> 2 Kings 21
> 16 Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing [that which was] evil in the sight of the LORD.

The coming of revival is a turning point. If there were no remnant in the church crying out for revival; if no revival were coming, we would have no hope.

This Passage from Ezekiel shows a pattern of judgment upon a wicked people where a remnant of them remain afterwards.

> Ezekiel 6
> 1. And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
> 2 Son of man, set thy face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them,
> 3 And say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys; Behold, I, [even] I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places.
> 6 In all your dwellingplaces the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.
> 7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I [am] the LORD.
> 8. Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have [some] that shall escape the sword ....

In the book of Daniel, the Prophet Daniel is called on to interpret a vision in chapter 4. The interpretation amounted to a word of judgment on King Nebuchadnezzar. The nature of the judgment was a chastisement. Nevertheless Daniel expressed hope that it would not come to pass and immediately advised the King to repent at once. The King knew of God and his power but was basically ignorant of his ways.

> 19. Then Daniel, whose name [was] Belteshazzar, was astonied for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream [be] to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.
> 20 The tree that thou sawest,
> 22 It [is] thou, O king, ...
> 26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule.
> 27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

BELSHAZZAR'S FINAL END

This is a sharp contrast with the judgment pronounced in the next chapter on King Belshazzar. Belshazzar, who knew of all the things that the Lord had done to Nebuchadnezzar, still paid no attention to them. His behavior was one of mockery and a personal offense to the Lord. His use of the vessels of the temple brought down the finger of God to produce the handwriting on the wall. He was weighed in the balance and found wanting. (The abuse of the temple vessels speaks of persecution of God's people, the church, when applied to our times.) Before Belshazzar, Daniel showed only respect. He offered no prayer or counsel. He knew the judgment was no chastisement. It was an outpouring of wrath unto desolation. Belshazzar and his kingdom were through.

> Daniel 5
> 18 O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honor:
> 20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:
> 21 And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, ... till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and [that] he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.
> 22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this;
> 23 But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath [is], and whose [are] all thy ways, hast thou not glorified:....
> 30. In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.

Both of these elements must be a part of our understanding on God's word of judgment on America. Insofar as America is 'Babylon', she will be desolated. Insofar as America is the church, she is to be chastised.

The Lord gave me Isaiah 65 as applying here balancing the two types of judgment mentioned in Daniel. The whole chapter is relevant, but especially verses 8 through 14; verse 19; and the end of the chapter depicts the situation going on into the millennium.

> 8. Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and [one] saith, Destroy it not; for a blessing [is] in it: so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all.
> 11. But ye [are] they that forsake the LORD, that forget my holy mountain, ...
> 12 Therefore will I number you to the sword, ...
> 13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed
> 14 Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit.
> 19 And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

This is a clear scriptural picture of revival in the midst of judgment. Note the words in verse 8. NEW WINE! When the Holy Ghost comes, they will say :These men are filled with new wine! Revival is coming.... And judgment is coming.

AMERICA IS SAVED
And after the judgment: further restoration and rebuilding. The Brother Anonymous prophecy and the Washington vision both offer hope in the end. So the turning point that brings revival means that America Is Saved!

To illustrate this point the Lord took me in memory to a book I had read many years ago. 'War and Peace'.

In Tolstoy's 'War and Peace' there is a memorable scene, late in the book which shows the military insight of the Russian commander, General Kutuzov.

Napoleon had invaded Russia in 1812, defeating the Russians at every turn. He advanced deep into Mother Russia, and took Moscow. But then he retreated seeking better winter quarters. History sees this as the turning point in the war but it was not. On the way out of Moscow, his army came to a fork in the road. One way led west, the way they had come. The other road went off to the southwest. It was at this point that some surviving elements of the Russian army made a stand and skirmished with the French by blocking the southwest fork.

Rather than stopping to regroup for battle, Napoleon took the other road.

Upon hearing the report of this action, General Kutuzov did something that astonished the staff officers in his headquarters. He fell to his knees weeping, and cried out, giving thanks to God, "Russia is Saved! Russia is Saved!"

You see, he alone of all the men there realized that THIS was the turning point of the war. By taking the westerly road, Napoleon would be forced to pass through regions he had already come through once already during his advance on Moscow. These regions would now be depleted of the supplies his army would need to survive. (Napoleon would end up leaving Russia with slightly less than 10% of the army he had when he began the retreat.) Kutuzov alone had the insight into the situation, and praised God for Russia's deliverance. This he did while those around him had no understanding of the situation.

The same thing can be said for us. The Lord gave me this parallel to show that America is Saved!

So America is Saved in that it is not to be judged unto desolation and utterly destroyed at the Second Coming of Jesus. It will be judged, purged, purified and restored as a Godly covenant nation ready for the return of the master.

Perhaps, This also means that AntiChrist will not rule America!

ARISE, SHINE
At the time of the outpouring and the great harvest, we will not see a total transformation of the moral climate of the nation. This was the case in several past revivals. But this is a case of Isaiah 60:1-2.

> Isaiah 60 1. Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee. 2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

God will give revival in some areas but Satan will control others. This is seen in the parable of the tares and wheat. The tares are allowed to ripen along with the wheat, just before the harvest. There will be great contrasts between light and darkness; between the church and the world.

The areas of revival will be places of great light and anointing; refuge and refreshment for God's people.

The righteous grow more righteous and the wicked grow more wicked. The iniquities of America will come to the full as the sins of the Amorites did. When this comes about, the church will be in her glory leading multitudes to salvation. But the wicked will be in power and the country in chaos. Our nation will turn against Israel and this will be the final straw bringing down God's judgment.

But the Lord's people will come out from Babylon and many will survive the bombing in miraculous ways.

This also means that from the time of the bombing onward, antichrist forces will no longer rule. And that when America fully repents and humbles herself as a nation, several important changes will take place. The tide of battle will turn against the invaders. (Duduman's prophecy indicates that our enemies will begin to fight amongst themselves. So the lord will put confusion in their ranks!) Secondly, Theocracy will be established and we will once again be a covenant people in right standing with God. Thirdly we will not be ruled over by antichrist, nor among the nations that march against Israel. Fourth we are not appointed unto the final outpouring of God's wrath upon the nations at the end.

HOW MUCH OF THIS IN INEVITABLE?
First some is inevitable because God's plan requires that "America will be reduced" to the point where she is not able to assist Israel in any way. And to the point where she cannot hinder antichrist in forming a one world government. America must fall.

Secondly some is inevitable because of the "sins of Manasseh" and because He will not leave us "wholly unpunished".

Thirdly some is inevitable because God wants to bring America to her knees in full repentance. She must be brought low enough for him to be able to establish Theocracy. Why? because we are a covenant people, analogous to Israel. (Many of the prophetic scriptures that mention Israel or Zion can be applied to us.) In a sense, the church of America is America.

I heard a comment that America is a land built by immigration. True. We are a people gathered out from other nations. Like the Church is a people called out from the nations. This reinforces the idea that the Church of America is America ; and America is a type of the Church.

To Quote Gordon Lindsey;

> "America became a nation in a manner different from almost any other people with the exception of ISRAEL. Some indeed came to the New World in search of gold and silver and other treasure. Adventurers committed the most brutal crimes in their mad lust for wealth. Kingdoms were plundered by the conquistadors without the slightest compunction of conscience. But our forefathers (who were from many nation) came to America for another purpose. They came to find a sanctuary where they could worship God in the freedom of their conscience."

A COVENANT PEOPLE
So our covenant doesn't just go back to 1776, neither does our history. The covenant is that made by God with the original colonists who came to this land seeking freedom to worship Him. And, perhaps for their sakes, he would have us to be in right standing with Him when he returns. That he may be able to spare us the final wrath and desolation prepared for the world. Praise God!

What is inevitable is, I believe, a. economic and social chaos, b. bombing of our cities and c. invasion of the land. What is variable is the extent of the damage and the length of the war. This is where God's hand of judgment can be stayed. Once she repents, America needs only to be reduced to the point of being unable to help Israel.

What is not coming to pass amongst all that we have been taught by traditional eschatology is: a. rule by antichrist in America, and b. final desolation in the Day of the Lord.

But just as all the world will come against Israel in the last battle; all the world will first come against America. She is God's other covenant people. And when America finally repents her people will be willing to lay down their lives. Concurrently when the Church finally repents and God's people are willing to lay down their lives, God's purpose will go forward. The enemy will be overcome in the natural and the Adversary will be overcome in the spiritual.

AFTERWORD
The following paragraph is taken from an article in The Morning Star Prophetic Journal Vol 1 Nr 1. p. 45

1991 and Beyond by Rick Joyner

"The U.S. and her allies will win the impending Middle-East conflict but no one has yet comprehended the magnitude of the cost in both lives and future world influence. The eagle (U.S.) will have her "right wing" broken (conservative politics) and begin a downward spiral....

I read this prophecy when it came out in early 1991. It came home to roost in the late fall of 1992, after I had completely forgotten it. Tony Foster wrote to me from Russia, after the 1992 election was over and said the election results were that prophecy coming to pass! Of course he was right.

Our pastor, Rod Aguillard, points out that in 1988 the church received a call to rise up and put a stop to abortion through operation rescue. She did not, as a whole, answer that call. Therefor God has now turned us over to an oppressor, just like He did to Israel so many times in the book of Judges and elsewhere. (Oh Jerusalem, Jerusalem...) When the oppression gets bad enough, we will call upon his name.

Rev. Harold Cohen, a charismatic catholic priest in New Orleans, pointed this out, just after the election. The majority of Americans voted against the pro-life candidate (Bush). So in effect the U.S. has chosen death instead of life, and cursing instead of blessing. Not discouraged he added "We don't know what the future holds, but we know Who holds the future!"

Now we see in the Clinton Administration foolish policies that will deliberately cripple our economy and devastate our military strength. Policies that will place us exactly in position for the coming prophesied catastrophes. We have chosen death, as a nation, and the curses are now piling up ever faster. And at the same time God is pouring out the new wine to the faithful remnant among his people. "He that sitteth in the Heavens shall laugh."

APPENDIX

APPENDIX A : Brother Anonymous

This is transcribed from a taped TV interview of Brother Anonymous

There is a price to pay for the murder of abortion. Jericho paid that price....

Crisis draws us together. Every time there's a crisis, people come. It's been that way from the very beginning. God told the children of Israel "When I do these things, then you'll seek me early. When I do these things, then you'll call upon my name. When I do these things to you, then you'll know that I am God. "It's been that way always. It's still that way today. And God still moves that way to get us to bow our knee.

Crisis is coming to America. To get us to repent, to bow our knees. To get us to give Jesus Christ Lordship over our lives. Not just to know Him but to know all of Him. Not just to have heard of him but to know all about him. To be intimate. We're gonna end up bowing our knee before God Almighty. And God will save us.

"In the war that's coming we will not be defeated, but we will be hurt. We will be neutralized. We're not going to come out of it unscathed. China and Russia are both going to invade our territory. There's going to be tremendous nuclear, or limited nuclear warfare. But tremendous bombing and a new type of weaponry that is going to hit the east and the west coasts of the United States. And those cities. The purpose in that is to desolate the populous areas. So then when invasion troops and invasion forces come in there'll be fewer people that they have to deal with.

And they are not really after our cities; they are gonna be after our farms. They're gonna be after our agricultural land. That's what they're coming after. That's why they are gonna wipe out the populous areas, or try to, and then invade the middle of America.

I've seen missiles coming from submarines, to do it. And for some reason, the Lord told me, the missiles that Russia has are not accurate, and so they won't depend on those greatly. But they'll depend on submarine warfare. The missiles will come from submarines. But they don't have a long range and so they'll mainly attack the coastal areas.

But the great thing is that we'll win. It'll look like were going to be defeated. It'll bring us to our knees. But were gonna win. At the same time, not only will we be neutralized but Russia will be neutralized. Russia will have - nothing - after it's all said and done. And we'll have nothing after it's all said and done. Basically, we'll have life. There'll be some life left.

But when Russia's neutralized and America's neutralized, then you'll see the Anti-Christ arise in power. That's when he'll arise. And he'll say 'Ah, now' to himself or to those around him, 'since I don't have anything to worry about in America, I'll leave it alone. The United States, I don't have to worry about it; it's no longer a power. I don't have anything to worry about with Russia, it's no longer a power. So I'm gonna concentrate all my forces upon this European segment.

But there is a force, Israel, I've got to deal with. Because it's a thorn in my side. And God says 'I'll put a hook in your jaw and I'll draw you out. He's gonna put a hook in the jaw and He's gonna draw him out. And they're gonna come against Israel. But they won't have the United States to worry about. They won't have Russia to contend with. It'll be the anti-Christ forces that are gonna bring this invasion of Israel.

But were gonna be neutralized and we won't be able to intervene. Only God can intervene. And in a way, that's what God wants. Is that when Israel can't say 'Help!' to anybody but God. Only God will they be able to say help to. And when they say, 'Daddy, help me!' he'll help them. And he'll intervene, Miraculously!

But that's the time period that were coming to. And so not a lot of people have thought that China would be involved in the invasion. But China is gonna be involved in the invasion. A lot of people said well that's impossible because Russia and China hate each other. Well they're gonna unite for a common cause. And when you unite for a common cause, each one of them will probably be thinking, 'Well when it's over with, I'll take care of the other guy.' And so were gonna be invaded.

China will still have enough people, after it's said and done. China will still have enough people to send millions and millions. A hundred million marching toward Israel. They won't be technological giants. But they'll be giants in physical numbers, numbers of men. Numbers in the army that they'll still be able to amass. But they'll join, they're gonna join Russia in this coming invasion.

God will supernaturally intervene. But the time frame it's gonna leave us with is that you'll see a lot more horse and buggy's on the roads than you'll see cars. I've seen a time when there's very, very few automobiles on the road, and a lot of horses. A lot of buggies; a lot of wagons. Some of them are really strange wagons. It's like they didn't know how to build them. They just constructed anything that would haul something. It's like people who didn't know how to do, how to build but did the best they could. And so you saw a lot of strange things on the road.

When I have visions, like this, the Lord gives me visions or dreams, it's as if I went through this time period. So I can remember seeing certain things. Just like I can close my eyes and I can see 'em just like I can see you. It's like I lived through it. I lived through the horse and buggies. I lived through a time when there was no radio. I lived through a time when there was no TV. I lived through a time when the people didn't know if there was any government.

So for a period of time, there was government by God through the people. And God literally formed theocracy. Not a democracy, not a monarchy, not a king. But a theocracy. For He told people what to do. Men were led by the Spirit of God. They made decisions based upon what the Holy Spirit of God said to do. And they lived.

And if they needed water, they walked out. The Holy Spirit says "here!" They drilled; Here; and there was water. They didn't have to drill ten times. They drilled one time. There was the water.

So it's gonna be an interesting time period that were entering into. A lot of people are anti that. I can't help it. This is actually what's going to take place in the United States of America.

But I tell you the Power of God! The power of God that's coming in this next move. That will move here is going to be quite dramatic....

The Lord wants this word to come out. He wants the church to hear. The Lord God is with them in all these things that are coming in the earth; coming stock market crash; coming famine; coming gangs that are going to start roaming when welfare is greatly cut back. Eventually there will be no welfare.

APPENDIX B : George Washington's Vision

This is Chapter 6 of "Will our president Die in office? by Gordon Lindsey. Christ for the Nations, Inc. PO Box 24910, Dallas TX 75224.

THE FAMOUS VISION OF GEORGE WASHINGTON

In connection with the message of this book, we felt it would be appropriate to include the famous vision of George Washington.

One of the incidents of his life that has come down to us concerns one Isaac Potts, secretly a Tory, who provided George Washington a headquarters during the time he was at Valley Forge. There was not much room for privacy there, and Mr. Potts frequently observed Washington visit a secluded grove nearby. One day while strolling up the creek he heard a solemn voice. He walked quietly in the direction of it, and saw Washington's horse tied to a sapling. In a thicket nearby was the beloved chief upon his knees in prayer, his cheeks suffused with tears.

Mr. Potts returned and to his family said, "The Tory cause is lost." He gave his reasons for this change of opinion.

"I have this day seen what I never expected. You know I always thought the sword and the gospel were utterly inconsistent; and no man could be a soldier and a Christian at the same time. But George Washington has this day convinced me of my mistake.

"If George Washington be not a man of God I am greatly deceived - and still more shall I be deceived if God does not, through him, work out a great salvation for America.

"If there is anyone on this earth to whom the Lord will listen, it is George Washington; and I feel a presentiment that under such a commander there can be no doubt of our eventually establishing our independence and God in His providence has willed it so."

Perhaps the most startling spiritual experience of George Washington was a vision he received (which has been given wide publicity and is generally knows as "The Vision of George Washington"). The authenticity of this vision is evident in that the facts of it were circulated before the Civil War. Yet the vision speaks with detail of that great war between the states!

The most solemn part of the vision, however, is that which relates to a great catastrophic war that is yet to come, and which presages a fearful devastation of our country. The details of the vision were communicated to a Professor Totten by an Anthony Sherman, who was with George Washington at Valley Forge. Professor Totten published it in tract form in "Our Race Leaflet" in September, 1898. May the reader note that in the vision only those wars which involved America by invasion are considered. Thus the War of 1812 and the Civil War are spoken of since blood flowed on our soil in both of these wars. This was not true in the War of 1898, nor of World War II. The ominous "red light" apparently speaks of communism (which originated in this century), which has already reached Cuba, an island within 90 miles of our shores. Whether soldiers will actually land on our coasts may or may not be indicated by the vision, for weapons now devised can destroy at a distance.

The Vision Professor Totten relates George Washington's vision as follows:

The last time I ever saw Anthony Sherman was on the fourth of July, 1859, in Independence Square. He was then ninety years old and becoming very feeble. But though so old his eyes rekindled as he gazed upon Independence Hall, which he came to visit once more before he was gathered home.

"Let us to into the hall," he said. "I want to tell you on an incident of Washington's life - one which no one alive knows of except myself; and if you live, you will before long see it verified.

"From the opening of the Revolution we experienced all phases of fortune, now good and now ill, one time victorious and another conquered. The darkest period we had, I think, was when Washington after several reverses, retreated to Valley Forge, where he resolved to pass the winter of 1777. Ah! I have often seen the tears coursing down our dear commander's careworn cheeks, as he would be conversing with a confidential officer about the condition of his poor soldiers. You have doubtless heard the story of Washington's going to the thicket to pray. Well it was not only true, but he used often to pray in secret for aid and comfort. And God brought us safely through the darkest days of tribulation.

"One day, I remember it well, the chilly winds whistled through the leafless trees. Though the sky was cloudless and the sun shone brightly, he remained in his quarters nearly all of the afternoon, alone. When he came out I noticed that his face was a shade paler than usual, and there seemed to be something on his mind of more than ordinary importance. Returning just after dusk, he dispatched an orderly to the quarters of an officer, who was presently in attendance. After a preliminary conversation of about half an hour, Washington, gazing upon his companion with that strange look of dignity which he alone could command said to the latter."

"I do not know whether it is owing to the anxiety of my mind or what, but this afternoon, as I was sitting at this table engaged in preparing a dispatch, something in the apartment seemed to disturb me. Looking up, I beheld standing opposite me a singularly beautiful being. So astonished was I, for I had given strict orders not to be disturbed, that it was some moments before I found language to inquire the cause of the visit. A second, a third, and even a fourth time did I repeat my question, but received no answer from my mysterious visitor except a slight raising of the eyes.

"By this time I felt strange sensations spreading through me. I would have risen but the riveted gaze of the being before me rendered volition impossible. I assayed once more to speak, but my tongue had become useless, as if paralyzed. A new influence, mysterious, potent, irresistible, took possession of me. All I could was to gaze steadily, vacantly at my unknown visitor.

"Gradually the surrounding atmosphere seemed to fill with sensations, and grew luminous. Everything about me seemed to rarefy, the mysterious visitor also becoming more airy and yet more distinct to my sight than before. I began to feel as one dying or rather to experience the sensations which I have sometimes imagined accompany death. I did not think, I did not reason, I did not move. All were alike impossible. I was only conscious of gazing fixedly, vacantly at my companion.

"Presently I heard a voice saying, 'Son of the Republic, look and learn,' while at the same time my visitor extended an arm eastward. I now beheld a heavy white vapor at some distance rising fold upon fold. This gradually dissipated and I looked upon a strange scene. Before me lay, spread out in one vast plain, all the countries of the world - Europe, Asia, Africa and America. I saw rolling and tossing between Europe and America the billows of the Atlantic, and between Asia and America lay the Pacific. 'Son of the Republic,' said the same mysterious voice as before, 'look and learn,'"

At that moment I beheld a dark, shadowy 'being' like an angel, standing, or rather floating in mid-air, between Europe and America. Dipping water out of the ocean in the hollow of each hand, he sprinkled some upon America with his right hand, while with his left he cast some over Europe. Immediately a cloud arose from these countries, and joined in mid-ocean. For a while it remained stationary, and then it moved slowly westward until it enveloped America in its murky folds. Sharp flashes of lightning gleamed through it at intervals and I heard the smothered groans and cries of the American people. (This may be interpreted to have been the Revolutionary War then in progress.)

"A second time the angel dipped water from the ocean and sprinkled it out as before. The dark cloud was then drawn back to the ocean, in whose heaving billows it sank from view.

"A third time I heard the mysterious voice saying, "Son of the Republic, look and learn.' I cast my eyes upon America and beheld villages and towns and cities springing up one after another until the whole land from the Atlantic to the Pacific was dotted with them. Again, I heard the mysterious voice say. 'Son of the Republic, the end of the century cometh, look and learn.'

And this time the dark shadowy angel turned his face southward. From Africa I saw an ill-omened specter approach our land. It flitted slowly and heavily over every town and city of the latter. The inhabitants presently set themselves in battle array against each other. As I continued looking I saw a bright angel on whose brow rested a crown of light, on which was traced the word 'UNION.' He was bearing the American flag. He placed the flag between the divided nation and said 'Remember, ye are brethren.'

Instantly the inhabitants, casting down their weapons, became friends once more and united around the National Standard.

"Again I heard the mysterious voice saying, 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' At this the dark, shadowy angel placed a trumpet to his mouth, and blew three distinct blasts; and taking water from the ocean, he sprinkled it upon Europe, Asia, and Africa.

Then my eyes beheld a fearful scene. From each of these continents arose thick black clouds that were soon joined into one. And throughout this mass there gleamed a dark red light by which I saw hordes of armed men. These men, moving with the cloud, marched by land and sailed by sea to America, which country was enveloped in the volume of cloud. And I dimly saw these vast armies devastate the whole country and burn the villages, towns and cities which I had seen springing up.

As my ears listened to the thundering of the cannon, clashing of swords, and the shouts and cries of millions in mortal combat, I again heard the mysterious voice saying, 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' When the voice had ceased, the dark shadowy angel placed his trumpet once more to his mouth and blew a long and fearful blast.

Instantly a light as of a thousand suns shone down from above me, and pierced and broke into fragments the dark cloud which enveloped America. At the same moment the angel upon whose head still shone the word 'UNION,' and who bore our national flag in one hand and a sword in the other, descended from the heavens attended by legions of white spirits. These immediately joined the inhabitants of America, who I perceived were well-nigh overcome, but who immediately taking courage again, closed up their broken ranks and renewed the battle.

"Again, amid the fearful noise of the conflict, I heard the mysterious voice saying, 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' As the voice ceased, the shadowy angel for the last time dipped water from the ocean and sprinkled it upon America. Instantly the dark cloud rolled back, together with the armies it had brought, leaving the inhabitants of the land victorious.

"Then once more I beheld the villages, towns and cities springing up where I had seen them before, while the bright angel, planting the azure standard he had brought in the midst of them, cried with a loud voice: 'While the stars remain, and the heavens send down dew upon the earth, so long shall the Union last.' And taking from his brow the crown on which blazoned the word 'UNION' he placed upon the Standard while the people, kneeling down said, 'Amen'!

"The scene instantly began to fade and dissolve, and I at last saw nothing but the rising, curling vapor I at first beheld. This also disappeared, and I found myself once more gazing upon the mysterious visitor, who, in the same voice I had heard before, said, 'Son of the Republic, what you have seen is thus interpreted; Three great perils will come upon the Republic. The Most fearful for is the third. But the whole world united shall not prevail against her. Let every child of the Republic learn to live for his God, his land and Union.' With these words the vision vanished, and i started from my seat and felt that I had seen a vision wherein had been shown me the birth, the progress, and destiny of the United States."

"Such, my friends," the venerable narrator concluded, "were the words I heard from Washington's own lips, and America will do well to profit by them."

APPENDIX C : Dimitri Duduman

An interview with Dimitri Duduman

This material is taken from a tape titled America Will Burn! which is distributed by the League of Prayer PO Box 4038, Montgomery AL 36103. It consists of a conversation between an interviewer, Duduman and an interpreter. The nature of the revelations is somewhat awkward because the interpreter is doing a running translation of Duduman speaking in his native tongue. The voice we are quoting is the interpreter.

In the beginning of the interview, Duduman tells something of his experiences under communist persecution in Romania, and his supernatural deliverance with the assistance of the Angel Gabriel.

At a time of deep discouragement, after coming to America, he once again encounters the Angel Gabriel who has a message for him to give to the Church.

"He said "America will burn." I said "How will America burn?" I said why did you bring me here, why didn't you let me die in jail in Romania." He said, "I told you to have patience." and he said get on this here next me. I got on something. It wasn't a vision. It wasn't a dream. I was awake like I'm awake now. And he showed him all over California. He showed him Las Vegas. And he said, 'Do you see what I've shown you here?" He said this is Sodom and Gomorra and all of this, in one day it will burn." "He went and he showed him New York and he said "This is New York. And he said this is Sodom and Gomorra. In one day it will burn." He went and showed him Florida. And he said, "This is Florida." And he said, "Everything that I've shown you, in one day it will burn." "I said, 'How will it burn in one day?'" Because the Russian spies have found out the most powerful nuclear warehouses in America. And when the Americans will think it's peace and safety, the communists from America will start a Revolution against the government, and the government will be busy with them. And then, he said, from the ocean, from Cuba, from Nicaragua, from Mexico, and he told him two other countries but he don't remember these. And they will bomb the nuclear warehouses. And America will burn.

I said "What will you do with the church?" He said "The church has forsaken him." I said "How come you don't have people right here in America?" The angel said "Remember what I have told you. You will go on television. You will go on radio. You will go in churches. No matter where you will be, tell them everything that I told you.

Tell them that I'm not with the church no more. Because the people give praises to themselves. The honor that's supposed to be given to Christ, the people take it on themselves. In the churches, there is divorces, there's adultery in the churches, there's homosexuality in the churches, there's abortion in the churches and every kind of sin in the churches. And they turn some of the churches for businesses for money. And all the evangelists, they only preach salvation and happiness.

But they don't want to show the destruction. They don't want to show the hard times that will come upon America. And that's why I've brought you here. Because through your mouth I want to wake up a lot of people. Because I love this country. And I want to save the church."

I said "How will you save them? If America will burn, how will you be able to save them?" He said "Tell them this, the way I'm telling you." He said "The way I saved the three young ones from the furnace of fire; How I saved Daniel from the lions den; I will save them the same way." He said "Tell them to stop sinning. Tell them to turn towards the Lord. Because he never gets tired of forgiving. And they must look for the Lord with all their hearts.

Because in a short time it will happen. Everything that I just told you. Tell them do not be afraid of trouble. Because I will be with you."

He said that "I will go before you and I will work powerfully. He said "I will heal a lot of people of their sickness. And I will open the door so you can go on television and on the radio." And that's what it happened. Because the lord had done a lot of healing upon American churches. And those people that were healed they went on the television. They were in California, in Utah, in Indiana, in Missouri, and other states. And the Lord had opened the doors. And I spoke on the television; I spoke on the radio.

And I'll never keep quiet. As long as I have breath in me. I will sound the trumpet so the American Church will wake up. Because America took the bible all over this world. Because Americans did go as missionaries all over this world. But America fell from the truth. And the church from America; they fell from the truth. And Christ want's to save them. But only if they will stop sinning; and they will turn towards him."

And the Angel said also; he said that "The Lord has blessed this country. Because of the Jewish people that is in this country." He said that "over here he has 7 million Jewish. Which they never tasted of torture. They never went through tortures; through hard times; and the Lord has blessed them in this country. But they don't want to recognize the Lord. They started sinning. And they started all kinds of evil things. And the Lord wants to punish them together with America. And Israel is not recognizing the Messiah, because they put their faith on the Jewish people from America. And the Lord will punish America.

And then when America will be punished, all the people will be frightened. The Lord will give power to China and Japan, and other nations. And they will go against the Russians and they will beat the Russians. He said they will push them all the way to the gates of Paris. Over there they will make a treaty of peace.

And all the people, they will turn towards Israel. That's when the war of Armageddon will be. He said that Israel will be frightened. They will not have the help from America no more. And then they will call upon the Messiah. That's when the Messiah will come. In the help of Israel.

But the church must meet the messiah. We must get ourselves ready so we can meet the Lord. Because Christ will set on the Mount of Olives together with the church."

And he told him this, "Tell this to all the people. Tell them to read from the bible." I asked him, he said, "If you're the Angel of the Lord, where does it say in the bible what you just told me?" And he said "Tell them to read this. In Jeremiah 51:8-15. and Revelation, chapter 18. Over there it tells exactly what will happen to America. And how America will burn. And the battle that Christ will go against, he'll fight against all the nations. How Christ will fight against all the nations." He said "Tell them to read from Zechariah, chapter 14."

Whenever I put my hand on the Bible, I was learned by the Lord. Because everything, what the Angel of the Lord said; it was prophesied before. With the meaning about this country. Because all the evangelists and all the American preachers; they only talk about the salvation of the people. They talk about the happiness of the people. But they don't want to preach the true word of the Lord. And the American pastors they cannot speak the truth no more. Because if they speak the truth to the people, the people will leave the church.

But we will have to answer before the Lord of the teaching that we give to other people. And we must preach the true word the way it's written. And I wish to visit American Churches as much as possible. And I must tell all the people to turn towards the Lord. So on the day when America will be on fire, so they will be able to be saved. And a lot of times, in my suffering, when I was being tortured, the angle of the Lord was next to me. May the Lord bless him.

APPENDIX D : MARY STEWART RELFE

Synopsis and Comment re: Dimitru Duduman by Mary Stewart Relfe of the League of Prayer

The Angel Gabriel told Dimitri "America Will Burn" America will be deceived by Russia's "Peace! Peace!" This tape was made a couple of years before Glasnost.

Russia will locate our nuclear missile silos. And from Cuba and Nicaragua, bombard them. Los Angeles, Las Vegas, New York City and Florida will burn. Christians, God's blood bought, God will preserve, as He did Shadrac, Meshach and Abednigo in the fiery furnace. The church in America, he said is corrupt, full of divorce and adultery. Its preachers, generally are not declaring the whole counsel of God. Though God does have a remnant.

Revival, for which League of Prayer is praying, is always accompanied by or followed by Judgment. Judgment is not a pleasant subject. The prophet Isaiah calls judgment Gods "strange work" (Isaiah 28:21).

For example, after the great revival of 1858, when millions of people were won to the Lord in this nation, The Civil War soon broke out and took the lives of multitudes, many of whom God had saved.

After the great Wales awakening, that swept the world in 1904 through 1912, World War I broke out and millions of people who were saved in that great revival, their lives were taken in the war. It seems that God always extends his great hand of mercy, before he sends judgment.

While America goes happily along, I can assure that the Holy Spirit has born witness in my heart that the Church is on the Cutting Edge of a great outpouring of God's Spirit in America. And when God's Spirit is poured out in great power on a lukewarm church, there are always "Annaias and Sephiras". Charles Finney spoke of it frequently.

APPENDIX E : Richard Pipes

Why the Soviet Union Thinks it Could Fight and Win a Nuclear War

by Richard Pipes Baird Professor of History, Harvard University Reprinted from Commentary, 1977

A Summary of the Argument

American and Soviet nuclear doctrines are diametrically opposed. They are products of totally different historical experiences and political and socioeconomic systems. The apparent contradictions in Soviet nuclear doctrine and the dangers of U. S. unilateral adherence to a strategy of mutual deterrence are best understood when put in historical perspective.

The American view of war has been conditioned by the ideas characteristic of a Western commercial society. Underlying it is the notion that human conflict results from misunderstandings that can be resolved by negotiation. Marxism, on the other hand, holds conflict to be normal (and military forces as a political tool and a part of grand strategy. Americans generally regard war as an abnormal situation and want to end it rapidly through technological superiority and with the least possible loss of friendly (but not necessarily enemy) lives. Large peacetime forces are an unwelcome expense.

These contrary views of war were affected differently by the coming of nuclear weapons. In the U. S., atomic and thermonuclear bombs were considered "absolute" weapons, capable of destroying a society or even a civilization, and against which there was no defense. Thus, Clausewitz's dictum that war is an extension of politics was considered dead. Since nuclear war could serve no rational political purpose, the function of strategic forces should be to avert war. Because of the vast destructiveness of nuclear weapons, a "sufficiency" of weapons to retaliate was believed to be enough. Numerical superiority was thought to have little meaning. To ensure a stable balance, in which conflicts could be resolved by negotiation, the USSR should even have the ability to do unacceptable second-strike damage to the U. S. This concept of mutual deterrence, or mutual assured destruction, became U. S. policy and as nuclear delivery capabilities improved, remained the foundation of a somewhat more flexible policy.

These U. S. strategic theories were developed largely by civilian scientists and "accountants," with little contribution from military professionals. The theorists were guided significantly by fiscal imperatives -- the desire to reduce the defense budget while retaining a capacity to deter Soviet threats to U. S. interests. The theories were formulated without reference to their Soviet counterparts, and in the belief that we can "educate" the Soviets to adopt our views.

In the USSR, where strategy is considered a science and the special province of the military, nuclear weapons were not held to be "absolute," except perhaps briefly after Stalin's death. The idea of mutual deterrence was never accepted. Soviet theorists rejected the idea that technology determines strategy. They adapted nuclear weapons to their traditional Clausewitzian view of war as an extension of politics.

The Communist revolution eliminated that segment of Russian society that was most Westernized, and put the peasant class in power. History had taught the Russian peasant that cunning and coercion assured survival; cunning when weak; cunning and coercion when strong. "Not to use force when one had it indicated some inner weakness." That concept of the use of power and the fact that, since 1914, the USSR has lost up to 60,000,000 citizens through war, famine, and purges and survived has no doubt conditioned the development of Soviet nuclear strategy.

Soviet nuclear doctrine, expounded in a wide range of Russian defense literature, has five related elements: > Preemption (first strike).

> Quantitative superiority (a requisite for preemption and because the war may last for some time, even though the initial hours are decisive).

> Counterforce targeting.

> Combined-arms operations to supplement nuclear strikes.

> Defense, which has been almost totally neglected by the U. S. under its concept of mutual deterrence.

Soviet Doctrine is both a continuation and an extension of the Soviet belief that all military forces -- nuclear and conventional -- serve a political purpose as guarantor of internal control and an instrument for territorial expansion. Thus, large military forces are accepted in the Soviet Union as a rational capital investment, regardless of their impact on social programs.

Soviet writing on nuclear strategy has been largely ignored, or has been ridiculed in this country because if its jingoism and crudity, and the obscurity of Communist semantics. It is a strategy of "compellance," in contrast to the U. S. doctrine of deterrence.

But "... the relationship of Soviet doctrine and Soviet deployments (is) sufficiently close to suggest that ignoring or not taking seriously Soviet military doctrine may have very detrimental effects on U. S. security."

Finally, "... as long as the Soviets persist in adhering to the Clausewitzian maxim on the function of war, mutual deterrence does not really exist. And unilateral deterrence is feasible only if we understand the Soviet war-winning strategy and make it impossible for them to succeed."

APPENDIX F : Lance Lambert

This is from Christ for the Nations Vol 43 nr 2, May 1990.

The Article is 'As I see it.' by Lance Lambert

(This is cited as another confirmation of the Dimitri Duduman prophecy.)

...There was a prophecy given in 1911 that shortly an evil would take Russia, and wherever this evil would go, rivers of blood would flow. It was not the Russian soul; it was not an ideology or a philosophy, but a spirit from hell. In the last days, the prophecy went on to say, Germany would be divided; Italy would be judged by natural disasters; France would be nothing much; Britain would lose her empire and come almost to ruin, but would be saved by praying women; the U. S. would feed the world and be the greatest power, but would FINALLY BE REDUCED. In the end Russia would be free and believers would go forth from Russia and China taking the Good News to all the earth before the antichrist.

APPENDIX G : Hudson Taylor

On one of his furloughs in the 1850's to England, Hudson Taylor was preaching when he suddenly stopped and just stood for a period of time with his eyes closed. When he started to speak again he explained that he had seen a vision. In this vision he saw a great war that would encompass the whole world. He saw this war recess and then start again, actually being two wars. After this much unrest and revolts would affect many nations. There would be spiritual awakenings in some places. In Russia there would be a "general, all encompassing, national spiritual awakening so great that there could never be another like it." From Russia awakening will spread to many European countries, followed by an all out awakening, after which Christ will come.

APPENDIX H : Bill Hamon

One of the best known principles for determining the Will of God is the scriptural requirement that everything must be confirmed in the mouth of two or three witnesses before accepting it as fact. This principle about receiving confirmation was established in the law of Moses (Dt. 17:6; 19:15) and reestablished under grace in the Church by the Apostle Paul (2 Cor. 13:1).

The rule can be applied to a word of counsel, a word of prophecy, or a rhema word. Just as the general Will of God cannot be established by a single verse, neither can the specific Will of God be established by one prophecy, one rhema, one counselor, or one anything else. It is not offensive to the Lord for you to withhold judgment on a word until you receive confirmation from two or three other sources. In fact, He insists that in all serious matters there be at least two and preferably three witnesses before you accept a prophetic word.

APPENDIX I : Paul Erdman

This is taken from the novel "Panic of '89" by Paul Erdman. It is included to show the extent of anti-American sentiment around the world. And to prove that the prophesied turn of events, all the world turning against the U.S., is not inconceivable.

"The United States, by the end of 1988, had become the world's most hated country....And not just in Latin America where the United States had for generations been regarded as the world's last imperialist power. No the same hatred was also endemic in Europe. Here the United States was seen as a bully nation led by primitive men who were forever threatening the extinction of mankind, obsessed, as they were, with retaining global power no matter what the cost might be ... for others. If it come to a showdown with the Russians, many Europeans were convinced that the Americans would fight...to the last German and Frenchman and Britisher. Better them dead than America Red.

"In Asia the United States was seen as a big crybaby. The Americans had, to a man, been for free trade as long as the rest of the world lay in ruins after World War II. Peoples everywhere were desperate for all those things which only America could supply. They bought them regardless of either price or quality. But when the productive facilities of the rest of the world were finally renewed, the Americans suddenly found that they were no longer able to compete with Japan and Hong Kong and Taiwan and South Korea in steel and automobiles and consumer electronics and textiles and even computers. When free trade no longer meant easy profits for Detroit or Silicon Valley -- what did they do? Instead of working a little harder, they tried to force the government in Washington to close up their markets by establishing import quotas. And when it worked, they said to the foreigners: "Too bad. We have to look after ourselves for a change."

"In the Middle East, the United States was seen as a nation which would never cease giving blind support to Israel. In black Africa, it was seen as a silent supporter of apartheid; in white South Africa it was seen as a nation of gullible wimps who would rather listen to Bishop Tutu than the Reverend Jerry Falwell."

APPENDIX J : A 'prophetic' game.

In 1976 Simulations Publications Inc., now defunct, of New York published a Wargame titled 'Invasion America.' This game, designed by James F. Dunnigan with J. A. Nelson is a hypothetical study of a some time future invasion of North America by European, South American and Asian Allies. Interestingly the proposed "historical justification" for the game reads as follows.

"2000: U. S. soil becomes the most valuable commodity in the world. Food shortages and greed are the main factors involved in the launching of a relatively coordinated invasion of the North America Continent."

Warring Angels Being Assigned To Michael Jackson's Court Trial . . . As The Body Of Christ Is Being Summoned For 'Spiritual' Jury Duty!"
by Bill Yount

"I Want You Back!" . . . the first song that gave Michael Jackson the international spotlight on the Ed Sullivan Show in 1969 could be a prophetic word from Heaven that may soon be fulfilled.
I asked the Lord why warring angels would be attending this case that turns so many people off, with such allegations being heard. I sense the Father saying, "I have had a remnant of my people praying for Michael for years, and this is the turning point of those prayers being answered."
As the Father was saying these words, I saw a strong angel as though he was throwing a lasso over Michael Jackson's heart; the Father continued to say, "I have begun to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children and the hearts of the children to the fathers. This verse in Malachi includes Michael Jackson! I am beginning to unlock Michael's childhood to see Me as his heavenly Father."

"I Am Summoning My People For 'Spiritual' Jury Duty!"

I sensed the Father saying, "Not many of My own people will be able to truly pray and believe for Michael's salvation because of wanting to judge him already. I am not calling My jury of people to judge but to pray for My justice and truth to come forth and, most of all, for My Holy Spirit to hover over him and to release ministering angels -- heirs of salvation, to minister to him, that My Spirit would draw him to the foot of My cross."

I saw a great battle in the heavenlies. It seemed as though many of the third of the angels who were thrown out of heaven with Lucifer, who was heaven's worship leader, were warring over Michael Jackson's soul! I sensed the awesome presence of two strong angels who may have possibly been Michael the archangel and Gabriel themselves.

"Michael Jackson Represents A Multitude Of Young People Now And Generations To Come"

Then a loud cry was heard from heaven calling to God's people to pray to break the powers of idol worship and to redeem false worship on the earth back to the Father! This included redeeming every musical instrument on earth known to man for the purpose of worshiping the only true God . . . Jehovah! It is interesting that the name "Michael" means . . . "Who is like Jehovah?"

There was a sound like a shofar blast, alerting God's people to pray and fast for Michael Jackson's soul, for he represents multitudes of young people now, and generations to come, who would be delivered from false worshiping of idols and music that is influenced by the enemy!

Do you believe God can save Michael Jackson? I have a gut feeling if God saved you and me . . . He can save anybody!!!

"Welcome to 'spiritual' Jury Duty!"

Judgment On America!
Judy Bauman

Rivermistlighthouse1@comcast.net

> First I want to say in the strongest way possible that this title came because of what was spoken in this dream, not because that is what I am proclaiming. I am not cursing America. I am not prophesying against her. The most important thing I have learned as a child of the Living God is that He is merciful and just. He gives us warnings so we know how to pray, and so we know what could come if we do not repent (turn away from doing wrong). This is a judgment that will be brought to a stand still if we will turn and seek God as is stated in 2 Chronicles 7:14. This mandate and promise is spoken to the 'people called by My name' NOT to the lost souls outside of God's word. God is true to His word and will do as He promised. His promise and His word is that He will hear from heaven, forgive our sin, and heal our land. Will you pray for the sake of this country? I particularly sense this mandate to pray is for the Christian leaders. Just as Daniel prayed for Israel in Chapter 9, so must our church leaders do for America. I release this after much prayer and trepidation and long hours of wrestling with the Lord to gain understanding and wisdom in the sharing, but also to release it in the exact right season. I do believe this is the exact time to unfold this mystery.

There were two main locations but a number of scenes to this dream.

DREAM: JUDGMENT ON AMERICA!

Location One – Inside the Theater

Taking Refuge Inside the Theater:
I was at a theater with a friend and we had come inside because of the terrible sandstorms outside. Someone kept opening a side door to let people in. Sand would blow in and it was harsh and painful. Everyone that was sitting near the door got up to sit somewhere else. The seats were wet like they had been hosed off. There were thick, brown paper towels near a door that we could use to wipe off our wet, sandy seats.

The Lamenting Man:
As I walked over to get some towels to dry our seats, I saw a man walking toward me carefully carrying a flat box or something like a wooden suitcase. He looked to be from the Middle-East and was lost in his own world of grief. He placed the box on the floor and began to set up a shrine. Another man had been killed – martyred perhaps – on that very spot. The mourning man then began to lament over this makeshift shrine and I was impressed that he did this every night at the same time. I am not sure how long this had gone on, but it seemed that in his religion it would normally call for the slain man's wife to lament in this manner. This is when I realized it was this grieving man's homosexual lover who had been slain.

Location Two – The Compound

The Three Clocks:
Then I came to be at a compound that seemed to be out in the country. I was in a large room off the main house with all kinds of old furniture and household décor items. These items looked to be haphazardly displayed; it may have been an antique store off of someone's home. I was walking around looking at all the items. Most of it looked like dilapidated junk. Amongst the furniture stood three upright floor clocks, but you could only readily see two of them. The two that could be seen stood about 5 ½ ft tall; one was decorated with ornate green metal, copper that had oxidized, and the other had the image of a witch along with other occult symbols on the clock face. The owner said it hadn't worked right since his daughter bought it. The green clock had a key to wind it to make it work. It was an unusual looking key – with about 3/8” square at the end. I found a key that resembled it at http://www.woodlanddirect.com/ProductInfo.aspx?productid=UF-C-9161 I remember taking the key and sticking it into slot and turning it to see if I could get the clock to work. Then I put the key on a small shelf inside the clock. The owner had been keeping it somewhere else and said that it was better where I had put it as it wouldn’t get misplaced. It seems this clock only worked part of the time because it depended on someone remembering to wind it. So it was unreliable as a time piece. The two clocks were in the same small area, and both were facing forward. There was a woman there who was also looking at the clocks, and I recognized her from a church I attended at the time. When we heard a clock chime, she thought it was the witch clock telling time. I didn’t because it clearly wasn’t working. After hearing the chiming, I walked behind it and discovered a simple looking wooden Grandfather clock sitting in the corner – hidden behind the witch clock. It was the one chiming. The woman from church was still looking to the witch-faced clock to see what time it was, and the way she was admiring it, I didn’t think that she understood what the face or the symbols on the clock represented. The Grandfather clock was the only clock of the three that worked right.

The Discussion with My Aunts about Witchcraft:
I went out on the back porch where I was surprised to see my father’s twin sisters. They were discussing Harry Potter. One said, “Oh, I have seen Harry Potter and there is nothing wrong with it.” The other began to argue with her. Hearing their conversation, I looked at the first aunt and interjected, “You are setting yourself up against the mind of Christ. The Bible states that witchcraft is a sin.” After I said this I felt a little uneasy to have made such a bold comment. I didn’t want to be disrespectful to my aunt, but at the same time I wanted to respect God and state the truth of His word. I am not sure where this conversation went but I think I went back into the house.

The Blueprints of the Compound:
I went back into the house and began to pray and as I prayed, I became very light. I floated down through the floorboards. It was very vivid as I could see above the floor, the wood of the floor itself, and I could also see the ceiling of the room underneath! It was like I was in a cross-section view of the house. Then I was sitting at a table in the basement of the house. It was very clean and neat in this underground room. Unrolled in front of me were large blueprints of the entire compound. As I examined them, the Lord pointed out one small building in the middle of the compound.

The Goat:
The Lord then took me to this small building and said, “Look at The Goat.” At first I looked for an animal. Then the Holy Spirit showed me a boiler (a heater) that was nicknamed, ‘The Goat’. It was constructed of steel sheet metal that had been riveted together and it looked like a goat. ‘The Goat’ walked over to a feed bin, stuck its head inside the flap, and began to eat the grain that was in there. It required such low maintenance; no one even supervised it. The Lord pointed out its right shoulder leading to the goat’s fore-shank (front leg). The sheet metal had pulled up slightly, but it was hard to see without looking closely. It had a leak. I understood it to be some kind of fuel that was a very compact and volatile material. The Lord showed me that it was about to blow and it would cause a catastrophic explosion.

The Little Boy:
Then suddenly I was in a room in the main house. (I don’t think I ever physically left the house.) There was a little boy maybe 2-4 years old that I didn’t know, but much to my surprise he immediately bonded to me. I believe it was unusual for this child to cling to someone he had just met the way he had done with me. Because his father knew he was safe, he left the boy with me and went to get food that he needed. The child had special needs. He had something wrong with his belly button. It could have been something else like a place for a feeding tube. He may have had a shunt or something like that for draining fluid. I really am uncertain what it was or what was wrong with him. Then this boy spoke and said something, but I could not understand him. The father had come back by then, and I asked him what the child said. He told me, “This [coming explosion from the fuel leak in this self-feeding goat] is judgment on America for idolatry and the killing of the unborn babies. When I heard this I crumbled to the floor and went into deep travail. I was in such horrible agonizing pain that all I could do was wail, scream, moan and cry as I rolled back and forth on the floor. The woman from the church was suddenly there on the floor rolling around and imitating me. She kept rolling into me like she was trying to get my attention or let others know she was travailing too. It was very bizarre. I was extremely annoyed by this but was in such terrible pain, there wasn't much I could do about her close proximity to me. I screamed in such anguish it woke me up.

Interpretation:
Interpretation belongs to the Lord, so it is my prayer that He makes known the meaning of this multifaceted dream. Genesis 40:8

A Theater is a distraction from reality. It easily could represent the present-day church because so many come to be entertained. However, I was there to seek shelter from the sand storms. The sand-storms outside seem to be symbolic of dry, desolate, desert times – times of famine. The sand could also represent a sea of people being blown and tossed about by the wind. The sand could be a sea of people who are so abrasive that one needs to seek shelter from them. Wind in this dream was symbolic of struggles, devastating loss and catastrophes. The brown paper towels symbolize ordinary earthly provision; nothing extravagant. It being wet on the inside and dry outside may point to the world being backwards to God's ways.

The Lamenting Man struck me as particularly odd because I don't think I have ever seen a man who is a middle-eastern national who is overtly gay. This never dawned on me until this dream. What was more perplexing was that he brought together both his religious customs with the practice of homosexuality. So it seemed to reflect a clash between cultural norms. I don't know if there even are such religious customs to lament a death of a husband in this manner. Though it does reveals an interesting truth of the fruitlessness and impotence (inability to produce offspring) of both erroneous religious works and the practice of homosexuality.

The Compound was ground zero for a terrible disaster, yet on the outside everything seemed normal. All of my experiences there were anything but normal.

The Room with all the junk displayed in haphazard fashion seems to reflect our culture's way of hording things, particularly things that don't work! See Matthew 6:19-21

The Three Clocks represent how we measure time. They remind us of the importance of time and our limited supply of it. A clock that does not work represents death. So it would seem that trying to tell time by a clock that does not work could bring (premature) death.

The Woman from Church is symbolic of people who go to church void of a personal relationship with Jesus. Without this precious relationship, the witch clock was able to deceive and manipulate her into believing that it worked! She was looking to it to tell her the time when it obviously was not working! The hands never moved. What she had heard was the chiming from the Grandfather clock hidden behind it. It truly troubled me that she did not see that it clearly had occult images on its face. There are clear and direct warnings in the word of God that we are not to take direction from those practicing witchcraft. How many who claim they are Christian take advise from the astrology columns, palm readers, psychics, mediums, and the like? This is all idolatry. Also if you look in Romans 1:18-32 it clearly tells us this is also the root cause of homosexuality. If you have a problem with this, please don't write me. Take it up with God. It is His word, His ways, and His judgment. He'll make it known to you if you seek the truth. The woman's interest in this clock led me to Galatians 3 and Romans 6. Paul writes about the church being bewitched into believing its salvation was through living by the law. Both of these chapters are worthy of your study time. Working to gain God's favor is a slap in the face of Jesus who died on the cross to bridge that gap between us and God the Father. The Cross of Christ is the only provision we need for our salvation. The Word of God tells us that God will supply all of our need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. (Philippians 4:19) Any works that follow after accepting the perfect work of the Cross is done out of love and devotion to God the Father and Jesus Christ. It is accomplished with the help of the Holy Spirit. Would this woman looking to the witch clock reveal how the American church is looking to sources outside of God to give her direction? Since rebellion is as witchcraft and stubbornness is as bad as idolatry, are much of our churchy efforts being rejected by God? See 1 Samuel 15:23

It was clear that when she suddenly showed up on the floor with me while I was in travail, that she was trying to 'look' spiritual. I asked God to get her away from me because I couldn't move and she kept hitting me. Most know that a woman in labor is not the most congenial person to be with. Her being there at that critical time for me was like trying to give birth to a child with someone else in the same bed! This reminds me of much of the 'spirituality' in the Charismatic church. (Not all of it, but all too often.) If God truly moves on a person in a specific way, the church wants to imitate it and continue to give it life LONG after God is finished with it. They will use CPR and any other means necessary to keep their 'pet move of God' alive and anyone wanting to stop it is accused of being against God. This is witchcraft in the church. Though witchcraft is a real religion, I am referring to those who call themselves Christians who are seeking their own way through domination, manipulation and intimidation. God Almighty never dominates, manipulates or intimidates; so if any of those are going on in our homes, churches or jobs, it is this evil spirit at work. God draws us to Himself with overwhelming love. How could God be righteous, holy, trustworthy, giving, and yet be intimidating? That does not compute! We must rid ourselves of the Greek mythology that permeates our thinking. God is not standing ready to throw a lightning bolt our way. That is not the God of the Bible! God always warns us to turn from sin. This is because sin is what brings the judgment.

The Green Clock would only work for awhile and then it would wind down and either stop or give the incorrect time. Green can be representative of growth, but since the copper was oxidizing and it was in a decrepit state, it is more likely to represent envy, striving for recognition, or trying to establish independence. Thankfully, this is something the Lord will frustrate our every effort to do. He has made it clear in His word that it is Jesus alone who is worthy to receive all glory and honor and praise. See 1 Corinthians 1:29 and Job 5:12. He has also made it plain that we need to be completely dependant upon Him. See Proverbs 3:5-7. I believe that is the message concerning the green clock. It is time to build God's kingdom and not our own; it is time to be dependant on the Lord Jesus and not on our own accomplishments, talent, gifts or credibility. God has rendered those things dead works. I believe the green clock is symbolic of the church-era that is winding down. It just takes too much effort to try to keep it working! God has given us the keys to the kingdom, but they are not to open doors for our own gain. This is an era where the church has exalted itself and replaced the Holy Spirit with the 'Hand of Ministry.' It has put its hand over Christ's face so that people look to them for help instead of looking to God for help. In doing this, church leadership has concealed God's face from the people. The head of the church is Christ Jesus. This is a solemn warning to those who are seeking to build a name for them selves. It is TIME for the hand of ministry to serve and care for the Body as is directed in Scripture, so that she can accomplish the original plan of God. It is time for the Body to be in unity and mature in faith. See Ephesians 4:11-16 for more understanding.

The Witch Clock would seem to reflect how our culture is bedazzled by supernatural powers and seeks power by gaining control. I have had the nagging impression that the Witch Clock is also representative of the Gregorian calendar we presently use. Discern for yourself. It would seem that we follow a calendar with a questionable background. http://webexhibits.org/calendars/year-history.html It doesn't mean we need to swing the pendulum the opposite way and tell people they are in sin if they follow the Gregorian calendar. That wouldn't be prudent or practical. Remember we are to, "Be in the world, but not of the world."

This has led me to wonder; if we aren't gauging our time accurately, who is? I was thinking we need to look to our roots – our ancestral line. This points me to the Grandfather clock.

The Grandfather clock has deeply intrigued me. Grandfathers represent generational lines, wisdom, love and security. Abraham is known as our father (see Romans 4). He is the father of faith. Abraham is Jacob's – Israel's grandfather. So I am persuaded that the Grandfather clock is symbolic of the Jewish calendar year. You may find this site interesting http://www.jewfaq.org/calendar.htm

Maybe that is what we need to be looking to for direction. Not to be bound in legalism, but to consider the times. Since The Days of Awe are upon us, starting at sunset October 3rd to nightfall 13th 2005, maybe that is a good starting place. This is ten days of introspection, prayer and fasting. They end with Yom Kipper and this is the beginning of the New Year! At nightfall on October 13th it will be the beginning of the Jewish year 5766. http://www.jewfaq.org/holiday3.htm In fact the year that we are in presently, 5765, is known as a 'pregnant' year as it has an addition month. I find this interesting since I was in labor pain.

One thing really peculiar that I noticed mathematically is that the year 5766 = 12 and 12 (5+7=12 and 6+6=12). Even stranger than that is that if you add all the numbers of this New Year date 10/13/2005 they all equal 12! (1+0+1+3+2+0+0+5=12) I don't even know how I noticed this! I do know however, that 12 is the number of 'perfection of government'. There are 12 patriarchs, 12 sons (tribes) of Israel, 12 apostles, 12 foundations in the heavenly Jerusalem, 12 gates, 12 pearls, 12 angels, 12 legions of angels, and Jesus was 12 when He first appears in public and utters His first words, "Why were you looking for Me? Didn't you know I must be about My Father's business?" (Luke 3:49)

Also 12+12 = 24 and there are 24 thrones and 24 elders (Revelation 4:4) Also 12x12=144 cubits which is the radius of the New Jerusalem. Then there are the 12 tribes x 12,000 = 144,000 who are sealed (Revelation 7:3-8). So if you are inclined to study numbers you may want to discern this further. I would welcome any input if you believe the Lord is showing you something in all of this. I see it, but I don't have full understanding of what it means. We prophecy in part and know in part!

My father's fraternal twin sisters, my aunts represent theological differences. They have been split into two different church denominations for the past 50+ years because of marriage. The one who didn't think anything was wrong with Harry Potter stayed in our 'family denomination' and it tends to be accepting of superstitions and is venerable to deception. If for some reason you are like I was, and don't believe such things are real, cautiously do an 'occult' Google search. Don't get lured in though! It is quite abundant.

The other sister that was arguing with her married into a Bible based church. This clearly illustrates how beliefs get passed down through the generations, but thankfully, false teachings can be stopped by the word of God and the Blood of Jesus. This is an excellent article about Harry Potter and explains further why I made the comment I did.
http://www.reachouttrust.org/articles/occult/hpotter.htm

He then moved me onto the more important thing which was to reveal a mystery.

Seeing the cross-section of the floor as I went into the workroom below seems to reveal how God allowed me to be aware of the divide between the natural and the spiritual realms. This in itself is a mystery! This small 'war-room' in the basement reminded me of the many secret underground bunkers that exist with and without our knowledge to protect the heads of countries in times of conflict.

When the Holy Spirit unrolled the blueprints of the compound, He drew my attention to a specific area that had been ignored. The blueprints would seem to be symbolic of the mysteries God has entrusted to His Body. See Matthew 13:11, 1 Corinthians 1:7-16 and 1 Corinthians 4:1. God showed me the small overlooked building then The Goat. A goat in a dream can represent being bullied or being gullible. Since this is a warning of a judgment on America, it would seem that it is America as a nation that is being naïve and bullied into complacency. Remember when it was said that September 11, 2001 'Woke the Sleeping Giant'? I saw many bumper stickers that told us to "REMEMBER" and "NEVER FORGET" yet we seem to have lost interest and gone back to our slumber. A goat symbolizes the ones separated from God. See Matthew 25:33, 41. A goat may forewarn of an enemy trying to lay a hold of our plans. Since the goat is a common image for Satan, it is fair to say he wants to bully and intimidate us into giving up God's plan for our lives – both individually and corporately. This metal goat specifically symbolized a boiler which generates power and heats large areas. It was helping itself to the grain. Grain biblically is shown to be times of plenty and a time to accumulate wealth. It also represents the hard labor to bring forth the harvest. The enemy desires to eat our harvest! He is going mostly unsupervised, and because of our lack of humility before God and our lack of vigilance to keep watch, there could be a great catastrophe. Just today as I was working on this interpretation, and I still did not understand what The Goat could be, I saw a news clip about Liquid Natural Gas (LNG) that is brought into our country on huge cargo ships. My spirit jumped when I saw the video of a huge ship being brought in because of the riveted metal, the cargo and the subject the news was focused on. The reporter was doing a special about areas venerable to attack in our country! Up until then, I had wondered if The Goat was an oil refinery, a nuclear bomb, meltdown or what, but this seemed to ring true to my heart that the goat is likely LNG ships. Please pray for our country's penitence, first with leaders and then with the masses. Let's also pray for those standing guard to be diligent. Let's not wait until something even more horrifying happens to us before we find ourselves on our knees.

The Special Need's Child is someone most people would not look to for wisdom or prophecy, but God chooses the foolish and weak things of the world to confound the wise. Children are very sensitive to Jesus and this is why He tells us to come to Him as a child. See Matthew 18.

When the child spoke of the judgment coming to America, my spirit instantly knew the truth of it and reacted with travailing in the spirit. Travail in Scripture generally refers to birth pangs (hard labor), but can also represent sorrow, worry, or from agony of trials. I felt all of those things. America as a country and a political force is prematurely killing the life and purpose that God gave her. As we know, this is being done in great numbers in the natural to our unborn children. I know it grieves the heart of God – who knows each of those babies by name, knows their futures, but sees them being pulled apart inside the womb. Life that has been knit together in God's sight is being unraveled. As it is in the womb, so it is in the country. The life of this nation which God knew and approved of is prematurely dying – just like an abortion does to an unborn child. We are literally, as a country, being torn apart politically, socially, racially, denominationally, and financially. For example, in the name of good new stories, we have seen the media rip this country apart with sensational journalism for the sake of sales and ratings. They are manipulating the politicians, the poor, the rich, the young, the old, the broken-hearted, the lost and this industry is shameless about it. It is so graphic in nature and in so many ways like a physical abortion. Then we have the opposite problem that renders America unable to conceive new life. What is taking place in the lives of individuals in their lifestyles of homosexuality is impotence. Even today we come yet another step closer to tearing down walls of protection around this country because CT became the first state to legalize 'civil unions' without being forced by the courts. In spite of all of this we need to remember who we are in Christ. We are fearfully and wonderfully made! We cannot hide from God's Spirit. Let pray for our country instead of joining the enemy in tearing it apart! Let us not become 'accusers of the brethren.' Let us not use manipulation to further our cause! The Lord called us to love one another and to pray for one another.

Galatians 5: 13 For you are called to freedom, brothers; only don't use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but serve one another through love. 14 For the entire law is fulfilled in one statement: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. 15 But if you bite and devour one another, watch out, or you will be consumed by one another.

Since I am not an activist against homosexuality, abortion, or witchcraft, I knew this was not coming from my own agenda. I know these sins grieve the heart of our Father in heaven, but I believe these wounded souls will be won to God's saving grace in the intercessor's closet and with outstretched arms. I do not believe quarreling and having screaming matches with pro-choicer's and the homosexual community will make the eternal changes we truly seek. Nor will it speak to those involved in witchcraft. The Bible doesn't say that any of these sins are worse than other works of the flesh like adultery, theft, strife, jealousy, hatred or greed– which is all too common in the Body of Christ. See 1 Corinthians 6:9-10 and Galatians 5:19-26. Sin separates each of us from God. All sin. It is God's word written on our hearts that make true changes, not getting into tit-for-tat battles with the lost. Heaven forbid! Jesus died for such as these! We need to be delicate and godly as opposed to self-righteous and judgmental. We have each fallen. We have each been forgiven. Are we not asked likewise to show that forgiveness to the world?

This was not in the dream but I feel it must be addressed because it contributes to our impotence as a country. Too many men who are able to conceive are taking their 'seed' and wasting it on fantasies – something that is not real; something that does not legitimately belong to them. Jesus said that if we lust in our heart we are guilty of the sin of adultery. See Matthew 5:28. If we turn to idols, including money, we are in adultery. So as a nation we are adulterous. We need to apply God's ointment to our eyes so we can clearly see. We think we are rich and we think we are in need of nothing, but we are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked. The Bible tells us all this in Revelation 3:17, 18. This also relates to our grain – our prosperity, our work, our fruitfulness. This is the grain that the enemy of our soul has free access to eat.

May the church hear what the Lord is saying.

In His peace,
Judy

Keys To Unlock The Mysteries
Sandy Warner

KEYS TO UNLOCK THE MYSTERIES
Now is the season when I AM releasing keys to unlock the mysteries of My Word. The natural man can not understand spiritual things. There are many things I have spoken in My Word which are not discerned.

Behind closed doors is My Truth held in chambers of treasured mysteries. Those who ask will be granted access to open doors of revelation into My Word. When the doors are opened, My light will shine and bring understanding and clarification that will amply be shared with My people. When the light of My revelation shines on My Truth, it can never be taken away. Blind eyes are open and it is forever sealed in understanding. These keys of understanding will unlock the language in which I speak, and give you heaven's perspective of My revealed Truth.

1 Cor 2:13-16 NKJV
These things we also speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual . But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is rightly judged by no one. For "who has known the mind of the LORD that he may instruct Him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

Bowing Low When Accused
Sandy Warner

Aug 31, 2005

BOWING LOW WHEN ACCUSED
There are many who have gone through a long school of critical judgments. Over and over again your loved ones have misunderstood and pointed fingers. I have used these demonic flagellations to teach you great character. You have learned to bow low and not be defensive. Yes, desire of man's approval and fear of men have held you in restraint, but I have even used these for your good.

It is important that in overcoming this season of being the tail under the rod of men, that in your humility and willingness to embrace all of life as from My hand you understand the sources and My purpose. I use everything in your life and bring it all together for good. Dear ones, you are so used to bowing under the taskmaster that you need a clear line to see My truth.

There are places where you are blind and do not see. Always ask Me if you need to repent for anything, ask My forgiveness for all the places you are falling short and then leave it there at My feet and do not be condemned. I will never accuse you. When you follow the road of condemnation, it drives a wedge between our intimacy. The veil comes up and you are unable to receive. My precious, you are altogether lovely to Me. My love covers your failings.

John 3:17 NKJV
For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

Do Not Forsake Your Family
Sandy Warner

Sep 2, 2005

DO NOT FORSAKE YOUR FAMILY
Give heed, My dear children. It is your place to minister to your family. If are an outcast and been disowned, then pray for them. But if you are still welcome, then do not hide your eyes to their needs. Dear ones, listen to My Word. Do not hide yourself from your own flesh. If you see your family in need and you shut them out of your heart, how does My love abide in you? Do not fail to care for your relatives, for you disown your faith in so doing. He who hides his eyes is subject to curses landing with cause.

Take away the yoke of pointing your finger and speaking evil. I know you have suffered long over your relatives. Repent, dear children. Then you shall call upon Me and I will answer. Your light shall dawn in the midst of your darkened family, and it shall break forth like the morning. Your light shall break forth like morning and healing shall spring forth speedily.

1 Tim 5:8 AMP
If anyone fails to provide for his relatives, and especially for those of his own family, he has disowned the faith [by failing to accompany it with fruits] and is worse than an unbeliever [who performs his obligation in these matters].

Isa 58:7-10 NKJV
Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, And that you bring to your house the poor who are cast out; When you see the naked, that you cover him, And not hide yourself from your own flesh? Then your light shall break forth like the morning, Your healing shall spring forth speedily, And your righteousness shall go before you; The glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; You shall cry, and He will say, 'Here I am.' "If you take away the yoke from your midst, The pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness, If you extend your soul to the hungry And satisfy the afflicted soul, Then your light shall dawn in the darkness, And your darkness shall be as the noonday.

1 John 3:16-18 NKJV
By this we know love, because He laid down His life for us. And we also ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But whoever has this world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and shuts up his heart from him, how does the love of God abide in him? My little children, let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

Prov 28:27 NKJV
He who gives to the poor will not lack, but he who hides his eyes will have many curses.

To Lead A Horse To Water
Sandy Warner

Sep 4, 2005

TO LEAD A HORSE TO WATER
You can lead a horse to water
But you cant make him drink.
Mind-sets keep him bound
In everything that he thinks.

He can bow low and smell the cup,
Doubting what's there for him to sup.
But it is not until he thirsts
That he will know what it is worth.

So draw those horses to passion
Drying them out in due fashion.
To roads of famine they will walk
Becoming willing to hear Him talk.

John 4:10 NKJV
Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water."

Kaleidoscope
Mary Clark

In a vision, I was looking through a kaleidoscope and all I could see were lovely patterns of gold. Why did You show this to me, Lord?

I want My beloved to look on the goodness of the living God and exclaim over My great beauty. I want you to know Me from an up close vantage point. I want you to savor My presence. I am not a God Who stands afar. I am a personal God, Who delights in drawing His beloved close – close into His arms of love. It is My desire for you to know Me. It is My desire for you to follow My will into all that I have for you. Never doubt My goodness toward one who delights in serving Me. Never doubt that I would EVER hold back a good thing from My beloved.

You are entering into a new era of delight in the living God. You are about to see some things that will delight you, enabling you to walk with a fixed purpose. Never doubt My ability to get you to this place. Never doubt My ability to sustain you in this place of delight in Me. I want you looking at things from My perspective. I want you looking at things with an eye to bless others being all that I have called you to be.

I am calling you into a place of much delight in Me. Many of you will look on the things that I am presenting and think that they are different from what you expected them to be. You will think that they are better than you EVER imagined. You will thank Me for My generosity. You will exclaim over My goodness to you. You, beloved, are entering an hour in which much delight will be made known to your heart. You will see, but your mind will not quite believe what I am presenting. You will exclaim over what I am showing you, stating: “Father, this is not what I expected at all. I expected something like the words that I have read about Your past endeavors. I never dreamed that Your work would take on this glowing look. I never dreamed that Your work would look like this! My Lord, whatever can all of this be about? You have strictly outdone Yourself in my opinion. Yes! You have strictly taken down all barriers in my mind and presented something that I can only declare mind-boggling. You, my dear Lord, are amazing in every aspect of the word. You are something more than a great, eternal God of love – you are EVERYTHING a heart could EVER long for, and I am so pleased to know that I belong to You and that You take delight in Me. ‘What is man that You are mindful of him,’ dear Lord? Oh, my! Oh, my! Oh, my! Just let me say this, dear Lord, ‘You are too wonderful – too awesome – for words. You, Beloved God, go beyond any description that I could EVER speak. You and Your works are unspeakable and full of glory – Your glory – Your amazing glory is what I am seeing. Your glowing, amazing glory is what this work is all about. Thank You, thank You, thank You, for being all that You are to me – all that You are to this world!!!’”

Yes! That will be your response to My great work that is soon to appear in your midst, beloved. Get ready to behold something quite different from what you EVER expected. Get ready to behold My essence, and know, dear child, that I saw fit to present this hour for a good reason, the reason being to bless you with My immeasurable presence – to bless you with My wonderful love!!!

Katrina And Gaza

James N Johnson

31 August 2005
God said this to Abraham and his descendants

Genesis 12:2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:
3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

God later spoke judgment on those that divided (gave away) any part of the Land promised to the Jewish people.

Joel 3:2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

History has proven that any President who was involved in the parting of the land of Israel has paid a heavy price and incurred the wrath of God.

Withdraw from Gaza

The past two weeks have seen Israel withdraw from Gaza as a result of (among other things) American policy and pressure.

What happens in Israel affects the rest of the world, and how any country treats Israel has a lot to do with how God treats that country.

The parallels between the hurricane Katrina and the withdrawal form Gaza are striking.

* Recent comments on the FOX NEWS Channel eerily parallel what has just happened in Gaza. One commentator referred to the inhabitants of New Orleans and said, "It must be an emotional experience to walk away from their houses and not know if they will be able to live in them again." That is exactly what has transpired here this past week for Gaza's Jewish population.

* Another commentator said that most of all the wooden structures in New Orleans will be destroyed. Nearly all of the structures in Gaza's Jewish communities and farms have been destroyed.

* Ivor Van Heeden, deputy director of Louisiana State University's Hurricane Center, recently said on FOX that there is a high probability that the hurricane will loosen many of the coffins in New Orleans and that corpses will be loosened and moved from their resting places. One of the three top items on Israel's news t was the forced removal of Jewish graves from the Gaza Strip and the transportation of the corpses for reburial in other parts of Israel.

* Whereas Gaza was placed under a state of emergency as its 8,000 residents were evacuated, now New Orleans has been given orders for a mandatory evacuation of nearly 500,000 people

* Whereas many Israeli Jews from Gaza are in temporary refugee camps and tent cities, there is talk of up to one million refugees needing to be settled in temporary camps in the Louisiana and Mississippi area.

God considered the Land given to Abraham in the prophetic statements of Gen Chapter 12 as HIS LAND see Joel 3:2. No Nation has the right to take it, or politically pressure Israel to divide it without incurring Judgment upon them selves or in this case a Nation.

There is a line being drawn between those who are pro Israel and those who are anti Israel. Churches and ministers alike will face this issue which has far reaching negative ramification for those who choose wrongly.

The USA is directly linked with the tragedy in Gaza and the hurricane Katrina.

We need to pray that our political leaders align themselves with Israel and stand alongside Israel, defending them in the face of the blatant terrorism perpetrated upon them by terrorist organizations on their doorstep. No other Western Nation would tolerate these terrorists if they were perpetrating the same crimes against them. The hypocrisy of Western Nations in regard to this is with out precedent, and we cannot seriously believe that God will look the other way, as these Nations are doing.

Matthew 25:32 And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:
33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.
34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:
35 For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:
36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.
37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?
38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?
39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?
40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.
41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:
42 For I was an hungered, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:
43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.
44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?
45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, (the Lords brethren the Jews) ye did it not to me.

Pray for America's leadership, and pray for your own leaders that their spiritual eyes and ears may be attentive to the God of Israel who stirs up the waves so that they roar. Let us not shut our ears if He is speaking. And let us handle with respect the people whom He has chosen as the apple of His eye.

God Bless you
James N Johnson

Katrina

Nita Johnson

9- 02- 2005

Dear Friends:

We have received many emails requesting to hear the Lord's heart about Katrina in correspondence with America's part in dividing the land of Israel. I am going to speak to this issue as it is paramount to our understanding of what the Lord is really saying. Also, you can pick up my article on our website called: Division of the Land of Israel. www.worldforjesus.org

I am well aware that there are those who will attribute this horrible storm to American's part in Israel's dilemma. But in all honesty, this is not the reason for the battered coast and ensuing devastation we are at this moment experiencing. Perhaps thoughts that Israel is in some way involved would be an easier pill to swallow than the truth. But the truth if embraced can lead us to the Father's court to comfort His wounded heart through repentance. So the truth is by far the better way to go.

Let me attempt to share His lofty heart on this issue.

We will briefly tackle Israel first.

A few years ago I attended by private invitation a small gathering of people. Prophets and intercessors were among the guests. The purpose of the Congress, which it was called, was to intercede for the Lord to take both America's sin as well as Israel's sin out of the land division. This division had to occur in order for the secondary step, and so on to follow. Each event that is going to occur in Israel in the future is all part of God's lofty plan to bring Israel into His glory! So much pain now, but soon it will produce a great harvest of precious souls. Jesus weeps with those who weep and comforts in the unseen places His people Israel. He has not forsaken us. In the Congress, we did pray and the Lord heard our prayers. In fact He appeared to me Himself to let me know the utter importance of the success of the Congress for both Israel and America's sake. So He has covered us and He has covered Israel. No more will be exacted by His throne over this issue. Man may demand more, but the Lord will not as His noble purpose is being enacted.

Now back to the Gulf Coast.

While our leadership from the Gatherings accompanied me on a prayer journey through 5 major cities, we stopped over in New Orleans on July 2nd. We repented and interceded for that city. Afterwards as we turned to leave, the Lord spoke clearly to two of us. What He said to me was startling. He said: I will destroy this city in a day! The other leader, Cynthia Luthra spoke out and said: I feel such devastation coming here. Jesus has kept His promise as heartbreaking as it is.

He spoke of this coming disaster relating it to several sins. He made that as clear to me as His warning of the impending peril. These are the reasons for our present terrible suffering.

First, the sins against the First Nations people.

We stole their land and killed men, women and children through war, starvation and forced removals. We exterminated whole tribes in the name of "Manifest Destiny." We also broke every treaty we ever made with them. We lied to them to the very end and left the remnant in reservations where the suffering has continued unabated, for many reasons I won't go into here. We carry the greatest guilt over this, not the people we plundered. Scriptures such as: Gen 4:10-12; Ex 22:5-7, 22-24; Rev. 13:10 Obadiah 11- 15, all warn us against such activity.

Please read them, they are very enlightening. Because we have not helped to turn the captivity of these people in whatever way we could, we are being punished. Some say we only did what Israel did in that land of Canaan. My answer to that is this; one big difference is that Israel was commissioned to act that way in the Old Covenant. We in the New Covenant are not. We are told to win all Nations to the Lord through the Gospel and the Love of Christ. We were reading the wrong book (the Old Covenant) for the wrong time in the wrong Spirit. To this very day only about 5% of the Native Americans are saved because they trust not the white man nor his religion. I understand and so does Jesus.

Second, our sins against the African Americans throughout the slavery years, Reconstruction, Jim Crow Era as well as the days of the Civil Rights and to this present hour.

Again Obadiah 11-15; Ex 21:16, 17, 26, 27; Ex 22:21-24; Ex 23:12 and Rev 13:10 are just a few of the many warnings in Scripture against our wrong behavior in this area.

My dear Friends, this is no light matter in the eyes of our faithful and charitable Father. We can see in Scripture as we look at the perils of Egypt what the Lord can and will do to Nations who refuse to correct such behavior. In His great love for America, the Lord has given us 400 years to turn from our wrongs and make the wrongs right to those whom we have oppressed. Although we have made some headway, for instance we no longer practice slavery, still we have yet a long way to go to truly right past wrongs, and to correct some wrongs that continue to this day.

Idolatry

We all know the heavy idolatry that takes place in America. The New Age movement, Freemasonry, False Religions and Cults abound in this Nation. I remember once when the Lord carried me away to a mountain range in the West and told me that America has become the "Garden of the Gods." If Israel was destroyed for its Idolatry so can American be. For this we must repent and believe God to heal our land.

Sins of licentiousness

Many and varied are the sins that rise before the throne of the Holy One daily. Such sins as stagger the imagination are seen in ever increasing ways in the Gulf Coast. The Mardi Gras is a parade of the vilest sins openly mocking the Holiness of God. It flaunts before His Holiness sins otherwise hidden in darkness. Every kind of perversion occurs in the Mardi Gras, and apart from it. The days of this festivity reveals the heart of the sin-sick region. Gambling, drinking and many other such things that occur daily, mock Him.

As we stood on the peer that day in July, and the Lord began to reveal such things as I have written we were shocked and deeply saddened. When He later said He would destroy New Orleans in a day over all the things He revealed to us, I thought He meant in the far distant future. I had no idea He meant this summer!!!!!! If I had known -- it would have been worth whatever it would take to raise up a group of ministers and intercessors to pray for the Gulf Coast area. As it is, what prayer went forth from intercessors who understand the heart of God kept this calamity from being worst than it was.

Two more areas are marked for destruction. They are Nashville, and Las Vegas. It would be very wise for intercessors in those areas to gather and repent for the local sins of those cities in light of what we have witnessed in the Gulf Coast. I strongly encourage you to do that.

As we pray and weep before God for our ungodly living in America we will soon see the blessing of revival. For after the discipline the Father reaches out His loving hands to hold us still. (Romans 11:22) Until then let us continue to pray for the afflicted in the Gulf.

In His Amazing Love, Nita Johnson

Division Of The Land Of Israel
Nita Johnson

Date: 06- 2003

What I am about to say is going to be very difficult for many to hear, but, it needs to be said so we can walk in agreement with the Lord on the critical issue of the division of the Land of Israel. What I am going to share will absolutely conflict with the doctrine of much of the Charismatic Church. However, as you read through this article you will come to see the wisdom of the Lord in events of the Middle East.

In Joel Chapter 3 we read:
I will gather all nations and will bring them down into the valley Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for My people and for My heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and have parted my land.

This verse seems to indicate the Lords righteous temper toward those who would divide the Land of Israel as being one of absolute intolerance. And, in fact if the act of partitioning the land is done in a spirit of war, His judgment will be sure.

America is not taking part in dividing the land of Israel with the intension of making its people castaways. The hope is to establish peace in the region, and to give the Jewish people a place where they can safely dwell. This is the opposite spirit of the framework being reflected in this prophetic word by the prophet Joel.

Zechariah chapter 14: 2 & 3 reads:
For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city. Then shall the Lord go forth, and fight against those nations, as when He fought in the day of battle.

Zechariah is again speaking of a division of not only the land of Israel but, also the city of Jerusalem. Those who make war on Jerusalem (Israel) will know war! America is not making war on the land of Israel, my Dear Friends. America is attempting to make peace for Israel. I would say that no one knows Presidents Bushs heart better than the Lord. And, He sees a heart that wants to make peace in the only viable way he knows how. (Remember, President Bush visited the extermination camps in Poland to better prepare his heart to deal with Israel. In shocked horror he exclaimed, Never Again! Meaning may there never again be such a holocaust against the Jewish people. This is precisely how the Lord sees his heart, as I will share. Twice now in a few months the Lord has revealed his heart to me in supernatural experiences.

The Journey

Several years ago I was invited to take part in a Congress to pray for Israel and America over dividing the land. Only days prior to this Congress, the Lord Himself visited me and gave me the rod of iron which is described in Revelation 3: 26 & 27. As we at the Congress prayed that God would forgive and cover the two Nations with His mercy concerning dividing the Land I experienced a release of this governmental authority that was both unique and substantial. I immediately knew that the Lord had heard our prayers and answered us.

Admittedly I was still a little in the dark regarding the whole issue of the Oslo Accord. I read and attempted to understand the premise of this Accord. However, most of my involvement with Israel up to that time had been centered in the Word. Therefore, this was a time of learning for me. One thing I did understand as I had seen it in a vision, some version of the Oslo Accord would transpire, as there was billions of dollars involved to insure that it would. My understanding of the Word led me to believe that this would not be pleasing to the Lord. So, this began a deep and intimate involvement with the issue being discussed in this article.

In the fall of 2001 we had a Gathering of the Eagles meeting in Washington DC during which I had had an experience regarding the Land of Israel. I was lifted up in the Spirit and taken to a place wherein I could see all the land of Israel. I saw the land of Israel and the city of Jerusalem divided. Up out of the divided land arose a document signed and sealed. The document read: Division of the Land of Israel. I clearly saw that America spearheaded this proceeding. I will not say thus saith the Lord on this; however, I strongly sensed President Bush JR was still in office when it became official. What I saw was not a nebulous concept. What I saw was an irreversible, completed transaction.

When I shared this feathers were ruffled, many became upset and distressed. I was told that I had given a false word. As we can now see, the Word was not false. Nevertheless, I felt that the reason President Bush would be involved with such a thing at the time would be because he didn't understand God's plans and purposes for Israel. So, my prayers for him became more fervent.

Many trips were made to Israel and much prayer went forth on behalf of this single issue. My heart hurt to think that a Christian President would be guilty of dividing the Land of my forefathers. As we, and so many others prayed the division was put off and put off. I feel that this was the will of the Lord, for there was a perfect time to bring this forth.

In the fall of 2002 I had a Prayer Summit in Portland. Hundreds attended it. The central commission of this conference was for us to pray that President Bush would stand behind Israel. So, we followed the Lord's directive and prayed fervently until we had our breakthrough. It was an incredible meeting. We asked the Lord to give us a sign that President Bush would stand behind Israel throughout his administration. This was at the Lord's own encouragement. What we asked for was not what the Lord had in mind however, but that was my fault. We asked that our sign would be that He would not partition the land and that he would openly declare that He would not do this during his administration. The sign that the Lord gave that our President would stand behind Israel was an earthquake in Alaska about two days after the conference. As I heard about the earthquake, the Spirit of the Lord descended upon me and I began to shake violently. He told me that this was His sign that He had answered our prayers. He further said: You have caused a quaking in regions of the Spirit, foundations of Nations have been shaken, and you will see the effects of it soon enough. Later I called a prophet, David Michael, who is a friend of mine to share what had happened. Before I could tell him however, he told me the word of the Lord just as it had come to me earlier, confirming this critical word. The Lord later revealed that the time of intercession set the stage for the Iraq invasion as well. (I have already written an article on this, and it is on my website.)

December 2002, when I went to Israel to pray, the directive was to pray over the borders of Israel. I was to travel the borders and state that the boundaries belonging to Israel would be Israel's and the land belonging to the Arab Nations would be theirs. I obeyed this commission. During my stay in the Land at that time, two of the Seven Spirits of God as seen before the throne of the Great King, visited me. During this visit I was lifted up into the sky to see the true boundaries of Israel and that which the Lord once again solidified through my obedience. I won't go into a great deal of discussion about this visit here as I have already written about and published it previously. But, I will say, that the terror of the Lord rested upon me throughout the entire visit. I was told that this was a most holy thing. Mans boundaries in no way reflect the eventual outcome of God's plan.

In May 2003, the Lord spoke to me audibly saying: I am about to do a thing in Israel that will make the ears of all who hear it tingle.

I asked Him what it was He was going to do. He gave me a vision of the words Oslo Accord.

That brings us up to the present moment. Here we stand on the threshold of what seems like eternal decisions being made that will apparently negatively affect our two nations. Many feel that God has not heard our prayers at all. But, this is not the case.

A New Season

The Lord has heard our prayers as I will now undertake to share. I want my reader to understand that God is shifting foundations in the earth right now. We are travailing through to a new era in the earth. To walk with the Lord during this time and pray according to His will we must walk higher than ever before and hear clearer than we have ever heard. For, He is not walking in such a way in anything He is doing, as we think He is going. It is a new time, a new season!

I was suddenly pulled up by the Lord and told that I needed to go to Israel and be there by June 3rd or I would miss something of critical import. He further told me to begin my trip by traveling down to Eilat.

At the time I had no idea that President Bush would arrive in Aqaba, Jordan, which is across the boarder from Eilat, for a summit with Prime Ministers Sharon and Abbas on that very day to discuss and begin the implementation of the Road Map. Upon my arrival, after traveling through more road blocks than I have ever experienced, I was to later learn that the meeting went as planned and the victory speeches had been given. I wept! My heart was utterly broken -- and I wept uncontrollably.

The Lord told me why He sent me down to Eilat. I did as He directed then headed up toward Jerusalem where I would stay on the Mt of Olives until I departed from Israel. During my prayer vigil the Lord appeared to me. He had in His hand a legal pad. As He spoke to me He kept tapping this legal pad like an attorney might do who was trying to make a point. He said: I have a controversy with Israel, Nita. He pleaded the Scripture Isaiah 57: 15 - 18. Then He said this is my controversy with Israel. I realized as I listened to Him, that the dividing of the Land had to do with this controversy that the Lord has with my people.

Isaiah 57: 15 – 18 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in a high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite spirit to revive the spirit of the humble, and revive the heart of the contrite ones. For I will not contend forever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made. For the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, and I smote him; I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on frowardly in the way of his heart. I have seen his ways, and I will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to his mourners.

During another prayer session, as I wasn’t getting the message quite as clearly as He thought I should, He came to me and took me into the Spirit. I saw the Spirit of the Lord begin to burrow down into the earth. He trenched and trenched. The long ditch went deeper and deeper until we were all in hell. I stood there with the Lord astonished. I surveyed the walls in which I saw prison cells. They were the most ugly cells I have ever seen. They looked like something out of a horror movie. And, they were made right in the walls of hell. I watched in amazement. Suddenly I realized that these walls with their cells were actually breathing. This further frightened me and I pulled very close to the Lord. Why were they breathing, I thought. Occasionally as this whole room would breath many more cells would suddenly appear all up and down the walls and the room would have grown. The Lord quoted the verses right out of Isaiah 5: 13 - 16. I was so frightened and overwhelmed by the monstrous sight before me, the smell of sulfur and death that was everywhere, I just wanted to leave. But, when He quoted the verses out of Isaiah I heard His heart, saw His face gripped with pain and compassion, and I momentarily lost sight of myself.

Isaiah 5: 13 - 16: Therefore My people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge: and their honorable men are famished and their multitude dried up with thirst. Therefore, hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it. And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled.
But, the Lord of Host shall be exalted in judgment and God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.

After Messiah spoke these Scriptures with more passion than you could possibly ever comprehend, He looked deep into my eyes and said: ?Nita, I do not want My people to come to this terrible place. It was not created for them, but for Satan and his angels. Their focus is on the Land, My focus is on their souls! Plead for My people!

Then I was back in my room alone!

For those who are not Jewish by natural descent, I want you to realize that He feels as passionately about the souls of the Gentiles as He does about Israel. However, in this visit His focus was on Israel and so was His heart. This greatly intensified my intercessions for my people. However, admittedly my doctrines and dogmas even in spite of all of this, still kept me somewhat blind to the heart of what He was attempting to say.

This is the season for the awakening of my people. Intercession will work great miracles today in birthing the nations of Israel and the Arabs into the kingdom. For it is a new day!

Once I was back home I traveled to St. Louis, MO to minister. The first morning of ministry during the worship service my thoughts were suddenly shifted to Israel and the Road Map. I began to weep uncontrollably. All the feelings of betrayal I had buried, the longing and yearning for my people to have their own land and to be safe from their enemies, the sadness and grief that accompanied the situation in the Middle East came flooding to the surface. I couldn't stop it. I didn't want to deal with all the pain I was feeling at that moment, as I soon had to minister. But, I couldn't control what was happening to me. Finally, the Lord told me to turn to II Chronicles Chapter 11. Then He led me to verse 16.
And after them out of all the tribes of Israel such as set their hearts to seek the Lord God of Israel come to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the Lord God of their Fathers.

Then He reminded me that this occurred after the division of the Land under King Rehoboam. He then led me to the first few verses of that same chapter. Rehoboam had gathered together choice warriors out of Judah and Benjamin, to go up against Israel to reunite the tribes under one kingdom. You see he thought he knew the Word and that Israel was not to be divided.

But the prophet of the Lord came to him and stopped him. II Chronicles 11: 2- 4A The Word of the Lord came to Shemaiah the man of God, Saying, speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, King of Judah, and to all Israel in Benjamin and Judah saying, Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: Return every man to his house; for this thing is done of Me.

What was done of the Lord? He divided the Kingdom and the Land of Israel. Why? So that those who truly feared the Lord and wanted to serve Him could do it without fear. They would from that time come out of all twelve tribes to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the Lord. So, after the Land was divided the Lord poured out His Spirit and sent a great revival to Israel. It will be the same today. It is for this purpose that the Lord has done this. As we pray, this discipline/blessing will produce an awakening in the hearts of my people. As He shared these truths with me He continued to baptize me with a love for these truths and reveal to my innermost being His love for the Jewish people of the world.

One would think that this would be enough to give me peace. It did, but only for a short season. Once again within a couple days sorrow gripped me and I wondered about the Lords part in all this.

I finished my meetings, and returned home. On the 22nd of June, I had the most remarkable experience yet in His attempt to instruct me.

At 9:30 PM the Spirit of the Lord struck me with a bolt of lightening. He came upon me and spoke the words, IT IS THE GOODNESS OF GOD. Those words began to reverberate through my whole being echoing through every inch of me like a man's words echoing through a canyon. Over and over again I heard the words as they traveled through me in a living way, awakening my whole inner man to His voice, shattering the darkness that overshadowed the truths He was working so desperately to give me. When my inner man was fully awake, He said: IT IS THE GOODNESS OF GOD THAT DIVIDES THE LAND OF ISRAEL! The presence lifted and I was stunned!

Moments later, a shaft of light came upon me from heaven. Once again, the words: IT IS THE GOODNESS OF GOD&. were released into me. Every time the words were spoken my spirit and soul would swell a little more. Again, the words traveled through me awakening more fully my whole being to this truth. Resounding through every inch of my being, the words would shake everything they touched. My spirit and soul continued to expand with each new verbal release of these words until I was in such pain. It was a divine pain as I was being stretched to receive the wisdom and goodness of His infinite truth. I was wrapped in light like a cocoon. I could see only what He wanted me to see. I could see myself in respect to His goodness toward Israel. I was but a speck of dust, and grain of sand I was so small. His goodness was so vast I could see no end to it. It transcended time and space. I was wrapped in the terror of God. There was no longer any room for doubt, only knowing that His works toward my people the Jews was abounding goodness -- and only good. I could see with my natural eyes in an open vision, the land of Israel divided and surrounded by His goodness. The light of His goodness blazed all around the circumference of the Land. Then once again He capped off the release by saying, IT IS THE GOODNESS OF GOD THAT DIVIDES THE LAND OF ISRAEL. Oh, such swelling of this truth swept through my whole being once again. I thought I would explode if He did not stop the revelation.

The Lord then told me to call a friend who is a prophet. I did, and caught him just as he was walking through the door of his home. I was told to share my experience with him and that the Lord would deeply impress him with this truth also. As we talked and shared the best I could, as I was still under such a visitation that I found it very difficult to get hardly any words out, I would be at times swept into other realms of experience.

As I slowly shared what was transpiring with me David quoted the Scripture out of Revelation 15:3 & 4A
And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous Are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways thou King of the saints. Who shall not fear thee and glorify thy name, for thou alone art holy.

As he spoke those words I was carried off into heaven and saw the saints worshipping the Lamb singing this very song over Israel. When the chorus came to an end, I was again able to communicate with David.

I heard the words: The fountains of the deep broke open. (Gen. 7:11) I asked David if he spoke those words as I was so lost in the Spirit I couldn’t tell from whence they had come. He reflectively repeated them, then said no. But, as he spoke the same words I was thrust into another realm and saw the fountains of the deep break open. I was overwhelmed. The sight before me was mammoth. I saw huge magnificent plates break open. The crevices were so deep I could not see their end. It was like watching mountains being formed; the movements and breakings were so magnificent. I saw the gushing forth of great waters, seemingly coming from the depths of these new canyons. I heard David speak: As in the days of Noah so will the coming of the Son of Man be. I thought this too will be as in the days of Noah. It seemed that whatever David spoke I would be taken there to see it unfold. I sense that what I saw was occurring at the present moment in the Spiritual realm as God sent kingdoms of this world shaking and quaking at the sound of His voice, as He moves ever forward giving birth to the Kingdom of God, but also I felt that I was watching an image of the great earthquakes yet to come in the world.

Then, I was taken to another place and saw a huge fountain spring up from the earth. It was a fountain of liquid light and it began to fall first upon Israel. This light was so bright I could not bear to look at it. (I am not sure I even understand what all this means. I am only sharing what I saw.)

David said: We have just seen the dawning of a new age. Just as Noah came out of the ark and realized he could never go back to the world as it had once been, neither can we. Everything has changed. Nothing will ever be the same again. As he further stated these words I saw an age begin to open like the dawn of the morning sun. Again I had to turn my eyes from beholding it straight on as it was too exceedingly bright.

So, my Dear Friends, to summarize, the dividing of the land of Israel is the beginning of the revelation of the goodness of God to my people. Not only is it going to contribute to the climate needed for an awakening of the Jewish people, but also something more will occur. When Israel has done all it can do including giving up the Land and time goes by the antagonist begin another uprising, and war break out, the world will then be left befuddled. The sympathy of the world will at last be momentarily turned toward Israel. They will say Israel, go ahead and build your Temple. When this happens we will know that the Lord’s return is at the door. I want to encourage you to rejoice in His goodness and pray that the Lord will make this transition time as easy as possible for all involved. Pray that He will steadily pour out increasing levels of His light and grace upon Jewish people everywhere. And pray for President Bush that he continues to walk in the will of our Father. Lovingly support him in your prayers, as no President in recent history has needed it more.

This is not just about Israel; it is about the Lord’s return. Israel itself will eventually be brought to grips with this truth as we pray. As for America, our intention is not to hurt but to help Israel albeit in the very limited and faulty wisdom of man. The Lord will look at our intentions. Of coarse we are still touching as it were the ark of God when we touch anything pertaining to Israel. Therefore, even though we are trying to help Israel we are still leaving ourselves open to Satan’s attacks by touching the ark (the Land) in a way that is not prescribed by the Lord Himself.

Therefore we experience a limited judgment as a result. But the Lord will not turn this into an invitation to war, as long our motives are right. I believe that is why this had to be stalled through the prayers of the saints until America had a Christian President whose motives were right. It was His mercy toward America. As to other Nations involved whose motives are not right, woe unto them. May the Church rise up and plead with God on their behalf.

One last thing; the Lord recently spoke to me audibly in a vision and told me that it was not His will to destroy America. He said, He loves America and has a great plan yet to unfold. So stay in prayer protecting our Nation from destruction through interceding for it. And do not listen to prophecies or repeat them that talk about the Lord being angry with America over this land division, and ready to destroy her. We have many issues before the throne that need correcting so let us concentrate on purifying ourselves as Nation. Stand in the gap for the Nation of our birth, and pray for the Lord to bless her and turn her to Himself in the fear of God and holiness.

Shalom!

Key of David
by Bill Somers

> And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth; Revelation 3:7

The Key of David is mentioned Revelation 3 also comes up in Isaiah 22. What exactly is the Key of David?

In the passage from Revelation, we see Jesus describing Himself. This letting us know something about himself is a major feature of the book aptly named The Revelation of Jesus Christ.

But the mention in Isaiah doesn't seem to have anything to do with Jesus. Here is the text from Isaiah.

> Isaiah 22:
> 15 Thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, which is over the house, and say,
> 16 What hast thou here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, as he that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that graveth an habitation for himself in a rock?
> 17 Behold, the LORD will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee.
> 18 He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house.
> 19 And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he pull thee down.
> 20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah:
> 21 And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.
> 22 And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open.

Keys imply power and authority. To have a key is to have power, ability, or authority. They are also mentioned in Rev 1:18, Matt 16:19, Matt 18:18. In both these cases the Word speaks of ultimate authority to open and shut. It's clear that Jesus has the ultimate authority to open and shut.

> And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Matthew 28:18

But in Isaiah we find the same key of David with the same authority assigned to Elaikim the son of Hilkiah. Who was He? And moreover why should he be given the Key of David?

We also find Shebna and Hilkiah mentioned in 2 Kings and in Isaiah 37.

> And when they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, > which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder. 2 Kings 18:18

> And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. Isaiah 37:2

And here we find out that Shebna was a scribe or lawyer, and that they were part of King Hezekiah's entourage during the Assyrian siege.

Let's look at some other factors. Hilkiah means portion of Jehovah or my portion is Jehovah. Eliakim means whom God establishes or Whom God will raise up or set up.. Shebna means youth or vigour. There are other clues to be found in careful reading of the text. Notice that in Isaiah 22 Shebna is mentioned as being over the house, but in Isaiah 37 and 2 Kings 18 it clearly states that Eliakim was over the household. In Isaiah 22:20 he uses the phrase "And it shall come to pass in that day". This indicates that the passage is prophetic and points to a future time. Also in the same verse he calls Eliakim 'my servant', a phrase associated with Messiah as mentioned in Isaiah 53 and other places. Next consider that Eliakim is always described as the son of Hilkiah while no genealogy is ever given for Shebna. He is always called Shebna, the Scribe. This whole passage about Shebna and Eliakim is only about them on the surface. This is figurative speech contrasting Jesus the Son of God with Satan the legalist. And the passage is really or prophetically speaking of Messiah being established in the place of Satan. Jesus is being set up by the Father, over the household of God where before it had been under the domain or influence of Satan, who is about to be overthrown with great judgments.

Notice that God says He will lay the key of David on his shoulder. There is another passage in Isaiah where we read about the government on his shoulder

> For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder*: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.*
> Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this. Isaiah 9:6-7

Now of course this passage is a reference to Jesus, the Messiah. Here it says "and the government shall be upon his shoulder" In the passage above from Isaiah 22, speaking of Eliakim, a figure for the Messiah, God says I will lay the Key of the house David on his shoulder. There is a very important connection here between the key, the shoulder and the government.

The Key of David sets him over the house of David. Or to use the language of Isaiah 9, it gives him the government of the house of David. As we read in Isaiah 22:21b: "and I will commit thy government into his hand, …."

We said before the key speaks of power and authority. Some commentators say that this is a mantle of authority, and thus we can speak of it being set upon someone's shoulders. So in this view, Isaiah 22 says that, God is saying He will give Jesus the government once held by Satan and give him all power and authority.

But if verse 21a it says " And I will clothe him with thy robe …. So the key may not be an article of clothing. Besides, if it referred to a mantle, like the mantle of Samuel, or of Elijah, then it would rest on both shoulders!

In this case the key is speaking of something required to exercise power and authority. It is not the power and authority itself. Just as a key is required to open or shut a door, the Key of David is required to exercise power and authority. And the clue here is the shoulder. And the key is the Cross which he bore on his shoulder. For it was not till after He went to the cross and rose again that he came and told his followers :"… All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

> And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.
> Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:
> That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;
> And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Philippians 2:8-11

> Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.
> He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.
> Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors. Isaiah 53:10 12

The Key of David that was laid on His shoulder is the Cross. And because he was obedient unto the death of the Cross, He was given the power and authority over this world.

The cross was the wooden altar that the perfect sacrifice was offered upon.

As his feet were nailed to the cross, you could say that the cross is his footstool and also his throne, for because of the Cross, he reigns.

And because he reigns he can extend to the church a promise to rule and reign with him.

> To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. Revelation 3:21

To sit in his throne may require that we spend time on his cross. If we expect to rule and reign with him, we must be crucified with Christ.

> I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Galatians 2:20

And as it says in Timothy:

> If we suffer, we shall also reign with him …..:2 Timothy 2:12

> Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. 2 Tim 3:12

In these end times we are not to fear or worry or seek to be survivors. We are to be overcomers. We are to overcome the same way he overcame, by obedience even unto death. For we know that we can always trust the father for the grace needed to go through any trial or situation. As is says in Psalm 48:

> Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.
> Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.
> Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.
> For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death. Psalm 48:11-14
> Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. Revelation 2:10
> And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. Revelation 12:11
> And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. Rev 20:4

Kingdom Grace Has Come

Ron McGatlin

There is now being released to God's pure hearted people the greatest outpouring of all time. It is the time of the kingdom of God coming forth on Earth. It is as God spoke to me over 20 years ago, "coming up like grass in a field". Coming forth all across the world at one time among the "insignificant" humble pure holy "nobodies". The kingdom grace that has come will build NO ONE'S big ministry but will flow across the land at ground level or even in some cases at underground level until the great city of God is manifest on Earth according to the New Jerusalem pattern coming down now in the Spirit from Heaven.

This is the time the Prophets of old prophesied about - the emerging of the kingdom Jesus preached and taught about. Jesus came to earth, died on the cross, rose from the dead and returned in the Holy Spirit to live within and empower many sons to do the works of the kingdom of God. We have entered the time that the first century apostles wrote about - the time of the promises of Jesus for His disciples to again do the works that He did and greater works. The time when nothing is impossible to those who believe.

Individuals, religious groups, and nations can miss this great harvest time. The season when the fruit of all who have died as martyrs, and all that have sown, and all that has been done before, is beginning to come forth. Some will still be saying it is yet four months to harvest even when the harvest moves into full swing.

On God's part it has always been now. He has waited for a people, an army of true sons.

He must have a people who will cast off the religious blankets of limitations, doubts and unbelief and move in the supernatural realm of power, love, and presence of God as described and promised throughout the Word. God must have a people unoccupied with the pursuits of self pleasures and religious routines - a people ready to step into the fullness of the glory of God - a people unrestrained by fear or natural needs but alive and released into the realm of the supernatural love and presence of God - a pure hearted humble simple people who will hear and obey the Spirit of God - a New Jerusalem people dwelling with God in the earth.

Even as dark destruction comes upon the works of the loftiness and pride of man - even as much of what has been considered holy by many is destroyed by fire and great shaking, the mighty works of the kingdom of God shall arise among the pure humble sons of God and the glory of God shall fill the whole earth.

Know How To Judge Properly

Stephen Hanson

Jan. 14, 2005

(While using Old Test. examples below, please understand that the criteria for judging a prophet or words, is found in Dt. 18 and in other Old Test. scriptures. We now judge these things according to New Test. standards as found in various places within the epistles. These scriptures are not exhaustive, but serve as a point of reference.)

ISA 38:1 In those days Hezekiah became ill and was at the point of death. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to him and said, "This is what the LORD says: Put your house in order, because you are going to die; you will not recover."

ISA 38:2 Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, [3] "Remember, O LORD, how I have walked before you faithfully and with wholehearted devotion and have done what is good in your eyes." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

ISA 38:4 Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah: [5] "Go and tell Hezekiah, `This is what the LORD, the God of your father David, says: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears; I will add fifteen years to your life. [6] And I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city.

DT 18:17 The LORD said to me: "What they say is good. [18] I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brothers; I will put my words in his mouth, and he will tell them everything I command him. [19] If anyone does not listen to my words that the prophet speaks in my name, I myself will call him to account. [20] But a prophet who presumes to speak in my name anything I have not commanded him to say, or a prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, must be put to death." (Old Test. criteria)

1TH 5:19 Do not put out the Spirit's fire; [20] do not treat prophecies with contempt. [21] Test everything. Hold on to the good. [22] Avoid every kind of evil. (New Test. criteria)

"I tell you that there are many questions in the prophetic. There are many who adhere to Old Testament principles when judging New Testament prophecies. I tell you that there are many who follow a man rather than my spirit. Some judge the person rather than the message. I have shown you plainly in scripture that prophecy can be conditional. As examples, look to Nathan the prophet, Isaiah, and Jonah. Examine these things through scripture and then you will know how to judge properly. No one is perfect, but only myself, and yet you expect my servants to be without flaw. Beware of these things for they will pierce your hearts. Do not continue to be babes in your thinking. I will bring all things to light and those things that have been hidden in darkness will come forth. "

A Wise Person Prepares For Winter

Stephen Hanson

A Wise Person Prepares For Winter-"Be Ready For That Hour Of Trial"

[10] Since you have kept my command to endure patiently, I will also keep you from the hour of trial that is going to come upon the whole world to test those who live on the earth.
Rev. 3:10

[23] Don't have anything to do with foolish and stupid arguments, because you know they produce quarrels. [24] And the Lord's servant must not quarrel; instead, he must be kind to everyone, able to teach, not resentful.
2 Tim. 2:23

[6] In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials. [7] These have come so that your faith--of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire--may be proved genuine and may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed.
I Peter 1:5

"The mountains will quake and the rivers will run dry. There is a time coming when those who are here on the earth will be having a time of great testing and tribulation. You do not know the day or the hour. You do not know the dates. It is not important to know but it is important to know that you will be taken care of. It is important to know that in the coming years you must prepare for that time. It is true that I will save my church from the great trial that is coming upon the earth. It is still important to note however, that you will not be delivered "out" of it, but that you will be delivered "through" it. "

"What do you think that the purpose is of going through the trials that you have been going through now? I tell you surely, that they have come partly to prepare you for that time. You have gone through all types of trials and testings at this time. Some of it has been to perfect your faith. Some of it has been to purge the dross from you. Most of it has been for these things. But I want you to be ready for that hour and that time. A wise person prepares for Winter. A wise person prepares for difficult times. But I'm also not asking you to have fear in your hearts about these things. Consider the churches that were mentioned in Revelation. Remember that some were not ready and they could not endure. To them that could endure, they were kept safe from that time of trial. That is all that I need to say at this moment. I do not want my church to be splitting hairs about theological issues. Some say that I AM coming for my church at this time, while others say, "No, it will be later." Just be ready and know that much of this now is in preparation for that time. "

"To those who are like the church of Philadelphia, endure as a faithful soldier. Be ready, in season and out of season. Know that these trials are preparing you for that time. Know that I will not take you "out" of that time, but "through it." Be ready, I say, and do not fear. And do not get caught-up in senseless arguments about when these things will happen. But also do not delude yourselves about thinking that you will be taken out of everything that is coming upon this earth. "

Knowing His Glory Knowing His Goodness

Daniel Black

or, we could call it "Where is Your Perspective"

NOTE: The following is not really a teaching, it's not really anything but some thoughts that God has put in my heart. I pray that this will bless you, and allow the goodness of God to abound in your life.

Exodus 33:18-19 KJV "And he said, 'I beseech thee, shew me thy glory.' (19) And he said, 'I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy.'"

I want to talk with you for a moment about the goodness of God. It so abounds in every inch of this little earth that we live in, and guess what Father pleasures for you to have it...yes, that's right, He desires you to share and partake within His Glory, for the goodness of God is His Glory. There is a fresh stirring in the Church to see the Glory, to seek His face, to know Him more. There is a passion that of like Moses that is rising up deep within our spirits to cry out for more of the Glory, to see the fullness of Him, for His Glory is His essence...and the most amazing thing is that He is so faithful. Yes, He is the most faithful God there is, for it is His pleasure to show you His Glory, and will be faithful to show that Glory to you!!!

Notice in Exodus 33:18-19 after Moses cried out for the Glory, the God replies with an interesting answer. He said that He will make ALL of His goodness to pass before Moses. Why His goodness? Because God is good, just as much as God is love. Because God's Glory is His essence, it is His being, it is Who He is. When we ask for the presence of God we ask for a portion of His being to be made manifest in a place, but when we cry out for His Glory we cry out for the fullness of Him to be made manifest. We cry out for everything that is God be made known to everything that is you. But I want to focus on the goodness...the goodness of God....Have I wetted your appetite for more of Jesus?

The Word of God said in Habakkuk 2:14 DRB "For the earth shall be filled, that men may know the glory of the Lord, as waters covering the sea." He filled the earth with His Glory. I think since the beginning of creation the Glory has dwelt among men, we just did not recognize it. This is all leading to His goodness, but we need to understand this. God has been working greatly to restore our knowledge of His Glory that we might know Him. Relationship with God is very important, and He desires that men, that would be you and me, know His Glory!!!!

Psalms 33:5 KJV "He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the LORD." Remember, God's Glory is His essence, His being, and His reply to Moses was that His Glory was goodness. Habakkuk told us that God filled the earth so that we might know Him. Now, the Psalmist tells us that the earth is FULL of God's goodness. From the beginning of Creation He said it was all good. But if the goodness of God has filled the earth, why do bad things happen? Why are you going through hell on earth if God's goodness is abounding in the earth. I have a suggestion in that. This has been a revelation that the Lord has been teaching me on a daily basis since I left for China last September and have returned. Why you don't see God's goodness has to do with your perspective on things. The Church has been held bound for many years because its perspectives on things, and I know for myself when I have changed my perspective from one of earth to heaven to one of heaven to earth life has changed more dramatically for me. I have had more miracles abound, more boldness to go and preach the Gospel, a better relationship with God, and freedom from mindsets that have held me bound.

We find the principles of perspective throughout the Bible. It all depends on your outlook of things. If you are looking for nothing but disaster, havoc, and bad things in general to happen, than that is what your going to see. But if you are looking for the Goodness of God, because the earth is full of it, than that is what you will see. The church for so long has had a mentality of let's look for bad things, and for so long has only seen bad. The church is full of sick people, the church is full of people who welcome disease and say its God's will, the church has not seen miracles simply because it has not looked for them. Do you think that God stopped working miracles when the Apostle John died? I think not. In fact, I think that there were millions of miracles that happened in between the time of John's death and today, we just never heard about them...so because we never heard about it, our minds were conditioned into thinking that it did not happen any more. It is so true when Jesus told us that what we seek we find, when we ask it is given to us, and when we knock the door opens up to us. When we are not seeking God for what He said He would do, we won't see it, plain and simple. When we don't look for God's goodness, we don't see it. When I don't see God's goodness I can see the worst reality in every situation, when I am looking from a perspective of the goodness of God I can see the reality of heaven in every situation. I am almost to sure of myself when I state that the reason why I saw all the healings and salvations in China was simply because my perspective was to only see His goodness/ Tell me, which way should we be looking at? Your perspective will determine what you see.

How can I walk in heaven's perspective? Well, it all boils back down to where you stand in your relationship with His Glory. How do you see God? Is He some distant being that you will only get to encounter when you get to Heaven, or is He alive and active in your life? Is He risen upon you? Do you see from the perspective of a friend or servant? That last one is very important. What is your perspective in how you relate to God? John 15:14-16 KJV "Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. (15) Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you. (16) Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you." Look at the perspective that Jesus is showing us. Its not that we no longer are servants of God, but that we serve out of friendship rather than slavery. Do you look at God as a Master or as your closest friend? Why these questions? Because I want you to begin thinking of where you stand with Jesus. I hope that these are questions you can answer in your heart.

So, how can I change my perspective? Colossians 3:1-4 HCSB tells us: "So if you have been raised with the Messiah, seek what is above, where the Messiah is, seated at the right hand of God. (2) Set your minds on what is above, not on what is on the earth. (3) For you have died, and your life is hidden with the Messiah in God. (4) When the Messiah, who is your life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with Him in glory." Verse 2 gives us a big clue as to how. It says to set your mind on things above. Set is the key word. It also happens to be an action word. Its you doing something. You are placing your mind on things above. What's above? Heaven. Get this. This is something I have been walking in for about a year and half now. It has been a true revelation of heaven to me. All throughout Scripture we see people have visitations into Heaven. All throughout Scripture we see God trying to relate to us on heavenly terms. Jesus even expressed a desire to show and teach us from heavenly perspective when He told Nicodemus in John 3:10-13 NKJV "Jesus answered and said to him, 'Are you the teacher of Israel and do not know these things? (11) Truly, truly, I say to you, We speak what we know and testify what we have seen. And you do not receive our witness. (12) If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how shall you believe if I tell you heavenly things? (13) And no one has ascended up to Heaven except He who came down from Heaven, the Son of Man who is in Heaven.'" When I read that, and read that, and read that, I didn't get it. And then I saw something in the last verse: "...the Son of Man who is in Heaven." You mean when Jesus said this He was in Heaven? No, He was here talking to Nicodemus. Than how could that be? Jesus spirit was already there with the Father. Jesus "abided" in the Father and was one with Him. Then, I checked out this other often overlooked or even misunderstood passage in Ephesians. It is talking about the finished work on the cross and how we can abide and be one with the Father as Jesus was talking about in John 14, 15, 16, and 17? Let's read in context so that you don't misunderstand this verse. Ephesians 2:1-8 DRB "And you, when you were dead in your offences and sins, (2) Wherein in time past you walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of this air, of the spirit that now worketh on the children of unbelief: (3) In which also we all conversed in time past, in the desires of our flesh, fulfilling the will of the flesh and of our thoughts, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest: (4) But God (who is rich in mercy) for his exceeding charity wherewith he loved us (5) Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together in Christ (by whose grace you are saved) (6) And hath raised us up together and hath made us sit together in the heavenly places, through Christ Jesus. (7) That he might shew in the ages to come the abundant riches of his grace, in his bounty towards us in Christ Jesus. (8) For by grace you are saved through faith: and that not of yourselves, for it is the gift of God." Look at verse 6 again: "And hath raised us up together and hath made us sit together in the heavenly places, through Christ Jesus." That word raised is past tense, that word made, past tense. At the work of the cross, God did a restoration between man and Himself. Apart of that restoration was Him seating our spirits in heavenly realms with Christ Jesus. God made it to wear once we are saved our spirits could be in constant communication with the Father in Heaven, just as when Jesus was on earth, was also in Heaven, abiding in the Father. But that is just our spirits. Our minds remain unfruitful to what our spirits experience daily, unless, we practice Colossians 3:2. We set, we place, we put our minds in heavenly places to gain a mental revelation of that which has already been revealed to our spirit through Christ. It is kind of like connecting the 18 inches between your brain and heart.

I know there is a lot to chew in the above paragraph, and want to encourage you to study it out for yourself. It begins to make total sense as you connect the dots. But here are the results. When we get a revelation in our heads of what is God's heart in heaven, that is setting our minds on things above, our perspectives begin to change. Jesus illustrates this to us in John 4:35 KJV when He tells us: "Say not ye, 'There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest?' behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest." Jesus told us change our perspective. No longer look from earth to heaven and say the harvest is far away, but look up to look down. See from God's point of view. He said the harvest is ready right now. Can you believe that?

When we look down from God's perspective of things, things are a lot different. We no longer see a God who is mad at us with hammer in hand, but we see a God who is well pleased in His creation, a God who is happy with us, His children. There is no where we read that God hates us. He hates sin, not sinners. I love how the Message Bible translates Psalm 33:5: "He loves it when everything fits, when his world is in plumb-line true. Earth is drenched in GOD's affectionate satisfaction." The earth is DRENCHED in His affectionate satisfaction. What a great perspective to hold. Know that you are the apple of His eye. You are full of His goodness and Glory. You are drenched in God's affectionate satisfaction! GOD-affirmers find themselves loved every time they turn around. (Ps. 32:10).

You know to know all of this is great, but it all begins in a place of seeking His face. Psalm 27:8 says when You said to me seek Your face, my heart responded, Thy face O Lord will I seek. We need to get passionately, hopelessly, and lost in love with Jesus. As we do, we need to pursue Him, and as we set our eyes upon Jesus, the things of this earth will grow strangely dim in the light of His Glory and Grace!

Just a couple of thoughts...

Be blessed,
Daniel Black

KIND AND SEVERE
We are grafted together through Your Word
We yield and honor that You are our Lord.
In seasons of sorrow and times of gifts
We have known Your dealings can be swift.

You send Your Word and knock on our door.
We hunger for You asking for more.
Every day decisions come to us.
We make choices to follow and trust.

You, oh God, are both kind and severe.
Let our choices bear fruit that You remain near.
Let us walk in the fear of our God.
Following Him closely with our feet well shod.

Tis His peace that keeps us on His path.
A barometer in tune to sense His wrath.
Lest we stray and walk away
Yielding our hearts to demonic stray.

Oh God have mercy and keep us close.
Tucked into Your bosom with heavenly hosts.
Let us walk in right standing with You.
Never to depart from what is True.

It is our faith that we choose to nourish.
Hearing Your Word, we will flourish.
When we harden our hearts and do not believe
We resist Your knock and become deceived.

Oh Papa release us from our unbelief.
Let us hear and receive every good seed.
Give us not over to our hardened ways
Lead us not into temptation lest we stray.

Let us nurture and hold Your gifts so tender
That we never let go, never surrender
The tenacity of pursuit for all that is You.
Increase our faith to walk in life anew.

Let us judge nothing before its time
When You send strong meat strictly Thine.
Forgive us when we did spit out the bones
That Your meat was spit too, from all that was honed.

Give us Your Word, let us not turn away.
Grant us meat that we can live another day.
Let us not stumble with discerning the chew.
But let us receive Your gifts so true.

Rom 11:17-24 NLT

But some of these branches from Abraham's tree, some of the Jews, have been broken off. And you Gentiles, who were branches from a wild olive tree, were grafted in. So now you also receive the blessing God has promised Abraham and his children, sharing in God's rich nourishment of his special olive tree. But you must be careful not to brag about being grafted in to replace the branches that were broken off. Remember, you are just a branch, not the root. "Well," you may say, "those branches were broken off to make room for me." Yes, but remember — those branches, the Jews, were broken off because they didn't believe God, and you are there because you do believe. Don't think highly of yourself, but fear what could happen. For if God did not spare the branches he put there in the first place, he won't spare you either.

Notice how God is both kind and severe. He is severe to those who disobeyed, but kind to you as you continue to trust in his kindness. But if you stop trusting, you also will be cut off. And if the Jews turn from their unbelief, God will graft them back into the tree again. He has the power to do it. For if God was willing to take you who were, by nature, branches from a wild olive tree and graft you into his own good tree — a very unusual thing to do — he will be far more eager to graft the Jews back into the tree where they belong.

Maintain Your Home Ground

MAINTAIN YOUR HOME GROUND
When I send you forth to move out and occupy increased boundaries of influence, authority, and responsibility, it is important that you take assessment of the boundaries I have thoroughly marked in your life. Know their importance and prioritize them.

If you put all your energy into occupying and don't cover your home territory, it leaves you vulnerable to losing what you have obtained. Maintain what you have obtained. Fight to keep the foundations I have engraved in your life. Do not lose an inch of them while you are stretching forth and taking new places. Stay disciplined and a watchful eye on your home ground so that nothing is allowed to be plundered.

NKJ 1 Samuel 30:1-3
Now it happened, when David and his men came to Ziklag, on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the South and Ziklag, attacked Ziklag and burned it with fire, and had taken captive the women and those who were there, from small to great; they did not kill anyone, but carried them away and went their way. So David and his men came to the city, and there it was, burned with fire; and their wives, their sons, and their daughters had been taken captive.

Set Your House In Order

SET YOUR HOUSE IN ORDER
I have placed a need inside of you to set your environment in order. And when you allow disorder, it builds up on your subconscious and eventually affects your self esteem. Why do you think it makes you feel so satisfied after you clean up a room and then sit down to appreciate it? It is a part of My nature to bring order out of chaos. I have set the universe in order and everything hangs in the balance with symmetry. You have this same nature within you. There are certain things in your life which are not under your control. But if there is nothing actually impeding you, you can apply this spiritual exercise to put your house in order. It will encourage you to get back on the right road and stay there.

1 Tim 4:8-10 NLT
Physical exercise has some value, but spiritual exercise is much more important, for it promises a reward in both this life and the next. This is true, and everyone should accept it.

Through wisdom a house is built, And by understanding it is established;

The Stones To Bread And Living Water
Sandy Warner

THE STONES TO BREAD AND LIVING WATER
I have invited you, My dear ones, to My table. I freely give you a table of intimacy and communion, when you enter into My Presence and sup with Me. This table is prepared before you in the presence of your enemies which I know is not to your liking, but it is true. They encircle you round about, but are held at bay by My restraint. They are not allowed to touch you, but they hurl the stones of taunts and distractions into your midst. Even as the devil taunted Jesus to command the stones to become bread, so they throw these stones at your feet. Rebuke them, or pay no attention to them, but either way do not be distracted by them. For as you press in and keep your focus and your faith on Me, then you freely receive your Bread of life. Did I not turn the rock into a pool of water that bubbled forth a fountain? Even so, I will turn these stones into a pool of blessings which have fallen in a heap at your feet, For what the enemy intends to curse, I turn to blessing.

Ps 114:7-8 NKJV
Tremble , O earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob, Who turned the rock into a pool of water, the flint into a fountain of waters.

The Case of the Kosher Cheeseburger

by Bill Somers

The Lord has been teaching me a lot about his word. There is a scripture that is repeated three times in the Bible, that I have never understood till now.

"Thou shalt not seeth a kid in it's mothers milk." This is interpreted to mean that meat cannot be cooked, mixed or served with milk or milk products. NO Pizza, NO lasagna, NO burritos, NO tacos, and NO cheeseburgers!
This is of course the basis for the Jews keeping separate dishes for meat and dairy products, keeping kosher. According to what I learned some years back, keeping kosher meant having two sets of dishes, glassware etc. One to use for dairy products and one for meat. If you were a well to do Jewish family, you had 4 sets of everything, the other two were for passover only! I recall the story of a missionary in Israel who had a hard time finding a burrito. Then he was told that they are not kosher, since meat is mixed with cheese. So the title of this article: The Case of the Kosher Cheeseburger is a tip-off. There is no such thing as a Kosher Cheeseburger!
"Thou shalt not seeth a kid in it's mothers milk."

This verse had puzzled me for a long time. Every now and then, I would think about it and wonder what it really meant.

What do I mean by that? Well take the verse Thou shall not muzzle the Ox that treads out the corn. This in one of those Old Testament, Torah laws, that could be strictly intended for guiding farmers in taking care of animals. Except that Paul in the new testament tells us that there is a spiritual meaning to it. "For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen? Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope." (1 Corinthians 9:9-10)

For our sakes no doubt this is written, because the things that are written are written for examples and lessons. So perhaps there is a lesson in that verse that says :

"Thou shalt not seeth a kid in it's mothers milk."

I have found that when I really inquire of the Lord about some passage in his word, he starts to show me the meaning. So I said to my self, one of these days I am really going to press in and seek the Lord for understanding of this passage. And then! He interrupted my train of thought and said "Why don't you ask me about it now?" And thus an answer began to come. And this is it.

The spiritual truth behind this is found in applying it to the Word of God. See the scripture references at the end of this article. In the New Testament the word is often compared to milk and sometimes the milk is contrasted with meat - the deeper truths of the Word. Isaiah says 'to whom shall he teach knowledge, to them that are weaned of milk'!

So Then: To rightly divide the word of truth, requires us to separate the milk from the meat.

Not the literal milk from the literal meat, but the milk and meat of the word! That is we must separate the literal from the spiritual. Not to do so is unbelief! And unbelief is disobedience! When you look into a cook pot and see milk, you cannot tell if there is any meat beneath the surface! But you need to look for it and take it out if you can find it. So it is with the Word of God. The milk is the surface meaning, and the meat is the deeper spiritual meaning.

"Thou shalt not seeth a kid in it's mothers milk." is in effect speaking about unbelief. Why is it unbelief if we do not separate the milk from the meat? Because the word says all scripture is inspired by God and profitable for instruction, correction, reproof and doctrine. Since the word says that all scripture is profitable, you must expect to find a deeper meaning in even the most ordinary historical passage. And this scripture is a perfect example of that very principle! It occurs to me that in keeping kosher, the Jews have made almost a religion out of just this one scripture. I am reminded of the verse that says "He hath concluded them [the Jews] all in unbelief."

And so the principle of literal interpretation needs to be modified, lest it lead us into unbelief. If we stop our inquiry once we have a literal interpretation, we are settling for just the milk! Interpret the word literally where possible but continue on and look beneath the surface. And expect to find deeper truths! Seek and ye shall find - meat in due season.

Now will somebody please explain this one: "If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones, or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the dam with the young:" (Deuteronomy 22:6)

Scripture references:
Exodus 23:19 19 The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

Exodus 34:26 26 The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring unto the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

Deuteronomy 14:21 21 Ye shall not eat [of] any thing that dieth of itself: thou shalt give it unto the stranger that [is] in thy gates, that he may eat it; or thou mayest sell it unto an alien: for thou [art] an holy people unto the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

Isaiah 28:9 9. Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? [them that are] weaned from the milk, [and] drawn from the breasts.

1 Corinthians 3:2 2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able [to bear it], neither yet now are ye able.

Hebrews 5:12 12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which [be] the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat. 13 For every one that useth milk [is] unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

1 Peter 2:2 2 As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

Knights Of The Lord

Heather Butler

November 9th 2005.

In the early hours of the morning I had a dream, in the dream I saw a mantle in the shape of a hood come down upon Chuck Pierce and another person. It was white and had a large red cross upon it.

I didn't no that he was in this country praying for our nation along side Sharon Stone, and others. After praying about this, I believe that he has been given the RIGHT to bring forth prayer and declaration for this nation, the hood was symbolic of this, I recognised this hood as being part of the armour of a knight, the covering worn beneath the helmet.

The lord is rallying the troops in this place and throughout the nations. I believe that the fires in France are also significant at this time, that what we see in France could be a reflection of what will happen here on our shores if we do not make that stand. I see that the fire is all part of the alarm that is being raised throughout the nations - I see the fire as being an element that will bring a purity back into the church, that will draw people back into that place of a renewed focus upon the importance of not being caught asleep, a call to ensure that we are not silent as the word of God is being pulled apart and rewritten to fit the persuasions of our governments and leaders, the church in France is rising up on the crest of the fire, using it to purge and cleanse, to illuminate and to draw.

There is a cry spreading throughout the nations to stand and to pray like never before.

2yrs ago, I watched as violent whirlwinds of faith swept America, and our own nation, huge corridors filled with light. This light was the passion and the resilience of those who were faithful and dared to stand against the tide of the enemy who has tried to do that can be done against the judicial systems of our nations, and against the morals and principals that have been built upon the foundations of the word of God

The very moral fibre of who we are depends upon this word, and has lead us as nations into a place of truth throughout the ages, it is right that we should rise up and cry out before the Father concerning the deceit that is trying to cover our lands.

Dare to believe that your prayers make a difference, the violent take by storm.

This is a time for storming the nations with violent prayers of faith, a faith so violent that it rouses the Father heart, and he sends a blast from His nostrils as he hears the cries of the saints throughout the nations. We must not stop now, we need to rise above all that would stop us from praying, and to get back into that place of intimacy with the lord so that we can hear clearly what it is that we are to do in our personal lives, in our communities, and in our nations.

We have been given a God given right to fight for the cause of all that raises itself up against our nations. We have been given an authority that shatters the cedars, that tears down and stamps on every act of the enemy who has tried to hide the power and the inheritance of the God given blood of Jesus.

We are not voices in the wilderness, we are strong brave warriors of the lord, who have been given a job to do, we have been given the keys to the kingdom of heaven, its time to unlock those prayers of faith, and hurl them into the heavenlies and into the throne room of God, to come before the lord in intercession reminding Him of His promises, greater is Him that is in you than him that is in the world. That on this rock I will build my church and the gates of hell will not prevail against it!

That still small voice.

America Its Time To Run With The Horses!
Heather Butler

It says in the word of God that if we cannot keep up with men, how can we run with horses. As I was praying this is what I saw, and I speak it as a prophetic declaration over Kentucky in the name of Jesus.

I see an open heaven, a rolling back of the heavens as the lord gets ready to release his fire from heaven. This fire will consume those who have cried out who are hungry and thirsty, although it is a costly fire it is greater than gold, as the dross is burned away I see what could have been devastation turn into the most fruitful place. I entered in and saw men on white horses protecting the harvest, standing watch to protect this yield. I watched as a whirlwind came and whipped up the fire and planted it in neighboring towns, a funnel of fire swept from Kentucky across the nation, keeping the enemy at bay, and releasing the anointing of the glory of God. The enemy wants to kill you, and the father needs you to die so that he can live in you. The men on the white horses are without fear, they have been tested by the fire, consumed by its flames, they know what is expected of them to run with the Spirit of the lord wherever he will lead. There are those who have not yet learned to run with the horses, those who fear change and challenge, but the lord says to them do not be afraid, as I was with your forefathers so I will be with you, stop looking at what has gone before, I am doing a new thing, I have opened the doorways of heaven to pour out my heart upon this place, to lavish my bride with every good thing, but first comes the fire, will you run with the fire of God in your bones, will you allow me to consume your every thought, take your thoughts and ambitions, strip you of everything that you are and replace your thoughts and ambitions with my perfect will for you. Will you run with me, stand with me even unto death. Come, I call you come. prepare the way I am soon to come.

That still small voice.

Word for the UK

Anglesey Wales UK.

As I sat quietly praying about what prayer I should place within the wailing wall for the UK Israel and the USA I believe I had a vision of the UK. This is what I saw.

I saw the UK as the woman of Samaria speaking with Jesus at the well. She didn't know Jesus, and she was in a place where she shouldn't have been, speaking with a man it was not customary for her to speak to.

She was living a sinful life, and the lord knew this, He didn't tell her to go away, but rather made time to speak many truths into her life.

Jesus asks her for a drink of water, but she says "But sir, the well is deep, and there is nothing with which to draw the water"

Little did she know that the one who had asked her for a drink, was the one who was about to pour life giving waters into the empty vessel of her life.

I believe that the UK has been found wanting. We have been found in a place where we should not have been, political correctness has been eroding the foundations of the truths that we have stood upon for centuries, peeling away the moral fibre of our nation, so that people no longer recognize what is really right, and what is wrong. Compromise has stripped our land of the garment of faith, as we have watched the church come into alignment with false religions and doctrines, hiding the truths of the living God.

sadly many know of the lord in this land, but have no real relationship with Him. People are thirsting, but don't know where to go for a drink.

I see those praying at this time as ministering the heart of Jesus to this land, He is asking "will you give me a drink" and I believe that those in prayer who have joined hands with us in the UK across the waters from America are the vessels that He means to pour into and out from as they use the empty vessels of their lives to carry the anointing of the glory of God into this land and many nations.

Those who are thirsty will know where to get a drink from, as they are shown the truth of the word that our society was shaped and molded upon come into alignment with the true word of the living God.

We have seen much rain of late, the wells are full to overflowing, the lord is waiting to fill the empty vessels of our lives with deep, deep rivers of life giving waters to reach the dry barren dusty roads of apathy, and complacency and change them into places of fruitfulness once again.

Those who are hidden in darkness are about to see a great light I believe this is true not only of those in Israel who have been searching for the messiah, but also for those who have met behind closed doors, who have uttered their secret words to their brothers and who have used their hands to speak. These are the ones who the lord longs to reveal a great truth to. This gospel is not hidden, or attained through works, but through the saving grace of the lord. He longs to show them that true brothers join together for one purpose, to glorify the name of God and see with unblinkered eyes for the first time the one for whom they have searched for.

Israel is significant at this time, I have seen the lamb standing on the temple mount, and I have seen the eastern gate. Prayers and declaration are to be made in this land, they will be as seeds planting the truth of the promises of God back into the land where it was sown in the beginning.

A song like the song of Deborah will be heard and sung once again across this land once more. The rod is about to bud.

The woman at the well ran and splashed the anointing throughout the place where she lived, she had uncovered a truth that saved her life, and many others. The lord is about to change the spiritual atmosphere over our lands, and give us an open heaven like never before.

The lord has heard the cry of the heart of the remnant, the ones who stood and cried out in the night hours where no one saw or heard, I believe he would say that there are righteous men and women and children in this land.

The UK will once again know the heartbeat of the lord, and will have her finger on the pulse of the lord ready to manoever into every situation quickley . Those churches that teach wrong doctrines, and who harbour false prophets will wither like the grass and be blown away as chaff. The weeds that sprang up and tried to kill the harvest, will be the ones who are plucked and eaten by the birds, stripped of all those seeds of deceit and poison.

I will restore the years that the locust has eaten. The Promises of the Lord never fail.

Kingdom, Power, and Glory
Ron Wood

How much power is required for information to be sent and received? Not much. Your cell phone can receive a text message with very little energy expended. Words and ideas can be exchanged almost effortlessly. How much power is required for a lame man to be made well, or a blind person to be made to see, or for a dead person to come back to life? A lot!

Having been the recipient of many dreams, visions, and words from the wonderful communicative Holy Spirit of truth, I do sincerely appreciate the fact that knowledge or information can move freely in the spirit realm as well as the human or natural realm. Mankind, unlike lower animals who do not have an eternal spirit, is gifted with the ability of speech. Using words, we can talk with each other and with our Creator. We were designed from the beginning with an innate ability to dialogue with God and present prayers to God.

The wonderful words that serve as a finale to The Lord's Prayer in the King James Version of the Bible are sometimes omitted in modern translations. Some Bible scholars debate whether the concluding phrase, For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. (Matthew 5:13 NAS) were in the earliest manuscripts. I am satisfied they were. It is a fitting conclusion to an awesome pattern of intimate praying given to us by our Lord Jesus Christ.

Think about it: until Jesus, no one prayed such a bold prayer. No one had ever talked to God so intimately. No one prayed like Jesus prayed-- never before-- not ever in human history! Jesus didn't take his identity or role for granted nor did he act on his own authority. He prayed, then, he obeyed.

Prior to this time, no one had ever called God "Daddy" until Jesus came and showed us the privilege of being a child of God. He is the one who taught us to pray, "Abba, Father." His sacrifice paved the way for our birth and adoption as sons into our Father's family. Yes, God is Jehovah, our covenant-making and covenant-keeping Redeemer; Yes, He is Adonai, our Lord and Master; Yes, He is Elohim, our Creator and Sustainer; but he is also by Christ's grace and our faith and his adoption now become our Father in heaven.

Recently, the Lord had me recall how he first disclosed himself to me.

Understand, I've seen God unveiled as the awesome miracle-worker, as the One who answers faith-filled prayer, as the providential guide and protector, as the Lord who fights for me, but nothing supersedes his first self-disclosure to me. It is foundational to my life of faith. The older I get, the more child-like I become. My Heavenly Father loves me!

When this revelation came, I was only a child. My mother (who was received into heaven on Mother's Day 1980) had taught me how to pray kneeling at my bedside each evening. One evening, during ordinary prayer as a simple childish ritual, the Lord suddenly revealed himself to me. And he showed himself to me as my heavenly Father! I was awestruck and delighted that the God of the Universe, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Covenant Keeping God of the Bible, would bend down low and disclose himself to this little boy kneeling at the side of his bed.

I will never forget the revelation of the Father toward me that day. I felt his heart of love toward me, his spirit of adoption, his affirming gaze. He felt like a daddy whose arms were safe and whose love was unfailing.

In that context, I come back to the words of Jesus tacked on to the end of his time of talking with his Father in heaven. His words are an acknowledgement of an eternal reality. The kingdom comes from the Father; the power comes from the Father; and the glory comes from the Father. And it He not just Jesus' Father, but "our Father." The same Father that loved Jesus and sent the Holy Spirit to given him power and insight is the same Father we are privileged to know and to talk with. He is on our side!

Think about the words: kingdom, power, glory. What do they mean?

Kingdom represents a realm of authority in which a king rules. Jesus is the king of his kingdom. His government is not a democracy, but a kingdom. Kingdom therefore speaks of authority which descends from a throne.

Power represents energy. Energy is the ability to do work, in this case, God's work. God's work is the same as what Jesus showed us: to heal the sick, to drive out evil or unclean spirits; to free from sin and fear and shame. Jesus promised that power would come to those who believe (John 7:37-39, Acts 1:5-8)

Glory represents the radiance of God's riches of grace. These riches are stored up in heaven for us in eternity but partially released now by faith on earth. Our treasure is in heaven, but Jesus' treasure is in his saints! Glory can be manifested by God and when this occurs, it changes everything around.

We thought God had done a marvelous thing when he unveiled the knowledge of God in the face of Jesus Christ: salvation realized and the privilege of knowing the Lord and feeling his love. Amen! If that's all we get, it's worth it all, isn't it? All of this, and heaven too! Praise God!

But wait! God also releases his power in and among the saints. In addition to freedom from sins and the gift of eternal life in Christ, he bestows gifts of the Holy Spirit, today! He fills ordinary believers with his extraordinary energy and amazing things happen that are beyond human explanation. We must not belittle nor neglect the necessity of the power gifts (1 Corinthians 12) to relieve suffering and glorify God through Christ's name.

Yet there is more…. God's glory is drawing near. As heaven comes down, glory fills our souls. God's manifest presence can saturate a person, a group, or a building until suddenly the mystical realm of heaven's dimensions seems palpable and visible. Angels appear, the fragrance of incense wafts like perfume, divine insights flow freely, rapturous love is shed into our hearts, and amazing grace transforms doubters into stalwarts of faith.

Don't forget to pray all of the prayer of Jesus. Don't fall short of his glory, but drink it in. God's glory is surely drawing near to those who seek Him.

Keep Unbelief Out Of Your Life

Lanna Perry

10th May 2005
Sydney Australia

Chosenwarriorprincess@yahoo.com.au

My children, do not be an unbelieving generation. Do not fall into doubt. I look to My church and I see doubt weaving it's way through many believers hearts and lives, and this grieves Me. For I am calling you My church to stand upon the Word in great ways, to believe what the Word says about you and your situations, and not to fall prey to the evil one.

My precious warriors, listen to Me, many of you are not seeing miracles because you do not believe. Many of you are remaining in the situations you are in because you have not spoken forth the Word of God into your situations.

I love each of you so very much, and I long to see you carry My passion for My Word, and to see My power released into the lives of many. My precious proclaimers of truth, listen to My voice. Listen to what I am saying. Many of you must come before Me and repent of your unbelieving hearts. Repent of your heart attitudes of not believing the power of My Word.

Many are stuck and not seeing My Spirit move because you are not preparing the way by your spoken words. You are not preparing the way for My Spirit to move through your declaration of My Word.

My Word is powerful, sharper than a double edged sword and will cut to the heart of many. My Word will not make you feel comfortable, but uncomfortable, to convict of sin, and to bring forth darkness into the light so it may be dispelled.
My Word never returns void. Think about it My precious warriors, if My Word does not return void, then will not the promises of My Word come to pass? Will you not see Me move in a huge way? And see the manifestation of promises in your lives?

My heart is to perform the miraculous in your lives. To transform, change and glorify My name to all the earth. I am longing to perform what is beyond your wildest dreams and thoughts in your lives, but believe. Believe that I am Almighty. Believe that I am powerful. Believe that what I have spoken WILL come to pass no matter what your circumstances or people around you tell you.

For I am the Lord your God. The Maker of heaven and earth and nothing happens without Me knowing about it. I have spoken to you today, to encourage you My precious carriers of My truth, that you are to rise up in your faith. Not by striving, not by your own strength, but by the power of My Spirit.

Come to Me, My precious followers and ask Me to increase your faith and take unbelief out of your hearts. Repent of this unbelief, and walk away from it. Bring it to Me, leave it with Me, and do not pick it up again. Do not. Leave it, and pick up the Sword. Pick up My truth.

I am longing to pour out My Spirit on this world in greater ways, but I am looking for the carriers. Those who will carry My Glory, and carry the deeper anointing I am longing to pour out. Those of you who will make room for more of My Word to fill you, and flow through you, you will see great things. I long for all to see great things, so come, come and let Me use you. Let Me burn out unbelief and power My Word through you to transform lives.

I long for the entire world, to be saved. I long for each and everyone to know Me, and I long to display My power, but do not allow unbelief to keep you from being part of what I am doing. Do not allow unbelief to keep you from the destiny, relationship with Me, and miracles I long to perform through you.

Don’t let unbelief stop you, but walk away from it. These are the last days, and I am longing to pour out My Spirit in Greater ways, do not miss out because of your unbelief. Come, be counted, and allow Me to flow through you.

My warriors, My church do not nurture those weeds of unbelief anymore. Cut them off.

Listen To My Signs In The Earth

LISTEN TO MY SIGNS IN THE EARTH
Precious ones, how much I have to share with you! Behold the seeds of My Word are liberally spread and heaped all over the earth for your pleasure. As the days move forward into maturity, I AM bringing forth My supernatural signs to confirm My Words to you. The signs may burst forth upon the scene and cause you great fear if you are not firmly planted in Me. Or they may appear naturally as they seemingly suspend before your very eyes. Fear not, beloved. Open your ears and listen, for I truly desire to speak to you through all of creation.

"I will explain mysteries hidden since the creation of the world. Jesus always used stories and illustrations like these when speaking to the crowds. In fact, he never spoke to them without using such parables. This fulfilled the prophecy that said, "I will speak to you in parables." (Matt 13:34-35 NLT)

Reaching You Any Way I Can

REACHING YOU ANY WAY I CAN
How I long to reach you with My loving confirmations! I will send them in sweet and simple ways, and you may miss them if you are not listening. Often I hide My confirmations in simplicity. If you are ensnared by the complexities in life, the simple gifts remain hidden.

I promised that if you seek Me, you shall find Me. If you are looking to hear from Me, if you are expecting Me to speak to you, your heart will leap and be quickened as you see Me in such simple ways, confirming your walk. Great is My love for you!

Matt 13:44 NLT
"The Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure that a man discovered hidden in a field. In his excitement, he hid it again and sold everything he owned to get enough money to buy the field — and to get the treasure, too!

When Angry Do Not Sin
Sandy Warner

WHEN ANGRY DO NOT SIN
Dear ones, offenses and stumbling stones come. And there are times when those same offenses repeat and repeat and repeat and repeat. There are times when those same offenses rise up with years of repetition, and even after death, they are repeated in the progeny of seeds sown. I hear your cries for help and I understand your sufferings and anger for I AM your Father of emotion.

I understand when anger simmers and escalates. I understand how you feel. I know the offenses that are repeating and ask that you release your anger to Me and ask My grace to help you forgive. Give no door for the devil's access. Anger if nurtured turns to sin. Anger, if yielded to the fruit of My Spirit, moves towards mercy and forgiveness. I understand how many times you have forgiven these same offenses. I suffer right along with you, each and every time. Come - let us extinguish the fire together and release mercy to the blind and stubborn. Dear one, you too need My mercy daily.

Ex 34:6-7 NKJV
And the LORD passed before him and proclaimed, "The LORD, the LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abounding in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children and the children's children to the third and the fourth generation."

Eph 4:26-27 AMP
When angry, do not sin; do not ever let your wrath (your exasperation, your fury or indignation) last until the sun goes down. Leave no [such] room or foothold for the devil [give no opportunity to him].

Listen To My Voice

Lonnie Mackley

(lonbretmac@yahoo.com)
My Child, do not believe the lies of the evil one. He has tried to tell you that you have made a grave mistake by allowing Me to take you into the wilderness. He has said that "You've wasted and ruined your life," that you are doomed, and that it is too late now to ever restore all that has been dismantled. He spoke these same words to My children in their tents in the wilderness long ago, and some of them wept in the night, and I listened to their cries. They believed these lies that demons magnified, and bitterly grumbled against Me.

I do not lead someone into the wilderness to die, but to live, and be prepared to do great things on the Earth for My purposes and glory. I transform you in the wilderness so that I can trust you with My power and resources, so that you can help others selflessly, and powerfully.

I am the God of restoration, and although in your mind, you have wondered how things could ever be restored after such apparent decimation, you will see that My restoration and blessings are supernatural, and will give you an end much greater than what you would have built on your own back in Egypt.

Take heart, and remember how I have kept you miraculously in this wilderness. I pulled you out of the world and fed you with My ravens and secret waters. You asked Me for faith, so I put you into a position where you could no longer meet your own needs in the natural, and you were forced to trust Me. You did not go hungry, and you did not end up homeless. I have cared for you.

Trust Me, that if I lead you into the wilderness that I have planned to lead you out. The time you spend in the wilderness is up to you. If you cooperate wholeheartedly with My Spirit, your time will be short. Do not let the lies of the evil one enter your heart. Listen only to My voice. Remember all the great things I have done for you in the past, and how I brought you up out of Egypt and out of it's bondage and turmoil.

You have entered My rest, so continue to walk in what I have taught you. Continue to trust Me, even though your circumstances seem to look like you are a failure. I shut down the outside, so that I can work on the inside. You needed to be as undistracted as possible, so that I could bring you through this time of transformation much more quickly.

I love you; My words always give you peace and hope. Any other word has not come from Me. You know My voice; listen to it, and keep your faith as I lead you into your new place of service and blessing.

Learning To Serve The House Of Saul
Rick Joyner

Rebellion is a Sin that Rarely Stands Alone
The "work of the flesh" that I would like to talk about noted in Galatians 5:20 is "sedition" (KJV). This word is also translated "rebellion" or "division." Its implication is more than just resisting authority, but also to incite others to rebel or turn against authority. This is, of course, what all rebellion eventually does.

Rebellion is a sin that rarely stands alone, but will cause others to stumble as well, just as Satan rebelled and a third of the angels fell with him. That is why this particular work of the fallen nature is so destructive as to repeatedly warrant the Lord's most severe response.
As we are told in I Corinthians 10, the things that Israel experienced in the wilderness "were written for our instruction, upon whom the ends of the ages have come" (I Corinthians 10:11, NASB). One of the most spectacular events of that journey was the result of Korah's rebellion, in which the very earth itself opened and swallowed all who had joined the rebellion.

That the Lord would take such a drastic measure with this rebellion was not just a reflection of His anger, but of the need for extreme measures in dealing with sedition, or it would have spread the destruction to many others.

Like all of these other works of the flesh, we usually do not have to look far to find examples of this in the church. A rebellious person will almost always seek to gain converts to their rebellion because the more people they have in agreement with their sin, the more they feel justified in it. However, sin is multiplied with every convert we make to it, and the ultimate end of the matter will be even more tragic for those who become seditious, or lead others to rebellion.

As we are told in I Corinthians 10, the things that were written in the Old Testament were "written for our instruction, upon whom the ends of the ages have come" (verse 11). To grasp just how much the Lord hates this particular sin, read Numbers 16. Below I have only pulled out some of the highlights of this chapter, but I encourage you to read it in its entirety:

> "Now Korah . . . rose up before Moses, together with some of the sons of Israel, two hundred and fifty leaders of the congregation, chosen in the assembly, men of renown.
> "And they assembled together against Moses and Aaron, and said to them, 'You have gone far enough, for all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the Lord is in their midst; so why do you exalt yourselves above the assembly of the Lord?'
> "When Moses heard this, he fell on his face; then Moses said to Korah, 'Hear now, you sons of Levi, is it not enough for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the rest of the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to Himself, to do the service of the tabernacle of the Lord, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them . . . '
> "Thus Korah assembled all the congregation against them at the doorway of the tent of meeting. And the glory of the Lord appeared to all the congregation.
> "Then the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, 'Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them instantly.'

> "But they fell on their faces, and said, 'O God, Thou God of the spirits of all flesh, when one man sins, wilt Thou be angry with the entire congregation?'
> "Then the Lord spoke to Moses, saying, 'Speak to the congregation, saying, "Get back from around the dwellings of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram."'
> "Then it came about as he finished speaking all these words, that the ground that was under them split open; and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, and their households, and all the men who belonged to Korah, with their possessions.
> "So they and all that belonged to them went down alive to Sheol; and the earth closed over them, and they perished from the midst of the assembly.
> "And all Israel who were around them fled at their outcry, for they said, 'The earth may swallow us up!'
> "Fire also came forth from the Lord and consumed the two hundred and fifty men who were offering the incense." Numbers 16:1-4, 8-9, 19-24, 31-35

The point of this chapter is that Korah did not just rebel himself, but incited a rebellion. We can also conclude that this is something the Lord really does not like, and that the consequences for those who do this, as well as those who follow those who do, will be terrible in the end.

"Learning to Serve the House of Saul -- And Loving It!"

It seems that if anyone in Scripture had a cause to rebel against authority it was David in relation to Saul. Saul had not only killed the priests of the Lord, but was unjustly trying to kill David. Yet, how did David respond to this? David could have killed Saul with the Lord's permission. The Lord had told him that He was going to deliver his enemy into his hand, and he could do to him whatever he wanted. Then the Lord did this, but David's heart smote him for just cutting of the hem of Saul's robe, because he had touched the Lord's anointed.

David could have killed Saul and become king right then, which was a fulfillment of a prophecy given to him. However, David would have likely died in the same way, because we do reap what we sow. By patiently waiting for the Lord to remove the one He had placed in authority, and waiting for the Lord to establish him, David established a throne which would last, which even Jesus is now seated upon.

David was willing to serve the house of Saul, and did, honoring Saul continually, even after Saul's death. He did this because of his respect for authority. Those who understand truth, integrity, and the ways of the Lord, will never try to gain influence or a position by sedition. Those who do are only sealing their own doom, and are sure to experience the same kind of rebellion against them. Just because there is unrighteous authority, it never justifies unrighteous rebellion to remove it.

Laundering And Cleaning Detail

Priscilla Van Sutphin

July 12th, 2005 2:24 am

As the Lord gave me this title…I had the impression of detail meaning the below term:

a : selection of a person or group for a particular task (as in military service)
b (1) : the person or group selected (2) : the task to be performed

Mal 3:1-4 AMP 1 BEHOLD, I send My messenger, and he shall prepare the way before Me. And the Lord [the Messiah], Whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple; the Messenger or Angel of the covenant, Whom you desire, behold, He shall come, says the Lord of hosts. [Matt 11:10; Luke 1:13-17,76.] 2 But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; [Rev 6:12-17.] 3 He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and He will purify the priests, the sons of Levi, and refine them like gold and silver, that they may offer to the Lord offerings in righteousness. 4 Then will the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasing to the Lord as in the days of old and as in ancient years 5 Then I will draw near to you for judgment; I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against the false swearers, and against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow and the fatherless, and who turn aside the temporary resident from his right and fear not Me, says the Lord of hosts. 6 For I am the Lord, I do not change; that is why you, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.

2 Chron 34:1-6 NKJV Josiah Reigns in Judah (2 Kings 22:1,2)

Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. 2 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of his father David; he did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. 3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the wooden images, the carved images, and the molded images. 4 They broke down the altars of the Baals in his presence, and the incense altars which were above them he cut down; and the wooden images, the carved images, and the molded images he broke in pieces, and made dust of them and scattered it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. 5 He also burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. 6 And so he did in the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, as far as Naphtali and all around, with axes.

2 Kings 9:5-10 NKJV And when he arrived, there were the captains of the army sitting; and he said, "I have a message for you, Commander." Jehu said, "For which one of us?" And he said, "For you, Commander." 6 Then he arose and went into the house. And he poured the oil on his head, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel. 7 You shall strike down the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel. 8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and I will cut off from Ahab all the males in Israel, both bond and free. 9 So I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah. 10 The dogs shall eat Jezebel on the plot of ground at Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her.'" And he opened the door and fled.

And I listened for what the Lord would say…..

“Behold the Judge stands at the door and knocks. I am calling to My judges.

I am soon calling forth the Deborah's, the Joshua's, the Jehu's, the Gideon's and the John the Baptist's, the Elijah's, and all whose roles will be to bring the word of the Lord to the people of MY HOUSE. When they bring it, it will come with a spirit of BURNING and CLEANSING FIRE. I will purge my threshing floors and remove all that cannot withstand the test.

Jer 23:29-30 AMP Is not My word like fire [that consumes all that cannot endure the test]? says the Lord, and like a hammer that breaks in pieces the rock [of most stubborn resistance]? 30 Therefore behold, I am against the [false] prophets, says the Lord, [I am even now descending upon them with punishment, these prophets] who steal My words from one another [imitating the phrases of the true prophets].

Surely you will know that the Lord of HOSTS is in your midst when I send them into the churches, into the highways and byways of this earth. For their visits will be followed by signs and wonders to affirm that they are from ME and to bring judgment to the house of the Lord, for the wickedness that is in My house. Judgment BEGINS in the house of the Lord, and so I have been urging you to repent and spend time with ME so that you may receive the GLORY I want to pour out. For when GLORY COMES it brings judgment as with Ananias and Sapphira! As with the high priest who stood before the ark of the LORD! I am the LORD and I CHANGE NOT! My kingdom will never end! My will - WILL be preeminent in the hearts of My true believers. There will be separation. For the enemy has been busy in MY vineyards – in MY gardens. He has been slithering too and fro, testing the hearts of men, and sowing tares. LIFT up your voices of PRAISE. LIFT UP the sacrifice of praise! I AM establishing the tabernacle of DAVID in your midst. THIS is the warfare for the times. THIS is MY leading, MY idea, and as you sow to the heavens I will sow to the earth and rain down the latter rain and it's harvest.

I will empower you for the roles I've assigned to you and all things will be made more clear. Do not despise the days of small beginnings, for greater things you will do as you show you are obedient in the daily mundane things.

But I desire hearts that are soft and moldable. I am removing all the hard places in your hearts that you will be more conformed to MY image. As you worship, I will pour out My presence that will cleanse and heal you that you may go forth and as laundry smells clean and fresh, you will have a smell that is not conformed to the world and it's entertainment, but conformed to MY image. Your presence will bring CONVICTION to the hearts of men, and demons will MANIFEST in your presence because of MY HOLINESS within your spirit.

I will bring FIRE and I will bring RAIN and men will no longer DISDAIN. From their hearts will come a REFRAIN of Praise and WORSHIP to MY NAME! I will take an AXE to the roots of INJUSTICE and INTOLERANCE in the land. I will make a great STAND! Truly the army at my hand will bring restoration and healing, and the revival flames will I FAN. AWAKENING is very near, and no longer will you hear, laughter and mocking without a shocking that will bring them to their knees and frighten the spirits of demons with one breathe of My breeze. WINDS are blowing and from the clouds there will be SNOWING and to MY children I will be SHOWING manifest love till they are GLOWING! Arrows I will be THROWING and to the weeds of this world will I be MOWING. Do NOT give up but STAND and MAKE, a brand of religion that will not SHAKE.

Intimacy with ME as you take up the sword and SHIELD. TO MY WILL My army will YIELD.

I am the VINE, you are the branches. Love beyond measure will be poured out in this HOUR. To My children I will give great POWER, to OVERCOME and to withstand the test. Stay at attention, as I prepare you for this QUEST. In silent repose, in quiet places, will I descend and renew your FACES. JOY will arise as to your homes I bring a great SURPRISE!

Abruption

Priscilla Van Sutphin

July 16th, 2005
www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

I had just heard from a young friend, disillusioned after a prophet who is divorce that she has known for years via internet, sent her a letter wanting to marry her, and expressing lewd and lustful comments. She was so hurt and appalled at his advances, she was very upset. You see her father had told her men would only ever want her for sex. So this played on a very hurtful thing in her emotions. As I read somewhere LOVE gives but LUST demands. I might add that lust kills.

Then I heard this word - Abruption: a sudden breaking off or away

My thoughts after hearing the Lord say this word went to a condition that sometimes is encountered in Obstetrics when the placenta tears away from the wall of uterus. It's called an abruptio placenta. It is often associated with smokers. Smoke replaces oxygen in your blood and the body developing inside you needs OXYGEN to grow and be nourished properly. And the uterus itself needs that well oxygenated blood to supply the baby with oxygen for life through the placenta. So in this condition the mother is at risk for bleeding, and the baby also for bleeding to death should a full abruption occur.

So I listened then for what the Lord wanted to say…and I was led to look at Jude…

Jude 16-24 AMP
16 These are inveterate murmurers (grumblers) who complain [of their lot in life], going after their own desires [controlled by their passions]; their talk is boastful and arrogant, [and they claim to] admire men's persons and pay people flattering compliments to gain advantage.
17 But you must remember, beloved, the predictions which were made by the apostles (the special messengers) of our Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed one). 18 They told you beforehand, In the last days (in the end time) there will be scoffers [who seek to gratify their own unholy desires], following after their own ungodly passions.
19 It is these who are [agitators] setting up distinctions and causing divisions--merely sensual [creatures, carnal, worldly-minded people], devoid of the [Holy] Spirit and destitute of any higher spiritual life.
20 But you, beloved, build yourselves up [founded] on your most holy faith
[make progress, rise like an edifice higher and higher], praying in the Holy Spirit;
21 Guard and keep yourselves in the love of God; expect and patiently wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah)--[which will bring you] unto life eternal. 22 And refute [so as to] convict some who dispute with you, and on some have mercy who waver and doubt. 23 [Strive to] save others, snatching [them] out of [the] fire; on others take pity [but] with fear, loathing even the garment spotted by the flesh and polluted by their sensuality. [Zech 3:2-4.]
24 Now to Him Who is able to keep you without stumbling or slipping or falling, and to present [you] unblemished (blameless and faultless) before the presence of His glory in triumphant joy and exultation [with unspeakable, ecstatic delight]--

“I am not blind to the many who think they are fooling ME, or who think I am impotent to do anything about their blasphemous ways. The enemy has sown his seeds, but My angels will separate the wheat from the tares. So keep your eyes on me, as so many seem to fall into sin and seductions of many sorts. Lawlessness is on the increase and it will continue to grow in those not surrendered to ME. I tell you that your hearts will grieve to see the things that go on in the world, in such a way that your tears will be abundant.

But keep YOUR EYES ON ME My beloveds! Do not look to the east or the west. Know that I LOVE YOU IMMENSELY, and my love for you never fails.
ASK FOR GRACE to endure these times, for I will pour it out on you. I am going to do many things that are not written in My book. Both Daniel and John had revelation that was sealed and they were not allowed to share.
I’ve told you that wicked men have their plans but I have some plans of My own! Discontentment is a great root of many sins and transgressions. Do not allow your heart to grow weary because I have delayed in coming to you.

Know that I will come, and all will be made NEW. I am doing a NEW THING in the earth. Your heart will rejoice, because the things you have longed to see ME do, I will do. Miracles will grow in abundance. Men’s hearts will be filled with fear, because they have abandoned any thoughts of ME. They will now think about the afterlife as I pour out judgment. Pray for your loved ones, for I am MOVING, and I am moving more quickly. Those things you thought would never come, are about to break through for you. Don’t give up now. Don’t give in to DEFEATISM or discouragement! I am with you. I will not leave you comfortless in the fray of events that proceed forth.
STAND in FAITH. Have confidence in My love for all who believe upon ME.

America, I am about to pour out My Spirit on your coastal areas in ways you have or could never imagine! Do not be afraid of the terror that stalks in the night time, nor the arrow that flies by day. I AM WITH YOU and I AM
WAY more powerful than even a nuclear bomb. I am way more powerful than the wealthy wicked men of this earth. I AM IN YOU, and you are IN ME. So anything you need is available through Me. ABIDE IN ME. ABIDE and do not grow weak in spiritual disciplines. Come aside with ME so that I can tell you all that you need to know. Stay rooted in the WORD. Pray unceasingly in the Spirit! Worship Me in the beauty of holiness. KEEP STEADFAST in seeking My face. I will suddenly come to My temples, and release My glory!

Love the brethren and demonstrate love to those who are downcast and broken hearted. I will heal My BODY! I will repair the breeches! Do not grow discouraged in well doing. PREPARE FOR WAR. Do not let down your guard, nor neglect prayerfulness. I am not a man that I should lie, nor a son of man that I should change My mind. Be willing to bear the REPROACH! You have not known oh western church the REPROACH in the way other nations have. Did you think you could remain LOVED in times of WAR and lawlessness? Some judgments I will retract if there is repentance that is sincere. Some I cannot delay any longer. YOU WILL LEARN to help each other and to love one another despite your faults and weaknesses. THE IDOLS WILL BE REMOVED that you may once again learn WHO is your Master and King. Your Redeemer draws near. Will you listen for the knock on your door?

Will you open for your Beloved? My bride does NOT realize the power of love. She does not realize the extent and length and breadth and width and depth of the love I have for her! But I will soon make it abundantly clear.
I am healing and no longer concealing My love and My plans. I will let you know what you need to know if you just take My hand. Walk with ME, and talk with Me. Ask ME questions and I will answer. Call to ME and I will reply.
To requests birthed by My Spirit, I will no longer deny. Come to My tent My beloveds. Come unto ME when you feel overwhelmed and burdened and I will give you rest for your souls. I know this is a difficult time, but if you will lean on ME, and not assume things, you will have the answers you need. Do not allow presumption to rob you of things you need to know, as in the days ahead, it may cost you your life! Keep close to ME and I will keep you as the apple of My eye.

I am loosing unction to pray and the spirit of travail on all who will accept it.
The youth will begin to move in greater power and realization of My presence. Pray for the YOUTH of the world. They are restless and need to know the power of My love. I will not disappoint them. I am going to pour out My Spirit and as I do, they will arise to their callings and revelation will be poured out in great measure that they will depend more on ME for all the answers they need. You will learn from them. Yes, I said, many of you will learn from them. Do not despise their prophetic gifting. I will confound the wisdom of the wise in their own opinion. Do not despise also the words of your children, and grandchildren. Many of them will see in the Spirit realm things YOU have longed to know. I will astound and confound the wisdom of men, in and outside of My pastures. I will SHAKE all that can be SHAKEN.

I have a plan for your life, for good, and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. So come to ME, and abide in My love, and all will be made more clear!
Many of you have been so pummeled by the church itself, that you have given up hope. Many have never received encouragement and love from brothers and sisters in the Lord in a way that tore down lies of the enemy. But NOW I WILL ARISE and do a NEW THING. You will rejoice and be overcome with joy as I do My marvelous deeds in your midst! Surprises are breaking forth! Know that in a flood of many waters, I AM ABLE to keep you! My prosperity is to have PEACE in the midst of chaos. My prosperity brings provision in the midst of lack and famine. My prosperity provides all you need in doing the work of My kingdom, despite what it looks like. GREAT FAITH AND GREAT GRACE will be given all who ask for it! “

Let's Ask God For The Rock

Will Ford

December 2, 2005

Much is being said regarding the basketball-sized piece of marble that fell at the Supreme Court. The Lord has given me insight that I feel He wants me to share related to this strange court happening, which I believe is related to our prayer assignment for the Supreme Court and the judicial system. I believe this was a very important day that marked a shift. The Lord began to speak to me about the Supreme Court in dreams this year, one of which is related to current circumstances.

THE HIGHEST COURT IN THE LAND
The dream came to me after feeling defeated about the Supreme Court's decision not to hear Roe v. Wade on February 22, 2005. This decision was by no means a final blow to the ending of abortion. Other cases are coming before the court, and this fight will not end over night. Nonetheless, that night I felt crushed and cried myself to sleep. But God brought encouragement to me through a "basketball court" dream.

I dreamed that I was playing basketball against the Supreme Court Justices, and babies and toddlers were my teammates. The Justices, in their black robes, were scoring repeatedly and wearing us out. I even felt weak and lethargic in the dream. Suddenly, I remembered who I was and that I played college basketball. I began to exert myself on the court.
One Justice, David Souter, tried to shoot a jump shot on the left side of the court, and I blocked his shot. Then, Sandra Day O'Conner got the ball, and as she was dribbling, I stole the ball from her, went to the other end of the court, and made a lay-up. The momentum began to shift in the game, and then the dream ended.

When I awoke, the Lord told me that the basketball court represented the highest court in the land, the Supreme Court, and the judicial system of America. He told me that it may not seem like it, but we are gaining strength in our fight. We must remember who we are and the power we have in fervent, effectual prayer. He said we must stay in the court battle in order for abortion to end in America. The Lord was saying to me, "The momentum is shifting, and they don't have the last shot!"

SHIFTING THE ATMOSPHERE OVER THE SUPREME COURT
Needless to say, I was encouraged and prayed over this dream for months. Unexpectedly (months later), Sandra Day O'Conner surprised everyone and decided to step down. I remembered dreaming about her and the other Justices and their positions on the left side of the court in the dream. While in prayer, the Lord said to me, "I'm taking the ball out of her hands, and if the Church will pray, I will raise up a Justice who will block the shots of those on the left side of the court."
This basketball court theme has been picked up through recent events. On Fox news, I happened to read a story about the "Basketball-sized piece of marble that fell" (the reporters words, not mine). I remembered that in basketball, one of the nicknames for the ball is "the rock."
I couldn't help thinking about the consistent siege of prayers that is shifting the atmosphere over the Supreme Court and about all of the basketball court dreams that Lou Engle, others, and I have had related to the Supreme Court. I thought I was making too much of it until I received a call from Jay Comiskey from CBN, who reminded me of my dream and felt the story was related to our prayers. Another confirmation for me was that the day this happened, Lou Engle and the Justice House of Prayer in Washington, D.C., who've been praying for the ending of abortion onsite at the Supreme Court for more than a year, were being interviewed by ABC Nightline. One intercessor told me that as they walked up to pray at the court yesterday, the Basketball-size piece of marble fell down! The news crew stayed with them in the House of Prayer and at the Supreme Court for several hours. You can watch the interview here: abcnews.go.com/Video/player

THE ROCK OF OUR SALVATION IS TAKING HIS PLACE IN OUR COURTS

I believe this whole thing is prophetic--falling from the façade (new face lift and the masks coming off the court by shaking), rupturing over the figure of Authority and Blind Lady Justice (whose name is Themus, with the scales of justice in her lap--representing authority figures coming down and God rocking the false ideologies that are influencing perverted justice), and breaking into 40 pieces (generational breakthrough).

At crucial times in a basketball game, key players take ownership of the opportunity at hand. In those moments, they don't say, "Pass the basketball, please?" No, they demand the ball and say, "Give me the rock!" I believe this is our cry, but we are calling for God. The Rock of our salvation, the rejected stone, is taking His place in our courts. Isaiah 33:22, which this nation's government was founded on, says, "The Lord is our Judge, the Lord is our Lawgiver, the Lord is our King; He will save us." He is calling our nation to look to Christ, the Rock, from whom this nation was hewn. In humility, we must fall on the Rock and be broken over our condition, or the Rock will fall on us, in crushing humiliation. Because of all of the prayers in the court battle for the next generation and our united cry of "Give us the Rock," God, the Rock, will answer with Himself.

LET'S ASK GOD FOR THE ROCK

I believe now is the time for another full-court press on the judicial system. We must provoke people to pray like never before for justice for the unborn! Listen: they don't have the last shot, but the praying church does! I love what another trusted prophetic brother says about this: "The old is falling down before His Authority as we 'strike the scales of justice' in prayer." Perhaps this is a small token and sign of what is transpiring in the spirit realm. The authority of Christ Jesus is rising over the Supreme Court. Everything will crash and fall in His presence!

Could this also be a warning to those who would attempt to stop the Lord's counsel and plans for the Supreme Court? I don't know, but it's time to humble ourselves and appeal to the court of Heaven, which is above every court.
I believe that the momentum is shifting. It's time to strike the scales of justice again in prayer. This stone broke into 40 pieces, which could also represent the ending of a wilderness period in the courts, according to Chuck Pierce. On November 30th (which happened to be my 40th birthday), there were two court cases related to abortion that went before the Supreme Court which were very key. It's the first time in about five years that the courts have heard cases related to abortion.

Starting tomorrow and the next 40 days, let's focus our prayers on the Supreme Court and pray for the cases tomorrow. Let's also pray for the confirmation of a justice who will block the shots of the left side of the court. Let's take it out of their hands through prayer and put it in the hands of the Lord. Let's ask God for the Rock!

Legalism And Religion

Terry Suggs

Being religious is just simply going through the motions to appease ourselves and God by keeping certain religious customs and following rituals. These are vain customs and rituals, but those that practice them are thinking that this will guarantee that they will go to heaven.

The divisions or denominations of the religious groups are teaching multitudes that the way of salvation is through following these rituals and laws that they believe will help them become accepted with God and their "church". The word church has been used to describe the a ceremonial ritual and of worship and method of serving God.

The Word Church is a body of believers. The word Christ means anointed one. The word Christian means the anointed ones. The only people that are the church are those that have accepted Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

Now Legalsim is man trying to become righteous by their own works. The ones that practice legalistic rules are headed to failure and great disappointment. The power of God is never experienced in its fullness. They are always failing and feeling terrible and guilty when they fail. When there is a mistake made, they are condemned by those in their circles. This gives a lot of control to the leader of the group.

Jesus came into the world not for the purpose of condemning the world, but to save the world. We have been taught to act out certain procedures and rituals to get back into right standing and right relationship with God.

We were never told that the Lord's very righteousness is our righteousness. He took our punishment. Jesus was made to be sin in our place. He became a curse. He descended into hell in our place.

We were all made righteous, made complete, in Him, when we believed on Him. The work of being righteous is completed already. There is an analogy about a judge that was hearing a case of a criminal. The criminal was telling the judge that he indeed do the crime and he pled guilty to the charges. He admitted that he was wrong in committing the crime.

The judged then said your confession has made you guilty as charged. The evidence that was presented is against you and proves your guilt.

Therefore your fine is $1,500,000.00. Pay it and you are free to go.

The criminal says I don't have the money.

The judge stood up and removed his robe and left the court and went to the clerk and paid the fine out of his account with a check. Then He went to the criminal and released him to his freedom. This is an analogy of what Christ did for us. Jesus has placed us into a position of rulership and authority.

He has said that we are in a position of unlimited resources. We live in the unlimited realm of the spirit of Christ.

We have power over all the power of satan. We have the power of the Holy Spirit. We have the authority that Jesus imputed to us.
Greater is He that is in us than He that is in the world.

We have everything that Jesus demonstrated in us. We have the same thing that Peter had when walked on the water. We have faith that is equal to the power of the one we are trusting in.

It is not about our righteousness. It all about the Lord Jesus Christ.

Now fight the good fight of faith. Keep on believing and advancing the kingdom of God. There are so many left in religion and just going to church on Sunday to go through the religious rituals.

There are so many left in the slavery of legalism and not operating in the ability and freedom of the Holy Spirit.

The Least Is Greater
Terry Suggs

Matthew 11:11

Truly I tell you, among those born of women there has not risen anyone greater than John the Baptist; yet he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

Speaking of those that are born of God and those that have received Jesus as Lord and savior of their lives.

Some of the great men born of women are: Moses, Elisha, Samson, Solomon, and David.

Exodus 14:13, 21-30(Moses)

Moses told the people, fear not; stand still (firm, confident, undismayed) and see the salvation of the Lord which He will work for you today. For the Egyptians you have seen today you shall never see again.

The Lord will fight for you, and you shall hold your peace and remain at rest

Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the Lord caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night and made the sea dry land; and the waters were divided. And the Israelites went into the midst of the sea on dry ground, the waters being a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

Exodus 19:18

Mount Sinai was wrapped in smoke, for the Lord descended upon it in fire; its smoke ascended like that of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly.

As the trumpet blast grew louder, Moses spoke and God answered him with a voice. The Lord came down upon mount Sinai to the top of the mountain, and the Lord called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

Exodus 24:9-18

Then Moses, Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up (the mountainside).

And they say the God of Israel (that is, a convincing manifestation of His presence), and under His feet it was like pavement of bright sapphire stone, like the very heavens in clearness.

And upon the Nobles of the Israelites He laid not His hand (to conceal Himself from them, to rebuke their daring or to harm them); but they saw (the manifestation of the presence of) God, and ate and drank.

And the Lord said to Moses, Come up to Me into the mountain and be there, and I will give you tables of stone, with the law and the commandments which I have written that you may teach them.

So Moses rose up with Joshua his attendant; and Moses went up into the mountain of God,

Then Moses went up into the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain.

The glory of the Lord rested on Mount Sinai, an the cloud covered it for six days. On the seventh day (God) called to Moses out of the Midst of the cloud.

And the glory of the Lord appeared to the Israelites like devouring fire on the top of the mountain.

Moses entered into the midst of the cloud and went up the mountain and Moses was on the mountain forty days and nights.

I Samuel 17:34-37 (David)

And David said to Saul, Your servant kept his father's sheep. And when there came a lion or again a bear and took a lamb out of the flock,

I went out after it and smote and delivered the lamb out of its mouth; and when it arose against me, I caught it by its beard and smote it and killed it.

Your servant killed both the lion and the bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be like one of them, (Goliath) for he has defied the armies of the living God!

David said, The Lord Who delivered me out of the paw of the lion and out of the paw of the bear, He will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine (Goliath). And Saul said to David, Go, and the Lord be with you!

I Samuel 17: 48-49

When the Philistine came forward to meet David, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine.

David put his hand into his bag and took out a stone and slung it, and it struck the Philistine, sinking into his forehead, and he fell oh his face to the earth.

Judges 15:14-16, 20 (Samson)

And when he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting to meet him. And the Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon (Samson), an the ropes on his arms became as flax that had caught fire, and his bonds melted off his hands.

And he found a still moist jawbone of a donkey an reached out and took it an slew 1,000 men!

And Samson judged (defended) Israel in the days of the philistines twenty years.

Judges 16:2-3

The Gazites were told, Samson has come here. So they surrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. They were quiet all night, saying, in the morning, when it is light, we will kill him.

But Samson lay until midnight, then he arose and took hold of the doors of the city's gate (approximately weighing 6 tons) and the two posts, pulling them up, bar and all, he put them on his shoulders and carried them to the top of the hill that is Hebron.

Judges 14:5-6

Then Samson and his father and mother went down to Timnah and came to the vineyards of Timnah. And behold a young lion roared against him.

And the Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon him, and he tore the lion as he would have torn a kid, and he had nothing in his hand; but he did not tell his father or mother what he had done.

I Kings 10:4-7,23

When the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomon's wisdom and skill, the house he had built, The food of his table, the seating of his officials, the standing at attention of his servants, their apparel, his cupbearers, his ascent by which he went up to the house of the Lord (or the burnt offerings he sacrificed), she was breathless and overcome.

She said to the king, It was a true report I heard in my own land of your acts and sayings and wisdom.

I did not believe it until I came and my eyes had seen. Behold the half was not told me. You have added wisdom and goodness exceeding the fame I heard.

Happy are your men! Happy are these your servants who stand continually before you, hearing your wisdom!

Blessed be the Lord your God, Who delighted in you and set you on the throne of Israel! Because the Lord loved Israel forever, He made you king to execute justice and righteousness.

So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom (skill).

II Kings 1:10, 13-14 (Elijah)

Elijah said to the captain of fifty, if I am a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty. And fire fell from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

Ahaziah sent again a captain of a third fifty with his fifty, And the third captain of fifty went up and fell on his knees before Elijah and besought him and said to him, O man of God, I pray you, let my life and the lives of these fifty, your servants, be precious in your sight.

Behold, fire came down from heaven and burned up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties. Therefore let my life now be precious in your sight.

II Kings 4:32-37 (Elisha)

When Elisha arrived in the house, the child was dead and laid upon his bed.

So he went in, shut the door on the two of them, and prayed to the Lord. He went up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands, and as he stretched himself oh him and embraced him, the child's flesh became warm.

Then he (Elisha) returned and walked in the house to and fro and went up again and stretched himself upon him. And the child sneezed seven times, and then opened his eyes.

There were others that were great men born of women that did great acts with and through the help of God. Such as; Daniel, The three Hebrews named Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

But of all men born of women, none were greater than John the Baptist.

But the Word of God said that the least in the kingdom of God is greater than John.

The least one such as the lazy, passive one or the one that doesn't know who he is, is still greater than John.

The children of the kingdom differs nothing from anyone else as long as he doesn't know who he is.

It is like a person that has inherited millions of dollars but is still living in a trailer park, working everyday doing work that they hate and surviving on sardines and crackers, because he doesn't know that he has inherited millions of dollars.

The kingdom of heaven is now at hand.

Matthew 14:25-29,31-33

And in the fourth watch (between 3:00-6:00 a.m.) of the night Jesus came to them, walking on the sea.

And when the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified and said, It is a ghost! And they screamed out with fright.

But instantly He spoke to them saying, Take courage! I Am! Stop being afraid! And Peter answered Him, Lord if it is You, command me to come to You on the water.

He said, Come! So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water, and he came toward Jesus.

Instantly Jesus reached out His hand and caught and held him, saying to him, O you of little faith, why did you doubt? And when they got in the boat, the wind ceased.

And those in the boat knelt and worshiped Him, saying, Truly You are the Son of God!

Jesus said something to Peter that lets us know that Peter could have continued doing everything that Jesus did, because Peter is a child of the kingdom.

Luke 9:52-56

And He sent messengers before Him; and they reached and entered a Samaritan village to make things ready for Him. But the people would not welcome or receive or accept Him, because His face was set as if He was going to Jerusalem. And when His disciples James and John observed this, they said, Lord, do you wish us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them, even as Elijah did?

The ability to call fire down from heaven was a benefit to the children of the kingdom.

But He turned and rebuked and severely censured them, he said, you do not know of what sort of spirit you are, For the Son of Man did not come to destroy men’s lives, but to save them (from the penalty of eternal death).

And they journeyed on to another village.

Luke 10:8-9

Whenever you go into a town and they receive and accept and welcome you, eat what is set before you; And heal the sick in it and say to them, The kingdom of God has come close to you.

Luke 10:16-19

He who hears and heeds you (disciples) hears and heeds Me;

And he who slights and rejects you sleights and rejects Me; and he who sleights and rejects Me slights and rejects Him Who sent Me.

The seventy returned with joy, saying, Lord even the demons are subject to us in Your Name (Authority)!

And He said to them, I saw satan falling like lightening (flash) from Heaven.

Behold! I have given you authority and power to trample upon serpents and scorpions, and (physical and mental strength and ability) over all the power that the enemy possesses; and nothing shall in any way harm you.

Ephesians 2:5-6

Even when we were dead (slain) by (our own) shortcomings and trespasses, He made us alive together in fellowship and in union with Christ; He gave us the very life of Christ Himself, the same new life with which He quickened Him, for it is by grace (His favor and mercy which you did not deserve) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ's salvation).

And He raised us up together with Him and made us sit down together (giving us joint seating with Him) in the heavenly sphere (by virtue of our being) in Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed One).

Ephesians 1:22-23

And He has put all things under His feet and has appointed Him the universal and supreme Head of the church (a headship exercised throughout the church), which is His body, the fullness of Him Who fills all in all (for in that body lives the full measure of Him Who makes everything complete, and Who fills everything everywhere with Himself.

I John 4:17

In this union and communion with Him love is brought to completion and attains perfection with us, that we may have confidence for the day of judgment with assurance and boldness to face Him, because as He Is, so are we in this world.

John 1:16-17

For out of His fullness (abundance) we have all received (all had a share and we were all supplied with) one grace after another and spiritual blessing upon spiritual blessing and even favor and gift heaped upon gift.

For while the Law was given through Moses, grace (unearned, undeserved favor and spiritual blessing and truth came through Jesus Christ.

Revelation 1:5-6

And from Jesus Christ the faithful and trustworthy Witness, the Firstborn of the dead (first to be brought back to life) and the Prince (Ruler) of the kings of the earth. To Him Who ever loves us and has once for all loosed and freed us from our sins by His Own Blood,

And formed us into a kingdom (a royal race), priests and kings to His God and Father-To Him be the glory and the power and the majesty and the dominion throughout the ages and forever and ever (Amen) (so be it).

I Corinthians 6: 17

He that is joined to the Lord is one Spirit with Him.

This gives us His attributes and abilities. This makes us the same as He is inside our spirit.

Galatians 3:26-27

For in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God through faith. For as many of you were baptized into Christ (into spiritual union and communion with Christ, The Anointed One, The Messiah have put on (clothed yourselves with) Christ.

There is now (no distinction) neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is not male and female; for you all are one in Christ Jesus.

Galatians 4:4-7, Romans 8:17-19

But when the proper time had fully come, God sent His Son, born of a woman, born subject to regulations of the Law, to purchase the freedom of (to ransom, to redeem, to atone for) those who were subject to the law, that we might be adopted and have sonship conferred upon us (and be recognized as God’s sons).

And because you really are His sons, God has sent the Holy Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying , Abba (Father)! Father!

We are heirs with Christ.

Acts 3:1-9

Peter and John used their son-ship rights and authority to heal a man crippled from birth.

John 11:41-44

Jesus demonstrated His authority and power to raise Lazarus from the dead after he was dead for 4 days.

Mark 4:37-40

And a furious storm of wind (of hurricane proportions) arose, and the waves kept beating into the boat, so that it was already becoming filled.

But He (Himself) was in the stern (of the boat), asleep on the (leather cushion; and they awoke Him and said to Him, Master, do You care that we are perishing? And He arose and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, hush now! Be still (muzzled)! And the wind ceased (sank to rest as if exhausted by its beating) and there was (immediately) a great calm (a perfect peacefulness).

He said to them, Why are you so timid and fearful? How is it you have no faith (no firmly relying trust)?

Jesus was saying that they did not use their own faith that was equal to His faith. Our faith is equal to the power of God to produce the desired result.

Jesus has given us the measure of faith. He has given us the power of attorney to act in His stead. He told the disciples to occupy until He comes.

The least in the kingdom of God in Christ Jesus is indeed greater that John the Baptist.

Our faith is superior to any disease, infirmity, demon, or any other situation or problem we face.

When we pray saying let thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; we are saying let the sick be made whole, let the poor be rich, let the heart-broken be healed, let the fearful be at peace, and let the weak be strong as it is in heaven, let the righteousness of God be established on earth, let the kingdom of God be established on earth, let God be sovereign on earth as it is in heaven, let darkness be dispelled, let satan be cast out as it was in heaven.

Let Thy Will Be Done On Earth As It Is In Heaven.

The words of Jesus were always words such as: Be of Good Cheer, Fear not, It Is I Am, Be Made Whole, Be Healed, Arise And Be Healed, Peace and Have Faith In God.

He raised the dead and forgave sins. He cast out devils. He went to those that were out in the byways and down and out. He fed the hungry. He cleansed the lepers. He made the sick whole. He healed memories of the past. He demonstrated the love of God in the purest way.

Before salvation, we were with out hope, powerless, fearful, uncertain about our future, broken-hearted, lost, without help.

The Lord is the same yesterday today and forever.

Jesus broke the ancient curse brought on by Adam.

When Eve was in the Garden of Eden, Satan came to her and told her that she was not complete, and that she was not what she was in God. He convinced her that she needed more from God than she already had.

Adam and Eve walked and talked with God everyday. He clothed them with glory. He was in constant contact with them. Adam was a mirror image of our Almighty God. But satan told them they were depraved and miserable.

But satan deceived them by the lies that he told.

And even now the bible declares that we are complete in Christ Jesus.

In Ephesians 1:22-23, it says that Jesus is the embodiment of the fullness of God. In the body is us, and we have the fullness of Jesus in us. When we walk, we walk in fullness. When we speak, we speak in fullness. When we pray, we pray in fullness.

John 1:17

Of His fullness, have we all received.

Romans 8:9,17

But you are not living the life of the flesh, you are living the life of the Spirit. We are joint heirs with Jesus.

Isaiah 62:1-4

For Zion’s sake will I not hold my peace and for Jerusalem’s sake, I will not rest until her imputed righteousness and vindication go forth as brightness, and her salvation radiates as does a burning torch.

And the nations shall see your righteousness and vindication (your rightness and justice-not your own, but ascribed to you), and all kings shall behold your salvation and glory; and you shall be called by a new name which the mouth of the Lord shall name.
You shall also be (so beautiful and prosperous as to be thought of as) a crown of glory and honor in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem (exceedingly beautiful) in the hand of your God.

You (Judah) shall no more be termed Forsaken, nor shall your land be called Desolate any more. But you shall be called Hephzibah (My Delight is in her), and your land be called Beulah (Married): For the Lord delights in you, and your land shall be married (owned and protected by the Lord).

The least in the kingdom of God is greater than John the Baptist.

Matthew 17:20

He said to them, Because of the littleness of your faith—that is, your lack of firmly relying trust. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith (that is living) like a grain of mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, Move from here to yonder place, and it will move, and nothing will be impossible to you.

Luke 17:6

And the Lord answered, if you had faith (trust and confidence in God) even as a grain of mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, Be pulled up by the roots, and be planted in the sea, and it would obey you.

Mark 11:23-24

Truly I tell you, whoever says to this mountain, be lifted up and thrown into the sea! And does not doubt at all in his heart, but believes that what he says will take place, it will be done for him.

For this reason I Am telling you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe –trust and be confident-that it is granted to you, and you will get it.

This message is to those that don't know who you are. And this message is to this nation.

God says it is time for fullness to manifest.

There was an observation made from a man of God about how satan can see in the spirit realm a lot clearer than we can. This may give him an advantage over us. But the Holy Spirit lives in us and we are superior to satan now. He can only deceive us. We are the Heirs of God and Joint-Heirs of God with Christ.

The leading of the Holy Spirit is what makes us the victors in every situation. The revelation of the Word of God and the power of God in us gives us the victory over satan.

A short note about the new European common Market nations constitution. They are starting to look more like the One World government system talked about in the book of Daniel and Revelation, And what I believe will be the last world government to be ruled by satan during the tribulation period for 7 years. Be mindful of the laws that are being passed to take the crosses down and the ten commandments out of public places.

When this world was destroyed by God, one of the things that was said about the people was that they would not retain God in their knowledge.

In My Image and Likeness
Terry Suggs

What is man that God is so thoughtful of him? Why did God place such a high value on a man's life? Why is man so important? Why was God so concerned about man that He (Jesus, God's Son) got into a body, lived as a man, reconciled and restored man back to Himself?

Why did Jesus allow Himself to be beaten, mocked, humiliated, His bearded pulled out and then crucified? We know that He did this because He loved us, but there were other reasons as well. He wanted man restored to his original position that he had before Adam lost it.

Jesus is the value of man, for it cost His life to redeem mankind. It cost the life of God the Son.

It pleased the Father to bruise His Son.

Adam did not have a natural father. Jesus did not have a natural father. They were both born of God. They had God's characteristics and nature. Adam was created. Jesus was the only begotten Son.

Psalm 8:4-6

What is man that you are mindful of him and the son of man that you care for him?

Yet you have made him a little lower than Elohim and you have crowned him with glory and honor.

You made him to have dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under his feet.

Gen 1:26

God said, let us (Father, Son, and Holy Ghost) make mankind in Our image, after Our likeness (Express image, mirror image), and let them have complete authority over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the tame beasts and over all the earth. So, God created man in His Own image, and in the image and likeness of God He created him.

Then Lord God formed man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath or spirit of life, and man became a living being (another speaking spirit).

He was first created by God then his body was formed and what God created was put into the body.

Genesis 3:8-10

God loves to fellowship with man.

Luke 3:23-38

Man is the offspring of God.

I Cor. 6:17

But the person who is united to the Lord becomes one spirit with Him. Paul the Apostle was inspired by the Holy Ghost when he said that without Christ I can do nothing.

I Cor. 3:16-17

Do you not discern and understand that you (the whole church at Corinth) are God’s temple (His sanctuary), and that God’s Spirit has His permanent dwelling in you (to be at home in you, collectively as a church also individually?

If anyone does hurt to God’s temple or corrupts it (with false doctrines) or destroys it, God will do hurt to him and bring him to the corruption of death and destroy him. For the temple of God is holy (sacred to Him) and that temple you (the believing church and its individual believers) are.

As He is so are we in this world.

Acts 17:28-29

For in Him we live move and have our being, as even some of your own poets have said, for we are also His offspring.

Since then we are God’s offspring, we ought not to suppose that Deity (the Godhead) is like gold or silver or stone, (or the nature of) a representation by human art and imagination, or anything constructed or invented.

Man is much more than a physical being.

Man is an eternal creature.

Hebrews 2:6-11

It has been solemnly and earnestly said in a certain place, what is man that you are mindful of him or the son of man that you graciously and helpfully care for and visit and look after him?

For some little time You have ranked him lower than Elohim. You have crowned him with glory and honor and set him over the works of your hands.

For you have put everything in subjection under his feet. Now in putting everything in subjection to man, He left nothing outside of Man’s control.

But at present we don’t yet see all things subjected to him (man).

But we are able to see Jesus Who was ranked a little lower than Elohim for a little while, crowned with glory and honor because of His having suffered death in order that by the grace (unmerited favor) of God (to us sinners) He might experience death for every individual person.

For it was an act worthy of God and fitting to the divine nature that He, for Whose sake and by Whom all things have their existence, in bringing many sons into glory, should make the Pioneer of their salvation perfect (should bring to maturity the human experience necessary to be perfectly equipped for His office as High Priest through suffering.

For both He Who sanctifies (making men holy) and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason He is not ashamed to call them brethren. For He says I will declare Your (the Father’s) name to My brethren, in the midst of the worshiping congregation I will sing hymns of praise to you.

James 1:18

And it was of His Own free will that He gave us birth as sons by His Word of Truth, so that we should be a kind of first fruits of His creatures (a sample of what He created to be consecrated to Himself).

Romans 8:29-30

For those whom He foreknew (of Whom He was aware and loved beforehand, He also destined from the beginning foreordaining them) to be molded into the image of His Son, and share inwardly His likeness, that He might become the Firstborn of many brethren.

And those whom He thus foreordained , He also called, and those whom He called, He also justified, (acquitted, made righteous, putting them into rightstanding with Himself).

And those whom He justified, He also glorified, raising them to a heavenly dignity and condition and condition or state of being.

John 3:17-18

For God did not send the Son into the world to judge (to reject, to condemn, to pass sentence on) the world, but the world might find salvation and be made safe and sound through Him.

He Who believes in Him (who clings to, relies on Him) is not judged (he who trusts in Him never comes up for judgment; for him there is no rejection, no condemnation – he incurs no damnation); but he who does not believe (cleave to rely on, trusts in Him) is judged already (he has already been convicted and has already received his sentence) because he has not believed in and trusted in the name of the only begotten Son of God. (He is condemned for refusing to let his trust rest in Christ’s name).

Psalm 82:1-7

Man has a position as representatives of God, and a position of children of God.

God stands in the assembly (of the representatives) of God; in the midst of the magistrates or judges He gives judgment (as) among gods.

How long will you (magistrates or judges) judge unjustly and show partiality to the wicked?

Do justice to the weak (poor) and fatherless; maintain the rights of the afflicted and needy.

Deliver the poor and needy; rescue them out of the hand of the wicked.

(The magistrates and judges) know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in the darkness (of complacent satisfaction); all the foundations of the earth (the fundamental principles upon which rests the administration of justice) are shaking.

I said, you are gods (since you judge on My behalf, as My representatives); indeed, all of you are children of the Most High.

But you shall die as men and fall as one of the princes.

I Cor. 6:2-3

Do you not know that the saints (the believers will judge and govern the world? And if the world itself is to be judged and ruled by you, are you unworthy and incompetent to try (such petty matters) of the smallest courts of justice?

Do you know also that we (Christians) are to judge the very angels and pronounce opinion between right and wrong (for them)? How much more then (as to) matters pertaining to this world and of this life only!

John 5:26-27

For even as the Father has life in Himself and is self existent, so He has given to the Son to have life in Himself and be self existent.

And He has given Him authority and granted Him power to execute (exercise, practice) judgment because He is a Son of Man (very man).

Jesus as the son of man had dominion over everything in this world.

Psalm 115:15

The earth has He given to the children of men.

John 14:12

Jesus said, I assure you most solemnly I tell you, if anyone steadfastly believes in Me, He will himself be able to do the things that I do, and he will do even greater things than these, because I go to the Father.

A man in God’s image and likeness was to rule over the creation of God.

God’s first man failed to keep his position.

God’s second man Jesus restored man to headship.

Adam had dominion and authority over all the earth.

Jesus the last Adam has authority over heaven and earth.

Adam did not have a natural father.

Jesus did not have a natural father.

John 3:35

The Father loves the Son and has given (entrusted, committed) everything into His hand.

Jesus was called the last Adam. Adam operated on earth the same way that Jesus operated on earth.

I Tim. 1:9-10

Knowing and understanding this: that the Law is not enacted for the righteous those who are already made right through accepting Christ, (the upright and just, who are in right standing with God), but for the lawless and unruly, for the ungodly and sinful, for the irreverent and profane, for those who strike and beat and even murder fathers and strike and beat and even murder mothers, for manslayers.

For impure and immoral persons, those who abuse themselves with men, kidnapers, liars, perjurers and whatever else is opposed to wholesome teaching and sound doctrine.

Hebrews 1:2-3

But in these last days, He has spoken to us in the person of His Son, Whom He appointed Heir and lawful Owner of all things, also by and through Whom He created the worlds and reaches of space and the ages of time He made, produced, built, operated and arranged them in order.

Jesus Is the sole expression of the glory of God (the Light Being, the out raying radiance of the divine and He is the perfect imprint and very image of God’s nature, Upholding and maintaining and guiding and propelling the universe by His mighty Word of power. When He had by offering Himself accomplished our cleansing of sins and riddance of guilt, He sat down at the right hand of the Divine Majesty on high.

II Cor. 5:17

Therefore if any person is ingrafted in Christ (the Messiah) he is a new creation (a new creation altogether), the old (previous moral and spiritual condition) has passed away. Behold the fresh and new has come!

II Cor. 6:18

And I will be a Father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.

I Cor. 3:21-23

So let no one exult proudly concerning men (boasting of having this or that man as a leader), for all things are yours.

Whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas, or the universe or life or death, or the immediate and threatening present or the subsequent and uncertain future, all are yours, and you are Christ’s and Christ is God’s.

II Cor. 19

It was God personally present in Christ, reconciling and restoring the world to favor with Himself, not counting up and holding against men their trespasses (but canceling them) and committing them to us the message of reconciliation (of the restoration to favor).

II Peter 1:3-4

For His divine power has bestowed upon us all things that are requisite and suited to life and godliness, through the full personal knowledge of Him Who called us by and to His Own glory and excellence (virtue).

Now our minds have to catch up to where God has placed us.

I Cor. 2:16

For who has known or understood the mind (the counsels and purposes) of the Lord so as to guide an instruct Him and give Him knowledge? But we have the mind of Christ (the Messiah) and do hold the thoughts (feelings and purposes) of His heart.

Philippians 2:5,13

Let this same attitude and purpose and humble mind be in you which was in Christ Jesus.

Who, although being essentially one with God and in the form of God (possessing the fullness of the attributes which make God, God, did not think this equality with God was a thing to be eagerly grasped or retained.

For it is God Who is all the while effectually at work in you energizing and creating in you the power and desire, both to will and to work for His good pleasure and satisfaction and delight.

Ephesians 4:18-25

Their moral understanding is darkened and their reasoning is beclouded. They are alienated, estranged, and self banished from the life of God with no share in it; this is because of the ignorance, the want of knowledge and perception, the willful blindness that is deep-seated in them, due to their hardness of heart (to the insensitiveness of their moral nature).

In their spiritual apathy they have become callous and past feeling and reckless and have abandoned themselves (a prey) to unbridled sensuality, eager and greedy to indulge in every form of impurity (that their depraved desires may suggest and demand.

But you did not so learn Christ!

Assuming that you have really heard Him and been taught by Him, as all Truth is in Jesus (embodied and personified in Him).

Strip yourselves of your former nature (put off and discard your old unrenewed self), which characterized your previous manner of life and becomes corrupt through lusts and desires that spring from delusion;

And be constantly renewed in the spirit of your mind (having a fresh mental and spiritual attitude. And put on the new nature (the regenerate self) created in God’s image, (Godlike) in true righteousness and holiness.

Therefore, rejecting all falsity and being done now with it, let everyone express the truth with his neighbor, for we are all parts of one body and members one of another.

Ephesians 2:5-6

And He raised us up together with Him and made us sit down together (giving us joint seating with Him) in the heavenly sphere (by virtue of our being) in Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed One).

Even when we were dead slain by our own shortcomings and trespasses, He made us alive together in fellowship and in union with Christ; He gave us the very life of Christ Himself, the same new life with which He quickened Him, for it is by grace (His favor and mercy which you did not deserve) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ’s salvation.

Romans 8:17

And if we are His children, then we are His heirs also; heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ sharing His inheritance with Him.

Only we must share His suffering if we are to share His glory.

John 15:19

You are not of this world but only in it, no longer one with it.

John 1:12,16

But to as many as did receive and welcome Him, He gave the authority (power, privilege, right) to become the children of God, that is, to those who believe in adhere to, trust in and rely on) his name.

For out of His fullness (abundance), we have all received (all had a share and we were all supplied with) one grace after another and spiritual blessing upon spiritual blessing even favor upon favor and gift heaped upon gift.

I Cor. 1:8-9

And He will establish you to the end (keep you steadfast, give you strength, and guarantee you vindication; He will be your warrant against all accusation or indictment so that you will be) guiltless and irreproachable in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah).

God is Faithful (reliable, trustworthy, and therefore ever true to His promise, and He can be depended on); by him you were called into companionship and participation with His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

I Peter 1:23

You have been regenerated (born again), not from a mortal origin (seed, sperm), but from one that is immortal by the ever living and lasting Word of God.

God seed or the Word of God is the incorruptible and indestructible seed. A seed will produce fruit of the kind of seed that it is.

We were born of the incorruptible, indestructible seed of God. It will produce sons and daughters of God. The incorruptible seed produces incorruptible fruit.

Ephesians 1:22-23

And He has put all things under His feet and has appointed Him the universal and supreme Head of the church, Which is His body, the fullness of Him Who fills all in all (for in that body lives the full measure of Him who makes everything complete, and Who fills everything everywhere with Himself).

Ephesians 2:18,22

For it is through Him that we both (whether far off or near) now have an introduction (access) by one Holy Spirit to the Father (so that we are able to approach Him).

In Him and in fellowship with one another you yourselves also are being built up into this structure with the rest, to form a fixed abode, dwelling place of God in (by, through) the Spirit.

Ephesians 3:19

That you may really come to know practically, through experience for yourselves the love of Christ, which far surpasses mere knowledge without experience; that you may be filled through all your being unto all the fullness of God, may have the richest measure of the divine Presence, and become a body wholly filled and flooded with God Himself!

Religious traditions make the Word of God ineffective. No one can keep the law. But there are some still teaching a legalistic doctrine, because it lets them manipulate and intimidate their listeners. The law was given to show us that no one could possibly keep the law of God. Jesus is the One and only One that could fulfill the requirements of God’s law. He lived a perfect and sinless life.

He bestowed His righteousness upon us. He imputed His righteousness to us, It means there was a heavenly transaction when pour out His blood on the mercy seat, and cleansed the books and the sins of every man.

He obliterated our sins. He took them away forever.

Calvary covers every sin ever committed except blasphemy.

Ephesians 4: 12-13

His intension was the perfecting and the full equipping of the saints (His consecrated people), that they should do, the work of ministering toward building up Christ’s body (the church),

That it might develop, until we all attain oneness in the faith and in the comprehension of the full and accurate knowledge of the Son of God, that we might arrive at really mature manhood (the completeness of perfection), the completeness of personality which is nothing less than the standard height of Christ’s Own perfection, the measure of the stature of the fullness of the Christ and the completeness found in Him.

Remember "as He Is, so are we in this world".

We are born of the word of God. We are quickened by the Holy Spirit. We have the fullness of God inside our new spirit. The faith that we use is as powerful as the One we have faith in. The faith that we use is greater than any sickness or disease or situation or enemy.

Trapped In Love and Mercy Acts 13:39,41

So let it be clearly known and understood by you, brethren, that through this Man forgiveness and removal of sins is now proclaimed to you; And that through Him everyone who believes (who acknowledges Jesus as his Savior and devotes himself to Him) is absolved (cleared and freed) from every charge from which he could not be justified and freed by the Law of Moses and given right standing with God. You won’t believe it even when it is clearly told to you in fine details. John 1:9-14

God condemned sin in the flesh of Jesus. It is not our body that has to fulfill the Law of God to be saved, because Jesus has already fulfilled the Law of God.

He sent His Word and healed them. Jesus was the Word made flesh. By His stripes we were healed.

Acts 17:24-29

The God who produced and formed the world and all things in it being Lord of Heaven and earth, does not dwell in handmade shrines.

Neither is He served by human hands, as though He lacked anything, for it is He Himself Who gives life and breath and all things to all people.

And He made from one (common origin, one source, one blood) all nations of men to settle on the face of the earth, having definitely determined (their) allotted periods of time and the fixed boundaries of their habitation (their settlements, lands, and abodes).

So that they should seek God, in the hope that they might feel after Him and find Him, although He is not far from each one of us.

For in Him we live and move and have our being; as even some of your (own) poets have said, For we are also His offspring.

Since then we are God’s offspring, we ought not to suppose that deity (the God-Head) is like gold or silver or stone, (of the nature of) a representation by human art and imagination, or anything constructed or invented.

Genesis 1:2627

God created man as a mirror image and likeness of Himself.

God said, Let Us (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit) make mankind in Our image, and after Our likeness, and let them have complete authority over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the (tame) beasts, and over all of the earth, and over everything that creeps upon the earth.

So God created man in His Own image, in the image and likeness of God He created him; male and female He created them.

And God blessed them and said to them, be fruitful, multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it (using all its vast resources in the service of God and man); and have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, and over every living creature that moves upon the earth.

Adam did not have a natural Father.

John 1:12-14,17

But to as many as did receive and welcome Him, He gave authority (power, privilege, right) to become the children of god, that is, to those who believe in adhere to trust in, and rely on) His name.

Who owe their birth neither to bloods nor of the will of the flesh (that of physical impulse) nor to the will of man (that of a natural), but to God. (They are born of God).

And the Word (Christ) became flesh (human, incarnate) and tabernacled (fixed His tent of flesh, lived awhile) among us; and we (actually) saw His glory as an only begotten son receives from His father, full of grace (favor, loving-kindness) and truth.

John testified about Him and cried out, This was He of Whom I said, He Who comes after me has priority over me, for He was before me.

(He takes rank above me, for He existed before I did. He has advanced before me, because He is My chief).

For out of His fullness (abundance) we have all received (all had a share and we were all supplied with) one grace after another and spiritual blessing upon spiritual blessing and even favor upon favor and gift (heaped) upon gift.

For while the Law was given through Moses, grace (unearned, unmerited, undeserved favor and spiritual blessing) and truth came through Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 1:11-22

In Him we also were made (God's) Heritage (portion) and we obtained an inheritance; for we had been foreordained (chosen and appointed beforehand) in accordance with His purpose, Whop works out everything in agreement with the counsel and design of His Own will.

So that we who first hoped in Christ (who first put our confidence in Him have been destined and appointed to) live for the praise of His glory!

In Him you also who have heard the Word of Truth, the glad tidings (Gospel) of your salvation, and have believed in and adhered to and relied on Him, were stamped with the seal of the long promised Holy Spirit.

That Spirit is the guarantee of our inheritance (the first fruits, the pledge and foretaste, the down payment on our heritage, in anticipation of its full redemption and our acquiring (complete) possession of it to the praise of His glory,

For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward the saints (the people of God),

I do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers.

For I always pray to the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, that He may grant you a spirit of wisdom and revelation (of insight into the mysteries and secrets) in the deep and intimate knowledge of Him,

By having the eyes of your heart flooded with light, so that you can know and understand the hope to which He has called you, and how rich is His glorious inheritance in the saints (His set-apart ones),

And so that you can know and understand what is the immeasurable and unlimited and surpassing greatness of His power in and for us who believe, as demonstrated in the working of His mighty strength,

Which He exerted in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His Own right hand in the heavenly places,

Far above all rule and authority and authority and power and dominion and every name that is named (above every title that can be conferred), not only in this age and in this world, but also in the age and the world which are to come.

And He has put all things under His feet and has appointed Him the universal and supreme Head of the church (a headship exercised throughout the church),

Which is His body, the fullness of Him Who fills all in all (for in that body lives the full measure of Him Who makes everything complete, and Who fills everything everywhere with Himself.

Ephesians 2:4-12

But God-so rich is He in His mercy! Because of and in order to satisfy the great and wonderful and intense love with which He loved us,

Even when we were dead (slain) by our own shortcomings and trespasses, He made us alive together in fellowship and in union with Christ Himself, the same new life with which He quickened Him, for it is by grace (His favor and mercy which you did not deserve) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ's salvation),

And He raised us up together with Him and made us sit down together (giving us joint seating with Him) in the heavenly sphere (by virtue of our being) in Christ Jesus (the messiah, the Anointed One).

He did this that He might clearly demonstrate through the ages to come the immeasurable (limitless, surpassing) riches of His free grace (His unmerited favor) in (His) kindness and goodness of heart toward us in Christ Jesus.

For it is by free grace (God's unmerited favor) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ's salvation, is not of yourselves (of your own doing, it came not through your own striving , but it is the gift of God;

Not because of works (not the fulfillment of the Law's demands), lest any man should boast. (It is not the result of what anyone can possibly do, so no one can pride himself in it or take glory to himself).

For we are God's Own handiwork (His workmanship), recreated in Christ Jesus, (born anew) that we may do those good works which God predestined (planned beforehand) for us (taking paths which He prepared ahead of time), that we should walk in them (living the good life which He prearranged and made ready for us to live).

Ephesians 3:4-6

When you read this you can understand my insight into the mystery of Christ.

This mystery was never disclosed to human beings in past generations as it has now been revealed to His Holy apostles (consecrated messengers) and prophets by the Holy Spirit.

Everything that comes from the Holy Spirit is perfect and complete and whole and in fullness. This seals of lives in Christ.

It is this that the Gentiles are now to be fellow heirs with the Jews, members of the same body and joint partakers (sharing) in the same divine promise in Christ through (their acceptance of) the glad tidings (the Gospel).

God chose the color of our suits or our skin and the places where we live.

Sealed In Him

John 1:3-4

All things were made and came into existence through Him; and without Him was not even one thing made that has come into being.

In Him was Life, and the Life was the Light of men.

II Corinthians 1:20

For as many as are the promises of God, they all find their Yes (answer) in Him (Christ). For this reason we also utter the Amen (so be it) to God through Him (in His Person and by His agency) to the glory of God

But it is God Who confirms and makes us steadfast and establishes us (in joint fellowship) with you in Christ, and has consecrated and anointed us (enduing us with the gifts of the Holy Spirit);

He has also appropriate and acknowledged us as His by putting His seal upon us and giving us His Holy Spirit in our hearts as the security deposit and guarantee (of the fulfillment of His promise).

I Corinthians 6:17, 18-19

But the person who is united to the Lord becomes one spirit with Him.

Do you not know that your body is the temple (the very sanctuary) of the Holy Spirit Who lives within you, Whom you have received

(as a Gift) from God? You are not your own.

You were bought with a price purchased with a preciousness and paid for, made His Own. So then, honor God and bring glory to Him in your body.

All In One (Jesus) were made righteous

II Corinthians 5:21

For our sake He made Christ (virtually) to be sin Who knew no sin, so that in and through Him we might become (endued with, viewed as being in, and examples of) the righteousness of God (what we ought to be, approved and acceptable and in right relationship with Him, by His goodness.

Ephesians 1:4-5, 10-11

Even as (in His love) He chose us (actually picked us out for Himself as His Own) in Christ before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy (consecrated and set apart for Him) and blameless in His sight, even above reproach, before Him in love.

For He foreordained us (destined us, planned in love for us) to be adopted (revealed) as His Own children through Jesus Christ, in accordance with the purpose of His will (because it pleased Him and was His kind intent.

He planned for the maturity of the times and the climax of the ages to unify all things and head them up and consummate them in Christ, (both) things in heaven and things on the earth.

In Him we also were made (God's) Heritage (portion) and we obtained an inheritance; for we had been foreordained (chosen and appointed beforehand) in accordance with His purpose, Who works out everything in agreement with the counsel and design of His Own will..

Colossians 2:9-10

For in Him the whole fullness of Deity (the God-Head) continues to dwell in bodily form (giving complete expression of the divine nature).

And you are in Him, made full and having come to fullness of life (in Christ you too are filled with the God-Head-Father, Son and Holy Spirit-and reach full spiritual stature). And He is the Head of all rule and authority (of every angelic principality and power).

I Corinthians 12:27

Now you (collectively) are Christ's body and individually you are members of it, each part severally and distinct (each with his own place and function).

Philippians 3:8-9

Yes furthermore, I count everything as loss compared to the possession of the priceless privilege (the overwhelming preciousness, the surpassing worth, and supreme advantage) of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord and of progressively becoming more deeply an intimately acquainted with Him (of perceiving and recognizing and understanding Him more fully and clearly). For His sake I have lost everything and consider it all to be mere rubbish (refuse, dregs), in order that I may win (gain) Christ (the Anointed One).

And that I may (actually) be found and known as in Him, not having any (self-achieved) righteousness that can be called my own, based on my obedience to the Law's demands (ritualistic uprightness and supposed right standing with God thus acquired), but possessing that genuine righteousness which comes through faith in Christ (the Anointed one), the truly right standing with God which comes from God by saving faith.

I John 5:20

And we have seen and know positively that the Son of God has actually come to this world and has given us understanding and insight progressively to perceive recognize and come to know better and more clearly Him Who is true and we are in Him Who is true- in His Son Jesus Christ (the Messiah), This Man is the true God and Life eternal.

I Corinthians 1:30

But it is from Him that you have your life in Christ Jesus,

Whom God made our Wisdom from God, (revealed to us a knowledge of the divine plan of salvation previously hidden, manifesting itself as) our Righteousness (thus making us upright and putting us in right standing with God), and our Consecration (making us pure and holy), and our Redemption (providing our ransom from eternal penalty for sin).

Colossians 3:3-4

For as far as this world is concerned, you have died, and your new real life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, Who is our life will appear with Him in the splendor of His glory.

I Corinthians 3:16

Do you not discern and understand that you (the whole church at Corinth are God’s temple (His sanctuary), and that God’s Spirit has His permanent dwelling in you (to be at home in you, collectively as a church also individually)?

The Word of God in the new testament mentions that we are In Him over 380 times.

If we can understand that we are already completely accepted in Christ and favored in Christ, then we will lose our sense of inferiority and weakness.

Now the Word of God says that to Whom you yield your body to obey, that is whose servant you will be. But remember, greater is He that is in you than He that is in the world.

Remember that you were purchased by God and you are not your own any longer. You are God’s property.

Romans 12:1

Present your bodies to God which is your reasonable service.

All that is in the world is the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes and the pride of life.

Satan cannot tempt you with what is already yours.

I Corinthians 3:22-23

All things are yours.

And you are Christ’s and Christ is God’s.

I Corinthians 3:1-3

Do not think as unspiritual men having the nature of the flesh, under control of ordinary impulses. Do not behave as unchanged men.

The Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus has set me free from the Law of sin and death.

I am sealed in favor forever. I am sealed in completeness, wholeness and fullness in Jesus Christ.

He whom the Son sets free is free indeed.

I am free from trying to be justified by my own actions and free from trying to get into favor by my good performance or good behavior.

I am accepted in the Beloved in Christ alone.

We are God’s temple through Christ Jesus.

Our victory is sealed by the finished work of Christ.

Our healing is sealed by the finished work of Christ.

Our blessings and gifts are sealed by the finished work of Christ.

Now let us renew our minds to match our position.

Philemon 6

And I pray that the participation in and sharing of you faith may produce and promote full recognition and appreciation and understanding and precise knowledge of every good thing that is ours in our identification with Christ Jesus and unto His glory.

Speak in faith like Jesus spoke and get the results that Jesus got.

THE LATTER RAIN

Mary Lee Somers

A Song, also available in midi format and Rhapsody Format

The Latter Rain: Midi The Latter Rain: Rhapsody

SOFT AND GENTLE AT THE ONSET
NOW AND THEN, JUST A DROPLET
WE WEREN'T SURE WHAT WAS HAPPENING YET
WE WERE BARELY GETTING WET.
AS IT GREW THE ANOINTING INCREASED
BRINGING HEALING, REFRESHING AND PEACE
AS WE PRESSED INTO THE SOURCE
IT GREW IN BREADTH AND FORCE
THE LATTER RAIN

FASTER AND FASTER - HARDER AND HARDER
GREATER AND GREATER IT BECAME
FIRST JUST A TRICKLE - AND THEN A STREAMLET
NOW IT'S A RIVER OVERFLOWING ITS BANKS
THE LATTER RAIN

FIRST I WADED IN THEN I HAD TO SWIM
GETTING WET -- SO VERY WET
OH, NOW I'M SATURATED
GROWING IN HIS WAYS - STRONGER DAY BY DAY
NOW THAT RIVER - THAT MIGHTY RIVER IS BUBBLING IN ME

WATER THAT'S SO PURE WATER THAT WILL CURE
CRYSTAL CLEAR; GIVING LIFE
ISSUING FROM THE THRONE //

THE LATTER RAIN.

Lazarus

by Bill Somers

A while back, one of my email friends in the prophetic realm, Bill Hawkins, sent me the following note:

Lazarus

While listening recently to a message about Jesus raising Lazarus from the dead the Lord impressed upon me the following;
1. He was away , across Jordan when the message came that Lazarus was sick.
2. He deliberately stayed away two more days--for a total of four.
3. He then returned to Bethany to Raise the dead (Lazarus) who had been in the grave long enough to see decay.

When I got home I began to search out some of the words and their meanings.

Bethany = House of Song--House of Affliction Depending on usage.
Across Jordan = The promised land was over Jordan and Jordan means DEATH.
Lazarus =A figure representing, or a figure of Come forth = same expression as COME UP HERE

Jesus stayed in the Promised Land for two days , then crossed over Jordan to the House of Song for two days before He called up Lazarus from the dead

2000 years from the Law to Christ--2 days
2000 years from Christ to the Rapture--2 days
A total of 4 days from the announcement of Lazarus death until Jesus went to raise him up.
Lazarus as a figure representing = The dead in Christ
The calling forth =The Rapture
Jordan = Death, conquered as Christ crossed over
Across Jordan =The Promised land, Where Jesus stayed until it was time to bring Lazarus forth.
2 Days=2000 years

Nothing is in the word by chance , but totally by design and this is a forewarning of the time we have and it is short!!!!! Jesus will come soon. The two days are almost up, we must work the works of him who sent us while there still is light.

To which I responded:

"The Lazarus thing is interesting. I have once heard a long teaching on the subject by Art Katz. Lazarus represents Israel. And the four days are the 4000 years Israel has been under the law. The last two days are the 2000 years since Jesus' birth.

The days are now up and we are in the 7th millennium, the day of the Lord."

Now to try and explain what I meant by that short note.

Let me stick this in. The interpretation you have so far is not necessarily wrong. It is good as for as it goes. What I'm offering is just a deeper look at the same material. You conclusions are good and they are exciting. Time is Short. Jesus Is coming SOON. And we must work the works of Him who sent us. Glory to God!

And then I went on to elaborate my comments thusly.

First of all, a matter of direction. Across Jordan. This means crossing into the promised land when you cross from the east to the west bank. John 11:18 says "Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off:" So Bethany is part of the Promised land. So when Jesus hears that Lazarus is sick, he is outside of the promised land. He waits two days and then crosses Jordan. He travels two more days and comes to Bethany. He is travelling westward the whole time.

The Art Katz message was titled Israel and the Church. His text was John 11, the story of Jesus raising Lazarus and Ezekiel 37, the valley of the dry bones. He makes the link between Ezekiel and Jesus in order to make the link between Israel and Lazarus, both of whom are dead at the time. [He does not consider the 4 days.] Ezekiel is called son of man by the Lord in those passages. "And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? …." Ezekiel 37:3. Since Jesus often referred to himself as the son of man it is easy to see Ezekiel as of foreshadow of Jesus. Katz, however, sees Jesus in this story as a foreshadow of the Church. His thesis is two fold. One that the end time, apostolic Church will be 'the son of man' who will in some way prophesy over the dead bones of Israel and cause her to live. And two, that Israel will and must come to the point where her only confession is " ….Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts." Ezekiel. 37 11. This is the place of desperation.

I don't see the Church doing this, I see Jesus doing this. The Church is involved prior to this but it is Jesus who will be the salvation of Israel. They will cry "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord". They will look upon HIM whom they pierced.

On the other hand, this is an event that must take place for Jesus to return. Matthew 23:39 says "For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord." And this cannot take place without the spiritual redemption of the Jews of Israel. [This is one of three requirements for the Second Coming, the others are that the Gospel must be preached to the all the world and that the fullness of the Gentiles must come in.]

So the resurrection of Lazarus speaks of the Resurrection of the dead in Christ and it speaks of the redemption or salvation of Israel. In the very next chapter Jesus returns to Jerusalem and look at what the people say.

> "On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord. (John 12: 13-14)

This is exactly what will happen at the resurrection. When Jesus will return to Jerusalem again! And notice He is still travelling westward. This means he is coming from the East. He will enter Jerusalem by the Eastern Gate. In the bible an east wind usually speaks of Judgment. Jesus, the Judge of all the world will come in from the east.

So the raising of Lazarus represents the redemption of the Jews and this is followed by Jesus entering Jerusalem; which speaks of the Second Coming. [Hosanna, by the way, is a cry for help!]

So why does Lazarus represent Israel? Because he has been dead 4 days. As Peter stresses:

> But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. 2 Peter 3:8

So the 4 days are 4 thousand years. These are the 4 thousand years since Israel came into being. There are 2 days from Adam to Abraham, 2 days from Abraham to Jesus and 2 days from Jesus birth till now. And now is the seventh day. It is not firmly agreed on by all, but the most likely year of Jesus birth is 5 B. C. And the most likely date is on the feast of tabernacles. So the 7th day began this past Sep. 28, 1996. [Or perhaps Sep. 14 which was Jewish New Years.]

So from Abraham till now are 4 days. Lazarus was dead for 4 days. Can we say Israel has been dead 4 thousand years? Yes, because Israel has been under the Law for these 4 thousand years. And we know that the Law, the letter of the law, brings death.

> For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. Romans 7: 5
> Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. 2 Corinthians 3:6.

Now is the story of Lazarus in John 11, the point when Jesus hears of Lazarus death represents the time when Israel received the law. The sickness brought death to Lazarus, the Law brought death to Israel.

When Jesus crosses the Jordan, two days later is the time of Jesus birth and earthly ministry. Crossing Jordan is entering the promised land, the world. It is the incarnation. As Jordan means death, it speaks of conquering death, which Jesus did on Calvary.

Coming to Bethany after two more days [2 thousand years] speaks of the 7th day. The end time revival. As Bethany means either house of affliction or house of song, it's fitting that in this last day, Jesus arrival in our midst will turn our afflictions into great songs of rejoicing.

Part 2 The Church - this differs from how Art Katz ties in the Church.

Let's look back at John 11. We'll point out a couple things that speak of the Church and it's attitude.

> John 11:1 Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.
> 2 (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

Here it makes reference to the incident when Mary anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair,. Mary is a type of the end time Church in this scene. The anointing with ointment and wiping of the feet with her hair symbolize what the Church must go through. The anointing is the acknowledging of the Lordship of Jesus; the wiping with the hair is the humbling of the Church before the throne of God, at His footstool. Her sister/brother relationship with Lazarus parallels that between the Church and Israel. They are of the same family with the same father!

In verse 3 Lazarus' sisters send word to Jesus about his condition. This speaks of the Church interceding for Israel. Later on, in verses 32-35, it is Mary's intercession that finally moves Jesus to tears, and to action. This speaks of the intercession finally breaking through and getting God to move.

> "… and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory. Isaiah 46:13

Now let's look at the disciples, an obvious type of the Church. After 2 days, Jesus tells his disciples:

> …, Let us go into Judaea again. His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again? John 11:7-8

This tells us that they clearly understood that Jesus is risking death by going back to Judea. Then in verse 16 it says:

> Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him. John 11:16

Thus they clearly understand that they are also risking or anticipating death. To follow Jesus is to risk or anticipate death.

'Didymus' means twin or double. It speaks of the double mindedness of today's Church. Thomas is not usually the spokesman for Jesus' disciples. And he is usually not so firm and decisive. Here Thomas is clearly speaking out of character! But he is speaking as a type of the end time Church in this case. The allegorical point here is this. The Church's willingness to risk or anticipate death is a crucial element in the second coming of our Lord.

To be the Lord's disciple is to follow in His footsteps, and this means even unto death. Psalm 48 starts out in praise of the Lord and tells of the greatness and beauty of His City, Mount Zion. Not surprisingly, Mt. Zion is a type of the Church. Psalm 48 concludes with this verse: 14 For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death.

Art Katz has said that the final issue is the Glory of God.
Paris Reidhead maintains that the purpose of the Church is to give glory to God.
James McKeever teaches that the purpose of man is to glorify God.
Jesus showed some of his disciples that they would by a certain DEATH, give glory to God.

The time is come that the Son of Man should be glorified.
The Death of Lazarus was for his raising, for the glory of God.

> Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God? John 11:40

Romans 11 ends with a statement on the Glory of God. Both of these associate the Glory of God with the Resurrection.

Ought not Christ to have suffered these things and to enter into his glory?? Ought not the Church? Luke 24;35

Leave Babylon And Come Home

> " 'Then the people of Israel and Judah will join together,' says the LORD, 'weeping and seeking the LORD their God. They will ask the way to Jerusalem and will bind themselves to the LORD with an eternal covenant that will never again be broken. My people have been lost sheep. Their shepherds have led them astray and turned them loose in the mountains. They have lost their way and cannot remember how to get back to the fold. All who found them devoured them. Their enemies said, "We are allowed to attack them freely, for they have sinned against the LORD, their place of rest, the hope of their ancestors." But now, flee from Babylon! Leave the land of the Babylonians. Lead my people home again' " - Jer. 50:4-8

Longstanding divisions will fall. "Israel and Judah will join together" (vs.4). A spirit of repentance and reconciliation will come upon My forerunners, to prepare the way for the healing of My Body. Intercede for the unity of the Church. You are called to 'repair the breach.' Stand in the gap and repent on behalf of this chosen generation. My Bride is wounded and naked, however, she will yet be raised up and adorned in costly jewels and white garments. See beyond what is, to what is coming. Let this work begin with you, for it is the Bride who will 'make herself ready.'

My chosen ones - especially those who have charge of leading My flock - are now awakening from a spiritual stupor. They will begin to recognize their profound inability to navigate and chart their course, apart from the leading of My Spirit. "They will ask the way to Jerusalem" (vs.5). These will begin to inquire of Me like never before - and I will hear them. I will show them the way for they will recognize their true condition, that they have been exiles in Babylon (a land of confusion and compromise). Where before all seemed well, rays of understanding will break through, illuminating the reality that My people have been in captivity. This will precipitate a mighty deliverance among the Redeemed that will result in the restoration of fortunes, and the reclamation of a formerly dormant and largely unrecognized inheritance. The coming restoration will be marked by a profound zeal and commitment to the Lord and His ways, for they "will bind themselves to the LORD with an eternal covenant that will never again be broken" (vs.5).

"My people have been lost sheep" (vs.6). The apathy and aimlessness that has characterized much of this past season is about to give way to increased prophetic vision and a compelling sense of divine destiny. Many who have been wounded or alienated will be restored to their purpose and will serve as examples of what I will do in My Church as a whole.

Leadership will again understand the great responsibility they bear as shepherds of My flock. Those who have failed will either find mercy through repentance, or face discipline and even disqualification, for "their shepherds have led them astray and turned them loose in the mountains [places of danger]" (vs.6). Many will come to a new depth of maturity and acquire My heart for the 'least of these.' No longer will My sheep be treated as dispensable. No longer will they be scattered through the misuse of authority, for I will hold My under-shepherd's accountable for the well-being of My flock. I will raise up a righteous standard within those who are called to Leadership. They will serve as a spiritual covering, and under the protection of this covering My Bride will arise to fulfill Her destiny for this hour.

The enemy, who has mercilessly ravaged My flock, will be driven out and rebuked in the sight of many witnesses. His boast will be silenced, for he has said, "We are allowed to attack them freely, for they have sinned against the LORD" (vs.7). However, the ground he has occupied shall be cleared, cleansed and inhabited by My Spirit. This is how the Kingdom will come, for the Kingdom of God is within you.

A call is going forth in the realm of the spirit. It is a call to militant and heartfelt intercession that will pave the way for the coming of the Kingdom, and ultimately, the King. Before this takes place, both apostasy and awakening will occur. The Holy Spirit is presently rousing and preparing the Bride for Harvest and Marriage. For us to participate in these things we must "flee from Babylon" (vs.8) - which speaks of the renunciation of confusion and compromise - and return to our First Love and true home: Jesus Christ Himself.

> "What harmony can there be between Christ and the devil? How can a believer be a partner with an unbeliever? And what union can there be between God's temple and idols? For we are the temple of the living God. As God has said: 'I will live in them and walk among them. I will be their God, and they will be my people. Therefore, come out from among unbelievers, and separate yourselves from [their ways], says the LORD. Don't touch their filthy things, and I will welcome you. And I will be your Father, and you will be my sons and daughters, says the LORD Almighty' " - 2 Cor. 6:15-18
> "Please listen, O [LORD], you who lead [us] like a flock. O God, enthroned above the cherubim, display your radiant glory.... Show us your mighty power. Come to rescue us! Turn us again to yourself, O God. Make your face shine down upon us. Only then will we be saved. O LORD God Almighty, how long will you be angry and reject our prayers? You have fed us with sorrow and made us drink tears by the bucketful. You have made us the scorn of neighboring nations. Our enemies treat us as a joke. Turn us again to yourself, O God Almighty. Make your face shine down upon us. Only then will we be saved.... Come back, we beg you, O God Almighty. Look down from heaven and see our plight. Watch over and care for this vine that you yourself have planted, this son you have raised for yourself. For we are chopped up and burned by our enemies. May they perish at the sight of your frown. Strengthen the man you love, the son of your choice. Then we will never forsake you again. Revive us so we can call on your name once more. Turn us again to yourself, O LORD God Almighty. Make your face shine down upon us. Only then will we be saved." - Ps. 80: 1-7, 14-19

Love Covers All

Betty Heimbach

November 12, 2005

“Don’t allow the words and actions of anyone to take you where you don’t want to go. Do not allow their words to change you. Let My word change you. Keep your eyes on Me and keep your heart pure toward people and Me. When you reveal the secrets of another, you are uncovering their nakedness. Do not uncover anyone. No matter what anyone has said or done – no matter how it hurts you or affects you, cover it with love.

“Let love, My love cover all. Walk in love and cover the sins of those in your life. Do not fall into the trap of revealing their nakedness for others to see. Treat them the way you truly desire to be treated. Cover their faults, their failures, their shortcomings, and their sins. Cover them with love and lift them up to Me. Trust Me to take care of you and those who misuse or abuse you or fail you in anyway.

“Don’t stare at their nakedness and impress it upon your heart and mind to be remembered. Quickly look away from their failure and focus on Me. Look to Me and cover their nakedness with love as you lift them up to me and keep silent about their wrongdoing. Keep silent and give it to Me. Don’t hold onto it, don’t reveal it, and don’t remember it. Cover it with My love and keep them lifted up so that I may work in them to accomplish My perfect will in their lives just as I am working in you.”

"Without love you uncover others and without love you uncover your own nakedness. I call you to put on love - clothe yourselves – wrap yourselves in love. That love becomes your covering. It covers your nakedness. Without love all your sins are exposed – your rudeness, your envy and strife, your unkindness, your anger, your selfishness, your arrogance and pride. Without the covering of My love you will fail. You will stand before God and man naked.

‘Love is My character. And love is the base from which all the gifts of My Holy Spirit operate. Without love your gifts mean nothing and accomplish little if anything. You are just making noise without love.

“That is how the world will know that you are followers of Christ – if you love. When you uncover the sins of anyone for other to see – that is a sign that you are not walking in love. When you try to expose someone else you succeed in exposing yourselves. When you uncover others you uncover your own lack of love.

“You are to become an offering for others by sacrificing your rights, your pride and becoming a sweet smelling savor of love to God and man, as you love the people I place in your lives. Give yourselves in love. Become love to them.”

Pr. 10:12 Hatred stirs up strife, but love covers all sins. (NKJV)

1 John 3:16 By this we know love, because He laid down His life for us. And we also ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

Eph. 5:1-2 Be imitators of God as dear children And walk in love, as Christ also has loved us and given Himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling aroma.

1 Cor. 13:4-7 ‘Love is longsuffering, is patient, is self-effacing, is hopeful, is polite and courteous, is humble, love prefers others above itself, it is unselfish, is full of grace and rejoices in truth! It bears all things, believes all things, endures all things and never fails.

‘Love is not envious, proud or arrogant, rude or selfish, or easily provoked. Love does not think evil thoughts. It is not irritable or grouchy. It is not touchy or hostile. Love does not keep a record of wrongs suffered."

Out With the Old and In With the New
Betty Heimbach

Nov. 7, 2005
My children,
"This is a time and a season for stripping and cleansing. You have sought Me, asking to be purified and stripped of all that is out of sync with My character. Now is the time for the stripping.
"I am stripping you of a natural and worldly love and filling you with My divine agape love for others. If you will lay aside your ideas about love, I will fill you with My love and give you a new attitude concerning love. I'm calling you to walk in love as never before, truly preferring others above yourself. Learn to listen more and talk less. Listen to what people are saying, then listen for what My Spirit will reveal to you about the person and his words. If you will humbly listen I will reveal truths to you that will enable you to walk in love with purity- regardless of how others treat you, regardless of the words that they speak.
"You are being stripped of pride in self, pride in accomplishment, pride in what you have learned through all your study, in order to be dressed with humility and a servant's robe. You cannot walk in humility and pride - one excludes the other. They are totally incompatible. Peacock feathers and aprons don't go together.
"I am stripping away all your words, so that you may walk in My Word. I'm stripping away all your "goodness" – your self-effort at righteousness, so that you may wear My purity and holiness. It is an easy thing. My robes of purity and holiness are comfortable and easy to wear.
"I'm stripping away all your carnal, fleshly judgments so that you may walk in My grace. Every time you see someone behaving in a way that you believe is unpleasing to Me, ask Me. Ask Me for a glimpse of their heart from My viewpoint. Look at things and people through My eyes and it will change your heart and your behavior; it will change your path and your walk. I am stripping away every critical thought, every hint of self-justification and ego – so that you may walk in My Love – My unconditional, enduring, loyal, healing Love."

"May you be filled with the knowledge of His will, in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, that you may walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing Him, being fruitful in every good word and increasing in the knowledge of God, strengthened with all might, according to His glorious power..." Col. 1:9-11a

Lord, Convict Our Hearts

Yolanda Ballard

Dec 9, 2005

LORD, CONVICT OUR HEARTS

What are we willing to pay for the price of unity in the church? Are we willing to truly deny ourselves, pick up our cross and follow the Lord in dying out? What makes us think that it does not matter if we love one another or not? There are so many even in our own churches who walk past one another and act like we haven't even passed by a human being. If we are not careful, we can learn this same trait portrayed by those who are even in leadership. This should not be.

How can the world know us by our love if we can't even be sensitive enough within our own congregations to greet one another? It does not have to be a hug or a holy kiss, but just an acknowledgment that there is someone that belongs to the same family right by us. Oh Lord, I pray that you open our eyes and pour out repentance in these areas that we feel are not important. Are we that busy, or have so much on our minds, that we can do this on a regular basis? Father, open our eyes that we can see that we could be the cause of making our brother stumble by our own carelessness. Today is the day of salvation. This is the day to make a choice who we are going to serve. Is it pride of man and idolatry that we choose, or is it humility in having a meek and humble spirit?

Another thing that displeases the Lord is when we look at one another in judgment and play the Holy Spirit in another person's life. We need to be so careful when we counsel one another. What we may think is the right thing to do for a person could be the opposite of what the Lord is leading them in. We should know by now that God's ways are not our ways or our thoughts His thoughts. What would you think if the Lord told you not to go to your own mother's funeral because He had other plans for you to do? These things are for real and there are times when He will lead us in a way that appears to be very unloving. But we need to trust Him and follow Him in all that He leads us.

We need to be open to the Lord delivering us of ungodly mind sets. Things that we have picked up from the world in our beliefs that are contrary to the word of God. We need to have open and teachable hearts to be able to walk with the Lord to the fullest extent. God wants to undo so much in our hearts and minds, but we need to be willing to let go of all that is holding us back. The Lord wants to move through us mightily with signs, and wonders, and miracles of healing and deliverance, but if we are struggling with areas of unbelief because deep down we still haven't let go of some things, then we cannot be used to the fullest.

We need to pray that the Lord will open our eyes to the areas of our lives the enemy has blinded us in. Be willing to accept that there might even be many areas we need to let go of. Yes, today is the day of salvation, of freedom, of rejoicing, of coming into a new day, but we cannot embrace it if we hold on to traditions of man that are contrary to the word of God. Be willing to let the Lord examine your heart so that we can embrace His truth to the fullest.

Be willing to agree to disagree in the areas that are personal convictions. So many have allowed pride to get in there and cause division over areas that should not matter that much. We need to love one another and support one another no matter if we agree or not by committing them into the Lord's hands and trusting His care over their lives. Trust His judgment for He knows which areas are more important to work on than others. What we think we should point out to be helpful could cause much harm in a person's life. I have seen this many times.

The Lord wants to move us into a new day but we need to be willing to change. We need deeper discernment and sensitivity to the areas the Holy Spirit wants to make us aware of. These areas deal with the flesh and dying out to it. These are areas that call for humility, to be willing to be stretched, so that God's love can truly flow through us. Otherwise we are just going through the motions or taking on a false form of godliness and definitely denying the power of God.

Judgment begins in the house of God, and I believe He has been displeased with us as a church. There are just too much going on that isn't of Him. There is much error and deception what we allow in our churches to go on. We need to believe that God will get a hold of the pastors' hearts and point out the areas that are robbing the church of having the glory of God upon them. It's the little foxes that spoil the vine.

When we ignore these areas, then we have trees of unrighteousness to deal with that have deep large roots that need to be taken out. We might think this is being nit-picking, but these are the areas that we need to press in and intercede for. These are the areas that rob us of having true intimacy with our Father and the brethren. These are the areas that are even preventing breakthrough of the river of God.

Lord, I pray that you will convict our hearts of any area that we habitually overlook as unimportant that grieve Your Spirit. I pray that you open our eyes of any areas of our hearts that are holding us back. Any areas of sin, unforgiveness, error, deception, anything Lord, before it is too late to turn from them. We want to be worthy to be called and used as part of your end time army. And I know you do not allow sin in the camp, so Lord, I cry out to you for repentance, for conviction, for revelation, for the strength to walk in what you show us. In Your name I pray.

Let Me
Sandy Warner

May 9, 2005

LET ME
How I yearn over you to release you from the burdens you carry! Sometimes I send helpers to be the hands and tools you need to bring you to the goal. Freely accept these good gifts divinely placed in your life. Learn to rest as I bring you the provision you need, dear one.

My child, LET Me help you. When you plod through your days bowed over with care, your eyes are downcast not knowing I AM there. Why carry this load as you walk My road? Give it to Me instead, I will make you Spirit led. To rest, to lean, to support and carry. It is you I want, to commune and marry. Yes, be still and let Your God into your life. Refuse the burdens, turn away from strife. Now come to Me and let Me hold you. I will sustain your day with release brand new. Look ahead, not behind - not with nose to the grind. Look up, not down - like a sniffing hound. Keep your eyes on Me and let things be. I want you, My child - yes to LET ME.

Matt 3:14-15 AMP
But John protested strenuously, having in mind to prevent Him, saying, It is I who have need to be baptized by You, and do You come to me? But Jesus replied to him, Permit it just now; for this is the fitting way for [both of] us to fulfill all righteousness [that is, to perform completely whatever is right]. Then he permitted Him.

Joshua Is Stripped
Sandy Warner

May 11, 2005
JOSHUA IS STRIPPED
A season has come when the sons of high calling, whose garments have become stained in sin and filth, shall go through a stripping. It speaks of when the high priest was stripped naked before the other priests, prior to being endued with his garments for service. Dear ones, this is not just a public exposure of private sin, but it is an authentic experience of a transparent manifestation of what has been dwelling in the darkness. The stripping of carnal disobedience and addictions is a painful and humiliating process until there is a desperation to be set free by the truth made known.

There is only one way to be washed clean and set free from the addictions of the sins of the body: confession. As My sons confess their sins before trusted ones in prayer, they shall be washed clean through their tears of a broken and contrite heart. Their tears of brokenness shall water the hardened ground of their souls and tares, for the sins of many generations shall be uprooted in their lives. They shall walk away clean, free and delivered from addictions that could not be broken any other way. A broken and contrite heart, I the Lord, will not despise.

Zech 3:1-5 NKJV
Then he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the Angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to oppose him. And the LORD said to Satan, "The LORD rebuke you, Satan! The LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is this not a brand plucked from the fire?" Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the Angel. Then He answered and spoke to those who stood before Him, saying, "Take away the filthy garments from him." And to him He said, "See, I have removed your iniquity from you, and I will clothe you with rich robes." And I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head, and they put the clothes on him. And the Angel of the LORD stood by.

Taking Off The Cover
Sandy Warner

May 15, 2005
TAKING OFF THE COVER
Piece by piece You've been drawing a portrait.
Connecting through time and specific dates,
We have called on You to reveal our place.
And we've waited on You, in Your grace.

Pieces of Your puzzle are linking real fast,
For a bigger picture of something that will last.
Time is up right now, now is the time.
The bells are ringing, I can hear the chimes.

The wind is blowing and sending the sound,
Surprises are in store for what we've found.
Flabbergasted is the name for what you say.
It's time to reveal Your awesome new day.

All heaven takes a breath to see what is there.
All ears are open to hear what You declare.
You take off the cover and reveal Your plan
Declaring, "It's a fact, and YES you can!"

We are prepared, the foundation is hewn,
Carved from Your rock, manicured and groomed.
Each have a part and something to give,
Having been filtered and gone through the sieve.

The motor is running and the shaft is turning.
Our hearts are prepared, with passion they are burning.
The vehicle is solid and ready to roll.
We step on the gas as the bells do toll.

Like gears connected and into synch,
We are propelled forward, united we link.
We move straight in and take our ground,
For what You've said and what is profound.

Our eyes are forward, no turning back,
No wavering for over what we lack.
Independence is gone as we lean on You.
We know what is missing, another can do.

That is the team that You bring together,
To forge our way no matter what the weather.
It's a joy to see how our pieces do connect,
Revealing Your plan from what You direct.

We stand in awe of You our Daddy God.
We clap our hands, with joy we applaud.
You are Sovereign in all as you span the earth.
You laugh with us with Your heart of merry mirth.

1 Cor 12:5-7 AMP
And there are distinctive varieties of service and ministration, but it is the same Lord [Who is served]. And there are distinctive varieties of operation [of working to accomplish things], but it is the same God Who inspires and energizes them all in all. But to each one is given the manifestation of the [Holy] Spirit [the evidence, the spiritual illumination of the Spirit] for good and profit.

VALIDATED
Precious, there are seasons and times when I send others to validate and support your decisions, and there are times when you seemingly walk alone before you experience their joining with you. Every human being longs to be validated, to be told they are making the right choice and following the right path.

I AM the Source of your validation. I AM the One Who confirms, establishes and besets your way. I will clearly show you with signs following that, yes, you are following Me into a new place with a new look. I do not want you to cling to your past, let it go. Move forward into a greatly expanded new place. Do not listen to intimidation and self doubt. Instead, hear the voice of your Papa saying, "YES you can, you can do this and succeed in all that you put your hands to do."

Do not look back. Do not look at what you don't have, and who you don't have with you. Instead, lean, lean, lean on Me and I will support and confirm you. You are NOT alone. I have never left you, I will never leave you. I have not left you as an orphan, you are thoroughly adopted by Me. I AM ENOUGH.

Ps 16:11 NLT
Keep me safe, O God, for I have come to you for refuge. I said to the LORD, "You are my Master! All the good things I have are from you." The godly people in the land are my true heroes! I take pleasure in them! Those who chase after other gods will be filled with sorrow. I will not take part in their sacrifices or even speak the names of their gods.
LORD, you alone are my inheritance, my cup of blessing. You guard all that is mine. The land you have given me is a pleasant land. What a wonderful inheritance!

I will bless the LORD who guides me; even at night my heart instructs me. I know the LORD is always with me. I will not be shaken, for he is right beside me. No wonder my heart is filled with joy, and my mouth shouts his praises! My body rests in safety. For you will not leave my soul among the dead or allow your godly one to rot in the grave. You will show me the way of life, granting me the joy of your presence and the pleasures of living with you forever.

Leaders Flying Kites

Judith Grobelny

5 November 2004
This morning I had a clear vision (or prophetic picture) of friends and leaders, each flying a kite – this is their work for the Lord, the part that is allowed to be before the people and that He allows to be seen.

The substance of the Lord is IN the leader’s life, who and what he/she is in their personal walk with Him. The line between them and the kite is VERY thin.
ALL substance and weight is in the ROCK on which they stand, ALL substance and outflow comes from there.

As long as they stand on the ROCK the kite flies high and well, and wide. But as they lift their eyes and focus from the ROCK on which they stand – as they gaze at and become fascinated by the kite - I see them step, stumble, and fall. The thin connection slackens, the kite falls to the ground and collapses around them.

I felt that the message was clear. Keep our feet firmly on the ROCK and the kite will fly high and well. The kite is not who we are – it is a fragile and flimsy attachment. When the kite gets all of our attention instead of the Lord, we lose our footing and stumble. The same thing will happen if we focus on someone else’s kite. We can only fly our own.

When strong winds blow, others will come and steady us as we hold the kite into such winds, but still the string is fragile and all must stand shoulder to shoulder on the ROCK – more aware of one another than of the kite – it is the friend who is being supported, not the kite.

Isaiah 54:1-3 It is time to enlarge and strengthen our ability to stand on the rock, so that the kites may continue to fly.

Listen For My Call

Beverly Juelsgaard-Fischer

A Word from the Lord Received Saturday, November 19, 2005

Open wide the doors the doors of your heart for the needy, the hopeless, and the depressed are coming forth for freedom. For you, My people, have asked for this - that you could be but servants unto Me. Therefore, I say to you, "Open wide the doors of your heart and your arms, for they have need of much. For the days ahead will be busy for you, My people, as those who have been forgotten and cast aside come forth for ministry. For many of these have given up on everything, some even on Me, for they have seen no light in the darkness they have walked in. For some have even lived in darkness so long, that they know not what My light is."

For even as you minister to them, the spiritual rags of despair and hopelessness will fall off of them. The chains which they have worn for so long, that they don't even know that they wear, will be broken and fall to the ground.

Know that I, the GOD OF ALL AGES, have declared WAR on the kingdom of darkness.

So I say to you, My people, come out of your hiding places. Come out of your places of obscurity, for it is time to come forth into My Glory, that you might come into your calling, that you would do the things I've called you to. For it is time to minister, to go forth into the land, into all nations, that eyes would be opened, that truth would be known and that I, the Great I AM, will be known for who I Am, Savior of the World.

For those who come forth into My glory, into My calling, will walk in signs, wonders, and miracles. It is time that ALL should know WHO is in control, for I do not play. I am the Restorer and Giver of Life and all things that are good through My grace and mercy will be restored according to My will.

So listen for My call. For many I'm calling in the night and you listen not. Listen. Open your ears that you will hear My voice, that the enemy won't steal one more thing from you. I will speak to you, where I will speak to you. I do not care what you are doing at that time, but I care that you listen to Me and heed My call, that you, too, would walk in My glory; that you, too, would walk in the fullness of everything that I call you to. LISTEN and KNOW that I AM GOD.

Leaving Haran

Cheree Bartlett

In this particular discussion I am endeavoring to relate a concept of Abraham's call and how it can possibly be applicable to the body of Christ today. I would like to qualify that I am not a trained theologian in any means. I have no knowledge of Hebrew, Greek or Aramaic. Therefore, if I have missed something critical that a trained bible student wouldn't have missed it is because of the aforementioned qualifier.

The bible at times tends to be sparse on details so that one has to fit pieces of a story together as if it was a puzzle. The account of the call of Abraham is illustrative of this point. We are introduced to Abraham in the eleventh chapter of Genesis under the account of Terah. Genesis 11:31 states:

Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, the wife of his son Abram, and together they set out from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to Canaan. But when they came to Haran, they settled there.

Terah lived 205 years and he died in Haran. (NIV)

What is interesting about this passage is that is says, "Terah took his son Abram…and together they set out from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to Canaan." Now, this passage implies that Terah initiated the leaving of Ur to coincidentally head to Canaan the land where God leads Abraham. However, in Acts 7 before his speech to the Sanhedrin Stephen declares, "Brothers and fathers, listen to me! The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham while he was still in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran. "Leave your country and your people, God said and go to the land I will show you." From Stephen's declaration it must be inferred that God spoke to Abraham first about leaving. The question then arises "How did Terah a cited pagan get in on the journey?" and not only become a part of the retinue but is credited with taking Abraham from Ur and not vice versa. I can only speculate but perhaps it had something to do with cultural values and deference to one's father. In any event Terah is along for the journey and one can paint a scenario of how this came to be. If God called Abraham in Mesopotamia perhaps Abraham told his family about his experience and they believed him. This wouldn't be unusual as today when one is saved sometimes family members are saved as well due to the testimony and life change of the new believer. This scenario is further bolstered by the fact that Abraham tells his chief servant in his household to not get a wife for Isaac from the daughters of the Canaanites but from his own relatives (Genesis 24). If Abraham's relatives were equally as pagan as the Canaanites arguably at least on those grounds, it shouldn't have made a difference if he procured a wife for Isaac from among the Canaanites. A reading of Genesis 24 will reveal a reference to the Lord several times from Abraham's relatives as opposed to whoever their national pagan deity would have been at that time.

In referring back to the original text it should be noted that although Abraham set out for Canaan with a portion of his family it is stated that when they came to Haran they settled there. It next states that Terah lived 205 years and he died in Haran. I believe that Abraham's story is analogous of the church corporately and individually. But I will first address the issue from an individual standpoint. Sometimes as individuals when we become a part of the body of Christ not only do we become saved but some in our families as well, either as before mentioned due to our testimony and life change or some other way. We in essence begin a spiritual journey together where we begin to learn about the Lord. This stage may be referred to as Ur where at the very least the basics about the Lord should be comprehended. Then some of us want to continue our growth in the Lord and responds when he calls us to more thus setting out from Ur and coming to the second stage of Haran. Once again, not being where we should be in our growth some of us will again hear the call of the Lord to continue the journey with the goal being Canaan and C anaan being the third final stage.

Because individual believers are a part of a body, the journey is not in isolation and so this picture of movement can be viewed corporately with again some in the body staying in Ur and not moving beyond the basic knowledge of God to others moving on to Haran. Haran represents a movement beyond our basic knowledge of God, but it is also a place where we can become complacent in the new knowledge of God we have acquired. We can become stuck in Haran as we organize our church bodies around whatever theology we subscribe to be it in Roman Catholicism, protestant denominations or charismatic non-denominations. Each group has their kingdom of belief which over time crystallizes and hardens as if they have looked into the eyes of Medusa. But the Abraham spirit hears the call of God to continue on to Canaan and thus some saints will respond and move on. As with individuals the body corporately can find itself settling in our spiritual Harans. Anytime we become complacent with the knowledge of God that we have, we have settled in Haran where become in danger of dying there. With each move of God Abraham's knowledge of God increased and once he was in Canaan his various experiences with God increased his knowledge exponentially especially given his former pagan status. The apostle Paul in his letter to the Ephesians stated that in his prayers he "kept asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that you may know him better." It is clear that Paul felt the Ephesians needed to know the Father better and by extension it is clear that the body of Christ needs to know the Lord better. We have not arrived at all we need to know of God so that we in our individual doctrinal kingdoms can claim to have the firm grip on who God is in truth and reality. I find it interesting that Christians seem to live in worlds so that often we have no knowledge of the lives of other saints outside of our respective circles of belief. The last several years I have been introduced to another world that was never within my purview and I would wonder how it is that people with entirely different experiences than my own could not be known to my circle. I also wonder how it is that the body generally never seems to be on the same page—that is everyone across the ministry world is not hearing the same things from God if at all with consensus. Like the account of Abraham the body of Christ appears to be like a jigsaw puzzle. Perhaps God has invested differently in individuals and ministries so that they are pieces to the end time puzzle that only he can put together just as the gospels and other books of the bible reveal different information which pulls the whole picture together. The question is "If God tries to raise our knowledge of him and move us on to Canaan through what he has invested in another individual or body of believers, will we be receptive or will we hide behind our theological walls before objectively and scripturally examining what is put before us."

To leave Haran takes effort. We must pack up all our spiritual baggage and possessions and set out to a new and unfamiliar place in God where we will encounter famine, be tested, engage in skirmishes, make mistakes and intercede on behalf of others. For Abraham Canaan was the land God promised he would give his descendants, and although, Abraham would not live to see his descendants possess the land they would eventually possess it as God had promised. For the body of Christ Canaan is a place spiritually where our knowledge of God continues to expand with our experiences in him prompted by his leading and our sensitivity to the Holy Spirit. The Lord Jesus has become our shield and very great reward as we await the fulfilled promise of his return for a bride without spot or blemish, which can only be accomplished in Canaan. It is only upon the return of Jesus will our quest to know him cease for it states in 1John 3:2, "Beloved, now we are children of God; and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is." Therefore, let us not die in Haran short of the promise, short of the goal.

Love Is A Fulfilling Of The Law
John Piper

Romans 13:7-14

Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed, revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed. [8] Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. [9] The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet," and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." [10] Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

Review of Where We Are At

Let's remind ourselves where we are in Romans and where we are in life. After 11 chapters of mainly focusing on God's saving work for us in Christ, we made a turn at Romans 12 to God's saving work in us as he transforms us now to do his will. And that is where Christians are in life. The great work that Christ did for us on the cross is past, and the great work that he is doing in us is present. And the present work is based on the past work. And both are absolutely essential to get us to heaven.

In general we can say that Romans 1–11 displays the love of God for us through the work of Christ. And Romans 12–16 displays the effect of that love in us as we love others. In Romans 5:8 Paul says, "God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." And in Romans 8:39 he says nothing can separate us "from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Then in Romans 12:1 he appeals to us "by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God." And the main theme of Romans 12 was how we should treat people with love:

- Verse 9, "Let love be genuine."
- Verse 10: "Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor."
- Verse 13: "Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality.
- Verse 14: "Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them."
- Verse 17: "Repay no one evil for evil."
- Verse 19: "Beloved, never avenge yourselves,
- Verse 20: "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink."
- Verse 21: "Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good."

In other words: I appeal to you on the basis of all the mercy and love that God has shown you in Christ, love each other and love your enemies like that. This is exactly the way the apostle John put it in 1 John 4:11: "Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another."[1]

Romans 13: Not a Detour From the Theme of Love

Then Paul takes up our duty to the civil authority in Romans 13:1-7. We spent four weeks on that text. And now in Romans 13:8-10 Paul returns to the theme of love. Verse 8: "Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law."

Or is that the right way to say it? Should I say, Paul returns to the theme of love? Had he ever left it? Is Romans 13:1-7 a detour from the theme of love? I don't think it is. I think Paul wants to say that all of our submission to the civil authorities in all its forms is an expression of love for other people. So the main point today is to underscore the enormous importance of love in the Christian life and to call you to be a loving person in all you do.

Should Christians Ever Borrow?

I came to this conclusion—that verses 1-7 is not a detour from the theme of love—by trying to answer one of the difficult questions raised by verse 8. Verse 8 says, "Owe no one anything, except to love each other." One of the very practical questions this raises is whether Christians should every borrow money—or borrow anything? Does "owe no one anything" mean never borrow a rake? A dollar for a Coke? $150,000 to buy a house? As soon as you borrow you owe. So, does "Owe no one anything" mean never borrow anything?

Don't think this is a farfetched question. Many Christians have taken the verse as a mandate not to go into debt. George Mueller, the founder of the Bristol orphanages in England 150 years ago, repeatedly cited Romans 13:8 as the decisive verse for why Christians should never go into debt.[2] The elders of Bethlehem wrestled long and hard with this and other texts in the Bible before we recommended borrowing money to move forward with Treasuring Christ Together and the purchase of the North Campus. I will include some of our reasoning for you in this week's Fresh Words on the Desiring God website.

Verse 7 Holds the Key

But in this message let's just limit ourselves to the immediate context. Verse 7 holds the key. It uses the word "owe" in a positive way. It says, "Pay to all what is owed to them (apodote pasin tas opheilas): taxes to whom taxes are owed, revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed." That is the context for verse 8. You do owe taxes. You do owe revenue. So when he says in verse 8, "Owe no one anything" (Mēdeni mēden opheilete)" it doesn't mean you should never incur debts. It means, when you do, pay them. Do you owe taxes? Pay them. Do you owe, revenue? Pay it.

So the point of saying, "Owe no one anything," is not to pass judgment on the financial wisdom of having a mortgage, but on paying your bills on time, whether it's rent or a mortgage payment. Whether it is wise to borrow money—especially for depreciating things like appliances and cars—should be judged on wider considerations than this text. There is wonderful freedom for the cause of God in being debt free. And oh, the misery people have because of careless spending with Visa and MasterCard, and buying things on time. I hope you will be sober-minded and disciplined to avoid debt that's rooted in materialistic life-style desires and that takes control of your life. If you are in trouble, we have counselors at Bethlehem that would be willing to help you get your house in order.

A Snag in Understanding This Verse

But verse 8 is not mainly about not borrowing. It is mainly about paying what you owe. Taxes to whom taxes are due. Revenue to whom revenue is due. And so on. But at this point I ran into a snag as I tried to understand this verse. Let me try to explain. Almost every commentator agrees more or less with what I have just said. Then they go on to say that love is the one thing you cannot pay back and be done with. Taxes yes, but love, no. They say that's what Paul means when he says, "Owe no one anything, except to love each other." Here is a typical commentary quoted by numerous others. The meaning of verse 8 is:

"Leave no debt outstanding to anyone, except the debt of love to one another;" and the point of the latter part of the sentence will be that the debt of love, unlike those debts which we can pay up fully and be done with, is an unlimited debt which we can never be done with discharging.[3]

For a long time I thought that was exactly what this text meant. And in a sense it's not wrong. That is, it is true that the debt of love we have to others never gets paid up and done with. We owe love no matter how many love payments we make. That's true.

But here's the snag. It's also true of honor in verse 7. Verse 7 says, "Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed . . ."—then jump to the end of the verse—"honor to whom honor is owed." Is it true to say that honor as a debt "we can pay up fully and be done with"?

The apostle Peter says, in a context of submission to authority much like Romans 13 says, "Honor everyone" (1 Peter 2:17). So here's my snag. It won't work to say that "Owe no one anything" refers only to things you can pay up and be done with, like taxes, because verse 7 also refers to things you can't pay up and be done with, namely, honor. When you owe honor to someone, and show them honor, you still owe them honor, just the way when you love somebody you still owe them love. Love doesn't get paid down. And honor doesn't get paid down.

Paul's Perspective on Fulfilling All Obligations as an Expression of Love

So I think Paul was saying something else here. I think he was saying something more radical. I think these commentators see something true, namely, you can't ever get out of the debt of love. If you love someone at 11 o'clock you still owe them love at 12 o'clock. That's true.

But its also true of honor. If you honor someone at 11 o'clock you still owe them honor at 12 o'clock. So then what does Paul mean when he says, looking back at verse 7, "Owe no one anything, except to love each other"? If he doesn't mean that the things in verse 7 (taxes, revenue, respect, honor) can be paid off and done with, but love can't, what does he mean?

Consider this. In reading this letter you have just heard about two minutes earlier from Romans 12:10 the words, "Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor." So you have just heard that loving and showing honor are linked, and that probably Paul means that honoring people is a way of loving them.

Now you come to Romans 13:7-8 and you hear something this: "Owe no one anything, that is, owe no one any honor, except to love each other." What would that mean? It would probably mean: any time you have a debt of honor, you should pay it in love. Every payment of honor should be a payment of love. Every act of honoring should be an act of loving. Don't pay debts of honor except as love payments. Owe no one honor except as a form of love.

And if that's what verse 8 means about honor in relation to love, it's probably also what it means about taxes and revenue and respect in relation to love. So Paul would be saying, Every debt that you owe to anybody—whether taxes or revenue or respect or honor—let every payment of that debt be an expression of love.

In other words, don't make love a special category of behavior alongside other kinds of behavior. Let all your behavior be love. This is exactly what Paul said in 1 Corinthians 16:14, "Let all that you do be done in love." Let all debt paying be love paying.

Do you owe the IRS payment? Don't just write the check with a gloomy, resentful, anxious, irritated spirit. Write the check in love. Do you have a mortgage payment due? Don't just write the check because you'll get in trouble if you don't, or just because the Bible says to pay your debts. Write your mortgage check in love. Have you borrowed a book from someone and kept it so long you are embarrassed to take it back? Well, humble yourself and act in love, not fear and pride: take it back in love.

If you ask, "How can I act in love when I write a check to the IRS? I don't even know anybody at the IRS," be careful lest your understanding of love be far short of what Paul means by love. Listen to Paul's description of love from 1 Corinthians 13:4-7, and see if you can apply it to writing the check to the IRS:

Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

I think every time we pay any bill, or any debt, or return anything we have borrowed, we show whether we are a loving person by whether we do it without envy (of people who don't have to pay what we do), and without arrogance (because we think these tax laws are stupid), and with joy in the truth (that we have been meticulously honest), and with a glad willingness to bear and endure any hardship required by doing what is right.

Love Is an Inner Disposition Before It Expresses Itself in Outward Actions

So don't think of love only as something that is active when you have a person in mind. Love is not just an action toward a person; it's a mindset, an attitude, a disposition that produces behaviors that are good for people. Isn't it amazing that Paul's description of love contains almost entirely inner dispositions not outward actions. To be sure all these dispositions produce certain outward behaviors, but that is not the essence of love: patience, not envying, not arrogant, not irritable, not resentful, not rejoicing at wrong, rejoicing in the truth, bearing, believing, hoping, enduring. These are all acts of the soul first, not acts of the body.

And the point of Romans 13:8 is these acts of the soul—this mindset—ought to be there when you submit to the governing authorities. When you pay taxes, love should be your mindset. When you keep the speed limit, love should be your mindset; when you vote, love should be your mindset. Let every obligation that you fulfill be an act of love.

But Doesn't "Each Other" Only Refer to Fellow Christians?

Of course, someone might object to what I have said by pointing to the phrase "each other" in verse 8 and saying that it refers only to fellow Christians: "Owe no one anything, except to love each other." If "each other" here refers only to fellow Christians then what I have said would have to be changed. But there is good reason to think that "each other" is not limited to fellow Christians.

Doesn't "each other" in the second part of verse 8 overlap with the phrase "no one" in the first part of verse 8? "Owe no one anything, except to love each other." "No one" refers at least to the people in verse 7: the people we owe taxes and the people we owe revenue, etc. So it includes unbelievers. But it doesn't make sense to say: "Owe no unbelievers anything, except to love fellow Christians." So I think "love each other" in this verse is a very general statement about loving fellow human beings. You don't fulfill the law by loving Christians and hating your enemies.

That's been the emphasis in Romans 12:17-21 ("Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all." v. 17). And at the end of verse 8 Paul says, "for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law." The word, "another," is a broad general word for anyone, not just a fellow Christian.

Two Conclusions

So I come to my double conclusion. First, that in verse 8 Paul is teaching us not simply that there is a perpetual debt of love that can never be paid off. He is also teaching us that every debt that can be paid off should be paid in love. Turn every payment into love. Turn every behavior into love. Owe no one anything, except love. That is, let every debt be paid as an act of love. Be pervasively loving. Have the mindset of love in all that you do. That's the first conclusion.

The other conclusion is that therefore Romans 13:1-7 is not a detour from the theme of love that began in chapter 12. Paul is not coming back to the theme of love in verse 8. He never left it. He is clarifying the life of love that includes paying taxes and keeping up on your mortgage, paying your rent and your utility bills, and honoring human beings created in God's image.

Therefore, Bethlehem, let us pursue love. It is an enormous, all-encompassing reality. It is not to be part of life, but all of life. Let everything be done in love. Let the mindset of patience, kindness, contentment, humility, meekness, politeness, deference, forgiveness, joy, truthfulness, hope, endurance—let your heart and mind overflow with these traits of love. In everything you do, let there be love.

How could be otherwise for people whose whole life is built on Romans 5:8, "God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us."

[1] In fact this verse gives the closest parallel in the Bible to Paul's wording in Romans 13:8. In Romans 13:8 he says, "Owe no one anything, except to love each other" (Mē deni mēden opheilete ei mē to allēlous agapan). These words "owe . . . to love each other" are almost identical with "ought to love each other" in the Greek of 1 John 4:11, opeilomen allēlous agapan.

Liberty Is Coming
Priscilla Van Sutphin

July 2nd, 2005
I heard “ Liberty is coming” and then thoughts went back to reading Patrick Henry today on a site and the phrase, “Give me liberty or give me death !” came to mind.

Then the Lord spoke:
I am coming to give you the ultimate FREEDOM from all the devices of the enemy. I will remove the things that hinder you, and I want you to cry out for that liberty ! I want you to know that I’m listening for such cries of desperation in My beloveds ! I am not far off. I am a GOD close at hand.

I see the pain and torment of My people. I have the perfect timing arranged for this act of LIBERTY ! Know that I am NOT negligent in My duties as many of you are. I am FAITHFUL, even when you are not able to be as faithful as you would like. I know that there are strongholds over your soul that limit your ability to be as fruitful and obedient as you would like !

Do not give rest till it is established in your heart ! Keep on crying out ! Keep on asking and rest in your spirit to know that I have heard and am already working on the answers and I will do all that your heart desires in wanting freedom from the enemy. CLING TO ME My beloveds ! CLING TO the ONE WHO LOVES YOU AS NO OTHER LOVES YOU ! Worship Me in the beauty of holiness. Worship ME and come into My courts with PRAISE and thanksgiving and I will restore all the enemy has stolen.

Cry out for hearts that are still ASLEEP in this nation ! CRY OUT for those who are numbed by all that is happening ! SPEAK THE WORD and storm the gates of the enemy ! GATHER TOGETHER and PRAY and WEEP for the daughter of your people ! This nation will celebrate Independence Day, but the judgment for choosing to be independent from ME will surely come and people will be shattered for the way that it comes !

CRY OUT FOR HUMILITY !
CRY OUT FOR REPENTANCE !
CRY OUT FOR CONVICTION !
CRY OUT FOR SOULS !
CRY OUT FOR GRACE TO OVERCOME ALL THAT IS COMING UPON YOU !
CRY OUT FOR THE YOUTH OF THIS NATION !

There are evil plans already in play to indoctrinate them in evil. And the enemy has already stolen the majority of them into the world and the lusts of the flesh. He has indoctrinated them into humanism through the schools and television. Pray that the eyes would be opened and their ears would be opened. Pray that GLORY WILL FALL in AWAKENING on this nation as the next swift blow comes. OPEN YOUR MOUTHS and TESTIFY of ME in this season whenever you are in the marketplace !

But it is a time of coming aside to ME for healing and restoration. It is a time of introspection and quietness and rest, and of seeking MY FACE that

You may be filled to the full with ME. I WILL RESTORE MY BRIDE and you will go forth singing and with GREAT JOY as I release the chains that have bound you. A NEW WIND IS BLOWING. The hot summer winds have come and the SON is shining on AMERICA. I have listened to the watchmen on the walls and I am bringing a wind of CHANGE. THOUGH there will be destruction from the enemy, there will be a RESTORATION in this nation of Godliness amidst the turmoil and sadness, there will come a wave of HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD in those called to MY KINGDOM ! The kingdoms of this world will become the Kingdoms of Christ. Nations will be saved in one day ! WATCH, for the season of escalation has come ! The LION of JUDAH ROARS out of HIS abode ! He will ROAR over His people and HE WILL BRING LIBERTY ! NO MORE SILENCING OF THE LAMBS !

HE WILL ROAR OUT OF THE MOUTHS OF HIS PEOPLE ! HE WILL ROAR OUT OF THE MOUTHS OF THE YOUTH OF THE NATIONS ! HE WILL GIVE VOICE to silence the enemy’s reign in the lives of others. He will show great and marvelous works to the children of men ! Signs and wonders and miraculous displays of His power will astound the masses. Hold on, HOLD ON ! BE STRONG in the power of HIS MIGHT ! DEPEND ON THE LORD FOR HE IS YOUR STRONG TOWER, AND THE STRENGTH OF YOUR RIGHT ARM ! HE WILL NOT LEAVE YOU COMFORTLESS ! ARISE AND SHINE FOR BEHOLD THE BRIDEGROOMS STEPS DOWN FROM HIS THRONE. HE WILL SPEAK SWEET WORDS TO HIS BRIDE, BUT TO THE WICKED HE WILL BECOME A TERROR ! TO THOSE CALLED TO BE HIS, HE WILL REVEAL HIMSELF. HE WILL SPEAK TO HIS OWN IN LOVINGKINDNESS AND TENDERNESS, BUT TO THE WICKED THEY WILL BE TORMENTED.

Lion With The Honey

Catharina Schouten

With great thanks to: Susan Vannice for helping me with the translation

I Am that I Am. I have created the world; everything that is in the world, under the world and above the world was created by Me. If you look around yourselves, you see I Am, but the evidence is under a dark layer of filth from the evil one. People are always afraid that I will take something away from them. I am not taking away, but only removing the dark, dirty layer. I remove the dirty layer so that people will see Me through you. I want to purify you and make you holy. People are always saying satan goes around like a roaring lion, but I tell you that I Am The Roaring Lion of Judah with the Honey in His mouth. In the Lion is the Truth!

Honey is good for your palate (that is your mouth, your words and what you speaking). Once it goes down it is good for the organs of your body especially your heart. I Am is waiting. The people are singing, “Come Lord Jesus Come,” but I will come WHEN my Bride is without spot, blemish or wrinkle. I do not ask, “Give me your pure heart,” no, I am asking for your heart, and then I will make it pure. You may think that love is always soft and sweet, but I am The Roaring Lion of Judah and I A*m* The Love, and I am so tired of waiting. I have been merciful for such a long time and I am still calling and waiting. I need my body to show the world ME! Don’t give me part of your heart, or some of your heart, but all of your heart! I am the One who wants to do something new that no eye has seen or no ear has heard. But if I give you My fire through My Spirit, you will run with it in the flesh and in your own power. When you take it upon yourselves to repeat what I have done in a meeting or a conference, then My Holy Fire becomes strange or profane fire and the meeting or the conference will become a golden calf. Men don’t see Me and don’t think of Me, but only think about the meeting and what happened. You will do things that I did not ask you to do, and you send yourselves. I am creative and I do things differently each time. My fire is not predictable, and you cannot tame it. I told Moses, “You are standing on holy ground, take off your shoes.” He was not allowed to walk in his own power, but only in and through Me, not in his own shoes, or his own command. I put the words, MY words, in his mouth and not the other way around. I sent him, not the other way around. I need people like Moses; I do not need Pharaohs. The heart of the Pharaoh was hardened. Don’t harden your heart.

You should take My fire with you and give it to others, but instead you quench it by saying things I never told you to say, and doing things I did not tell you to do. You are quenching the fire by doing things in your own strength. The fire comes through obedience to ME, not my obedience to you. I gave My people the manna they needed. Except for the Sabbath they were to collect it on a daily basis. They were to collect it daily so that it would be fresh in their bellies each day. Follow Me, I Am your God and I am making a way. I am going to do things no eye has seen and no ear has heard. Let me carry you on My wings; the wings of my Spirit. I want to roar, I am The Lion with the Honey in Me. Honey is sweet for those who circumcise their hearts but bitter for those who walk in the flesh. The I Am is giving you a choice today!

Guiding Light
Catharina Schouten

Today I have been receiving some e-mails all with the same subject:
It was about jealousy and striving
One dear sister was under an attack about here way of writing and another brother confessed me he was striving with his wife and all that were around him....

Than I called Tina my dear sister in the Lord and she told me she had felt the same thing, so we prayed about this together and asked Abba to use us as instruments in this matter.
I asked the Lord, Father have You something to say?
And I believe this is what He told me:

I am the Lord Your God who leads and guides you.
I am the "Guiding Light" teaching you all things through My Wisdom.
The world is dark and needs to see My Light.
It is time for My children to "Arise and Shine" forth My light that I have placed within you.
It is not about teaching each other more and more, for My church as grown spiritually fat, but reaching out teaching the lost souls ,the people I want taught by Me through you.
Do not think you are better than one another, for you all were once babes and I am forever patient with you! It is the love in your heart I am seeking to send out as a beacon of light, not your qualities or education. You do not have to seek qualification from others to prove yourself worthy of My attention.
I am purifying, teaching and sifting what needs to be removed from you.
Those who allow My Holy Spirit to teach them shall be the ones I will chose to proclaim My Name and display My Glory.
These will be in My Army (Joel 2:11)
I chose whom I want to chose, it does not matter what they look like to the world, I can and will use anyone that will humble themselves before Me with a servants heart. I will only shine through the humble of hearts. Humble yourselves and I will exalt you. I am the One who is allowed to choose. I will choose what the world calls foolish to confound those who call themselves wise.
All wisdom comes from My Spirit
To those I have chosen, you know My Voice, so listen to My voice, and do not be deceived by the enemy's plans to stop your destinies by jealousy, envy and strife among you. The enemy is dividing the brethren, do not allow him the opportunity, resist temptation and he will flee.
Come back to Me, all must repent and allow Me to be The First and The Last. Come to Me and Kneel down because I will raise those who bow to My Authority, I will chose these humble ones as My chosen instruments to be "good speakers" and "good writers" who yield themselves to My Holy Spirit to make their tongue's the pens of ready writers.
I must have first place in your lives, there is no place for jealousy and strife in the Spirit of Truth. Do not allow a little leaven to ruin your heart!
Those who chose to touch and do harm to My Anointed are doing it unto Me. You are called through love to direct others to the Love of Christ Jesus, Yashua the Messiah, My Son, who redeemed all of you from death, so all may enter into My Kingdom.
There is only One Ministry, not his and her’s; there is no one group better than the other. All of you are needed to make My Body on earth. The hands need the feet to serve! Stop and remember why you first said yes to My call upon your life.

I am moving through the rejected to bring those the world would not chose into My Light. Does a poor man get saved by a rich man who has not experienced poverty himself? Those who have received the gift of My Son have a relationship not a religion with Him and will seek out the lost sheep for their shepherd. These precious hearts's are feeling My compassion and love for the lost. seek and surround yourselves with those brother's and sister's whom I am choosing in this hour and share their joy, as you do, you will be lifted higher by being around them. This is how anointings are spread by "Catching The Fire" not the cold of jealousy!
Be free from offense ,there is no thing not a word, action, deed nor death that you should allow to hurt you, remember you are shielded by Me, you may not see it, but I am around you, I will cause order to fall into place if you allow me and not try to do it yourselves by striving

Living Scrolls

Danny Korakas

Jul 28, 2005

The events of historical antiquity such as what is recorded in the Hebrew Bible were communicated over centuries in various ways. The ways and Words of God were passed down through oral and various forms of written communication. The first manuscripts or writings, whether secular or biblical, were in the form of scrolls. The ancient biblical scrolls consisted of sheets of leather sewn together, resembling the Torah scrolls that are still used today in many synagogues. With this material (leather) in mind, an animal would have been sacrificed and its blood shed for the written Word to be received upon it before the shedding of Christ's blood.

The Bible states along with the prophecies revealed that the Word of God is now written upon our hearts. Essentially we are "living scrolls" and a testimony of God's Word and power. When we were born, an event transpired in the spirit realm – God leaned down from heaven and breathed the miracle of life into us and gave us a living soul and spirit created in His image.

Scientists have conducted studies on the phenomenon of sound travel and have found recordings moving in the upper atmosphere and space from the foundations of radio broadcasts in the early part of the last century. This is remarkable and speaks "volumes" that our words truly never fall to the ground. The Bible says that, "Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks." We know whether God's Word is scrolled upon our heart by the words that we speak and the actions and mannerisms that those words represent. Once words are spoken, whether for good or bad, are locked eternally in the spirit realm to be released at the consummation of the ages.

The Bible is clear that our actions and WORDS spoken behind closed doors will be "proclaimed from the rooftops." This is not only a coming reality in the spirit, but now scientifically proven to be a dynamic in the natural. I am certain that every lie or ungodly word that I have spoken have come back to confront me and to potentially harm me. (There is an unseen power within the dynamic of word and sound) Our own words are Satan's primary weapon in stealing our hopes, killing our dreams, and destroying our futures and abundant life. Satan cannot create…It is what we (as created in God's image) have the ability to create (spoken words) that Satan uses to harm us. Satan is the prince of the air or atmosphere and our words spoken in conflict to God's Word and grace are gathered and stored by Satan himself as a testimony against us. Just as the godly prayers and tears of the saints are gathered by the Lord and stored in heavenly jars or bowls – I believe that Satan is bottling our ungodly words and using them against us as a curse within the divine and righteous principle of "reaping and sowing."

The desire to communicate was also represented by words carved and placed upon stone. The Commandments of the Old Covenant were written by the hand of God upon stone tablets. Likewise, the laws of mankind in antiquity were once "written in stone." In the New and better covenant, the Lord's Word's and Commandments are written upon "tablets of flesh" – Our hearts and conscience. It is the Lord's desire that we be the scroll of His Word to be spread out for all of humanity to read. Things that are written well upon the heart of a believer creates a picture of hope and broadens the views and vision of the lost to the limitless possibilities that serving a caring and loving God can afford. Beloved, if God has breathed life into you, filled you with His Spirit, written His Word upon your heart (Christ, "the Word" in you, the hope of glory), then "you" are the scroll or manuscript that the Lord has designed for the lost and hurting to read. The question we must ask is, "What are others "reading" in my life and what picture or impression have I painted in the mind of others to behold? Do they see Christ – The Word in us?

Being "living scrolls" becomes ever clear as we move forward within the prophecies of the end times. "And I saw the in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne a scroll written INSIDE and on the back, sealed with seven seals. Then I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, 'Who is worthy to open the scroll and loose its seals? And no one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll, or to look at it. So I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open and read the scroll, or to look at it. But one of the elders said to me, 'Do not weep. Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root Of David, has prevailed to open the scroll and to loose its seven seals…Now when

He had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. And they sang a new song, saying: 'You are worthy to take the scroll, and to open its seals; for you were slain, and have redeemed us to God by your blood. Out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation, and have made us kings and priests to our God; and we shall reign on the earth. (Revelation 5:1-5, 8-10)

In the time that these words were given to John according to the Spirit of God; scrolls that were bound by seven seals were the title deeds to an inheritance of land. The rightful recipient would know if the entitled inheritance was tampered with if one or more of the seals were broke. These verses in Revelation have a two-fold meaning and purpose. First, the tile deed to the earth will be taken and given back to Christ. "All things were made through Him (Christ), and without Him nothing was made that was made." (John 1:3)

The earth when it was "good" was made through Christ and He was the sole owner or title holder of it. Man, who was created "very" good (See Genesis 1:31) in His image and love was blessed with a wonderful inheritance and gift – the "earth" and the ability to conquer and subdue any thing that would trespass or attempt to steal that gift. Unfortunately and sadly, man forfeited his and her inheritance to the serpent (Satan) in their desire to be god's unto themselves. To this day, Satan continues to hold the title deed to the world and its system through deception. However, as we read earlier, the "scroll" or title deed to the earth will be justly taken back by Jesus Christ in glory, honor, and power.

Redemption will be sweet as the people of God will once again experience the fruit of being joint heirs with Christ as we (the church) reign with our Lord as kings and priest to our God. The scroll in Revelation was sealed with seven seals which I believe represent the seven-fold spirit of God.

"Grace to you and peace from Him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne." (Revelation 1:4) We find in Isaiah 11 the manifestation of the seven –fold spirit of God. "There shall come forth a Rod from the stem of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots. (1) The Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon Him, (2) The Spirit of wisdom and (3) understanding, (4) the Spirit of council, and (5) might, (6) the Spirit of knowledge (7) and of the fear of the Lord.

To be filled with the fullness of God's Spirit, is to move in the seven areas of "communication" listed in Isaiah 11. Partaking of the inheritance in Christ Jesus is the church demonstrating before the world the "rest and peace" that the Spirit of God within them empowers. As the seals will be broke and opened, righteous judgment will come upon the earth as mankind will be judged in their rejection of what the seven-fold spirit represents in God's desire for mankind. We (the church) will judge the inhabitants and demonic entities of the earth with Christ and our willingness and desire to walk in the Spirit of wisdom, understanding, council, might, knowledge and in the fear of the Lord will be the LANGUAGE that the lost and hurt will understand and be able to read as we allow Christ to break and unfold us before the world.

Beyond the walls of wherever you are reading this are literally billions of souls who are DYING for the Words of life that God would speak through you. The power of life and death are upon your tongue."

I was awakened by Father this morning going on 3 a.m. I have been sharing His grief for quite some time over many of His own and their activity on the internet and His Faithful Ones everywhere are sharing this grief. I had thought that my prophecy posting on the net had come to an end in December of last year but He said to repost this word once again as a message from His heart to His Faithful Ones. Although small in number, you have been chosen by the I AM for such a time as this.... hold fast even through all the grief that you have been feeling and the circumstances you have been going through, for the time is truly nigh that the I AM will raise you up in these last days.

"Then a cloud appeared and enveloped them, and a voice came from the cloud: "This is My Son, whom I love. LISTEN to Him!: SUDDENLY*, when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus." Mark 9:7-8*

My Faithful Ones, I have marked your heart, I have lead your in a path unfamiliar to you ... a path reserved for those who have cried out to ME and said "Here am I, use me" - a path reserved for those who have said yes to My call. This path has not been an easy one, but one of preparation and training. A path that has fine-tuned the fruits of the spirit in you and has been making you ready. Even now some are beginning to despise this path but I say unto you "don't despise this path but praise Me for it .... as you have received a wealth that could not have been received in any other way. You are truly blessed above measure!!!

To My hurting daughters, I say unto you - from the King to My daughter, you are highly loved and My scepter has been extended to you, for you are My chosen. You are highly favored by Me and I will give to you your requests for you are favored. You have endured the preparations as Esther did to make oneself presentable to the King. I have chosen you and made you My own, now ask what you will.

My Faithful Ones, hear the word of the Lord. I am taking you out of your places of obscurity and will place you to proclaim the riches of the truths of the Kingdom of God. You have been faithful with the little and now it is time for you to be given more.

I have nurtured and wooed you into the calling. I have set aside that which only you can fulfill. I have protected you and covered you with My feathers. You are My Chosen and no-one can fulfill your calling as it is your calling. You are all different but you shall work together, for I AM a God of order. I have been your instructor and I will continue to be your instructor and will lead you and guide you. Take advantage of the days set before you for each day has been set by Me as they have been set in the past. Those of you who have answered the call have been pressed on all sides and you have been prepared. Yes, there are more to arise, but their preparation will not take as long as the time is very short. They will join you in the call and they will hold up your right hand as you go forth proclaiming My Love, Crying out for repentance, for My judgment and My mercy. My mercy, Beloved, Remember ..... "my mercy", for it truly endures forever.

Haven't I said Seek you first the Kingdom of God and His Righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you? You have sought Me and My righteousness is upon you that you may go forth in My Name. There is no time to put off or tarry on those things I have instructed you. The "quickly's" are happening. The time has come and the now is for those I have called to come forth. Seek me continuously and the way will be made manifest to you. I will reveal My distinct plan for you but you must seek Me continually and the way will be made manifest to you. This is the time to diligently seek My face and instructions will come forth from My lips. Have I not said it, have I not proclaimed it to you? I have sent forth a proclamation on your behalf and it has been sealed with My signet ring, therefore it MUST be done. I have called forth My messengers and decreed all that I have proclaimed and all that I have declared on your behalf and it shall come to pass and be accomplished. Delays have come to an end in My timetable and My Word will be made manifest in all ways.

The day you have waited for is dawning, it is drawing near. You have waited and waited - now see Me accomplish what seems un-accomplishable. It is from My hand, the giver of all good things! Eye has not seen .... Ear has not heard .... the wonders which I have for you. Wonders that I, your Father and your God has hand picked for each of you. I have been bringing revelation as such as not been heard before. I have chosen you and I have prepared you...do not let one morsel slip by or through your fingers. You are chosen and favored by ME....if you could only perceive or realize the Love that I have for you....if you did, then you would know without a doubt that I will do and accomplish all I have promised you. Do not give up, continue to be in a state of readiness for you shall ride! I cannot promise the path will be free of thorns and thistles and rocks but I can promise you the ride of your life!

The call is going forth, the shofar is being blown to call My chosen ones together. You are being called to formation, as of an army. Called to assemble, called to listen diligently to your commander in chief. Great and Mighty is the Lord your God and I AM doing great and mighty acts and I AM about to display even greater than any of you could ask or think. Watch as the book of ACTS concludes in these last days. I call you faithful, I call you My very own chosen. Now .... Listen, My Chosen Ones, Listen! Listen very closely*....* Listen for surely it comes and suddenly!!!! LISTEN!!!!

This is not a 6 step plan on how to hear God's voice, these are simply pointers that I pray will help you in your walk with Jesus as you seek to grow in knowing Him & hearing the His voice. This may be passed along as you feel led.

Above all, may we always echo the prayer of Samuel:

Speak Lord for your servant is listening – 1 Samuel 3:9

L – Learn to maintain your time with the Lord. Choose a time every day to spend with Jesus. Maintain your relationship with the Lord. Consistently meet with Him, desiring to hear His voice. Do it daily and the Lord will begin to teach you to hear His voice. It's all about making yourself available to Jesus to hear His voice. The Lord will not turn away a hungry heart seeking to hear His voice. Without these times daily, your relationship with the Lord will become stagnant and dry, and you will not know His voice for yourself. The Lord speaks to people who make themselves available to Him. Mark 1:35.

I – Indulge in the Word. Allow His Word to speak to you. Ask the Spirit to speak to you through His Word. This is the most common way that God speaks. Psalm 119, Luke 24:13-35.

S – Silence (Zeph 1:7). Spend time soaking in His presence. You can do this through worship, quiet your heart before the Lord. Lay down all your worries and expectations, and ask the Lord to speak to your heart. In a world that is full of distraction, we are constantly 'on the go' - unless we are taking the time to spend silently before the Lord, we will be influenced by many voices, and not hear that still small voice within us, His voice.

T – Thank the Lord for His promises of Him enabling us as His children to hear His voice. Never lose your thankful heart. (Psalm 138:1-3).

E – Expect Him to speak. Expect the Lord to be faithful to that which He has spoken (Psalm 38:15), and educate yourself on the ways that the Lord speaks. (Job 33:14) The Lord can speak through many ways.

* He can speak in an audible voice to you like He did in 1 Samuel 3.
* He speaks in an internal voice to us. Into our hearts, and into our minds.
* The Lord speaks through the world. Romans 1:19-20.
* He speaks through visions and dreams. Numbers 12:6, Acts 22:17-18. The Lord may also appear before you and speak to you as in Acts 9.
* He can speak to you through impressions, through a 'knowing'. Matthew 22:18, Nehemiah 7:5[1][1]

N – Never stop meeting with Jesus. If the Lord does not speak to you in the way you desire, don't give up. The Lord will speak in the way He chooses and if you are continually quieting your heart, seeking to know Him and hear His voice He will speak to you. The Lord desires to speak to you more than you want to hear Him. He may speak to you through a person that He will send, but learn to listen to him yourself and he will act. After the death and resurrection of Jesus the great news is that we are now all able to hear directly from God as his beloved children. (Romans 8:14-16, 26-27)

Dr Jack Deere (http://www.jackdeere.com) states – God may speak in sentence fragments. The fragment is clear but the meaning may not be, Isaiah 8:1, but always remember that the Lord will never contradict His Word (1 Cor 14:37) and is consistent with His character (James 3:17). The fruit of God’s voice is good (Matthew 7:15-23), and His voice is different to ours. (Isaiah 55:8-9).

Matthew 28:18-20 - The Great Commission

My precious church, how I love and adore you. How you are My delight, and I long to pour My love over each of you in ways you've never experienced.

Many of you are sitting within situations of bondage and are allowing the bondage to continue to engulf you. I am instructing you My church, that you must love My Word. Use My Word. Do not allow the circumstances and situations that are thrown at you to cause you distress overwhelm you. For the power of My Word is like a double edged sword that can cut through the hearts and situations of many.

My church, there is so much unbelief within My church, and so many that are comfortably spectating. My precious church, relationship with Me is not a spectator sport. You are to use what I have given you to move forward in Me, and in all that I have called you too.

My church, do not get comfortable where you are. Do not be focused on programs and timetables but be focused on Me, and My Spirit. Be comfortable in Me, do not be comfortable in the seats within your churches.

For when will you go My church? When will you not look inward anymore but look outward to what is happening around you? Oh My church, how I love you. I long to take you further into knowing My character.

There is so much despair and grief within the church today, and many of you have become comfortable in your bondage. Come to Me, and allow Me to show you how to move out of this place. Use My Word and speak over your circumstances and situations and allow Me to release healing in and through each of you.

I have called you My church to step out into the world. Many of My church today are calling people within. Fellowship is very important My church, as it is My heart, but I have called My body, My church to step out.

To get out of the boat, and seek Me, serve Me. Get out of the four walls of the church, and serve others. Take the Gospel to the world.

Taking the Gospel to the world is not just for those who are gifted or are in ministry, taking the Gospel to nations is for each of My children. The commission has been given to each of you.

Oh My church listen to what My Spirit is crying out. For who will minister to the lost and dying if you My church does not rise up?

Stop being comfortable My church. Do not get comfortable being ministered TOO, but get comfortable ministering and serving others.

For the man that gives out and refreshes others, will himself be refreshed.

My church, I am your first love. I am your God, for if you do not get out of your comfort zones and speak out, then who will? The rocks will cry out.

My heart is saddened My church, for I am calling out 'who will go?, who will go for Me?' and very few are hearing My call.

My church, as you step out, I will equip you, I will be with you, I will lead you.

For a time of great harvest is coming to this earth packaged within a great shaking. I am sending out My leaders now. Those that have been hidden are being sent out. Sent out to nations, sent out into marketplaces, sent out into streets, sent out into the highways and by-ways.

Will you go My church or will you continue to sit in that which is comfortable?

Will you rise up in situations that are bringing bondage upon you, speaking out My Word, and allowing My healing to become manifest in your lives?

For there is great power in My name, and many of you have not received because you ask and believe not.

Choose today My church. Will you remain where you are?

My Glorious Bride, I am bringing about a great polishing and sparkle to My church for all to see.

Will you heed My call?

Little Jack Russell

Becky McLendon

We now have to pen our little Jack Russell up when we leave the house in our cars. He chased my husband’s car all the way to the county road yesterday...over a mile. This is where dogs get "dumb". In their puppy exuberance they chase after their master at times when they are not supposed to go where he is going. In the chase they get into danger and gulp a lot of dust that is thrown in their face. In the chase they run fast to try to “keep up” with the master but there is no way they can go in their own strength as far as he is going and as fast as he goes.

Jack Russells are ferociously faithful to their master. They are tenacious about clinging to their masters. It is interesting, however, that this little dog pens up very obediently...does not complain too much, nor does he try to dig out of the pen. So he does know his master's voice and touch; just needs the correction and the direction.

It is amazing how God handles us. There are times He appears to "leave us" and go somewhere that we cannot go, so He has to pen us up and feed us there. Making sure we always have fresh water and food. There are other times He says to us HOP IN, we have something to do, and we gladly hop in and go wherever He takes us. Our challenge is discerning the difference. The cross and manger seem to be the same, and we eat only what is carried to us out of his hands. The religious world scoffs at us when we remain in the “pen” and don’t go chasing after Jesus with extreme zeal. On the other hand the heathen world laughs at our zeal for our Master. We are laughed at when we do and laughed at when we don’t. Same spirit, different system. Jesus looks for those that have become fools for him. Our "meat" is to do the will of the Father who sends us and the Father who keeps us “penned” in His will.

In both situations there God is. The "PEN" is where we are now in Him. We wait for Him to bring us living water and food. We wait for Him to open the gate and say "LET’S GO!!! ” Many times when it appears He has "left" us is when He is actually going ahead of us to prepare a place for us, and until it is prepared, we cannot go where He goes. He looks for a people who have no guile, and if we try to "chase Him when He is going somewhere that we don't belong," that is guile! He wants us to remain in place until HE takes us or sends us.

Little Jack Russell was penned up for being carnal and for his own protection. He may protest: ”BUT JESUS I WANNA GO WITH YOU.

But the Lord says, “This is not for YOU. There are dangers and snares you are not spiritually ready to handle. I want you to remain here until I have need of you.”

Little Jack Russell says: But I want to be NEEDED NOW.

Jesus answers, “But I NEED you to remain here. I NEED a people who will hear my voice and obey me, NO MATTER WHAT.”

So He pens little Jack Russell up with food and water.

JESUS, we want YOUR food and we don't mind being penned up in you to be able to eat it. For if we were running "free" we might chase after cars and lose our way in the car's dust cloud. We are PENNED in the living Word!!! Therefore, we remain in JESUS. He has PENNED us on the tablet of His heart to keep us from being like dumb dogs, chasing after things we think we need to belong to, even if it is out of a heart that loves the Master. In a no carnality marriage type relationship, little Jack Russell will wait patiently for the Lord's commands and obey them...no guile, no agenda.

Amen.
Blessings and Shalom.
Becky

Persuaded
Becky McLendon

The Lord woke me up recently teaching me about "persuaded." To be almost persuaded is the same as to fall short of the glory of God. He has said a huge percentage of those who call themselves "Christians" are “almost persuaded” but not converted, so they do not enter life.

Persuaded means

1. To bear or bring full, to make full
2. To cause a thing to be shown to the full
    1. To fulfill the ministry in every part
3. To carry through to the end, accomplish
    1. Things that have been accomplished
4. To fill one with any thought, conviction, or inclination
    1. To make one certain, to persuade, convince one
    2. To be persuaded, persuaded, fully convinced or assured
    3. To render inclined or bent on

Romans 4:17 (as it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even god, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were. 18 who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, so shall thy seed be. 19 and being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah’s womb: 20 he staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; 21 and being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. 22 and therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

Persuaded is to be converted to a matter! Persuaded is to be perfect in that matter! Persuaded is not I but Jesus only. King Agrippa was "almost persuaded" but did not enter in. Many have almost made it into Jesus' life. They are almost persuaded. Some have preached revelation and then recanted. Then they went back to their vomit. They were almost persuaded.

It used to be people had a place to go to but Jesus will make a clean place: a place of full persuasion, of conversion. We have a place at his table. It is a table of full persuasion. We love our Jesus. We eat what Jesus eats. The mighty powerful man-child will come forth, uttering His voice. We will speak with converted tongues. Laws are being made to resist the man-child. church meetings deciding how to keep it from happening whoever will set thorns and briars against the man child, he will go through. His witnesses are: His persuaded ones. His converted ones...only the converted can preach this way. This is not man or woman this is the man-child. The church will be saying, antichrist! Mark of the beast! But the train doesn't hear them; it doesn't slow down for them. The engine is in the kingdom cars right behind it. It is a a present truth train: a man child train.

The time is short for those making laws. Many mass deaths will take place. Jesus being the preacher we will never have to take thought. We will soon be poured out among the nations. The skeptics however won’t like it and they will challenge it. They will be asking what school did you go to. They don’t know we get alone with our teacher every day.

Jesus gives and Jesus takes away. There are many strong delusions being sent out, but as the Lord's ministers we wait for Him. He is the preacher for now. This is the Israel that came out of Egypt. Or those that knew not until the flood came. We must have and want that anointing that raised Jesus from the dead. But there are so many like Namaan instead of dipping seven times, they say, “let him come out and lay hands on me.” This generation, instead of going to muddy Jordan, they are looking for prayer lines. Those are cleaner and we always have our medicine if it doesn't work. And we can blame those "ministers" because we didn't get healed. Muddy Jordan could also mean dealing with sin in your life and letting God teach you how to eat right and live in Him rather than our own "stuff." in a world that knows not. Chickens with their heads off know not. They are running around flopping as though they were "alive" but they have no head. I wrote on that a few years ago...and wow i got scathed for it. "Give the church a break" "you are too judgmental." Jesus tells us to hate it yet it has become a giant in some people. They are at ease in Zion: at ease in their self-righteousness.

America regards people’s persons. There is the retirement of O’Connor and the appointment of Roberts: So much is being said about it, but other important people are ignored as if they don't count. How many famous preachers are going to be doing exploits? Or will they just sell “healing” water? So much of it stinks and it is what the world goes after. If folks would know God and seek for His kingdom and righteousness, they would realize it’s their life and not His that goes to the hospitals. His life doesn't need medication. His life is what man is willing to lose his own life for. He finds a place for healings, when there Is no place for Christ’s head. It seems some people, have reached their destination. This happened during the flood, and it happens now. "He is saying through us how often, I would have gathered you." We must go to our generation. The anointing moves us on.

There was a generation that belonged to Joshua, and now there is a generation that belongs to the man-child. Many belong to “the great man of God’s anointing or some other "great man of God's anointing"...I see many who belong” word of faith anointing and hang on to it as thought it were pure gold. They will die in that anointing. Just like the Jews died in the wilderness ...the "exodus anointing" because of their love for the "Egypt" anointing Jesus said those that belonged to his anointing, will come to his anointing. People gather to that man, or woman’s anointing and those men don't want you to go any further. So the dead bury the dead in their anointing and that’s where they die. They want you to join your "house" to their house. And God says woe to those who join house to house: field-to-field. There is a people he will leave them in the anointing they are in and go on in Jesus. He said where I am in my Father’s anointing there you may be also. He says i will leave you or forsake you. But there is a people whom he will leave in the anointing they are in. Those that "have it all " in a man's anointing are Laodicea...."we have need of nothing. We are rich and increased in goods." trouble they are not increased in God. When any man says, "when you believe my way you get it all," they are building the church of Laodicea. Thank God Jesus didn't leave our souls in that hell.

The word says, “be not unequally yoked with unbelievers.” To be equally yoked we have be in the same anointing. we must be hearing what he is saying. The man-child has waited for a people that belong to his anointing. Creation groans for this. In men's anointing, men try to "steal" each others' "sheep"...but the sheep of God only gather God's sheep. Men’s anointing forces an unequal yoking. In his anointing when we look like failures, there simply wasn't any body for our net. And “our net” is really his. We must become his perfect body in the earth, so “junk” fish will not be found in his net. Men say we fail because our “numbers” are not great, but the 153 fish we have in the net is his perfect body. The 153 fish in the net is the whole tithe that is brought into his storehouse. The Lord has not let us do cures. But we go to the man-child. He has kept these other ministries from us.

We didn't get stuck with a people that didn't want to go anywhere. In spirit Moses was stuck to that people that came out of Egypt. And, because he struck the rock, he died with them. Most “ministers have looked good in the eyes of men, as they smote the rock. They looked like they had a lot of anointing and authority in the things of God, but in the end they died with the people they were stuck with to keep their numbers. They say they went on to be with the lord, when what happened was there was a departing from a ministry. These men made it all “my ministry” rather than god’s anointing. When God says leave them alone, he is saying they do not belong to your anointing. We have a vision; we have directions, and we have orders. It is Jesus, and we, and no man’s anointing can be added to it. A perfect Jesus will be in us. The more persuaded we are the more perfect he is in us. Religion has a dragon supporting it, a very powerful spirit. We refuse to hear what the dragon teaches. Instead of Jesus preaching the dragon has been preaching. Religion is so full of lies. We have been saved from that hell. In his anointing we rest in his perfection. We rest as he orders our steps.

Isaiah 42:2-6 he shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.
A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth. He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law. Thus saith God the lord, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein: i the Lord have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of

Its not things its perfection that never dies for us. Increased in goods is not godliness. The increase of God is. We have nothing to boast of. That is a key to life...nothing to boast about, save Jesus. Instead of wanting the anointing so much to give us things that we lust after, it is the anointing creating the needs and then providing the needs. That way we can say Jesus did it and not our own works. Men toil and work to add to their earthly goods, but the Lord adds without the toiling, and it is always enough. The Lord is saying quit your toiling and let me do the adding. Enter my rest, for therein lies perfection in holiness.

Some Thoughts On The Word Revival
Becky McLendon

This morning the Lord was showing me about "Revival". Now I know what I will be praying for when folks say "We need to pray for "revival".

Revival does not come to make our carnal self "feel good" and have a "happy experience in Jesus"

Revival comes to get to the very ROOT of our carnality and KILL IT so that Jesus can be IN US.

Revival does not come to bring "LIFE" to dead carnality or religion. It comes to DESTROY everything that we hold dear and comfortably so that Jesus can LIVE AGAIN in us and through us. REVIVAL means "LIVE AGAIN"...who in their right mind would want to REVIVE dead works and dead faith and the spirit of DEATH? Revival comes so that CHRIST can LIVE!!! AMEN.

Lost Keys To The Kingdom

Yolanda Ballard

Apr 28, 2005Blessings to all!

I thank the Lord for the opportunity to introduce to the body of Christ Evangelist Stan Johnson's new book, LOST KEYS TO THE KINGDOM. You will receive keys of revelation concerning God's word that will set captives free, bring protection and enable you to possess the Kingdom of God.

For information to order your copy today:

http://www.gladtidingsministry.org/index.html

And also if anyone desires to have Evangelist Stan Johnson come to your church or home fellowship meeting to minister and share revelation concerning his book, contact him at:

Stan@GladTidingsMinistry.org

I am looking forward to my own meeting with the evangelist to see how the Lord will move concerning my son's healing and deliverance with these much needed tools of revelation. I have seen so many try to hold people down and use no faith or authority to try to set the captives free. The body has gone through so much unnecessary struggle and hardship with no avail in the deliverance ministry. It is time to see God's word produce much needed fruit.

Love in Christ,
Yolanda

Don't Lose Your Vision

Yolanda Ballard

Apr 28, 2005
Stay calm even though things may seem to be falling apart around you for it is not what it appears to be. For I AM doing a shaking and all that is not based upon the foundation of My word will be torn down. I am at the point now where I will not allow those who call themselves leaders to control and manipulate My people. So many have had a submissive and teachable heart and have subjected themselves to much deception and abuse. And because they have kept a right attitude in spite of the pain, I will set them free from the snares they have fallen into.

Yes, this is the day where I will reveal My truth in the matter concerning leadership, and I will open the eyes of My people to the misleading of those who call themselves by My name but really are only ravenous wolves. Yes, they are wolves in sheep's clothing. Yes, many have left the congregation of My people because they felt that they could not sit under the compromise and deception, but where are they this day? Are they growing in My Spirit? Have they held on to what they've known to be truth, or have they fallen to the wayside? This should not be.

I have called together My people to be one in Me and not for anyone to lord over another like cruel taskmasters. I've told you to trust in no man but to look to My word for revelation and counsel. Always check it out in the Scriptures what you hear over the pulpit. That is your own responsibility as a blood-bought believer in Christ.

I AM examining the hearts of My people to see if they are pure, to see if the motives behind what they are doing is of Me. Many are out to make a name for themselves and to build up their own kingdom. But I say this day that all that is not based upon Me will crumble and fall.

I AM doing a separating work. I am separating the vile form the pure, and those who have gone through the fire of My love and are still faithful will stand in My end-time army of worshiping warriors. Yes, it is not over yet. The enemy might look like he has the upper hand but it is all temporary. I am still in control, and I am using all things to bring about My glory and My will. And My bride will rise up glorious as the new morn sun.

So, do not fret and remain calm when it looks like things are falling apart around you. It is not what it appears to be. Rise up and be strong. Don't lose your vision. Yes, keep your focus of intercession. Rejoice in your heart for We have the victory!!!

Load Down

Maria Magruder

God On the "Load Down"

By Maria Magruder

Ps 68:8-9 The earth shook; The heavens also dropped rain at the presence of God; Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
9 You, O God, sent a plentiful rain, Whereby You confirmed Your inheritance, When it was weary.

The body of Christ has entered the time of great acceleration and great performance of God's optimum results. We are in the time where the rain of God is pouring out on His people. God isn't just sending a little sprinkle of rain, He is sending, according to His word a PLENTIFUL rain. The rain is the provision of God, it is the wealth of God that is given to us to establish His covenant and partake of His inheritance. He is not sending "just enough" rain to get by, He is sending "more than enough" rain, that will cause growth, acceleration and performance in every area of your life. God is doing this "thing" because at this time He is CONFIRMING the inheritance that belongs to you, even though you may be weary. Be of good cheer, God is confirming His inheritance, and confirming all that belongs to His sons and daughters. It's the day of confirmation! This rain, and this confirming is a day by day performance. He is sending you rain, He is sending you the solution and He is sending you the answer every day!!! Daily! Daily, God is sending you answers and solutions to every circumstance that raises its ugly head against the Word of God. Every thing that contradicts the word of God in your life is being met with the power of God's provision, being met with God's answers and solutions. What you thought would take months to resolve will be resolved and restored in a day.

Ps 68:19 Blessed be the Lord, Who daily loads us with benefits, The God of our salvation!

Glory to God! Blessed be to our awesome, mighty God! God is loading us down daily baby! He is loading us down with so much plentiful rain of provision and wealth that we are being overtaken so much so we do not have room enough to receive it! It is a DAILY performance that God is doing. God is loading us down with all wisdom we need. Within this wisdom is ALL THINGS that you need, and ALL THINGS that the world needs. The wisdom that is loaded into you, the world is crying out for!

He is loading us down with benefits of knowledge on how to divinely handle business endeavors. When you are in the middle of a business contract or a business situation God is going to load you with the words to say, or the right questions to ask, to get you where you need to be, and cause great favor on your life. The world will be amazed at the wisdom you display in the area of business and financial endeavors.

God is going to load you down with DIRECTION, when you were planning to go one way, God is going to point you another direction, that's going to get you to your destination much quicker (acceleration) than if you had gone the other way.

God is going to load you down with the right words that will cause a lost person to find Christ in a day!

God is going to load you down with the right solution on your job, that will save the company from going bankrupt or out of financial trouble.

God is going to load you down with divine ideas that come from heaven, from messengers, from angels, carrying wealth and power in their words. God is going to load you down with mantles of power, mantles that will demonstrate God's love in power, providing the answer that the world needs. God is going to load you down with gifts of healing in the market place and everywhere you go, and people will be set free from cancers and terminal illness'. God is loading you down with the prophetic answers and solutions that the world is crying out for!

God is going to load you down with the GLORY! The glory is the wealth of God! God is going to load you down with all His riches and glory. God is going to load you down with wealth that will establish His covenant. God is going to load you down in the power of His love.

God is going to load you down with His optimum results of performance DAILY!

God is going to load you down with vehicles you need for your ministry, and family. God is going to load you down with houses you didn't even build. God is going to load you down with business' you didn't build, and the customer base is already setup. God is going to load you down with buildings and storehouses that will extend His Kingdom here on earth.

God is going to load you down with the right people for your business. God is going to load you down with the right people for your ministry. God is going to load you down with the right divine connections. God is going t load you down with revelations from heaven that have been hidden until these last times.

God is going to load you down with ALL of God's benefits! All of the inheritance that He has promised you!

Believer, open up your spiritual ears to hear, God is looking to load you down DAILY with His benefits. We know what God's benefits are, God's benefits are the answers and solutions to every situation in your life!

Ps 103:2-5 Bless the LORD, O my soul, And forget not all His benefits : 3 Who forgives all your iniquities, Who heals all your diseases, 4 Who redeems your life from destruction, Who crowns you with loving kindness and tender mercies, 5 Who satisfies your mouth with good things, So that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

God is confirming His inheritance that He has promised you since the time of Abraham. This plentiful rain that He is sending is for everyone who will BELIEVE.

Eph 1:18-19 the eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that you may know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, 19 and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe , according to the working of His mighty power.

It is His power to those WHO BELIEVE. His power, His plentiful rain works in those who believe. It's Gods desire that ALL will partake of His provision, and His inheritance that He has available to His sons and daughters, but only those who truly believe His word and what He has promised will see these daily performances and acceleration. We are in the latter days and times, and God's word says to ask for this rain of performance:

Zech 10:1 Ask the LORD for rain
In the time of the latter rain .
The LORD will make flashing clouds;
He will give them showers of rain ,
Grass in the field for everyone.

My friends, if you haven't been experiencing God's optimum daily performance in your life, then its time to "ask" God for the rain. For whatever you ask in His name He will do it! Glory! Lord send that daily rain, and load me down!

London Bombings

Roger Mitchell

Roger Mitchell has sent out the following. Roger has been involved with the apostolic/prophetic & strategic prayer for many years. He recognises that many in the Church will not completely agree with him on this.

A view in response to the London bombings:

Bombing, killing and wounding people is bad - we all agree. But we must recognise the context in which this has taken place. When the attack on the twin towers took place some of us did our level best to make the following position known. The subsequent events and now the bombings in London have underlined it even more.

1. The Western world is vulnerable to terrorist attacks because of things wrong in its own foundations. These things create a fault line, or expose a soft underbelly. These foundational faults are:

Ongoing economic injustice. Manifested in gross selfishness and protectionism, aimed at maintaining the economic power base and affluence of the West. This is expressed in terms of our current trade and economic aid, including the terms of the current debt clearances (eg: the conditions of the IMF and World Bank imposed on African nations even by the G8 summit leaders).

The abuse of Military power. Manifested in the dominance of the West, based on our superior nuclear weapons and our manipulation of the arms trade. This is expressed in our double standards of justifying war in Iraq (who we originally armed) on the grounds of their supposedly having weapons of mass destruction like we do and of pressuring Iran and North Korea over the same thing.

A Christendom-based church. Manifested in those church denominations, networks, congregations and ministries which align more or less uncritically with the foundational political, economic and military power bases of society outlined in (1) and (2) above. This is frequently expressed in the way that church government, theology, prayer and the prophetic is framed, interpreted and enacted.

These foundational sins are clearly denounced by the prophet Amos in Israel and in the other nations around them (See Amos Chs1-2). Amos makes it clear that societies where these foundational sins exist will be judged (i.e. given the consequences of what they are choosing) if there is no repentance.

2. Terrorist attacks such as those on the twin towers, the Madrid trains and the London transport system are the consequence of exposing ourselves to the jealousy, desperation and sin of those who are the victims of our injustice and abuse of power. Where misguided, false or violent political, racial or religious motives and movements already exist to exacerbate such reactions to our Western nations' sin, the mix provides the current extremely dangerous and destructive context for terrorism.

3. Western societies are the home of, and in many ways the product of, Christendom. It is imperative that the church repents for its uncritical alignment with these foundational sins of the western nations, brings a biblical response to terrorism, and demonstrates the way of peace.

Biblically, the answer to this terrorism is to come in the opposite spirit. That means repentance for our foundational sins and love and forgiveness towards our enemies. This must be expressed in empathy towards them as people despite the evil they perpetrate. It needs the willingness to recognise the context in which they are operating described above, radical and urgent efforts to change the injustices and abuses involved and the use of dialogue and blessing not violence and cursing in our attitudes towards them.

4. Since the attack on the twin towers, the Western World, and in particular the political and military leadership given by the USA and the UK, has exponentially increased our vulnerability to terrorism. Instead of coming in the opposite spirit, we have declared war on terror and invaded Afghanistan and Iraq. We have bombed, killed and wounded many civilians in the process, adding the desire for personal vengeance to the already existing jealousy, desperation and sin. It is crucial that the body of Christ humbly stands in the gap for these sins of the Western nations, especially the USA and the UK and agitates effectively for changed policies and behaviour in our nations.

5. Therefore, in summary, we want to make the following statements:

The random, indiscriminate and deliberate killing & maiming of the victims of the London Transport bombings of 7th July 2005 is to be utterly deplored.

The Western nations must turn from their idolatrous worship of guaranteed security, continuous economic growth and military strength, which takes place against the sinful background of exacerbated global poverty, unjust trade and an unrighteous arms trade.

The church in the West must repent as a matter of urgency from its Christendom mindset, its vindication of selfish political actions and its manifestation of a crusading rather than Christ-like response to terrorism.

We are trusting God for maximum grace as we pray for Europe at this time.

Looking Ahead
Bill Burns

2005 -- Looking Ahead

January 7, 2005

In John the 16th chapter and verse 13 the Lord Jesus Christ tells us that the Holy Spirit "will tell you things to come." I have sought the Lord regarding the things that He would have us know for 2005. The following is that which was revealed that I am to share at this time.

The Jubilee

The Lord has continued to speak of a special Jubilee for 2005. The significance of the Jubilee is found in Leviticus 25. The Grand Jubilee took place in 1998, 50 years after Israel became a nation in 1948. The Special Jubilee that we are entering into is a "Sabbath of solemn rest," seven years from 1998.

The sum total of the numbers in 2005 is seven. Genesis 2:1-3 tells us that God rested on the seventh day of creation, and He "blessed the seventh day." The number seven is God's number of perfection and completion and takes place in "rest." As we enter into a place of rest in the Lord in this coming year, we will receive His Jubilee blessings.

2004 was a year of turmoil because of God's shaking.
Hebrews 12:27 Now this, "Yet once more," indicates the removal of those things that are being shaken, as of things that are made, that the things which cannot be shaken may remain.
2004 was a year of separation. The Lord shook His Church so that the unrighteous would be separated from the righteous. He has torn down in 2004, but 2005 will be a year of restoration and rebuilding (Hosea 6:1-2).

Those who have remained faithful to the Lord will now enter a time of restoration as they come into the "rest of the Lord" in 2005. Resting in God's presence will quicken our faith to receive His grace. This will be a year of liberty and prosperity for the true worshipers of the Lord, those who worship in "spirit and in truth."

Great Grace

Acts 4:33 And with great power the apostles gave witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And great grace was upon them all.

The year 2005 will be a year of continued great grace (empowerment) for those who by faith access it. Romans 5:2 tells us that "we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand." Those who believe this statement in the word of God will receive the anointing of great grace (resurrection power) in this season. Five (of 2005) is the number of divine grace, and it shall come to us through the anointing (oil) of this year. The oil of this season is Spikenard, which represents resurrection power that comes through intimate relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ. This relationship produces exuberant adoration and brings forth extravagant worship. This anointing will produce kingdom life, which will be demonstrated in deliverance and healing.

Psalms 5 and 25

The Lord referred me to Psalm 5 and Psalm 25 as two witnesses that reveal the blessings of the Special Jubilee. Psalm 5 identifies two groups of people -- the righteous and the unrighteous. The righteous (true worshipers) will receive God's favor (grace and blessings).

Psalm 5:1 Give ear to my words, O LORD, Consider my meditation.
2 Give heed to the voice of my cry, My King and my God, For to You I will pray.
3 My voice You shall hear in the morning, O LORD; In the morning I will direct it to You, And I will look up.

Psalm 5:7 But as for me, I will come into Your house in the multitude of Your mercy; In fear of You I will worship toward Your holy temple.

Psalm 5:11 But let all those rejoice who put their trust in You; Let them ever shout for joy, because You defend them; Let those also who love Your name Be joyful in You.
12 For You, O LORD, will bless the righteous; With favor You will surround him as with a shield.
Those who enter God's rest will be liberated from the curses of the unrighteous. They will enter into a new level of worship that will cause them to shout for joy, and they will be surrounded by the favor of the Lord.

Each of us should read and meditate on Psalm 25 in its entirety. However, I will focus only on several scriptures so that this writing doesn't get too long.

Psalm 25:1 To You, O LORD, I lift up my soul.
2 O my God, I trust in You; Let me not be ashamed; Let not my enemies triumph over me.
3 Indeed, let no one who waits on You be ashamed; Let those be ashamed who deal treacherously without cause.
4 Show me Your ways, O LORD; Teach me Your paths.

One of the blessings of this season will be a new-found ability (grace) to trust in the Lord. Additionally, many will now learn to be taught by the Lord so that they don't have to rely solely upon man (1 John 2:26-27). Those who wait on the Lord, that is enter His rest will also receive God's prosperity (provision) in this season.

Psalm 25:12 Who is the man that fears the LORD? Him shall He teach in the way He chooses.
13 He himself shall dwell in prosperity, And his descendants shall inherit the earth.
14 The secret of the LORD is with those who fear Him, And He will show them His covenant.

The covenant promises of God will be "yes and amen" to those who faithfully enter the Jubilee rest of the Lord, and this is our prayer:

Psalm 25:21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, For I wait for You.

The Fifth Gift

The fifth gift of the Holy Spirit listed in 1 Corinthians chapter 12 is the working of miracles. This will be a season of the manifestation of this gift. Miracles will occur that totally change the adverse circumstances that many find themselves in. One of the benefits of the Jubilee is debt cancellation (Leviticus 25:13-28). All kinds of miracles will occur in the Body of Christ this year. As we believe for the manifestation of this gift people will be delivered, healed, and set free from bondages, debt and many other obstacles that hinder the liberty of the saints.

The Fifth Be-attitude

Matthew 5:7 Blessed are the merciful, For they shall obtain mercy.

The merciful are those who forgive. Forgiveness must take place if one desires to receive the favor of the Lord in 2005. We must forgive and forget the transgressions of others if we are to move into the blessings. (Matthew 6:14-15 and Philippians 3:13-14)

The Fifth Feast

The fifth feast is the Feast of Trumpets. This will be a year of the blowing of the trumpet (prophetic word). Words will come forth that reveal the mysteries of the end of the age. God's purposes will be revealed through the proceeding word of God. Prophetic teaching will bring revelation to the Body of Christ of the times and seasons in which we live.

Revelation 5:5 But one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep. Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the scroll and to loose its seven seals."

The Lamb of God will open His book and break the seals of revelation. These seals will be broken, and the revelation of them will be given in visions, dreams, and divine visitations.

This is the fifth year of the Third Day Church. We will witness the maturing of this Church in 2005. The "spirit of error" in some so-called third-day ministries will be more fully revealed in this coming year as the young eagles take flight.

The Young Eagles

2005 will be a year when the young eagles, new prophetic voices, begin to spread their wings and take flight. A changing of the guard is about to take place in the prophetic community. (http://ft111.com/dayoftheeagle.htm)

The spirit of self-exaltation has become rooted in the prophetic ranks, and God will not stand for it. The Lord has had His young eagles in a place of preparation, and they will now be released. The prophetic word that comes forth from the young eagles will be powerful and revealing with regard to the season that we are now living in.

The End Times

We are witnessing the fulfillment of the written end-time judgments, which our Lord revealed.

Matthew 24:4 And Jesus answered and said to them: "Take heed that no one deceives you.
5 "For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am the Christ,’ and will deceive many.
6 "And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled; for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.
7 "For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be famines, pestilences, and earthquakes in various places.
8 "All these are the beginning of sorrows.

The sorrows (birth pangs) are increasing in intensity and will continue to do so as we move to the end of the age. We have recently witnessed the manifestation of that which is written in the gospel of Luke both here in America and in southeast Asia.

Luke 21:25 "And there will be signs in the sun, in the moon, and in the stars; and on the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring."

Even though these tragedies have come upon mankind and produced great sorrow, they also produce great hope.

Luke 21:27 "Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.
28 "Now when these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws near."

As we journey through this year may we each keep our eyes fixed on Jesus. Help us, Lord, to enter into the rest that you have provided for us.

Hebrews 4:1 Therefore, since a promise remains of entering His rest, let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it.

Remember the Lord's coming has never been so close -- "Even so come, Lord Jesus!" I have declared that which I have heard. May you be blessed in 2005 abundantly above all that you can ask or think.

Isaiah 48:6 "You have heard; See all this. And will you not declare it? I have made you hear new things from this time, Even hidden things, and you did not know them.

Prophetic Words For 2005
Marsha Burns

Awaken from spiritual slumber, from distractions, and apathy. Awaken, watchmen, remove the enemy from your premises. Turn back the battle at the gate – the enemy will always try to thwart My work. Deal with the past and all disappointment and bitterness before you can move ahead. Make adjustments in attitude, plans, goals … make sure there's no presumption.

I have brought you through the Valley of Baca, for it has been a place of sorrow and weeping, but you have indeed made it a well. The waters that flow forth from your innermost being will not be springs of bitterness, but springs of compassion for those who also endure pain and suffering. Come to Me, and allow Me to heal the wounds of the past, for now is the time to put these things behind you.

You have endured grave disappointments, the pain of rejection, and you have seen difficult days. You have even questioned your purpose and some of you have even disdained your very existence at times. You have had the pins knocked out from under you and have spun out of balance, but you will regain your balance, and you will be restored and released to greater expectation and fulfillment. Hope is looming on the horizon of the dawn of a new day, and the days of futility are ending. The days ahead will yield the fruit of your labors.

Be released into great freedom. Let Me heal your broken heart and mend your shattered dreams. Dare to believe. Do not be afraid to go forward with renewed faith and hope. The best is yet to come!

You are in school again and will receive instruction in warfare. You will be taught how to use your most effective weapon, which is the Word of God. You won't have to strive to learn this; I will teach you as you cooperate with My instruction. As you go about your daily existence you will be taught how to effectively direct My word against the enemy by faith in a more powerful way.

What you learn will be twice as effective as what you have known in the past. You will be able to direct your warfare in ways that will not just scare the enemy but bring great destruction. There will be an element of persistence as you repeatedly strike the enemy until the battle is won. Your present understanding of warfare will be changed, transformed, modified, and you will remain standing, upright before the Me, says the Lord.

This is the year of release, a time to be released from all fear and bondage. Rejoice in this special season of Jubilee when you can come again to your inheritance and have a fresh start. But, this is also a time when you must release those who have been held captive by your selfish motivations and manipulation. My people, you cannot enslave anyone through possessiveness and jealousy. Relinquish control and liberate those who have been bound and oppressed. This is the year of My favor, and it is My desire that My people be set free, says the Lord. I will redeem and grant redemption on every level – soul, spirit, body and finances, but you must position yourselves by faith and proclaim the year of liberty.

This is the year to overcome fear:

1. generational fears
2. fear of rejection … fear of man

3. fear of poverty, lack
4. fear of sickness
5. fear of failure, making mistakes, being wrong, failure

Stop striving and trust Me to bring instruction, wisdom and guidance. I will direct your steps and give you the courage to obey My word. Trust and obey! There will be a higher level of spiritual perception and revelation. Expect great things. New boldness that will produce anointing and victory where insecurity once reigned. Enter this new era, which will be pivotal to spiritual growth and maturity … a time of awakening and hunger for the things of the Spirit.   Position yourselves by faith to receive what I have promised. Negativity and discouragement will keep you from success. Maintain a positive attitude.

LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL!!!

I heard the phrase “Easy Rider.” The Lord is going to bring you into a new spiritual position of relatively no stress or strain. It is time for you to truly come into the Lord’s rest and enjoy His blessings. You have been faithful to believe and trust Him. Expect a blessing.

“Catch a Thermal.” Lift up and rise higher! For, you are about to be released into greater spiritual heights and vision, which will bring forth mighty revelation. This will be accompanied by greater spiritual authority as you speak My word with power, for My truth will resonate in the hearts of My people like never before because they have been prepared to receive. I place before you a hungry generation. Go forth in power!

“Catch and release.” You are coming into a time of catching a vision, of discovery, and of opportunities to redefine life, God, country and your fellow man. You will experience a surprising release from past bondages as you move into incredible liberty. That liberty will I bring you into greater maturity and responsibility. Do not be afraid.

“Ask, seek, knock.” Begin again to ask for wisdom, seek My guidance and knock at the door of My heart. Come; let us have sweet communion together. Let us rejoice in fellowship. Let joy be your strength as you begin to overcome all fear, for certainly this will be a year of liberation for you as you break out of your cocoon and fly.

Prepare for a stretch. I want to prove to you that you can do all things through Christ. I will enable you to accomplish all that you have set your hand to. Don’t be afraid to push beyond your natural limits, and I will accomplish great things through you, says the Lord. Trust Me!

Small steps will produce large gain. Only believe! I have opened a door before you, and I will lead you forth with joy and peace. You are released to rejoice your way to victory as you move through barriers that would have stopped you in times past. But, now they will only be minor hindrances.

Nothing is lost. Do not put too much stock in your ups and downs, but rather put your trust in Me. For, in Me there are no highs or lows, but divine stability. I never change; with Me there is no shadow of turning. I will cause you to withstand stress without altering your position. Stand firm in the face of difficult times.

Praise will be your secret weapon of war against the attacks of the enemy. You will triumph even in the darkest hours through sacred worship in the secret place of My presence. Psalm 63:1-5 "O God, You are my God; Early will I seek You; My soul thirsts for You; My flesh longs for You In a dry and thirsty land Where there is no water. So I have looked for You in the sanctuary, To see Your power and Your glory. Because Your lovingkindness is better than life, My lips shall praise You. Thus I will bless You while I live; I will lift up my hands in Your name. My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness, And my mouth shall praise You with joyful lips."

You have sought for and waited for this spiritual season. Expect greater liberty of soul and spirit. Your life is about to take on a new luster, and you will rejoice to see a greater manifestation of My presence among My people. This is a season you will not soon forget. Be exceedingly glad!

I saw someone sitting on a horse, and suddenly I knew your desire to see, experience, and move in the power of the Spirit. And, the Lord says, I am preparing you to do so. Prepare for a good ride, and remember to give Me all the glory.

Busy! The coming year will be marked by unusual productivity on every level. You have been faithful and have yielded to My guidance. Well done! You are a well-trained vessel of obedience, and you will enjoy the fruit of your labors.

Growth! Expansion! Your environment will be alive with your expression of My presence. Creativity will abound as the power of My voice gives utterance through you. Do not be afraid to give place to symbols that make a statement of My kingdom.

Keep your hope in Me, says the Lord. Refuse to allow fantasy to carry you away from the narrow path, often rocky, ever ascending. Keep a sharp eye open to the elusive seduction that always disappoints. Your faith is strong and will serve your well and reap great rewards, for surely I hear and answer the prayer of faith.

This is a time when you can draw near to Me, says the Lord. I know the hunger in your heart and the thirsting of your soul, for many times you have walked through a dry and thirsty land. I know the many demands that have kept you anchored, but you are going to be like a hot-air balloon that will rise gently and soar on the winds of My Spirit.

“Beautiful in elevation.” Your soul rises before Me in the beauty of holiness as you worship and seek My face. Come often; come boldly. Your seeking heart is precious in My sight. I delight in your presence before My throne, says the Lord.

Dare to believe for even great things than you have yet seen or experienced. Exercise your faith, for surely I will answer your effective, fervent prayer. You will become a sign and a wonder to those around you whose faith is non-existent or weak.

I have given you hinds’ feet to scramble up to remote high places in the Spirit, and what will seem like a rocky crag will become a table of ministry before Me, says the Lord, for I will set you in a broad place with plenty of room to explore, examine, and understand the wonders of the mysteries of My kingdom.

You will go higher and deeper and wider in Spirit as you seek greater revelation of My kingdom. Expand to the right and to the left. Rise above your limitations and delve deeply to find the nuggets of truth in My word, for truly they will become priceless treasures to you.

You do not know what tomorrow will bring, but you can trust Me to bring you through every difficulty as you seek My wisdom and guidance. I am prepared to prove that your trust in Me is not in vain, says the Lord.

This is a year of opportunities for greater maturity and stability in the kingdom. Refuse to neglect your great salvation and the gift that is in you, for truly the enemy will do his best to derail you. Be strong and of good courage, for I am with you, says the Lord.

Rejoice in this year of release from all that has kept you from progression and fulfillment in My kingdom. I say this is a time to pursue and overtake the enemy. You will draw out the spear and stop those who pursue you, and you will rise up victorious. Trust Me to give you wisdom and to bring vindication.

You have sought to know My face, to find intimacy with me and to bask in My presence. The enemy has tried to restrain you by convincing you that you are not worthy, but you are worthy, and you serve Me in truth and sincerity. I delight in your service in the kingdom, says the Lord. Go forth as a vessel of honor.

You are a person of great faith and confidence in the things of the Spirit. You have felt a greater need for spiritual growth and have gotten in touch with the hunger of your soul for more of Me. Have I not said, “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled?” Indeed, I will fill you up to overflowing. I have set you to rise up, build up, repair the breaches and to restore. Go forth in boldness.

Questioning! Why does it have to be so hard? I tell you honestly that I am directing your steps, leading, guiding and giving you wisdom beyond even the questions that you could think of to ask. Take time to search My heart in every circumstance, for I will speak with great clarity. Have I every failed you, says the Lord?

Some things that have become a dilemma to you will now take on great clarity that will cause you to see your path in this wilderness more clearly. Stay on the path that has been tried and found to be true, and do not deviate from it. Your answers will come as you seek the truth of My Word.

You sometimes feel like you are watching from the sidelines and life is somehow passing you by. But, you have learned more than you know through observation, and those lessons will serve you well. I say get ready for change and a stretch; trust Me to direct your steps.

You have found an oasis in the midst of your desert. Do not be afraid that you might drink bitter or impure water, for have I not said that even if you drink poison it will not harm you? Yet, certainly the water is indeed clear and pure. Drink deeply, says the Lord.

Lord of the Breakthrough

Bill Burns

August 15, 2005: I speak to those who have wandered off the straight and narrow path. You have returned to your old ways for comfort and have fallen back into bad habits that will lead to destruction. But, today I come to you as the Lord of the Breakthrough to break you out and bring you through into the brightness of this Day and to make smooth the path beneath your feet. Surely, you have thought that I have forgotten you, but I say, I have watched over you and have seen the devices of the enemy at work against you. I have seen you slip and slide and sometimes fall, but this day, says the Lord, get up and call upon My name, for I am the deliverer. Freedom is before you. Walk in the path, and you will get free from everything the enemy has brought against you.

Marsha Burns
August 15, 2005: Listen! Listen for the sound of My still, small voice. When you quiet your soul and listen, your attention will shift from a focus on yourself and your current difficulties, and you will suddenly find yourself in the Spirit and at peace. It is this place of peace where you can actually gain new perspective and rise above the fear and dread that torments you. Come up here, says the Lord, for I have prepared a place for you here where you can stabilize and be strengthened in My power and might.

August 16, 2005: James 1:5 "If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him." So, why do you hesitate? Are you afraid that I won't fulfill My word to you? Or, are you afraid you can't discern and receive My wisdom and direction? James 1:6-8 "But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed by the wind. For let not that man suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways." I say to you, ask for wisdom with a renewed heart of faith, and believe that I will indeed direct your steps and show you the way. Trust Me, says the Lord.

August 17, 2005: Beloved, expect the unexpected. You have asked for wisdom, but the answers and directions you receive can be surprising and yet far superior to your logical reasoning. Don't lock yourself into solutions that fall short of My best, says the Lord. Be assured that I will go before you and make the crooked places straight. I will make a way where there seems to be no way. Isaiah 45:2 "I will go before you And make the crooked places straight; I will break in pieces the gates of bronze And cut the bars of iron."

August 18, 2005: Guard your heart and guard your time. The enemy will do what he can to distract you with things that have no current relevance or importance to what you need to accomplish at this time. Now is the time to separate the precious from the vile in a sense. Being a people-pleaser will certainly become a snare. Set your face like flint towards "Jerusalem", that place of peace and destiny in your life. Do not deviate from your divine destination, says the Lord.

August 19, 2005: Resist the temptation to get overwhelmed with the details of life. Refuse to be intimidated by what may seem like insurmountable pressures. Keep in mind that I am with you to enable you to accomplish all that I have set before you. Move forward with a steady pace and with confidence and boldness that what I have called you to do, I am well able to perform through you. Do not be afraid. 2 Timothy 1:12b "I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep what I have committed to Him until that Day."

Lord Of The Dance

Nov 26, 2005

Beloved:

I am looking for those with a "willing spirit". Will you let me break you even further and bring you in to a place of the sweetest of surrenders. It is like the alabaster perfume being poured upon Me. It will bring you in to knowing me in a deeper and lasting way? You have been on a long journey and have overcome many trials. The times of refining have made you beautiful fragrance to Me. I promised you in my word that I would never leave you or forsake you, I haven't. I stand as your great intercessor and am beside you. I am with you and long for my very best for you. I want to lead you in the dance of the Lord. Will you let me lead you? It takes two to Tango! I wait for you, for your willingness to forge ahead in to the unpossessed land. Don't look at the giants, look in to my eyes of redemption. I redeem all the broken places and make you in to a beautiful Mosaic Vase. You have felt the shattering of the Lord in this last season, but the pieces are now forming that beautiful thing I've desired all along.

It seems like its taken an eternity for me to be formed in you. But, it is for my eternal glory that I do my work in you. I see you as the finished product. I see my fruit being formed in you and coming to harvest and ready to be picked and eaten by those who are starving in the world. I see the compassion that I've formed in you through your own broken places. I see the fragrance of my love all over you Beloved. You know what it is to feel rejection, yet you still love. You know oppression, yet you still chose to speak life over your circumstances and those around you. You know struggles, yet forge ahead - always looking to the horizon to see my face. Oh the faith of those who keep running the race! I see that you are ready to walk out on the water. I see that you are willing to trust me. You have had the faith, and now you walk out that faith by trusting Me to complete the work I've promised you...

Be still and watch the salvation of your God. Although you haven't seen all of your prayers answered yet, I tell you I am brooding over your situation and bringing about my very best for you. I am a God who always has your best interest on my heart. I have only good gifts for my children. Remember how Christmas time is an exciting time for your children. They look forward to that day they get to open their presents. Be expectant just like that. Presents are coming down for you Beloved. I am dressing you a new.....and my presence is brooding over you.

Listen for the new sound from heaven and dance with me. I am the Lord of the dance, and I ask you to dance with Me! I will lead you and teach you each new step of this dance!

2 Sam 6:14 "Then David danced before the Lord with all his might, and David was wearing a linen ephod. So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with shouting and with the sound of the trumpet."

Father, lead us in the Dance of the Lord. Let our enemies be scattered. Lord let us lift you up even higher in our worship of you. Let our enemies be scattered! Lord let your Tabernacle of David come alive and spread across this land! Let your enemies be scattered!! Lord inhabit the praises of your people in all Nations!!! Let your enemies be scattered!!! Possess the global territory Oh Lord, as we praise you as the only true and living God and the Lord of the Dance!!! Let your enemies be scattered forever!!!!!

Beloved Ones:

The fires have been intense, but the dross has come to the surface and been removed. I have formed you as settings of fine gold and now I place in each of you the jewels of my choosing. You have become my own special treasures! You shall arise in this hour, for my Esthers shall arise in this final hour. You shall be a sign and a wonder before my throne. It is time Beloved Esthers, it is time to shine with my brilliance and glory. I am sitting upon my throne and I long to see my creation shine and walk in divine order. I have set things in order, and alignment. You shall see the King of glory shine through you and upon you. I shall send you in to the highways and bi-ways to set the captive free. I shall send you in to the market place and give you great favor. My scepter is extended to you in this hour. You have prepared yourselves before me and you please me my Beloveds!

The Tabernacle of David will arise in this hour as never before. I will impart my anointing for new songs, new melodies, and yes some of you will even sit down at the piano and just begin to play out of your spirit. These songs will make you famous in my Kingdom, for you shall sing the prophetic heart of your God! You shall be a sign and a wonder. You shall do that which the world would say is impossible! You see, I truly want to shine through you in this hour. Trust me, Oh my plans for you are grand and soon you shall see them unfolding before you! I long to encourage you in this hour, though the world looks darker, I shall shine brightly through you!

Be expectant my Beloveds! You have faithfully birthed that which has been on my heart in prayer. The baby has been born, healthy and whole! You shall now walk in this new season in the greatest victories!

Micah 2:13 "The one who breaks open will come up before them: They will break out. Pass through the gate. And go out by it; Their king will pass before them, with the Lord at their head."

Isa 52:12 "For you shall not go out with haste, Nor go by flight; For the Lord will go before you, And the God of Israel will be your rear guard."

Joshua 1:11 "Pass through the camp and command the people, saying, "Prepare provisions for yourselves for within three days you will cross over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the Lord your God is giving you to possess."

My breaker goes before you, you shall not stumble, but shine with my radiance and glory....the beauty of the Lord is upon you....and you shall and those who are with you possess the lands I give to you!

Lovingly in Him,

Love Of The Truth
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Feb. 16th, 2005

“I want to talk to My Beloveds about loving the truth. I AM the Way the Truth and the Life. No man comes to the Father except through ME. And those who have come, need to LOVE the TRUTH. I AM TRUTH, and My Words are TRUTH. If you want to walk in the truth and live it, then you must read it, and digest it. Just as your body eats food, and has to digest it, so your spirit needs to digest the TRUTH of the WORD. In order to digest it you need to meditate on it and what it means to gain understanding from Me.

The truth you know sets you free. The unknown truth can do nothing. So the one who says, I know the Word, yet doesn’t read it, and try to understand it, is really lying to themselves. I have many pretenders in My church. They act as though they walk in the light at church, but the rest of the week, they are not even thinking about it. These pretenders to the Throne need your prayers to wake up and to be sanctified by the Truth of the Word. Others are in churches who teach doctrines of demons and twist the Word to their advantage, distorting the true meaning of the scriptures. And because they depend on man to feed them instead of learning for themselves, they walk in partial truth, but not the whole of truth. That means there is mixture of lies and truth, so they are unhealed and still walking in darkness part of the time or in areas of their lives.

I want you to LOVE My TRUTH and to think upon it. It is not enough to just read it and memorize it. I told the Pharisees - John 5:39-40 NKJV You search the Scriptures, for in them you think you have eternal life; and these are they which testify of Me. But you are not willing to come to Me that you may have life. - I AM THE TRUTH. When you read the Word, we are fellowshipping, just as during prayer and worship. Contemplate what you read and ask the Holy Spirit to help you understand it and to help you apply it to your own life. Ask Me questions, for I love to answer your questions! I am not a God afar off but close at hand. I AM the Resource of all you need.

I’m going to tell you some truth now. The days are upon you when men will not tolerate the truth. Many already are so oppositional to it, they bristle to just hear the Word or to see you coming down the street. Men are rebellious and growing more rebellious daily. Many pretend to tolerate the Truth, but really hate the Truth. They want to do what they want, and refuse to bend to My will. But I’m telling you I am about to overturn injustice in ways that will cause them dismay. Days of persecution are close at hand. Do not be caught unawares. Because of your worship, will I cause dismay to the evil plans of men. I am restoring the Tabernacle of David. I will have a church that worships ME and not man. I will do things in the earth to draw them to cry out to ME. Some will cry out in anger. Some will humble themselves and gain salvation. Multitudes will be in the valley of decision. You are My ambassadors of LOVE in a world that will reap what they have sown. I want you to be filled with My WORD and with MY LOVE and MERCY so that GRACE will emanate out from you to embrace the souls of men, women, boys and girls who will tremble before ME.

I’m not just about saving those you like. I am calling to the witches and warlocks. I am calling to the drunks and drug addicts. I am drawing the prisoners and I will have a body that is ONE in the Spirit. The things I do IN YOU will come SUDDENLY UPON YOU. And all things will become new and your JOY will be made complete. Revolution begins. I have ordained many surprises for My beloveds in the midst of all the storms coming. I will do amazing miracles and deliverances. I will translate some of you to foreign lands and you will preach the gospel there and then be translated somewhere else. DO NOT LOVE THE THINGS OF THIS WORLD MORE THAN ME.

KNOW THAT I HAVE DETERMINED TO HAVE A BRIDE THAT WILL OBEY ME AND FOLLOW MY LEAD.

DO NOT GROW WEARY MY BELOVEDS. I AM WITH YOU. I AM WITH YOU AND WILL NEVER LEAVE YOU. PUT ALL YOUR TRUST IN ME.
I am so in love with you. You have no idea yet the depth of love that I have for you. You think you know, but it is far more than anything you have experienced thus far. I will overcome you with My love and it will purge you through and through, so that you may go forward and light up the darkness wherever you go, and wherever I send you. Kings will come to the brightness of your rising. Cities and villages will be saved in a day. Nations will TURN to serve ME. I will dazzle you with My display of authority and power AS YOU OPEN YOUR MOUTHS TO BE MY WITNESSES, AND SPEAK THE TRUTH IN LOVE TO THE MULTITUDES. I will bring the most WICKED out of darkness into the light. DO NOT LIMIT ME. With Me – ALL things are possible.

I AM YOUR KING AND I will always love you, forever and forever. I know the hardships I've put you through are difficult, but they are working a great Yield of fruit in your lives that will be garnished with power from ME to reach many, many lives. Hold on, for the best is yet to come! Do not be afraid.
I AM WITH YOU. My love endures FOREVER!"

Ps 15:1-4 NKJV The Character of Those Who May Dwell with the LORD
A Psalm of David. - LORD, who may abide in Your tabernacle? Who may dwell in Your holy hill? 2 He who walks uprightly, And works righteousness, And speaks the truth in his heart;

Ps 26:3-5 NKJV For Your lovingkindness is before my eyes, and I have walked in Your truth. 4 I have not sat with idolatrous mortals, Nor will I go in with hypocrites. 5 I have hated the assembly of evildoers, And will not sit with the wicked.

Ps 25:10 NKJV All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth, To such as keep His covenant and His testimonies.

Ps 86:11 NKJV Teach me Your way, O LORD; I will walk in Your truth;
Unite my heart to fear Your name.

Ps 91:4 NKJV He shall cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you shall take refuge; His truth shall be your shield and buckler.

Ps 96:13 NKJV For He is coming, for He is coming to judge the earth. He shall judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with His truth.

Ps 119:43 NKJV And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth, Ps 119:160 NKJV The entirety of Your word is truth, and every one of Your righteous judgments endures forever.

Ps 146:5-9 NKJV Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help, Whose hope is in the LORD his God, 6 Who made heaven and earth, The sea, and all that is in them; Who keeps truth forever, 7 Who executes justice for the oppressed, Who gives food to the hungry. The LORD gives freedom to the prisoners. 8 The LORD opens the eyes of the blind; The LORD raises those who are bowed down; The LORD loves the righteous. 9 The LORD watches over the strangers; He relieves the fatherless and widow; But the way of the wicked He turns upside down.

Isa 42:3 NKJV A bruised reed He will not break, And smoking flax He will not quench; He will bring forth justice for truth.

Jer 33:6 NKJV Behold, I will bring it health and healing; I will heal them and reveal to them the abundance of peace and truth.

Dan 4:37 NKJV Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, all of whose works are truth, and His ways justice. And those who walk in pride He is able to put down.

Zech 8:16-17 NKJV These are the things you shall do: Speak each man the truth to his neighbor; Give judgment in your gates for truth, justice, and peace; 17 Let none of you think evil in your heart against your neighbor;
And do not love a false oath. For all these are things that I hate,' says the LORD."

John 1:14 NKJV The Word Becomes Flesh
And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

John 1:17 NKJV For the law was given through Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

John 3:21 AMP But he who practices truth [who does what is right] comes out into the Light; so that his works may be plainly shown to be what they are--wrought with God [divinely prompted, done with God's help, in dependence upon Him].

John 4:23-24 AMP A time will come, however, indeed it is already here, when the true (genuine) worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth (reality); for the Father is seeking just such people as these as His worshipers. 24 God is a Spirit (a spiritual Being) and those who worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth (reality).

John 8:32 AMP And you will know the Truth, and the Truth will set you free.

John 14:6 AMP Jesus said to him, I am the Way and the Truth and the Life; no one comes to the Father except by (through) Me.

John 15:26 AMP But when the Comforter (Counselor, Helper, Advocate, Intercessor, Strengthener, Standby) comes, Whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of Truth Who comes (proceeds) from the Father, He [Himself] will testify regarding Me.

Demonstrate My Power

1 Cor 2:4-5 AMP And my language and my message were not set forth in persuasive (enticing and plausible) words of wisdom, but they were in demonstration of the [Holy] Spirit and power [a proof by the Spirit and power of God, operating on me and stirring in the minds of my hearers the most holy emotions and thus persuading them], 5 So that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men (human philosophy), but in the power of God.

Eph 2:7 AMP He did this that He might clearly demonstrate through the ages to come the immeasurable (limitless, surpassing) riches of His free grace (His unmerited favor) in [His] kindness and goodness of heart toward us in Christ Jesus.

The Lord said " Demonstrate My power!" and I asked Him what He wanted to say about this…

"When My Spirit is poured out from on high, there will be a mighty demonstration of My power through you, like you never have imagined. I want you to not just play in My anointing but to share it wherever you go and to demonstrate My power and LOVE to all people. I will remove all the fear when I come. My love will be poured out in such measure that you will overflow with My love and anointing and all else will not be able to remain.
Perfect love will cast out all fear! Do not be afraid of the manifestations of My power. It is MY GRACE being poured out in GREAT measure - and as never before! It will flood your souls and the fire of My love will remove all the hindrances and blockages that have kept you from the fullness of My glory.

But I am looking for an attitude of heart that WANTS THAT to happen!
Cry out for ME. I AM YOUR PORTION. I AM YOUR GREAT REWARD.
I AM your DELIVERER! You will go from the measure you have now to a much greater measure that will shock you and all around you! This will happen ALL OVER THE WORLD. The worship is increasing, even as the darkness is increasing, and I will increase within you and expand your ability to hold a greater measure of My spirit so that it leaks out wherever you go.
I have to remove some hindrances within you and without you, through this outpouring of My GRACE AND GLORY. The Spirit was given to ME without measure. But it is given you with measure – you grow from glory to glory.

John 3:34 AMP For since He Whom God has sent speaks the words of God [proclaims God's own message], God does not give Him His Spirit sparingly or by measure, but boundless is the gift God makes of His Spirit! [Deut 18:18.]

2 Cor 3:18 AMP And all of us, as with unveiled face, [because we] continued to behold [in the Word of God] as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are constantly being transfigured into His very own image in ever increasing splendor and from one degree of glory to another; [for this comes] from the Lord [Who is] the Spirit.

My hope is that you will not fail to recognize My work and call it the work of the devil. Read about other revivals. Eat My WORD so that you know and understand My ways. Allow me to take you into ALL TRUTH.
Do not limit ME, for I AM NOT LIMITED in My creativeness. I am ELOHIM. I AM the Creator of the heavens and the earth. I can move mountains and oceans, and land and I can move YOU to be and do all I want you to be and do. NOTHING is IMPOSSIBLE with ME. It is NOT by might, not by your own power, but only by MY SPIRIT that My will,will be done.

Pray for those who are lost and stumbling. Pray for those who are in the church but blinded by their own greed and pride, and all the deceptions of the evil one. I will have ONE BODY united in MY LOVE. I will purge My bride and I will make all the crooked paths straight. I will remove some candlesticks and establish others. I will bring down and lift up. I will realign and RESTORE. I will do a NEW THING and the darkness will be in trembling at all I do through those I love and who love ME. Surely My hand is not too short to save. There is only ONE DOOR. I AM the WAY, the TRUTH and the LIFE and every knee will bow, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is LORD!

Do NOT be afraid to call Me to demonstrate My power. The more you step out in faith, the more FAITH is established in your heart and the hearts of others. It grows and grows and it becomes contagious. A revolution starts with that! It starts by one person thinking that it's possible to change things. Then another person, then another person till suddenly so many are changed to believe in that ideal. Well I'm starting a revolution. A spiritual revolution. This revolution has already been going on in some parts of the world. It has been going on in China for years. There people lay down their lives for ME. They abandon all they have known to GO for US. They don't mind giving up years of their lives in hardship. They don't mind going to jail for Me. They don't mind being murdered and slaughtered for My name's sake.

Matt 16:24-27 NKJV Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. 25 For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. 26 For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?

So many have become too comfortable and satiated with life that you are afraid to even reach out to a neighbor. You are afraid of rejection or being thought a fool if you manifest My Spirit in tongues or movement. Why do you hide WHOSE YOU ARE ? I said if you DENY ME before men I will deny you before My Father! MOVE OUT OF YOUR COMFORT ZONES and touch someone. Let them know My love and power. SHARE what I have given you freely without expecting something in return."

Luke 6:32-36 NKJV "But if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. 33 And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. 34 And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive back, what credit is that to you? For even sinners lend to sinners to receive as much back. 35 But love your enemies, do good, and lend, hoping for nothing in return; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High. For He is kind to the unthankful and evil. 36 Therefore be merciful, just as your Father also is merciful.

Revival: Louisiana Needed

REVIVAL - INTERCESSORS NEEDED

I was instructed to ask a certain pastor for his prayer needs. At first he was hesitant, but when I shared that God had instructed me to ask, he became more open. The pastor shared two needs. One was victoriously met by the very next morning. The other need was for "revival in Louisiana, USA."

Since God had appointed me to pray, I asked him to show me the situation, in the spiritual realm, before I began.

I received the following vision: ....

I saw a great demonic creature in rich robes. He sat on a gold throne, almost like a chair, that was far too small for his bulk. He appeared to have just finished a "too large" feast, and was holding and waving a golden goblet that spilled because it was too full. He had a half-drunken-half-grin on his face, and he appeared to be singing some kind of bawdy song, although I heard nothing.

He sat above the northeast section of upper Louisiana. From him, I saw cords, like large veins, leading to several small spots (cities?), all over the state.

I wanted to attack the demon, but God stopped me. Instead, he drew my attention to the connections of the cords to the spots. I looked closely, and saw they were somewhat "chewed" and partially disconnected. But the work had not been done recently. The marks were old.

God instructed me to send angels to the intercessors who had been assigned, to gather reports from them. Well over half of the angels that returned, told me that the intercessor over their area was "asleep." I was horrified. Well over half of God's chosen, sleeping on the job.

I looked at the reports returned, knowing well over half were missing, and asked God what to do.

God told me this: The demon is a "party spirit." It is being nurtured because it produces wealth for the state. At one time, intercessors began a war against it, and made some progress. The progress has been sustained, but no new work has been done. Currently over half of God's assigned intercessors are asleep.

God told me that first the intercessors had to be awakened, and put back in full service.

In order for revival to come to Louisiana, the cords have to be severed at the site of the small spots. It seemed the cords came from cities throughout the state. Perhaps they are spiritual locations rather than physical ones. I got the impression each intercessor would have one specific area they are working on. It seems like the number of "cities" was between 60 and 100, or so.

Once that is done, the demon will abandon its post. God warned me not to leave the stronghold empty, but instead to call in the Holy Spirit to fill it completely.

At that point, the original intercessors will need a "shot in the arm" because the battle will have worn them down a bit. I was instructed to ask God to raise up a "second string" of intercessors, fresh and ready to engage in battle.

The original intercessors will perk up with the influx, and continue the war. These intercessors will all join together to prepare the people of the state for revival.

Only after the people of the state are prepared, and ready to receive, can real revival "break out."

I saw glory stream from the stronghold location, now inhabited by the Holy Spirit, and flow over the state.
....

I and a small group of experienced intercessors are praying, according to God's instructions. [The pastor and his church are also praying. I shared the vision with him, but have no idea if he took it seriously enough to share it with his people.]

I have shared this with the list, so anyone who feels called by God to become part of this work, can pray, with knowledge of this vision and the instructions God gave.

A Reply to Korpi and confirmation of the vision.
From: William Somers

My immediate reaction to this vision and message, being a resident of Louisiana, was interest and excitement. I quickly forwarded the email to a large group of friends and acquaintances that have email. I also printed up the text and made copies to share with the pastors and intercessors at my local Church.

What I was seeking was confirmation or discernment of the vision. It came several days later. In the course of a phone conversation with one of our local intercessors, two things were mentioned of interest. First she felt convicted by the passage that mentioned intercessors being asleep on the job. And had to repent to God for sleeping herself sometimes when she should have been praying. Second she mentioned the part about where it says: "the connections of the cords to the spots. I looked closely, and saw they were somewhat "chewed" and partially disconnected. But the work had not been done recently. The marks were old."

Then with a jolt of revelation I realized what that meant.

In 1986, a Worship Congress was held in New Orleans, Louisiana, at Victory Assembly in Metairie, just outside the city. This was a conference devoted to teaching about worship and directed towards singers, musicians and pastors. It featured the ministries of Lamar Boshman, Kent Henry and Ray Hughes among others. This conference took place during the weekend before Mardi Gras. One emphasis of the conference was opposition to Mardi Gras. We were taught about praise and worship as weapons of spiritual warfare. And their use against such ungodly activities as Mardi Gras.

It was during this conference, while Lamar Boshman was preaching that my wife Marylee had a vision. On the stage right next to Bro. Lamar there appeared a clown. A clown dressed in purple, green and gold. These are the colors of Mardi Gras. This was the Mardi Gras Clown; a spirit. As she watched the clown grew larger and larger as though inflated by air, when it suddenly burst and disappeared. Several years later there occurred a great amount of dissension and strife among the organizations that were involved in Mardi Gras. A tremendous amount of bad feelings were generated between the City and various carnival clubs. This resulted in certain clubs completely dropping out of Mardi Gras, others limiting their activities and some small but permanent damage to the institution.

Of course I was overjoyed to see all this demonic activity coming apart at the seams. But the Lord caused me to see that this didn't happen by accident. It was the result of the prayer and intercession; praise and worship that took place years earlier, at the Worship Congress. I shared this insight with some friends but none were much interested at the time.

Now I see that in this vision, this is represented by the damage that was done to the cords. It is partial damage and was not done recently. It was done 10 years ago, and then the effort stopped! Here in Louisiana we have received prophecies that our state would be a gateway for Revival. One word in particular was that Revival would begin at the mouth of the River, [the Mississippi], and come up the river to spread all through the USA. This makes it all the more important to continue the warfare against this ruling spirit over our state. The victory will come, it has been seen in the vision. The Revival will come. And the Kingdom of God will come to America! Glory to God!

Bill,
It was with great joy that I read your post. I am sharing this with my group of intercessors. The confirmation was appreciated, and it was even more gratifying to hear the call for revival is being spread in Louisiana.
I was excited to hear details about the "former work," and also your wife's vision. By being able to share this, we all become more invigorated. Praise the Lord Jesus Christ!
Our greetings to all the Brethren in Louisiana.

Together in prayer,

Hi Bill.
I got a copy of your write-up of Korpi's vision regarding prayer and intercessor for Louisiana. As I read it, I was strongly reminded of an intercessory experience I had there in August of 1995. I did a write-up of that to the new-wine list back then. By some miracle, I still seem to have a copy of that email. I felt like I was supposed to forward a copy of this to you and to the person who had the original intercessory assignment and vision. It is enclosed at the end of this email. I think you will find it interesting...

On another (unrelated) note, I notice that you mentioned a prophetic list (prophetic@revival.gen.nz). I am very interested in finding out more about that list. I am a prophetic intercessor and also seem to move fairly regularly in words of knowledge and personal prophesy when doing one-on-one ministry. I would be very interested in finding out more about this prophetic list and possibly even joining it. Could you please tell me more about it, and also how to subscribe to it? Thanks.

Many blessings!

Subject: Intercessory Experience in N.O.

I had a very unusual intercessory experience last week while on vacation with my unsaved husband. Our vacation plans were to go to New Orleans for the Americal Contract Bridge League National Championships. We played bridge and also did some sightseeing. Our first night there we arrived quite late (around 11:00 PM). My husband decided to walk along the famous Bourbon street -- the "party center" of New Orleans. Every third building was a bar and there were also a great number of nude and "live sex" types of places. There was an incredible mass of people walking along the street, so much so that it was almost impossible to walk along. Most of these people were drunk, some to the point where they needed assistance from their friends to walk. Some where shaking and some were staggering around and almost everyone was smiling and laughing. It looked sort of like a really hot renewal meeting, except that it was the imitation (liquor) instead of the real thing -- God's Spirit. I got back to the hotel room feeling really troubled in my spirit but I could not put my finger on exactly why.

The next day we went to a group lunch sponsored by the ACBL -- a gospel and blues brunch. We ended up sharing a table with two older ladies who were from the local area. There was a lot of voodoo paraphernalia on the walls, such as a lot of pictures of snakes or dinosaurs with "Jesus loves you!" written over them. My husband pointed out the pictures and the local ladies started explaining that they were voodoo. They went on to say that voodoo was not evil, just another path to God. They said that they were Christians (Catholics) as they sat there and drank heavily. My husband piped in that I was studying to become a minister and the women started saying how Christianity could be summed up in the word "tolerance". At this point, I finally jumped into the conversation and disagreed. I started to say that Christianity was all about loving God with all of our heart, soul and mind and loving our neighbor as ourselves. But the lady would not even let me finish my sentence. She started yelling at me and going on an on about tolerance. Finally, abut 5 minutes later when she paused for breath, I said, "It sounds like you really value tolerance." "Yes," she replied. Then I went on to say that she was not being very tolerant of me and was not even giving me a chance to finish my first sentence. She offered to let me speak. I said that Christianity is not about being tolerant but of being right with God. She cut me off again saying that we cannot know what is right with God and how dare anyone try to judge another and on and on. When she finally paused for breath, I said that God has revealed in His word, the Bible, what He considers right and wrong. I almost got to finish this sentence before she started on another barrage. Just about then the entertainment (gospel blues music) started. She suddenly started clapping her hands and acting like the stereotype of a "traditional Pentecostal" during the entertainment. You would have thought that we were in a Church service and everyone here was a believer -- but I knew some of the people in the group who were decidedly anti-Christian. They preached a short (5 minute) sermon about needing to love each other and tolerate each other. They seemed to throw around "praise the Lords!" pretty lightly as they drank their complementary alcoholic drinks.

It just reeked of hypocrisy and mixture. At one point I got up and went to the bathroom. There was a framed note on the wall. Someone claiming to be a prophet of the Lord had written the restaurant owner a note saying that it was wrong to use Holy things of God as entertainment for secular activities and that if they did not change their behavior, God's wrath would come on them. They obviously did not take the note very seriously, as they were using gospel blues as their entertainment. In fact, they framed the warning note and displayed it proudly along with their voodoo stuff.

God spoke to me very clearly that this was a type of the mixture of worldliness and ungodliness in His church. He said that He was displeased with this mixture both here in New Orleans and in His church in general. He said that He was no longer going to hold back His wrath from this place. He told me that He would continue showing me things that displeased Him.

A little later, I told the Lord how sad I was for this lady and how she would not let me get a word in edgewise to share the gospel. God said that He'd been trying to speak to many people here in New Orleans as well, and that they would not listen to Him either.

We left this luncheon a little early because my husband had made reservations for -- get this -- a cemetery tour. It turned out that this tour also had a voodoo emphasis and pointed out the tombs of a lot of voodoo queens (and how praying to them could grant wishes). The tour guide turned out to be a voodoo student himself and went on and on about how voodoo is using the dead to do good things for you, like healing people, etc. He keep calling this practice good instead of evil. Also, he took us to the oldest catholic Church in the city and pointed out the voodoo saint -- St. Expidite -- which had a place of honor in the Church.

The Lord spoke to me again and said "when people call evil good and call good evil and do so in My name, My judgment MUST fall. I cannot allow this to continue."

I left the tour a little early and went back to my hotel room. I started considering what I'd seen and asking the Lord about it and I suddenly became intensely sick -- I was nauseous and had such a piercing headache that I could not even stand up. It came on me all of the sudden -- one moment I was fine and the next, the full intensity of this was on me. I felt like maybe it was an enemy attack designed to keep me from praying. I really did feel too sick to pray and told the Lord so. I asked Him to help me. I felt like the Lord told me to take authority and that there was a voodoo curse on me that needed to be broken. I wondered if this might not be my imagination instead of God's voice. I did not want to throw around the Lord's power/authority lightly, so I asked Him for a confirmation that I'd heard right.

The intense headache continued for over three hours and my husband never came back to our room. I felt like I was being tortured or something and could not fall asleep or sit up or think clearly or anything. Then I remembered hearing the Lord say that it was a curse and that I should use His power to break it. I told the Lord that I could not think clearly enough to do so and asked Him to help me. The Lord sort of led me through a repeat-after-me type of authority prayer where He would tell me what to say one phrase at a time and then I'm pray it out loud.

The headache started improving immediately and about an hour later was gone. My husband got back to the room and suggested we go dancing -- the entertainment that evening after the bridge game was over was an orchestra that played ballroom dance music. And it happens that Ed and I are ballroom dancers -- we used to compete in it several years ago but now we just dance for fun. I was well enough to be able to go dancing and to even enjoy myself. But when I got back to my room, I remained troubled in my spirit about the things the Lord had shown me. I had a sense of impending judgment falling on the area.

The next morning (Tuesday) they announced that hurricane Erwin was headed directly towards New Orleans. The Holy Spirit came on me as I heard that announcement. I suddenly knew that this was His judgment against the things He'd been showing me. I asked Him why He brought me here at this time. I had a strong sense that I was supposed to intercede for this area. So I started to consider how to pray and could not come up with anything. From the things that the Lord had been showing me, it seemed like this judgment was totally justified, long overdue, and that there was nothing to be argued against it. I told the Lord that I felt He'd brought me here to intercede, but that I had no clue of how to do so. I asked Him to show me what to pray and reminded Him that He is a merciful God.

On Wednesday, I was in prayer. I was again considering everything that the Lord had showed me and how justified any judgment of this area would be. I keep seeing pictures of those masses and masses of people on Bourbon street and kept imagining them drunk in the spirit and worshipping God instead of drunk in the natural. I started telling God of my picture and asking Him to make it so. I felt like He said that He would make it so, but that first He would bring destruction and out that that destruction the survivors would be more receptive to revival. I asked Him if He could find a way to do it that would not involve destruction and a whole lot of people dying without the Lord.

Suddenly an intensity came on me and I found myself saying out loud to the Lord, "Lord, New Orleans has the word 'new' in it's name. I challenge you to make this city new in You and to clean it up like you did in my life. Please turn this place into a holy place of Your power and presence. Make it new in You."

I felt like the Lord said that He would take that challenge. His voice was so distinct that it was almost audible. I remember being startled and looking around the room. No one was there but me -- my husband was in the shower. We played two sessions of bridge that day which took about 8 hours and kept me from being able to concentrate on prayer. When I went to bed that night the hurricane warnings were up. People were boarding up the windows of stores and restaurants. Hotel guests were stocking up on snacks in case food would be unavailable. I felt like I should intercede some more, but there did not seem to be any empowerment or leading from the Lord to do so. So I asked Him to take good care of my husband and myself if the hurricane should hit -- we were in the 33rd floor of a 41 story hotel and I didn't feel too terribly safe being way up there in a hurricane. I felt His peace wash over me and He told me two things -- 1) He always took care of His own when His judgment hits an area and 2) He had taken me up on my challenge to make New Orleans new in Christ.

The hurricane was supposed to hit us around noon Thursday, but it never came our way. Instead it turned inland and hit the Florida panhandle. Now, I don't know much about hurricanes and their travel patterns. I hear they are erratic. But I do know that New Orleans was expecting the hurricane to hit and that may businesses had closed for the anticipated storm. I also know that even with the hurricane turning, they expected a lot of rain and wind to still hit New Orleans, but it never came. In fact the best weather we experienced the whole week was on the day the hurricane was supposed to hit and the day afterwards. The television weathermen and newscasters kept commenting on how odd it was to not even get a single drop of rain from the hurricane.

I am still trying to process this intercessory experience. Could my prayers really have made a difference in turning the storm away from New Orleans? Has God really accepted a challenge to make New Orleans new in Christ and turn that place into a spiritual Hotpoint instead of a party town? How much of this was the Lord's leading and how much (if any) of this was just my imagination? Did God really bring me to New Orleans just then to intercede for it?

I've been an intercessor for a while now, but there is still a lot about intercession that I don't know. Still, it was an interesting and powerful experience for me and has left me even more convinced of the power of prayer, especially when our prayers are Spirit led.

Blessings!
Teresa

Dear Bill Somers:

I was very interested in the vision you had for intercessors for Louisiana that I received from the "Awakening" email list. I wanted to share with you that there were two other major events in New Orleans in 1986 and 1987. In 1986 there was a Pastor's gathering to prepare for the 1987 World Congress on the Holy Spirit & Evangelism. The Pastor's Conference had such speakers as Paul Yonggi Cho (sorry for any misspellings). The open conference was setup with denominational breakfasts, afternoon workshops & evening sessions held in the Super Dome. Dr.Vinson Synan's organization put together the events (AD2000 is its name, I believe). I was able to attend afternoon workshops given by John Wimber. This was where I first was exposed to laughter in the Spirit as well as weeping and travail. I also experienced being drunk in the Spirit. One of the evening speakers was Reinhard Bonnke. Scott Wesley Brown led worship one evening. On the last day there was a Christian Parade ala Mardi Gras, that wound all through New Orleans and culminated by marching into the Super Dome for the evening session. Pastor Charles Green from one of New Orleans' large Spirit-filled churches was one of the emcees. I wish I could remember all of the speakers and if there were specific words given. The other item of significance that struck me was that the Super Dome was filled with Spirit Filled Christians from all denominations: from Catholic Charismatics, Many Protestant denominations as well as Pentecostals and NonDenominationals. The unity in the Spirit was wonderful. Ministry after the sessions went on late into evenings.

As soon as I read about the "chewed cords" from the past, I knew I had to pass this along to you. Personally, it challenged me to "wake up" into a new and directed level of intercessory prayer.

In the name of Jesus, I come against the attacks on this awakening of the intercessors and pray for an outpouring of MORE of you Lord upon them, fill them Oh Lord to overflowing. I pray for their cups to open wide to receive all that you have for them. I pray for that the walls that prevent God's fullness to poured in to them, to be broken, that the cups would not have false bottoms preventing the filling. I pray that they would not be satisfied with half full but thirst for overflowing!

When you water a garden, it takes a saturation to reach the roots and effect growth in the plants. This is especially true if the ground is dry and hard. A quick sprinkling justs moistens the leaves where the sun comes out and dries them off. A sustained outpouring affects the roots and causes true growth and change. It can also wash debris that has accumulated around the base of the stem of the plant making it easier for the water to get into the ground around that plant.

I believe God wants to give us more of Him and His Spirit, but we need to desire to receive it and not just rush off with a touch but be patient to stay and receive His fullness.

God showed me the garden vision during worship at a renewal service at Bethel Assembly in Wyckoff, New Jersey. He seems to keep telling me to share it and so I pray that it ministers to you.
God Bless You:

Prophecies and prophetic signs linking Louisiana to Revival in Pensacola

On Sep 9 1996, Mike and Vickie Conroy of Brownsville Assembly spoke at Reserve Christian Church and shared their vision for the spread of the revival and how it must come through Louisiana The Church is located in Reserve Louisiana about one mile from the banks of the Mississippi River, and 30 miles up river from New Orleans,. Vickie Conroy especially shared her burden to intercede for New Orleans.

Their topic was Why Pensacola?

[Mike Conroy speaking - transcribed from a taped recording of the service.]

1559, Pensacola was founded. You might not know it but Pensacola, ... People would ask, when revival broke out in Brownsville Pensacola, Why Pensacola? .... Vicki and I always felt there was some reason why Pensacola had a special place in the United States. I mean when you get right down to it, it's not a big town. I mean it's really a nowhere town when you consider it's no bigger than some other communities. But why was Pensacola known world wide?

Well contrary to the history books Pensacola was settled prior to St, Augustine. St. Augustine Florida is listed as the oldest city in the country, but Pensacola is older.

1559, Don Tristan de Luna sailed from Mexico to Pensacola. Now along with him he had about 1500 people. The interesting point about that is Columbus. I'd better back up to Columbus.

Columbus had a desire to find a new trade route to the east, in order to fund a crusade to take back the holy land from the Muslims. And that was the desire of Columbus' heart. His desire was to raise enough money, to go on this expedition; to evangelize the nations that he would find; but also to raise enough money to take back Jerusalem.

Well the first place that was settled after Columbus discovered the new world, in the dirt that became the United States of America, was Pensacola, Florida. Pensacola, Florida was the first place in that dirt that became the United States and remember.... What nation in the world today....? There is no nation in the world today more protective of the nation of Israel than the United States. So Columbus, although he didn't see the crusade that took back Jerusalem, the nation where the first city was founded did just that. And it has been a protector of Israel. And God has blessed this nation through that effort, I believe.

Another thing that happened though, when de Luna come to Pensacola, he brought along with him about 1500 people. He brought some priests. He brought many many settlers. But he brought 100 Aztec warriors with him. So while he was coming on the ships, he was carrying Christianity in some ships, and demonic, satanic worshippers in the other ships. So when they got on the ground in Pensacola the struggle began.

The city was blown away, or the settlement was blown away by a hurricane. The settlement was routed. But it still remains the oldest settlement in the United States of America.

Now some things about the early map. The Spanish settlers when they came they named all the rivers. They named all the bays and so forth. The name of Pensacola Bay is the Haya de Santa Maria de Phillipina. Which was the bay of Saint Mary and Saint Philip, after the king. That's boring stuff, but the good part is like I said before the Mississippi River. What they named the Mississippi River was Rio del Spiritu Santo. Now the interesting part about that is Pensacola was the governmental headquarters for the Spanish, the French, The British and Andrew Jackson.

And this territory and all the way up the river was ruled from Pensacola. Now you may have heard, pastor Yonggi Cho has made a prophecy indicating that he saw revival breaking out in Pensacola. And it moved to the west, to Mobile and then New Orleans. And then up the Mississippi River! And then over to the east coast and then back to the west coast, until the entire nation was ablaze.

Well what makes sense in that is exactly how an order would go from the headquarters in Pensacola. If an order went out from the headquarters in Pensacola, the governmental head, it would go to Mobile and then New Orleans and then up that river. Now that river drains two thirds of this nation. But two thirds of this nation can be reached by going back up that river. So the Lord is on his way. The Spirit of God, that river is flowing this way. The Spirit of God is gonna flow up that river, and it's gonna engulf this area [New Orleans] also. This Church will be a mighty place where people in this area will be able to get a drink of the water of life.

And I just want to encourage you and I don't know why necessarily, but when I was sitting there, that river and the thought it was .... and again were not talking about a trickle. We're not talking about a little drip. We're talking about a huge flow of God's Spirit in these last days. Not something that's just gonna get us damp, you know. Something we can't even stop. ....It's gonna take you where it wants to take you. You're not gonna be able to fight it anymore that you would that river down the road.

Why Pensacola? By Mike Conroy quoted from his article on the Mike Conroy Brownsville Website.

Pensacola is a city on the Gulf Coast of Florida, and is the home of the Navy Blue Angels, it is also the birthplace of some well known sports figures. The city has been called "The Mother-in-Law of the Navy" because of all the Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard pilots have initial training here. The murders of an abortion doctor in 1993 and another in 1994 thrust the city into the world spotlight, but the story of Pensacola didn't begin in the 1990's.

The outpouring of God's Spirit at Brownsville Assembly of God in Pensacola may have been foretold. Pensacola was the first settlement in the New World and has passed through the possession of several nations.

Pensacola is known as the City of Five Flags. Spain, France, England, the Confederacy and the United States have all claimed the area. The real estate has been fought over often. The souls of the residents have been fought over in the heavens. The city seal has the cross as it's centerpiece. Meanwhile the city protects abortion and has embraced prostitution and homosexuality.

Both Pensacola and St. Augustine claim to be the oldest city in the United States.

1559 Pensacola's earliest settlement dates to the 1559 when Tristan de Luna led 1500 Spanish colonists to Pensacola Bay. This outpost lasted only two years. The first Spanish colonists arrived in St. Augustine in 1564, five years after de Luna's Pensacola failure. This effort was successful Pensacola can legitimately claim to be the oldest colony and St. Augustine the oldest continuously occupied city. 1

When de Luna came to the area he brought eight Catholic priests to evangelize the Indians. The Priests dedicated the ground to God and prayed for a blessing on the venture. The de Luna expedition struggled with the terrain and weather and food supplies. The blessings of God on the area may have been hampered by the religious practices of the 100 Aztec warriors who were brought along to help explore. Aztecs in Mexico worshipped the sun and sacrificed humans on stone altars.

The native people in Florida that met the explorers performed sacrifices of their first born children. Another interesting similarity between the times of the explorers and present was the custom of abortion in extramarital pregnancy.

1686 Juan Jordan de Riena first used the name Panzacola stating. "This bay the Indians call Panzacola . . . With the Indian pilot we went by longboat to the village of Panzacola . . . The Panzacola brought forth and gave us tortillas and corn and we presented them with glass beads" The name "Panzacola" properly is "pa shi okla" meaning "Bread People" in Choctaw, a closely related tongue. The Panzacola tribe was annihilated by warfare with other tribes by 1722

At Brownsville Assembly of God Dick Reuben has spoken during our weekly communion on Sunday morning. It's interesting that the name Bethlehem the place of the Lord's birth translates into the "city of bread" and the root of Pensacola's name is in another tongue "The bread people"

A Final Word by Bill Somers

To summarize all this several conclusions can be reached. Clearly the Lord is sending revival. The visions, prophecies and other material in this article point out that He wishes to send Revival to Louisiana and to follow the pattern described in Mike Conroy's talk.

That is why He is calling for intercessors! Revival must be birthed in prayer!

We have been asked Why Pensacola? Well because by prophecy and prophetic sign Pensacola is the starting point. [A prophetic sign is something in the natural that points to something in the spiritual. The name 'bread people' for the Pensacola Indians speaks of Bethlehem, the house of bread, for example.]

So now we have heard the call to intercede for Louisiana, and we can answer the question 'Why Louisiana?" Because Louisiana is a critical intermediate point. And since it contains many of the enemy's spiritual strongholds, it acts as a roadblock. If revival is held back from Louisiana, it will be held back from the rest of the USA!

I'm reminded of Abraham Isaac and Jacob. God's promise had Abraham as its starting point. It passed on to Isaac and then to Jacob. If the enemy had stopped Jacob, there would have been no nation of Israel, but once Jacob had fathered his 12 sons, there was no stopping the move of God.

This promise of God, as outlined by Mike Conroy and Pastor Cho has its starting point in Pensacola. Then it will pass along to Mobile and then to New Orleans Louisiana. If the enemy can keep it out of Louisiana, he can stifle the revival, but once it gets past New Orleans and up the Mississippi River, there will be no stopping the move of God!

It's my prayer that God will raise up some of you to help intercede in this cause.

God Bless y'all!

Launch Out

James Donovan

November 10/05

Yes it is time to launch out in Me and be led by My spirit. Speak forth My words with boldness and authority. I am raising up a people of boldness and authority to be My conduits, flowing under My unction. Harkening to My voice not only hearers of My word but doers of My word. To declare My truths to the nations speaking life and direction to My people in these days of much tribulation.

Pronouncing that I am alive and I am launching a great onslaught of My spirit to dispel the strategies of darkness. To give direction to My people who's destiny is to be overcomers and flow in Me! My spirit is moving through My chosen vessels. So listen and receive from Me and release My words of life in these days. Then you shall see many set free from the snare of the enemy. My desire is for My chosen ones is to launch out in My authority and proclaim I am alive.

Yes these are the days to arise and shine and be My voice launch out of the usual place and soar with Me! Speak forth My words of life and you shall see many delivered and set free. My desire is that all shall come to know Me as Lord, that none shall perish and all shall have ever lasting life. So launch out be led by My spirit and allow your voice too shout My oracles of newness of life and victory! As you launch out I shall give you much authority and boldness. So arise and launch out and hearken to My voice!

I am calling My Eagles to launch out and run and be led of Me to set the Nations ablaze with My presence, My anointing, these are days of a mighty outpouring in the Nations of this world. Many are being challenge to let go of self, and self ambitions and to follow Me and focus on Me and launch out led of My spirit. Then you shall see revival from sea to sea.

The Lion Speaks, But Does Not Appear

HALLOWEEN MORNING
OCTOBER 31, 2004
A Message I Received During Praise and Worship

By Rosie Lovejoy

I saw a pentagram with the evil eye inside of it looking out at the congregation as we worshiped. I wrestled in my spirit against it. I didn't want it anywhere near the church I attend.

Then I heard the words of my favorite LION:

"THE FIGHT HAS BEGUN…
THERE IS GREAT WICKEDNESS AFOOT IN YOUR LAND…"

I continued worshiping and the following message wove in and out of the Praise and Worship.

"MY CHILDREN HAVE BEEN SO DISTRACTED LATELY--DOORBELLING, PHONING, PLACING THEIR TRUST IN A WORLDLY KINGDOM THAT WILL FAIL THEM.

THEY HAVE LOOKED TO EARTHLY LEADERS AND NOT TO ME."
The voice that spoke was sorrowful, yet filled with authority.

"I AM A JEALOUS GOD AND I WILL GIVE MY GLORY TO NO ONE BUT MYSELF.

MY CHILDREN HAVE GIVEN THEIR PRAISE TO OTHER THAN ME.

THEY HAVE FOLLOWED A FALSE SHEPHERD.
THEY HAVE FOLLOWED A SAUL.

JUDGMENT IS EVEN NOW KNOCKING AT THE DOOR."
The voice was strong and unwavering.

Then I saw a huge ocean going vessel. It was a workhorse of a ship, not a pretty ocean liner or cruise ship. The ship was involved in a battle for its survival. It was caught in a storm of Biblical proportions. The waves were hundreds of feet high. The ship was navigating the waves as it tossed the ship to and fro.

I heard the words "sea legs" and somehow knew that the crew and any passengers aboard needed to develop a new set of legs in order to stay on board the ship during the raging storm.

Once again I heard my favorite LION speak:

"I AM THE CAPTAIN, AND I WILL LEAD THIS SHIP THROUGH THE STORMS THAT ARE EVEN NOW ON THEIR WAY."

Again I saw the boat and I became weak-kneed just looking at the ferocious storm and the boat as it rose and fell, rose and fell, rose and fell.

"UNLESS YOU ARE ON MY BOAT, YOU WILL BE SWEPT AWAY BY THE STORMS THAT ARE AT YOUR DOOR."

"There Are Only Two Choices"
Rosie Lovejoy

November 27, 2004

This vision occurred during an extremely anointed time of Praise and Worship at River Glory, in Seattle, WA.

I saw a wooden bucket filled with water. The bucket was suspended in the air and began to pour out water. There seemed to be an endless supply of water, as it kept coming and coming. Soon a young man I did not recognize walked under the bucket, became drenching wet, then proceeded to take his clothes off. He picked up a pumice stone and began to scrub and scrub his body. When he was done he went over to his dirty wet clothes to put them back on. I heard a voice directing him,

"No, you are not to put on your old, dirty clothing after I have cleansed you. You are to put on new attire which I will provide for you."

Invisible hands appeared with a white robe and belt, similar to those worn in Israel. The man put them on and went over to a rock to sit and rest.

Soon a woman appeared and she went through the same cleansing process, scrubbing everywhere on her body with the pumice stone. She was radiant and glowing, as the invisible robe appeared to cover her with the garment of white.

By this time I was thinking, "This is kind of X-rated Lord."

HIS reply startled me:

"Do you think there is anything hidden from me? My children are naked and their thoughts are naked. There is nothing hidden from me. No thought, no action, no desire, no deed."

Soon another woman stood under the bucket and cleansed herself, then a man. When this was over there were about seven cleansed, glowing individuals, dressed in white. As if on clue they joined hands and began to do an Israeli dance on the soft green grass. Birds were flitting about, and the air was soft and sweet.

The scene faded away and a large wooden cross appeared, with misty lavender light about it. The cross was sitting on a hill with large rocks. I have seen this hill before in the spirit. The light was shimmering and swirling about the cross, and the sky was nearly dark, as if the sun had just set and the evening had begun. There were no stars in the sky, just darkness and the cross with misty, lavender light.

Out of the base of the cross a molten stream of gold appeared. It was fiery hot and thick and began to flow down the rocks. It was a small flow that seemed to increase as it flowed down the barren rocks and desolate landscape.

Then to my horror something occurred that I would never have expected. A man appeared from the side of the vision and approached the cross. Because it was so dark I could just see his silhouette. He appeared to be in his late teens or early twenties. He boldly walked over to the cross and began to kick it, hard! Over and over he pounded the cross with his foot. Soon he was joined by another man who began to spit on the cross. Then another appeared who began to urinate on it. Soon the cross was surrounded by men who were spitting, kicking, urinating, and abusing the cross of our Savior. They were totally unaware of the golden stream that was flowing out from underneath the cross and winding its way down the slope of the hill.

The vision then began to follow the stream of hot molten gold. It wound down the hill, then came to the edge of a cliff. Over the side it tumbled and became a shimmering, sparkling waterfall of golden glory.

Soon people dressed in white appeared and began to gleefully dance and play under the glory fall. As I watched them frolic in the glory fall my eyes were drawn to the top of the fall. Sitting at the top of the fall was my favorite LION, the LION OF ZION. HE had a large, golden, jeweled crown on HIS head. I ran over to HIM and wrapped my arms around HIS neck and covered HIS face with kisses. I immediately felt embarrassed and backed away. HE looked over at me and smiled, (Yes, a LION can smile…) and then HE winked!

I approached HIM again and sat down next to HIM, snuggling close. Then HE began to speak:

“THERE ARE ONLY TWO KINDS OF PEOPLE IN THIS WORLD. THOSE WHO ALLOW THEMSELVES TO BE CLEANSED BY MY CROSS, AND THOSE WHO MOCK ME.”

“THERE ARE ONLY TWO CHOICES TO MAKE.”

“That’s kind of harsh, LORD.” I stated.

“THIS IS A HARD WORD.” HE stated.

“WHERE IN MY WORD DOES IT SAY THAT THE LUKE WARM ARE GOING TO ENTER INTO MY KINGDOM?

WHERE DOES IT STATE THAT THOSE WHO PROFESS ME WITH THEIR LIPS AND THEN LEAD THEIR LIVES MOCKING EVERYTHING I STAND FOR, WHERE DOES IT SAY THEY ARE GOING TO ENTER INTO MY REST?

MANY IN MY CHURCH MOCK THE WORD BY THE LIVES THEY LIVE.

THEY SHUN THE POOR.

THEY IGNORE THE ORPHANS AND THE FATHERLESS CHILDREN.

THEY DEVISE WAYS TO TAKE FROM THE POOR WHAT LITTLE THEY HAVE.

THEY IGNORE THE PLIGHT OF THEIR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN OTHER LANDS AS THEY BUILD PALACES FOR THEMSELVES.

THEY BUILD LARGE SANCTUARIES FOR THEMSELVES WHILE THE POOR IN THEIR MIDST LIVE IN FEAR AND DEPRAVATION.

I DO NOT DWELL IN THESE SANCTUARIES. I TAKE NO DELIGHT IN THEM.

MY WORD IS CLEAR,
"PURE AND UNDEFILED RELIGION IS TO VISIT ORPHANS AND WIDOWS IN THEIR TROUBLE, AND TO KEEP ONESELF UNSPOTTED FROM THE WORLD." (James 1:27)

I HAVE STATED,
"NOT EVERYONE WHO SAYS TO ME, 'LORD, LORD, SHALL ENTER THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN. MANY WILL SAY TO ME IN THAT DAY, 'LORD, LORD, HAVE WE NOT PROPHESIED IN YOUR NAME, CAST OUT DEMONS IN YOUR NAME, AND DONE MANY WONDERS IN YOUR NAME?' AND THEN I WILL DECLARE TO THEM, 'I NEVER KNEW YOU; DEPART FROM ME, YOU WHO PRACTICE LAWLESSNESS." (Mt. 7:21-23)

As I was listening to MY SAVIOR, a scene began to appear below us. A Southwest or West Texas City appeared. It was small, like cities appear out of an airplane window. Cars were scurrying about, and tiny, tiny people crossed the streets and waited for the signals to change.

"SOON I WILL ROAR AND ROAR AND ROAR!" HE proclaimed.
"THERE WILL BE NO ONE WHO WILL BE ABLE TO IGNORE MY ROARING. EVERY ONE WILL KNOW WHO IS ROARING. EVERY MAN, WOMAN, AND CHILD ON EARTH WILL KNOW THAT THEIR GOD IS ROARING.
THERE IS NO COMPROMISE IN MY WORD."

The scene faded away as we sat watching those dressed in white frolic under the glory fall, and the people of the Southwest city go about their daily lives, not knowing that their LORD was warning them of things to come.

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

The following evening I was again at River Glory and during Praise and Worship the same scene appeared. I was snuggled next to THE LION OF ZION, and watching the miniature Southwest City. To my horror I saw tanks begin to move through the streets. They were foreign tanks, and I knew that they had entered through our unguarded Southern border with Mexico. They were firing at buildings and causing much panic and terror. (I do not know what nation or nations they were from.)

One of the tank drivers spotted the LION sitting high above on the top of the glory fall. He began to fire at the LION with the big tank guns. Soon others joined him, all aiming and firing at our LORD.

Their fire fell quite short of the glory fall. Those underneath the glory fall continued their dancing in the glory, not hesitating one moment as the tank took aim at them. THE LION silently watched the futile efforts of those trying to destroy and unseat HIM.

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

On Sunday, Dec. 5, 2004, the LION wanted to show me more things to come, and I didn't want to see them. I have seen such destruction, deception, and despair on the horizon for my nation, that I didn't want to take my eyes off of HIM to see the destructive scene HE wanted to show me. I sat beside HIM stubbornly looking at HIS profile, refusing to look at the destruction of the SW or South

Texas Border City once again.

When I finally looked, I saw tanks moving through the streets, indiscriminately shooting at apartment buildings, cars, stores, pedestrians, etc. Tanks drove through schools, shopping malls, and other civilian targets without concern for the civilian population's safety. There was virtually no opposition because the attack was so unexpected.

The LION explained to me that this was going to be allowed because of our nation's attack on Fallujah. HE stated that just as we had leveled that city and killed and injured thousands of innocent women and children, we had opened the door for our nation to be similarly attacked.

I then announced to HIM that I wasn't going to share that information, because no one would believe me. I would "just sort of not include it."

HE then softly asked me:

"Are you my servant?

Is your willingness to be my servant conditional?

Who is it you serve?

To what extent are you willing to serve?

And then HE sat quietly, waiting for my reply.

"I Will Whistle And I Will Roar…"
January 7, 2005

Like all the other Lion of Zion's, this occurred during an evening of prolonged, unrestrained, fabulous Praise and Worship.

I saw large, healthy, beautiful elephants trotting towards an unseen goal. They were wearing white satin saddlecloths with red and white fringes. They were very pretty and very regal looking.

Beautiful galloping tigers followed the elephants. The tigers were wearing shiny purple satin saddlecloths over their backs. The saddlecloths had gold and purple tassels and swayed with the movement of the tigers. They were a beautiful contrast to the tiger's orange and black coloring.

I immediately took exception to the tigers wearing THE LION'S royal colors. I was very angry, and told THE LORD so.

"No LORD!" I stated, "Only Lions are allowed to wear your royal colors. It's not right that the tigers are wearing your colors! Something is very wrong here…" I was very blunt and quite irate.

"NO MY CHILD. THOSE WHO HAVE THEIR EARS TUNED TOWARDS ME ARE PART OF MY FAMILY."

I began to repent and knelt down to pray, asking for forgiveness for having my ears tuned towards the world and not towards HIM.

I then saw HIS sandal feet. I removed HIS sandals and began to wash HIS feet. I was feeling very remorseful for how little time I spend in HIS WORD and with HIM.

These words then reverberated through my Spirit.

"GOD CAME DOWN TO WALK AMONG HIS CREATION, TO SHOW US HOW TO LIVE.

THE ANIMALS ARE DANCING CHILD, BECAUSE THEY KNOW I AM COMING. THEY REJOICE BECAUSE THEY KNOW I WILL SET ALL THINGS RIGHT. THEY HEAR MY WHISTLE AND THEY JOYOUSLY COME RUNNING."

A mighty lion, THE LION OF ZION, replaced the human feet. HE looked like HE did the first time I saw HIM in LION OF ZION 1. HE was shaggy and virile and very much the King of the Jungle. HE began to slowly walk away from me. The animals I had seen were following HIM. HE turned and spoke to me.

"I AM COMING TO SET ALL THINGS RIGHT.
I AM COMING TO EXECUTE JUDGMENT AND JUSTICE, TO CLEAR THE EARTH AND ITS AIRWAVES OF THE FILTH IT SO LOVES AND CRAVES.

OH EARTH, YOU PANT AFTER THE THINGS OF DARKNESS.
YOU DESIRE WHAT IS UNHOLY.

YOU PURSUE WHAT IS UNCLEAN.

THIS IS A TIME OF GREAT REJOICING, FOR I AM COMING TO ESTABLISH MY KINGDOM AND MY RIGHTEOUSNESS.

PRAY FOR THE PEACE OF JERUSALEM.
PRAY THAT I WILL COME QUICKLY.
PRAY THAT YOU WILL BE FOUND WORTHY.
PRAY THAT YOUR LAMPS WILL BE FILLED TO OVERFLOWING.

LOOK! LOOK ALL AROUND YOU!
I HAVE BEGUN TO PROWL. I AM ON THE MOVE. I WILL ESTABLISH MY KINGDOM.
SLOWLY AT FIRST, THEN FASTER AND FASTER, MIGHTIER AND MIGHTIER, WILL THE BIRTHPANGS OF MY RETURN BE.
COME!

IT IS ALL SO SIMPLE. WHAT WAS PROPHESIED HAS BEGUN.
EACH OF YOU WAS BORN FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS.

ARE YOU READY?
CAN YOU HEAR MY WHISTLE?
WILL YOU RESPOND AS QUICKLY AS THE ANIMALS?
WILL YOU HESITATE, AND BE SWEPT AWAY AS I ROAR AND MY JUDGMENTS ROLL?

COME! FOLLOW MY WHISTLE!
DANCE WITH ME AS THE ANIMALS ARE DANCING. THEY AWAIT MY RETURN.
FOLLOW WHERE I WILL LEAD, FOR IT IS BESIDE STILL WATERS.
I WILL RESTORE YOUR SOUL.
I WILL MAKE YOU TO LIE DOWN IN GREEN PASTURES.
COME!

Then HE whistled, but I could not hear it. I could tell HE was whistling, but I could not hear a thing!

(It reminded me of dog whistles where dogs hear the whistle, but humans cannot. I watched the animals, and I watched HIS lips. I was horrified that I had not heard HIS whistle. I was inwardly in a panic.)

I jumped up and ran towards HIM. I found myself with a garland of fragrant flowers in my hair. My dress was white with multi-colored ribbons around my waist. I joined the colorful animals who had responded to HIS whistle.

"COME! COME! COME! QUICKLY! QUICKLY!" HE called.

"THE EARTH IS SLUMBERING, BUT SOON IT WILL NOT BE ABLE TO IGNORE MY ROARS.

TELL YOUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS TO LISTEN FOR MY WHISTLE—TO COME PROMPTLY TO MY CALL.

COME! COME QUICKLY!
THERE IS SO LITTLE TIME LEFT.

REJOICE MY BRIDE, FOR YOUR BRIDEGROOM COMES!"

Then I threw myself down on my face on the ground, staining my pretty white dress with dust and dirt. I was so upset with myself because I hadn't heard HIS whistle when the animals had. I was terrified at the implications of not hearing HIS whistle.

"LORD, please help me to be righteous!
Please don't let a word I write be my own.
LORD forgive me for pursuing money and sales this week, and not YOU!
LORD, cleanse me! Help me!
LORD, I didn't hear your whistle!
Help me! Help me! Help me!
I didn't hear your whistle!
I could tell you were whistling…but I didn't hear it."

I felt something wet and sandpapery. I looked up and the LION was licking the dust off my dress and my face.

"COME! GET UP!
FOLLOW ME!

I WILL WHISTLE AND I WILL ROAR!
EACH OF YOU CAN RESPOND TO MY WHISTLE OR EXPERIENCE MY ROAR.

COME!
REJOICE THAT YOU ARE HERE TO WITNESS MY RETURN!

COME! THERE IS NO TIME FOR DALLYING! COME!"

Then I was dancing in HIS arms. Dancing as a Bride with her bridegroom. Woozy with love and joy and delight.

I am writing this on Dec. 9th from my notes. As I was writing about my remorse for not hearing HIS whistle, I heard a faint, sweet whistle in my Spirit..... It was not shrill, but similar to a whistle that one would use to lovingly call his/her dog. It came three times.

Thank you, Yeshua…Thank You…

I feel it is necessary to clarify a few things before I release this vision.

Our LORD speaks to each of us in many ways. Some of us hear HIS voice quite clearly. Others have intuitions or hunches, perhaps a feeling in our body that we have come to trust. Some can open their Scriptures and the HOLY SPIRIT will speak directly and intimately to their need or question. Others find the solace of prayer or the beauty of nature to hear HIS voice and promptings. In the days to come HE will speak to each of us in the way we can most easily hear and respond to HIS voice.

I believe HIS whistle in this vision is for our instruction. I am not implying that unless we hear a whistle in our Spirit we are not to respond to HIS voice.

On the other hand there is wisdom in watching the animals. After this vision I was reminded of an experience I had on Jan. 16, 1994. I was returning from an appointment in Sacramento, CA, and was driving north on I-5. I heard a racket outside and was amazed to find the sky filled with Canadian geese! They were flying north and the sky was filled with their V-shaped flocks. There were numerous flocks of smaller birds as well. The cloud formations were very strange around the sun. The sun appeared different, too.

I was so upset with the spectacle above me that I pulled my car off the road and began to pray. Since it was January, I was concerned that the birds had somehow lost their time clocks and were going to be frozen and killed as they proceeded north. It was such an unusual sight that I had no grid through which to process what I was seeing. It seemed that nature had gone berserk. The clouds were strange, the sun was strange, the birds were strange.

I drove to my home in Mt. Shasta, CA, still pondering the "weird site" I had seen in the sky outside Sacramento. That night in Northridge, CA, the pornography capitol of the USA, a large earthquake struck, demolishing homes, highways, and lives.

I believe that the LORD is reminding us that HE has a second Scripture, and that is nature. Wonderful and terrible times are coming, and if we are wise, we will watch and read HIS second Scripture as well.

LION OF ZION 19
“THE HOLY OF HOLIES”
By Rosie Lovejoy
February 13, 2005

Like all the other Lion of Zion visions, this took place in the church I attend during a very, very anointed worship service. The preceding week had been consumed with my job, and I had spent little time with the LORD. I was burnt out, frazzled, and yearning for HIS presence to set things right within me. Internally I was weeping and repenting, begging to have help with how I spend my time and attention. I was asking how I can stay in integrity with all my clients, be attentive to their needs, and still keep my attention and time focused on my Savior.

And so the sweet vision began…

I saw a large cross of blinding white light, pulsating, glowing, beautiful….

And then I saw the ARK OF THE COVENANT, golden and glimmering, with flashing rainbows of light all about it. It was blinding. It felt thunderous, although I did not hear a thing.

I immediately threw myself on the floor, prostrate before it. I begged the LORD to put a coal to my mouth so that I wouldn’t say anything to transgress this HOLY place. And then I heard the familiar voice of my Savior, speaking gently yet firmly.

“THERE ARE STORM CLOUDS ON THE HORIZON.”

I continued lying face down in front of the ARK, wondering how anything could permeate this HOLY place. And then I found myself wondering why HE was telling me something HE has told me so many times before. And why here?

And then I realized that there might be a raging storm outside, yet here in the HOLY OF HOLIES there was nothing but HIS indescribable presence. There was about this place a feel unlike any I have experienced.…

And then I found myself dressed in white dancing with YESHUA in front of the ARK to Heavenly music, melting in HIS presence of love.

HE spoke to me,

“INVITE YOUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS INTO MY LIGHT AND MY LOVE, WHERE THE WORLD EVAPORATES AND IS STILL.”

And then I was on my face again before the HOLY OF HOLIES, still dressed in a white dress. I was nearly bursting with a thousand emotions. And then a still, sweet presence quietly enfolded me. I peeked up and reclining beside me was my LION, THE LION OF ZION, the love of my life.

He spoke:

“THIS IS THE ONLY PLACE YOU WANT TO BE…IN THE HOLY OF HOLIES. I WILL TEACH YOU HOW TO BE IN THIS PLACE AS YOU WORK AND GO ABOUT YOUR DAY. I WILL TEACH YOU HOW TO STAY IN MY VERY PRESENCE IN THE HOLY OF HOLIES.
THIS IS WHERE YOU WANT TO BE ALWAYS. I WILL TEACH YOU.”

The vision faded away, and the indescribable feeling of that special place remained with me as the pastor spoke, the church dismissed and I drove home.

Abiding In The Holy Of Holies
Preschool Lesson #1

February 18, 2004

Once again, a small group of worshiping warriors were gathered for an evening of abandoned Praise and Worship. About an hour into our evening I heard the voice of my SAVIOR. HE told me to sit down as HE had a lesson for me about how to abide in the HOLY OF HOLIES throughout the day. "Oh WOW! I thought, here comes Lesson 101 on how to stay in the HOLY OF HOLIES, 24 - 7."

HE firmly corrected me,
"THIS IS NOT LESSON 101.
THAT IMPLIES THAT YOU ARE IN COLLEGE AND HAVE AN ADVANCED STATE OF LEARNING.
THIS IS PRESCHOOL.
THIS IS BEFORE KINDERGARTEN.
THIS IS THE VERY FIRST STEP TO LEARNING HOW TO ABIDE IN THE HOLY OF HOLIES ALL THE TIME.
THIS IS THE FIRST STEP IN ANSWERING YOUR REQUEST."

I sat down, much humbled, and began to write what HE had to say.

1. "ALWAYS REMEMBER THROUGHOUT YOUR DAY: WHO CREATED YOU,
WHO SUSTAINS YOU,
AND WHO CAN CALL YOU HOME AT A MOMENT'S NOTICE."

" I AM YAHWEH your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. You shall have no other Gods before me."
Ex. 20: 1-2

"Hear oh Israel: YAHWEH our God, YAHWEH is one! You shall love YAHWEH your God with all your hearts, with all your soul, with and with all your strength."
Deut. 6:4

2. "PRAY AND SING IN TONGUES AS OFTEN AS YOU CAN.
YOU WILL BYPASS THAT VERY ANALYTICAL MIND OF YOURS. ANGELS JOIN YOU WHEN YOU PRAY AND SING IN THEIR LANGUAGE."

"Therefore do not be unwise, but understand what the will of the Lord is. And do not drink with wine, in which is dissipation; but be filled with the Spirit, speaking to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord, giving thanks always, for all things to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ (YESHUA), submitting to one another in the fear of God."
Eph. 5: 17-21

"Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, in everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus (YESHUA) for you."
1 Thes. 5:16-18

3. “AND OF COURSE YOU KNOW THE NEXT ONE.
WORSHIP.
ABANDONED,
UNDIGNIFIED,
UNRELIGIOUS WORSHIP AND PRAISE.
OFTEN!”

“Make a joyful shout to YAHWEH all you lands!
Serve YAHWEH with gladness: come into HIS presence with singing…
Enter into HIS gates with thanksgiving, and into HIS courts with praise.”
Ps. 100: 1-2, 4

4. “MY WORD.
EAT IT! FOR IT IS FOOD FOR YOU.
EAT IT!
EAT IT!
EAT IT!
I SHALL REVEAL MYSTERIES AS YOU EAT MY LIVING WORD.”

“If you abide in MY word, you are my disciples indeed. And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall set you free.”
John 8: 31-32

“For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.”
Heb. 4:12

5. “OBEDIENCE TO MY INNER PROMPTINGS!
OBEDIENCE TO MY WORD!
NOT HALF-HEARTED OBEDIENCE!”

“If you love ME, keep MY commandments.”
John14: 15

“As the FATHER loved ME, I also have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in MY love, just as I have kept MY FATHER’S commandments and abide in HIS love.”
John 15: 9-10

6. “DANCE!!!!!!!!
I CREATED YOU TO DANCE!”

“Then David danced before YAHWEH with all his might; and David was wearing a linen ephod…
Now as the ark of YAHWEH came into the city of David, Michal, Saul’s daughter, looked through a window and saw King David leaping and twirling before YAHWEH; and she despised him in her heart…
Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul, came out to meet David and said, “How glorious was the king of Israel today, uncovering himself today in the eyes of the maids and the servants, as one of the base fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!…
And David said to Michal, ‘It was before YAHWEH…
Therefore I will play music before YAHWEH. And I will be even more undignified than this.’

Therefore Michal, the daughter of Saul, had no children till the day of her death.”
2 Sam. 6: 13, 16, 20-21; 23

"Let them praise HIS name with the dance."
Ps. 149: 3

"Praise HIM with the timbrel and dance."
Psalm 150: 4a

"YOU STILL THINK SOME OF MY COMMANDS ARE OPTIONAL.
THEY ARE NOT!"

"Do not think I have come to destroy the Law (God's teaching and instruction) or the prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill. For assuredly, I say to you, till Heaven and earth pass away, not one jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the Law (God's teaching and instruction) till all is fulfilled."
Matt. 5: 17-18

7. "POUR YOURSELF OUT AS I POURED MYSELF OUT FOR YOU—WITH MERCY,
TENDERNESS,
AND LOVE TO YOU FELLOW MAN AND WOMAN.

READ THE BOOK OF JAMES OFTEN.

THERE WAS A REASON THIS BOOK WAS SO DISPUTED WHEN IT CAME TIME TO CHOOSE WHICH LETTERS TO INCLUDE.

IT CALLS ON MY SERVANTS TO BE MORE THAN SUNDAY WARRIORS.

IT CALLS ON MY BOND-SERVANTS AND MAIDENS TO POUR THEMSELVES OUT.

I MEANT WHAT I SAID WHEN I SPOKE, 'TAKE UP YOUR CROSS AND FOLLOW ME.'

LOOK AT MOTHER THERESA. AS SHE POURED HERSELF OUT, I POURED MYSELF IN. OH, I KNOW HER DOCTRINE MAY DIFFER FROM YOURS. WHAT I LOOK AT ARE HEARTS, AND HER HEART WAS FILLED WITH MY HEART."

"Then Jesus (YESHUA) said to His disciples, "If anyone desires to come after ME, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow ME."
Matt 16: 24 also Mark 8: 34 and 10:31, Luke 9:23

"But be doers of the WORD, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror; for he observes himself, goes away and immediately forgets the kind of man he was. But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the WORD, this one will be blessed in what he does…

Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their troubles, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world." James 2:1:22-25, 27

"What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works. Can faith save him? If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food and one of you says to them, 'Depart in peace, be warmed and filled..' but you did not give them the things which are needed by the body, what does it profit? Thus also, faith by itself, if it does not have works is dead."
James2: 14-17

"THIS MY CHILD ENCOMPASSES PRESCHOOL LESSON # 1."

And then I saw my LION quietly reposing in the HOLY OF HOLIES. There was a large jeweled crown on his head. Light was bouncing off the golden crown. Light was everywhere.

HE turned his head and smiled at me.

Then the vision faded away.

My Summary of lesson # 1

1. Always remember my Creator throughout the day.

2. Pray and sing in tongues often.

3. Worship – abandoned, undignified, unreligious worship!

4. Eat HIS WORD. EAT IT! EAT IT! EAT IT! Mysteries will be unlocked as I do so.

5. Be OBEDIENT to HIS WORD and the MOST HOLY SPIRIT'S prompting. Don't procrastinate.

6. Dance before YAHWEH!

7. Pour myself out tenderly, as HE poured HIMSELF out for me.

Read the book of James often.

The Seeing Eye Lion
Lion Of Zion # 21
Rosie Lovejoy

May 8, 2005
This vision occurred during extended Praise and Worship at the Church I attend. It had been a difficult three weeks in Real Estate. I had spent no time or even much thought on the LORD. I was exhausted, burnt out, and desperately needing HIM.

I saw myself in a long flowing dress with a colorful blindfold covering my eyes. I was holding a white cane in my right hand. My left hand was attached to a handle, like seeing-eye dogs wear, and the blind among us hold onto. The handle was not attached to a seeing-eye dog, rather it was attached to my LION!
As I watched, I was dumbfounded to see myself walking haltingly, holding onto the handle with my left hand, and using the white cane to feel my way with the other hand.
The LION walked very slowly, mindful that HE was leading someone (me!) who was blind and totally reliant on HIM.
I was so humbled by the scene as I watched myself stumble and trip as I tried to move forward, with my white cane and LION.
Then the LION spoke.
THIS IS YOUR TRUE CONDITION.
YOU HAVE BECOME BLINDED BY CARES OF THE WORLD.
YOU ARE NOT ALONE.
THIS IS THE CONDITION OF MANY OF MY CHILDREN.
YOU THINK YOU SEE, BUT YOU ARE REALLY BLIND.

Then HE continued to walk with me, as I stumbled and held on for dear life.
Then the vision faded gently away.

Waiting With The Lion
Lion Of Zion # 22
Rosie Lovejoy

May 22, 2005

I was standing on a high, windswept plain. There were early summer grasses with lush heads of seeds at my feet. A few wildflowers were dotted among the grasses. The wind was gently blowing, a crisp wind like one finds in high places. It felt like early summer mountain winds, above tree line winds. The smells were those of the mountains, too. There were no trees in sight, only grasses and flowers and mountain breezes.

I was wearing the same long flowing dress I had worn in LION OF ZION # 21. My left hand was holding onto the handle of a halter that was worn by my favorite LION. The only difference between this vision and my last vision, was that this time I had no blindfold, and my right hand was free of the white cane.

The LION was striding, and I was holding onto the handle as tightly as I was able. I did not, under any circumstances, want to lose hold of my LION. So I was jogging along side HIM, holding tightly. Up ahead a beautiful light appeared. It was golden, and softly shimmering. It appeared that the LION was striding towards this light.

An intense desire rose up within me to drop hold of the halter and run into the light. I knew that this is what I would have done before last week's vision. This time I was not going to let go!!!! I WAS NOT GOING TO GO FORWARD ON MY OWN IN MY OWN STRENGTH! NOT WITHOUT MY LION! NO WAY!!!!!

When we were about 100 feet away, the LION laid down and began to clean HIMSELF.

I couldn't believe it! We were so close to the light, and HE was licking HIMSELF, cleaning HIMSELF!! I watched the light. I longed for the LIGHT! But I did not leave HIS side.

I sat down beside HIM, my eyes watching the light. It became more and more brilliant as it slowly began moving towards us. My LION continued to groom HIMSELF as the light approached. When the light was about 30 feet from us, it halted.

My gaze roamed from the LION to the light, back and forth, back and forth. The LION finished grooming HIMSELF, stretched and laid down to rest. And so I did what any reasonable lover of the LION would do, I reclined against my friend, and waited with HIM.

Lion Of Zion # 23
The Valley Of Decision
Rosie Lovejoy

May 22, 2005
During worship I once again found myself on a high, grassy plateau with my LION. It is the same place I have been in the last two visions. The grasses are blooming, small wildflowers dot the plateau, and high breezes are gently blowing through my hair.
I am with my LION as HE leads me over to the edge of a high, high bluff. As HE stands at the edge, I placed my arm gently about HIM. I felt such peace and contentment being with HIM in this place again.
Down below was a large, level plain that stretched for miles in all directions. The plain was filled with standing people, all nations and races. There were thousands and thousands of people.

Then I heard the words "VALLEY OF DECISION" reverberate through my Spirit.
I quickly looked at the LION and HE began to speak to me.

"THIS IS THE VALLEY OF DECISION.
EACH OF YOU MUST DECIDE WHO RULES YOUR HEART.
FOR MY WINDS ARE BEGINNING TO BLOW."

As I watched the people below, some looked up and saw the LION. They immediately prostrated themselves on the ground, oblivious to the dirt that was staining their clothing. Others looked up, and upon seeing the LION, stood defiantly. Others stood awestruck, but did not kneel. Many looked up, and it was clear that they could not see the LION. It was as if they were blinded from seeing HIM.

Others jeered, and raised their middle fingers at the KING. They yelled profanity at HIM.
And then a strong, strong wind began to blow among the people below. And most of the people just stood, being buffeted by the winds, staring at the LION.
I gasped as I saw many of the defiant ones began to kick and spit on those who had prostrated themselves before the LION.
Again the LION spoke.

"MY WINDS ARE BLOWING, AND EACH OF YOU MUST DECIDE TODAY
WHOM YOU WILL SERVE.
I NEVER SAID IT WOULD BE EASY.
I TOLD YOU THERE WOULD BE PERSECUTION.
THE CROSS IS NOT AN EASY THING, YET I HAVE ASKED EACH OF YOU TO PICK UP YOUR CROSS AND FOLLOW ME.
KNOW THAT MY WINDS ARE BLOWING,

AND MY FIRE IS BLAZING,
AND MY TIME HAS COME!
THIS IS THE VALLEY OF DECISION.
EACH OF YOU ARE NOW IN THE VALLEY OF DECISION.
CHOOSE YOU TODAY WHO YOU WILL SERVE.

As I watched the multitudes below, I saw a fire, a red, hot fire spread through the multitude of people—blazing and burning. Those prostrate on the ground were untouched by the fire, as it whirled over their prostrate forms.
The vision faded as the fire was whipped by the winds through the crowds below.

Lion Of Zion # 24
Ark Of Safety
Rosie Lovejoy

June 23, 2005

During extraordinary worship I found myself in the VALLEY OF DECISION. During my last vision, I was standing above the VALLEY looking at the multitude of people below.
This time, I was in the VALLEY OF DECISION along with the rest of the people presently on earth.

At the end of the VALLEY stood a huge, wooden boat, almost identical to numerous drawings I have seen of Noah's ARK. It was being propped up by large pieces of timber. A rough wooden plank, about 4 feet wide, led up to the boat. It had numerous smaller pieces of wood nailed to it so that the people going up the plank would not slip.

To my horror, there were no handrails! Yet no one, old or young, seemed to need the handrails. They were slowly and easily walking up the plank. There were very, very, few entering the ARK, compared to all the people in the Valley. Yet the stream of people entering the ARK was steady.
Then I heard the words of my LION:

"TERRIBLE TIMES ARE ON THE HORIZON—WAR,
PLAGUE,
AND FAMINE.
JUST AS IN NOAH'S TIME, THE GROUND WAS DRY.
NOBODY HAD SEEN THE KINDS OF RAINS THAT WERE TO COME.
NOAH WAS OBEDIENT AND BUILT THE ARK AND WHEN I TOLD HIM TO, HE AND HIS FAMILY BOARDED AND WERE SAFE.
THE OTHERS PERISHED.
STORM CLOUDS ARE NOW ON THE HORIZON.

TERRIBLE TIMES ARE AHEAD—
WAR,
FAMINE,
AND PLAGUE.
EACH AND EVERY PERSON IS NOW IN THE VALLEY OF DECISION,
AND EACH IS CHOOSING NOW WHOM THEY WILL SERVE.
THE TIME IS SHORT.
THE DECISION IS BEING MADE NOW.
MANY WHO ARE "CHRISTIANS" ARE CHOOSING MONEY, POWER, PRESTIGE, CONTROL, RELIGION,
AND OTHER THINGS,
RATHER THAN ME.
THEY ARE MAKING THE WRONG CHOICE.
MANY WHO ARE PRESENTLY NOT IN MY KINGDOM ARE CHOOSING ME OR WILL CHOOSE ME.
NOW IS THE TIME TO CHOOSE.
THE TIME IS SHORT.
CHOOSE ME.
CHOOSE TO COME ABOARD THE ARK OF SAFETY WITH ME."

As HIS words ended, I found myself on the ramp going up to the ARK. To my surprise, there were handrails for me to hold onto. The vision ended as I answered my LION’S call to come aboard HIS ARK OF SAFETY with HIM.

Golden Glory And War

Rosie Lovejoy

June 12, 2005

As the new rendition of Amazing Grace was being sung during an afternoon of worship, I found myself in a familiar place….

The musicians were singing AMAZING GRACE. I found myself in the spirit on my face before the LION. I was grasping HIS feet, and sobbing and confessing, and feeling so very grateful to the LORD for HIS mercy and kindness to me. I wept and wept, grasping tightly to HIS paws -- so grateful, so very grateful to HIM.

After a long time of weeping, I arose to see that a large, gold, jeweled crown now sat on HIS head. HE very much looked like the KING that HE is, beautiful and golden.

Again I leapt to the ground, face down, holding tightly to HIS paws. I did not want to be standing before my KING. In previous visions I have seen too many people being burnt up (Christians included) who stood arrogantly or foolishly before the KING.

"The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom." And I have learned that it is just plain stupid to refuse to recognize the KING'S sovereignty.

And then I did do something really unexpected. I got up and mounted HIS back, as if I expected to go for a ride with HIM. I couldn't believe I had done that!!!! I was filled with panic, slid off HIS back, and once again threw myself down at HIS feet, telling HIM I hadn't a clue why I was behaving this way, and I was sorry for being so disrespectful.

And then, almost as if propelled, I arose and once again climbed onto HIS back. HE immediately began to walk down a rocky mountain path.

Once again I became very anxious, as I didn't want to go downhill, I wanted to go uphill. Experience with my LION has taught me that journeys downhill usually result in my seeing something I do not want to see. And so I opened my eyes in the natural, and continued to enthusiastically worship, hoping the vision would just go away. It did not…

The LION continued to carefully walk downhill. The ground was rocky and dusty, the vegetation was sparse, and it appeared to be approaching dusk.

Off in the distance I heard the sounds of war. There were explosions and puffs of smoke. I saw an urban area, and fighting was fierce and fiery. I knew it was my country, and the fighting was here, on my soil. I was so sick at heart I wanted to throw up. I was so nauseous I could barely stay on HIS back. I did not want to see this!!!!!!!!

And then, off to the side of the fierce fighting, I saw a large golden mist in the sky. From that mist gold dust was raining down, a thick heavy rain like one sees during a thunderstorm. The glory was pouring down and the battle was raging.

"THIS IS HOW IT WILL BE," HE stated.

"THERE WILL BE JUDGMENT AND GLORY AT THE SAME TIME."

I sat on HIS back, watching the fierce fighting and watching the golden glory rain down as the vision faded away.

I want to personally comment on this vision. I have been shown war on USA soil a number of times. I know fierce fighting is ahead for my beloved land. But I have no idea when this may be. It may be soon or it may be years away. The fighting appears to involve tanks or tank like vehicles, grenades, rockets, etc. It was street fighting, deadly, fierce fighting.

I have been told that any prophet who prophesies negative things on the horizon is a false prophet. We are only to encourage, edify, and exhort. That is what "New Testament" prophets do.

I don’t consider myself a prophet at all. I am simply someone who has been blessed to meet my KING in a way that is very joyful and personal to me. I do not doubt for a moment that very somber times are on the horizon for the USA. And with these terrible times also comes the GLORY.

Lion Of Zion 26
Restless Waters And Foul Spirits

By Rosie Lovejoy

October 7, 2005

Like all other LION OF ZION visions, this happened during a prolonged time of Praise and Worship.

As I was worshiping and dancing before the LORD, I saw my favorite friend, THE LION OF ZION. He was standing upright, with the wind blowing HIS mane. HIS gaze was fixed ahead, as if HE was seeing things I could not see.

I approached HIM and tried to climb onto HIS back. It was as if HIS back was covered with Vaseline, and I kept falling off. (I might add, as the observer of this scene I was horrified at my behavior. I was being so bold and disrespectful. UCK!) Yet I kept persisting in trying to mount HIM.

As I picked myself off the ground from another fruitless attempt, HE turned HIS head and spoke to me.

"PERHAPS YOU ARE NOT TO DO IT THE SAME WAY THIS TIME."

HE said. "PERHAPS YOU'RE TO AWAIT MY DIRECTION…"

He then led me over to the edge of a bluff. Far below the waves were pounding on the base of the bluff, pounding and pounding. The water was gray and choppy, with foamy white caps. Salt spray filled the air. The air was cool and damp, like a late autumn day in the Pacific Northwest, USA.

As I watched the churning water below. I saw a monkey like demon come out of the water. It began climbing the bluff towards us. It was large, about five feet tall, skinny, with hollow eye sockets and mangy hair. Its movement was rapid, and its focus intent. I felt no fear at its approach, as I was standing right next to my KING.

It topped the bluff, and ran towards us, and then quickly passed us by. I was sure the demon had not seen us, as it did not even look in our direction. It was purposeful in its intended destination, like a robot on assignment.

The LION spoke,

"MANY FOUL SPIRITS HAVE BEEN LOOSED ON THE EARTH AT THIS TIME, IN RESPONSE TO THE FOULNESS OF MEN AND THE FOULNESS OF THEIR MINDS."

As I contemplated what HE had just said, HE continued,

"THEY ARE PROWLING AROUND THE EARTH, CHOOSING THOSE THEY WILL DEVOUR, AND THERE ARE MANY, TOO MANY, WILLING TO BE DEVOURED BY THE FOUL SPIRITS."

Once again I had been lovingly shown that the only safe place is next to HIM, clinging to HIM, abiding in HIM. The demon had not even seen me, and had walked right past me, without even a glance my way.

"I TOLD YOU AT THE BEGINNING OF THE YEAR THAT 'THIS IS THE YEAR MY WINDS WILL BLOW.' NOW I WILL SAY THAT MY WATERS HAVE BECOME RESTLESS."

I once again looked down at the base of the bluff. The waves were pounding and pounding against the base of the cliff.

"JUST AS THE FOUL SPIRITS HAVE BEEN LOOSED UPON THE EARTH, SO TOO WILL THE EARTH BEGIN TO VOMIT UP LAVA AND FIRE IN RESPONSE TO THE FOULNESS BEING VOMITED BY MEN AT THIS TIME."

I saw cracks begin to appear in the ground, and steam began to rise from the fissures. Soon lava began oozing out of the cracks, hot and frightful.

"Just like Reverend Susan's vision!" I exclaimed. *

HE said with a smile in HIS voice,

"SHE DEFINITELY IS THE SENIOR OF YOU TWO. YOU HAVE BOTH SEEN THE SAME THING BECAUSE IT IS GOING TO HAPPEN!"

Although the subject matter was so serious, I felt light hearted and joyful just being next to my FRIEND. There was a peace knowing that HE was in control of it all.

I then joked about how this wasn't a good time to buy waterfront, (I sell real estate on a large island, and everybody wants waterfront) and HE smiled his LION'S smile.

And then I had a horrifying thought, "I hope this isn't the Valley of Decision I am looking at!" If it was, it was now filled with water, restless, crashing waves, and choppy foam. There were now no people; no ARK OF SAFETY, nothing to suggest it might have once been land.

The bluff looked the same, the place I was standing looked the same, but the Valley was filled with water, and no humans could survive the onslaught on the churning waves.

HE just smiled his LION smile as I clung to him, looking out over the stormy scene.

As the vision faded away, I began shouting with my whole being to the wind, to the waves, to the demonic forces,

"Smal Israel!

YAHWEH elahino!

YAHWEH ehad!"

"Smal Israel!

YAHWEH elahino!

YAHWEH ehad!"

"Smal Israel!

YAHWEH elahino!

YAHWEH ehad!" **

over and over, LOUDER AND LOUDER.

Reverend Susan Cummings is my favorite Prophetess, and I was referring to one of her latest visions. Here's a link to her prophecy page.

Lion Of Zion 27
"Cling To Me And Do Not Stray!"
by Rosie Lovejoy
October 9, 2005

Once again I found myself on a bluff, overlooking crashing waves and violent water below. The wind was blowing and a storm was clearly approaching. I was in the same place I had been in LION OF ZION # 26, and numerous other visions.

Standing next to me was my LION, my LORD, and my KING. I gently draped my arm over his neck, and placed my cheek against HIS cheek. I felt such love emanating from HIM and for HIM. I was suspended in an atmosphere of love.
HE then spoke,

"YOU ARE GOING TO HAVE TO BE CLOSER TO ME IN THE DAYS AHEAD THAN YOU ARE NOW. YOU WILL NEED TO CLING TO ME AND ANSWER MY GENTLE WHISPER.
I AM THE KING COMING TO RECLAIM MY KINGDOM, COMING TO SET THINGS STRAIGHT,
COMING TO ROAR.
DO NOT STRAY!
DO NOT STEP FROM ME EVEN A FEW STEPS, FOR IT WILL BE TOO FAR!
DO NOT STRAY!
DO NOT STRAY!"

I looked at the scene ahead of me. Waves were crashing far below. The water was choppy and foamy and filled with small debris. The wind was blowing and thick gray clouds were rolling in from the sea.
I felt such love for my KING that I bent over and tenderly kissed the top of HIS head.
Then I continued to watch the scene -- wind and waves and rolling clouds.

I looked once again at LION and was surprised to see that where I had kissed HIM, a gorgeous golden jeweled crown now sat.
HE invited me to mount HIM, and I like the obstinate, foolish woman I am, I refused.

(I didn't want to be riding on the back of the crowned LION OF ZION!… It felt too presumptuous and disrespectful. I have so much yet to learn about obedience and surrender. And from what I am being shown, time is running out for HIS disobedient disciples, including me!)

Rather, I knelt before HIM, and looked directly into HIS gentle eyes of love. I told HIM how much I loved HIM and how much HE meant to me.
"COME!" HE ordered.
I looked up and a huge eagle appeared and landed next to us.
"COME!" the eagle ordered.
This time I didn't refuse. I climbed onto the back of the eagle and it began to climb high into the sky.
We passed through the misty clouds and left the seashore far behind, flying inland.
From high above the earth the eagle began to speak to me.

"SEE HOW YOU ARE CLINGING TO ME AS I FLY.
YOU REALIZE THAT IF YOU LET GO FOR EVEN AN INSTANT, THAT YOU WILL FALL OFF AND DIE.
SO IT WILL BE IN THE TIMES AHEAD. THOSE NOT CLINGING TO ME WILL BE IN GRAVE DANGER OF LOSING THEIR LIVES AND NOT FULFILLING THEIR MISSIONS. THE TIMES AHEAD ARE FAR MORE PERILOUS THAN YOU CAN NOW IMAGINE.
THERE IS SAFETY IN THE SHADOW OF MY WINGS.
THERE IS PROTECTION IN THE SHADOW OF MY WINGS.
THERE IS LOVE IN THE SHADOW OF MY WINGS.
THAT IS WHERE YOU NEED TO BE."

I looked down and saw small cracks begin to appear in the surface of the earth with steam coming out of them. There were cracks in roadways, cracks in farmland, cracks in unexpected places.
And so I clung to the eagle as we soared high above the changing earth below.

Living Souls Die In The Sea Of Unbelief

Arlette Pollard

Revelation 16:3

Alone she wandered hill and valley
Through alleyways
And rooms filled with discord
A wounded soul ever seeking Escape from memories
That pierced her heart like a deadly sword.

How her troubled heart lay broken
Upon the shore of shattered dreams
Where her only source of sustenance
Was to drink from darkened waters fed by polluted streams.

Youth passed by without her knowing
Why her troubled soul
Could not be stilled
She had engaged in man’s highest calling
Yet she could not find fulfillment
In the idols of gold.

How her restless mind did wander
Leading her far away from home
Guided by thoughts of quiet desperation
She felt herself falling deeper into Sheol.

Then arose a day when she faltered
When from the realm of man’s wisdom
God’s message of love could be heard
She heard it said there was a path of restoration
Where dreams were conceived
According to God’s Holy Word.

If living to satisfy her heart’s desires
Had led her to death’s unloosed door
Then was it true she could live inspired
By following God’s Holy Word?
Could her heart rise up higher
Beyond the feelings of pain and discord
And live at peace with God forever
In His arms of love secure.

How her restless mind had wandered
How she had sung such a sad song
Would she ever turn toward God’s mercy
And partake of God’s undying love.

> “And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.” Revelation 16:3
> “And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.” Revelation 17:15

“There is now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit." A man, whose identity is in Christ, will bear the image (likeness) of Christ, because God's life transforming Holy Spirit, which is received through faith in Christ, will reveal the intent behind God's Word, to the man's heart and mind. The revelation of God's intentions spoken through the Word, will transform the way a man relates to God and the world around him. He will be "transformed by the renewing of" his mind as he looks upon the Word, prays to the Lord, and seeks God according to the leading of the Spirit, so that he bears evidence to the goodness of God.

When a man's heart and mind are transformed by the Word and the Holy Spirit, he will be made new, in the sense that he will have a new mindset that is aligned with God. Where once he lived his life according to the desires of the carnal, Adamic man, who exalts self above God, so that God is of no importance in his life, when made new, born again of the Spirit through faith in Christ, he will live his life according to the desires of the Lord, looking upon and exalting God's Word above all else.

A man, who bears the image (likeness) of Christ, will live his life demonstrating God's ability to transform a man's heart and mind. His soul, when under the influence of the Word and the Holy Spirit, will be transformed to react to the world around him, as Christ reacted. It is through the power of the divine nature that the soul of the carnal man is transformed to walk aligned with the heart of Christ, so that he no longer denies or limits the power of the living God, or of God's love toward him.

A man who walks renewed of heart and mind, because of the influence of the Word and God's Holy Spirit within his life, is a man who has been judged unto righteousness. The blood that Jesus Christ shed upon the cross has profited his soul, so that he lives in honor onto God. The New Testament established upon the better promises of Jesus Christ, is in force within his life, so that Christ's sacrifice is of great value to him. Because he understands that the precious blood of Christ has set him free from sin's reign of death, his heart will cease to condemn him, so that he is able to come "boldly unto the throne of grace, that we [he] may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." (Hebrews 4:16)

> "But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; to declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Romans 3:21-26

For a man to stand righteous before God, his faith must be placed securely in Jesus Christ. To be found in a proper relationship with God, a man's heart must be toward Jesus Christ, so that God's judgment unto righteousness can be pronounced upon his life. Though God's perfect judgment declared that death should reign over all men because of sin, through Jesus Christ God extended His hand of grace, so that men's sins were forgiven. The righteous blood of Jesus Christ made atonement for men's sins. A man, whose faith is in Christ, will be forgiven his sins, because of the atoning blood of Christ. God has made it possible for men, who have all their lives come short of the glory of God, to pass through the gates of salvation, and partake of His glory, through faith in Jesus Christ. Not of their own works, lest any man should boast, but according to the righteousness of Jesus Christ.

God, who had determined righteousness amongst the tribes of Israel according to the law, has now made it possible for all men, Jew and Gentile, to obtain righteousness according to faith in Jesus Christ. What the law could not accomplish, in making men perfect, would be accomplished through Jesus Christ. The law had pointed to the importance of the shedding of blood in making restitutions for men's sin, but when the precious blood of Jesus Christ, the spotless Lamb of God, was shed upon the cross, the final atoning sacrifice for the forgiveness of sins was accomplished. No other sacrifice for the restitution of men's sins would be required of God.

The blood that Jesus Christ shed upon the cross has made it possible for men to be partaker's of God's kingdom of eternal righteousness. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, filled with God's Spirit of holiness, has appeared before God on behalf of sinful men, to make restitution for their sins. The precious blood of Jesus Christ is the better sacrifice that purified the heavenly things themselves, so that it is no longer necessary for any other sacrifice to be offered on behalf of men's sins. For those whose faith is in Jesus Christ, the knowledge of the sacrifice of the precious Lamb of God, Jesus Christ, is a truth which speaks of the importance of drawing near to God, having had their "hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience" without doubting God's grace and mercy toward them.

> "And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life." Romans 5:5-10

When men were without strength to fight against the ravages of death, because of sin, Jesus Christ fought the good fight on their behalf. It was Jesus Christ, who gained the victory for men over sin and death. His precious blood has made it possible for men, who have no strength to fight against the lusts that so easily pull men into a pit, where suffering and fear blind them to the possibility of joy in this life, to gain strength to climb out of the pit, and walk as thankful participants in God's kingdom of righteousness. It is the precious blood of Christ, who purified the heaven's themselves, causing God to open wide His temple doors and release His life transforming Holy Spirit, so that the hearts of those whose faith was toward the Lord could be partakers of God's glory. It is the precious blood of Christ, who purified the heavens, setting the temple of the Lord in order for the receiving of men.

God has established judgment in heaven and on earth according to the righteousness of Jesus Christ. God, the divine righteous judge, has created all things for His own pleasure. It is according to His pleasure that He has determined that all men, whose faith is in Jesus Christ, should be loosed from the death sentence that sin has placed upon them. God, as the divine judge over all of creation, has determined that Jesus "might sanctify [make holy] the people with his own blood." (Hebrews 13:12) The blood of Jesus Christ rent the veil in heaven in two, releasing the Spirit of holiness from God's throne room, so that men of faith, who walked the earth as mortal men, might find "salvation through sanctification of the Spirit."

God is the righteous judge who unites in holy union His Holy Spirit, to the spirit and soul of men, so that while men walk upon earth, they will "sanctify the Lord God in your hearts." (1 Peter 3:15) And it is God, who upon a man's physical death, will welcome the man whose spirit and soul have been united with His eternal Spirit of holiness, to his place prepared in "paradise", so that eternally they shall be one. Just as Jesus turned to the thief on the cross and said: "Today shalt thou be with me in paradise" (Luke 23:43), so will those whose faith is in Jesus Christ dwell with the Lord forever in "paradise" upon physical death.

> "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God." 1 Peter 1:18-21

Upon earth dwells a nation of people, united unto God, through the Holy Spirit. These people are spread out within the four corners of the earth. They live in different locations, and speak with different tongues, and yet, through the Spirit, they are joined one to another, because they are joined to the Father, who supplies His eternal Spirit in abundance to each of them. Each one of these people has been set apart unto God, through the Holy Spirit. They are a royal priesthood, who live unto God in all sincerity. They are in the world, but not of the world. Those of the world, who deny in their hearts the power and authority of God, stand in darkness, blind to the goodness of God, and do not recognize them, but according to the leading of the Spirit, God's own know each other.

The sanctifying Holy Spirit has moved upon their hearts and minds, in the power and authority of God, so that situations that do not reflect the glory and goodness of God have lost the ability to control and direct their lives. They find that they are able to rest in the knowledge that God is able to lead them, teach them, and instruct them in the ways of truth. They have learned that to live trusting in the flesh, which exalts self above God, brings strife into their lives; but to look to God in every situation is to find rest for their souls. They have established their lives upon Jesus Christ. Their identity is in Christ, He is the one they look toward and place their trust in. They trust He will be faithful to complete the good work that He has started within their lives, so that they will live demonstrating the power of a holy God to transform lives. Though they were once in darkness, denying, ridiculing the authority of God, they now stand in the Light, who is Jesus Christ, and are able to see and proclaim God's hand of authority upon all of creation. They continually offer up thanksgiving unto God's holy name.

While upon the earth there is a holy nation of people united unto God through the Spirit, and through Him unto one another, there also dwells upon the earth a nation of people, who through their disregard toward the power of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, are united in their attitudes and beliefs. This group of people united in their disregard toward a holy God, and toward the understanding of their need of a Savior to release them from sin's reign of death, are also scattered within the four corners of the earth. As the book of Revelation unfolds, God refers to this group of people, as the "sea." (Rev. 17:15). This group of people, united in their unbelief, and in their perceived limited significance of God, Jesus Christ, and the life transforming power of the Holy Spirit, are as a polluted sea that covers the earth.

God looks upon this group of people who disregard the Savior, Jesus Christ, and the purpose and power of the Holy Spirit, and pronounces judgment upon them. Because they refuse God's hand of salvation offered through Jesus Christ, His judgment upon sin, which is death, remains. Though God proclaims through all of creation, through His Holy Word, and through His messengers who bring the "gospel of peace", that through faith in Jesus Christ is found eternal life in the Holy Spirit, they refuse to respond to God's call. In this people's disregard of the message of salvation, through faith in Jesus Christ, is found evidence of God's verdict of death upon every soul who makes up the sea that covers the earth.

God pours out His judgment upon this group of people united in their unbelief, and as His judgment is poured out, each soul in the sea dies. The blood of Christ profits them nothing. These people are alive in the physical sense, as the blood that flows through their veins attests to, but in the spiritual sense, they are dead. They have not passed through God's gates of salvation, so that eternal life, found in the Holy Spirit, does not flow through their lives, influencing their hearts and minds. Because they stand outside God's gates of salvation, their identity is with death. They are dead in their sins, and have not received the living waters (Holy Spirit) poured out from God's throne room on high. They do not understand that life is found in the blood of Christ. They cannot fathom that the blood of Christ purged the heavens, opening wide God's temple doors, so that His Spirit of holiness is released into the hearts of men whose faith is in Christ. They cannot fathom anyone being a partaker of eternal life, found in the Holy Spirit, through faith in Jesus Christ.

> "For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ he is none of his. And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness." Romans 8:6-10

Death reigns over men who make up the polluted sea that covers the earth, because they have not received (been born again of) the Holy Spirit. They are carnally minded, and naturally exalt self above God when seeking direction, wisdom, love and purpose in life. And because the peace of God, found in the Holy Spirit, does not impact their thoughts and desires, they will remain collectively a group that is "tossed with tempest, and not comforted."

In the flesh, the Adamic self, which exalts man and idols above God, is found no good thing to prosper a man's soul. Only through faith in Jesus Christ, and receiving the Holy Spirit, will men find eternal truth, peace and wisdom, in which to bear fruit worthy of God's kingdom of righteousness. A man who refuses God's gift of salvation from death's reign, found in the Holy Spirit through faith in Jesus Christ, walks in the flesh, and therefore before God "he is none of his."

God will not bless a man with eternal, abundant life, found in the Holy Spirit, if his faith is not securely placed upon Jesus Christ. A man, who makes up the sea where men are as dead men, is a carnally minded man and, therefore as a carnally minded man, is still in bondage to death's sting, which is sin. He is alive in the natural sense, but in the spiritual sense, he is dead, because he is not united unto God through the Holy Spirit. He has not entered into and partaken of God's kingdom of righteousness. His ears cannot hear God's Holy Word calling out to him, his eyes cannot behold God's majesty that covers the heavens and the earth, so that he gives God all the glory, and he has not had the finger of God write His commandments of love upon his heart, so that the intent behind God's message to mankind is not understood.

> "And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers. And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Matthew 4:18-19

Peter and his brother Andrew would follow Jesus, and they would become fishers of men. They would be used of God to deliver many men's souls from out of the troubled sea where death and destruction rage havoc within the lives of men. They would use the Word of God to catch men up into the arms of the Father's love. They would live unto God in full demonstration of the power of the Holy Spirit, so that many who were drowning in the sea of despair would seek to know from where their authority came.

As it was in the day of Peter and Andrew, so it is today. Many souls are dying in the polluted sea, having been caught up unto sin and death, and believe there is no escape from their suffering and misery. May men, whose faith is firmly established upon Jesus Christ, be led of God, to speak the good news of salvation to those tossed and turned by the raging waves of the sea. May fishers of men be united in their determination to obey God's leading, no matter where or to whom He may lead them.

> "For there is no difference between Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!" Romans 10:12-15

Lord Spoke Of Disaster

Misty Murphy

The Lord woke my daughter up at 2:00 A. M June 10, 2005. He spoke to her and said awake and pray. She said that she was so tired so she started praying while she was in bed. He then said arise I want to you to hear me. She got up and started to pray and as she started to pray the lord begin to speak to her. He said read Haggai and as you read I will speak to you. This is what the lord said to her as she read through the chapter of Haggai. In her words as I write from her prayer journal.

Haggai is what the lord told me to read I felt. I believe he was saying things are going to happen at the end of this month----like on June 24th. W e will be afraid but the lord says "Fear Not, For I'm with you". This will be a renewing of his temple. He's making our temple stronger because many will flood to his temple and finally call to his name. We are to accept them rather than shun them thinking they aren't real because they called on him in the midst of a disaster. God reminds us that we were once like them. More will begin to happen and God will be angry because he did so much good and he did things to try to warn people yet they still won't call on him so destruction will come upon them. But those who did call on him will find peace in his temple and nothing will harm us, God will have made each and everyone of us Warriors with no fear but that of God and his Judgment. That way we don't take too much pride in ourselves. End of the word.

When she told me the next day and showed me her journal I felt God so strong and I knew he had spoken to her. She is 17 and really stating to flow in the gift that God had given her.

Like Sheep Without A Shepherd

Dave Hood

(UK)

I am the good shepherd. I have come to seek and to save that which is lost. I have come to guide and to bring home. T o forgive and forget in my mercy, through the cross of my son Jesus Christ. I have not come to fight or to flatter, but to fellowship with you and you with me and one another. I have not come to fail you or forget you, but for friendship with you. This is through and in myself, this is not of yourself, this is of me. For I come to seek and to save and to restore and resurrect that relationship and to raise you up as sons and daughters, children of the Most high God.

I have come to clear the way for you, to clear the way for man to come to me. Not to bar his way and hinder, but to show my kindness and mercy, my justice and truth. That I may display the glory of Myself, both on the earth as it is in the heavens, my home. For I desire to make for man a place with me, I their God.

I have a longing, a yearning, a crying out in the night. I hear the voice of my creation crying out in the night, in the dark and in the cold. I hear its cry of suffering anguish as it hurts itself trying to find a way back to me. The lostness of man calling for his God. In great anguish and in pain is his voice hid in my heart. I do not forget, nor am I to be forgotten. For I am high and mighty above all that man can know or think. I alone am to be revered and feared and not the thoughts, minds, voices and attitudes of man.

Put your trust in me my people, for in me you are safe. Safe by my side as I lead and guide you through this dark world, picking up stragglers as you go along on your way, following me and seeing my light, in you, giving sight to darkened minds and blind eyes, giving my strength to crippled limbs, giving my heart and kingdom to joyless souls, health to hurt bodies and unhealed wounds. Making them both whole and complete in me, by my power alone. Releasing captives and prisoners, as my kingdom in my Son draws nigh, a kingdom of hope and health.

I need you my people to reach out and touch them, taking and touching their hands with yours, just as I reached out and touched you, taking your hands in mine. I need you to accept my grace to stand, as I myself hold you above the deep by my power, by my lifeline, to spend out to those below. I wish them to become plunder for me, for they are mine and I hear and feel their lostness, fear and numbness and I want to lead them home, to bring them to my place of eternal rest.

Help me my people, search with your hearts, search in prayer, look for and find in me their hope, see, know and understand my power to save them, to feel my pain, my sorrow, my grief and suffering for them. Let me melt your heart with mine, let the fire of and within my soul ignite you. Light the blue touch paper and stand back, watch the fireworks start. Watch, see my love light up the darkness, see my flame burn bright, feel it, know it, be touched by my warmth, as it pierces and burns up, melting the icy coldness, bringing life, heat and warmth at my presence.

Be on fire for me my people, burn with my passion, and heat up this world with my light. Radiate my love, let the red hot love of my heart emanate from the core of me in you. Let my red hot love flow, melting all before it, turning this darkness into desolation, till no more of this dark night prevail in it. (This was shared in a picture form which showed lava flowing from the mouth of a volcano, from within the depths of its heart. This lava burned up everything on the slopes and as it cooled it solidified, giving the darkness no opportunity to find a place to grow again).

Fierce, fierce are my flames, ready to make every human jungle to flare up as a tinder box, heated with the furnace of my love, till the temperature soars way past that which man may endure, encountering me in all my holiness, purity and splendor. The flame of my Spirit flaming brighter than it's ever flamed before.

Let the flame burn brighter, let my love and ardor consume and concern you, let my fire burn in my belly. Allow me to kindle you, to touch you where you are bare, naked and barren. Let me come to you and burn up and off all the dross. Skim, skim, skim, my hand is at work and my will, will be done. So rejoice my people for my time has come, my hour is close and my moment is at hand. Come, come my people and lead with me the lost, the lonely and dying, through this dark night, through into the golden dawn of my tomorrow. Come, come, and work with me, come, come to my table, to my heart and I will give you rest.

Come, come to me, come journey with me, come follow me all, come follow, with mirth and song and joy as I encamp myself around you and above you and around your enemies. Come, as I encircle them, the dark, as my flame and my gaze surrounds, as I look with glee at its coming destruction, as I corner and entrap him in his own darkness. Come, come see his humiliation, his defeat, come look and gloat over him, over his helplessness, have no mercy on him, no pity.

Resolve within your hearts to utterly destroy and decapitate, severing his head from the body of my creation, for the Lord of Hosts is My name, the Lord Almighty, the Holy One of Israel. To the sword my people, to the sword, put to death all that hinders, all that is in you not of me. Cut it off, leave it alone, leave it behind in the body of My Son and come and follow me.

For I will be near you, I will be with you, to help you in whatsoever you need to do, in whatever way that I call you to prepare for me, with me, a way to prepare with me and for me a people called and saved holy unto myself.

I was then reminded of a song, some of the words were...Let the flame burn brighter, in the heart of darkness, turning night to glorious day, let your love grow stronger as the day grows longer, let it shine, let it shine.

He continued to say…Let my love with through for me and for you, for I love you my people, I love each of you dearly each day, I long to caress and hold you close to myself, to heal you of your hurts and wants, to hold that which is of myself in your hearts, to touch and hold you keeping you unto myself. For I am lost without you, like a father without a son and a mother without a child. Unto you a son is given, unto you a child is born, unto you is given the hope and inheritance of heaven, given also…to the lost, that they through me will find their way home to me, my heart, to the secret place of my communion, I with thee and thee with me.

Go, go my people, go to the lost, go to the dark, say to it…"Your God reigns"…"proclaim Truth to it"…"Hope to it…Life to it:…in my Name. Go, go quickly out into the streets, into the highways and the byways and make them come in; for night is drawing to its close and in my day will be no more.

Come, come to me, to I call you, unto myself and drink only of Me, for in Me alone will your thirst be slaked and your life satisfied and yourself be found replete in me.

I have drawn near to thee, now you, yourself, draw near to me.

This was given to me by the Lord in August of 1995. I have read it a number of times since then. But today, it reignited. It may be what the Lord has been working in some of you over the past 10 years. It may be an indication, a reminding to us of the struggle we have gone and are going through…to say to us it is not for nothing…it may be the Lord saying like he said to Peter…cast your net out one more time, trust me to change you and for change another time, to bring to fruition your and his hopes, longings, needs and desires. It may be that we need to come to Him to complete us for this place and time. But one thing is clear…whatever you believe…He is calling us to come, and come now. I believe Lord, help me Lord, help me where my faith and love falls short.

Bless you all

Open Up That I May Open Out
Dave Hood (UK)

Some of you may remember the time earlier this year, when Big Ben stopped, and London Bridge refused to shut properly. These two events happened very close to one another. This was brought to my attention by Geoff Pick who administers the prophetic Anointing website (UK)

As he shared this I was given a vision. I was looking at the scene of London, looking down upon the Thames, from a high vantage point. I saw from the right, almost walking on the Thames, the Lord Jesus “arriving” as it were in His capital. Arriving at the seat of Government. He had an entourage and it looked like he might well have been on a Kingly barge. It reminded me of a barge procession Queen Cleopatra might have used to make her entrance, with her attendants in tow.

It was this aspect that caught my eye, the Lord Jesus, the King of all the earth, had his attendants attending.

A verse that came to mind was from Psalm 24. It was “Lift up your heads o ye gates, be lifted up you ancient doors that the King of Glory may come in (v7 and v9). I had the sense that he was entering his capital, to take his place amongst the many halls and residences of power. He was establishing this for Himself.

Somewhat later in the year, I was given a picture. I saw a pair of high double leafed doors, swinging open and outward. The doors were very high, perhaps 70 feet or so high, perhaps even higher. But the entrance was not as wide, compared to its height, making the doors looking quite slim. I saw that these doors shone, with the golden glory of God. Quickly I saw the scene from inside the building to which these opening doors were attached. I then saw that the doors were opening out onto the concourse, in front of the building. There were many people on the flat area before this building’s gates. The glory that shone out from the doors began to shine upon the people. The glory of the Lord upon the concourse of the peoples.

I then turned around, to look into the building and immediately I was given an immense sense of height and length and breadth to the internal dimensions of this building and towards the far end I saw the outline of a throne and someone sat upon it and was surrounded by many attendants. I could not see the detail clearly because the golden glory filled the place and covered the throne. But I knew that it was the Lord who sat on the throne, for I knew that this was His house, this was His temple. The Lord had come to the seat of his government, the set of his Throne.

I then heard the verse…do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God…the verse continues… you are not your own. It became clearer to me that the seat of government was not only the halls of power, but the Holy Temple, the Temple of His Church, His body, and he was taking up residence. To reign in his capital, within the centre of his home, to display the fullness of, His grace and glory with a citizenship he calls his own. To allow the brilliance of His glory to apprehend the concourse of the peoples…through shining out of the doors of his people.

Yes, He says, swing wide your gates, my people, open up your gates to me, that I may come in and reign and dwell with you, welcome me in, that you may reign and dwell with me, that I may display you as my people and you may display me as your King.

Later still, in fact about 2/3 weeks ago, he confirmed this. He took me to Ish.51:3…The Lord will surely comfort Zion and will look with compassion on all her ruins; he will make her deserts like Eden, her wastelands like the garden of the lord. Joy and gladness will be found in her, thanks giving and the sound of singing.

And then to…2 Chronicles 29:3. In the first month of the first year of his reign, he opened the doors of the temple of the Lord and repaired them. He wants to repair and clean. Open up our doors and gates to Him, so that his glory may go forth and out and reflect truly how glorious he is.

V34 reads…The priests, however, were TOO FEW…He needs more of us to invite Him in, to work alongside him so that he may be glorified, within and without his temple….why…
V35 reads…So the SERVICE of the TEMPLE of the LORD was REESTABLISHED.
V36 reads…Hezekiah and ALL the people rejoiced (the King and ALL his subjects) at what God had brought about for his people, because…IT WAS DONE SO QUICKLY.

He wants to extend compassion to us, to transform us to make us A SIGN of his grace and mercy…a sign to the peoples of his goodness…he does not want our places to be a wilderness, an uninhabited land, waste places or destruction, but wants to reverse what is happening in the shaking within the natural…and speak compassion. He wants to create his Eden, the garden of the Lord within the hearts and soils of His people, to take for Himself His bride, to defend, cover and surround her…he wants his own to become tenders of his house and temple and its surrounding grounds, courts and lands…

He wants us to let Him in and allow Him to consecrate our hearts, to repair and open, to SWING WIDE the gates, to Him, so he can swing open Himself to us and to the multitudes of people. It's not too late, but he's willing even this late hour. Praise His wonderful name. AMEN, amen.

Love Transcends All Boundaries

Terry Suggs

Love Is Unstoppable

God Is Love

Love goes to the places where there is a need and does something to help meet the need. Love heals the sick, clothes the naked, feeds the hungry. When Jesus came to earth and lived as a man on earth, He suffered the verbal and physical abuse from the ones He came to rescue from eternal damnation, but He did not change His mind. He stayed on His mission.

Our God is able to hold every star, galaxy, constellation and cluster in the universe in one hand and then speak another entire universe of stars, galaxies, constellations, and clusters into existence. Yet as great as God is He is so concerned about man made in His image and His likeness that He became a man to reconcile him back to Himself. He lived here for 33 years as a man and then He laid down His life and took the punishment for all men's sins. His love transcended every boundary that could have prevented Him from accomplishing this act of love.

II Corinthians 13:3-5, 8

Even If I dole out all that I have to the poor in providing food, and if I surrender my body to be burned or in order that I may glory, but have not love (God's love in me), I gain nothing.

Love endures long and is patient and kind: love never is envious nor boils over with jealousy, is not boastful or vainglorious, does not display itself haughtily.

It is not conceited arrogant and inflated with pride; it is not rude unmannerly and does not act unbecomingly, Love (God's love in us) does not insist on its own rights or its own way, for it is not self seeking; it is not touchy or fretful or resentful; it takes no account of the evil done to it (it pays no attention to a suffered wrong).

Love never fails (never fades out or becomes obsolete or comes to an end). As for prophecy (the gift of interpreting the divine will and purpose), it will be fulfilled and pass away; as for tongues, they will be destroyed and cease; as for knowledge' it will pass away (it will lose its value and be superseded by truth).

II Timothy 1:7

For God did not give us a spirit of timidity (of cowardice, of craven and cringing and fawning fear), but (He has given us a Spirit) of power and of love and of calm and well balanced mind and discipline and self control.

Romans 8:32-39

He Who did not withhold or spare even His Own Son but gave Him up for us all, will He not also with Him freely and graciously give us all other things?

Who shall bring any charge against God's elect (when it is) God Who justifies (that is, Who puts us in right relation to Himself? Who shall come forward and accuse or impeach those whom God has chosen? Will God, Who acquits us?)

Who is there to condemn (us)? Will Christ Jesus (the Messiah), Who died, or rather Who was raised from the dead, Who is at the right hand of God actually pleading as He intercedes for us?

Who shall ever separate us from Christ's love? Shall suffering and affliction and tribulation? Or calamity and distress? Or persecution or hunger or destitution or peril or sword?

Even as it is written, For Thy sake we are put to death all the day long; we are regarded and counted as sheep for the slaughter.

Yet amid all these things we are more than conquerors and gain surpassing victory through Him Who loved us.

For I am persuaded beyond doubt (am sure) that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities, nor things impending or threatening nor things to come, nor powers,

Nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Galatians 5:22-23

But the fruit of the Holy Spirit (the work which His presence within accomplishes) is love, joy or gladness, peace, patience (an even temper, forbearance), kindness, goodness benevolence, faithfulness, gentleness (meekness, humility), self control (self-restraint, continence). Against such things there is no law (that can bring a charge).

Romans 13:10

Love does no wrong to one's neighbor (it never hurts anybody). Therefore love meets all the requirements and is the fulfilling of the Law.

Jude 21

Guard and keep yourselves in the love of God.

Luke 14:11-14

For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled (ranked below others who are honored or rewarded), and he who humbles himself (keeps modest opinion of himself and behaves accordingly), will be exalted (elevated in rank).

Jesus also said to the man who had invited Him, When you give a dinner or supper, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, lest perhaps they also invite you in return, and so you are paid back.

But when you give a banquet or a reception, invite the poor, the disabled, the lame and the blind, Then you will be blessed (happy, fortunate, and to be envied), because they have no way of repaying you, and you will be recompensed at the resurrection of the just (upright).

Love will always transcend all boundaries. The boundary of racism or color difference, of religion, of poverty or riches, of hatred of sin and rebellion, even geographical boundaries. No matter what place a person holds or has in life, God loves them all.

Jesus reconciled us back to our God, our Creator, the God of all power, all creativity, all might, all wisdom, all glory, all joy, all unconditional love in Christ, all faith and all healing.

He spoke and said: Don't be attached to the weak and temporal material things of this world. Don't be idolatrous. Seek after Me. Lift me up!

Materialism and idolatry are a hindrance, it doe not help.

This world is going to pass away with all of the stuff we work so hard to acquire. Is there anything more appealing in this world than Jesus? No!

Matthew 16:26

For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his life (this blessed life in the kingdom of God)? Or what would a man give as an exchange for his (blessed) life in the kingdom of God)?

Proverbs 3:13-14

Happy (blessed, fortunate, enviable) is the man who finds skillful and godly Wisdom, and the man who gets understanding (drawing it forth from god's Word and life's experiences),

For the gaining of it is better than the gaining of silver, and the profit of it better than fine gold.

Proverbs 16:16

How much better it is to get skillful and godly Wisdom than gold! And to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.

II Coronthians 3:12

Since we have such (glorious) hope (such joyful and confident expectation), we speak very freely and openly and fearlessly.

I Corinthians 9:19-22

For although I am free in every way from anyone's control, I have made myself a bond servant to everyone, so that I might win those under the Law.

To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might win Jews; to men under the Law, I became as one under the Law, though not myself being under the Law, that I might win those under the Law.

To those without (outside) law I became as one without law, not that I am without the law of God and lawless toward Him, but that I am (especially keeping) within and committed to the law of Christ, That I might win those who are without law.

To the weak (wanting in discernment) I have become weak (wanting in discernment) that I might win the weak and overscrupulous, I have (in short) become all things to all men, that I might by all means (at all costs and in any and every way) save some (by winning them to the faith in Jesus Christ).

Just as Christianity transcends all religions so does God's love transcend every blockage, hindrance, restraint, and restriction.

John 15:12-13

This is My commandment: that you love one another (just) as I have loved you.

No one has greater love (no one has shown stronger affection) than to lay down (give up) his own life for his friends.

Ephesians 3:16-19

May He grant you out of the rich treasury of His Glory to be strengthened and reinforced with mighty power in the inner man by the (Holy) Spirit (Himself indwelling your innermost being an personality).

May Christ through your faith (actually) dwell (settle down, abide, make His permanent home) in your hearts! May you be rooted deep in LOVE and founded securely on LOVE, That you may have the power and be strong to apprehend and grasp with all saints (God's devoted people, the experience of that LOVE) what is the breadth and length and height and depth (of it);

That you may really come to know (practically, through experience for yourselves) the love of Christ, which far surpasses mere knowledge (without experience); that you may be filled (through all your being) unto all the fullness of God (may have the richest measure of the divine Presence, and become a body wholly filled and flooded with God Himself)!

Ephesians 4:9-10

But He ascended Now what can this, He ascended mean but that He had previously descended from the heights of heaven into the depths, the lower parts of the earth?

He Who descended is the very same as He Who also has ascended high above all the heavens, that He (His presence) might fill all things (the whole universe, from the lowest to the highest.

I John 4:10-11

In this the love of God was made manifest (displayed) where we are concerned in that God sent His Son, into the world so that we might live through Him.

In this love: not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation the atoning sacrifice for our sins.

Beloved, If God so loved us so very much, we ought to love one another.

We are in this world but not of this world.

That which is born of the Spirit is Spirit.

We are now the sons of God.

We have the Spirit of Christ living in us.

God says faith works by love.

God will supply all of your needs according to His riches in glory.

God says that by this all men shall know that you are my disciples by our love for each other.

This love is a perfect love and cannot change and it cannot be diminished.

When you go, you will go in the fullness of God. When you pray, you will always pray in the fullness. When you stand, you will stand in the fullness of God.

God has given us a new covenant. In this new covenant, we are on with Jesus.

It is not a contract. A contract is signed because there is no trust.

An African Pastors Last Words

An African pastor wrote these words the night before some rebels took his life. They demanded that he renounce his faith.

I am a part of the fellowship of the unashamed. I have Holy Spirit Power. The die has been cast. I've stepped over the line. The decision has been made. I am a disciple of His. I won't look back, let up, slow down, back away or be still. My past is redeemed, my present makes sense, and my future is secure. I am finished and done with low living, sight walking, small planning, smooth knees, colorless dreams, tame visions, mundane talking, chintzy giving, and dwarfed goals!

I no longer need preeminence, prosperity, position, promotions, plaudits, or popularity. I don't have to be right, first, tops, recognized, praised, regarded, or rewarded. I now live by presence, lean by faith, love by patience, lift by prayer, and labor by power.

My face is set, my gait is fast, my goal is heaven, my road is narrow, my way is rough, my companions few, my Guide reliable, my mission clear. I cannot be bought, compromised, detoured, lured away, turned back, diluted, or delayed. I will not flinch in the face of sacrifice, hesitate in the presence of adversity, negotiate at the table of the enemy, ponder at the pool of popularity, or meander in the maze of mediocrity.

I won't give up, shut up, let up, or burn up till I've preached up, prayed up, stored up, and stayed up for the cause of Christ.

I am a disciple of Jesus. I must go till He comes, give till I drop, preach till all know and work till He stops.

And when He comes to get His own, He'll have no problems recognizing me. My colors will be clear.

Lord, develop in me the perseverance and faithfulness to pursue Your goal for my life even in the face of rejection.

Another Wave is Coming!
Terry Suggs

The movie the passion of the Christ is being released on video. The kind of impact that this will make is phenomenal. A great tool for evangelism has been given to us.

I see a wave of new Christians coming out of this release as well as a number of individuals seeking answers. Pastors, teachers, evangelists please be prepared.

Natural Disasters and Shakings
Terry Suggs

Prepare now for the shaking that is about to take place. You must be prayed up and completely ready this time. It could possibly be much worse than I'm saying right now.

There is a great shaking coming soon. People of this world are already suffering in different places around the world. Now, it could get worse for them.

Please pray as if it is happening right now. Pray like you are in the middle of the worse disaster right now, because some of us don't pray for God to intervene until something major happens. Prayer can change everything.

Terry Suggs

Look Higher! Look Deeper! Look Farther!
Jesus In Us
Terry Suggs

Because of the way we were taught the Word of God in the years gone by, we have a consciousness of inferiority and weakness and uncertainty. But Jesus spoke to us by His word and His life. He (Jesus) (the Son of God) lived as a man filled with the Holy Ghost, and born of God. As a man filled with the Holy Ghost Jesus came to restore the earth and the people of the earth. His acts of restoration were demonstrated in the times when He healed everyone that was sick. As a man filled with the Holy Ghost He opened blind eyes, He healed lepers, He raised the dead; as a man filled with the Holy Ghost, He walked on water and spoke to storms and made them cease. Jesus did everything by miracles or by just speaking. He spoke the Word only.

His words did the work. When He raised Lazarus, He spoke the word.

Before satan stole our position as the ones with authority over all the earth, Adam was doing the same thing. Adam did everything by speaking.

Jesus has restored us to our position.

Jesus always talked and operated on a higher level than man. His faith was perfect.

He spoke with authority and whatever He spoke came to pass.

He said to Peter to come to Him on the water, when He did this, He was saying: “you see what I’m trying to tell you. I want you to see that you are in authority and dominion over the earth. I’m here to show you that you can do what I am doing. I’m here to restore the position of man that Adam lost to satan. “When you are Mine and in Me, all things are possible; just believe.” As a man that knew Who He was and filled with the Holy Ghost, and full of power as well as anointed, and overshadowed with glory and honor, He healed the deaf and dumb, the crippled.

When Jesus lived as a man, He could only be in one place at a time.

Jesus said, “ I must go away to the Father, so that the comforter of Holy Ghost can come and live in you.”

In the last days I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh. Now Jesus (all of God in His fullness) lives in the body of Christ. Jesus said; the just shall live by faith. Jesus said, if you have the faith as a grain of mustard seed, (speaking the word in faith is the same as sowing a seed in the ground), you can speak to a mountain and say be plucked up and removed and be cast into the sea and not doubt, you shall have, you shall have, what you say, what you say believing. The mountain will obey you.

Since now faith is the substance and the evidence, then today is the day for what you are expecting. You have it now, today.

Eternity is a place without time. It is the eternal now.

Whatever you are believing for is right now in the eternal now.

God’s word is His life. His word is spontaneously creative.

By His stripes you were healed. Believe in your heart and confess with your mouth and you shall be saved. Jesus and Peter were not limited by gravity when they walked on the water, because Jesus word was spontaneously active and Jesus had authority over gravity and water.

Jesus was not limited by weather conditions, by time, by space, or by man-made traditions. These boundaries were not boundaries to Him.

Jesus used two fish and five loaves to feed thousands and afterwards there were left- overs.

Jesus was not bound by anything in this physical world. He was not bound by natural laws.

Jesus was not bound by anything in this physical world. Jesus spoke with authority when He spoke to the tree saying: No man shall eat your fruit from this day on. Jesus words carried so much power that what He said manifested spontaneously. If Jesus had spoken in the middle of the night and said let it be daylight, the sun would have been shining in that instant.

Jesus is telling us that all the things He did, we will do and even greater works shall we do, because He went to the Father.

Faith dispels fear, faith makes you whole, it produces righteousness, faith justifies, it heals the sick and faith grows. Faith knows no defeat.

Jesus is operating in perfected faith. He has absolute confidence in His own power or being.

Jesus did not come to make you sick or condemn you. He said have Faith in God. Faith manifests substance and evidence. The faith of God is what Jesus used. He said to the disciples and to the believers, have the faith of God. Believe like God believes and have what God would have.

Nothing by any means can harm you. No weapon formed against you shall prosper. The enemy will come one way and flee seven ways. The word will never return empty. It will obtain and manifest what it was directed to and sent to do. He sent His Word and healed them.

Take no thought for your life; what you will eat, drink or wear. It is not by power or by might, but by My Spirit says the Lord.

Jesus is 100% honest, faithful, 100% trustworthy and pure in every aspect of His Being. Jesus is perfect love. Jesus is telling us to do the works that He did.

We have been restored to the Father's household. We are the inheritors of all things. He held nothing back from us. If God spared not His own Son, how much more with Him shall He also freely give us all things.

Do you see what you were restored to? The kingdom of God has no boundaries. Jesus came that we may have life and have it more abundantly. Jesus came that our joy may be full.

In His Kingdom, that now is at hand, there is all faith, all healing, all grace, all love, all power, all wisdom, all spiritual blessing, all light, and all victory.

For the whole creation (all nature) waits expectantly and longs earnestly for God's own sons to be made known (waits for the revealing, the disclosing of their sonship. That nature itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and corruption (and gain and entrance) into the glorious freedom of God's children. We know that the whole creation (of irrational creatures) has been moaning together in the pain of labor until now.

When we pray or talk to God the Father we are talking to the Creator of the universe and everything that lives in it.

When His Word is spoken it is like a missile launched to a target. Nothing can prevent it from reaching its intended result or accomplishing its objective. God fills all things and upholds all things with the Word of His power.

Look farther! Look deeper! Look higher! God is unlimited. Time belongs to Him. History belongs to Him. The universe belongs to Him.

God is in us as born-again Christians. We have the more than a conqueror living in us. Greater is He that is in us than he that is in the world. He is our righteousness, our wisdom, our provider, our refuge, our peace, and our strength. He is all and in all. Everything that there is in existence came out of Him. He is sovereign. Our inner man is now the Spirit of the Lord Jesus making His home in us. We are filled with the fullness of the Holy Spirit.

In the book of Ezekial the 36th chapter, Jesus spoke of a new spirit that He is putting in us.

Our old spirit has been replaced with the spirit of Christ.

It is Christ in you. If any man is in Christ, He is a new creation. We are being changed from glory to glory. We are delivered from being subjected to infirmity, from sickness, from diseases, from poverty, from bondage, from fear, from uncertainty, and the control of satan in our media, our political system, our judicial system, our business world, and the corporate world. The kingdom of God is at hand. The kingdom of God is in you now.

As a man thinks in his heart, so is he.

Every empire that dominated the world outside of God's control has failed and will fail.

They are designed to fail.

God's word declared and established that, of the increase of the kingdom of God, there shall be no end. The kingdom of God is fail proof. It will never fail.

The gates of hell cannot stop or hinder the body of Christ as we operate in Jesus authority.

With God there is no time, so whatever you are saying in faith and expecting already exists. Like healing, and miracles.

We carry the same power and same spirit that Jesus carried on earth. We operate in His authority in this present world. His disciples demonstrated this in their lives after Jesus left.

We live beyond natural means of support.

God had us in mind when He gave His Son Jesus. The enemy doesn't want you to know this. God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son. Even the people that insulted Him, accused Him, beat Him, mocked and laughed at Him, God had them all in mind.

We are put in a position now where we are all facing the same principalities that Michael fought against in the book of Daniel.

We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against demons of spiritual rulers of t he darkness of this world. There are principalities over cities and nations. In the book of Daniel Michael was one of the chief princes of God. He was one of many.

He was withstood or with it stood by another that was a prince over Persia.

For this reason we are to wear the whole armour of God. And we are to trust in the God of the armour. In Ephesians 6, we are individually wrestling against pricncipalities and wicked spirits or chief rulers of the darkness of this world. We are all individually opposed by chief demonic spirits. We can move these principalities with the armour of God and with our faith. The flesh profits nothing. The only effective method is by following the spirit of God.

Let us not cheapen true Christianity by not living in the fullness of what is given to us freely by faith through the grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Some are standing on the outskirts of the real life of God. They are content in just looking at the truth from a distance. Maybe in Jesus day, some of the people were watching Him from a distance and were really not getting the message that He preached.

Let us not forfeit God's best given to us.

Look Higher! Look Deeper! Look farther!

When we look into the scripture, we are looking into a spiritual mirror, we are seeing our inner man. The inner man is the very image and likeness of God.

Look to the hills from which comes our help.

Deep calls unto deep.

Set you affections on things above.

If you make your bed in hell, He is there. If you went to the uttermost or deepest part of the universe, He is there.

We are only at the edge of the glory. But it is beyond comprehension now. In this time in our human history, God is releasing a great increase of knowledge and glory.

Jesus said in John 16:33:

I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have (perfect) peace and confidence, In the world you have tribulation and trials and distress and frustration; but be of good cheer (take courage; be confident, certain, undaunted)! For I have overcome the world. (I have deprived it of power to harm you and have conquered it for you).

Terry Suggs

The New Creature = Becoming the Word of God
Terry Suggs

Look into God's mirror (His Word) and see who we really are and what we really are. Look at Jesus' life.

When It says that God finished His work in the book of Genesis. The only work that It describes was God speaking things into existence. By the creative word He brought everything into existence. Adam did everything by speaking. Jesus did the works of God by speaking and acting in the Father's authority. We are doing the works of God by speaking to our circumstances and situations and diseases in the authority of Jesus.

Lean not to your own understanding. Go by what God says about you.

You are a new creation. The new creation came from God. Jesus was the first born of many brethren of this kind. We are born-again by the Holy Spirit entering our spirit after we receive the Lord Jesus as our Savior and Lord. We are also sealed by the Holy Spirit.

The new creation is superior to the devil in every way. The devil wants to deceive and blind us to this truth. Greater is He that is in you than He that is in the world.

There is no separation between God and us. We are seated in heavenly places in Christ. That is why we can lay hands on the sick and they recover. That is why we can cast out devils in the name (authority and character) of Jesus.

That is why we can speak to a mountain and it can be moved.

We are eternally new creatures with the ability of the Holy Spirit operating in us.

In Jesus life on earth He showed us what a new creature looks like. He said, these works and even greater works shall you do because I Am going to the Father.

Jesus raised the dead, healed every kind of sickness and disease. He cast out spirits of infirmity and demons that had possessed individuals.

Jesus talked to weather and changed it, and walked on water, having authority over the natural elements. He spoke to fish and animals and they obeyed.

I believe that God created Adam with everything that Jesus demonstrated. The first Adam lived in flesh, the second Adam (Jesus) lived in flesh.

Jesus multiplied food when there was not enough physically to feed thousands. Accept His Word as truth and act on it.

Jesus said that He that has seen Me, has seen the Father. He said I Am the vine and you are the branches. In these words, He tells us that we are connected to the Godhead. There is no separation between us. The world needs to see us as God made us to be. The world may be laughing at us while we are following manmade traditions, ceremonies, and having Sunday programs, but when God gets into church (body of Christ), then the world and the devil will stop laughing.

Let the Intercessions Flow

Diana Mourey

And don’t doubt the things that I will show you. Don’t doubt the dreams of intercession. Don’t doubt, for you have not cried out to move into that realm of the supernatural? Have you not cried out to be my intercessor? Don’t doubt, but move accordingly to the things that I place within your heart, and within your mind, even in the night hour of your sleep as the battle rages around you. Yes, I give you peace while you sleep but the battle goes on. There is warfare going on in the heavenlies and in your spirit, as my spirit within you rises up against those things going on around you, it will be accomplished; it will be accomplished; it will be accomplished.

Even that calling of intercessor causes you to move as I would move even when your mind would not comprehend. Even when your mind does not have understanding, flow with that which I place within your spirit man. Let the intercessions flow; let them come forth. Let the dreams take their place in intercession. For I will not always give the understanding of dreams; I will not always give the interpretation, but know this, saith God, they are real. They are happening in the spirit realm. As your spirit and my spirit within you deals with the things that have to be dealt with, then so be it.

Don’t take time even to question. Don’t say, “But God, is this of you; how can this be of you, because I don’t understand it?” Lean not to your own understanding, saith God, but rather trust that the things that you have cried out for, the things that you have asked of Me, would I not delight in raising you up as my intercessor? Would I not delight in bringing you forth to that place of even standing in the line of attention that I’ve called you to, yea some being on the front line more than others, but all having their place. The back line is just as important as the front line in my Kingdom, saith God. It’s according to how well you fulfill your place that I’ve called you into.

And you say in your heart, “But I’ve never had a dream; I’ve never had a vision.” Well, get ready, saith God, for you’re moving into that time, into that season, into that place that I’ve called you into. For much is going on and much will be accomplished.

Let The Music Begin

Bill Yount

"I'm Taking Musical Instruments To Another Level In Warfare . . . Let The Music Begin!"

I once heard a testimony where the Holy Ghost was falling upon the people during worship. The preacher testified how the piano player got so filled with the Spirit that she fell off of the piano bench and THE PIANO KEPT RIGHT ON PLAYING! No other explanation could be found except, "Jesus knows how to play a piano"!

I believe we are entering into a time and place of worship and praise that we will experience some unusual anointings upon musical instruments that will be played, at times, with heavenly fingers!

Either through His people, and sometimes without them, Heaven will invade even our so-called Spirit-led worship and we will soon discover that the angels, the Son, and Holy Spirit just could wait no longer to join in with us with Heaven shouting . . . "We've come to worship!"

Blessings, Bill Yount

"I'M TAKING MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS TO ANOTHER LEVEL IN WARFARE . . . LET THE MUSIC BEGIN!"

I saw a fresh anointing, similar to the anointing that was upon David's harp, being poured out upon musical instruments. This anointing was highly volatile, able to easily drive demons and strongholds out of whole regions.

I sense the Lord speaking to many worship leaders who have become weary in trying to lead others into His presence: "Your instruments will now take you to the next level to drive out devils!"

"ANYTHING THAT HAS TO HAVE BREATH BLOWING THROUGH IT, WILL NOW EXPERIENCE MY OWN BREATH!"

It was as though the angels with bowls full of the "Oil of Worship" were being instructed on which instruments to start pouring upon. I heard the Father distinctively describing which ones would bring the most devastation in the next phase of spiritual warfare. He was reminding the enemy also of these fatal weapons: "We do drumsticks, keyboards, stringed instruments, shofars, and woodwinds: anything that has to have breath blowing through it, will now experience my own breath!"

"THESE 'DEMON BUSTER' MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS WILL NOT ONLY BE FOUND IN MY OWN HOUSE, BUT IN THE STREETS, CONCERTS AND, YES, I WILL INTERRUPT 'MTV' TELEVISION!"

It was not really in David's own territory that the anointing of his harp drove away the demons, but in the house of Saul! In the place where the Spirit of the Lord had departed, was where the anointing was the most powerful. For as long as David played on his harp, Saul was free from tormenting spirits! That gives hope to any God-called musician in any church or place on the earth! You may not have to leave your church after all. You may just get to drive the devil out of it!

I had a word over an elderly woman in California years ago. She played a song on the piano for me and the Lord showed me that, as she played, there was a healing coming up out of those keys into her own body. It was therapeutic to her soul -- and mind, as well.

I just heard that she had to go into an assisted living home. There is a piano there and they have her playing that piano often because of that anointing when she plays. I wouldn't be surprised if her playing clears the whole assisted living house out as people are being touched and healed as she plays unto the Lord!!

"OVERFLOW ON TO SECULAR INSTRUMENTS!"

I saw this "demon chasing" anointing, splashing from the overflow, coming upon instruments of secular musicians. The Holy Spirit, Who was hovering over many of these lost souls, was reminding them by bringing to their remembrance childhood songs like "Jesus loves me, this I know!"

Right on the stages even, the Holy Spirit was striking a chord in their hearts as angel wings brushed over their instruments, awakening them to their godly roots right in the middle of their concerts. The Father spoke, "I Am going to put My 'Rock' into rock music!"

"I SAW DRUMSTICKS STRIKING DRUMS, RELEASING ARROWS OF DELIVERANCE INTO THE ATMOSPHERE ABOVE!"

Each time a drumstick hit a drum, I saw an arrow shooting up out of the top of the drum, into the atmosphere over that region, destined to bring deliverance and releasing angels to set up camp in that territory.

Some drummers were weary and had even quit playing drums, but now the Lord was giving a new "war" order to these weary ones: "Strike it one more time. You will no longer just play these drums, but they are now a fatal weapon that you need to bring deliverance into your own life, family, and region! Step on that bass drum one more time and you will find the enemy is now under your feet! . . . This is a 'war' order!"

"MANY WORN OUT MUSICIANS, WHO HAD GONE INTO CAPTIVITY, WERE BEING CALLED BACK TO PICK UP THEIR HARPS OFF THE WEEPING WILLOW TREES!"

Many musicians were taken captive by the enemy to stop their worship and praise. Some had actually sat down and wept when they remembered Zion; and they hung their harps (musical instruments) upon the weeping willow trees and they could not sing a song in a strange land.

The Lord was now calling these seemingly defeated ones out like "pied pipers" to not only start playing their instruments in "strange" lands and places, but to lead the whole place and these lands out of their own captivity!

"LET THE MUSIC BEGIN!"

What Are You Doing Here?
Bill Yount

While in Israel I hiked to the mountain of Engeddi. Engeddi was where David hid in caves from Saul. David was anointed to be King over Israel but went into hiding because of his pursuing enemy. You can have a great call of God and destiny on your life but be in hiding.

The Lord spoke to me up near those caves where David hid. God said, "Tell My people to come out of their caves.....their Sauls have been slain! Your enemies have been slain! Come out of your Caves of Fear, Caves of Doubt, Caves of Unbelief. Come out, I want to use you"! This day the Spirit of Saul that has hounded you and has driven you into Caves-- intimidating you--- is being destroyed"..

There is a cave in Engeddi that can hold 3,000 soldiers. Whole churches can be in a cave, intimidated by the enemy.

I saw some caves that you may have difficulty coming out of to go forward into God's purposes for your life. The biggest cave I saw in the Spirit was the "Cave of the Fear of a Lack of Finances " to accomplish what God is calling you to do. A revelation jumped in my spirit of what is written on our money and every coin and penny. It says," IN GOD WE TRUST".

God spoke to me." Tell My people...don't count your money...read it!

Don't count on how much you have or don't have, count ME...Count ME into your God-given Destiny.

We are not lead by money but by His Spirit we are led. We must find out what God wants us to do and then trust Him and step out of that Cave.

Another Cave I saw was "The Fear of the Unknown" What's out there? I don't know, let's go find out!. Many want to wait and know all the details before stepping out of the cave. But God doesn't tell us everything at once. Revelation follows obedience. God speaks as He confirms what HE wants us to do. Then obedience must follow. Then He explains...maybe.

Abraham went out not knowing where he was going and he ended up with a city who builder and maker was God. Another Cave was "A More Convenient Time" But there will never be a convenient time for our flesh to feel like stepping out for God. Now Faith IS....faith is for now.

Another Cave is "MY PLANS" Someone said," If you want to hear God laugh, tell Him your plans, And if you want to laugh, wait till you hear His"! We must leave our plans in the cave as we step out into His purposes.

There's a Cave called "Fear of Failing" What if we fail as we step out? Listen .... What if we don't? If we fall we will fly. God is stirring our nest of comfort like a mother eagle to get us out on the edge of the nest so He can give us a love push over the edge for we were not born to stay in the nest but to learn like the eaglet that it is through falling that we learn to flap our wings and fly with the wind that's beneath us. One of the largest Caves I saw was "The Cave of Past Failure" that held us back from the present and the future.

When I was on the Sea of Galilee about half way across, I said to the Lord, " Lord this is the sea where you called Peter out of the boat and Peter walked on the water before he fell in. I said "Lord are we near the place where Peter got out of the boat and walked on water before He fell?

The Lord answered me. "What do you mean Peter fell? This is the Sea where Peter walked"! As though He didn't understand my question. Listen... He doesn't see your failure either. If you have confessed your sin and failures to Him, they are gone, gone, gone. They are not even in the bottom of the Sea of Forgetfulness....the fish ate them!. God did not see the last time you fell. He only saw the last time you got back up! Come out of the Cave of your Past. God has need of you.

By faith I am going to blow the shofar into your caves and you are going to come out...ready or not. The breath of God is going to blow you out of every cave of hiding and His breath will blow every cave in, so you will not be able to go back in them. Even the dust from those caves falling in will praise Him. The Lord says to you. "Come out with your hands up.

Leave everything in the cave. You won't need it.

He has new things to give you to fulfill His purposes. Right now His breath is blowing .....step out now. God has need of you! THIS IS YOUR LAST "CAVE DAY"! Receive His breath and be blown into your Destiny!

Listen To The Harvest Sing

Mary Lindow

A Spontaneous Prophetic Song for 2006

Dear Worshippers,

I was seeking the Lord about what He would have me share in regards to the closing out of the year 2005 and the entry into 2006 and He reminded me of a Spontaneous Prophetic Song that was recorded in a studio setting called:

LISTEN TO THE HARVEST SING.

This is a Christmas Gift to you from the Father as well as a promise for the year ahead. The music in this Selection is most unusually beautiful and tender. I truly ask the Lord to minister great peace and rest over your spirit, soul and body as you take a moment to listen.

The studio waiting areas were filled with intercessors for many, many hours as I simply sat in the recording booth with a keyboard that allows many different instruments and percussive instruments to be played together seamlessly, and waited upon the Lord to give the music, the words, and the sounds.

I usually receive prophetic songs and music much like watching a DVD with what I call full rolling visions and a sound track.

And so, this was one of the 14 Spontaneous prophetic songs that was recorded and then digitally mixed and mastered. You will HOWEVER hear me begin to slightly waver and trying not to weep a bit at the end of the song due to the intense presence of the Lord touching me as I was singing out His love and hope through this prophetic word. I am not at all interested in selling you CD’s.

I want the Lord to sing over you as you listen to Him through my small and puny human willingness. It is in fact, rather difficult for me to ask you to stop and take the time to do this, but I must simply obey the Father, even past my own discomforts!

If you will go to the link listed here:

http://www.marylindow.homestead.com/marycd.html

you can click on the button in the area that says, Download/Listen LISTEN TO THE HARVEST SING.”

You will need windows media player 7.1 or higher or to listen. It is free and of no charge to listen to.

I have also included in below this note to you, the Words to this Prophetic Song/Word for those unable to access the Live recording.

I share with you a simple treasure, from the heart of the Father, and the hands and voice of a willing servant , and your sister in Christ.

“LISTEN TO THE HARVEST SING”

All of the voices that shout
All of the voices that cry out to you and say
What is it that the Lord is saying today?

All of the people who have their needs
All of the people who long to see Me

I hear their voices calling to you
Looking for answers
Looking for things that are new

But there are other voices,
There are other sounds
Lift your ear to the heavenlies
There are those who gather round

It is the voice
Of those gone on before you - in prayer

Those who have paved the way
Ahead of you so go, go, go!
There is a sound of praise

Oh there is nothing that moves Me more
Than the voice of man praising Me
Take away the noise, take away the noise
And your voice is sweet to me

I see you singing, I hear you praising
Asking for more of Me.
I have sounds yet to bring
Voices that will lift up Me!

Listen to the heavens sing!
Listen to the harvest sing!
Voices yet you have to meet, in Me

Voices try to choke out,
Heaven's sweetest song.
Voices come to rob you child,
Of a job well done!

Just let praises sing to Me!
Join the chorus voice of sea!
Many coming, many singing,
Many joining in the throng!

There is heaven singing with you,
Never fear the future day.

There is heaven cheering, singing
"Daughters, Sons, Come praise today!"
"Daughters, Sons, Come praise today!"

In His shadow,
Mary Lindow

Let Us All Bless God

Bill Somers

Words in search of a melody

[chorus]

Let Us All Bless God

Let Us All Bless God

Turn Back to Him

Worship Him

Let Us All Bless God

If My People Who Are Called By My Name

Will Humble Themselves And Pray

If My People Who Are Called By My Name

Will Turn From Their Wicked Way

Then I Will Hear, Then I Will Come

Then I Will Heal Their Land

If My People Who Are Called By My Name

Will Humble Themselves And Pray

chorus

2 Chronicles 7:14 If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

Let Us Make Us a Name

> Luke 14:28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?
> Luke 14:29 Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him,
> Luke 14:30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish

A recent article published here [End Time Prophetic Vision] by Mary Koons ended with a quote from Genesis and a closing comment by Mary. I wish to take up where she left off and share some further insights the Lord has granted me.

> Gen 11:1 And the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech.
> Gen 11:2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there.
> Gen 11:3 And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar.
> Gen 11:4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.
> Gen 11:5 And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.
> Gen 11:6 And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.
> Gen 11:7 Go to, let us go down, and there confound (mix up, confuse) their language, that they may not understand one another's speech.
> Gen 11:8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.
> Gen 11:9 Therefore is the name of it called Babel; (meaning "confusion-by mixing"), because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

(Note - I felt STRONGLY that the Lord was impressing upon me that what is "really" represented here is a "pseudo-church" verses HIS TRUE CHURCH - who "will" speak the same language, and which will be built of "HIS LIVING STONES," and NOT "man-made brick!") '
Quoted from:
The Seven Pillars of Wisdom

Mary (Koons) Wattenford

Confusion By Mixing
What really caught my attention here was the idea that Babel is a type of the pseudo-church; and the definition of 'Babel' as "confusion by mixing". You see confusion by mixing means something special to me.

Several years back, I went through a time of intensely studying the teachings of another Christian denomination. Being both amazed and appalled by some of what I had read, my heart cry to the Lord was to this effect.
Lord, how can they have such precious nuggets of truth mixed in with such awful errors? He replied instantly with a rhema word that shocked me and has stayed with me ever since, making up a key part of my understanding.

"Do you think your doctrine is any better?"

Well this really blew me away. I figured we were light years ahead of this other group in our understanding of scripture and doctrinal matters. But from the Lord's viewpoint we really weren't any better! [It's the easiest thing in the world, for a Christian, to see the speck in your brothers eye.]

So I came to see that in any denomination you care to name, the teachings are a mixture; a mixture of God's truth and man's wisdom [error]. No wonder we have confusion!

It's almost as if God had said 'Go to, let us go down, and there confound (mix up, confuse) their Doctrine*, that they may not understand one another's* teachings.'

Now if we see Babel as a type of pseudo church, [after all Babel = Babylon!] then the confusion and division that follows is a type of denominationalism or sectarianism.

I think we can generalize even more. I see Babel as a type of religion itself. The patterns we see in Babel are common to all religions and not just Christian ones. That is, all religions tend to have sects and subgroups. All forms of religion are under the same curse, confusion by mixture leading to divisions among them.

Let's throw in one more grand sweeping generalization. Babel is the confusion that comes by mixing truth and error; it is Babylon; it is religion itself; it is being, or seeking to be, under the law; it is any turning away from fellowship with God and trying to earn salvation by your own efforts; it is self righteousness; it's the letter of the law, which worketh death; it is the tree of knowledge of good and evil; it is the fig tree. Can it ever bear fruit?

> [John 1:48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.]

Let us make us a name

If we look at the passage from Genesis, one of their motivations there is expressed as "Let us make us a name". This same motivation is present in any religion or religious group you can find.

This very idea is present in the word 'denomination'. Its derived from Latin where 'nomine' is the word for 'name'. We use the word nominate or nomination when we select our political candidates.

So a denomination is a group that is known by their name. Better yet, it's a group that desires to be known by their name, even if that name is 'non-denominational'!

> 1 Cor 1:11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.
> 1 Cor 1:12 Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

Now these contentions between religious groups are rooted in pride.

> Prov 13:10 Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

And that pride comes from what they think is their special knowledge.

> 1 Cor 8:1 Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

But we see that their special knowledge is their unique doctrine, which is really truth mixed with error i.e. confusion. Then the pride is shown [manifested] in this desire they have to 'Let us make us a name.'

A False Promise

Another parallel to religion is seen by considering carefully this phrase: " . . . let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven . . . ."

The notion that the top may reach into heaven speaks of a man made structure with the promise of getting to heaven by your own effort. But of course that promise is a false promise.

> Heb 10:4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

These people were building on the basis of a false promise. That the tower may reach heaven. Religion operates on a False Promise. That if you follow their rules you will get to heaven. It's sort of like this false promise:

> Gen 3:4 And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:
> Gen 3:5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

Let us build us a city

We see the Babelites [Babylonians?] desiring to build their own city. Babel used man made brick, that is man's efforts instead of the living stones from which the temple of God is built.

They are like the Galatians who desired to be under the law.

> Gal 3:23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.
> Gal 3:24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.
> Gal 3:25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

> Rom 3:20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

But the Law [religion] was our schoolmaster till faith came. In Hebrews 11 we read of the heroes of faith who sought a better dwelling.

> Heb 11:7 By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

> Heb 11:8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.
> Heb 11:9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

> Heb 11:10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

Here desiring to be under the law, religion, is likened to wanting to build your own city. But faith, which is knowing, hearing and obeying The Lord, is to seek after a city already built, a heavenly city prepared by God. As Abraham, the father of faith, who lived in tents, not settling for men's cities for he looked for a for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

> Heb 11:16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

A Stupid Idea

Another point is that the very idea of a tower reaching into heaven is impossible. It should have been obviously impossible. It should have been viewed as obviously a stupid idea. But it wasn't. This indicates that at this time it may have been possible to fool all of the people all of the time.

How were they all fooled?

The same way it is still done today. You start with something everyone agrees with and pull them in.
It works like this:

OK everybody, lets make bricks!
    Everybody goes along, saying: Yea, great idea!
OK everybody, lets kiln dry the bricks!
    Everybody goes along, saying: Yea, great idea!
OK everybody, lets use slime for mortar!
    Everybody goes along, saying: Yea, great idea!
OK everybody, lets use the brick for stones!
    Everybody goes along, saying: Yea, great idea!
OK everybody, lets make a city!
    Everybody goes along, saying: Yea, great idea!
OK everybody, lets make a tower!
    Everybody goes along, saying: Yea, great idea!
OK everybody, lets make the tower reach up to heaven!
    Everybody goes along, saying: Yea, great idea!
And nobody stops and says 'wait a minute, that's impossible!'

So they are all led astray like sheep.

> Isa 53:6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; . . . .

So The Tower of Babel remains a monument to man's folly. This is in the natural and the spiritual, since Babel represents religion. And religion is man's folly.
It is man turning away from the tree of life and seeking after the tree of knowledge. It is man falling for false promises of special knowledge that only lead to confusion, pride and strife. And ultimate spiritual death.

> Jonah 2:8 They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

Look Unto The True Light Of The World

Arlette Pollard

Revelation 16:8-9

As the fire’s embers smoldered
And smoke filled the sky
You stumbled, blinded in tribulation
Cried out into the night
Saying who has found the way
To escape life's cruel fiery chase
That is fueled by coals of indignation
And marred by flames of heated strife.

You gave up so long ago
On thoughts that encouraged hope
Allowing the seed that had been sown
To be scorched by pleasures deceiving light
You never gained understanding
There can be no fair exchanging
Of man's might, for resurrection life.

You ran toward churning waters
In hope of quenching fire’s grief
Only to be overwhelmed by waves of condemnation
That rose and fell with unyielding strength.
The suffering that plagued you
Robbed you of joy, like a perfect thief
And in the grip of death’s unmerciful misery
You set your heart against the Lord
Determined to refuse His gift of peace.

Yet in your pain
This truth still remains
Of the man from Galilee
He has given hope to many a soul
Who sought Him in sincerity
In their lives He has calmed the storms
And quenched the flames of disparity
Renewed their joy as they cried,
And given strength when they were weak.

All honor unto the mighty King
Praise unto His holy name
Who’s awesome Light
Will forever shine
Throughout eternity.

> “And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire. And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.”
> Revelation 16:8-9

> "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!" Isaiah 5:20

"The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth his handiwork." Those whose eyes have been opened to "see" that the heavens declare the glory of God, are those whose hearts and minds have been enlightened to comprehend that God is the divine creator, who has established the heavens and the earth according to His good and perfect wisdom. Those whose eyes have been awakened to the realization that God is the author of all creation, are those who are able to appreciate the true and awesome "Light", who is Jesus Christ. They are those whose souls will prosper as they give honor and praise unto the true "Light" who stands throughout eternity, expressing the majesty of God.

Son of righteousness, Son of glory, hallowed be the name of the Lord, Jesus Christ. When a person is awakened from their slumber in the night, awakened to the goodness of God toward them, they will come to value the inheritance that is theirs in Christ. When given spiritual sight to comprehend God's majesty, power and divine Light of glory, they will be equipped of God, to rise up and walk as mature sons and daughters, who reflect His righteousness to a world still blinded to the goodness of God.

Those who have been awakened unto the righteousness that is found in Christ, will be as prisoners released from the darkness of the prison house. For them, freedom and liberty will take on new dimensions of meaning and purpose, after encountering the Son of righteousness, who is "the brightness of his [God's] glory, and the express image of his person." The glorious Light of God's mercy, having pierced through the darkness of their own souls, will cause them to appreciate being able to come unto the Lord in all situations, knowing that He is with them always.

> "For I beheld, and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counselor, that, when I asked of them, could answer a word. Behold, they are all vanity; their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion. Behold my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth; I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles." Isaiah 41:23-29; 42:1
> "But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all; and charged them that they should not make him known: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet saying, Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall show judgment to the Gentiles." Matthew 12:15-18

There is nothing created, that is hidden from the eyes of the Lord. There is no "creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." (Hebrews 4:13) When God, who is able to look upon all of creation, declared there was no counselor who could give advice according to His plans and purposes, His intent was not to turn away, and cease interacting with His creation. Instead, through Isaiah, God made a proclamation unto the world, declaring He would give to mankind a needed counselor, who would speak accurately of His perfect counsel, purpose, plans and judgment. God's counselor would be a Light to lead the captives from out of captivity onto the land of freedom.

Because God's soul would be favorable toward His chosen counselor, He would put His Spirit upon him, so that He could accurately show God's judgment toward the Gentiles. The judgment that God's chosen counselor would reveal to the Gentiles, would perfectly depict God's nature to all of mankind. Isaiah prophesied of God's chosen counselor, and Jesus Christ proclaimed that, in Him, Isaiah's prophecy was fulfilled, because He was the one in whom God's soul was well pleased. Jesus proclaimed He was the chosen counselor who would show God's judgment to the Gentiles.

Jesus Christ, the testator of God’s new living will, chosen to counsel according to God’s will, would accurately reveal God’s judgment toward mankind. The “Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son” (John 5:22). It is the Son, God’s beloved counselor, who accurately judges the hearts of mankind. Any person who hears His words, and believes, will be judged unto righteousness. Through hearing and inclining one’s thoughts toward the words Jesus speaks, the gift of faith is bestowed. Those of faith will be judged worthy of receiving God’s Holy Spirit. They will obtain the blessings of heaven, found in the Holy Spirit, so that the counsel of Jesus Christ is able to align their wills to the will of God.

Those who have been judged worthy to become partakers of God’s kingdom, will be those who are led of the Spirit of truth and the Word of God. God’s Spirit of truth, and the Word of God, will bear witness of God’s goodness and longsuffering love toward them. What the law could not accomplish in transforming the will (decisions, desires) of man to the will of God, will be accomplished through the influencing power of God’s Spirit of truth and His holy Word. The true Light, which expresses God’s glory in the heavens, will now shine in the hearts of those whose hearts are toward the Lord, so that God’s name is magnified in the earth.

> “Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.” John 8:12

God proclaims that His chosen counselor, His beloved Son, Jesus Christ, is the true Light of the world, who determines judgment in accordance with His righteousness. But those who deny what Jesus Christ has accomplished for mankind, are said to walk in darkness; their spiritual sight is blinded to the goodness and glory of God. Those who deny God’s beloved Son, as God’s chosen counselor, proclaim darkness to be the true light that establishes wisdom and counsel with which to guide men’s lives, and that the Light, Jesus Christ, is the darkness that blinds men to the reality of life. Those who deny God’s will toward mankind call evil, light, and “Light”, darkness.

Those who have partaken of God’s kingdom of righteousness, look to the true Light of the world, Jesus Christ, for comfort, purpose, guidance, counsel, and love. His words are like flames that consume the dross of unbelief and doubt in their lives, igniting their hearts toward righteousness. They bask in the strength of His love, which is able to penetrate even the most darkened and hardened of thoughts that hold men captive to unbelief. But those who deny that the Spirit of truth and Jesus Christ are expressions of God’s holy, divine nature, continue sit under and absorb the penetrating heat of the light of their own making. They do not understand God’s condemnation toward looking upon a “light,” empowered by their own thoughts and desires, which deny His Son, Jesus Christ.

As righteousness begets righteousness, so does evil beget evil. To sit under the light of men’s own creations, where God’s Word is discounted, is to live each day without the loving touch of the Comforter, who is able to comfort the souls of those who are weary, lonely or confused. To sit under the light of men’s darkened understanding, is to live without hearing the voice of God’s chosen Counselor, who is able to reveal the beauty of holiness to His listener’s heart and mind. To sit and bask in the light that exalts self above God, is to live feeling condemned of actions and attitudes, not equipped to hear the righteous judge; the judge who declares that to look to Him is to believe that all things have been made new, and that in Him is found righteousness sufficient for the day.

Those who deny the words that Jesus Christ speaks, calling God’s “Light”, to be evil, are as blind men who stumble in darkness. They are blind to the goodness of God; their understanding is darkened to the purposes and will of God. In their desire to be “enlightened” (i.e., to give the light of fact and knowledge to; reveal truths to; free from ignorance, prejudice, or superstition), they fashion ideology to fit their darkened understanding of reason and truth. They herald their ideas as “light” to awaken mankind from their slumber. The words they speak reflect the earthly light that guides their lives.

> “Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow: and it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up. And some fell on stony > ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth: but when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away." Mark 4:3-6

> "And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? And how then will ye know all parables. The sower soweth the word. And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts. And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness; and have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended." Mark 4:13-17

Jesus Christ used the parable of the sower to speak spiritual truths to His listeners. His words would reveal the spiritual condition of the hearts of mankind. Jesus Christ would explain to His disciples the meaning behind the parable, yet the depths of the truths that lay hidden in His words would be revealed in even greater measure, after they had partaken of the Holy Spirit.

In the parable of the sower, Jesus Christ explained to His listener's the reaction of mankind to His words. Referring to seed that is sown on various types of soil, He was able to use illustrations of daily life to impact the hearing and understanding of His listeners. His listeners would understand, to some degree, having participated first hand with sowing and reaping, the words He spoke. When He spoke of seed that fell on stony ground, where there was not much earth, they knew that, when it sprang up it would not have much root.

People understood that a seed needed a certain depth of soil to grow. They knew that, to throw seed on stony ground, where there was not enough depth of soil, was to cause the seed to wither and die, when the sun rose up and beat down upon it. Jesus explained this parable to the twelve, so that they could understand in greater depth the intent behind the words He spoke. He explained how the sower was anyone who spoke the word of God. He explained how the seed was the word that was spoken. However, He did not compare stony ground to man's hardened heart, which had in the past refused to accept that there was a God; He only said that there were those whose hearts were hardened as stones, who when they heard the word of God, received it with gladness, for a period of time.

Jesus Christ then spoke of how the seed planted on stony ground, because there was not enough depth of soil, a sturdy root could not take hold. He did not explain why there was lack of soil, so that a sturdy root was not established. He did not say that those who heard the Word, but did not have a solid understanding of who they were giving praise unto, were double minded people. He did not say that, while thankful that Jesus Christ promised them eternal salvation, they were still trusting in the common market for eternal salvation from financial problems, so that they could stop worrying about the future of their lives. He did not say, though they were thankful to hear of being blessed with spiritual blessings from on high, that they still exalted worldly enterprises as a way to stimulate their sense of joy. He only said that, because they did not have much root in themselves, when the sun beat upon them, they withered away.

In the parable of the sower, Jesus Christ proclaimed that those who had not much root in themselves would wither away when the sun beat upon them. He further explained that the "sun" referred to words spoken by those who denied that He was the Son of God, who exalted their own ideology above the Word of God. The sun, in the parable of the sower, referred to words spoken by men who looked to the darkness for understanding, and that when such words were spoken to those who had not much root in themselves, the "sun" would cause any understanding of who Jesus Christ was to cease influencing their lives, so that God's Word withered away.

Those who deny that Jesus Christ is God's Son of righteousness, find it natural to call darkness, light, and "Light" darkness. To speak words against the Lord may be, to their way of thinking, to shed the light of truth on a situation. Jesus used the parable of the sower to explain the reaction of people to the words He spoke. He described how some, who having no root in themselves, when they perceive they are being persecuted for proclaiming the name of Christ, will wither away. They had rejoiced for a season in the words of Jesus Christ, but when affliction or persecution arose, they turned away from the words of Jesus Christ.

> "And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil." John 3:19
> "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life." John 5:24

The will of God, planned and purposed upon Jesus Christ, declares that every action, thought or opinion that exalts itself above the righteousness of Christ, stands judged guilty of wrongdoing. Those who stand before God judged of unbelief are judged unworthy of receiving the divine influence of the Holy Spirit upon their lives while alive. They are to be judged unworthy of gaining entrance into paradise upon physical death, because it is the Holy Spirit who leads men on high.

There is no other way to escape God's judgment of condemnation, than to sincerely seek Jesus Christ. There is no other source of light that men can look upon, except the true "Light" of the world, the Son of God, if they hope to escape God's adverse verdict. For men to escape the suffering that continues to plague their souls, they must turn from the darkness toward the true Light of the world, Jesus Christ. And if they are not to "wither" away, they must reflect sincerely upon the message of Jesus Christ, so that they are filled with God's Holy Spirit, the living water sent down from heaven, who is able to quench mankind's thirst for righteousness.

Many people are guilty of denying that Jesus Christ is able to transform, inspire and lead men unto righteousness. They remain under condemnation, their hearts unwilling to consider the need to be aligned with the will of God. Yet, as their lives unfold, and they begin to realize that what they placed their hope or confidence in has actually not brought about the desired results, they still continue to refuse to look to the Lord for purpose, comfort or inspiration.

Those who call evil, light, and "Light", evil, though they suffer for unrighteousness sake, their hearts and minds not comforted; they continue to insult and slander the name of God. They may be miserable, angry, vengeful, and dejected, but because they walk in the darkness and herald men's thoughts that deny God, considering it the light of truth, they refuse to listen to the words spoken by Jesus Christ, so that they may be healed.

Those who blaspheme God's name, insulting, slandering, and speaking evil of His beloved Son, Jesus Christ, have no understanding of the true Light of the world. They remain condemned of God. God strongly disapproves of their thoughts and actions, which curse and slander the name of His beloved Son, and so upon these people God's judgment of condemnation will remain. No Comforter will be found to comfort their souls in time of need; no Counselor will take them by the hand and lead them alongside refreshing streams, and they will not hear the voice of God speak to them of love that is able to inspire the heart toward hope.

Until a man is born again of the Spirit, so that the blood of Christ profits his soul, condemnation's unquenchable fires will continue to cause unrighteous suffering to plague his heart and mind. Anger, jealously, fear, covetness, unforgiveness, vengeance and lust will be flames that bring unrighteous suffering into his life. Because he blasphemes the name of God, there will be no Counselor to speak of the need for forgiveness, mercy, love and holiness. His heart will not receive words which could be used to quench the flames of dejection, frustration and fear that torment his soul. There will be no Comforter to speak words to help him overcome feelings of guilt and depression.

Until a man turns toward the Son of God, Jesus Christ, in sincerity, God's condemnation against the sin nature, which exalts self above God, will remain. He will continue to suffer for unrighteousness sake. He may seek to find an escape out of his suffering, but without understanding the root cause of his suffering, he will remain in sorrow's grip.

The righteousness of Jesus Christ is set in stone: the truth of who He is, the Son of God, cannot be moved from its position in eternity. Though God will not retract His judgment against the sin nature that devours and destroys the lives of men, He does continue to extend His hand of salvation to mankind, through Jesus Christ. God proclaims there is no other source of Light, except Jesus Christ, who will shed truth abroad upon a man's heart, truth that is able to lead a man from out of the darkened realm of condemnation, unto the land promised, the kingdom of God's righteousness, which is entered into through partaking of the Holy Spirit.

The Son of righteousness has risen unto the heavens, and through God's mercy, upon the hearts of many men. He has provided truth to mankind so they are able to escape condemnation's fiery pit. He is the true Light that shines brighter than the noon-day sun in God's kingdom of righteousness. His voice of truth is able to shatter the hardened hearts of men so that good seed, the Word, is planted deep in the soil of a man's heart, producing the spiritual fruit of love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, and temperance. In God's perfect will, a healing balm is extended to mankind, it is found in the Holy Spirit, received through faith in Jesus Christ.

> "The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; He hath sent Me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised. To preach the acceptable year of the Lord." Luke 4:18-19

Lift Up Your Heads, O ye Gates

Dear brothers and sisters
As today is the 24th August, I read psalm 24 and felt the Lord wanted me to share with you a chapter from my book, 'Beauty Treatments for the Bride' which can be found on my website. I pray it will bless you
Christine

Chapter Nine
The Four Gatekeepers that usher in the Manifest Presence of God

David appointed four men to be gatekeepers for the ark of God. It was their responsibility to open the door so that the ark carrying the presence of God could enter. Their names were Obed-edom, Jehiah, Berechiah and Elkanah. The Bible teaches that our bodies are the temple of the Lord and we also have four gates to our temples. A gate allows people or things to enter and leave a building and God has designed our eyes and ears to be the primary way that access is gained to our temples. The other senses; taste, touch and smell also provide an entrance for information or input that will affect our temple and what it contains. If we desire for our temples to contain the glory of God then it is important that we have trustworthy gatekeepers, the same kind that David entrusted with the task of ushering in the presence of the Lord. Let us look a little more in depth at these gatekeepers and the meanings of their names.

Obed-edom means 'bond-slave'
Jehiah means ' to restore to life, to be whole'
Berechiah means 'to kneel as an act of adoration'
Elkanah means 'God owns or possesses'.

These four things must be in place to open the way for the manifest presence of God in our lives and for us to be able to bring it into the lives of others.

A bond-slave was one who had been set free but had chosen to serve his master for life of his own free will. They would then pierce his ear as an outward sign that he was a bond-slave. The Lord is wanting our ear-gates to be set apart to serve Him alone. He is wanting to place a mark of ownership upon our ears so that we would truly be sheep that hear His voice and do not follow the voice of a stranger. Unfortunately, what has happened in some cases is that we have lent our ears to the whisper of the enemy. We have listened to gossip, filthy jokes, doctrines of demons, seductive spirits and other unclean things and all these are broadcasts of Hell's radio station. By not refusing this input and quenching the convicting voice of the Holy Spirit, we have given the enemy permission over the years to set up a folding chair at this gate in our lives and we wonder why we struggle to hear God speak above the interference of the accuser of the brethren.

The gate of a city was a place of authority and rule, where legal matters were decided and the elders of the city sat. Only those who had been given authority to do so were allowed to take up their seats at the gates. In the same way, only those who you have given authority to are legally allowed to take up their seats and rule at the spiritual gates in your life. We give authority to the enemy when we live in disobedience to the Word of God, when we knowingly indulge in activities which He has forbidden, when there is unconfessed sin or our lifestyles do not fit that of a believer-priest, set-apart for His pleasure alone. This gives demonic powers legal access to territory at our gates and the only way to get rid of a legal document like this is to avail yourself of the more powerful legal document written at Calvary which states that the Blood of Jesus paid once and for all in full for the remission of this sin. The Lord requires us to confess our sin so that the voice of our Divine Advocate can ring out in the legal courts of Heaven and declare us forgiven and cleansed. Once sin is dealt with, the legal document that satan holds is nullified and his seat at the gate is overturned and restored to its rightful owner, the Lord Jesus. It is at this point that authority given by God over principalities and powers and all the works of the evil one, can be exercised and they have to leave.

There is contesture going on in the gates of our lives at the moment as to whether the King of Glory has a right to come in. Psalm 24 speaks of this.

'Who shall go to the mountain of the Lord? Who shall stand in His holy place ? he who has clean hands and a pure heart....'

We are all prophetically standing in the place that Joshua the high priest finds himself in Zechariah 3; before the throne of God and satan is at our right hand to accuse us. He knows all the details of our sin and failings and if justice has its way, then we are declared guilty as charged. But hear the voice of the Blood as it speaks in Zech 3:2

"the Lord rebuke you, satan, even the Lord who now chooses Jerusalem, rebuke you! Is not this a brand plucked out of the fire!"

He commands that Joshua's filthy garments be taken away and that He be clothed in rich apparel. It is said that if he is faithful, he will have a permanent place before the throne. In just the same way, even though our lives are not as they should be, our Bridegroom speaks for us in the gates. He is our Kinsman-redeemer and as we serve notice on the princes and gatekeepers of our lives and sever our alliances with them and flee to the protection of our Bridegroom, He will execute judgment on the powers of darkness that have bound and harassed us.

Psalm 24:7 says, "lift up your heads, o ye gates... that the King of Glory may come in....who is the King of Glory, the Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle". The words 'lift up your heads, o ye gates' can also be translated, ' yield, you princes at the gates'. So we see that there is about to take place an overthrowing and an execution of judgment on principalities and powers that have influence in our lives. As we come in repentance, claiming only the Blood as our defense and serve notice on the squatters we've allowed in our territory, the battle cry of the Bridegroom is sounded and the day of His vengeance will be seen.

In psalm 24, the other thing that is commanded to be lifted up is the 'everlasting doors'. What can this possibly refer to? Well, the Hebrew word for 'everlasting' also means ' concealed' and comes from the root word meaning 'to veil from sight, secret thing'. So there are things in our lives which are veiled and hidden purposely by the enemy so that we do not know to deal with them. The word for 'door' comes from a root meaning 'to loosen, to let go free, to break forth'. So when we pray, "be lifted up, ye everlasting doors!", we are really crying out for the hidden areas of bondage in our lives to yield and be loosed; those things that up to now have prevented the Lord's working in our lives must be loosed so that the King of Glory, the Lord of Hosts may have His way in us.

As we cleanse our temples, just as Jesus did when He came into Jerusalem and threw out the money-changers and their cronies, we are dedicating the whole temple back to holy purposes. We can see a practical example of this principle when the Israelites took over a city in Amalekite territory. Its name was En-mishpat; which means ' fountain of judgment '. Once the enemy had been subdued and routed, the name of the city was changed to Kadesh, which means ' holy place, consecrated, set-apart '. The whole character of the place was changed from a place under the judgment of God to one which was dedicated to His glory.

The other set of gates the Lord wants to deal with are our eyes. The Word teaches that if the eye is sound , the whole body is full of light. This word 'sound' means 'clear, unclouded' and so obviously there are things which can cloud our vision. This whole discussion in Matthew 6 is followed immediately by teaching on covetousness and the love of money. The eye is the part which guides and gives direction to the body. We will move towards that which our eye is fixed on. If it is fixed on earthly things and we allow the lust of the eyes to rule us , we will never come into all that God has prepared for us. All forms of idolatry involve our eyes, as do all forms of sexual sin whether they only involve our thought lives, or our bodies as well. All pornography is designed to control people by gaining entrance through the eye-gates. The standard diet in much of what is offered as entertainment by the media consists of depictions of immorality and sexual sin and uncleanness. Yet many of God's people have allowed their eyes to rest upon these things habitually. God designed our eyes to be gates that allowed entrance to good and clean and inspiring things, that which would cause us to bow down and worship and glorify God for His greatness. Sadly, to a large extent we have come to a place where we no longer flinch at the sight of nudity or depictions of sex. Our consciences are so numbed because of the continual bombardment against godly values that we no longer call evil what the Lord calls evil. God never intended for physical intimacy to be entered into before the eyes of others but in the inner chamber before the eyes of God only. Why are we no longer convicted about looking upon that which is sacred and holy unto the Lord?

God wants our eye to be single, focused on His kingdom and righteousness and because the focus of our eyes is largely linked with our thought life, dedicating our eye-gates back to godly purposes will help us considerably in gaining victory in our minds. Let your eyes see the Word of God and the beauty of His creation and meditate on these things. Isaiah 33:15 describes a man who stops his ears from the hearing of bloodshed and shuts his eyes to avoid looking upon evil and the results of this lifestyle are that:

such a man will dwell on the heights; his place of defense will be the fortresses of rocks; his bread will be given him, water for him will be sure. Your eyes will see the King in His beauty...'

A life of holiness really means being set-apart as a vessel for God's purposes and not being involved in that which is unclean in any way. This does not mean that we have no contact with sinners, but it does mean that we are not trying to witness to them when we are under the same bondages they are. Some christian men are tormented by lust even when trying to serve the Lord and this is largely because of undealt-with areas concerning the things they have allowed their eyes to look upon in the past which have given spirits of lust authority to set up their thrones at the eye-gates of these men. True repentance will open the way for these unclean spirits to be sent packing. Yield, you princes at the gates, that the King of Glory may come in! We want to, like Isaiah, see the Lord, high and lifted up and His train filling the temple.

Our eyes are also the gates through which information comes that causes us to pass judgments upon others. Often these judgments are not verbalized but our hearts become full of critical assessments of others. We need to heed the Word of God which tells us not to judge or we will be judged in the same measure as we hand out to others. Romans 2:5 says that we are storing up judgment for ourselves when we judge others for the very things which are in our own hearts. Let us repent of operating in a critical spirit, which is the counterfeit of the spirit of discernment and serve that spirit notice that it is no longer welcome to sit at our eyegates. In the Kingdom of God measurement and judgment is not done in the same way as in the world. We see an example of this when Samuel went to anoint one of the sons of Jesse as king of Israel. He chose according to outward appearance, the tallest or the oldest but the Lord corrected him and laid down His standard for judgment which was according to the heart of the person.

When people in the Kingdom use their eyes to assess and pass judgment on situations, great errors are often made. Saul was a king chosen by the people (1 Sam 12:13) and by outward appearance he seemed to be ideal. He was extremely handsome and a head taller than any of the people; yet the record shows that his character was flawed, he was a people-pleaser who dabbled in the occult and in the end the Lord rejected him. God chooses those who are circumcised in their hearts, not according to what is seen with the natural eye.

The third sense through which we allow entrance to our temples is the sense of touch. The Hebrew word for 'touch' brings clarity as to what the Lord is wanting to deal with here because it means, ' to lay the hand upon, to lie with a woman, to beat'. The Greek word for touch means ' to attach oneself to '. It seems the Lord is wanting to address soul-ties and the area of intimacy here. Whenever a man lies with a woman, he becomes one with her and a bond is formed in the soul area which endures after the relationship is over, unless it is deliberately and specifically broken by prayer. God originally intended for this bond to be formed as part of a godly union within marriage to one partner for a lifetime. Unfortunately, promiscuity before or after salvation means that a person becomes bound in the spiritual realm to every person he or she has been intimate with. A bond can even be formed through a strong emotional involvement without sexual intercourse taking place. There is a yoking that takes place which prevents the person from fully receiving the yoke which Jesus wants us to carry (which is easy and light). It will also prevent true intimacy taking place in a Christian marriage if there are unbroken soul-ties and allegiances to past relationships.

If we desire to have the Lord touch others through our lives, then we need to repent of unclean associations and every yoking of darkness with light so that we may honour God through our bodies. All through the gospels there are records of people pressing in to touch Jesus. May our touch bring the touch of Jesus to a broken and searching world.

In the human body the sense of smell is linked to the sense of taste. If a person has no sense of smell then they have a much reduced ability to differentiate between different flavors. In the spiritual realm, these two senses are also linked and God has designed us in such a way that our primary ability to discern is rooted in these two senses, taste and smell. This is why it says in psalm 34:8; 'taste and SEE that the Lord is good'. Our ability to 'see' in the spirit or use our spiritual eyes is connected to our spiritual tastebuds! The Hebrew word for 'taste' means ' to taste, perceive; by implication intelligence, discretion, judgment, understanding'.

Taste speaks of an experiential encounter with God. The first time it is mentioned in the Bible is when the Israelites were in the wilderness and God provided manna for them to eat. Numbers 11:8 tells us that the manna tasted like fresh oil. However, these people scorned God's provision and longed for the food of Egypt. They wept and reminisced over the taste of all that Egypt had to offer. The Word of God is laid out for us each morning like manna for us to gather and every time we scorn this provision and long for that which the world fed us with; vain entertainments that feed the flesh but are of no benefit to the spirit, then it angers the Lord. He allowed Israel to eat the meat they craved but it brought death. Numbers 11:34 says:

'the place was called Kibroth-hattaavah (the graves of sensuous desire) because there they buried the people who lusted, whose physical appetite caused them to sin.'

Hosea 4:11 puts it like this:

'harlotry, wine and new wine take away the heart and the mind and spiritual understanding.'

In the New Testament, the Lord cautions us that those who sow to the flesh will reap corruption, but if we sow to the spirit we will reap eternal life. The manna tasted like fresh oil, straight from the vats of Heaven. It is a type of the continuing revelation of Jesus Christ, the Bread of Life, Heaven's daily provision for strength and victorious living. If there has been any measure of grumbling in our hearts, any despising of the Word and a longing for the food of the world to satisfy our flesh, then let us repent and ask the Lord to cleanse our spiritual tastebuds that we may be able to discern between that which is truly beneficial and that which is harmful to our spiritual health. Even as physical fasting cleans out the body and sharpens the tastebuds, so fasting from the food of the world will sharpen our spiritual senses and put us in touch with the Holy Spirit once again. Let us switch off the television and the entertainment systems which lull us into spiritual apathy and feed upon the Word of God and notice the difference in our lives!

The Hebrew word for 'smell' means 'to perceive' and comes from a root word meaning ' to make of quick understanding, spirit, wind". Your spiritual sense of smell is one which picks up information that is not visible to the natural eye. It is here that the gift of discerning of spirits operates. The first mention of the word 'smell' is in Genesis 27:27. Isaac smelt Jacob's garments and thought it was Esau because they smelt of the open field and mown grass. He was led astray by his sense of smell and because he had no natural sight he was easily deceived. If our spiritual sense of smell is sharp we will be able to close our eyes and discern what garments a person is wearing in the spirit. However we must also heed what our spiritual ears are telling us. Isaac ignored the fact that the voice was Jacob's voice. he allowed his sense of smell and touch to override the information that was coming to him via his ears. Herein is a warning for all of us in these days when many deceiving spirits have gone out into the world and the church. We need to weigh the information coming from all our spiritual senses to be able to correctly discern the work of the deceiver. This story shows us that a sharpness and alertness of spiritual hearing is vital and will protect us from deception. Isaac wanted to eat his favorite food before blessing his son. The desire for food for his flesh clouded his judgment and he allowed himself to be ruled by the smell of the food and Esau's garments and gave his blessing to the wrong person.

This is why it is so important to train our ears to recognize the voice of the Good Shepherd so that we will not follow the voice of a stranger. The enemy may dish up your favorite food and be clothed in a way that impersonates the Shepherd and even use His aftershave but his voice will give him away. Don't eat of his dainties or follow him because it will lead to bondage and destruction.

In Isaiah 12 there is a prophetic description of Jesus:

'the Spirit of the Lord will rest upon Him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord. and shall make Him of quick understanding, and His delight shall be in the fear of the Lord. And He shall not judge by the sight of His eyes, neither decide by the hearing of His ears; but with righteousness and justice shall He judge the poor, and decide with fairness for the meek, the poor and downtrodden of the earth and He shall smite the earth and the oppressor with the rod of His mouth and with the breath of His lips will He slay the wicked....'

I believe this is what the Lord is calling us to, a state of heart where we function in the same anointing that Jesus had by the Spirit of God, not judging by our natural senses but relying on a pure spiritual discernment to rightly assess situations. The sense of smell in the Bible is largely connected with the smell of garments. Song of Solomon describes the garment of the bridegroom as being fragrant with myrrh and spices. As we cling to our Bridegroom, the fragrance of His garment will be transferred to our garments and we will carry everywhere the fragrance of the knowledge of Christ. There is a discernable fragrance that comes from the life of a person who is fully yielded to the Lord which is picked up even by unbelievers. May our lives carry His fragrance.

'lift up your heads ,o ye gates, the king of glory's coming in!'

Chapter Ten
Emmanuel - God with us

In reading the book of Zechariah, my eyes were opened to see the passionate love and

Psalm 24:7 says, "lift up your heads, o ye gates... that the King of Glory may come in....who is the King of Glory, the Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle". The words 'lift up your heads, o ye gates' can also be translated, ' yield, you princes at the gates'. So we see that there is about to take place an overthrowing and an execution of judgment on principalities and powers that have influence in our lives. As we come in repentance, claiming only the Blood as our defense and serve notice on the squatters we've allowed in our territory, the battle cry of the Bridegroom is sounded and the day of His vengeance will be seen.

This does not mean that we have no contact with sinners, but it does mean that we are not trying to witness to them when we are under the same bondages they are. Some Christian men are tormented by lust even when trying to serve the Lord and this is largely because of undealt-with areas concerning the things they have allowed their eyes to look upon in the past which have given spirits of lust authority to set up their thrones at the eye-gates of these men. True repentance will open the way for these unclean spirits to be sent packing. Yield, you princes at the gates, that the King of Glory may come in! We want to, like Isaiah, see the Lord, high and lifted up and His train filling the temple.

Our eyes are also the gates through which information comes that causes us to pass judgments upon others. Often these judgments are not verbalized but our hearts become full of critical assessments of others. We need to heed the Word of God which tells us not to judge or we will be judged in the same measure as we hand out to others. Romans 2:5 says that we are storing up judgment for ourselves when we judge others for the very things which are in our own hearts. Let us repent of operating in a critical spirit, which is the counterfeit of the spirit of discernment and serve that spirit notice that it is no longer welcome to sit at our eyegates. In the Kingdom of God measurement and judgment is not done in the same way as in the world. We see an example of this when Samuel went to anoint one of the sons of Jesse as king of Israel. He chose according to outward appearance, the tallest or the oldest but the Lord corrected him and laid down His standard for judgment which was according to the heart of the person.

When people in the Kingdom use their eyes to assess and pass judgment on situations, great errors are often made. Saul was a king chosen by the people (1 Sam 12:13) and by outward appearance he seemed to be ideal. He was extremely handsome and a head taller than any of the people; yet the record shows that his character was flawed, he was a people-pleaser who dabbled in the occult and in the end the Lord rejected him. God chooses those who are circumcised in their hearts, not according to what is seen with the natural eye.

Living With A Third Day Perspective
Robert I Holmes

Part I

Three years ago I was sitting in a car driving to Dulles airport, Washington DC with a prophetess called Nancy. We were having an animated conversation about the Trinity. Our discussion centered on the observation that nearly everything seems to come in threes - after the order and image of the God-head. Our nature (body-soul-spirit); our world (earth-water-air); the transfiguration (Jesus-Moses-Elijah) and so many other things. I recall the process of death, burial and resurrection took three days.

A year later I was flying in to California to meet with a man called Gary. He was the leader of a group called the Third Day Churches. I listened intently to his explanation about freedom in Christ, of liberty from the old ways of religion, and of pressing through into "something else". Gary, like other leaders had come from a traditional church background, through a freedom loving, Vineyard style church into what he has today. It was a three-step process.

This year I met a fascinating speaker and author, Doug. Our conversation wandered into the Third Day (again!). It was too much for me. Doug had taken it to the next level, and could see the necessity for the church to change, or radically shift their day-to-day perspective on life. We must go all the way through.

Death, burial and resurrection

There is found in Hosea a reference to this three day process: "Come, let us return to the LORD; for it is he who has torn, and he will heal us; he has struck down, and he will bind us up. After two days he will revive us; on the third day he will raise us up, that we may live before him. Let us know, let us press on to know the LORD; his appearing is as sure as the dawn; he will come to us like the showers, like the spring rains that water the earth" (Hos. 6:1-3 NRSV).

On the first day the Lord tears us; He strikes us down. The result is death - a blow to our old nature. On the second day we come to Him; the call is to return to Him. He heals us; He binds us up. After two days He will revive us, and on the third day, He will raise us up! The process is death, burial and resurrection life - resulting in His appearing. He will come to us like showers.

The three-day pattern is literally found all the way through the Scriptures. Once you know the key, you can see the pattern. Let's take a look at twelve places it occurs, to understand God's plan for us to live in a "Third Day" life.

1. Where is your life?

Holding onto your life (which is really death - Matt. 10:39) is a first day reality. To understand and share in His sufferings, so as to attain His death (Phil. 3:10) is a second day reality. To walk without fear of death, knowing that for me to live is Christ (Gal. 2:20) & that my life is hid with Christ in God (Col. 3:3) is a third day reality. God wants us to come through our suffering (not avoid it), to embrace our pain (not get therapy for it) and come through that death into resurrection life! (Rev. 20:6).

2. What room of the temple are you in?*

The tabernacle of Moses foreshadowed the temple of Solomon, which is a shadow of the heavenly tabernacle. There were three rooms in Moses' tabernacle. The outer court is where great sacrifice took place, much blood sweat and tears; this is living in the first day. The inner court was a place of worship. It contained the eternal flame, the shewbread, the priestly life. A sanctified life of prayer, fasting and holiness; that is living in the second day. Then there was the holy place, the holy of holies where God dwelt over the mercy seat between the Cherubim. We are invited into the place of intimacy, relationship and life (Heb 10:19-25); that is living in the third day.

*[One could equally ask, "What tabernacle are you at?" - the Tabernacle of Moses, the Tabernacle of David (Acts 15:16), or the Tabernacle of Heaven (Heb. 8:2)?].

3. What priesthood are you a part of?

There are three priesthoods mentioned in Hebrews chapter seven. The first is of Aaron (vs 11) - the one man who could stand for the rest and speak to Moses - the one man who could stand for the rest and speak to God. The "one man" show, the "chosen one" paradigm is a first day understanding. The second priesthood comes from Levi (vs 5) - the tribe of priests raised up to perform the rights and minister at the sanctuary. The practise of having priests, an order of holy men, an order of "ministers" or pastors is a second day understanding. The third priesthood is of Melchizadek (vs 17). The order of a Man without lineage, of eternal life, who came to make all men capable ministers of the New Covenant (2 Cor. 3:16). We [all] are a royal priesthood and a holy nation (1 Pet. 2:9). That is a third day understanding.

4. What feast are you at?

The Old Covenant contained many rules, regulations and policies. But it also contained three key feasts to celebrate God and the Kingdom*. The Feast of Unleavened Bread (Passover) is a first day celebration of the sacrifice of the lamb, and for us (at Easter) a celebration of the death of Jesus. The Feast of Weeks (Pentecost) is the second day feast celebrating the fruitfulness, the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Church. But it is the third day feast - the Feast of Tabernacles (Booths) that we are coming to: the celebration of Christ within us (Col. 1:27), of God tabernacling with His people (John 14:23)!

* I acknowledge that there are other "days" celebrated - the day of Trumpets, the day of Atonement, the day of Sabbath and the "feast" of Purim (a day to celebrate the victory of Mordechai). Hannukah also celebrates the victory of Maccabaeus.

5. What rulebook do you follow?

Are you a first day believer - living under the weight of the law, a son of the bondwoman (Gal. 4:25). Do you live under a "touch not, taste not" kind of religion (Col. 2:21)? Or are you a second day believer - living under the traditions of men (which nullify the word of God: Mark 7:3). Do you go through the motions, play the game, work the room like a good religious person? Or are you living in the third day - chosen by grace (Rom. 11:6) and by grace alone you have been saved (Eph. 2:5)?

6. How mature are you?

An immature son is no better than a slave. He is trapped by his immature "reap and sow" mentality. He does not own the field, he cannot work the farm (Gal. 4:1), he does not learn from pain. He is a first day son. A son growing up is under the care of guardians, tutors who lead them by the nose (Gal. 4:3), he must learn through suffering. He is a second day son. But a mature, third day son has entered into his inheritance, and is a co-heir with Christ (Gal. 4:7). He understands that the field is his; the business is his. He embraces the cross, he endures the suffering and comes through with a changed character, looking more like his heavenly Father.

In the next part of this article we will look at the remaining six points about living in the Third Day

Part II Robert I Holmes

In the first part of this article we examined the first six points about living life with a Third Day perspective: 1. Where is your life? 2. What room of the temple are you in? 3. What priesthood are you a part of? 4. What feast are you eating at? 5. What rule book do you follow? 6. How mature are you? Now we address the final six points.

7. What is the basis of your sonship?

Do you obey out of fear (Rom. 8:8), because you're afraid God might not love you? Do you act out of a need to please Him? That's a first day basis to life. Are you a fanatic, trying to please God with your efforts, accomplishments, and goal achievements. Are trying to do the right thing in the hope of getting the teacher's mantle? That's a second day basis to life. We are trying to press through to the fullness of being a son, lead by the Spirit, manifesting His glory and changing creation (Rom. 8:14-19). The third day life expresses itself through the anointing, which breaks every yoke. It touches creation and sets the captives free. That's a third day basis to life.

8. What culture do you portray?

There are those who think a love for the city-state of Jerusalem is a holy thing. Who think prayer shawls and other Jewish cultural trappings make for a more godly Christianity. Such practice, whilst innocuous, is adherence to a first day culture. God is not a Hebrew, He is the God of the Hebrews. Do you not know that Jerusalem today is Hagar, and pertains to the bondage of Arabia? They are the children of slavery, just like their Arab brothers (Gal. 4:2,254).

There are those who practice another kind of culture, a learned, stable, aged Christianity that comes from history. The Catechism, the vestments, the prayer book and hymnals are fine as far as they go, but this is church culture. second day culture. The third day truth is that we are sojourners; we are strangers to this world, we are not from here (Heb. 11:13). We are not patriotic to our nationalistic culture. We come from a heavenly, Kingdom culture (John 18:36). We can love and pray for the peace of Jerusalem, but we are not attached to it in an earthly way. We can love and pray for the nation in which we are born, but we are not trapped in nationalism. Our eyes are on the Jerusalem from above (Heb. 11:10).

9. What kind of leader do you have?

A first day Christian is looking for rules, regulations and a mode to life that will help them. It is the law, acting as a tutor leading you (Gal. 3:24). A second day Christian needs a leader leading them. Paul spoke of the so called "ascension gift ministries" which, according to his letter to the Ephesians, was "until" (Eph. 4:11). until the perfection of the saints. Apostles, prophets, pastors, teachers, evangelists are all second day ministries, until. Third day life is being fully connected to the Holy Spirit, listening to the Lord. It is the anointing leading us (1 John 2:27). It is being fully mature, in the image and stature of Christ, one Body, connected to the brethren.

10. What is your expectation from the community you belong to?

In the first day life, you go to church, and expect the pastor to do everything for you. You have your priest, the law and rules governing your life. It is the priest/ people paradigm. Second day life is more congregational (thank you Baptists). Sure, there is still a minister, and something of a spectator event, but the people have more power (control). There is eldership, a deaconate, a board, importance. but we have not yet found resurrection life in our congregation have we? In heaven, everyone is involved. In a third day church, everyone is involved (1 Cor. 14:26), and everyone brings something to share.

11. Your perspective: first, second, third heaven

Being in the first day gives you a first heaven perspective. The heavens are in the sky; the sky is far away. The air you breathe is more real than the air of heaven. You can only see your life's circumstances. It is Israel and Egypt, full of brick-making and toil. Being in the second day opens you up to the spirit realm, but you are more aware of the demonic than the angelic. You are conscious of supernatural phenomena, but have not pressed through to victory. Jesus confronted the dark principalities of sickness, death and hell on the second day (Eph. 4:9). Being in the third day gives you the full perspective, and now you embrace a view from the throne and government of Christ. You can see the glory of God in everything below it.

12. Your mentality

A first day Christian, with a first heaven revelation lives with a "bunker" mentality. He is holding on until Jesus comes back. He is living out life controlled by his circumstance. He does not have the victory over life, but must endure it. A second day Christian becomes aware of and engaged with fighting principalities and powers. He adopts a "warfare" mentality (Eph. 6:12). He is fighting all the time (sickness, death, demons). A third day Christian has been through both of these phases, and now embraces a higher law - that he was made with royal blood, and will soon be fit to rule and reign with Christ. He knows he is blessed with every blessing in the spiritual realm (Eph. 1:3); is seated with Christ in the heavenly realm (Eph. 2:6); and has the task of making known the mystery of Christ to those same principalities and powers (Eph. 3:10).

Conclusion

As Christians we will be a mixture of first, second and third day truths. The Lord is not saying "give up" He is saying "upgrade". He is not saying you are inferior if you have first or second day understanding, but He is saying there is deeper water to swim in. He is saying there is a higher mountain, a better view from a new perspective. His desire is for each of us to grow to the fullness of maturity. This entire process is really a following after our leader - Christ who dies, was buried and has been raised from the dead! It is a becoming like Him, transformed into His likeness. He truly is the Third Day.

Mahanaim

"Mahanaim" - The Dance Between Two Armies

Angelic Visitations

We're in a season where many are encountering the angels of God. There has never been more books cd's or material written on the subject of angels or angelic visitations than in this last season. It is undoubtedly one of the most controversial subjects in Christendom today, however it is God who is pulling back the veil between heaven and earth and is allowing us to see and experience fresh downloads of revelation from His presence.

Then Jacob went on his way, and God's angels met him. When Jacob saw them, he said, "This is God's army"! So he named that place "Mahanaim."(Genesis 32:1-2)

Song of Solomon 6:13 explains it like this, as upon a "dance between two armies" or a "dance of Mahanaim"

"Mahanaim; the dance between two armies"

. We all know and are familiar with the account of Jacob having a prophetic encounter in a dream where he saw a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven. On this ladder he saw the angels of God ascending and descending on it! (Genesis28:12) A few short verses later Jacob refers to this heavenly "ladder" as the "Gateway to heaven" (Genesis 28:17). This gateway was a literal portal that reached from over the top of Jacob into the Third heaven. It says Jacob was allowed to see the angels of God "in a dream".

Angels Ascending and Descending

Like Jacob the ministry of Jesus is clearly marked with the presence of angels. Jesus told Nathaniel; You shall see greater things than this! I tell you all, you shall see heaven opened up and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man! This was more than just a dream! Jesus was telling the disciples they would literally see the heavens open and the angels of God pouring out upon the earthly ministry of the Son of Man. The angels were clearly there to minister with Jesus as well as to minister to Him.

Open Heavens

I find it interesting that Jesus referred to the same experience Jacob had of seeing the "Heavens Opened" and the angels of God were ascending and descending on the Son of Man! (John 1:51). "When the heavens open we get the attention of heaven". The literal "Eye of God" is on us (Psalm 33:18 / 34:15) the and it seems that everything we do turns to life. Prosperity breaks out everywhere. Health, finances, reconciliation of loved ones all kinds of things happen because He sets his love upon us!! This is nothing more than the blessings of Deuteronomy 28 1-12 which says;

"the Lord your God will set you high above the nations (FAVOR) of the earth. And all these blessings shall come upon you and OVERTAKE you if you heed the voice to the Lord your God. You'll be blessed in the city, blessed in the field, blessed shall be the fruit of your body and the fruit of your ground and of the fruit of your beasts, the increase of your cattle and the your flock. You shall be blessed in your basket. Those who rise up against you to defeat you will be scattered seven ways. THE LORD SHALL COMMAND THE BLESSING UPON YOU IN YOU STOREHOUSE AND IN ALL THAT YOU TAKE IN.

Vers 12; The Lord shall OPEN TO YOU HIS GOOD TREASURY...(storehouses) EVEN THE HEAVENS...(miracles, healings, favor, finances, etc) to give the rain of your land in its season and bless all the work of your hands; And you shall lend to many nations and you shall not borrow. And the Lord shall make you the HEAD, and not the tail,(the part that leads and not follows) and you shall be ABOVE ONLY, and you shall not be beneath...

THIS IS WHAT IT LOOKS LIKE TO HAVE THE EYE OF GOD ON YOU WITH AN OPEN HEAVEN!!

Anyways back to Jacob... Lets look at what happened to Jacob in just a few short chapters from Genesis 28. Between Genesis 28 and Genesis 32 we find that Jacob has been under the strong oppressive hand of his father in law Laban and after approximately 14 years is now leaving that country with his family servant's cattle sheep goats and possessions.

Genesis 31:55-32:2
And early in the morning Laban rose up and kissed his grandchildren and his daughters and pronounced a blessing on them. Then Laban departed and returned to his home. Immediately Jacob went on his way, and God's angels met him. When Jacob saw them, he said, "This is God's army"! So he named that place "Mahanaim" or "Two Armies"

What's this? The angels of God are now appearing to Jacob in a Physical form!!

Again we see in Song of Solomon 6:13 that "Mahanaim" is referred to as a dance before two armies.

So Jacob went from dreaming about the angels of God in Genesis 28 to Physically seeing and dancing with them in Genesis 32!

How many want to dance with the angels of God physically. Jacob did!!

Growing in spiritual maturity is often marked with great increase in spiritual reality. When Jacob was younger in the Lord he dreamed about angels. Now older and more mature in the Lord Jacob encounters them in the natural as friends and help from heaven and he dances with them.

Many are in the season of rapid growth and change and are beginning to experience powerful visitations of the Lord. Many have been in extended seasons of being tried and tested in the "fires of affliction" and are coming out of their "desert experiences" only to find that much like Jacob they've been prepared by the Lord for power ministry and prophetic encounters from heaven.

Two Angels with Silver Trumpets

I recently had a powerful experience that had brought great increase into my life. Six weeks ago I was awaken at 11:22p.m.in the evening by the blast of a loud trumpet. Standing in front of me were two angels each having silver trumpets. The angel on my left blew the first trumpet in my left ear which initially awoke me. I lay on bed trembling from the powerful presence of God. Even though my eyes were closed and I could not open them I still saw everything as though my eyes were wide open.

The angel on my right began to blow his trumpet in my right ear and a physical "Hot" wind entered my ear and went deep into my spirit. Immediately I began lifting up off of my bed and went through the roof and above my house. We went past the stars and what seemed like through the atmosphere into a place or a room in heaven called the "the Room of Intercession".

This was a physical experience!! The Spirit of God was vibrating through me in this room and I was hearing worship coming out of my mouth. "You are so beautiful" You are so worthy. You are some holy... The sound was beautiful and powerful. At one point I realized there were two voices coming out of my mouth. mine and the Lords. These angels were still with me. Again I reiterate this experience was physical best to my recollection. Like Paul whether I was in the body or out of the body I don't know. But it seemed completely physical to me. This encounter lasted for quite some time and into the next day.

When talking with Bob Jones about the experience he said this same thing happened to him when he was about 9 years old in Arkansas. While walking down a country road by his house between two corn fields a man on a white horse rode up to Bob and stopped in front of him. Bob said this man pulled out a "silver trumpet" and blew it in his face and then proceeded to tell him God had called him to be a prophet to the nations! The man said his name was "Gabriel"!

Bob asked me if I knew who he was. I said I think I have a pretty good idea. I don't know if it was Gabriel or not standing before me blowing a silver trumpet in my face at 11:22 p.m. that Saturday evening. But I do know that from that time on the revelation I've been walking in has been unmatched in my experience as well as the miracles healings and works of power. There was a clear increase in power and authority that came as a direct result of this "Physical Visitation"

I was awaken at 11:22p.m. Psalm 112:2 says; "His offspring shall be mighty upon the earth; the generation of the upright shall be blessed".

Joel 2:22 says; "Be not afraid, you wild beasts of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness have sprung up and are GREEN; the tree bears its fruit, and the fig tree and the VINE YIELD THEIR FULL STRENGTH!

The Lord is now releasing a tried proven GREEN people who are coming out of the wilderness, out of the pastures of Psalm 23 haven been lying down in GREEN pastures. Their heads are anointed with fresh GREEN OIL and are coming out of their wilderness places YIELDING THEIR FULL STRENGTH!!

This corporate anointed body of overcoming believers will do all of the great exploits of the Kingdom of God. Like Joshua and Caleb they are of "another Spirit" and they will not forget the awesome and miraculous works of the Lord.

It's this Joshua type individual that will stand at the crest of Jordan and God will magnify them in the sight of all the people like He did with Moses. The command will come from them and the Lord will cause the Jordan to open up so the people can pass through on dry ground. These individuals had learned the necessity of "lingering in the presence of God" like both Joshua son of Nun did (Exodus 33:11) and Samuel the young boy in 1 Samuel 3.

These individual have learned that the wilderness place is a place set by God for the Lord to download Himself into them. It's here that all kinds of powerful visitations come as well as the increases in power and understanding. It's here that heaven and earth begin to dance together for the purposes of God to be fulfilled. This is where Mahanaim begins!

Major Paradigm Shift

Julie Volby

September 6, 2005

On August 7, 2005 I was at a gathering of like-minded brothers and sisters in Christ. At the end of our time together, I heard the Lord speak repeatedly to my heart, “Major shift at the end of August.” In the days following I was led to share this with a few trusted friends. I continued to pray upon this and ask the Lord to reveal what this entailed. On August 28, 2005 (the day before Hurricane Katrina hit the Gulf Cost) I awoke to hear the Lord simply say, “It is a paradigm shift.” I realized that He was providing another clue to the words He spoke earlier in the month. Putting the two pieces together, it was revealed that the MAJOR shift that was to take place was a MAJOR PARADIGM SHIFT. As the ‘end of August’ transpired, Hurricane Katrina’s powerful winds and rains passed through part of America, perhaps as a catalyst used to usher in this major paradigm shift.

As I pondered what this paradigm shift might entail, I was led to look up the word paradigm. In a simple form, it means ‘pattern’. I also looked up the word shift. It means a ‘change in direction or a change in emphasis, judgment, or attitude’. Putting this together, it would more clearly mean that the Lord was calling for a major change in the pattern or direction of our emphasis, judgment or attitude.

As the first week of Hurricane Katrina and her aftermath transpired, I continued to wait on the Lord for clarity and direction. As news spread quickly, it became apparent that all manner of survival took place. Some thanked God for keeping them alive, while others said God was the one who sent judgment. Some looked to others to be saved, while others cursed one another for not being there when they needed them. Whatever the case, behind the scenes, the major paradigm shift was beginning to take place within the heart of a Nation.

Through the gathering of prophetic voices on the Internet a myriad of words, prophecies and warnings came forth. One could only wonder what the Lord was trying to say through it all. Some had accurately predicted that this big hurricane was eminent, but many lacked further insight to bring what they saw to a conclusion. In my observations, it would seem that many people have a misunderstanding of the prophetic gift to see and hear. Unfortunately, many still rely on the spiritual seeing and hearing ability of others to tell them what God is saying, instead of going to God directly themselves. This is not to say that there are not those actually called to specifically share what they see and hear from the Lord in the office of the Prophet. It is more a call to open our own eyes to what the Lord would define a true New Testament Prophet to be. I believe John the Baptist was the best example of this. However, Jesus pointed out the following in Luke 7.

Luke 7:28 – “For I say to you, among those born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist; but he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.”

John the Baptist’s ministry was to call people to REPENT or think differently. He did this by proclaiming that the Lamb of God was available to man today. All of his exhortations called people into a direct accountability to God and always pointed to Jesus as the only way to escape the realm of sin and unbelief, which caused great suffering. He was sent to ‘make straight the way of the Lord’. He did this by speaking words of truth inspired by the Holy Spirit. These words had the power to cut through a man’s soul and stir the spirit within to respond to a Holy God.

John released these words through a deep love of the Lord and men. His example should be a guidepost when testing all words of prophecy, which 1 Thessalonians 5:21 exhorts us to do saying, “TEST ALL THINGS; HOLD FAST WHAT IS GOOD.” Revelation 19:10 is also very clear to reveal that a true prophetic word will always testify of JESUS, rather than stir up the flesh into realms of pride and fear, rooted in unbelief. Jesus warned us of those who would come with ear tickling words in John 7.

John 7:15-16 – “Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. You will know them by their fruit.”

How did Jesus say we would know a true prophet from a false one? We will know them simply BY THEIR FRUIT! He goes on to say that a good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit. I cannot emphasize enough that a true prophet is not known BY HIS ACCURACY ONLY!!! To recognize someone as a prophet by his or her accuracy is not only not Biblical, but also highly dangerous as Jesus described false prophets as ‘ravenous wolves’. A true prophet of God will exhibit true FRUIT, which is SPIRITUAL as described in Galatians 5:22-23 (love, joy, peace, patience, etc.). While accuracy is important, ACCURACY ALONE does not prove anything. A very clear example of this can be found in Acts 16 where a slave girl possessed with a spirit of divination gave an accurate description of Paul and Silas while following them around. Paul discerned that though this was an accurate word, it left him disturbed, troubled, and annoyed. It was evident that the fruit of the speaker was not good, so he cast the spirit of divination out of her. This is a very clear example of accuracy without fruit. Even fortunetellers and soothsayers can give an ‘accurate prediction’, but it is not rooted in the Truth and inevitably brings glory to MAN or SELF, rather than GOD.

The reason I have addressed this subject of discerning true prophecy from false is because I believe we have only entered into the beginning of sorrows. As world events continue to unfold, it will become more and more important that we know the Lord Himself and by knowing Him more are able to discern His words of wisdom, truth, righteousness, and peace measured against the truth of His Word and the inner witness of the Holy Spirit. For as Jesus said, “Man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.”

Jeremiah 23 provides further insight in discerning between those who speak out of their own heart and those who have truly stood in the counsel of God.

Jeremiah 23:21-22
21 “I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran. I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. 22 But if they had stood in My counsel, and had caused My people to hear my Words, then they would have turned them from their evil way and from the evil of their doings.”

IT IS TIME FOR THE TRUE PROPHETS OF GOD TO SPEAK FORTH WHAT IS IN HIS HEART. The marked outcome of their words will be a literal and visible change of heart of those they are sent to. THE TIME FOR CHANGE MUST BEGIN NOW! I sense that not only is the Nation (physically and spiritually) being called to REPENT, but even more so the CHURCH or those who call themselves a Christian. To whom much is given, much is required. This is not only a call to turn away from sin, but it is a call to THINK DIFFERENTLY. God is calling us to SEE the value of LIFE and each day we are given as a precious gift. We must begin to think beyond the realm of self and see GOD AS HE IS and not who we think He is or want Him to be.

The Lord gave me the following Scripture that pertains to this major paradigm shift.

1 John 3:2
Beloved, NOW we are the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be; but we know that, when HE SHALL APPEAR, we shall BE LIKE HIM; for we shall SEE HIM AS HE IS.

One can view this latest tragedy as God’s judgment for a Nation’s sin. However, this perspective is based in an Old Testament understanding. The New Testament or New Covenant that Jesus personally made with His own shed blood would state the full judgment for man's sin was poured out upon the Son of God over 2000 years ago at Calvary. Contrary to the deception of the carnal mind, Jesus' sacrifice was full and complete. We must rise up above the realm of condemnation and fully begin WALKING IN THE SPIRIT! Those who deny the free gift of Salvation already stand judged by God, so to continue to blame the sin of those already judged is redundant. The questions then remains, is this really judgment? It depends on your use of the word 'judgment'. If you are thinking of judgment in terms of a crisis, then you are correct. Have we not walked long enough with the Lord to realize that it is THROUGH MUCH TRIBULATION that we enter into the Kingdom of God?

I believe any trial in life is allowed to change a person's perspective. Whether it is a daily battle in every day life or a tragedy in the life of a Nation. I believe the Lord is calling each one of us to get our eyes off worldly pleasures and ourselves and to instead fix our eyes on Him, so that we might reach out to others with His love and compassion. This is not the time to point fingers, accuse and blame, but is instead an opportunity to make great changes in our personal lives and in the way we look at and serve others. I do not believe it is by chance that the people outwardly affected most by this disaster were those who are many times overlooked and forgotten including the weak, the sick, the elderly, the poor, and a people whose ancestors endured the atrocities of slavery. It is time for the true Bride of Christ to rise up and take action. We can no longer sit back and allow others in our midst to suffer. If we truly call ourselves by the Name of Jesus, we must allow Him to shift our thought patterns, that our focus would remain on Him, so we can effectively and efficiently serve others in His love. This can only be done through abiding in Him.

The Lord also spoke the following word to me concerning this season that has opened before us.

“Continue to rest My child for I come quickly as a thief in the night. You must keep your lamp filled with oil. OIL, OIL, OIL. Yes, OIL is very important in this next season. Oil is used to keep your vehicle moving. Those without oil will find themselves in want and the shortage will be great. But you shall never run dry as long as you stay connected to the Vine.”

Obviously, in this word, the Lord is speaking of oil representative of His Holy Spirit, which provides the anointing or power we need to carry out what the Lord has commissioned us to do. Too many times 'vehicles' or ministries have left their First Love in exchange for bigger crowds, more notoriety, and selfish desires. We are entering into a season that those who have disconnected themselves from the Vine, will soon find that they have been running on fumes. All of their striving will culminate in their engines burning out and their 'vehicle' will cease to move forward. They will find themselves once again in the Valley of Decision accountable to a Holy God. In God's mercy, we don't have to wait for another day to repent and turn back to God. TODAY we can choose Whom we will serve. Those who turn back to God will find an ever-flowing Well of Salvation and Fountain of Life from Whom they can draw strength from. Those who do not choose Life will suffer the consequences of their own decisions.

We are living in a time like no other. The true prophets of God are calling for CHANGE. They are calling upon the heartstrings of men and women, young and old, to turn towards a Holy God and receive His power from on High in a fresh way to fulfill the destiny He has placed within them. This destiny is simply to serve, to love, to show compassion and mercy, to simply be the Body of Christ Himself walking across the earth today. These are things that should strike a chord in their heart as they realize that the law is fulfilled in simply loving God and loving people. Matthew 7:21-23 reveals that it is not enough to prophesy, cast out demons, or do wonders in the Name of Jesus. Matthew 25 is very clear to reveal those who inherit the Kingdom of God are those who use the faith they are given to bring salvation, healing, comfort and restoration to a lost and dying world.

Matthew 25:34-40
34 Then the King will say to those on His right hand, 'Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: 35 for I was hungry and you gave Me food; I was thirsty and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger and you took Me in; 36 I was naked and you clothed Me; I was sick and you visited Me; I was in prison and you came to Me.'

37 "Then the righteous will answer Him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You drink? 38 When did we see You a stranger and take You in, or naked and clothe You? 39 Or when did we see You sick or in prison, and come to You? 40 And the King will answer and say to them, 'Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me.'

It is through Kingdom eyes that we see that it is time to turn away from self-preservation, rooted in fear and unbelief, and allow the work of the Cross to be fully manifested in our lives. We must see that our lives are not our own, but were bought with a price, that price being the precious and pure Blood of Jesus Christ. The finger pointing must stop. If we do not have love, we are nothing. As world events continue to unfold, it is only the Love of God that will remain. Paul states this very clearly in 1 Corinthians 13.

1 Corinthians 13:2-3
2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profits me nothing.

The pattern of our thinking must change and quickly. This hurricane is only one of many trials and tribulations to come in our Nation. If we are wise, we will perceive this as an opportunity to sink our roots in deeper, draw from the River of Living Water, roll up our sleeves and get to work. We must keep our lamps filled with oil. There is a great harvest that is yet to come and by coming into alignment with what God is doing in this hour, we will be better prepared and positioned for what is ahead. We are accountable to God for the knowledge we have TODAY. We cannot waste time worrying about tomorrow. We must enter into and remain in His rest in order to live in the realm of Present Day Truth. The Holy Spirit must be our leader and guide. By abiding in Him, He will reveal all we need to know as things continue to unfold.

Making Room

Making Room: A Revelation of the Church"
by Victoria & Cassandra Boyson

Last week, as I was taking down my Christmas tree, the Lord kept talking to me about His body -- the Church; that's us! He kept pouring information into me while I tore it apart -- the tree of course, not the Church.

WE NEED EACH OTHER

He said that we need to trust each other more and learn to work together, correct each other in love, and not make idols out of each other. And pastors and church leaders need to rely more on the intercessors and prophets; they need to spend more time raising them up and encouraging them.
He said, "They've got to learn to work together and enhance one another, because they will need each other in the days ahead."

He continued, "My prophets and intercessors need to stop being so afraid of those in authority over them. They are sent to serve the Church and they need to get to know the leaders, and to love and appreciate them. They need to become the pastor's support team, not his critics! They need to encourage him, as they are encouraged by him. Yes, they need to warn him of dangers, but only after they have established a trustworthy relationship built on mutual respect and love. They need to allow themselves to be corrected when it is needed, but the correction must be brought in love and in appreciation for that person."

The church leaders need to appreciate their intercessors more, because the intercessors are the backbone of the church. They need to be thanked and often, because its often a very thankless position. They can often feel like they have no place in the body and they need a place to belong. The enemy attacks the intercessors hard because he knows their position is vital. They are usually very sensitive and need your protection, sensitivity, and respect.

In the days ahead, we must learn to value our prayer support even more than our financial support; that is how vital their intercession will become to us. We need their prayers to accomplish what God asked us to do. We simply cannot do it without them.

OH, THAT CHRISTMAS TREE!

As God was cramming all this into my head, I was agreeing with Him while I crammed the branches of my tree into its box.

I looked at the jumbled mess of my tree, and I said, "Lord, how am I gonna get all of these branches into the box?"

"You'll have to smoosh them," He answered.

Then it hit me . . .

My beautiful tree, that I got at Wal-Mart (an American department store) for the bargain price of $19.94 several years ago, was representative of the Church.

Every Christmas, my family and I take out the box and assemble our tree. We take this jobbled mess out of its box and follow the instructions, bigger branches on the bottom, smaller above them, and finally the tree top. When its blended all together it is quite like a real tree (well almost, there's nothing like a real tree).

We pull out our ornaments that have been in our family for years. Everyone has a favorite: the ceramic nativity with mother and child, the paper framed picture of my husband as a small child, and the crocheted Christmas wreath my Grandma made when I was a young girl.

However, our tree only gets decorated once a year to celebrate Christ's birth. For the other eleven months out of the year, it is crammed into a much too small box. The branches that were once positioned perfectly, are now twisted and smooshed to make room for each other.

MAKING ROOM

I laugh when I think of what we (the Church) would sound like as the tree in my box. "Hey, you big ox, get off me!" "Pardon me, you little branch, I'm the all important tree top; make way for me!" What about the little branches that get stuck at the bottom? Don't you think they'd feel sorry for themselves in their humble position?

By the time I'm finished cramming it all into the box, none of the branches get any special attention apart from the rest of the tree. To get them all in, they have to get smooshed and make way for each other.

Now do you see where I'm going?

We need to make way for one another. None of us are more important than the other; we are all important in God's plan for His Church. We've got to learn to esteem each other as more important than ourselves and make room for each other. We are stuck with each other; we need each other. Our Father has made sure of that. If we don't make room for others, we are gonna get smooshed! If we try to "preserve" ourselves, we will wind up in a "jam."

He doesn't want us to be selfish and self-centered, only caring about ourselves, but caring about the other "branches" as well. He wants us to prefer one another. His greatest commandment to us isn't to have a big ministry, or lots of money, but He told us to "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself" (Luke 10:27). The golden rule is to do unto others as you'd have them do unto you . . . isn't it? If we all live by this rule, there will be no more selfishness in the Church.

ACTS' ANNOYANCE

My almost-15-year-old daughter, Cassandra, has been studying the book of Acts and has become quite annoyed by the fact that the Church today looks nothing like what it did then.

"Why aren't we sharing our stuff with each other, like they did? This is just awful," I heard her rant and rave.

She then quoted Acts 4:32-35 (NLT) to me at the peak of her annoyance, "All the believers were of one heart and mind, and they felt that what they owned was not their own; they shared everything they had. The Apostles gave powerful witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and God's great favor was upon them all. There was no poverty among them because people who owned land or houses sold them and brought the money to the Apostles to give to the others in need." This is the same child who took back some of her Christmas presents to send the money to the tsunami victims.

DIFFICULT DAYS AHEAD

Life is difficult and it's going to get more difficult in the days ahead. We must learn to work together. We all must have the same goal: to advance the kingdom of God. If one of us succeeds, we all succeed; their success belongs to the whole body. When we build up a brother or sister, we build up ourselves, for we are all one in Christ. We are certainly not in competition with each other. And if we were in a competition, according to scripture, those who serve the most "win."

In Revelation 12:11 it says, "And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life even when faced with death." This is Bible prophecy. It was not talking about the early church, but about us. This is predicting how we will act and how we will treat each other. We will not be selfish. We will not care so much about what happens to us, but we will give ourselves, and even our lives, for other's sake. While the rest of the world is becoming lovers of themselves, we will shine as we love others, not ourselves.

Envy, pride, and selfishness have no place in the body of Christ, or in our churches. In these last days we need each other. We need to support and exhort each other, encourage each other, and most of all, love each other. Love casts out fear and makes room for a brother or . . . a branch.

Let's not fear our brother taking our place. Let's give it to him!

Dear Father,

We repent of selfishness, envy, and pride. Please forgive us and change our hearts and minds to accommodate one another. Pull out all that is in us that would hinder us from esteeming each other. Put an axe to the roots of pride and selfishness in Your children, and make us one in You, Lord. In Jesus' name.

On a personal note:

I want to thank the spiritual fathers and mothers who are raising up the younger ministries and opening doors for them. May they be a blessing to you in return!

Love and blessings,

Moonlight and Love Songs

Priscilla Van Sutphin

Jan 11th , 2005
www.upstreamca.org

I heard this old song as I asked the Lord if there was anything He wanted to talk about…and went to see the lyrics but found first this site with this comment:

"You must remember this, a kiss is still a kiss". Your romance is Casablanca. A classic story of love in trying times, chock full of both cynicism and hope. You obviously believe in true love, but you're also constantly aware of practicality and societal expectations. That's not always fun, but at least it's realistic. Try not to let the Nazis get you down too much."
These are the song lyrics:

As Time Goes By
Dooley Wilson

This day and age we're living in
Gives cause for apprehension
With speed and new invention
And things like fourth dimension
Yet we get a trifle weary
With Mr. Einstein's theory
So we must get down to earth at times
Relax relieve the tension
And no matter what the progress
Or what may yet be proved
The simple facts of life are such
They cannot be removed

You must remember this, A kiss is still a kiss, A sigh is just a sigh
The fundamental things apply - As time goes by
And when two lovers woo, They still say, "I love you", On that you can rely
No matter what the future brings - As time goes by

Moonlight and love songs
Never out of date
Hearts full of passion
Jealousy and hate
Woman needs man
And man must have his mate
That no one can deny

Well, it's still the same old story
A fight for love and glory
A case of do or die
The world will always welcome lovers
As time goes by
Oh yes, the world will always welcome lovers

As time goes by

Now obviously this is a love song from Casablanca, but there are some things obvious to the discerning eye that God is saying even through this song. If our LOVER is Christ, then the fight for love and glory relates to our holding on to Him, and displaying HIM as ambassadors of peace in a fast changing world.

Then I asked the Lord what He wanted to say about this:

“Lives are being stirred to compassion now because of the tsunami and because of the pain and suffering they see. When you are exposed to great suffering and grief, then compassion is stirred for those whose hearts are still alive and not dead. People pray more, people give more, realizing their own vulnerability to be in the same place.

My compassions are new every morning. I am constantly stirred and not occasionally by the cries of those in bondage and prison houses. Some are in spiritual prisons, some are in prisons of their own making. Some are in prisons of their imagination. All causes great pain. That pain causing them to groan and cry out to help. Some cry out to ME knowing Me. Some cry out to a god they think they know, but who is not a god at all, but only a demonic force. Either way they are searching and when hearts are searching they are open to hear the TRUTH.

I AM THE WAY , THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE. Now is the time for speaking the truth in love and seeing great fruit come forth from stretching forth your hands to pray and to help those in pain. In the streets of EVERY city on the earth are the poor, the lame, the blind and the deaf. The crippled are there. The broken are there. The gates are opening and You are My ambassadors. NO longer do I want you to be my ambassadors in CHAINS ! – Chained by fear, chained by traditionalism, chained by false teachings and delusion, pride and arrogance. I want no more CHAINS on My people. I will BREAK the chains of bondage to the enemy and set My people free. I am breaking down walls of deception ! I am breaking down barriers of jealousy and pride ! I am breaking down walls of separation and division.
I am GOD and there is none like ME ! The whole earth will be filled with MY GLORY !”

Isa 45:2-8 NKJV
2 'I will go before you and make the crooked places straight; I will break in pieces the gates of bronze and cut the bars of iron. 3 I will give you the treasures of darkness and hidden riches of secret places, That you may know that I, the LORD, Who call you by your name, Am the God of Israel.
4 For Jacob My servant's sake, and Israel My elect, I have even called you by your name; I have named you, though you have not known Me. 5 I am the LORD, and there is no other; There is no God besides Me. I will gird you, though you have not known Me,
6 That they may know from the rising of the sun to its setting That there is none besides Me. I am the LORD, and there is no other; 7 I form the light and create darkness, I make peace and create calamity; I, the LORD, do all these things.' 8 "Rain down, you heavens, from above, And let the skies pour down righteousness; Let the earth open, let them bring forth salvation, And let righteousness spring up together. I, the LORD, have created it.

Ps 72:2 NKJV He will judge Your people with righteousness, and Your poor with justice.

Ps 98:4-8 NKJV Shout joyfully to the LORD, all the earth; Break forth in song, rejoice, and sing praises. 5 Sing to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and the sound of a psalm, 6 With trumpets and the sound of a horn;
Shout joyfully before the LORD, the King. 7 Let the sea roar, and all its fullness, The world and those who dwell in it; 8 Let the rivers clap their hands; Let the hills be joyful together before the LORD,

Isa 42:3-4 NKJV A bruised reed He will not break, And smoking flax He will not quench; He will bring forth justice for truth. 4 He will not fail nor be discouraged, Till He has established justice in the earth; And the coastlands shall wait for His law."

“ When My glory is poured out, it will cause a breaking in the hardest of hearts and all the earth will know it is ME ! They will not be able to hide from My arrows pursuing them. My arrows will be like heat seeking missiles.

I will wrestle with man and I will prevail ! But I will not break the one who is bruised and broken. Instead they will for once in their lives feel the true love of their FATHER, and they will be changed.

Will you be My LOVE AMBASSADORS ? For I am looking for those who want to be LIKE ME . I am looking for a few good men and women, boys and girls who are willing to pay the cost for a revolution of worldwide proportions! My yoke is easy and My burden is light so you will not have to strive. The awakening you have prayed for will come. It will come amidst all the confusion and turmoil, but MY VOICE will sound above al the mighty waters. My voice will be heard amidst the quiet spaces and the dark caverns of the earth. NO matter where man runs he will run into ME.

For I am a jealous GOD and I will have no other gods before ME. All that is wood, hay, and stubble will burn. All that is meant for glory will be burned by the fire of MY LOVE, and transformed by My grace. Come and buy from ME, gold refined in the fire ! I am your LOVING FATHER. I run to you, so don’t run away from ME…just come to ME, and I will do the changing. Lay down all your self sufficiency and rely on ME to see you through. I tell you the truth; YOU MUST LEARN TO LEAN on your Beloved if you want to get through this time. If you want to overcome, LEAN ON ME. For I love you as no other loves you. I will not betray your trust. I am FAITHFUL ! I am the FAITHFUL ONE. I will NOT leave you nor forsake you NO MATTER WHAT. YOU ARE MINE, and I AM YOURS. Do not disdain My presence. Come to ME and breathe in My life ! It is yours for the taking !”

Lions Tigers Bears

Dan 5:21 NKJV Then he was driven from the sons of men, his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. They fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and appoints over it whomever He chooses.

I heard the Lord say when asked if He wanted to speak about anything, "Lions and Tigers and Bears". This seemed nursery rhymish from something I remember reading a long time ago. Then he led me to the above scriptures.

This last year there were many bizarre newspaper articles about lions and people, and wild animals, and birds…like 10,000 that dropped from the skies dead in China. There was a man who tried to "convert" a lion by climbing into the lion pit at a zoo and got mauled. Also there was much increase in pestilence. Many of these articles were signs.

http://www.plusnews.org/webspecials/Locust/default.asp

So then I asked the Lord what He wanted to say about all this:

" In all this you are seeing the fruit of what has been sown. I have given man dominion over all the things of the earth. Not for destruction, but for food, for work, for every good thing. Over the years man has become himself, like the wild beasts of the earth, only those infected with rabies or other disease. Instead of only destroying what is necessary for needed food, or clothing, he has gotten greedy and full of avarice and complacency. He thinks only of himself.

Now, unlike the wild beasts who must even bow down to me, he refuses to bow down. David said, " I am like a beast before You". Yet man who has become worse in his rebellion towards Me, will not bow to My name. They mock and disdain My name. So I am showing you in many ways in this season which is soon coming to a close, that I am indeed the God most high. And man who has lowered himself lower than even the beasts of the earth, will have to bow to ME ! Every knee will bow ! If it takes devastation, it is not because of ME. It is because of the laws of reaping and sowing. If you bite and devour one another, will you also not be bitten and devoured ? If you sow love and kindness, and grace, you will receive, love, and kindness and grace.

Why are you startled at the news ? Have you not known ? Have you not seen ? Have you not been told from the beginning the course of the times ?

Am I a man that I should lie or the son of man, that I should change my mind? Man still thinks he is in control, but he will see that I alone am in control. He in his selfishness has built a god he wants. But I am not that god. I will not be dictated by man who I must be. I love you, but I am not to be molded by you into an image you seek, but rather, I am the master craftsman, and man and my church will be molded into what I WANT THEM to be !"

Isa 26:9 AMP   My soul yearns for You [O Lord] in the night, yes, my spirit within me seeks You earnestly; for [only] when Your judgments are in the earth will the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness (uprightness and right standing with God).

"The situations in the world will become more and more agitated and more severe in consequence. I am telling you not to fear, for I will hide in the shadow of My wings, those who trust in ME. Think not upon your own life, for surely many have lost their lives in service to My name and because of their faith in Me. Changes are escalating I have told you. So prepare your hearts for change and be obedient to My leading. Sit at My feet awhile and allow ME to bless you and fill you with My presence more. I want you STRONG as the horse in battle. Do not be surprised at the demise of the wicked schemes of men. They have their plans, but I have Mine ! And My will, WILL be done in the world. Every system will fall. Every time disaster happens, your heart will break, but be in synch with Mine, more and more.

I am bringing HARVEST. Will YOU open your hearts and hands to help those around you ? Will you DIE to SELF enough to think of someone else more highly than you ? Will you have the courage to put others before yourself ?

I'm testing and trying you now, but it will bring forth MUCH FRUIT as I prune My branches all over the world. I will have a holy and fruitful church who will no longer put themselves first.

The homeless will increase. The lawlessness is increasing. Will you stand idly by and apathetic, or will you fight for those who cannot fight for themselves ? Will you enlist yourself in My army ? Or will you go AWOL only thinking of your own skin ? I need more than a few good men and women for this task. There will be no NEED to compete. There is MUCH to be done, and many will be overwhelmed at the numbers of fish that will come swimming into port ! It will be like a tsunami and like a tsunami, will come unexpectedly and powerfully upon the scene. Get your nets ready ! Sharpen your knives for the cleaning of the fish ! Prepare the vats of oil and the salt for purifying. READ THE WORD. Soak in My presence. I will fill you up to the full with My presence so you will be able to withstand all the opposition of the enemy ! He will not be able to stop what is coming, but he will try to cause fear and confusion to reign. Hold on to the intimacy you have with Me, if you want to survive. For he has loosed His end times army as well. STAY close at the side of the LOVER of your soul ! Keep communion with ME, and you will be safe in the shadow of My wings. I love you and cherish you and will do mighty things through you as you put ALL your faith in ME."

Dan 7:2-8 AMP Daniel said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of the heavens [political and social agitations] were stirring up the great sea [the nations of the world].

[Note from Pris: In other places the four winds refer to angels or spirits.]

3 And four great beasts came up out of the sea in succession, and different from one another.

4 The first [the Babylonian empire under Nebuchadnezzar] was like a lion and had eagle's wings. I looked till the wings of it were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand upon two feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it. [Dan 2:37,38.]

5 And behold another beast, a second one [the Medo-Persian empire], was like a bear, and it raised up itself on one side [or one dominion] and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth; and it was told, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I looked, and behold, another [the Grecian empire of Alexander the Great], like a leopard which had four wings of a bird on its back. The beast had also four heads [Alexander's generals, his successors], and dominion was given to it. [Dan 2:39; 8:20-22.]

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast [the Roman empire]--terrible, powerful and dreadful, and exceedingly strong. And it had great iron teeth; it devoured and crushed and trampled what was left with its feet. And it was different from all the beasts that came before it, and it had ten horns [symbolizing ten kings]. [Dan 2:40-43; 7:23.]

Ezek 38:22-23 NKJV And I will bring him to judgment with pestilence and bloodshed; I will rain down on him, on his troops, and on the many peoples who are with him, flooding rain, great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. 23 Thus I will magnify Myself and sanctify Myself, and I will be known in the eyes of many nations. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.'"

“Many are worried now about finances. They can see the rumblings in the world and the signs of the times. I AM the RESOURCE of everything you need. I am NOT the harsh taskmaster. But I am stretching many of you in faith for the days ahead are perilous and not times of plenty for most. Any wealth now will be for sharing with the poor, not for selfish ambition.

I AM the God Who keeps you alive in famine. I AM the ONE who provides escapes from death. I AM the ONE Who will give you all the wisdom you need for the times ahead if you will but seek My face and not just My hand.

Truly I tell you that this generation will not pass away before seeing the coming of Christ again in the heavens. Be like the WISE VIRGINS. Store up oil, not gold and silver, though many will be able to do that whom I can trust with finances to help others. The MOST important thing is to spend time with Me so I can prepare you for all that is ahead.

GREAT exploits are ahead for all who love Me and obey Me. When the enemy comes in like a FLOOD, and He has come like a flood of many waters.

I WILL RAISE UP A STANDARD AGAINST HIM I SAID ! You are that standard ! Think upon what that means. Think how you must be made the strong horse in battle so you can be effective and what that must take .

The antichrist is at hand and you are not worried about the right things.

Souls hang in the balance and unbelief is RAMPANT in the world and in My church. I am turning the tables on the ungodly and in that process ALL will be affected. Do not be ignorant. I have told these things to you ahead of time. You only have a few years before all will crumble.

There is a judgment for every SYSTEM of man that has exalted itself against ME. Man will learn what is important, in most cases the hard way, for many have become stubborn and mockery is strong. Where is the day of His coming many say in My OWN church, because they do not have true relationship with ME. They think life will go on and on blithely believing in self sufficiency and not realizing I AM AT HAND ! THEY WILL recognize soon enough. It is not my desire to see judgment. I am NOT a God of destruction but of restoration and LIFE and LOVE. THAT is the message you must carry as you go about your daily life now.

LOOK and ask each day “ who can I touch today Father ?” And I will show you. Do not look for the easy way. Take up your cross and walk ! Do not think that awakening will not come at a cost. The rains are pouring out – you’ve asked for rain in the time of the latter rains, and it is coming. Every eye shall see, every knee shall bow to Jesus ! Be courageous ! Do not be afraid to speak for ME. Be bold and do not flinch at their mockery ! Do not be afraid of their faces.

For behold I send you to a rebellious house ! They are thinking of glory and praying for revival, but they have not the knowledge of the fullness of what I AM about to do ! Be sensitive to the still small voice of the Holy Spirit.

Do not ignore His promptings. It is time to be DEPENDENT on Him for what to do , where to go, who to minister to, and who NOT to minister to ! The enemy will try to get you so busy that you will not have time for ME. But all ministry must come out of your intimacy with ME. If you do not stay intimate with ME, then you will be prone to the spirit of this hour, of delusion and deception and rebellion. Stay close and take communion often.

Pray for your families and friends you know. SPEAK THE WORD with confidence in MY ABILITY TO PERFORM IT !

I love you My bride, My own, My beloveds. Your eyes will behold much turmoil and violence in the days ahead. So keep your private place in ME and do not turn away from the haven I AM in such a storm of turbulence and havoc. The enemy means to bring havoc but you will show the world what PEACE is amidst the turmoil. You will show them life by RAISING THE DEAD TO LIFE ! You will show them LOVE by pouring out MY compassion on the lost. I will give you the discernment when someone is not true. You will not want to minister to them, because of the evil in them. But many others will be plucked out of the evil darkness and be flooded with My light and proclaim the gospel to others like them. So LOOK to ME. Do not try to judge on your own. ASK and you shall receive. Knock and the door will be opened.

I AM YOUR REDEEMER and SAVIOR ! I will see you through. I AM EMMANUEL – GOD WITH YOU. I will be with you in the fire and in every situation you go through. Cling to ME, and the enemy will FLEE !

I love you and will uphold you with My righteous right hand.”

Isa 43:2-7 NKJV When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow you. When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned, nor shall the flame scorch you. 3 For I am the LORD your God, The Holy One of Israel, your Savior; I gave Egypt for your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in your place. 4 Since you were precious in My sight, You have been honored, and I have loved you; Therefore I will give men for you, and people for your life. 5 Fear not, for I am with you; I will bring your descendants from the east, and gather you from the west;

6 I will say to the north, 'Give them up!' And to the south, 'Do not keep them back!' Bring My sons from afar, and My daughters from the ends of the earth — 7 Everyone who is called by My name, Whom I have created for My glory; I have formed him, yes, I have made him."

Ps 33:18-19 NKJV Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear Him,

On those who hope in His mercy, 19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

Ps 37:18-20 NKJV The LORD knows the days of the upright, and their inheritance shall be forever. 19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time, and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied. 20 But the wicked shall perish; And the enemies of the LORD, Like the splendor of the meadows, shall vanish. Into smoke they shall vanish away.

Ezek 37:9-10 NKJV Also He said to me, "Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, son of man, and say to the breath, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live."'" 10 So I prophesied as He commanded me, and breath came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, an exceedingly great army.

Dan 7:2-7 NKJV Daniel spoke, saying, "I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the Great Sea. 3 And four great beasts came up from the sea, each different from the other. 4 The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings. I watched till its wings were plucked off; and it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand on two feet like a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 "And suddenly another beast, a second, like a bear. It was raised up on one side, and had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. And they said thus to it: 'Arise, devour much flesh!'

6 "After this I looked, and there was another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird. The beast also had four heads, and dominion was given to it.

7 "After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, exceedingly strong. It had huge iron teeth; it was devouring, breaking in pieces, and trampling the residue with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns.

Dan 7:17-18 NKJV 'Those great beasts, which are four, are four kings which arise out of the earth. 18 But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.'

Ps 65:4-13 NKJV Blessed is the man You choose, and cause to approach You, That he may dwell in Your courts. We shall be satisfied with the goodness of Your house, of Your holy temple.

5 By awesome deeds in righteousness You will answer us, O God of our salvation, You who are the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of the far-off seas; 6 Who established the mountains by His strength, Being clothed with power; 7 You who still the noise of the seas, The noise of their waves, And the tumult of the peoples. 8 They also who dwell in the farthest parts are afraid of Your signs; You make the outgoings of the morning and evening rejoice.

9 You visit the earth and water it, You greatly enrich it; The river of God is full of water; You provide their grain, for so You have prepared it. 10 You water its ridges abundantly, You settle its furrows; You make it soft with showers, You bless its growth.

11 You crown the year with Your goodness, and Your paths drip with abundance. 12 They drop on the pastures of the wilderness, and the little hills rejoice on every side. 13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; The valleys also are covered with grain; They shout for joy, they also sing.

In another article, Lessons from the Duck Yard, I stated that the Lord's program for the end times can be found summarized in Isaiah chapter 1:24-28

> 24.Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:
>
> 25. And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:
>
> 26. And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city.
> 27. Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.
> 28. And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed (Isaiah 1:24-28).

This passage is in deed, a short summary of the Lords program for the end times. It includes purifying the Church, converting the lost, vengeance on the enemy, and destruction of the sinners.

I have found another short summary, even shorter than the above one, that has some interesting features I'll share with you. It is Mathew 9:1 , where speaking of Jesus, it states: "And he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city."

Each part of this verse answers to a phase of the end times, and also corresponds to one of the three major feasts of the Lord. These are Tabernacles, Passover and Pentecost.

Now this is one of those insights that come all at once in a flash in inspiration. In order for that to happen, The Lord has to lay a lot of foundation.

Let's take the third part first. He came into his own city. In this case the reference to the New Jerusalem which the prophet John saw coming down from Heaven as a bride prepared for her husband. Thus the City is the Bride! So entering the city is the same and celebrating the Marriage Supper of the Lamb. This of course is at the end of Revelation. The marriage is the fulfillment of the marriage covenant, God's covenant and promise to his people. This corresponds with pentecost because it was on pentecost, after the children of Israel came out of Egypt, that God gave them the Law on Mt. Sinai. And it was on pentecost, after Jesus resurrection, that God gave the Holy Spirit to the Church. So pentecost is linked with the covenant. The covenant is a marriage covenant. And fulfillment of that covenant comes at the marriage supper, after Jesus Second Coming. All this is contained in the phrase: and came into his own city."

The second part, passover, speaks of the Second Coming. The Key features are the Lord's judgment upon satanic powers, darkness coming upon the land and the resurrection.

Judgment

a. At the first passover, the Lord slew the firstborn of Egypt, and he also judged their "gods".
b. At the passover, when Jesus laid down his life, He told us, the prince of this world is judged.
c. When the Lord returns in his glory at the second coming, He will first bring judgment on the heavenly powers.

Darkness

a. When the Lord slew the firstborn of Egypt and judged their gods, he went out at midnight.
b. When Jesus was crucified, darkness fell upon the land from the 6th to the 9th hour.

c. When the Lord comes again in his glory, the sun will turn black and the moon will not shine.

Resurrection

a. The people of God coming out of Egypt and passing through the Red Sea is a type of resurrection.
b. Jesus own resurrection and that of the old testament saints followed his death at passover.
c. When Jesus returns, the dead in Christ shall rise!

All of this is contained in the phrase: and passed over.

The first part, he entered into a ship, is connected with Tabernacles. Here are the key features of tabernacles:

On the Day of atonement, the High Priest entered the Holy of Holies to meet with the Lord. Thus that was when the Lord came to the temple!

On the first feast of tabernacles, Moses came down from Sinai the second time and had the people begin construction of the tabernacle of the Testimony. It was completed just prior to Passover.

On the 8th day of tabernacles, Hagaii gave his second prophecy, and the people began to build the second temple. It too was completed just prior to Passover.

On the 8th day of tabernacles, Jesus revealed himself to Israel, saying If any man thirst, let him come unto me….

What all this is saying it that the essence of tabernacles is God coming to the temple and revealing himself. The Temple is the Church. The Church is the Ship. All this is contained in the phrase: And he entered into a ship.

And he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city."

This is saying a: Jesus will come and reveal himself to the Church. This is the beginning of the Book of Revelation. Tabernacles

b. This starts a process [building His spiritual temple] that will culminate in the Second Coming, Revelation 19. Passover

c. The Lord's final aim is to be united with his Bride, Revelation 21. Pentecost.

Each of the three feasts have had partial fulfillment's in the past, in these last days, they will be completely fulfilled.

Marinating

Lanna Perry

1st July, 2005
Chosenwarriorprincess@yahoo.com.au
http://www.ourchurch.com/view/?pageID=216990

My precious children, I have called each of you to rest in Me. Many of you have been trying to begin going out about My business but have put the cart before the horse.

All ministry for Me, and being released in Me, springs out of your times with Me. Many of you are allowing yourselves to marinate in things that are not of Me. Many of you are stewing in your circumstances and stewing in your unbelief and issues. Many of you are remaining in a marinade that is NOT of Me.

I have called each of you to remain in My marinade. As you leave meat in marinade the marinade is able to soak through every part of the meat. The meat is TRANSFORMED in the marinade. The meat receives its flavour from the marinade in which it is bathed. It cannot be dunked into the marinade and pulled out and expect incredible transformation. The meat must remain in the marinade to receive what it was designed to receive. So it is with you My church.

I am calling My church to rise up and stand in holiness, yet how may My church stand up and be holy, if they are allowing themselves to remain in marinades not of Me? I am calling each of you to remain in Me, in My presence and My Word like never before. Saturate yourselves in Me.

To raise the standard in Me, and be a people that seek Me more than ever before. Not in a legalistic sense, for I am not a God who delights in bound legalism, but to enjoy being in My presence, and delight in remaining in My marinade more than ever before.

I long to shine My light to the world through each of you, but My light is dulled by active choices by My children to remain in things not of Me. Through wounds in your hearts and through sin, you become entangled in things not of Me, and remain in the marinade of this world and all it offers.

I have called each of you to be set apart. To be holy. To be different, not in your own strength, but through My Holy Spirit shining through each of you. My heart is to see each of you stand in Me, in holiness, confidence and freedom. I have called each of you to become more and more like Me. To allow My Spirit to bring transformation to your lives.

I cannot bring transformation to each of you if you are choosing to remain in marinades not of Me.

I am calling each of you, listen, quiet your hearts and listen to My gentle sweet voice calling you into the secret place. Over and over again I continue to speak this message to My church, because remaining in Me, coming deeper in Me, stepping away from things that are not of Me, is the foundation to all things in Me.

I long to know each of you more than you long to know Me. I call out to each of you more than you call out to Me. My love for each of you is greater than your love for Me. I long to spend time with each of you more than you long to spend time with Me.

Examine your hearts My church. Remove any things in your heart that are not of Me. Examine your hearts if you truly want to become more like Me, truly examine your hearts if you want to be released in Me, and truly examine your hearts if you truly want to know Me.

For if you do My church, you must remove yourselves from all other marinades and spend time more and more in the marinating presence of your God. Me, the Great I Am.

You will be transformed in My presence. I will shine brighter through you than ever before, and I will bring a flavour to your lives that you've never experienced. You will be saltier than ever before. Not because of your own strength or actions, there is nothing you can do apart from Me, but in Me, you can do all things. As you rest in Me, you will see Me increase in you, which will spark the hunger and thirst of all those around you more than ever before.

Do not try and do these things alone My church. Many of you are bathing in the marinade of your own strength, and you are not moving forward. The marinade of your own strength is filthy, and off. There is nothing good in the marinade of your own strength or the marinade of this world.

My Word says desire all heavenly and spiritual things, so desire Me. Turn your hearts from all other marinades and set your eyes upon Me, the Lord your God. Turn your hearts back from all other things.

Stop staying in other marinades because you are scared to move out. Stop staying in marinades not of Me because of comfort or fear. Step out, and actively trust Me. Trust Me that separating yourselves from all other marinades and placing yourselves more and more in My marinade will bring about life and life in abundance.

Actively choose to spend more time bathing in the marinade of My presence. Do not be deceived and led away anymore by the lusts, sins and desires of this world, and entangled by the evil one.

I am moving greatly in My body today, and preparing My church more than ever for My return. I am moving quickly, and I am longing to send out My army, so rise up My church. Listen to these words and choose to step away from all other things not of Me.

Do you really want to be holy church? If so, step away from all marinades that are like acids eating away at every part of you, and step into My marinade more than ever before.

May Day

Brenda Dowdin

Greetings Beloved Ones!

As I was in prayer this morning I heard the Lord saying, "It's May Day". Upon questioning him, this is what I sensed.....

"It is May Day, and I see my children crying out for help. Some need emotional needs met, some need helping hands, and feet that will run swiftly for them. Others, they just need a friend. Won't you lend yourself to someone this month, in some sort of significant way. I will anoint you afresh to help and be a friend. It's May Day and I see the cries upon the horizon!"

As I think back about "May Day's", in my past I think of making paper Mache baskets in grade school and filling them with flowers for my mother. I was always so proud of my flowers and couldn't wait to see the smile on my mother's face as she received my gift of love..... As I have journeyed with the Lord over the last few years He has spoken often to me about flowers, and how they represent friends. Having said that, May your garden grow with the most fragrant of flowers (friends) and May He deepen those friendships this month with helping hands, kind words and loving gifts that have His fragrance all over them.

Beloved, We need one another....John 13:34-35 "A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."...

Blessing with love, Brenda Dowdin

Making Bricks From Straw

Dave Hood

England

Ex 5:1-19

Whilst in prayer, my mind was called to the passage in Exodus, where the children of Israel were forced to gather their own material for making bricks for Pharaoh's building projects. It more or less meant that they had to make the same quota of bricks, having less materials and less time to make them in, due to the extra time needed to gather materials to match their need. This is what I believe the Lord will say and add to you now.

"I am the straw of your bricks."

He showed me that Jesus himself can be likened to a single straw of corn, standing alongside and himself rooted in the field and harvest of man.

"I am a single straw in your harvest; I have stood with you and faced the blowing in your wind. I have stood in your rain and your darkness of night and the dryness of your drought. I have known the bowing down of your head as you have faced and still face the onslaught of the elements. I have felt the burning upon you from your sky, even from the highest height and utmost heat as it has scorched you, where you lay and stand. I have felt the heat of the burning of the stubble at the scorching of man and sin, as you have lay cut in your fields. I too have felt and still feel when you have been trampled on, and pressed and squashed and threshed and winnowed at the hands of and underneath the feet of men. I to know what it is like to be torn apart and shredded, so that you do not resemble what you were before. I have known what you have known and you also know what I have known. They did it to me; they will do it and have done it to you. But what you do for the least of one of these my little ones, you do unto me, you do to me and is done for me. For me in my suffering, for me in my glory. For whenever and wherever you suffer for me, I suffer with you and my glory and my pride in you rest upon you and overshadow you."

"Despite the hardships of Pharaoh, I did not fail them THEN (Israel) and I will not fail you NOW, my children"

He showed me that God hardened Pharaohs heart to show Israel that it was not a man that set them free, not the world's man., but God and Gods man. God did it then He can and will do it now. The Pharaohs of this world cause us hardship so that we might be defeated and cease from Gods work. He does not want us to enter into Gods rest. But God in Jesus still has His rest for us. He is concerned about us and not just our work. For though the devil is angry, God uses it that we might find and enter into Gods rest for us and complete the work He has called forth in us to do. He continued…and He did so seeing us as a sturdy field of corn covering the heights and slopes of every valley and every viewpoint.

…“ I will add to your need. I will multiply. I will cause it gain and not loss, for I am your need and I am its gain. I am its source and I will rise again in your day and set again in your night. I will surpass every yield and cover every field. Every slope with the bounty of my field. My corn will be gathered and my corn will be ground and my storehouses will be full of my grain, grain for you and bread for the desolate, arid and barren world. I will crown my crop with the bounty of my grace and the mercy of my love”

“And where there is no straw, I will be your yield and I will be your field and your fullness and your harvest unto you. Fear not little flock, fear not little yet great field, it is the Fathers pleasure to give you the kingdom. And I will comfort, strengthen you and water you and your soil when they are in need… for not only are you my harvest, my yield and my field but you are also this to a hungry and thirsty world in the field of my Earth. I to am a God who hungers and thirsts for you, you, the Crop of My Heaven but also the Yield of My Son.” He continued…

…”In the midst of blight, in the midst of storm, in the midst of destruction, you are My Children. You are my Light and Bright seed in the midst of darkness. So rise, stand for me, and hold your heads up high, waving under the wind of my grace. Stand proud, stand tall shoulder to shoulder, let the full ear fall, let it all fall, let it all come my field, my corn from the tip of your ear to the root of your field. Come, come gather together, shoulder to shoulder, wave and sway in your unison, gather together in your ripeness as you display the field of my glory, the field of my love, lightening up the darkness and lightening up the night. Strength, strength, strength from Me, standing in My strength. I am your strength for My Love has been spent. I am your yield for you are My Field…and I, I am the Straw of Your Bricks”

Multi Continent Disaster

Elias Tan and Paul Ciniraj

Below is a reminder dated 22 September 2005 from Pastor Ciniraj of India about his prophesy of a multi-continental disaster on 31 March 2005, about 3 months after the Sumatra tsunami disaster on 26 December 2004. A prophesy of a few words but I respect this servant of God too much to ignore this prophesy and his humble request for us to pray and intercede for the nations of the world. Amen and Amen and Amen.

May I lay weight to the above reminder by relating two coming phenomena as revealed by God to me through TWO separate dreams on the same night of 22 September 2005. I cannot reveal the details of the TWO dreams but suffice for me to reveal the coming two phenomena:

1. Be ready to go through the fire of God where you stand a 50-50 chance of survival for I saw some perished while some survived as I waited for my turn to go through the fire with fear yet peace within my heart.

2. Be ready to see things that today we can never imagine can happen in our lives but after a dramatic intervention of God for I saw a palm tree flying at a great height during stormy weather.

I firmly believe 22 September 2005 is not a coincidence in our lives (Ciniraj and I) yet I also firmly believe that prayer changes things. ABBA bless your nation as we pray for another in unity for peace and prosperity world-wide. Malaysia shall be the Light of the World !!! Amen and Amen and Amen.

Dear precious saints of our Lord
How are you? We submit you and all of yourselves before the Lord our God and praying all times.

Our Lord who asked the Sea to calm, who delivered the devil possessed man from Legion, who bruised Satan's head by the Crucifixion, who saved all human beings from sin and death by the death and Resurrection will keep you and all of yours as well as me and all of ourselves (both spiritually and physically) in His Mighty Nailed hands and protect us from any kind of hurricanes, rains, storms or other disasters. We continuously praying. You too please pray without ceasing. Trust in Him without any doubt. Our Lord will not let His children be ashamed before the gentiles and the scoffers.

"Oh people of Zion, who live in Jerusalem, you will weep no more. How gracious He will be when you cry for help. As soon as he hears, he will answer you. Although the Lord gives you the bread of adversity and water of affliction, your Master will be hidden no more; with your own eyes you will see Him. Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way, walk in it" (Is 30:19-21).

I've posted the following "Multi Continental Disaster" on 31st March, 2005 at FreeRepublic by the guidance of the Holy Spirit. God is able to deliver us from every obstacles, if we pray without ceasing, for it is His promise. Tonight I'm attending a full night prayer service and will be remembering you all in the prayers. Also we do pray for all the nations to give us a total deliverance from any kind of spirit of Antichrist, wars, disasters, natural calamities, contagious diseases and other tragic events. Let each one of us humble ourselves and personally and continuously ask God as Abraham asked, "GOD THE ALMIGHTY FATHER, I WHO AM BUT DUST AND ASHES, LET NOT BE ANGRY TOWARDS ME, IF YOU SEE EVEN ONE RIGHTEOUS IN A PLACE, PLEASE...... PLEASE..... PLEASE...... DO NOT DESTROY THAT PLACE AND SAVE EACH AND EVERY ONE BY YOUR KINDNESS

THROUGH YOUR ONLY BEGOTTEN SON JESUS CHRIST WHO DID RANSOM FOR MANY BY THE HOLY SPIRIT. AMEN! AMEN!! AMEN!!"

Multi Continental Disaster

THE SALEM VOICE MINISTRIES ^ | 31st March, 2005 | Pastor Paul Ciniraj
Posted on 03/31/2005 6:00:27 PM PST by Paul Ciniraj

Praise the Father God Almighty for His everlasting love towards His children. Thousands of the precious children of God around the globe were fasting and praying against the warning of another big tragedy. It is because of your fasting and prayers, our Lord protected many nations and saved many lives from the earth quake which was happened in Sumatra the other day. Though it was 8.5 in the Richter Scale, our wonderful Lord did not allow to spread the killer waves out of it. We praise and thank God for answering our prayers and keeping His promises.

Yet I ask you to continue fasting and prayers that our Lord may protect all of the nations from terrible disasters. The Holy Spirit gives another warning about a multi continental disaster. Please I beg all of you to repent from all kinds of evil, wickedness and violence and turn towards God today itself. Our God showed a long patience towards us. Now He is not going to wait more. Don't delay to turn from evil. Everyday we pray, "THY KINGDOM COME !". It is very near. Before the Kingdom-warming He will wash and clean everywhere and arrange everything and make it beautiful according His plan. He began to do it. So please, please repent and turn towards God.

"FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD, THAT HE GAVE HIS ONLY BEGOTTEN SON, THAT WHOSOEVER BELIEVETH IN HIM SHOULD NOT PERISH, BUT HAVE EVERLASTING LIFE. FOR GOD HAVE SEND NOT HIS SON INTO THE WORLD TO CONDEMN THE WORLD; BUT THAT THE WORLD THROUGH HIM MIGHT BE SAVED. HE THAT BELIEVETH ON HIM IS NOT CONDEMNED; BUT HE THAT BELIEVETH NOT IS CONDEMNED ALREADY, BECAUSE HE HATH NOT BELIEVED IN THE NAME OF THE ONLY BEGOTTEN SON OF GOD. AND THIS IS THE CONDEMNATION, THAT LIGHT IS COME INTO THE WORLD, AND MEN LOVED DARKNESS RATHER THAN LIGHT, BECAUSE THEIR DEEDS WERE EVIL". (John 3:16-19)

By God's grace, 26 believers from certain communities were witnessed Jesus Christ in the water yesterday morning. We had to do it very secretly, for some fundamentalists and the anti christian groups were vigilant against it. But our Lord protected all of us and the service was a great blessing. I do not know how they will react next. Whatever happened I don't mind, for I belong to HIM. "THOUGH HE SLAY ME, YET WILL I TRUST IN HIM; BUT I WILL MAINTAIN MINE OWN WAYS BEFORE HIM" (Job 13: 15). (View the pictures at the web link).

Fill with fullness of God; For He is full of grace and truth and gives fullness of life.

My Dream of Martyrdom

Bill Somers
Mount Gilead Ohio USA

February 17, 2009
www.etpv.org

This dream came to me sometime shortly after the shootings at Virginia Tech.

> The Virginia Tech massacre was a school shooting consisting of two separate attacks approximately two hours apart on April 16, 2007, that took place on the campus of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University (Virginia Tech) in Blacksburg, Virginia, United States. The perpetrator, Seung-Hui Cho, killed 32 people and wounded many others before committing suicide. The massacre was the deadliest shooting incident by a single gunman in United States history, on or off a school campus.
> Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

What would you do if you were caught in a similar circumstance?

What does the bible say about this sort of situation? What can the committed Christian expect as he takes up his cross and follows Jesus? In our article, The Stumbling Block [http://www.etpv.org/bills_page/tstumbb.html] we wrote:

> We have cited about 40 passages to answer this question, what does the bible say? Over and over and over and over we read about suffering, persecution and martyrdom. This is not a trivial issue here, it's a major bible theme.

Here are a sample of the scriptures we cited.

> Philippians 3:10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;
>
> 1 Peter 4:13 But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

The Dream

In the dream, I found my self in some sort of institutional setting. Perhaps it was a school or church, perhaps in a public building. I was with a large group of people. The situation there was that all the people were being lined up and then shot in the chest, one by one with an automatic pistol. I do not recall any details about the shooters or even why this was happening.

My first reaction was one of shock, realizing that I was shortly to experience a violent death and there was no escape.

My second reaction was to accept the situation and make a silent prayer. “Lord, here I come.”

The instant I prayed this prayer I felt an immense feeling of peace come over me. There was no fear. Then the dream ended.

> Philippians 4:7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Measuring Success
Robert I Holmes

Australia

Robert and his family have been living in a house next to mine since 1999.

One day in 2000 I watched Robert leaving his house and walked over to my house, and then he excitedly told me that an angel has woken him up from his rest and told him about how God measures our successes and failures.

Two days ago while Robert was traveling to meet a church leader, God gave Robert some new revelations concerning how to measure a church's success or otherwise from God's viewpoint.

We will be publishing that on the List later. However, to fully understand the newer revelations we need to remind ourselves with what God told Robert back in 2000. That is why I am republishing the enclosed article.

On another note: Robert and I found out later that on the same day in 2000 an angel had also entered Robert's eldest daughter's room and told her something about the future. From the descriptions given by Robert's eldest daughter Kia, who was six years old at that time, we believed that it was the same angel who later entered Robert's room. That prophecy given by the angel has now come to pass, and we may be sharing that other story on the List in the near future.

May the Lord bless you.

Measuring Success (Part 1 of 2)
Robert I Holmes

Back in 2000, my friends and I were discussing issues of performance, and measuring success. We were talking over many matters including spirit vs soul and flesh measurement processes.

On the evening of September 1st, 2000 an angel of the Lord visited my house. At 8.05pm, as I lay down to take a rest, the angel entered my room. I got the feeling I was not going to get much rest! He stood next to me and said, "Son of man, how do you measure success?"

"Some people measure success in terms of earthy gain, some by the amount of wealth they have, others by their influence or power," I replied.

"Yes, but how do YOU measure success?" the angel asked firmly.

"Well sometimes I measure it by achievement of goals, my level of financial security or the numbers who attend a meeting I speak at. Sometimes I measure it by the quantity of miracles, the level to which the kingdom of God is advancing and even by the level to which I am communicating with God," I replied.

I went on, "How should I be measuring success," knowing, that's what the angel came for.

He spoke solemnly, "God measures success in terms of change. Not change for the sake of change, but progress from old to new."

Then he reached over and touched me, and my tiredness left in an instant. When he touched me he communicated the following changes to me. No word was spoken, just a profound understanding of the deep, slow change God is making in us. A volume of information was communicated - from spirit to spirit - in a timeless moment. What follows is as much as I can remember.

1. Changing our creation

"If anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see everything has become new!" (2 Cor. 5:17).

God wants to change our creation - our make up, our whole being. Paul starts his sentence, "If" and that is the key - that is the change. We flip from living in our flesh to living in Christ too quickly. We are a new creation, but in many respects our old man remains with us until we die. The language behind this passage reads, "There is a new, fresh creation being made, the original formation, the historic nature is being passed by, now see the new one is coming into being. There is a new beginning".

God measures our success in terms of change - change from our old creation to our new creation. Change from our 'Adam' to our 'Christ' being transformed into his likeness, conformed to his likeness and character.

2. Changing our nature

"You were taught to put away your former way of life, your old self, corrupt and deluded by its lusts. and to clothe yourselves with the new self, created according to the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness" (Eph. 4:22,24)

Here again we are shown the process - casting aside, laying down, putting away our old nature like a garment and clothing ourselves with the new nature. The language used here is not one of our created being - Paul used the word anastrophe, meaning our way of behaving, our conversation, our actions, our way of doing things.

You may have heard it said that a human being learns habits. You only need to do the same thing 21 days in a row and it will become a habit. You form good habits, and your form bad habits. This is what Paul is addressing here, behaviour - a way of life that must be laid down consistently.

God measures our success in terms of change - change from our old sin nature to our new Christ nature. Putting of our old clothes of worldly behaviour and putting on our new clothes of Christ like behaviour.

3. Changing our heart

"Create in me a clean heart, O God" (Psalm 51:10).

The word David used here for create, bara' is the same one used in the creation sequence: when God created the world and man in his own image. Bara' had a present, future tense to it - meaning create and go on creating. God made man, but also gave man the power to make man. He gave man the present and future ability to create. David is really saying "create and go on creating - give my heart the power to stay fresh". Bara' was used in the way of saying, "a people yet unborn shall praise His name" (Psalm 102:18).

"Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed against me, and get yourselves a new heart" (Ezek. 18:31)

Ezekiel asks for a new heart - but he uses a different word 'chadash' meaning: "to make new by causing to rebuild, reform or repair." Again, it was a present/ future tense. The presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives gives us repair, reformation and renewal of our hearts. It is a present truth but a future reality.

God measures our success in terms of change - change from our old, sin riddled and perverted heart (Jer 17:9) to our new, God bent heart.

4. Changing our spirit

"Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me" (Psalm 51:10).

The word used for 'renew' is chadash, which is a process of change. David later wrote, "When you send forth your spirit, they are created [BARA']; and you renew [CHADASH] the face of the ground" (Psalm 104:30). He is saying that God sends - present tense - his Spirit forth and creates - present future tense- all things. This renews the face of the earth. This is the process of getting a new spirit!

We know God's spirit dwells in us, and is mixed with our own. His abiding within the core of our being slowly transforms it - a chilli transforms ordinary vinegar, as herbs transform an ordinary dish.

God measures our success in terms of change - change from our old human spirit to our renewed holy-spirit. From our infected, afflicted human spirit to our overcoming and triumphant god-ward spirit.

5. Renewing our mind

"Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds" (Rom. 12:2).

The Lord talks here of a process of being changed, asking us not to be conformed to the world but rather be conformed to God's mind. The process is called 'renewing', anakainosis meaning a process of renovation. It has a present future tense in it, "apply your moral and spiritual state to your mind, and renovate your mind to the mind of God". It is not a 'new' mind referred to here but a fresh application of God's perspective on the mind, His continual renewing, and His continual changing of the mind.

God measures our success in terms of change - change from our old mind to our new mind. Paul put it this way: "Be renewed [ananeoo] in the spirit of your minds" (Eph. 4:23). Ananeoo means to make again, and again. It is present-future in tense. It is allowing the Holy Spirit to transform the 'spirit of the mind' and bend it gradually God-ward. From our human mind to the very mind of Christ (1 Cor 2:16).

6. Changing our thought life

"For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts" (Isa. 55:9).

God knows our small, human, frail minds cannot comprehend the thoughts of God. He is so utterly beyond us. We think in terms of finite time, and he thinks in terms of eternity. We are linear thinkers, He is cyclical (seasonal). We think in terms of win/ loose, He thinks in terms of change. His ways are not ours, His thoughts are not ours - we are called to a new thought life.

"You have multiplied, O LORD my God, your wondrous deeds and your thoughts toward us; none can compare with you" (Psalm 40:5). God multiplies His deeds and his thoughts toward us - He increases His communication man-ward to help us learn how he thinks and acts. It is our responsibility to perceive and learn from them.

God measures our success in terms of change - change from our old way of thinking to a new way of thinking. David expressed this yearning in his heart, "How weighty to me are your thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them! I try to count them--they are more than the sand; I come to the end--I am still with you" (Psalm 139:17,18).

Measuring Success (Part 2 of 2)
Robert I Holmes

7. Changing our mind-set

"To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace" (Rom. 8:6).

The mind that is set on the flesh is hostile toward God; it does not submit to God's law, it cannot because it's owner (you) is submitting himself to sin. Those who seek sinful past times live in the flesh and cannot please God.

God is calling us to set our minds on the Spirit - leading to life and peace! Jesus set his face toward Jerusalem (Luke 9:51). Luke used the word sterizo. It had many ordinary applications such as to set stones together in a pavement, to set fast (like concrete), to turn resolutely in a certain direction, to fix a plan, to establish and steadfastly follow a chosen course. We are called to do this with our minds - setting them on the Spirit and not the flesh!

God measures our success in terms of change - change from our old mind-set to a new mind-set. From a mind set on the flesh, to a mind set on the Spirit.

8. Changing the way we live

"Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you" (Rom. 8:6-9).

Here is one of those 'substantial' statements that Paul makes - which does not appear to line up with our experience. He says we 'are' in the Spirit since God dwells in us, and he says we 'are not' in the flesh since the flesh rails against God. Yet only a few chapters earlier he tells us of his own experience, "For I know that nothing good dwells within me, that is, in my flesh. I can will what is right, but I cannot do it. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do" (Rom. 7:18,19).

Paul makes it clear that as long as you are in this mortal coil, as long as you are alive you will struggle against your old way of life! He 'wills' what is right but 'acts' what is wrong. Paul says it is not he - his renewed self - which does this, but the sin that dwells within him (vs. 20).

God measures our success in terms of change - change from our old way of life, to our new way of life. The measure is one of victory by degrees - how much are you living according to the ways of the flesh, and how much are you living according to the ways of the Spirit. The goal, clearly is to live an entirely spirit lead life (Rom. 7:6).

9. Changing the focus from acts to ways

"He made known his ways to Moses, his acts to the people of Israel" (Psalm 103:7).

The people knew Gods acts. They knew the pillar of fire, they knew the cloud of smoke and they had seen the plagues and the miracles. They could recount their deliverance to the children, they could celebrate their restitution to God but they did not know him.

Moses knew him. He was different - because He knew the ways of God and not just his acts. His focus was on the character, the nature, the heart and not the acts, the events or the hand of God. God shared with Moses how he felt about things, he expressed his heart - and Moses listened.

We find the people confronted with the awesome presence of God on the mountain, and running away from His person. "They were afraid and trembled and stood at a distance, and said to Moses, "You speak to us, and we will listen; but do not let God speak to us, or we will die." Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid; for God has come only to test you and to put the fear of him upon you so that you do not sin" (Exod. 20:18-20). They even asked God to stop speaking, and appoint Moses to go speak to Him for them.

God measures our success in terms of change - change from our focus on his hand, to a focus on his heart. A change from focusing on his acts, to focusing on his ways.

10. Changing from darkness to light

"Salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armour of light; let us live honourably as in the day" (Rom. 13:12).

Paul is indicating here that even salvation is a process. Yes we are to work out our salvation with fear and trembling (Phil. 2:12). We are closer to our redemption now than we were when we first became believers. The analogy he uses here is one of darkness and light. He uses the expression of living in the hiddenness of our sin or living under the glorious light of heaven.

Once again we are asked to lay aside - to actively participate in putting away our works of darkness, our armour of self protection, our sin preserving ways and put on the armour of light. We need to actively walk in the light - because our nature desires to simper about in the darkness. We seek naturally to hide instead of boldly desiring to be exposed.

God measures our success in terms of change - change from our dwelling in darkness to our dwelling in the light. Change fro our desire to run and hide, to our desire to be found out. Change from covering sin, to being exposed and walking openly in the light.

11. A change of partnership

"Exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today," so that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we have become partners of Christ, if only we hold our first confidence firm to the end" (Heb. 3:14).

The writer to the Hebrews again lays out for us a principle of ongoing change. It is not a 'once and for all' deal - but a day by day change. He tells us to exhort one another - encourage toward holiness.

"Become partners with Christ," he says. That word is not a 'sexual' partner; it was a business term in koine Greek. Metochos meant one who participates, a sharer, an associate, a member of the fraternal, one who partakes of a meal together, a business partner.

God measures our success in terms of change - change from our old 'buddies' to our new 'partners'. Don't associate with your sinful partners, don't make a binding agreement with the world. Associate with Christ - partner with Him, bring him in at board level to participate in your life.

12. A change of glory

"We are being transformed. from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit" (2 Cor. 3:18).

The process of changing from one glory to another is "from the Lord, the Spirit". God wants us to change in our glory, both in kind and in quantity. The whole context of this passage is about moving from the law to the Spirit. The law had it's own glory, shown in the face of Moses. He was glowing from God's impartation of the law. The glory we are now being called into is that of the Spirit.

"Indeed, what once had glory has lost its glory because of the greater glory; for if what was set aside came through glory, much more has the permanent come in glory!" (2 Cor 3:10,11). The glory of the law - which was the taskmaster that brought us to repentance, has a passing glory. That which replaced it - the law of the Spirit, has a permanent glory.

God measures our success in terms of change - change from temporary glory based on law, to permanent glory based on grace. From old glory based on achievement to new glory based on love.

13. A change of image

"And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image" (2 Cor. 3:18)

You become like that which you behold. You are transformed from the image of self to the image of Christ. Job wanted desperately to look upon Christ, "I shall see God, whom I shall see on my side, and my eyes shall behold, and not another. My heart faints within me!" (Job 19:27). We are being asked to move from a life beholding the world to a life beholding Christ.

David also yearned for this; "My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and behold the face of God?" (Psalm 42:2). Our nature yearns to become like that we see. Adverting pumps images of their product into our minds. Media places before us a barrage of things to behold and images of what they want us to become. It influences our spending patterns. We buy into the image.

God measures our success in terms of change - change from beholding images of the world, to beholding Jesus Christ our life. Changing from filling our minds with images of the world, to filling our vision with His glorious countenance.

14. A change of ministry

"He has made us competent to be ministers of a new covenant, not of letter but of spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life" (2 Cor. 3:6).

The last thing the angel communicated to me was a radical shift in the nature of our ministry. That word 'ministry' is not a word taken from government, like the ministry of finance. Nor is it a word taken from the corporate world, like the office of the managing director. It is diakonia, meaning a service, a form of relief, a ministration.

What sort of gospel are we 'serving' to others. Is it a gospel of legalism and formality or liberty and life? Is it the pharisaic law, or Christ's gospel of redemption by grace? Are we administering the balm of works or the balm of healing to people's troubles? Are we killing them or giving them life? Both come with a form of glory, as we noted before. There is some nobility in the law, but it is old glory. "For if there was glory in the ministry of condemnation, much more does the ministry of justification abound in glory!" (2 Cor. 3:9).

God measures our success in terms of change - change from ministering death to ministering life. Are we serving up condemnation, damnation, guilt and shame or are we serving up justification by faith, freedom, liberty and joy in the Holy Spirit?

Conclusion

How do you measure success? What is your framework - is it a worldly one or a heavenly one? Is it a carnal one or a godly one? Do you measure success by the traditional win/loose mentality.

Some people measure success in terms of earthy gain, some by the amount of wealthy they have, others by their influence or power. Others have more godly sounding ones - replacing bad with good instead of good with best. God measures success in terms of change. Not change for the sake of change, but change from old to new. Those changes include:

1. Changing our creation: 2 Cor. 5:17
2.. Changing our nature: Eph. 4:22,24
3. Changing our heart: Psalm 51:10, Ezek. 18:31
4.. Changing our spirit: Psalm 51:10
5.. Renewing our mind: Rom. 12:2, Eph. 4:23
6.. Changing our thought life: Isa. 55:9, Psalm 40:5
7.. Changing our mind-set: Rom. 8:6
8.. Changing the way we live: Rom. 8:6-9, Rom. 7:18,19
9.. Changing the focus from acts to ways: Psalm 103:7
10.. Changing from darkness to light: Rom. 13:12
11.. A change of partnership: Heb. 3:14
12.. A change of glory: 2 Cor 3:10,11
13.. A change of image: 2 Cor. 3:18
14.. A change of ministry: 2 Cor. 3:6,9

Meaty Words

Mike Tucker

01-09-05: I began to dream and a plate with a large piece of meat was placed before me. It was like a large roast weighing several pounds. I knew in my spirit that this signaled that the Lord was going to reveal weighty things. As I was about to eat, I realized that the whole of this was too much to take in and I asked the Lord, "How can I eat this?" and he replied, "Eat a little at a time". So I took the first bite.

Upon eating the first bite I saw the peninsula of Florida like a map. A declaration was spoken over it in French words and then I saw lines drawn on it like it was sectioned off in regional pieces and names were given to those sections. The names were in different languages, several appeared to be Arabic tongues too. The color of the map appeared deep blue as I looked more intently at it.

I took another bite and saw the word 'DangerX'. Then it morphed into the word 'PoisenX' and then it morphed again into the word 'RadiationX'. I heard the words 'X marks the spot' but no location of 'X' was shown at that moment.

I ate a couple of more bites and several things were shown in succession. I was taken to a home in Austin, Texas and these words were spoken, 'This shall be as beach front property'. I was perplexed and wondered how. Then I heard, 'Texas will sink'. Then I saw the words on a banner, 'Trustable Liquidators'.

I woke up and went to my office to write these things down. As I was writing I heard the words 'Calamities will drive out the invaders' and I saw in my mind's eye a map of the US as given a few weeks earlier (see below) and I heard the words 'Angels will form the protection.' And I saw a vision of myriads of angels guarding the perimeter of this new land.

Meaning: Before I go into interpreting this dream, I must humbly admit that I do not always immediately have the full understanding of words. At times I have been too quick to release an interpretation before the word was 'digested' in my spirit, hence I have sometimes allowed reason and logic to preempt the Spirit. Some dreams, visions and words have taken years to be revealed and/or fulfilled. I only know in part and prophecy in part. I ask the reader to join with me in prayer in fully bringing these things to light. I welcome what the Lord says to the Body regarding any message.

I believe the Florida map shows a time when that peninsula will be divided up after the US has been invaded. The map appearing deep blue may indicate a 'watery' end to that occupation.

I believe the Texas scene describes a time when a good chunk of Texas will be as a gulf, reaching in as far as Austin. I looked up on the internet and found there is in fact a fault line running across the Central Texas region near Austin called the 'Balcones Fault Line'. I believe there will be a great worldwide earthquake that will cause this fault line to fracture, drop and pull in the Gulf of Mexico. 'Trustable LIQUIDATORS' in connection with the 'Calamity' word above and 'New Territory' dream below, indicates these earth changing events will destroy invading/occupying forces of the world against the US after our time of fiery purification has completed (there have been a number of prophets and humble people of God whom have seen military invasions across all our coasts, some have seen oceans pouring in on the land as well). I have seen in prior dreams and visions where the US (or more particularly the Body within) will not be utterly destroyed in this land but will be heavenly defended when this nation seems at the brink of destruction from foreign invaders.

Aftermath and New Territory

12-02-04: I was dreaming and I heard two angels discussing 'an appointment in the aftermath'. One spoke to me and said, 'I could choose to opt out'. I made the choice not to opt out. Then the angel spoke to me what the cost would be concerning me and my family.

Then a simple contour map of the US was shown. In the middle of the US map was shown two semi circles like ( ) with the west one running approximately along the Rocky Mountains and the east was towards the vicinity of the Mississippi River (again the map was only an outline, no precise coordinates were shown). My spirit was made to know this middle land was called the 'New Territory' in the aftermath.

Then I felt the presence of my Lord Jesus and He extended both His hands to me and in them was His heart. His heart was shown as pure white. I pondered to myself… 'Why is it not reddish?' Jesus answered my inner question and said, 'I have poured out my blood.' Then I replied to Jesus somewhat loudly, 'I wish to go all the way!' that is, with Jesus. Then I heard a large host clapping overhead. And a song was sung and I heard these words at the end of the song, 'I will drench you in wine'.

A few days later as I was praying about this dream to know its meaning and the size of the new land. I heard the words '1,000 miles' and was made to know that the width of the middle of the semi circles was 1,000 miles. This dream indicates that a new territory will be created after the invaders have been stopped.

A Conclusion of Events

At this time, based on prophecies of other humble servants and from what the Lord has communicated directly to me, I believe the following events will occur pertaining to the USA and the Body of Christ within (However, I do remain open to further revelation and examination.). The beginning of these events depend on the people's response to God's warning. Shall the people repent and the time be put back as in Nineveh? This is certainly my hope and prayer.:

The USA will face a combined terror attack of nuclear and plague. This will destabilize the nation. This is not the end yet for her, this is a final call too all who will repent before she is soon toppled. Many will perish, but many will come to the Lord too. Jesus is the ark of safety!

Then in the midst of our national turmoil, a full invasion will come from foreign lands that will include Russia and China and others. All forms of natural weapons will be thrown at the US. The US will not stand because this nation has departed from God and trusts in its military might. She will fall, crumble and transform into a broken and conquered nation. Many, many will perish, but many will come to the Lord too. Britain will suffer too.

But within this land, a remnant of purified ones will remain and heaven itself will rise with these purified ones and defend what is left at the appointed time. This is key… The weapons of our warfare are Spiritual. A new nation will rise from within the boundaries of the old. It will be as a Great Body and a new mind shall be given to it (Daniel 7).

All things will be quickened. Conflict will continue around the world until such a time that the final beast emerges and intends to control the whole world. The very elect will be hard pressed during this final season until the Ancient of Days takes His seat and judgment is cast on behalf of the Saints. Everlasting dominion on the earth will then go to Lord Jesus Christ, the King of Kings and His Body, the stainless Bride.

Megashift
Friday Fax:

Friday Fax 2005 Issue 28, 15 July

Megashift
That's the title of American author Jim Rutz's recently-published book. It's hotly debated on TV, and one of Amazon's top sellers. It has also caused controversy in broad swathes of self-contented US Christianity. 'Megashift' is a sharp-minded analysis of current Christianity around the world, and is partly based on dozens of carefully-researched Friday Fax reports. Rutz is now one of the popular columnists in the conservative Internet news site World Net Daily (www.worldnetdaily.com).

What are his main observations?
- The 1700-year nightmare is over: the Constantinian Shift is shifting back. Under Emperor Constantine, the Church became an imperial audience, but is now finally freeing itself from the corset of state control.
- An unprecedented transfer of divine power is underway, from clerics into the hands of ordinary people. According to Rutz' research in 49 nations, hundreds of people have been raised from the dead in the past 15 years.
- This is giving rise to an entirely new form of Christianity - with far greater repercussions than the Protestant Reformation.
- Over 1 billion non-Christians could become active Christians in the next 10 years.

When millions of ordinarly people do extraordinary things

The Charismatic Evangelical movement, currently numbering 707 million people around the world, is growing by 8 percent per year. That alone is exciting. The centre of this movement, though, is a mostly unknown and little-understood movement of 100 million Christians who have no building and neither pastor nor programme. "A church without vertical hierarchies," says Rutz, "which will change the future." They have experienced what Rutz calls a 'lifestyle upgrade':

Lifestyle upgrade
Anyone who uses computer software knows what an upgrade is: a new and better version of a programme replaces the old version. Through an act of God, many millions of people have experienced an 'inner upgrade' leading to an entirely new quality of life. Rutz lists a number of chances and advantages offered by this upgrade, which were previously unthinkable for many people:

- People experience release from the limitations and burdens of a traditional, hierarchical (and unbiblical) religious system, being freed into an 'open Christianity' with 100% participation.
- They are no longer a number in someone else's religious programme.

- They experience personal empowerment and are able to do things they previously could not even have dreamed of, including the supernatural (healing, prophesying, performing miracles etc.)
- They learn to overcome their own problems, and help others to overcome theirs.
- They experience fellowship with a small group of close friends who give mutual support, so that each person and the whole group reaches God's aims, which are their calling.
- In doing so, they find that which they have sought for their whole life.

Away from spectator religion
The path away from spectator religion frees people from fixed church role-playing. Previously, many people were passive, conformist churchgoers, experiencing church as a television without a remote control. The personal involvement of every follower of Christ, though, rouses millions of talents and abilities to solve even the most difficult problems. The result is a 'Megashift', a quantum leap in church history.

Post-Protestant revival
Protestantism was an important epoch in church history, but it is now time to stop protesting and start acting. The current post-Protestant awakening is larger than the great American revivals since 1727 under Wesley, Whitefield, the Herrnhuter or Johnathan Edwards. "This third Reformation," says Rutz, "has three characteristics:"

The church is transforming itself from an organisation to an organism After 1700 years of institutional structure, the Body of Christ is emerging in the form described in the New Testament. People are rediscovering the original forms and functions in an open, participatory system mostly consisting of house churches.

100% active
Moving away from the one-man church system, in which the pastor literally did everything, a growing number of Jesus' followers are becoming active participants, leaving their spectators' seats and taking their place on the playing field. It should be no surprise the number of goals scored increases. When 100 people pray for the sick, prophesy, and plant churches instead of just one, it is also reasonable to expect the number of miracles to increase.

Immense numbers of new believers
Church growth outside America is breathtaking. Tens of thousands of new believers (Rutz speaks of 175,000 per day) means that although all religions are growing naturally, only Christianity is experiencing significant growth through conversion. Where religions meet, Christianity almost always gains new believers, and new networks of house churches are formed.

How to be part of this Megashift
1. Stop going with the flow, and decide to actively turn away from the outdated control structures (clerics & laypeople).
2. Take responsibility. That also means paying the price of being a pioneer, including Christian friends' suspicion and ostracism.
3. Learn to love others, overcoming selfishness and becoming a team player. That requires a lifestyle of repentance and obedience - out of healthy enthusiasm, not duty.

4. Help carry others' burdens, and not stagnate but take small steps forward every day.

Rutz says: "Is there a small voice inside saying 'That's right!'?" Follow it. But you also have the choice to ignore it. That too is freedom. But please don't complain later..." Or, as C. Peter Wagner says, "Jim describes what God is going to do tomorrow. You can't afford to miss this book!"

HOW ARE THE MIGHTY FALLEN
by Bill Somers

Just lately we saw America at the peak of her power and influence. In the Gulf War, the United States exerted her military might on the other side of the globe. We saw decisive use of overwhelming force produce an astonishing rapid victory. What made this so astonishing were several factors.
A. The poor track record of the US Military since the 60's and our involvement in Vietnam.
B. The generally low opinion of the armed services and the Pentagon establishment.
C. the widely held expectations of a costly blood bath with high casualties.

> How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished! (2 Samuel 1:27)

The Lord had given me the above verse from 2nd Samuel. in the first days the gulf war. At that point we were still quite fearful of high casualties or possible adverse outcomes of the war. The scripture came to me just before I attended a meeting of intercessors praying for our troops and Government leaders. I understood the reference to be to America. But as the war progressed, it seemed that the verse must have applied to Iraq. Yet Iraq did seem mighty at the time. And her weapons of war seemed fearsome. Yet Iraq proved to .be less than mighty and her weapons turned out to be paltry.

But now I see that this was referring to America. One purpose of the war was to show the might of America and to mark the peak of her power. This was our high point and marked the magnitude of our coming fall.

BENHADAD, KING OF SYRIA

One morning a few months after the Gulf War, my morning devotion took me to 1 Kings 20 one day.

> 1. And Benhadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together: and [there were] thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it.

I worked my way into the chapter finding mostly familiar material. I had not planned on reading in that part of the bible anyway so I was ready to skip over to proverbs, when I came to verse 13.

> 13 And, behold, there came a prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thine hand this day; and thou shalt know that I [am] the LORD.

At this point the Lord showed me that here was an example of God giving a victory to a wicked nation. Israel under king Ahab was backslidden, wicked and far from God's favor. Yet he gave the victory so "Thou shalt know that I am the LORD!"

> 21 And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

This example is written for us, I realized. Our 'miracle victory' in the Gulf War can in no way be seen as a sign of God's favor or approval. (It can certainly be seen as a sign that God had a hand in it.)

Later that day I meditated on the comparison to the Gulf War. The US as Israel, and Iraq as Syria was the analogy clearly established in my mind. As I considered this, I got a second revelation that shook me to the core. I remembered what happened in the rest of the Chapter! And the word of Judgment pronounced against Israel and King Ahab in the end!

> 28 And there came a man of God, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD,

> Because the Syrians have said, The LORD [is] God of the hills, but he [is] not God of the valleys, therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that I [am] the LORD.

Here the Lord gave Israel a victory not because they called on him but because of the Syrians actions. The Syrians made the war a contest between their gods and the God of Israel!

Now recall that Saddam Hussein made a great public show, on world wide television, of prayer to Allah! That he called for Jihad, or Holy War, and counted on Allah for victory!

President Bush had Billy Graham come into the White House to pray. And he issued a proclamation of prayer after the manner of Abraham Lincoln.

Once again the war was a contest between the God of Israel and false religion. And once again God gave the victory to a wicked, backslidden nation: America.

> 29 And they pitched one over against the other seven days. And [so] it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined: and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day.
> But Benhadad of Syria escaped from the battle and pled for mercy.
> 32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Benhadad saith, I pray thee, let me live....
> 34 ... Then said Ahab, I will send thee away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away.

(Our leadership in the Gulf War allowed the Iraqi army to slip from the trap and still permits Hussein to remain in power.)

But the Lord was angry and sent the prophet again.

> 38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with ashes upon his face.
> 42 And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Because thou hast let go out of [thy] hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people.

And so this is another word of judgment for us as well.

News From Black Mountain

David Davenport

Jun 07, 2005

Dear Saints:

I recently enjoyed a week-long retreat on Black Mountain, nestled in the Blue Ridge Mountain Range running through northwest North Carolina. Our group was that of the ministry that I am formally accountable to by way of ordination and ongoing relational accountability. Among the senior staff present, was Bob Jones.

Many of you may be aware that Bob's wife Viola has recently gone to be with the Lord. Though Bob carried a residual and quiet grief about him over his loss, he yet moved in a tremendous prophetic anointing as he ministered among us.

For those of you unfamiliar with Bob Jones, I can tell you that he is presently moving in one of the highest levels of prophetic ministry that I have witnessed within my 24-year involvement in public ministry. As such, I have always found it to be a priceless treat, to interact with him and receive ministry from him. Bob is in the final quarter of his life. In this light, I consider personal interaction with him to be a rare and fleeting privilege. I have had the privilege of being ministered-to by Bob on several occasions over the past 7 years, the most profound experience of which occurred on 09-09-99—a 17-minute experience that I am still reeling from today.

During our recent Black Mountain retreat, I was able to converse with Bob 4 or 5 times. The longest conversation with Bob occurred during a two-hour "fireside chat," attended by a small group. This fireside chat will serve as a springboard for what I wish to share in this article. However, before I do so, I wish to acknowledge and honor those in receipt of this article, who, for one reason or another, have kept a "safe distance" from prophetic ministry as a whole in recent years.

I am thankful to be in relationship with 100s of Believers throughout the Body of Christ international, many of who represent unique streams within the Body. Many of these streams have experienced saddening abuses as the result of unhealthy and unfruitful models of prophetic ministry over several decades. It is therefore understandable that the mere mention of internationally recognized prophetic ministers makes some Believers cringe, and dawn a protective shield.

I will be of the first to admit that the Americanized-church has historically made a grand mess of our attempts to foster prophetic ministry in public meetings. Be encouraged however, for it is my belief that in recent years we have begun to experience thee mass-restoration of the prophetic ministry to the Church. The unyielding trademarks of this restoration process are that of character, integrity, authority, anointing and love.

The age of self-promotion, posturing and self-aggrandizing within the prophetic ministry is coming to an abrupt end. In the near future, those who would opt to default to such motives (i.e., those who would "look back") will find their ministries reduced to a mound of salt, at their feet.

With these precursory thoughts in mind, I wish to share a few of the elements of what Bob Jones shared within our time together at the retreat. As I do so, I trust that those currently nursing wounds incurred by those presumptuously moving in the prophetic in times past, will yet sense the authenticity, timeliness and relevance of what follows.

For some perhaps, the first item I wish to address in this article could make for awkward and uncomfortable reading. However, I will say that if the reader can swath through this less-than-pleasant topic, it will work an eternal reward, if heeded and applied. For the time has come, to shake-off the chains that bind, to fully loose ourselves from anything that would hinder us from fully yielding to God's personal plan of restoration for our lives, and to step onto what is fast becoming the final battle field. To this end, each and every sober challenge or warning to examine ourselves in this day, is priceless.

One of the more sobering words that Bob had for us, was that with reference to "the lust of the eyes" (1 John 2:16); a fierce element of the larger spiritual battle currently being waged about us presently. Bob stated that this attack is intensifying this year, and in a measure that is unprecedented. Those presently grappling with this stronghold, if left unchecked, may very soon be overcome by such, to the degree that they will not be able to control their eyes in public, and will thus be exposed. Bob issued a sobering warning, that those struggling with this issue should judge themselves privately, lest the Lord judge them (expose them) publicly. We are in the midst of a short season of grace wherein the Lord is calling His sheep to repent and breakaway from this stronghold.

Prophetic and intercessory ministers are the figurative eyes of the Body of Christ. It is therefore no surprise that those attacked most frequently by this force are often those called to move in the greatest measures of the prophetic and intercessory ministries. It is my belief therefore, that these attacks are an indirect affirmation of your call to the prophetic and/or intercessory ministry. It makes perfect sense therefore, that if a Believer's vision is clouded and obscured with dark images, one's prophetic insight will therefore be clouded as well. In essence, we are dealing with a "smoke screen" tactic from our adversary.

One of the most effective means by which one may rid themselves of this stronghold is that by way of confiding in another brother or sister, and acting upon James 5:16, which reads: "Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed." This humble act releases the Sword of The Lord, to swiftly sever the chords of entanglement, and set free those who are captive. Remember that "…two can set 10,000 to flight…," for there is exponential power released when we band together to bring darkness into the light. When we do so, "He shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the perilous pestilence. He shall cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you shall take refuge;" (Ps. 91:3-4).

In addition to confiding and confession, a specific fast for deliverance from this force can prove very effective. During such a fast, a prayerful focus upon Psalm 25:15 delivers a powerful blow to this force. The verse reads as follows: "My eyes are ever toward the Lord, for He shall pluck my feet out of the net." With this verse as a prayer-platform, one may pray literally, that the Lord keep their eyes "ever before Him," and thus find their feet being "plucked from the net" of the lust of the eyes. If you have found yourself struggling with this issue, or know of others who are wrestling with the same, I encourage you to implement this prayer and fasting model, and pass it on to others as well.

Later during this fireside chat, Bob alluded to an excerpt of scripture that released a subtle yet powerful healing balm in the room. It was divine orchestration, as the Holy Spirit enveloped my heart at this moment and performed a supernatural work--in an instant. Those of you who have read my article entitled "Only Believe," will understand the timeliness of this portion of Bob's chat. He quoted Luke 6:22-23, which reads: "Blessed are you when men hate you, and when they exclude you, and revile you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of Man's sake. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy! For indeed your reward is great in heaven, for in like manner their fathers did to the prophets."

It is my prayer that as I pen this article, those of you who are in recovery from associated wounds, will receive healing and affirmation in and through the reading of this excerpt of scripture. For though it was written an estimated 1,947 years ago, I believe the Holy Spirit is speaking this very word to the prophetic community abroad, this very hour, to hasten healing and hasten preparedness for what lay ahead.

In time, I may expand upon an ongoing saga in my life that entails repeated encounters in public, wherein people, total strangers, will manifest with outbursts of startling rage and vulgarity, in my face (in the least, a written account of these incidents may provide for a hearty laugh). I suspect there are a number of those among the readership of this article that have experienced the same. Again, be thou encouraged, as just when you may have precluded that there's something very wrong with you, rather know that there is quite likely something very right with you—that of the reality that you are drawing nearer to the Throne Room, and are being "transformed from glory to glory." During your ongoing transformation, you are drawing the lost, and exposing darkness—even in the checkout line of your local grocer, where I happen to encounter the worst of such episodes.

I once thought I would never witness the surpassing of the evil I met with while engaged in public evangelism in the early 1980's on the street corners of Hollywood California. However, over the past two years I believe my experiences in public in this regard have surpassed those colorful days in the early '80's.

Many of you have had to endure "tent-making" jobs over many years, in conjunction with setting your hands to the plow of the ministries you have been called to, beyond your secular job. In doing so, you have endured subtle forms of persecution in every form. Perhaps many forms, not so subtle. As you recollect such persecution, I encourage you to meditate upon Luke 6:22-23, and allow the Holy Spirit to make "perfect sense" of all that you have endured.

Another timely excerpt of scripture alluded to during this chat with Bob, was that of Psalm 89:19-20, which reads: "You spoke in a vision to Your holy one, and said: 'I have given help to one who is mighty; I have exalted one chosen from the people. I have found My servant David; with My holy oil I have anointed him."

This excerpt of Psalm 89 is that of a reminder of God's covenant with King David. Bob alluded to this excerpt with reference to the Lord's present restoration of "The Tabernacle or House of David." This phrase evokes many implications exegetically and expositionally, however as Bob alluded to Psalm 89, I received a very swift, strong and very pointed impression about this current restoration process; namely that evidenced and expressed by the current Holy Spirit outpouring of unbridled worship in the sanctuary.

Many mental pictures come to mind when we think of King David. Most prominent among them, for me, is that of him dancing wildly before the Lord in his temple. It is my belief that presently the Holy Spirit is prying the lid off of the jar of containment in worship, and is slowly yet powerfully releasing a contagious freedom in worship that will envelope the House, globally. For recently, I have heard of many reports of historically conservative and controlled atmospheres in public meetings, breaking-out and into unbridled worship which has resulted in the Holy Spirit's "train filling the temple." When this occurs, as it is now occurring in many conservative denominations, we can know with certainty that the Lord is indeed Restoring the House.

As a former pastor myself, I am keenly aware of the subtle influence that a pastor's posture during worship can and will have on many people within a public service. To a degree, the senior pastor (or my preference, "facilitator") acts as a spiritual conduit through which the Holy Spirit may be permitted free reign in a given meeting. As such, when the pastor or facilitator freely releases personal and unbridled worship, it releases freedom throughout the Body, like a ripple effect, and breaks the chains of restraint, often most particularly among men. For as a rule, men are typically more reserved in worship. What I have observed of late however, and in light of what Bob alluded to with respect to the restoration of the House of David, is that of men casting-off restraint with respect to public worship. This one, simple act, is having a profound impact upon the Body of Christ around the globe. He is calling us to "dance like David did." When we do so, He comes in like a flood and "inhabits the praises of His people." Is it not His Holy Habitation that we long for in our meetings?

I don't know about you, but I am looking forward, very soon, to making a complete fool myself the next time I enter the sanctuary to worship. As I look forward to such, I am reminded of a saying that a former mentor of mine of many years ago, often repeated while he still walked the earth: "I'm a fool for Christ, whose fool are you?"

The last of the elements I wish to share of my time with Bob, is that of his recounting of the day in which He was taken up into Heaven, as he died on an operating table many yeas ago. As Bob recounted a question that the Lord asked Him as his physical body expired, it was a very quiet and sobering moment within our gathering. The Lord simply asked him this: "Did you learn to love?"

In an instant, and as the Lord spoke these words which permeated Bob's entire being, he realized that he had not learned to love. He then begged the Lord for another chance at life; that he could learn to love before transitioning into eternity. As Bob then regained consciousness, he understood that the paramount call on his life, and upon the life of every Believer, is that of learning to love. Bob concluded our fireside chat by saying, soberly: "The greatest measurement by which you will be judged as you enter the eternal gates, is that of how you have learned to love your enemies."

My Glory Abounds in 2005

Musa Opiyo

Jan 1, 2005
These are the days of unprecedented glory. I am showering My people with more of My Glory and My supernatural grace. My people have have cried out for more of Me and now I am responding to that call, says the Lord.

I was watching this morning the firework display at the London Eye in London after the midnight countdown. The eye looks like a typcial ferris wheel but on a bigger scale and looking more like an eye (hence the name). Two fireworks started at the bottom of the wheel and both worked their way to the top (one clockwise and the other anti-clockwise) and down again in a repeated circular motion. And I heard the Lord say My Glory is coming full circle this year. Just when you thought you had enough, I will pour out more, more and more till it overflows. Surely your cup will run over (Ps 23). Get ready as I work My glory through your situations and watch as it comes full circle as I the Lord receive the glory.
Get ready for the glory of God to visit you people of God.

Blessings,

2005: A Year of Deliverance, Increase, Visitation and A Call To Holiness

Musa Opiyo

A Year of Deliverance....

Psalms 25:1-2
1UNTO YOU, O Lord, do I bring my life. 2O my God, I trust, lean on, rely on, and am confident in You. Let me not be put to shame or [my hope in You] be disappointed; let not my enemies triumph over me. AMP

I believe in this year God wants us to "triumph over our enemies". Our enemies are not flesh and blood, but principalities, powers and rulers in high places. God wants us to leap over our obstacles through hinds feet (Habakkuk 3:19) in order to step into the new season we are entering into. Whatever principalities or powers of darkness you have been contending against, the Lord will give the supernatural grace to be victorious over all that has beset you. I hear the Lord saying, " My grace is sufficient for you. What has been an obstacle shall no longer be one because I am the Lord who sits upon the throne. I am the Lord who led the children of Israel out of Egypt. There is nothing impossible that I cannot do for you. As you trust Me to bring your 'Jericho walls' down, proclaim by faith as those walls not only come down but that your enemy (Satan) is left exposed and defenseless so that you can move in and take the victory.

Of Increase.....

I believe the coming year is going to be a year of increase both spiritually and physically. The Lord is calling us to 'enlarge the place of our tent.' In other words, he wants to expand our boundaries and stretch us to a capacity where we will accommodate more of what he is doing in our lives.
I believe the Lord would say, " I am stretching your faith to believe Me for more. For in this year I am working on a bigger scale than I have before. To your mind it will not make sense. In fact many will say 'But Lord, that’s way too much. That’s stretching it a bit' Let it be so says the Lord. For I am breaking through the confines and the borders that My children have put over and around themselves and I am looking for those who will say yes, those whose faith sees beyond the limitations of the natural. Look out for My increase upon your life says the Lord.

A Year of Visitation

This is an unusual year where the Lord will visit many of his children. This includes angelic visitations, increase in revelations and dreams and even some being taken up in the Spirit to heaven to be shown the things to come. I believe the Lord wants us ready and expectant of these things and like Samuel say "Speak Lord for I am listening". A key verse for this is:

Revelation 4:1
1AFTER THIS I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven! And the first voice which I had heard addressing me like [the calling of] a war trumpet said, Come up here, and I will show you what must take place in the future. AMP

To those who are willing, let us draw closer to the Lord and hear his heartbeat and what he is saying to us.

A Call To Holiness

With all that the Lord is pouring upon us, he is calling us to greater accountability and holiness. A key verse for this is :

2 Corinthians 7:1
1THEREFORE, SINCE these [great] promises are ours, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from everything that contaminates and defiles body and spirit, and bring [our] consecration to completeness in the [reverential] fear of God. AMP

GET READY! GOD IS GOING TO MOVE MIGHTILY ON YOUR BEHALF IN 2005

Prayer

Father we come before you and we commit and surrender ourselves to you. We say Lord come and have your way in our lives this year. Give us the faith to take on board your promises and to believe you will do what you said you will do. May our hearts cry be "More, Lord, more of you" We give you the praise and the glory, In Jesus name,

AMEN!

Blessings,

My Glory Is Coming Fully In
Susan Cummings

My Glory is coming fully in, and all that is not of Me is fully going out. For nothing that is unholy can stand in My Presence. Nothing that is built with unclean hands or with the tools of men, will stand before Me. For I am Holy. I will have no altars of men by My side.

The tide of My Glory is coming fully in. It has been increasing and rising as I have been preparing My People for the full weight of My Glory. My Grace has been to come in increments, so as not to destroy, but to illuminate and transform. It is time for My Habitation to increase and to fully manifest in My House.

I have spoken to you, and have been shaking you, and have been testing you. I laid a foundation of preparation, and now I am building upon it. For I am building My Work. It is Mine, and I will have a pure House. I am cleansing and purging, and now am moving in. The weight of My Glory will come and abide and reside, and judge all things. Prepare for My Coming into your midst.

The Fear of the Lord will come as well, for I am Holy and I am Terrible. I am the Lord of Hosts and am taking My rightful place. No longer will I tolerate mixture or deceit, but will hold all men accountable before Me. I have cleansed My Remnant as they have embraced Me in the former season of purging . Now, I am judging My House. It will become a House of Prayer.

The closer My Glory comes in, the more I expose and deal with. Know that My Hand is in this, and embrace Me. For it is the season of breaking and of My Glory. It is all about Me and what I am doing in the earth. It is all about Holiness and Truth. It is the season of new births.

The earth will shake greatly as I come fully in. It has desired to be set free, and to see the day of release. Creation has travailed some, but will bring forth even more, as I set in order all things.

My government will come forth as I have shown you in My Word, and it will try all things, and men will not enforce My Hand, but I will set in order all things, and establish My People.

Prepare for greater and more violent shaking as I come fully in.
Prepare for greater testing as I shake the hearts of men.
Prepare for Holiness and Truth to be the righteous standard again.
Prepare, for I am coming fully in.

Stay The Course
Susan Cummings

Stay the course that I have laid out for you, my child. Remain true to what I have called you to do and to be. For how can you be anything else other than what I made you to be? There is nothing else, but to walk out your course. For I made you and everything concerning you will happen according to My Will for your life, as you fully surrender to me in it all.

There is much happening in the earth and in the heavens and all will be disclosed. The turmoil that wars against you is only to divert you and cause you to doubt and fear. But do not take your eyes from My face. Stand still. Listen to Me. This war is against all of My People. Mine will stand firm and wax strong through it all. For I am using it for My Purposes. Submit to Me in it.

The shakings I have released have only begun to break open the ways. Nothing has even been brought forth fully yet, but many of Mine are already overwhelmed. Stay the course. Lean not to your own understandings. What you don't understand, leave at My Feet. I will reveal more, as it is time for you to understand. There are also things that you do not need to know at this time, and you must trust in Me. For I know all things, and am working it all out. Rest.

The breakings are beginning to have an effect, as you have rightly seen. Much more turmoil and great gnashing will result in the full exposure, but My Grace is in it, for My redemptive purposes. Rest in that knowledge. My Light and My Truth must work it's work. My Word is sent forth into the earth, to move and to bring forth all of My Counsel, and it will be so.

Men only know what I give them to understand in this timing, and yet, many are unthankful for their portions, so many run after that which is unlawful, to satisfy their own lusts. They will be given over to those things that they sought after and embraced that is outside of My Will for them. Remain in Me, and abide in the Truth, and seek My Face.

Many do not trust in Me, and run after other sources, opinions, and reports. It will not be so among My Own. Either you come to Me and obtain My Word for each day and need, or you will not. I will not be inquired of by those who do not love Me, or desire My Lordship. I am drawing a line between those who are Lovers of the Truth and those who are not.

Embrace Me, child. Turn to Me in all your ways, and follow Me. Pick up your cross and know that it is to be so. For all who follow Me will bear the cross and it's shame. They will also reveal it's glory. My Cross and the power of My Blood will be spoken of reverently again. For My Blood is your covering and your salvation. All who do not live by My provision in My Blood, are not Mine.

I am the gate through which all men find eternal life. My Blood was shed upon the cross for all men, but not all men choose to live by it. To truly embrace the cross is to embrace the suffering that goes along with it. To embrace the sufferings is to completely and utterly die to all that you are, think, desire, understand, and trust in, and to fully give yourself to Me. I am in control of your life.

Can you walk with me knowing that I will bring everything that you need to you, no matter how it comes, and what is seen, and that it is My perfect will for you? To truly trust Me is to embrace Me. So, embrace Me.

Many say they are Mine, but have not given Me everything, and still hold me at arms length. How I desire that all would know My embrace! So many want to come to Me at times, but they don't stay nor do they truly want to be like Me. They only want My Name. It will not be so anymore. Those who bear My Name will be seen and known as Mine, for My mark is upon them and My Spirit resides with them. Just because you put a name on a building does not make that building holy, righteous, or even legitimate. I am tired of My Name being profaned. I will judge all who misuse My Name, for it is Holy.

Stay the course, my child. Do not waver, nor faint. But strengthen yourself in Me, and walk as I lead you. My Light and Word illuminates you, and the more that you draw near to Me and remain in Me, the more you will be changed by My Word. The more so then, that I will be seen through your life, for that is your purpose, to reveal Me. I will be seen in the midst of all of Mine.

I am building My House, My People, and I will complete My Work.

The Reaping Tide Has Come In
Susan Cummings

Do not fear the tides that have come in, nor the tides that will go out, My People. For I haven given you My Peace to be your Provision. You have known, for I have told you, that changes were coming. Strengthen the cords that bind you together! Great peace you will have, as you stand together in Me!

Know that I am realigning the systems that have been contrary to My Will, and that have been birthed according to the lusts of men's hearts. Many things that I have shown unto you are beginning to breakthrough and many more will be shown for their roots. For the foundations are being exposed, and brought forth for My dealings. Great Consternation will be the fruit of the exposure and the dealings that I will bring to those who have resisted Me. For the Tide has come in and soon it will go out again!

Nothing will remain the same! The Sands of Change will flow with My Tide as I bring forth the adjustments necessary for the fulfillment of all things. Do not fear the Contrary Winds that blow upon the seas, for they serve to bring forth the cleansing and the healing to those who will receive it. Listen to My Voice, and allow Me to bring forth the changes for your life!

What was visible is now changing as the Tide comes in. For the Contrary Winds blow the fruit away, and the roots are exposed. Fear is the fruit of exposure. But My Children do not fear, as I have already judged them. I have dealt my Justice to them and My Love has kept them. What is now exposed is the counterfeit. That is why fear is rooted in the exposure of the Truth of the foundation. It is opposed to My Love and My Word.

When men build upon, and add to My Principles laid out in My Word, they will always produce a counterfeit. It will produce from the seed of lust that is in their hearts. Whatsoever a man sows, he will reap. Now what is seen, is the Reaping Tide that has come in!

Just as the Tide will come in, it will surely go out again. What I have begun will be apparent, in the flowing of the Tide. For it will not only reveal the foundations, but it will show My Handiwork that I am bringing forth at this time!

I am going to be seen in the business practices, of My people, who are in the nations!

I am going to be seen in the personal lives of My People!

I am going to be a Dividing Light of Truth to all men!

Every man will choose whom he will serve!

For I am bringing forth a Standard of Holiness that has never been seen amongst My People! The Truth will be evident as they walk before Me! I will have a People who walk in pureness of hearts, and lives! My Glory will seen in them as they walk with Me! I have made a provision for My People in this time. For it will be clearly seen, those who are Mine, from those who walk apart from My Counsel.

For great will be the Joy of My People, as they walk in the midst of the Tides. They will fear no evil, nor will they stumble as they walk. My Canopy of Truth is spread over them, and they will behold Me in their midst!

For My Justice has been unleashed, and it will uphold all who have chosen to live in My Truth.

My Precious visionaries! How I love each of you more than you could ever know. I love each of you with a love that you cannot understand. You cannot fathom the love I have for you, and I am always bringing you deeper in Me, as you obey Me.

My Precious visionaries, what are you viewing your situation with? Through My eyes, or yours?

I see many of My children today, looking through the world’s eyes, not looking through the eyes of My Word. My eyes burn all that is not of Me, and My Word is the standard in all things. Why have many of you allowed yourselves to become lukewarm and see situations, and your relationship with Me through complacent eyes?

Through My Spirit I have given you My Glasses. My eyes. You can view ALL things through the scope of My Word, yet many of you are choosing to base your decisions upon emotions and opinions, and not through how "I" see things, and through My Glasses, My eyes.

A time is coming where a great shaking will occur. If you do NOT commit yourself to viewing ALL things through My Glasses and My eyes, you will fall prey to the enemy.

As you continue to use glasses other than mine, things will become blurred, confused, and you will become disorientated. I have called each of you to see things through My Word, through My eyes.

Rise Up My visionaries. See as I see. Ask of Me to impart My vision to you, and I will. I will show you how I see things. Ask of Me.

Take off the glasses you have chosen to wear that are not of Me, and put on those that I have given you. My eyes.

As you wear My Glasses, as you look through My eyes, you will receive a greater love for people, compassion, wisdom and discernment. Is this not far better?

Be the visionaries I’ve called you to be. See things as they WILL be, not where they are now. See as I see. Speak to situations and people, how I see them, and watch the power of My Spirit transform everything.

Be My visionaries. Wear My Glasses, My eyes, and speak forth what I see, and watch everything change.

Sparkling Gushing Waters

My waters are gushing forth. They are gushing forth from the heavens. The heavens have been opened and My waters, My living waters are gushing forth. I am sending forth a mighty move of My Spirit, My living waters, as I see many of you are crying out and thirsty for more and more.

I have heard and I am gushing my waters forth now. Open your arms and be ready to receive. Open your mouths and hearts and be ready to receive. Stand in expectant hope of the outpouring I am about to release.

As I am gushing forth My living waters, all that is not of Me must be put to death so that My waters may flow freely. As My waters are pouring over many of you, I am clearing away the muddy waters, to show you what needs to be crucified. What needs to be reckoned as dead on the cross, the flesh that needs to be put to death again.

Dying to the flesh is a continual process, and I am continually walking with each one of you to continually guide you to nail to the cross the things that are not of Me, for if you continue to keep them alive, feed them, they hinder My work.

Continue to look at yourself in My reflection, in My waters and allow Me to show you the things that need to be nailed to the cross. I am calling each of you to be more and more like Me. Each day as you allow Me too, I am transforming each of you more and more into My image.

As each of you allow My waters to flow over you, and all the things that are not of Me are continually nailed to My cross on a daily basis, you will sparkle with the glitter of My presence, of My Waters.

What happens when the sun hits something wet? It shines!
So it is with you My beautiful jewels. As you allow My living waters to pour over you, and I shine over you, how much will you sparkle? You will sparkle greatly for Me, and you will see many attracted to such holiness, purity and sparkling people.

My heart for each of you is to get deep into My waters. Now as I am pouring out my gushing waters, come deeper, crucify the flesh, die to self, come to Me, let Me pour My waters over you, and how greatly shall you sparkle for Me.
I see many of you are so thirsty for more of Me. Come to Me and receive the gushing forth of My waters.

My jewels, My church, as you pour water over something, the entire object is drenched, so it is with My Spirit. As you come to Me and allow Me to pour My living waters over you, those places inside many of you that you have seen as dead, places of hurt, places of rejection, places of wounding, I will touch. I will touch these places and bring life and hope and healing to them. As you allow My waters to gush forth over you, allow My waters to touch every part of you. Do not keep or withhold any areas from Me.

Allow Me to drench you. The more you allow Me to drench you in My living waters, the more you shall sparkle in My light. The brighter you shall sparkle.

I have called you My church to be sparklers. Sparklers for Me.
Come to Me. Allow My gushing waters to pour over you, to drench you and touch the areas that have not been touched for so long.

I will pour My waters over each of you as you come to Me. I will show you more of who I am, and more of who you are in Me. I am washing over each of you like a wave. I am washing away muddy water, so you may see clearly.

I the Lord your God are bringing forth My Sparklers. I am placing each of you where you need to be placed. You will sparkle My church.
To allow My light to sparkle over you, you must continue to die to the flesh, and allow My gushing waters to flow over you. You will sparkle for all to see My Glory. Stand where I have placed you, do not move. Stand where I have called you too, and allow My light to shine over you. Nothing you can do can intensify the sparkle, on I can. My light.

So the more you are in My waters and My light, the brighter you shall sparkle.
I have opened the gates of heaven. My gushing waters are coming forth. Be ready My church, be ready.

Stop Hiding

Why are you hiding under rocks? Why are each of you taking a step back from My Kingdom and not a step forward? Why are you allowing the enemy to bring fear to you?

Do you not understand what I have spoken? Do you not understand that I am rallying my army together and I am calling My children to take their stand?

My precious beloved warriors, I love each of you more than you know. I adore you all so very much, and continue to look to you with such love, but do not grieve Me any longer.

Do not grieve My heart by taking steps back, by hiding behind things and not stepping into the light.

Be counted. Be counted. Do you really want to serve Me? Do you really want to be used in the Kingdom of the Almighty?

Stop hiding! Do you think that I cannot see you? Do you think that I cannot see where you are hiding and how many of you are reluctant in sacrificing what is needed to serve in My Kingdom.

Be prepared and ready for battle My children. I do not want halfhearted warriors out on My battlefield, I want My people who are completely committed to fighting and serving Me.

I’ve drawn the line in the sand. I have placed the mark before My church now, and I am calling, come out of the darkness, and into the light.

Decide whether you want to be counted. Come up to the line, and be counted.

Truly worship Me, truly truly worship My by giving your all to Me, leaving all behind, leaving all in the background where a lot of you have been hiding, and come out, and take a stand at the line in the sand that I have drawn.

I have seen you, I love you and want to use you. So I am calling you to come out from the darkness and the background and come and stand at the line I have placed in the sand.

Yes, being counted and standing at the line will be a sacrifice it will cost you all that you have, but it’s worth it, as it’s MY best for you.

Die to yourself, die to your fleshly desires, stop loving the chains that have held you down for so long, and GET UP and GET OUT of the hiding places, and come to Me.

Come, be counted. Truly worship and serve Me.

The shaking is beginning, soon you will see more of My word being fulfilled, you will see people of power rise up that are NOT of me, and you must be counted and ready.

You must be at the line, exactly where I need you to be, so that you may hear and discern all that’s going on. For many other leaders will begin and have begun drawing lines that are NOT of me, lines to confuse My people, do not LISTEN.

My precious children, the ONLY way you can survive these times coming is by being at the line I have drawn and listening to Me. Listening to Me your commander and Father. Listen.

Come to the line. Come out of hiding, and ARISE.

STOP HIDING, ARISE!

Mighty in Battle

The episode of the Woman Taken in Adultery in one of the most dramatic of all Jesus' encounters with the Pharisees. Yet it is also one of the most mysterious as well. Here is the text.

> John Chapter 8:
> 1. Jesus went unto the mount of Olives.
> 2. And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.
> 3. And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,
> 4. They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.
> 5. Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?
> 6. This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.
> 7. So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.
> 8. And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground
> 9. And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.
> 10. When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?
> 11. She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

This commentary hopes to remove some of the mystery and share some exciting things the Lord has shown me regarding this passage. I have gone over this text many times in its preparation. I suggest that the reader will get the most benefit by going over it more than once.

The idea of a spiritual meaning behind this passage came to me several years ago while listening to a tape by Bob Jones, one of the Kansas City Prophets. Brother Jones explained that the woman is a type of the Church, and that the story is prophetic of her redemption. That is, just as the woman is caught in her adultery and has her sin openly exposed, so the Church is about to have her sin exposed and to be accused, of all manner of things. As the woman in the story repents and is set free, the church also will go through a similar experience that will lead to revival. [Some are now prophesying this in terms of a Civil War.]

Therefore this text has a special prophetic significance. As it says in 1st Corinthians 10:11 "Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come."

There is a pattern in this story; a pattern of revival, specifically of end-time revival. The church is about to experience a severe attack of the enemy. This will in fact be a judgment from the Lord. (...Judgment must begin at the house of God.... 1st Peter 4:17) This in turn brings the Church to the place of Repentance. Revival will take place, which will include Divine commissioning, a mandate and an anointing that empowers her to complete the Great Commission and bring in the Harvest.

There is another pattern here found widely throughout scripture: An Encounter with The Lord, in which He reveals Himself for Who He is.

This encounter produces several results that are typical of revival. (After all, isn't revival the result of a meeting with the Lord?) The one having the encounter receives the Fear of the Lord. They become very meek and humble. They worship the Lord. They receive new revelation knowledge from the Lord. Then they are used by the Lord. (Where before they could not be used because they lacked these things.) This happens to greater or lesser degree depending directly upon the degree to which God reveals himself.

This is true of almost all major characters in the bible. Consider the degree to which He revealed Himself to Saul of Tarsus, and the thoroughness of his dramatic conversion to Paul the Apostle. (Another story typical of revival.) Another way of describing an encounter with the Lord is this: The Revelation of Jesus Christ! Which is to say, Revival is the Revelation of Jesus Christ! And this is seen in the very next Verse (12) which says "Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world:"

Let's go back to the text.

> John Chapter 8:
> 1. Jesus went unto the mount of Olives.
> 2. And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

First, notice that Jesus has come down from the mountain. He went up to the mountain; so, reading between the lines, to get to the temple, he had to come back down.
This speaks of his coming down from heaven. "The Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple." (Mal. 3:1) We see this scripture from Malachi fulfilled several times in the Bible. Indeed this has been the pattern of Divine visitations throughout our history in the Great Awakenings and world wide revivals. "He came again." Suddenly the Lord Comes AGAIN and visits his people in judgment and blessing!
And now we see Jesus, sitting in the temple. Or in other words we Behold The Lamb Upon The Throne. The Lord God, the King of Israel reigning in Zion. The scene is a shadow of the throne room in heaven! Note also that with Jesus sitting there we have an illustration of the Judgment Seat of Christ. This is born out, as we see, since He immediately has a case brought to Him to judge.
Since he is in the Temple, He is among His people for the people are the Temple and the Temple is the people. The Lord indwelling His people also speaks of revival.

Verse 2 also mentions that he taught the people - a mark of revival. On first reading this text it is easy to assume that while He was teaching, the Pharisees and Scribes came and interrupted him. We are not told what he taught them, but the text shows us. For you see the incursion of the Pharisees & Scribes was not an interruption of the lesson, it was the lesson!

The Bible says that "The Lord thy God, in the midst of thee is Mighty!" (Zephaniah 3:17) We see this demonstrated here as Jesus, the Captain of the Host, reigning in the midst of His people, is about to do battle with his enemies.

> 3. And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,
> 4. They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.
> 5. Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?
> 6. This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with [his] finger wrote on the ground, [as though he heard them not].

The scribes and Pharisees speak of ruling principalities and powers, demon princes, the rulers of wickedness in high places (Eph. 6:12). First they were over the people. Their social position speaks of a higher spiritual position. Second they are accusers (v. 4). The bible describes Satan as the accuser of the brethren. Third, they are enemies of the woman (the church), seeking to steal, kill and destroy her (v. 5). And fourth, they are also enemies of God seeking to accuse Him, or catch him in a contradiction (v.6). Thus showing the enemies of the church to be enemies of God. Because for Him to deny His Word would be to deny Himself meaning He would cease to exist.

This shows the seriousness involved in Satan's challenging the Word of God. The entire scene reminds me of Job chap 1 and 2 where the sons of God came and presented themselves and Satan came amongst them to accuse Job, and to challenge God Himself. There is an even greater resemblance to the scene in Psalm 82.

> Psalms 82
> 1. God standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the gods.
> 2. How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? ....
> 6. I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High.
> 7. But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.

There we see God confronting his enemies, just as here in John 8, when we see him pronouncing judgment on them. "Ye shall die like men."

Now back to our story.

> 3. And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; ....

The pharisees have brought in a woman taken captive. ("For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, ... ", 2 Timothy 3:6). Who is this woman? Don't imagine that this is some errant young girl who was unlucky enough to get caught fooling around! No way! These Pharisees are naturally going to bring in a common prostitute of Jerusalem, someone that everybody knows is a whore and has no doubt as to her guilt.
Who is this woman? none other than the town whore! So that in the eyes of the spectators (the world) she is not worthy of any sympathy whatsoever! And why is this? Because they want to put all the pressure on Jesus. So here we have them bringing in the town whore. Who is this woman? She is someone that everybody hates. As all the world hates the church, she is a type of the Church. Isn't this an accurate picture of the Church's present condition? (Notice she (the church) does not come to the place of repentance on her own, but only by the doings of the enemy!)

> 3. ...and when they had set her in the midst,

She began silently to pray. She prays somewhat in the spirit of the following verses; perhaps even quoting parts of them.

> Ps 119:25 My soul cleaveth unto the dust: quicken thou me according to thy word.
> Ps 41:4 I said, LORD, be merciful unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee.
> Ps 31:9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.
> Ps 51:2 Wash me throughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.
> Ps 51:3 For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.
> Ps 86:14 O God, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul; and have not set thee before them.

To understand what happens here we must visualize the scene as in a drama on a stage. This scene is illustrated by a painting in some editions of the bible. It shows the woman, lying at Jesus feet, weeping. However the text does not mention this. Only that at the end she is found standing. She may well have initially fallen at His feet but at some point He must have bid her to rise. ("Shake thyself from the dust; arise, ...O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.") (Isaiah 52:2.) First because he has answered the above prayer for mercy. It doesn't take long at all for God to hear and answer prayer. "...as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth...." (Isaiah 66:8) Second because he will need room on the ground in front of him for what he is about to do next.

> 6. This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

Now in verse 5, the accusers attribute a certain command to Moses, that the woman should be stoned. "but what sayest thou?" they add. Some commentators point out that this is a ploy to entrap Jesus. If he agrees, he puts himself at odds with the Roman rulers who alone held the right to condemn someone to death. If he disagrees, he contradicts the Law of Moses. (But John 3:17 says "For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.")

At this point the Pharisees are thinking that after all their attempts they have finally gotten something on Jesus. They tried to trick him with the Roman tax coin, they tried to trap him with the question about the Baptism of John, and other such questions. So many times they have tried, but this time they're sure they have him. They are so confident that they come against him right in the very Temple and in front of all the people. (But Job 20:5 says "That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?")

At this point things have suddenly become deadly serious. I can just imagine the spectators sucking in their breath as the tension mounts! "Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered?" (Isaiah 49:24)

Now it is thought that by saying nothing in answer to their accusation, he avoids the trap and puts the burden of executing judgment on them. "...and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her."

But there is much more to it than that. Let's look at three elements here. What did He write, what was he doing as he wrote, and why did He write it instead of saying it?

What did Jesus Write?

First of all, it is significant that Jesus wrote WITH HIS FINGER. The finger of God. (Always keep in mind that Jesus is God.) He said in Luke 11:20 "But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you." Here he casts out the scribes and Pharisees, stand-ins for devils! 'The finger of God' therefore speaks of the Law and Judgment. The finger of God wrote the Law upon the stone tablets of Moses. A tablet or table is nothing more than a flat surface. So is the floor of the temple. The same finger of God produced the famous "Handwriting on the wall" in Babylon. (Daniel 5) It's the same finger that writes His Law in our hearts.
The accusers stated that Moses commanded that she should be stoned. Here is where the Holy Spirit prompted me with a pointed question:

What exactly does the Law say?

And in the process of finding this out, He led me to two key verses in the Law of Moses. Then I began to receive deep insights into the whole passage. Because when you check out what the Law says you see that THE PHARISEES LIED! What they claimed Moses said is not what the Law says! So to demonstrate that; when Jesus wrote on the ground, HE QUOTED THE LAW! And He quoted it correctly, exactly as it was given to Moses. (After all He was the one who gave the law in the first place!)

The first thing he wrote was Leviticus 20:10.

> And the man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbor's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

Not only did this "ignorant carpenter" confound them by quoting the law exactly, He wrote it out perfectly, upside down and backwards so that all who were facing Him could plainly read it!

> 7. So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

The power of this rebuke has stood as an indictment of man's hypocrisy down through the ages. Regardless of what Jesus wrote, you can see that it broke them, totally shattering their unity. With one stroke they went from being vicious accusers to being helpless sinners facing the judgment of an angry God.

> 8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

The bible says "let every word be confirmed in the mouth of two or three witnesses." (2nd Corinthians 13:1) So now Jesus writes out a second scripture. This time it was Deuteronomy 22:22.

> If a man be found lying with a woman married to an husband, then they shall both of them die, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman: so shalt thou put away evil from Israel.

Notice that in both of these scriptures the man is mentioned first and that both parties are guilty of death! Also note that stoning is not mentioned. That's where the Pharisees lied!

At this point, we recall that the scribes were those whose task was to copy out the scriptures. So they should be expected to know what the Law said. The Pharisees were especially noted for memorizing the five books of Moses. But what have they done here? They have shown themselves to be liars, and incompetents in front of all the people. First of all they were liars for misquoting Moses whose disciples they claimed to be. Experts in the Law who don't even know what the Law says?

And then they show themselves to be incompetent to rule over the people by not bringing in both guilty parties! They claimed to have caught her in the very act, so they must have caught him as well! Even though they had taken captive a prisoner who was known to be guilty, they let the other guilty party go free! So there was no way for them to execute judgment or even to make their accusation stick according to the law of Moses!

Now after Jesus spoke the words "He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her" He continued to write. While that was sinking in, the second scripture completed the proof that none of the accusers were without sin! Perhaps there was an element of sarcasm in his voice as he said it! As if to say, 'here by quoting the law, I have exposed your sin. Now which of you has the nerve to claim he is without sin?' In other words Jesus has exposed their sin and they could not stand before God with sin.

Let's look at one more aspect of this. Speaking of witnesses and the sentence of death consider this passage from Deuteronomy.

> Deuteronomy 17:2-7
> 2 If there be found among you, within any of thy gates which the LORD thy God giveth thee, man or woman, that hath wrought wickedness in the sight of the LORD thy God, in transgressing his covenant,
> 3 And hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded;
> 4 And it be told thee, and thou hast heard of it, and inquired diligently, and, behold, it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought in Israel:
> 5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man or that woman, which have committed that wicked thing, unto thy gates, even that man or that woman, and shalt stone them with stones, till they die.
> 6 At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death.
> 7 The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So thou shalt put the evil away from among you.*

[Here we note that the context is speaking of those who go to serve and worship other gods, i. e. spiritual adultery.] What this tells us is that those who witnessed the crime must be the ones to "first cast a stone at her". These Pharisees have told Jesus that "this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act." So Jesus Challenges them, saying, "He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her." What this does is call for two or more of them to come forth and claim to be witnesses of the act. If they come forth with such an accusation, it becomes obvious that they know the identity of the other guilty party in the adultery. And as we noted above they have failed to accuse the other party, knowing full well who he is, having witnessed the act themselves. So if they claim to be witnesses they are not without sin, having failed to deal with both guilty persons. The result is that the accuser of the brethren is automatically guilty of sin!

Here is the prayer of the woman at this point.

> Ps 142:7 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about; for thou shalt deal bountifully with me.
> Ps 119:175 Let my soul live, and it shall praise thee; and let thy judgments help me.
> Ps 69:18 Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me because of mine enemies.
> Ps 40:14 Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward and put to shame that wish me evil.

You will notice that the prayer shifts to imprecation, calling for judgment on one's enemies. And that's exactly what Jesus accomplishes in verse 9. It's no wonder they all left, after being rebuked and corrected in matters of the Law. They were utterly embarrassed! And when they were convicted of sin, they were unwilling to repent before the only one who had the power to forgive sin. "Who is this that forgiveth sins...?!" (Luke 7:49)

> 9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

They left one by one, showing that their unity was shattered. The eldest left first. The leaders were first to realize that they had just made total fools of themselves.

What was Jesus doing as he wrote?

He was fighting his battle and he was revealing himself. Since God's throne is established on Mercy and Judgment, Jesus was demonstrating His Lordship! How so? Jesus wrote in the dust before all the people to pronounce judgment and to show mercy at the same time. In doing one He was able to do the other, for as the accusers were judged, the woman received forgiveness! (Psalm 9:16 says "The LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands." Since the Lord is know by the judgment he executes, this is one way He reveals Himself for Who He is!)

Now besides that, what Jesus did was to use the law to convict them of sin. Romans 5:13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.) shows the purpose of the law was to convict of sin. Here the Pharisees not only made fools of themselves, they are guilty of breaking the very law they are trying to use against the woman. Why? Because that law applied to them! The prohibition against adultery applied to the woman. There was no question about her guilt. The entire dispute is over the penalty for sin. The law proscribing the death penalty for the two parties involved in adultery was binding on them. The judges of Israel were required to carry it out. Doesn't the law speak to them when it says "... so shalt thou put away evil from Israel." This they clearly failed to do; it was never even their intention. They could not even come close since they had let one of the guilty ones go free. "How long will ye judge unjustly, ..." was the rebuke he gave in Ps. 82:2, it is equally descriptive of the situation here.

Now moving along, note also that it says "Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst" and in verse 10, "When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman". In the natural sense of the text it is understood to mean all the accusers had left. But in the literal sense it says all the people had left as well. (This is one of those cases, where something that does not quite make sense in the literal, that just doesn't add up, is used to point to a spiritual meaning.) When the accusers were driven back, Jesus was alone with the woman. What about the people? Symbolically the people are part of the woman. There are no neutral spectators in this situation. You are part of the woman or your part is with the enemies of God. The people are the temple, the temple is the church. The church is the woman, the woman is you and I. And we are the bride; and Jesus has eyes only for his bride, he "saw none but the woman". And when Jesus arises again, on the last day, at the sound of the last trumpet, it will be to gather his bride to himself with great rejoicing!

And so we need to consider this from the point of view of the accused woman, not that of a spectator. Our position is that of the accused; we the church are guilty as charged and her prayers, all of them, shall be our prayers. So we note that she is humble and repentant, and thereby able to remain standing when others are driven back. As 1st Peter 5:5 says "...and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble."

> 10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?
> 11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

Why did Jesus write out the Word instead of speaking it?

Again there is a combination of mercy and judgment.
By not exposing the full extent of their sin out loud and in public, he was in effect letting them off the hook. The pharisees knew He could have made it far worse on them if He did. And it would perhaps have angered them to the point where they would try to kill him before his time.

But He also did it to illustrate two amazing points from the scriptures! It was not for the benefit of those on the scene at that time. It was for our benefit as readers of the bible. How so? We must visualize the scene, and be open to the Lord's sense of humor as he makes a play on words.

There are two amazing points that are made by visualizing the scene. First by stooping down to write, He had to rise up again. "When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman,"
This is an illustration of a scripture. It's an exact visual demonstration of Psalm 68:1! "LET GOD ARISE; LET HIS ENEMIES BE SCATTERED!" Hallelujah! When God Arose all his enemies were on the run! And that's exactly how it is when Jesus moves on your behalf!

The second play on words in even more interesting. Picture Jesus standing in the center of the scene. About three or four feet in front of him is the accused woman, facing him, repentant and broken. The accusers have left and the people are standing around watching. Between them, written 'in the dust of the earth' as one translation puts it, are the scriptures Jesus has just written out. Now Jesus speaks. "Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?"

At this point something happens. The woman reacts by turning completely around. Now with her back to Jesus, facing the same way he is, we see her taking two or three steps backward in astonishment and joy that her accusers are gone! "When the LORD turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream. Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing...." Ps. 126:1,2. A perfectly natural and obvious reaction by anyone in these circumstances!

And here is the woman's prayer at this point.

> Ps 30:3 O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.
> Ps 124:7 Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped.

Now once this happens, consider the position of the woman when she confesses Him as Lord. She has drawn closer to Jesus and is now standing on the very spot where Jesus wrote on the ground! In other words, she is standing on the word of God and seeing things from His point of view! Since she has stepped backwards, she has now drawn closer to Jesus. In fact she is now standing in His shadow! Then, once the woman, (the church) turns about to face her enemies, and takes her stand on the Word of God, she lifts up her eyes and finds that Jesus has already fought the battle and won the victory for her!

Recall the scene in 2nd Chronicles 20...

> 15 ... Thus saith the LORD unto you, ... Be not afraid nor dismayed ... for the battle is not yours, but God's.
> 17 Ye shall not need to fight in this battle: set your selves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD

We saw above that the Church's enemies are also the Lord's enemies; note that 2nd Chronicles 20:15 says "the battle is not yours, but God's."
So the battle is the Lord's, and He shows Himself strong on behalf of His people; Mighty in Battle!
And how does He fight? Revelation 2:16, says "...I will ...fight against them with the sword of my mouth." We find this point demonstrated here also. That is exactly how He fights! He fights with the sword of His mouth, and destroys his enemies with the Word!

Now Jesus steps forward and lays a comforting hand upon her shoulder. (Draw close to God and He will draw close to you!) And, while also standing on His Word, says "Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more." Notice His two commands; GO, and sin no more. These are the same for any Christian; but speak especially of the Church in Revival. The 'Go' is the power and the anointing, the 'sin no more' is the requisite holiness to move in that power.

And This is how you get the victory.
First be willing to come before the Lord in repentance.
Second let the Lord fight the battle for you!

"There is therefore, no condemnation to those that are in Christ Jesus." {Romans 8:1)

Now the final prayer of the woman would go something like this from Luke chapter 1: (Where it is spoken by another woman who is another type of the Church.)

> 46 ... My soul doth magnify the Lord,
> 47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior.
> 48 For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
> 49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name.
> 50 And his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.
> 51 He hath showed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
> 52 He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.
> 53 He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

The Other Guilty Party
Some have said that the reason all the Pharisees left the temple was that they themselves were among those guilty of committing adultery with the harlot. The text viewed from the natural does not support this, but viewed as types it does.

If this scene represents Satan accusing the church of spiritual adultery, isn't he the other guilty party? We have seen that the Law requires that there be two guilty parties and that both be put to death. So cannot the Lord reply 'well tell me Satan, just who is the other guilty party? Exactly who have my people been unfaithful with?' So the effect here is to illustrate yet another scripture: as it says in Psalm 64:8 "So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves...."

The relationship between God and his people (Israel and/or Church) is one of betrothal of marriage. They are legally married but not yet fully united. One thing this accomplishes is to protect them, to a degree, from the accuser when they are unfaithful. Since the accuser is the other guilty party in the adultery. So to bring the full accusation of adultery against them would rebound against the accuser as well. The other thing is that eventually the church must be willing to accept the sentence of death. Ps. 110:3 "Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power...." And in that day the Lord will use it to destroy the enemy!

Now to summarize:

> Colossians 2:13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;
> 14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;
> 15 And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.
> Psalm 68:1 Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him. 2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
> 3 But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God: yea, let them exceedingly rejoice.
> ...
> 34 Ascribe ye strength unto God: his excellency is over Israel, and his strength is in the clouds.
> 35 O God, thou art terrible out of thy holy places: the God of Israel is he that giveth strength and power unto his people. Blessed be God.
> Ephesians 5:23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the savior of the body.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;
26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,
27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

Jude 1:24 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,
25 To the only wise God our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

My Scepter is ALWAYS Raised!
Mary Clark

My scepter is ALWAYS raised, My beloved – ALWAYS! You are always welcome to come into My presence. There is delight in My heart when I see you entering. There is delight in My heart when I hear your voice. Oh, yes! My scepter is NEVER lowered – always raised, and I want to tell you that today, beloved. I want to tell you that it pleases your King to have you draw near to Him. It pleases My heart when I see your heart turned toward Me, and hear your words of love spoken to Me. Can you realize that the King of kings is delighted with your presence? Is it too much for you to comprehend? Yes, I know that it is, but it is true, nevertheless. So come BOLDLY to Me, beloved, and tell Me what it on your heart. Come boldly to Me and speak words of love. I am waiting. I am listening. And I am delighted to see you, as you make your entrance into that holy place – that holy place that brings delight to your heart.

I want to tell you, My beloved, that a time is coming – it is surely upon you – when you will see the goodness of your God in vast array. I want you to embrace all that I am. Study on this picture: The King of glory is drawing you near into a more intimate place with Him. He is delighted to see you respond. You are drawing nearer. My heart is thrilled more than you could ever realize. At this point, I reach forth and touch you ever so lightly with My scepter. This entitles you to something you have never had before – a wonder that you have never experienced. Then I arise, take you by the hand, and move you along into My bridal chamber of love and delight. I ask you to rest while I make some final preparations for you. You rest there. Then I return, beloved, never to depart from you – always close to you in this most intimate fashion.

So be of good cheer, beloved child of God. I am moving you into a new and holy place with Me. I have prepared a feast for your enjoyment. It will strengthen you profoundly.

I am calling for you to come. I am hastening you to make your decision NOW to draw close. Don't hang back. MOVE! Move forward into that holy place of delight in Me. Know that My scepter is ALWAYS raised for you. Know that I have a wonderful plan for you to enter into a new hour. What a difference one single hour can make, beloved. Draw near to Me and see for yourself what a difference that one single hour can make for you – in your life – in your life everlasting, with your great and mighty King of glory!!!

Mercy Is Falling

June Anne Garber

Behold, the bowls of incense in the heavens are being tipped upon you this day. for your praises have extended My presence in this place. And, I have chosen to pour out My mercy, and that upon you – even in the largest of drops – even as oil – smooth and soothing. Let your eyes be anointed that you may see this rain of mercy which falls as drops hitting the place beneath, for there are pools and puddles of love laying all about to receive the working of mercy upon the land. Mercy falls and splatters and splashes as it hits these pools and puddles of love, no matter how small they appear to be, thus spraying in many directions to hit and touch the lives of all those near and afar, to him/her who would receive it. Wait, therefore, upon My rain, for it shall soak and saturate your lives, satisfying you with My mercy, My presence, My favor.

My Line In The Sand

faithbuildersministries@yahoo.com

"If MY PEOPLE, who are called by MY Name humbles themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, THEN will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land." 2 Chron 7:14

"This is what the Lord says: Look, I AM preparing a disaster for you and devising a plan against you, so turn from your evil ways, each one of you and reform your ways and your actions." Jeremiah 18:11

"If in spite of this you still do not listen to me, but continue to be hostile toward me, then in my anger I will be hostile toward you, and I Myself will punish you for your sins seven times over." Lev 26:27

"But I will rescue you on that day, declares the Lord; you will not be handed over to those you fear. I will save you, you will not fall by the sword but will escape with your life because you trust in Me, declares the Lord." Jeremiah 39: 17-18

I have been sending My warnings to My own through My prophets. Haven't I said that first I would come to My own? Unfortunately many have turned a deaf ear to My warnings. I have asked My Own to humbles themselves, repent of their ways and pray and then I would heal their land. Many have prayed but that was not enough - My mandate said that YOU must live "changed and repentant lives". What has been sown is now what will be reaped. I said I would stop My impending judgments IF My warnings were taken to heart. Nineveh was very evil but still had not seen the full impact of My wrath and judgment. Despite the wrong the Ninevites had done, a fear of the I AM caused them to turn from the evil they were doing and be saved from destruction. They fasted in sackcloth and in repentance. I have asked My own to humble themselves, repent then to pray for their land.

Many have been seeing judgments and many will begin to see judgments, not to bring you to nothing but to teach you to stop doing evil and learn by My hand of loving discipline in order to do good! "Obey not My voice, then I will repent of the good wherewith I said I would benefit you. At an instant, blessings will turn to cursings." A line in the sand, then no turning back, a point of no return. If you will not hearken to ME, even now, but walk contrary to Me, then I will walk contrary to you, also in fury and I, even I will chastise you seven times for your sins. A line in the sand, a point of no return where there will be no more warnings!

Even now many of My own, I say again, MY OWN, have not taken advantage of the ample warnings given by the I AM. YES, I AM long suffering. YES, I AM patient and YES, I AM kind but there comes a time when I draw a line in the sand and that time has come! My Word is a very serious mater. Many have listened to My Word so much but now have become insensitive to what it says. I have said that you need to know the urgency of My warnings.... I have said I want My own to repent .. I want My own to see and confess their own sins but still are they not hearing what I am saying. The sins of My people who are outwardly righteous but filled with inward corruption. Taken over by mans intellect, by man's philosophies all appealing to the human mind, it has infiltrated My Word and robbed it of it's true power. One can deceive everyone you come across but you have part of Me living inside you who you cannot deceive. And My Spirit says I can no longer live in what you are living in...under these conditions. For those who began only wanting My heart and still that is below the surface still in many - and you mean business with ME, I will remove these things from you and 'all will see your transformation.' You have a choice to continue as is and block My Words and Warning or you will genuinely repent and turn to Me in all ways and allow Me to work through you and not of yourself.

Oh My children, how many warnings do you have to receive? I have warned you time and time again. I have sent My prophets, witnessing, speaking and warning. I come to My own first and then to the world. I have so many damaged and hurting people, kicked down and almost out ... "My Own" damaged by other believers. This I can allow no longer, I will tolerate this NO MORE! I AM paying visitations. Many think they are ready for Me, adorned in their very best but when My presence comes, they will back off in terror for they will finally see just Who I truly AM. Are you ready for My day of visitation? It is surely upon you!

"Fear ME and give ME Glory (true Glory) because the hour of My judgment has come. Many still want to play church out of their own sanctuary but I say "Ichabod, Ichadbod, My Glory has departed!" Many have pushed Me out of the sanctuary of their own temple. I have given My own one last opportunity to obtain My mercy even now at this point where it is late in human history. One last chance to truly fear your God! Many are still holding on to the world, many still into "self and self-exaltation" while speaking in My Name. I have said that every tree that I have not planted will be rooted out. The I AM has asked for repentance and now I demand it. My judgment has begun with My own and I will no longer tolerate what I have in the past. One last chance to cross "fully" across that line in the sand, onto My side. Still, many will not see.... Still many will not repent but a few, oh yes, a few will see and they will repent and make Me truly the Lord of their lives. I have warned and warned and warned but the end is now in sight, the final warning. "For if the word spoken through angels is proved unalterable, that is steadfast and every transgression and disobedience receives a just recompense." There is a choice to be made and it has to be made now for you know NOT how much time you have left. Noah had 120 years but Lot had only 24 hours. Time is MY hands and the time is short! Make your decision wisely for your entire future depends on it!

I have spoken to My Own that I AM DOING A NEW THING! I have spoken of this many times. Read My Word and you will see that anytime I did anything spectacular and supernatural I warned My own first! MY Faithful Ones, oh My Faithful Ones, My remnant... Hear Me, for I will be calling you to arise and assemble. I will heal you! My true prophets and messengers have suffered greatly at the backlash they have received for speaking My Words. They wonder if anyone will truly listen but still they are obedient to speak forth what I have given them. I will heal all hurts, My Faithful Ones. I will heal the physical plagues that have besieged you which you haven't understood. I will heal you from all sickness and wounds - from accusations, from rejections, from condemnations and from every act that has left you weak and bleeding seeking and pleading to know when I would move. I have asked you to wait upon Me... to wait as I finalize My actions for your lives. Actions including separations from those not adherent to My plans ... actions to establish you in the place I have reserved for you, actions for everything to be in order. This has already begun and soon MY true remnant will be joined together by My Spirit and filled with My Power. Soon I will say unto you "Get into the ark" as you will see the messages I have given you to declare coming to pass. Be prepared to move forward at an instant, moving out with total faith, trust and courage In Me. You have gone through much as Satan has sought to sift you as wheat but he has done nothing without My knowledge. In the process you have lost much but know I will restore everything the enemy has taken. There is a final move afoot, both by Satan and by MYSELF and I AM gathering My remnant. A people who have listened diligently to My heart placing their entire focus, not on the events of the day or on other men, but upon ME! Brought into a complete love affair with their Bridegroom.

I have drawn a line in the sand and My faithful ones have crossed over ready to take their rightful place in My end time plans. "For behold, darkness shall cover the earth and gross darkness, the people, BUT the Lord shall arise upon My Faithful Ones and My Glory shall be seen upon them."

Be ready, for surely it happens suddenly, in an instant!

Mockery

Priscilla Van Sutphin

tearsofthefather@comcast.net

April 22nd , 2005

Ps 74:22-23 NIV Rise up, O God, and defend your cause; remember how fools mock you all day long.
23 Do not ignore the clamor of your adversaries, the uproar of your enemies, which rises continually.

I came home weeping tonight for the mockery I heard all afternoon in differing ways at the coffee shop. I imagine so many people working in the world today to feel the same way – grieved at those who know nothing about the true nature of the Lord and who are filled with unbelief and skepticism.
As I was writing out some of today's events…journaling…I couldn't stop crying and the Lord began to speak to me about mockery. And how He doesn't heal in the presence of that much mockery and unbelief. And my thoughts went to Jesus and how He couldn't do many miracles in his own town due to the unbelief. But I was still trying to listen to gain more wisdom on this because I want to see such power poured out that it overcomes unbelief, and skepticism and doubt. I want to be a living flame of fire for the Lord.

Mockery is more than unbelief, in that it is defiance of the holiness and awe of God. Mockery thwarts all that is holy to invade the unholy in normal kind of circumstances, and even in the presence of Christ Himself. The Pharisees mocked Jesus regularly. They thought themselves better than others, and better than HE was. So PRIDE is also an undergirding root in mockery He explained.

" I was mocked and abused by Pharisees, by those I loved and did miracles in, and by those unbelieving and abominable. I was mocked by My own family.
My brothers did not believe in Me, until I died and rose again. I was abandoned by all whom I loved. But I did what I did joyously enduring the scoffing and beating and mocking because of MY LOVE FOR YOU ! I was so looking forward to the cross so that I could reestablish relationship that was lost in the garden ! I SO LOVE MY BELOVEDS that I was willing to endure all that humiliation for you, that you would not have to suffer the penalty for your sins.

Just how great is My grace ? Do you believe really HOW MUCH I have loved you ? Are you able to receive My love ? Are you really able to just rest in ME, and receive from ME without wiggling and squirming and getting distracted ? When a soul is unhealed, it is impossible to not be distracted at times. Where there are strongholds on your mind and heart, or emotions, there is demonic infestation. Where there is infestation, there is thwarting of your will to obey ! THAT is why I am working now to remove the strongholds that have kept you from the fullness of TRUTH of how much I love you. I am breaking old patterns of sin and lies that you have swallowed.

So many in the church are grossly unhealed. They have been told to "shape up or ship out". They've been treated as so much flotsam or jetsam. They do not know how to overcome. They've tried but haven't been taught true spiritual warfare, so they believe it is impossible to overcome ! They don't know the power of My Spirit ! They don't know they can communicate with Me and be led of Me. They see all that as impossible. They think I am a God who is aloof and distant. But My word says that I am a GOD CLOSE AT HAND and NOT AFAR OFF ! My sheep hear My voice and they follow ME.

Many have been so hurt and neglected that they believe that I won't heal or don't want to heal them. They feel rejected and abandoned by ME and by My church. Worst of all, many have been so let down, and replete of understanding that they think all that is of the Spirit is of the devil and that they have to live on their own void of comfort and healing. Many have seen the perversion of those who claim to heal and save, only if you GIVE TO THEM. They think I heal only if they perform enough !

The good news is that I am going to overcome the lies and the apostasy with My power and love ! I have a plan to RESTORE. And when I say RESTORE, RESTORATION begins ! My Word is LIFE ! I will RESTORE MY CHURCH to what it was in the beginning and even more, so that the world will have NO EXCUSE for their unbelief ! Am I One Who desires for any to perish ? NO !
I desire that all men would come to the truth. But the problem is that men love sin more than Me. Those who hate ME will reject the truth. Do not think that I will continue allowing complacency and apathy in My church to reign ! I AM EL GIBOR ! I AM Jehovah Sabaoth – the Lord of Hosts and nothing will deter My power and love from being poured out and to bring RESTORATION. IT IS WRITTEN and it will be done !"

Isa 60:1-5 AMP ARISE [from the depression and prostration in which circumstances have kept you--rise to a new life]! Shine (be radiant with the glory of the Lord), for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you! [Zech 8:23.]
2 For behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and dense darkness [all] peoples, but the Lord shall arise upon you [O Jerusalem], and His glory shall be seen on you. [Isa 60:19-22; Mal 4:2; Rev 21:2,3.]
3 And nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising. [Isa 2:2,3; Jer 3:17.]
4 Lift up your eyes round about you and see! They all gather themselves together, they come to you. Your sons shall come from afar, and your daughters shall be carried and nursed in the arms.
5 Then you shall see and be radiant, and your heart shall thrill and tremble with joy [at the glorious deliverance] and be enlarged; because the abundant wealth of the [Dead] Sea shall be turned to you, unto you shall the nations come with their treasures. [Ps 119:32.]

2 Timothy 3
1 BUT UNDERSTAND this, that in the last days will come (set in) perilous times of great stress and trouble [hard to deal with and hard to bear].
2 For people will be lovers of self and [utterly] self-centered, lovers of money and aroused by an inordinate [greedy] desire for wealth, proud and arrogant and contemptuous boasters. They will be abusive (blasphemous, scoffing), disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy and profane.
3 [They will be] without natural [human] affection (callous and inhuman), relentless (admitting of no truce or appeasement); [they will be] slanderers (false accusers, troublemakers), intemperate and loose in morals and conduct, uncontrolled and fierce, haters of good.
4 [They will be] treacherous [betrayers], rash, [and] inflated with self-conceit. [They will be] lovers of sensual pleasures and vain amusements more than and rather than lovers of God. 5 For [although] they hold a form of piety (true religion), they deny and reject and are strangers to the power of it [their conduct belies the genuineness of their profession]. Avoid [all] such people [turn away from them].
6 For among them are those who worm their way into homes and captivate silly and weak-natured and spiritually dwarfed women, loaded down with [the burden of their] sins [and easily] swayed and led away by various evil desires and seductive impulses

7 [These weak women will listen to anybody who will teach them]; they are forever inquiring and getting information, but are never able to arrive at a recognition and knowledge of the Truth.
8 Now just as Jannes and Jambres were hostile to and resisted Moses, so these men also are hostile to and oppose the Truth. They have depraved and distorted minds, and are reprobate and counterfeit and to be rejected as far as the faith is concerned. [Ex 7:11.]
9 But they will not get very far, for their rash folly will become obvious to everybody, as was that of those [magicians mentioned].
10 Now you have closely observed and diligently followed my teaching, conduct, purpose in life, faith, patience, love, steadfastness,

11 Persecutions, sufferings--such as occurred to me at Antioch, at Iconium, and at Lystra, persecutions I endured, but out of them all the Lord delivered me. 12 Indeed all who delight in piety and are determined to live a devoted and godly life in Christ Jesus will meet with persecution [will be made to suffer because of their religious stand].

13 But wicked men and imposters will go on from bad to worse, deceiving and leading astray others and being deceived and led astray themselves.
14 But as for you, continue to hold to the things that you have learned and of which you are convinced, knowing from whom you learned [them],

Prov 14:9 NIV Fools mock at making amends for sin, but goodwill is found among the upright.

Isa 52:5-10 NIV "And now what do I have here?" declares the LORD.
"For my people have been taken away for nothing, and those who rule them mock," declares the LORD." And all day long my name is constantly blasphemed. 6 Therefore my people will know my name; therefore in that day they will know that it is I who foretold it. Yes, it is I." 7 How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news, who proclaim peace, who bring good tidings, who proclaim salvation, who say to Zion, "Your God reigns!" 8 Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices; together they shout for joy. When the LORD returns to Zion, they will see it with their own eyes. 9 Burst into songs of joy together, you ruins of Jerusalem, for the LORD has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem. 10 The LORD will lay bare his holy arm in the sight of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.

Moses' Commission

Bill Somers

Moses is often regarded as a type of Christ. In many ways he is a forerunner of Jesus. Jesus followed in his footsteps fulfilling certain patterns set by Moses' example.

The Lord met Moses at the burning bush and gave him his commission and a series of instructions. The commission and instructions can be seen as prophetic typology, which means the typology involved is prophecy. It foretells things to come later.

As Moses is the forerunner of Jesus, Moses' commission speaks prophetically of Jesus' ministry; both in the first and second comings. Parallels can be drawn, based on Moses' Commission, which show us that the Lord's instructions to Moses, are typical of the Father's instructions to his Son, Jesus. And those parallels provide us some interesting insights as well.

The relevant scripture is found in Exodus 3 & 4. We include here the entire passage, but we will only look closely at a few particular ones.

> Exodus 3:6 Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon God.
> 7 And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows;
> 8 And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.
> 9 Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me: and I have also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them.
> 10 Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.
> 11 And Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?
> 12 And he said, Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.
> 13 And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them?
> 14 And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.
> 15 And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.
> 16 Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt:
> 17 And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey.
> 18 And they shall hearken to thy voice: and thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and ye shall say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath met with us: and now let us go, we beseech thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.
> 19 And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not by a mighty hand.
> 20 And I will stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in > the midst thereof: and after that he will let you go.

> 21 And I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians: and it shall come to pass, that, when ye go, ye shall not go empty:
> 22 But every woman shall borrow of her neighbor, and of her that sojourneth in her house, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and ye shall spoil the Egyptians.
> 4:1 And Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee.
> 2 And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, A rod.
> 3 And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it.
> 4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand:
> 5 That they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee.
> 6 And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous as snow.
> 7 And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again; and plucked it out of his bosom, and, behold, it was turned again as his other flesh.
> 8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign.
> 9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also these two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land: and the water which thou takest out of the river shall become blood upon the dry land.
> 10 And Moses said unto the LORD, O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.
> 11 And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?
> 12 Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.
> 13 And he said, O my Lord, send, I pray thee, by the hand of him whom thou wilt send.
> 14 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said, Is not Aaron the Levite thy brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, he cometh forth to meet thee: and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.
> 15 And thou shalt speak unto him, and put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do.
> 16 And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of God.
> 17 And thou shalt take this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt do signs.
> 18 And Moses went and returned to Jethro his father in law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.
> 19 And the LORD said unto Moses in Midian, Go, return into Egypt: for all the men are dead which sought thy life.
> 20 And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt: and Moses took the rod of God in his hand.

I. God’s Purpose

God’s overall purpose in sending Jesus is profoundly highlighted through His purpose in sending Moses as predecessor.

We see it first in Exodus 3:8

> 8 And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. Exodus 3:8

And it's restated again in verses 10 and 12

> "I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt." (Exodus 3:10)."

The second part of this overall purpose is found in Exodus 3:12.

> "When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain."

Let's interpret the types. Pharaoh is a type of Satan, Egypt is the world and 'this mountain' speaks of the Church or the Kingdom of God. So God's overall purpose in sending Jesus is to bring his people out of the world system and bondage to Satan, and bring them into salvation and the Kingdom of God.

Colossians 1:12-13 acknowledges this when it says :

> "Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:"

Now let's look at some specifics.

II. Passages Relating To The First Coming

A. Tell Them I Am Has Sent You

> 14 And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.

The scripture says tell them I am has sent you. This is to say 'tell them I am sent from the Father'; to tell them 'I AM is to tell them His oneness with the Father. To tell them 'I AM' is to reveal His deity; and tell them "I am that I am". This is to say 'I am that which I am" which is to reveal the nature of God by His attributes. I am the Light of the World; I am the Resurrection and the Life; I am the Great Shepherd; etc. So Jesus is sent into the world to reveal the nature of the Father, and His unity with the Father. You could say his purpose is The Revelation of Jesus Christ!

Here are some passages where he does just that.

> And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. (John 6:35 KJV)
>
> Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. (John 8:12 KJV)
>
> And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me. (John 8:16 KJV)
>
> As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. (John 9:5 KJV)
>
> And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind. (John 9:39 KJV)
> I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. (John 10:9 KJV)*
>
> I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. (John 10:11 KJV)*
>
> Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: (John 11:25 KJV)
> And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me. (John 12:45 KJV)
>
> I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in* > darkness. (John 12:46 KJV)

> Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. (John 14:6 KJV)
> Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works. (John 14:10 KJV)
>
> Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake. (John 14:11 KJV)
>
> At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. (John 14:20 KJV)
>
> I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. (John 15:1 KJV)
>
> I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. (John 15:5 KJV)
>
> Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. (John 18:37 KJV)
> Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. (John 19:21 KJV)

B. Cast The Rod Down.

> Exodus 4:3 And he [God] said, Cast it [the rod] on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it.

Here Moses portrays the first and second Adams allegorically. The first Adam was given dominion by God. He lost it to Satan through forfeiture. This is shown by his casting down the rod that symbolizes his authority. Once he lets go this authority, Satan’s controlling power manifests. He [Satan, the serpent, the devil] now holds Mankind in bondage by the fear of death, as evidenced by Moses fleeing the serpent.

> Exodus. 4.4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand:

However when Jesus, the second Adam, came, he demonstrated power over Satan. This is shown by Moses laying hold of the serpent. As the serpent becomes a rod again, we see that the power and authority that Adam lost was recovered by Jesus.

Let's look at this a bit closer.

The Rod speaks of authority, measurement, judgment, correction, punishment. It can also be a scepter, which speaks of ruling with authority. A lance or javelin speaks of throwing. A staff indicates support, and, by extension, life support as in the 'staff of bread'. It can be a branch, and figuratively means a tribe, as a branch of a 'family tree' can mean a tribe.

Examples:

> Judgment: Leviticus 27:32 And concerning the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, even of whatsoever passeth under the rod, the tenth shall be holy unto the LORD. [Passing under the rod is like passing inspection.]
> Measurement: Revelation 11:1 And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

> Control or correction: Proverbs 26:3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back.
> Rulership: Revelation 19:15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

And:

> Psalms 110:2 The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

In Genesis 1 we find where God gave authority to Adam.

> (Gen 1:28 KJV) And God blessed them, [Man] and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

The same idea is echoed in the Psalms.

> Psalm 115:16 The heaven, even the heavens, are the Lord's: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

Through his sin of disobedience to God, Adam lost that authority; and by obeying the serpent, he became his servant.

> Romans 6:16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

There is a very important passage in Hebrews 2 detailing the power that the devil has.

> Hebrews 2:14-15 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;
> And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

Prophetic typology is seen in the following verse where Moses is struck with fear.

> Exodus 4:3 And he [God] said, Cast it [the rod] on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it.

The passage from Hebrews speaks of how Jesus, through his death, triumphs over the devil, who has the power of death, and holds men in bondage through fear of death. [Important point!] When we reach a point of death to self, that death will allow us to overcome Satan by freeing us from the fear of death as well.

As noted earlier, Jesus is the second Adam, and when He came, he demonstrated power over Satan, and recovered the power that the first Adam had lost. Here are some representative scriptures.

> Luke 4:40-41 Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.
> And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.
> Luke 6:17-18 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judaea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;
> And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.
>
> Mat 28:18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in > heaven and in earth.

C. Put your hand into your bosom.

This symbolically illustrates the idea that Jesus took our sin upon himself, died in our place, and was raised again in a new glorified body. Here is the scripture again.

> 6 And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous as snow.
> 7 And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again; and plucked it out of his bosom, and, behold, it was turned again as his other flesh.
> 8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign.

To see this part of the allegory, three elements must come into play. The first is the hand, which we assume is the right hand. The second is leprosy, and it's symbolic meaning. The third is the fact that Jesus bore our sins.

To be brief, the Right Hand stands for Jesus; and leprosy stands for sin. As Moses takes his right hand out of his bosom, he is acting as a type of the Father.

As Moses extends his hand, it speaks of the Father sending Jesus. As the hand is seen to be leprous, it speaks of Jesus taking on the sin of the world. As the hand is pulled back in and concealed, it speaks of Jesus' death and burial. And when the hand is brought forth again, it speaks of Jesus' resurrection. So Jesus' resurrection is a sign to those who will not believe.

The Right Hand

Now let's consider how the Right Hand stands for Jesus

What does it mean when Moses prays as follows?

> Exodus 15:
> 16 Fear and dread shall fall upon them; by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still as a stone; till thy people pass over, O LORD, till the people pass over, which thou hast purchased.
> 17 Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance, in the place, O LORD, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in, in the Sanctuary, O Lord, which thy hands have established.

Simply put, he is speaking of the church, and of the people he purchased. The same concept is found in Psalm 78, where the right hand is mentioned specifically.

> Psalms 78:54 And he brought them to the border of his sanctuary, even to this mountain, which his right hand had purchased.

We are to be planted in the holy mountain, a people purchased with a price by Jesus who allegorically is portrayed as right hand.

> What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. (1 Corinthians 6:19-20 KJV)

So put two and two together, and you may conclude that the Right Hand is Jesus, the one who paid the price.

Here is a sample of typical verses using the phrase "Right Hand," all of which show or suggest its identification with Jesus.

> *Psalms 17:7 Shew thy marvellous lovingkindness, O thou that savest by thy right hand > them which put their trust in thee from those that rise up against them.

>
> Psalms 18:35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great.
> Psalms 20:6 Now know I that the LORD saveth his anointed; he will hear him from his holy heaven with the saving strength of his right hand.
> Psalms 80:15 And the vineyard which thy right hand hath planted, and the branch that thou madest strong for thyself.
> Psalms 80:17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself.
> Isaiah 41:10 Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.
>
> Isaiah 48:13 Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together.
>
> Isaiah 62:8 The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:

Leprosy as a symbol of sin.

Leprosy is a disease in which the flesh is corrupted and wastes away. In the bible it is used as a symbol of sin, which also corrupts the flesh. There is a clue that leprosy means more than just an illness in this passage from Matthew.

> Mt 10:8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.

Notice that Jesus here instructs his men to heal the sick and cleanse the lepers. You would think that healing the sick would include cleansing lepers, but it is listed separately showing there is something special about it.

Leprosy is dealt with very extensively in Leviticus 13 and 14, which we won't go into now. But here are two passages that clearly associate the sudden onset of leprosy with sin.

> 9. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he departed.
> 10 And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle; and, behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous
> 11. And Aaron said unto Moses, Alas, my lord, I beseech thee, lay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have sinned. (Numbers 12:9-11 KJV)
> 18. And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the LORD God.
> 19. Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar. 2 Chronicles 26:18-19

How Jesus took on our sin.

Jesus cleansed us by taking our sin upon Himself)

Peter states it another way who, speaking of Jesus, says:

> Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. 1 Peter 2:24

These passages from 2nd Corinthians and Galatians say something quite similar.

> For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2nd Corinthians 5:21
> Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: Galatians 3:13

It is also found in the old testament when the ministry of the suffering servant, Messiah, is prophesied.

> He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. Isaiah 53:11

This says that Jesus took our sins upon himself, or he became sin, or became a curse, for our redemption. Here are two more verses closely related to this theme.

> For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. Mark 10:45
> So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. Hebrews 9:28

III. Passages Relating To The Second Coming.

A. The Water Of The River

> Exodus. 4:9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also these two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land: and the water which thou takest out of the river shall become blood upon the dry land.

This passage relates to the spiritual second coming. It is understood as 'coming to His Church' or 'to His rest'. That is his coming 'as the latter rain' or the coming as latter day outpouring of the spirit.

> (Hosea 6:1-3) Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.
> After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.
> Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain*, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.*

This is also called the great end time revival!

When Moses time came to follow this command of the Lord's, he took of the water from the Nile River in Egypt. When Jesus does this, He will take of the water of a different river, the River of Life!

> (Psalms 46:4 KJV) There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.
> (Rev 22:1 KJV) And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

When Moses poured out the water, it became blood. When Jesus pours out his Spirit on the 'dry land,' it means that multitudes will be brought into salvation, which follows the great end time revival.

> (Joel 2:28-32) And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:
> And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.
> And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of > smoke.

> The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.
> And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

B. The Men Who Sought Thy Life Are Dead.

This section relates to the physical second coming. It shows that Jesus' physical return awaits the judgment of the princes of this world. We find the pattern for this aspect of the return stated twice in the Bible. The first one is here in Exodus.

> Exodus 4:18 And Moses went and returned to Jethro his father in law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.
> 19 And the LORD said unto Moses in Midian, Go, return into Egypt: for all the men are dead which sought thy life.

Here we can conclude that Moses could not return to his people till this condition was met, i.e. that those who sought his life were dead. Who was it that sought his life? Pharaoh: a type of Satan. His return to his people depended on the removal of those who sought his life.

And in Mathew 2 where Jesus, as a young boy, cannot return to the land of his people till those who sought his life are dead.

> But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt,
> Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life
> And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. (Matthew 2:19-21 KJV)

Once again, His return to his people depended on the removal of those who sought his life. In this case it's King Herod who sought his life. And King Herod is a type of [guess who?] Satan.

At the end of the Tribulation, before the battle of Armageddon, His return to his people will depend on the removal of those who sought his life.

The point is that Jesus can't return till the powers of heaven are removed. What exactly does that mean?

Who are they that sought his life?

Who sought his life but the Kings of this world, or the powers of the air. The principalities and powers ruling in heavenly places. The Powers of Heaven. We find their identity spelled out in this passage from 1 Corinthians where we are told that they are the ones who crucified him.

> 1 Corinthians 2:
> 6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:
> 7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:
> 8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

Here are several other key passages, which mention these powers of the air. It's important to understand who these powers are, for they are the ones who exercise spiritual influence on the minds of men. These powers cloud people's understanding and actually prevent them from hearing the gospel.

> For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, > against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. (Ephesians 6:12 KJV)

>
> For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. (Romans 8:38,39, NKJV).
>
> ...having wiped out the handwriting of requirements that was against us, which was contrary to us. And He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross. Having disarmed principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in it. (Colossians 2:14-15, NKJV).

What Happens To Them?

You can find references to these principalities throughout the Old Testament, if you know how to recognize them. Their appearance in Psalm 82, where they are called 'the gods', is especially important, for here the Lord pronounces their judgment.

> Psalms 82: A Psalm of Asaph.
> 1 God standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the gods.
> 2 How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah.
> 3 Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy.
> 4 Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked
> 5 They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are out of course
> 6 I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High.
> 7 But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes
> 8 Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations.

And it is they who must die, [fall like Adam], for Jesus to return.

When the Lord returns, he first carries out judgment on the rulers of darkness and heavenly powers, before he actually returns to earth.

In Isaiah 34 we read of this judgment.

> And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree For my sword shall be bathed in heaven …. (Isaiah 34:4-5 KJV)

Before He returns these powers of heaven must be taken out.

Here are further scriptures showing that one of the final judgments is that the powers of heaven will be shaken and the stars will fall. This means the satanic kingdoms of the air will be judged and the demonic princes who sit in those thrones [Prince of Persia etc.] will all be cast down to earth.

> And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken. Mark 13:25
>
> Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. Luke 21:26
>
> Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: Matthew 24:29
> And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth. (Isaiah
> And they shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be visited.

> Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before his ancients gloriously. (Isaiah 24:21-23 KJV)
> For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth. Micah 1:3

Here's a set of scriptures relating to the Lord's return, the powers of heaven, and the repentance of Israel.

> Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. Revelation 1:7
>
> The burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it. Isaiah 19:1
> And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Mark 14:62
>
> And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn. Zechariah 12:10
>
> In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God. Jeremiah 50:4
>
> In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve. Jeremiah 50:20
> Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel
> For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name. (Amos 4:12-13 KJV)

C. The Rod Of God

> Exodus 4:20 And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt: and Moses took the rod of God in his hand.

This passage also refers to the physical second coming. With the Rod of God in his hand speaks of Jesus coming with a rod of iron to Rule the nations.

Note also where it says, Moses took his wife and his sons. This speaks of Jesus returning with his Bride and spiritual sons, the Church.

> (Rev 19:14 -15) And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.
> And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

Summary

So we have seen this short exercise in typology take us from the first chapter of Genesis to the 19th chapter of Revelation. Let's close with the last two verses of the Bible.

(Rev 22:20 -21) He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.
The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Medal of Honor

Joni Ames

Urgent To Intercessors From Bob Jones & Joni Ames

Dear Friends,

Bob Jones had a dream this week, and felt it was expedient to get it out to the intercessors for prayer. It concurred with something the Lord also had given to me awhile back.

In the dream, Bob saw a Medal of Honor dripping in blood, and felt the Lord quickened him that this was a warning in regard to terrorism the enemy is attempting to bring forth in the USA at the present time.

Bob said that his sensing was that terrorists may try to do something similar to the TET offensive N. Vietnam did during the Vietnamese war. It was a terrible, unexpected sneak attack on many cities in the same day.

Awhile back, I'd felt a similar warning - that the enemy would try to attack so many places (possibly as many as 30) at one time that panic and chaos would fill our streets.

When a warning like this is given, we can come against the plans of the enemy in prayer so that we may either stop it or lessen its' intensity.

We are at war in both the natural and in the spirit. Matt. 11:12 tells us that "The kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force." But as 2 Cor. 10:3-4 reminds us, OUR weapons are SPIRITUAL, NOT carnal, and are totally effective to pull down the strongholds of the enemy: (4) "For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh." (4) "For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds."

Let's pray The Word. In particular, Psalm 35, that the enemy would be turned back, brought to confusion, and caught in his own snare! Also Psalm 91 and Isaiah 54.

Mountains Out of Molehills

Mary Clark

October 26, 2005
barnabessie@earthlink.net

You are making mountains out of molehills, beloved, and I want you to realize it. I want you to know that your words are forming a mountain out of what quite simply are molehills to Me. I want you to see it as such. I want you to see things the way that I see them. I want you to look on life the way I look at life – as an opportunity for you to walk in My truth and see My divine will unfold.

Many of My children are speaking molehills into mountains. They are seeing situations magnified to such a huge proportion that they are verbalizing things that do not help, but damage a situation. I want you aware of this fact. I want you to know that My strong purpose is for you to see things through the eyes of your God. How do I see things? I will tell you: I look at nothing without an eye to set it to right. I know that I can set it to right. I know that My power and My grace are sufficient for any situation. I want you to realize this truth – rest and abide in this truth.

I am your God. I do not want you speaking words contrary to My truth. I do not want you building mountains with your words – words that hold no truth – words that are detrimental to the work that I am doing. I want you speaking – proclaiming – the words of your God in any given situation. I want you trusting Me to deliver My BEST in that situation and then I want you to thank Me – thank Me even before you see the results – for what I am doing.

Beloved, beloved, I don't want you making mountains out of molehills. I don't want you speaking words contrary to My will – contrary to My best for you – contrary to My best in any given situation. Rely on Me – trust Me – to present My best as you speak forth My truth in the hearing of those involved, and know, dear one, that I can take away those molehills with one sweep of My pinkie, and that is certainly My intention. It is My intention for you to dwell free of those mountains that would overtake you. I want you living in that plain of wonder that I have so aptly provided for one who has given his heart to Me and looks forward every day to his bright new tomorrow in Me.

I am a God of the impossible. I am a God Who delights in His chosen. I want to move you forward. I want you to see the light of a new day dawning. You trust Me to deliver, and I will trust you to speak My truth – speak My truth that will declare My goodness to you, My beloved, entitling you to a life of wonder – great wonder – in the One Who is Holy and has looked on you with eyes of love.

I want to take you into a new place in Me. I want you to see firsthand the goodness of your God on display in your life. I want you walking in My truth every moment of every day. Speak only those words that I would speak over another or over a situation, and know true heart peace – peace from the One Who has provided you with His best – his best kind of love – a love that is pure, holy, and true – a love that would thrill any heart.

That is what I am speaking over you this day. Am I making a mountain out of a molehill when I speak of my love for you, beloved? I should say not! For My love is higher than the highest mountain. No words can attain the grandeur of My heartfelt love for you. Be that as it may, I want you to know this truth and hold it close to your heart: In the coming days you will see and hear things that will cause you to pause and consider. As you pause and consider, beloved, I would have the words of your mouth and the meditations of your heart be acceptable in My sight, beloved. That is what I am asking. That, beloved, is what I would like for you to do! It will benefit you greatly. It will benefit your walk greatly, and you will know without a doubt that you have pleased your King, speaking forth His words of truth in order that man will know the true heart of the living God. And what is the true heart of the living God? To bless. To render the enemy useless in your life. To enable you, by the power of My Spirit, to enter into a new hour of hope, peace, and wonder. That is what is in My heart for you, beloved. Let that be what is in your heart for yourself!!!

Ergonomics

Mary Clark

barnabessie@earthlink.net
October 28, 2005

The Lord awoke me, saying this word: ergonomics. Here is what He has to tell us about ergonomics:

ergonomics – the study of the problems of people in adjusting to their environment; esp., the science that seeks to adapt work or working conditions to suit the worker.

I want to talk to My dear children about something that is dear to My heart. It is the furtherance of My kingdom on earth. I want you to know that I delight in those who draw near to Me, looking to Me to rectify those things in their hearts that keep them bound – bound from coming into the knowledge of My will for them. Hear the word of the Lord God Almighty, and know that these words were well chosen in order to enable My dear ones to enter into a richness of faith that they have yet to know:

I want you to know, beloved, that I am moving you into a new environment that is rich in My mercy. It is a place where you will thrive like you have never thrived before in the things of your God. I am doing this intentionally. I am doing this with strong purpose. I am doing this because I love you. I love you very much.

I want you to know that a rich season of hope is upon you – a season when you will see the goodness of your God from a front row seat and marvel at My kind intent toward you. I want you to know that it is My pleasure to bring forth this substance of My grace into your midst. You will walk in a new understanding of what it means to worship the living God in Spirit and in Truth. You will know the love of your God in a deeper way. You will walk in My goodness, be established in your strong purpose, and know without a shadow of a doubt that your holy God is blessing you soundly and enabling you to see His splendor in your earthly walk.

You could say that this is a place of deep preparation. It is a place where you will walk with a new certainty of heart. It is a place where doubt will vanish. There will be no denying that the living God has paid your heart a visit, and delights in you. There will be no denying that He has set you apart to be His representative on earth. And there will be no denying when I take you up and out that you truly walked with your God – that you truly knew the Creator of the universe. Oh, no, beloved, there will be no doubt.

I am changing your environment as you know it. I am establishing you in your walk, enabling you to walk in My peace, My presence, and the wonder of My glory.

Get ready for a shift in the atmosphere.

Get ready for a little tweaking here and there in your heart that will establish you in this realm. For I have studied your present situation and decided to make a few changes in your environment – adjusting some things and pronouncing on you a change that will enable you to thrive.

That is My plan. That is what I intend to do. Look forward to a change in your environment. Look forward to a change in your heart. Look forward to a change being made known that will establish you in a place of wonder in Me. For My intention is to move you up and out. My intention is to prepare you for this move. Others will know that truly that was a man of God when I finish the strength of purpose plan that I have for you, My chosen, My vessels of honor, My established ones – established in My presence, My glory, and My favor!!!

Mountain of Rest

Ephraim and Rimona Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

Shabbat Shalom! This is a greeting and salutation that one hears echoing all over Israel every Friday and Saturday. Is this a prophetic proclamation? We know that it announces the coming day of rest, the Shabbat rest that YHVH established after He completed His work. “And on the seventh day Elohim ended His work which He had made; and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had made. And Elohim blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because in it He had rested from all his work which He has made” (Gen. 2: 2-3). Thus if we enter into this seventh day rest we are blessed.

When our forefathers “passed over” (the root “avor” is also used in the word “Hebrew”), and came out of the Land of Egypt and into the wilderness (Exodus 16:22-28), YHVH established His ordinance of a seventh day rest. This was the first test of obedience that the children of Elohim (Israel) had to pass. They had to trust Him for their daily provision. If they tried to collect manna for a second day, it spoiled. However, when the sixth day arrived they were allowed to collect a double amount, so that they would have enough for the seventh day. Amazingly this extra amount did not spoil. If any went out searching for manna on the seventh day, none was found. Here again we see that the Shabbat contains a blessing, but it is also YHVH’s first test of obedience in our walk with Him towards the promised place of rest. Please note: obedience to the voice or word of YHVH is not legalism - it is the mark of love in that relationship.

“You will bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of Your inheritance, in the place, O YHVH, which You have made for Yourself to dwell in, the Sanctuary, O YHVH, which Your hands have established” (Exodus 15:17). The Hebrews were on their way from slavery to a place of rest, but they had to cross, or pass through the wilderness, which was a place of no natural provision. YHVH promised He would bring them out of Egypt and plant them in the mountain of His inheritance, the place that is made for His dwelling, the sanctuary which His hands have established.

Where and what is YHVH’s mountain dwelling, or sanctuary? “For YHVH has chosen Zion; He has desired it for His habitation. This is my resting place forever: here will I dwell for I have desired it“ (Psalm 132:13-14). Coming into the place of YHVH’s dwelling is coming into rest; His rest, His peace. This place of “Shabbat Shalom” is a place of total trust and abiding in “He who is my life” (Colossians 3:4).

We, as the body of the redeemed Israel of Elohim, are to call out: “Arise, let us go up to Zion to YHVH our Elohim!” (Jeremiah 31:6). In other words, it is a call to a “Shabbat Shalom”. This call means to come into His presence, to Mount Zion, to enter into His rest and into an eternal blessing. How do we get there? “Those who love His name will dwell in it” (Psalm 69:36b). Here we see that when Moshe and Yeshua laid down the first of all the commands which is to “love YHVH our Elohim with all our heart and with all soul, with all our mind, and with all our strength”, they were in essence saying, “come abide in YHVH’s presence, dwelling place and rest”. This eternal rest is then seen in the next blessing, when we love our neighbor-brother as our own self (that presupposes that we love our self as He loves us). Be doubly blessed, as we enter into a peaceful relationship with our Elohim and with our brothers.

Arise and come out of the wilderness. Come and gather at the river where the Lamb is the Life; come to the river that flows from His throne; to His Mountain of blessing, to His Shabbat Shalom.

The next time we say “Shabbat Shalom”, may it be with the intent of declaring, “Arise let us go up to Zion to YHVH our Elohim!”

Shabbat Shalom!

Ephraim

P.S. “How good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity....for in this God commands the blessing life eternal” (Ps. 133).

More On The Church In Transition
Don Hawley

This past week the Barna Research Group reported the results of a nationwide survey. They've found that the number of unchurched adults in America continues to grow by nearly a million people annually. Interestingly, many of these unchurched people are spiritually active. One out of every five reads the Bible in a typical week; six out of 10 pray to God each week; and nearly one million unchurched adults tithe their income.

Barna said, "A large and growing number of Americans who avoid congregational contact are not rejecting Christianity as much as they are shifting how they interact with God and people in a strategic effort to have a more fulfilling spiritual life. This suggests that we are on the precipice of a new era of spiritual experience and expression." For the future, he predicted, "We anticipate substantial growth in the number of people who are not connected to a congregational church, but who are committed to God and to their faith."

I believe this ties in directly with the article I sent out a few days ago, titled "The Terrain has Changed." I believe this is one of the most important messages I have received in recent years, and I hope you studied it carefully.

The Barna report apparently didn't cover the many Christians who are meeting in small fellowships in their own home week by week. Such individuals are merely reverting to the pattern that the early Christian church followed for about 300 years.

After attending many congregations in the Greater Portland area over a period of five years, my wife and I decided to enjoy a small fellowship in our home each week. That has proven to be a good decision. Then twice a month, we meet with other similar small home fellowships in a larger group just to praise the Lord.

Some time back I encouraged some friends in Washington state to try this same pattern, and I think you'll be interested in their recent reply.

Jane: I want to comment on the forward you sent out that contained a word for the church by Cheryl McGrath. At first I scanned it over quickly because I was in a hurry, but even then I knew a friend of mine who used to attend _____________ would be interested in it, so I sent it on to her. A little later, she called me and said she had just finished reading it and was "numb." She also said she felt "tingly" while going through it. You see, we have a small group that meets on Wednesday nights that is composed of John, me, and two ladies that used to attend ______________ with us.

DH Great!

Jane: The past couple months, we have been discussing the crisis state of the Christian Church today and studying the Scriptures to see exactly what they say about the church. We asked several questions, and then got into the Bible to find the answers. The questions were: What is the church? What is the definition of "church"? What is the main purpose of the church? What is the purpose of meeting together? What are characteristics of the church? It was a fascinating discussion and study, which has led to our deciding to meet once a month on Sabbath to "try out" what we've learned. John and I still are part of _____________, but it has dwindled to about thirty members (including children), with an average attendance of around 18-22. We aren't really "connecting" with the people there much anymore, and it is so far for us to drive to be very involved (especially with gas prices climbing steadily!).

I'm still an elder, but don't know how much longer I will continue. Some good things are happening there, but the distance is making it very hard for us, and most of the people we were close to have left. Also,__________'s ministry emphasis is on serving the City of ___________, which is also difficult for us to take part in and for which we feel no "calling." Anyway, one Saturday a month (to start, anyway) our little Wednesday group is going to deepen and expand its "home church" operation! The husband of one lady is going to be part of our gathering, so John will have another guy (whom he really likes) to connect with. We are going to have a meal together each time, either breakfast/brunch or noontime dinner. We are also going to have a ministry fund, to help us meet needs in our own area.

We will encourage each other; pray together; share our experiences, thoughts, and feelings; etc. The format of our gatherings will vary, including watching movies such as "Luther" or TV episodes such as "Touched by An Angel" and discussing their message and significance. Other times, someone will have a study to share or we'll discuss current events and issues in the light of Scripture. Occasionally, we'll use our time together to go out and do ministry as opportunities open up.

DH Wonderful! I'm really excited for you. How I wish others everywhere would follow a similar pattern.

Jane: All that said, I have a few questions for you:

How did you come across this Cheryl McGrath's message you sent out to us? What do you know about her? What have her previous messages been about?

DH I don't know much about Cheryl, but in our brief correspondence before she left on a ministry trip to the Philippines I learned we had visited some months back. She also has visited my web site.

I would urge you to do what I did; check out her web site at www.greatsouthland.org. I am very much impressed. Her Statement of Beliefs is very encouraging. Give a careful look to her new sections, The Nurture Network, and Outside the Gates.

I believe her message, the one I sent you, is truly from the Throne. I believe the network needed for home groups such as yours is being set up.

Jane: How is your "house church" experience going? Do the various groups in your area still meet once a month for a larger meeting? What is your house church gathering like? What advice would you give us?

DH Our home fellowship is just Bunnie and I and our daughter, Cassie, down the hall, but no group has any greater blessing than we do. We play a couple of songs, usually Gaither, and then dive into some study. Often it derives from a video. We have no formalities.

Yes, we still meet with other small groups at Wild Branch twice a month on Sabbath. That is always a great blessing too. Wonderful fellowship, and powerful worship music, and a brief message. Very informal, no "playing church."

My advice? Keep it simple and informal. Encourage all to participate; no preaching. Watch for interesting messages to use as a springboard for discussion. I think you can find a lot of help on Cheryl's web site; she has info on successful home fellowships.

It is time for small fellowships to network together; for mutual blessing and encouragement, not organization. So let's stay in touch.

Don and Bunnie

Jane: Hey, Don! Five of us met this Sabbath morning from 11:30-2:30 and had a great gathering! We had a sharing time, and then we discussed the first half of Cheryl McGrath's message. Then we had a yummy potluck meal together. Everyone really enjoyed our time! At our next Sabbath meeting, we're going to have a potluck breakfast to start our time together. Tonight at our regular Wednesday evening meeting, we're going to go over the second half of Cheryl's word. Just wanted to let you know how it went! :-) Blessings, Jane

---

Jane: Exciting report; thanks. God said he would meet with three, or even two, so you are well ahead of the attendance curve. That is not important; just let God take care of that.

I can tell that you had a more enjoyable, and more blessed time, than you ever did "playing church." And you certainly learned more with an open discussion.

Remember now to keep praying about the developing Holy Spirit networking for small groups such as yours. We are part of the Body of Christ, but the Spirit has yet to build his network to the extent the devil has with his New Age movement. I believe the time is ripe.

(I'm quite sure that Benedict XVI would take us into his large developing network, but I don't feel real good about that one!)

Keep in touch. Your report is an encouragement.

God Bless,
Don

CRATER LAKE
I anointed you with power and it soaked through,
Right to your inner core through layers old and new.
You were soaking and soaking and sponging Me up,
And drinking for your thirst and gathering your sup.

Like an underground cistern, so deep and so clear
You tapped into My Presence, cherished Me so dear.
We came together and yes blended into One
My Presence with yours, yes with Father and with Son.

Our holy union building with molten power.
Our river bed of lava growing each hour.
Deep inside your spirit surges power so hot.
Not released before its time, even though sought.

Once exploded it releases signs and wonders.
Like a volcano, your lid is blown asunder.
My mighty Presence flowing - gushing up and out
My power surges, triumphant glorious shout!

After you're settled, confirmed, established and set,

There fills a deep lake, from the precious times we've met.
Deep and refreshing, your cup is filled to the brim.
Never ending streams of life pours over the rim.

This the cup I have provided for My bride.
Who lingers in My Presence and stays by My side.
Nestled in the mountains she's peaceful and she's pure.
My glorious reflection of blue skies grandeur.

Isa 2:2-3 NKJV
Now it shall come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; And all nations shall flow to it. Many people shall come and say, "Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; He will teach us His ways, and we shall walk in His paths."

Winds To Your Back
You have gone through a time when it was difficult to plow through towards your goal. I have heard your prayers and am blowing against the wind and turning it to your favor. It shall reverse and come along behind your backside. As you lift your weary arms up to me, they shall become like sails. I shall fill your sails of faith and this shall propel you forward into place. Great grace, this is My great grace.

NKJ Isaiah 40:29-31
He gives power to the weak, And to those who have no might He increases strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, And the young men shall utterly fall, But those who wait on the LORD Shall renew their strength; They shall mount up with wings like eagles, They shall run and not be weary, They shall walk and not faint.

More On Zionism
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,
Feb. 4, 2005

Well, another week has passed and I might add, very rapidly, and here in Israel, as one of the commentators put it: “[While until now] we were in a post Zionist period, presently we have entered the anti Zionist one”. This phase has been inaugurated with the evacuation plan of the settlements, the giving up of JNF lands to the government and subsequently to Arab citizens, and with the pending release of hundreds of Arab terrorists from our jails. Adding to this, the new US Secretary of State asserted emphatically that the Palestinians need sufficient landmass for their state. Last week I sent several articles recounting how YHVH led the House of Judah in the restoration of its national identity and homeland. But while the Zionist “Judeans” were thus engaged, there were also Spirit-filled Christian visionaries who were working toward the same end, knowing that the Jews were to return to the ancient land of their ancestors (as was exemplified by my friend Tim’s letter).

Relationships between Gentile Christian Zionists and the Jewish community in Europe started developing already in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries (ref. The Vision Was There by Franz Kobler, 1956). The Zionist movement, however, was not really acknowledged by nineteenth century historians as a viable, or a definable phenomenon. Jewish identity was still very much attached to religion, which preserved the uniqueness of the Jews as a people while in the "Galut" (diaspora, or exile), but the religious traditions left them with only a very slight hope of realizing any national aspirations. Saying "next year in Jerusalem" every Passover was not enough to extricate them from their host countries. In many cases the Jewish identity was defined more by default than by anything positive. It wasn't until the time of Rabbi Alkalai and Kalishcher (two Jewish "prophets" of the 1800's) that seeds of national identity began to be sown. They were followed by Moses Hess, Ben-Yehudah, Pinsker, Herzl, Nordau, Ahad-Ha-am, Bialik and others, whose names and writings have lost their prophetic significance today, and have become (in the eyes of most Israelis) mere signs bearing street names posted in the cities of Israel.

The transformation, from religion to nationalism, began to grow in the hearts and minds of a remnant, ultimately resulting in the birth of the State of Israel, albeit not without tribulation (pogroms, persecutions, expulsions and the Holocaust). The return of Judah (the Jews), as a nation, to the Land of Promise is a direct fulfillment of prophetic scriptures relating to the “latter days”. It testifies to the fact that YHVH, the Elohim of Israel, neither slumbers nor sleeps (Ps. 121:4) and "watches over His word to perform it" (Jeremiah1:12).

However, this is only half of the story. Zionism as a national movement was not only evident amongst a remnant of Judah, but, as mentioned, also began to surface in Ephraim, who is the other "witness" of the Elohim of Israel's unending mercies and covenant keeping faithfulness. It was at about this time (i.e. the nineteenth century), that a few born-again, spirit-filled believers in Europe, especially in the UK, received prophetic insight into the history of the Two Houses, the two witnesses, the two olive branches, the two sticks, the two families, the two kingdoms and the two nations, spoken of in Scripture. There were those who believed that the nations that made up Europe were primarily of the lost tribes of Israel. Intense studies of languages, culture, religion etc. began to emerge. In 1887 a work by M.M. Eshelman, called The Two Sticks, was published. Later, another, by J.H. Allen called Judah's Scepter and Joseph's Birthright came out in 1917. These works were evidence that the Spirit of YHVH was (and still is) working to turn the hearts of the children to the fathers, and to restore the national identity of both Houses of Israel (Ephraim and Judah).

In the covenant that YHVH made with Abraham, He promised him a land and a nation (Goy), which was to come out of his own loins (Gen 12:1-3). YHVH would never forget that covenant, although He would scatter this nation into all the nations. Thus Ephraim was "well mixed into all nations" (Hos. 7:8) and became their "fullness" (Gen 48:19). Yet in Ezekiel 37:22 (as well as in Jeremiah 3:18) we read: "I will make them one nation in the land". YHVH Elohim's redemptive plan for this earth was, and still is, a united, redeemed, single nation of "Israel" living in the land that He promised to the Patriarchs.

Religious identity has kept the Two Houses apart from each other. However, with the restoration of our national identity we can begin to tear down the age-old divisions of enmity and jealousy and build, under the guiding hand of the Messiah, the commonwealth that will be a light to the rest of the nations, a royal priesthood and a holy nation. Both Houses need to return to Zionism, to the Zionism of the Torah. This Zionism is a very simple concept; it involves a land, a nation ("goy") and a kingdom government. Even the reason given for Paul's house arrest in Rome was: "for the hope of Israel" (Acts 28:20). What was that hope? Paul was given one full day, from morning to evening, to teach about the restoration of the kingdom of YHVH, and Yeshua from both the Torah of Moses and the Prophets (ref. Acts 28:23).

Interestingly the first chapter of Acts begins with the disciples' question about "restoring the kingdom of Yah to Israel", and the last chapter shows us that this is what the apostles were busy doing. Yeshua said to them: "Seek first the Kingdom of Yah and His righteousness" (Matt 6:33), and then He empowered them by the Spirit to become the witnesses of that restoration of the kingdom to Israel. This is biblical Zionism. YHVH Elohim made this possible through Yeshua's death, burial and resurrection. Christianity lost the message and switched over to a gospel of salvation with an escape clause (rapture), which is very rampant, rather than adhering to the gospel of the heavenly kingdom of Yah being restored to all Israel here on earth.

The writer to the Hebrews states the problem very clearly. He says that after Yeshua was "made perfect, [He] became the author of eternal salvation unto all of them that obey Him, [and was] called of YHVH Elohim a high priest after the order of Melchizedec." In the same breath the same writer adds in the succeeding verse: "Of which [topic – the order of Melchizedec] we have many things to say and hard to be uttered, seeing you are dull of hearing. " The author of the book wanted desperately to share with the Believers about the order of Melchizedec, the order of YHVH's kingdom, but they could not hear. He goes on to say that although they ought to be teachers by now, they were still in need of taking once more the "milk" of the first principles of the oracles of YHVH, and are unable to consume strong meat. According to this author, the reason for their condition was, "not being practiced in the word of righteousness", a fact that rendered them as babes (ref Heb 5:12-13).

Yeshua is not coming back to take a bride that is still in diapers. His bride will have made herself ready. She will not be ignorant, but be filled with all wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him; she will not be dull of hearing, but be practiced in the word of righteousness and able to discern what is of her husband and what is not. Her eyes of understanding will be enlightened and she will know the hope of His calling and the riches of the glory of His inheritance (ref Eph 1)

Have a rest filled Shabbat.

My Promise To You

MY PROMISE TO YOU
(A Word to God's People - 2006)
Dec 23, 2005

All that I ask you to do is to fast and pray and draw close to Me in preparing for what lies ahead this coming year. My people, watch and pray for the spirit is willing to walk in My ways but the flesh is weak and is so susceptible to defeat and despair. And you need to be strong with head set like flint against the coming chaos of the land. The uproar of the enemy is mounting, and so many have already fallen to the wayside, but don't let that be you.

Rise up and worship Me, and stand behind your shield of faith. Don't look at the circumstances surrounding the land, but look to Me and to the promises I have made to you. Yes, you are to prosper and to be in health as your soul prospers, and nothing by any means shall harm you. Remember, I can raise you up and restore all your wounds. I can make you stronger than before by the calamities that you might go through. For I am purging your faith and making you able to stand strong no matter what the enemy hurls your way.

Do not dread defeat but rejoice that I have you in the palm of My hand shielding you and guiding you through the storm. Don't let the wind and the waves cause you to fear, but let out a victory shout, and I will raise you up that you might be able to walk upon high places and tear down the strongholds over the land.

For I am in the process of raising up a mighty army that is covered with an armor of Light. My words flow through their mouths and will spread like wild fire after the deceptions of the enemy. And I will raise up your children as mighty warriors of My Truth and praise that no enemy can quench. They will be bold in the face of danger and will be ready to die for their King, but I will arm them with the fire of My love that no enemy can break through.

Yes, My force field around these mighty warriors no harm can penetrate. And I rejoice at seeing the glow upon their faces and the example that they will give to the older generations. The testimony of the young, that they are willing to die for Me, will increase the strength even to the elderly. Yes, the elderly will rise up as mighty warriors as I stir My word up in their hearts and spirits and give them the strength to take their stand for Truth and holiness. Yes, young and old alike will join hands and march for restoring promises I have made over this land.

So I tell you this day to not fret and don't despair, but rejoice knowing that I AM the God of faithfulness to you. I will keep My promises to you. I will restore you and I will bless you. I will strengthen you that you might return to Me, and gather with the saints of like faith in holiness and Truth. Yes, and together you will rejoice in what I AM doing, and you will let out a victory shout that I AM a sovereign God who reigns mighty.

Yes, I AM the One in control and not the enemy no matter what the condition of the land says! I work all things for good for My people and for bringing forth My will in this land. My kingdom come and My will be done on earth as it is in heaven. That is My decree and that is My destiny, says your King, the Lord God of Israel, I AM.

Rise Up To Take The Land
Yolanda Ballard

This is the day for restitution of all things. What the enemy has stolen from you will be returned in full measure and even abundantly above all that you have ever hoped or believed possible. For yes, this is the day for an outpour of gladness upon My people. I am coming to restore hope to you that yes, I am a Father who reigns sovereign above all that the enemy has access to do. He is under your feet, and you have victory over his plots and schemes.

Everything that I allow you to go through is strengthening you so you can stand bold and unwavering against the evil one. This is the day that I am pouring out My joy for the joy of the Lord is your strength. You need to be able to laugh in the face of danger and calamity, because you know the promises I made to you. All things work together for the good of those who love Me and are called according to My plan and purpose.

So rise up and rejoice, and shout a victory shout, for the bride has made herself ready for My return. I see that you are Mine for I see your heart above all things. Yes, there are things you are walking through and things you need to overcome, but I see you perfect, covered with the blood of the Lamb.

So rise up and worship Me, and hide My words in your heart. Cover your heart with your shield of faith, and make sure your sword is ready for battle. March out for it is not time to retreat. Don't look at the giants for they are many and are ready to devour you as you claim your land. You have My promises. Don't look at the circumstances that face you. Be strong and waver not in unbelief for this is the time to really claim your inheritance. It does not belong to the evil one, whether in relationships, health, finances, household salvation.

You know My promises. Do not accept the lies of the evil one. Look past them and press forward toward the culmination of all things. Look forward to the manifestation of your loved ones, that marriage restored, along with every creative miracle you have claimed from Me. Never give up for My timing is always perfect. Delay does not mean denial for I love you and see your heart. I know your needs. Just draw close to Me.

Rest your head upon My brow for I have so much to say to you. Listen closely and hear My heart beating for you. Open up your heart, and I will pour out My love to you, for you have grown cold in so many ways and weary from the battle. Let Me pour out My excitement upon you. Let Me fill you to overflowing with the magnitude of My love and joy, for there's a world out there that needs you. Pick yourself up and brush yourself off, and rejoice for you have My victory. The joy of the Lord is your strength. Just receive and believe all that I AM to you.

Manifesting The Anointing

In this teaching, titled "Manifesting the Anointing," we will examine how having a "God consciousness" helps us to understand who we are and what we have available to us in our inheritance because we are children of God. We will discuss what it takes to be a people who manifest the anointing and those who dispense the glory of God in the earth.

MANIFESTING THE ANOINTING

Before we begin this teaching, I want to invite you to join with me in prayer. Just let the Holy Spirit descend on your heart, bringing a fresh revelation of "Christ in you, the hope of glory" (Colossians 1:27).

God, we want to ask You for the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him. Jesus, please give us a revelation of Your presence, a revelation of Your power. God, we want to know who You are, who we are, and what we have. So, God, I pray today to receive a much greater awareness of You. Thank You, in Jesus' mighty name.

WHO WE ARE AND WHAT WE HAVE

Before we examine how to manifest the anointing, we need to understand who we are and what we have available to us as an inheritance because we are sons and daughters of God. Three Scriptures, spoken by the apostle Paul, in the Book of Romans in the 8th chapter, lay a foundation concerning this.

"For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death" (v. 2).

"For you did not receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption by whom we cry out, 'Abba, Father'" (v. 15).

"And if children, then heirs -- heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified together" (v. 17).

We can see that we are children of God, heirs, set free from the law of sin and death, and we have an inheritance in Christ. (I'll speak more about our responsibility to set people free from the law of sin and death later in this teaching.) We need to come to understand who we are and what we have by developing a God consciousness. This awareness will give believers the first key they need to unlock God's power concerning manifesting the anointing.

Also, I believe that a time is coming when God will reveal and manifest His glory in us. So let's continue in the Book of Romans with more revelation by the apostle Paul.

"For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it in hope; because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

"For we know that the whole creation groans and labors with birth pangs together until now. Not only that, but we also who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the redemption of our body." Romans 8:18-23

Paul explains that creation itself and those who are gripped by sin (sickness, disease, death, and decay), long to be set free from sin's evil power. But before deliverance can come, the body of Christ needs a revelation of who we are and what we have. We need to understand what it means to be set free from the law of sin and death, which is: sickness, disease, and poverty; and what it means to be joint heirs with an inheritance.

This understanding and revelation is "the revealing and the manifestation of the sons and daughters of God."

BEING SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF GOD

God wants to put inside our hearts the revelation of what it really means to be His sons and daughters. As believers, when we come into a greater understanding of this, we will step into the kind of ministry that brings the earth, and the world that's in corruption, into what we call "the glorious liberty of the children of God."

This glorious liberty means freedom from the law of sin, sickness, disease, and death. And so there is a deliverance that is taking place in creation called "the glorious liberty of the children of God" where the sons and daughters of God are being revealed as they walk in the manifestation of the anointing. In fact, this is what it means to be ambassadors for Christ (2 Corinthians 5:19-20).

Ambassadors have a job to do: set the captives free, break the curse of the law, and expose/destroy the work of the devil. They help others come to understand the magnitude of their inheritance as sons and daughters, who are adopted by the Father and those who are destined to manifest the anointing. Ambassadors for Christ do not want people to focus their attention on them, but rather that people would see and feel Jesus and His presence being released through them.

God wants His sons and daughters to walk victoriously, triumphantly, conquering and overcoming the enemy. His desire is to see His children walking in God consciousness -- possessing and manifesting the anointing like the apostles Peter, Paul, Moses, and the prophet Elisha.

HOW IS HIS ANOINTING MANIFESTED?

Jesus is the Son of God, who perfectly modeled the manifest anointing. His anointing for healing touched many people, sometimes through His personal laying on of hands, or when someone touched His clothing.

"And they begged Him that they might only touch the hem of His garment. And as many as touched it were made perfectly well." Matthew 14:36

Power actually manifested on the clothes of Jesus, and that's why, when the woman with the issue of blood touched the hem of His garment, she was healed (Matthew 9:21-22). He was carrying the power of the Lord, which is present to heal, because He was carrying substance on His life, the manifest anointing.

The apostle Peter was a son of God who possessed and understood the manifestation of the anointing. In Acts 5 we read how Peter carried such a great anointing that when people brought the sick on their beds and couches out onto the streets of Jerusalem, the shadow of Peter would heal their sicknesses. I'm not referring to the natural shadow of Peter, but rather to the same shadow that came upon Mary and overshadowed her with the power of the Most High when she conceived Jesus. It's the overshadowing of the presence and canopy of the Holy Spirit.

"THE LINGERING PRESENCE OF GOD STILL LIVED IN HIS VERY BONES"

Also, the apostle Paul was another son of God who carried the manifestation of the anointing to such a great extent that God worked unusual miracles by his hands (Acts 19:11). Paul took the anointing and the substance that he possessed and put it on handkerchiefs or aprons (v. 12), and when the cloths were carried from his body to the sick and demonized, they were healed and set free because of the resident anointing on the material.

I don't believe the handkerchiefs or aprons were merely a point of contact. I believe that the substance of God—the living, manifest, tangible, transferable anointing of the Holy Ghost that Paul carried—was transferred to these cloths because they were in contact with the manifest presence of God on/in Paul's body.

Scripture doesn't give details concerning the exact kind of contact the material had with his body, but it would be reasonable to imagine Paul laying hands on the material before it was carried to the sick. The Bible does not give a lot of detail, but we feel that desperate family members of the sick and demonized brought handkerchiefs or aprons to Paul so that he could touch and pray over them. Many people must have been healed and delivered because Scripture says "and the diseases left them and the evil spirits went out of them" (Acts 19:12).

As well, Elisha the prophet was a son of God, who not only possessed a double portion of the spirit of Elijah (2 Kings 2:9, 12), but he also carried the manifest anointing of God. The Bible records that a deceased man was about to be buried, but he was cast quickly into the grave of Elisha rather than his own grave because of sudden danger from a marauding band: "...and when the man touched the bones of Elisha he revived and stood up on his feet" (2 Kings 13:21). The man was resurrected! Why? Because the manifest anointing, the lingering presence of God, still lived in the very bones of Elisha, even after his death.

CHRISTIANS RECEIVE AND DISPENSE GOD'S GLORY

What amazes me is that the tangible presence of God manifests on man's flesh as well as in his bones! So I want us to consider just how much of God's glory we can receive and manifest in our flesh as we look at this aspect in the life of God's servant, Moses. After Moses encountered God's Spirit (for 40 days and 40 nights on Mt. Sinai) he had to put a veil over his head because the radiance of God's glory shone through his face so brilliantly the people were afraid to come near him (Exodus 34:29-35).

We need to remember that Moses was a human being (just like us) who carried the manifest glory of the Lord because he had an intimate relationship with God and he was continually in His presence. He is such a great example of someone who manifested the glory of God. And, today, I believe there is a place being prepared in our hearts to receive and manifest the glory of God in a much greater capacity than ever before.

Listen! The glory of God will also be seen on our flesh, if we're serious about seeking the Lord concerning this. I believe our capacity to receive and manifest the glory of God on our flesh is increasing. As our faith for this manifestation intensifies, there is great potential for God to touch us mightily with His glory on our flesh. When God's glory shines in us and on us, we'll be like lights shining in a dark world. The prophet Isaiah describes this:

"Arise, shine; for your light has come! And the glory of the Lord is risen upon you. For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and deep darkness the people; but the Lord will arise over you, and His glory will be seen upon you. The Gentiles shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising." Isaiah 60:1-3

WHAT DOES IT LOOK LIKE WHEN WE DISPENSE HIS GLORY?

As Christians begin manifesting the glory of God, they'll be so filled and impacted by the presence and the anointing of the Holy Spirit that, when they step into a city, literally, they'll take the ground for Christ.

Charles Finney, born in Connecticut in 1792 (died in 1875), was one powerful believer who took the ground when he stepped into factories carrying the manifest anointing. All he would do is step into a factory, not saying a word, and the presence of God that he carried brought such a conviction of sin that the workers got saved. He was a dispenser of God's glory.

I'm waiting for Christians, who carry the manifest presence of God, to cause demons to manifest and flee! You know, all I have to do in some crusades is start talking and the demons manifest because of the presence of God.

For instance, in Israel, at one of the holy sites we visited, as I preached and the team began to pray and minister, the on-site Jesuit priest began to manifest a demon, speaking out in demonic tongues and doing a demonic dance. Our tour guide, who's been to that particular place about twice a month for many years, said that she had never seen him act this way before. It was obvious that the anointing of the Holy Spirit agitated the enemy. As sons and daughters of God we can take authority over demons and bring deliverance to those who are affected by them.

And, did you know that in the Welsh revival, there was such an anointing (on that revival), that in the bars, patrons couldn't even get the beer up to their mouths because there was such a permeating, convicting power and presence of the Holy Spirit? That's the kind of anointing that I'm talking about; it will take place when we develop a God consciousness.

When we see the manifestation and the revealing of the sons and daughters of God who understand who they are and what they have, they will take responsibility to defeat sin (corruption, sickness, disease, death, poverty) and to bring the glory of God with them wherever they go. Because of the glorious liberty of the children of God, believers will carry the revelation of who they are and what they have and they will be dispensers of glory.

"IT IS NO LONGER I WHO LIVE, BUT CHRIST LIVES IN ME"

As well, I believe God is going to bring the body of Christ together in unity, positioned to receive a corporate revelation concerning the fact that "...it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me..." (Galatians 2:20). We need to be possessed by the Holy Spirit in such a way that we know it's no longer us who lives, but Christ who lives in us. And we'll be walking in this reality when Jesus actually lives through us like He wants to; through our eyes, ears, words, touch, and our presence.

Then the body of Christ will have a deeper revelation of what it really means to be sons and daughters of God. They will be possessed with so much of the fullness of God that they will dispense God's glory through their prayers and worship -- filling the very atmosphere with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord.

"For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea."

Habakkuk 2:14

The glory will be seen like it was when the Shekinah glory filled the temple. And not only that, the glory will also be revealed in us.

"For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us." Romans 8:18

It's not just in us and to us, but through us; because those whom He has called, He has justified and those He has justified, He has glorified (Romans 8:30). And if we have this treasure in earthen vessels (2 Corinthians 4:7), how much of a capacity do we have as mere men to receive and manifest the glory of God? As I said earlier, I believe we will be saturated with that glory just like Moses was.

"THE KINGDOMS OF THIS WORLD HAVE BECOME THE KINGDOMS OF OUR LORD"

Listen, the kingdom of heaven is at hand (Matthew 10:7). And when we look at the world and the world system, we need to understand that the kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and Christ (Revelation 11:15). It's done. The world just doesn't know it yet!

Instead of looking at how defeated the world is, let's look at the potential there is for the world to become the kingdom of God. We need to understand that it's the knowledge of the glory of the Lord released through us as sons and daughters of God and the dispensers of His glory that will cause His kingdom to come on earth as it is in heaven.

Meet The Challenge With Victory

Yolanda Ballard

Feb 3, 2005

Every time that I look at My Father's heart I see love, because that is the way He made me to be. By spending quality time with the Father you are also able to see this same kind of love which is unconditional love. I want you to examine your own heart to see that whether the love you display for others is also the unconditional type or whether it is of the world which is based on performance.

This is the day that I AM calling My people to draw close to My Father's heart so that they can once again see the type of love that He has for you for He sent His only begotten Son to die so that His own would see the type of love that He has so that you also would be able to display love that is lasting for others. I want you to see that I died not for a perfect people but for those who in their hearts was far from Me.

So when you see others who act like they despise you, don't reward them by the basis of their performance, but reward them with the grace that comes only from the Father's heart. I want you to see those who are hard and unloving with a heart of compassion, and pray that I would soften their heart so that they could receive My love and be saved from the wrath to come. For I will pour out My fury upon those who are rebellious, not because they willingly chose to walk this way, but because there was no one who was willing to stand in the gap for them. Do not become hard in your own heart.

Do not reward others by the way of performance. Die out to your own flesh so that I will be able to flow through you to touch their hearts. This is the day of salvation. This is the day to choose who you are to serve. This is the day to reap the harvest from the seed that I have sowed. I want you to go out and be sensitive to My leading. I challenge you to die out to your flesh so that you can watch what I will do through you. Your arena of ministry will be the hard-hearted, those who have been rejected from their own father's love, and you will watch and see what I will do as I perform miracles of My love. Watch and see as I melt the hearts who have been broken as they receive the anointing that will flow through you.

Yes, this is the day to reach out to the hard cases which many have cast aside. Do not look at their appearance whether they are cleanly dressed, but look at their hearts. Those who are the hardest are those who I AM after with My love for those are the ones who will then turn around and reach the multitudes with My love. Yes, those are the ones who will reach the most for My kingdom. Those who are forgiven for the most will love the most.

So when you go out this day and reach out to those who I lead you to, do not examine them by their performance of whether they receive you or not, but see them as those who I can flow through with an abundance of grace and mercy. I encourage you to not give into rejection yourself, but overcome the enemy's lies and see an army that I will raise up through those who look like there is no hope. Yes, look past the lies of the enemy and see a people ripe for the Father's love, for I was also rejected and despised by men because of My own appearance. I can relate to this class of people and My heart goes out to them. Don't cast aside the pearls that I have scattered around for they are of most value to Me.

Be watchful for I AM sending you out to glean a harvest. The field is ripe but the laborers are few. Be of those who are the most valuable to Me. Be those who enable My love to flow freely with no hindrance. Be of those who will die out to see Me live. Be those who the King adores for this is the day of rejoicing for I know you will meet the challenge with victory. I am calling you out this day to do greater works, and it involves the melting of people's hearts, those who are broken and despised. Watch as I raise up an army and through you, My people. Be faithful unto death and I will give you a crown of life. Die out so I can live, says your God.

Mutation And Mutiny

Danny Korakas

May 13, 2005

It is of my observation that for the last 1700 years the Christian Church has been largely based on teachings, traditions and practices that have been built upon "foundations" other than the Word of God and the example of Jesus Christ. If we are seeking for the truth and the kingdom of God, we must conclude that things desperately need to be corrected as far as the life essence of the church is concerned. With the Lord Jesus as our model of ministry; we have drastically departed from the way of genuine biblical fellowship, Bible teaching and the equipping of the saints as done in the early church through the example shown by Christ. I believe that one of the most serious departures from the biblical model is the virtually universal practice of revolving the gathering of the church around the exclusive preaching and teaching of one person.

In the New Covenant model, we clearly see that people met in the intimate atmosphere other's homes. The people of God would gather and share meals together for the purpose of building close and personal relationships. I conducted a kind of personal survey several years ago. I took mental notes through the course of one year, attending a traditional "spirit-filled" church for the purpose of how often someone would tell me that they loved me. Incredibly, not one time did a "Christian" brother or sister initiate an "I love you." Now of course, others had little difficulty saying they loved me if I initiated the expression first. Beloved, this is a reflection of a man-made system infringing upon the model of relationship that the true church of Jesus Christ is to represent.

The New Covenant church is to be patterned after the ministry and heart of Christ. It is to be open and free to "joint" participation. However, today's religious system labels this freedom and liberty as disorder and a different view, means of expression, or vision as rebellion. The richness of spontaneous sharing and worship was encouraged with the excitement and expectation of two or three prophesying, the giving of a tongue and an interpretation of a tongue. Words of knowledge and wisdom were to be common place as believers minister to each another in heart-felt care. This is the "body of Christ building itself up in love...with each joint supplying its part." The developing of trust and relationships between one another as believers is living the abundant life in Christ. The condition of our relationships with one another in the natural is a perfect mirror or reflection of our spiritual relationship with God. There is no way to make excuses or get around this. The Bible is clear in that the natural precedes the spiritual.

But how often are we given the time or the freedom in the church meeting or even involve ourselves as the church in the ministry to each another? We have churches and entire denominations that obviously believe by their actions that only "ordained" (and only men at that) have the ability to minister the healing, forgiveness, and love of God. Thus, we have the constant breeding of "reliant" saints rather than the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, which is the only job description I can find in the Bible for true apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers. The entire church – the body of Christ are all called to be "ministers" of reconciliation. Not one believer is left out from being called to the position of a king and priest to our God. On the other hand, a good many "Christians" don't give a flip about anybody else but themselves and only care about the fried chicken and a Sunday afternoon nap to follow.

Our investment of putting others in a place priority and our expression of love is the greatest evangelistic outreach we possess as the church. We have failed to share our weaknesses and minister to each other because of rampant gossip and the fear of being judged. The world recognizes this with crystal clarity...Why should they come to today's church meeting (system?). To have others gossip and judge them? To have a seat of silence? To put their money in a plate to support the vision of a hand-full of men rather than the vision of Christ for His church? Why would they come to simply agree with the power structure in place or be labeled as rebellious? They get enough of this in the world that they live in now!

If we were to adopt a child in the natural, we would prepare a place of warmth, comfort and acceptance. We would be prepared for our new arrival and family member. Yet, when a new adoption into the body of Christ comes into the church, we provide a token smile and hello. Maybe a meal if they look, act, and dress similar. Look man, I have been invited to many after church lunches and dinners...Almost without exception, the surrounding cast was socially, culturally, and economically the same.

The New Covenant church that Christ laid the foundation for did not need religious institutions and million dollar sacred buildings to turn the world up-side-down. The church that Christ planted was a living organism that breathed life and grew out of the relationships forged in peoples homes and genuine love for another. For Christ's sake, have we forgotten how love? You will not find in the Bible a picture or resemblance of today's church meeting. (But yet, year after year and century after century, we pass this powerless religious system to the next generation.)

We gather for our "rehearsed" songs, folks wearing flowing robes that they would not be caught dead in anywhere else. (I only bring this up as a point of showing the responsibility we have of being real or relevant to a dark and lost world that is searching for what is genuine. Why doesn't the church wear these costumes anywhere else? The truth, is because they are not real or applicable to everyday life.) You see, the church has completely lost her relationship, relevance, and love for the lost. Today's modern church is in love with herself and her incest within its own and has birthed a mutation that does not even closely resemble the beauty of the true church.

We have stated in the past that the church swelled in numbers after September 11. People were searching for life answers and truth. In just 3 short months the church was back to her pre 9-11 numbers! This is staggering and we should be grieving over this. Eternal damnation or eternal life is what weighs in the balance here. How much "weight" to you put on the soul of a man? Look, when a person passes on...It's over! There are no more second chances. Have we forgot our mandate in our lust for a system of irrelevance? We are so eaten up with love for ourselves that we have failed to see the stench of death around us perpetrated by a system that we seemingly adhere to and are inoculated with.

What would cause this massive exodus to occur in just 3 short months? Simply put, we introduced people to our religious culture and not to Jesus. Our relationships with them were no different than the shallow and superficial relationships they had in the world. The prophetic voice continued "selling" the word of God and focused on cosmic "stuff" that had little meaning to the lost and searching. Frankly, most of what the church has labeled "prophetic" does not resemble the biblical pattern, nor is it the heart of God. True prophecy is the heart, voice, and focus of God. Is this really what the prophetic movement is about today?

Rather than being a church created with creativity, we have mutated into creatures of habit and line up as an audience with nothing to contribute besides those who may sing a few songs or say an opening prayer. Neither will you find in the New Testament anything that even faintly resembles a traditional sermon. But then again, we can't change the system. What would the paid staff and theologically trained do to earn their wages if the whole body of Christ was moving in the gifts of the Spirit? I am not stating that we should not have paid staffs. However, I will state that this exclusive structure has paralyzed the church, hindered the gifts of the Spirit, thus malnourishing and stunting the growth of the body. It has advanced the abuse of authority and created an unbiblical burden of submission. And it has polarized or split the church with a clergy - laity culture.

The early apostles set the church up in such a way that when they came together to fellowship "...each one has... for you may all prophesy one by one." (See 1 Corinthians 14) They set churches up in such a way that it would positively encourage all those gathered to participate, and therefore brought forth an environment where the Lord would be free to move by His Spirit through each part of His body. The concept or system of the church gathering centering around one person (pastor) is in direct contradiction to scripture.

Now, this is not to say that there isn't a place for this type of teaching among God's people whereby one person predominates in giving it. The Lord does indeed provide people in His body who are gifted in this very thing, and the New Testament makes it clear that teaching is a calling and a gift of the Holy Spirit. The problem is when this format becomes the predominate or singular vision of the church meeting. On the other hand, it would seem that scripture encourages more of a participatory format with all given an opportunity to express what the Lord is doing and speaking through their lives. Some may say, "how would this happen in church of a thousand people. My answer to that is: How could a church get so fat in numbers without reproducing itself? How could a church become so spiritually lazy and proud as too not raise up servant leaders and equip them for the work of ministry as the Bible teaches to plant other churches? How can deep and meaningful relationships that resemble a "family" be forged in mega institution?

We must all take responsibility for the wretched and stained condition of today's church. To deny our true color and condition is certainly wearing rose-colored glasses. Much of our condition is the inclination to revolve like aimless sheep around the "gifted speaker." Somehow, we have an inherited desire to place men upon an elevated platform to be worshiped as the sole arbitrator of one's spiritual promotion. It is vital that as the days ahead approach, we see the evil of the clergy - laity separation and the completely unbiblical two-tier system of leader and those who are led which creates a worldly hierarchal structure – a ridged wineskin. Hierarchy is something no church should ever have, and the only hierarchy found in the pages of scripture pertaining to church life is simply Jesus and everyone else.
When a servant leader is spiritually promoted in China, this is looked upon with great reverence and humility. The "leadership" in the underground church of China notice and take an interest in raising up and the equipping of individuals for the life and growth of the church. Those who receive Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior become a part of a family of believers who walk with then and build them up in the faith...Even under adverse conditions and persecution that most us reading this cannot imagine. As they grow, they are given opportunity to share the Word and take their place as a participating family member. Soon they are recognized as "leaders" of men. (Kings and priests). It is now that the greatest spiritual promotion occurs in the life of the Chinese church – the ordaination to be SERVANT. Their highest honor.

Mount Up In Powerful Prayer
Sandy Warner

Jan 3, 2005
It is time to press deeper into prayer, the prayer of power. I have sent you angelic ministry to cover you as you stand strong and declare My Word of freedom over the captives. I have lengthened your boundaries as you soar up into the skies in these wings of prayer.

I have plugged you into the secret of My power and extended your reach across the miles, that knows no bounds. This is all about My work in your life, growing and stretching and daring to reach out. What is this great secret of My power? This great secret is the gift of love - to love someone unconditionally and without restraint. It is My freedom within you to love with passion. It is a uniting of My burden and heart with your heart of compassion, and this, My dear one, is My greatest secret. Let My love mount you upwards into the places of My power, as I send you to pray for your friends.

Prov 18:24 NKJV
A man who has friends must himself be friendly, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Open My Eyes That I Might See
Sandy Warner

Jan 9, 2005

OPEN MY EYES THAT I MIGHT SEE
Papa I do not know what You have in store for me.
But I wish above all else that I could see.
Please grant me visions and grant me sight.
That I would have restored what is my right.
All that the enemy has stolen and taken
I want it back, I have felt forsaken.

Open my eyes that I might see
My future and hope, my special destiny.
Oh Lord send me the angel that takes me into trances.
Send him to abide so that I might have my entrance.
Through to the porthole of heaven right now.
This I pray on my knees do I bow.
Oh Lord grant my request please come right now.

2 Kings 6:16-18 NKJV
So he answered,"Do not fear, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them." And Elisha prayed, and said, "LORD, I pray, open his eyes that he may see." Then the LORD opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw. And behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

Raising Up Apostolic Leaders
Sandy Warner

Jan 7, 2005

RAISING UP APOSTOLIC LEADERS
I AM raising a new crop of apostolic leaders who will be fathers and mothers to the final day harvest, bringing in multitudes of children. These special ones are being finely honed and trained in the school of My love. I shall place mentoring parents into their lives that will so impact them on a personal level, they will never again be the same. They shall carry the treasures of My love stories unto the ends of the earth as they bare their hearts and souls to the children of their womb. With long embracing arms, they shall gather them in under their wings of faith and be a canopy against the storms of life.

Mark 9:36-37
And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

The Apostle’s Heart
Sandy Warner

Jan 5, 2005

THE APOSTLE'S HEART
The apostles yearn and groan over their children, to see them grow up in Me. To see them united as one. To see them walk My road with passion. To raise them up as their very own children. How often they would hold them in their arms and gathered them as chicks under their wings! Yes, I feel the stones of hard places and know them well. Dear apostles, do not grieve, I have sent you, I have work for you to do. How My heart yearns over you, just as you yearn over your children. I have one thing in mind, and that is to reduce you to love. That is always My answer, I have not changed. So yearn but do not grieve. Let Me turn your yearnings into the deepest bowels of intercession. My Word shall not return void, even the mysteries of your deepest groanings.

Gal 4:19-20 AMP
My little children, for whom I am again suffering birth pangs until Christ is completely and permanently formed (molded) within you, Would that I were with you now and could coax you vocally, for I am fearful and perplexed about you!

Mucus Plug
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite

Sept 2, 2005

That one of America's largest cities would have to be evacuated and become uninhabitable was not something that most of us had ever envisioned. When watching the warnings about the approaching powerful hurricane, along with the threat that it could be one of the worst disasters to hit the United States, I had to stop and pray: "Why Abba has there been such an increase and severity of 'natural disasters' in the nations?" Just a week before I spoke to my parents in Wisconsin, where 27 tornadoes ripped up several towns. This was taking place during the "disengagement" of the settlers in Gaza and Northern Samaria from their towns and homes. Incidentally, the term "disengagement" was coined to indicate that the State of Israel was "disengaging" from the Palestinians, but as it turns out, the ones to disengage were the residents of the towns and villages from their homes. While Katrina was just beginning to form out in the Atlantic, we watched reports of damage and deaths from typhoons and monsoons in the Far East. Western Europe is also beleaguered by floods, and by fires that are consuming large areas. The News reports cause all of us to ponder YHVH's prophetic plans.

Many articles and e-mails fill the cyber space with observations and links. Is YHVH judging the nations for forcing Israel to give up land? Those who keep records of events every time the United States forces Israel to succumb in some way to her enemies, have noticed that such moves are always followed by natural disasters of great proportions. But could there be other reasons for these catastrophes?

As we know, YHVH is always overseeing and fulfilling His ancient words of prophecy. Many refer to our days as a time of harvest. But in looking at Yeshua's harvest time parable, of the ripe wheat and tares, we find that the latter, which represent iniquity or lawlessness, stand straight and tall. The stalks of wheat, on the other hand, bow low as they are laden with the fruit of righteousness. This makes it easy for the tares to be removed by the reapers that are sent out in that day.

Here is Yeshua's interpretation of the day of harvest: "He answered and said to them: 'He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. The field is the world, the good seeds are the sons of the kingdom, but the tares are the sons of the wicked one. The enemy who sowed them is the devil, the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the angels. Therefore as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of this age. The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom [on earth] all things that offend, and those who practice lawlessness, [those who are Torah-less], and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear'" (Matthew 13:37-43).

Another example that the scriptures point to is that of giving birth. Thus, let us now examine a comparable situation from ancient history. When the time came for the Israelites to depart, as a nation, from Egypt the latter travailed as in childbirth. Before YHVH's firstborn nation emerged through the "birth canal" of the Reed Sea, the land in which they had multiplied was heaving with one calamity after another. At the same time, the land that YHVH had designated for His people was satiated with the iniquity of the Amorites (ref. Genesis 15:16).

Could it be that it is time for YHVH's first born sons to again come out of the nations where they have been gestating and growing as if in a womb? Will the nations have to go through the birth bangs of what has been called the tribulation before the "one new man-child" comes forth?

A friend of ours, and fellow-Ephraimite living in Israel, heard the Spirit speak to her the words "mucus plug". This came in association with the pull out from Gaza and Samaria. She did not know at first what those two words meant, but as she inquired she realized that the mucus plug is what comes out by the pressures of labor during childbirth. In the course of a conversation with a friend, about the aftermath of Katrina and the effects it had had on the southern states, it dawned on me that most of the recent calamities had to do with water. In labor, when the mucus plug comes out, a flood of water gushes forth and makes way for the birth to follow.

Are we now at the beginning stages of the nations giving birth to the seed that YHVH planted, just as the nation of Judah (the first stick) was birthed out of the tribulation of two world wars and the Holocaust? Will the second stick of Joseph in the hand of Ephraim be birthed out of the nations through a tribulation the likes of which humanity has never seen or witnessed before? It is interesting that New Orleans is known for its multi national population and sits right at the opening, or mouth, of the largest river in America. This was a main doorway for the seed of Abraham to enter that continent. Will it now become a birth canal for the Israelites to come out of?

India: "If you kill me, I will be with Jesus"
"If you kill me, I'll be with Jesus," Fakar told his torturers. In Spring of 2004, Fakar had been given a green booklet explaining the Gospel using statements in the Koran about Jesus (Isa). Convinced, he was baptised, along with his wife and three daughters, and could not stop speaking of his new faith. After a few months, the local Islamic leaders warned and threatened him. One day, a dozen men attacked and beat him. He died of his injuries. Our partners have started almost 50 house churches among Muslims in Kashmir, India, and the new believers helped others following the recent earthquake in the region. They provide people with a roof over their heads and warm clothing, and make sure they also feel the warmth of God's love.

India: dreams in Kashmir
Raju, a devout Muslim, had a dream in which two corpses were lying in the street. According to Islamic tradition, the dead must be buried immediately. Raju buried the first, but the second one spoke to him, saying "I am not dead. I have eternal life, and you can have it too. Go to your friend. He has a black book. Page x tells you how to find eternal life."
The following day, Raju visited his friend, who was a secret follower of Isa. His friend opened his "black book" (the Bible), and Raju found eternal life, just as he had seen in his dream. He has now started 30 house churches!

Caucasus: Marina's repentance
Marina was married to a Wahabi warrior who aimed to exterminate all Christians. Every day, Marina prayed that Allah would exterminate them. Marina's husband was killed in battle, and her life worsened. Her parents-in-law took her son away from her and chased her away. Then she heard the Gospel, and Isa appeared to her several times. She was baptised about one year ago, and attended the first church planting school in Sochi in May of 2005. Encouraged, she returned to Chechnya to get her son. During our visit a few weeks ago, she told us that he also likes to worship Isa Masiach, the saviour of the world. Marina's mother suffered from Tuberculosis, and would not listen to the Gospel, so Marina prayed and fasted for her. Isa appeared to her mother, saying "You are healed." She was completely healed, opened her heart to Jesus, and was baptised a few weeks ago.

Caucasus: God in Dagestan
Some years ago, H.P. Nüesch, leader of Campus für Christus (Campus Crusade for Christ) in Switzerland, gave an evangelistic sermon in northern Russia. Victor, an oil worker, was touched. He visited his sister Sina, who was married to an Muslim businessman in Dagestan; she was saved, and told her husband Arthur about the Gospel. Arthur was also saved, and planted the first national church in an Islamic people group in the Caucasus. That church grew to around 300 members, and has since planted churches in ten other places in Dagestan. Arthur told the Gospel to Juri, another businessman who was going to commit suicide. Juri's family was heavily involved in the Occult. When Juri opened his heart to Jesus, demons attacked and killed him, but after prayer in Isa's name, "he returned to life." He was sent out to North Ossetia-Alania, and has so far planted churches in two villages. I'm amazed by this 'genealogy': Hanspeter Nüesch - Victor - Sina - Arthur - Juri - churches in North Ossetia-Alania. That's almost a biblical list!

Bangladesh: "Hey brother, want a ride?"
On a hot day in 1983, Tom, a missionary on his way home in a rickshaw, saw a young man on the side of the road, and asked him if he wanted a ride. The young man, Abdul, had been through a tough time, including being locked in his room, solitary confinement, beatings, death threats and suicide attempts, because he had questioned the Koran. He went home with Tom, who gave him a Bible. When he returned home, Abdul read the entire New Testament in one night. John 3:17 astonished him, because it told him that God does not damn people but save them. That very night, he opened his heart to this God! One week later, he had read the entire Bible. His salvation was the start of the most dynamic present-day evangelistic movement in an Islamic nation, currently numbering hundreds of thousands of Muslims now following Isa, and around 10,000 who are baptised each month. That's a millennium event!

Muslims Follow Jesus

Friday Fax

2005 Issue 23, 10 June

In this week's Friday Fax: Millennium event: hundreds of thousands of Muslims follow Jesus (part 1)

Millennium event: hundreds of thousands of Muslims follow Jesus (part 1) Some things only happen every couple of hundred years, others only every couple of thousand. This and the next Friday Fax are dedicated to one of these millennium events. Fourteen centuries ago, Islam overran previously Christian nations such as Egypt and Tunisia. For the past thousand years, particularly since the barbarous "Christian" crusades and the development of un-Biblical westernized religious church traditions, Christians have found it difficult to win Muslims for the Gospel. Islam, with 1.4 billion adherents, is the world's second-largest religion after traditional Christianity which has proven resistant to the Biblical Gospel. As a young Christian, I heard only one message about Islam: "it is practically impossible to win Muslims for Christ" - a message from Hell, in my opinion, born out of centuries of pseudo-missionary frustration. Ineffective missionary methods, non-integrative churches and a fantastic lack of faith among top Christian leaders right up to the 1990's combined to create a climate of missionary unbelief. In 1982, only 2% of all Christian missionaries were working among Muslims - a ridiculously small proportion.

5,000 120,000 522,000 Yesterday, I ate lunch with three missionaries working among Muslims. One of them said "In the past two years, I've seen over 5,000 Muslims come to faith in Jesus in northern India. The work is growing so fast that the number will very likely soon pass 50,000. They meet in multipliable house churches, and ever more Mullahs are joining the movement..." Another told "From our own experience and through other reliable sources, we know that in Bangladesh, 7,000 Muslims were baptised each month in 2003. They are radical followers of Jesus. In 2004, an incredible 120,000 joined them. Since 1997, the number of Muslims following Jesus has grown by 522,000." 522,000? That's more than the number of evangelical Christians in Switzerland, Austria and France together! Is that possible? What happened? Baptist missiologist and author David Garrison says "More Muslims have come to Christ in the past two decades than at any other point in history. In North Africa, 16,000 Muslim Berbers turned to Jesus; in a central Asian republic, 4,000 Muslims have found Christ; 15,000 Kazakh Muslims found Christ in the past 15 years. In an appearance on Al Jazeera, Sheikh Ahmad Al Qataani, a leading teacher of Islamic clerics in Libya, said 'Every hour, 667 Muslims turn to Christianity, 16,000 every day, 6 million each year!' Those numbers are certainly exaggerated, but show that Islamic experts recognise what is happening: a massive missionary movement of Muslims to Christ."

A vision becomes reality Let me use Kevin Greeson's story as an example of what's happening. Greeson is a Baptist missionary in southern Asia. In his book "Camel Training" published in 2004, he writes "In September 1997, I lay down on my hotel bed in Singapore, where I was attending missionary training. Before going to sleep, I saw a vision of thousands of Muslims in Bangladesh going to Hell. The vision's realism gripped me so strongly that I began to weep - for the first time in 22 years. The scene changed, though; the Muslims were given a new directive, were re-routed and went to Heaven. The next day, I was excited to hear that 30,000 US Christians had taken part in a prayer campaign for the people group among which I wanted to work, and that they had been praying the very hour I had my vision. My first years there as a missionary brought no fruit; after two years, we had gathered 23 women who worked weaving baskets for export to the West. Then we heard of Abdul (name changed).

Learning from Abdul Abdul was a local church planter, and himself a saved Muslim - or Isahi (one who belongs to Isa/Jesus). In 1998, he had seen 50,000 Muslims baptised, and 8,000 churches planted by 2003. He was doing something differently, and we learned from him to do them differently too. We told the women to invite their husbands to a meeting; they all brought their husbands or fathers, and we explained verses from the Koran which speak of Jesus, showing him to be far more than just a prophet. They were excited and angry - excited, because they recognised the truth about Isa (Jesus), and angry about their Imams (islamic pastors), who had withheld the truth from them. Then we showed them the Jesus Film in their language. What then happened was unbelievable; the men insisted on meeting again the next day. For four days, they sat there and listened to the Gospel. They all turned to Jesus, and six new jamaats (house churches) were formed. Over the following 2 1/2 years, our team saw 4,500 Muslims baptised and 314 new churches started. Two years later, the number of churches had grown to over 800. The movement is still growing. What did we teach the Muslims which made them so open for Christ? It has something to do with a camel..." ... continued in next week's Friday Fax

Part 2 When Muslims throw the Koran in the river "One morning in May 1999, I read a report in Bangladeshi national newspaper, quoting a Member of Parliament who stood before his colleagues and asked 'What is happening to our religion? Muslims in the capital are throwing their Koran in the trash, and in one district, they even throw the Koran in the river.' What was going on? One day, an Imam held the Koran up in the Mosque, saying 'This book has done nothing to improve our lives.' Then he threw the book in the river. The congregation of around 4,000 men followed their leader's example, throwing their Korans in the river too."

What comes after resignation? Kevin Greeson's report shows something of the inner erosion happening in Islam. But many adherents of other religions and religious subsystems are just as resigned. Just as traditional Constantine churchianity, Animism or Buddhism, the core of Islam does not help people live their lives, but generally just preserves the status quo of poverty, difficulties, uncertainty and illness for most and riches for a privileged minority. On top of all that, religion can only superficially answer the questions every person faces: why am I here, what am I supposed to be doing, where am I headed? The Bangladeshi Imam spoke for many in his recognition of the truth. In this phase of religious resignation, most people simply perform religious rites perfunctorily, outwardly going with the flow, inwardly questioning. Many Muslims, for example, wonder about Allah's secret 100th name...

The camel knows Every Muslim knows that Allah has 99 names, and many know of a tradition which says that only a camel knows his 100th name. That name is 'Isa'! The Koran, the Muslims' holy book, does not answer the question directly, but gives enough clear hints. Many experienced missionaries start a conversation with Muslims with the words "I have discovered an amazing truth in the Koran, which gives hope of eternal life in paradise. Would you please read me Sure Al-Imran 3:42-55?"

The Koran teaches that Jesus knows the way to heaven This Sure says three things about Isa (Jesus) which clearly lift him above the status of a prophet: Isa is holy (3:42-48), has power over death (49-54) and knows the way to heaven (55-56). This is a shock for many Muslims, because what does the Koran say about Mohammed? The surest answer is to say that Mohammed is what he said of himself; in Sure 46:9-10, he says "I am nothing new among prophets; I do not know what will become of me or my followers. I am just a voice of warning." If Mohammed is nothing different or more than all the prophets before him, and did not claim to be the greatest prophet of all, did not know where he or his followers would go after death, and professes to simply be a voice of warning, the contrast with Jesus' statements about himself (for example John 6:47 and 14:1-7) could hardly be greater. If you then ask a Muslim "I want to go to heaven when I die. Which prophet can help me get there?", the result is often a process leading them to read the Injil (New Testament) and find Jesus. Information from the Koran (very important for Muslims) reveals Jesus to be clearly more than just a prophet, and endows him practically with saviour status. "The Koran does not contain enough light to show someone the way to salvation, but enough small candles to guide seekers the right way," says Greeson.

For God's sake, don't bring Muslims to church! Greeson sees four aspects which are decisive in helping Muslims find Christ and remain in him: 1.Speak in a way that Muslims understand. 'Canaanite' language is as much a hindrance as calling yourself a Christian, which is so culturally and historically laden that Muslims understand "A person with Western culture, ungodly and immoral." The word 'Isahi' (follower of Isa) is far better. 2.Cultural conformity is not a hindrance, but builds important bridges. Paul became a Jew to the Jews, and a Greek to the Greek. Followers of Jesus must learn to overcome their fear of the unknown and foreign cultures through love. 3.Send out early. Where Muslims who become Isahis are taught and sent out early, they win others to Christ and plant new churches, thus starting a movement with church multiplication as one of its basic principles. Christians who do not understand this and claim that these things need significantly more time are a serious hindrance, and should be avoided. 4."Please do not bring newly-saved Isahis to existing traditional churches!" advises Greeson. That tears them out of their cultural surroundings, and causes them to be rejected by their friends and family - exactly the people which a church planting movement should reach. A far better strategy is to start culturally relevant Jamaats (meetings). House churches provide an ideal structure. "So if Muslims do not come to church, we take the church to the Muslims!" My Voice From Within Will Guide You
Susan Cummings

I have told you that this was a New Day. I have also begun the process in which you will begin to be transformed in this Day. For the Season has passed, and it has left it's mark upon you, and I have allowed it to remain there as a reminder to you. Just as you are changed from Glory to Glory, and from Height to Height, so it will be with you. I am bringing forth New Methods of Operation and of Supernatural Release to you.

I broke every form of Self and Independence from you, and I have allowed the healing time to refresh you, and now I am causing New Thoughts to begin to rise up within you to draw from. What I have brought you out from is in no wise, what you will be walking in, in this New Day. What I have removed from you will no longer have any life of it's own, nor place in your walk. I have called you to a Higher Place. You will walk with My Word as your guide, and My Thoughts will lead you forth.

I have chosen to guide you from within. Listen to My Voice, as it rises up from within your spirit. Keep alert, and take heed to My Directions. For out of you will flow the Living Streams of My Truth. What I have begun will be released in my vessels. For I am bringing forth My True House. They walk in My Light. For My Spirit of Truth and Of Counsel will rest upon them as they walk IN ME.

Many voices clamor and rage in the earth. None has the answer or the Truth, except for Me. I alone release the Truth through My People. I alone am speaking, and now is the time to listen. Many will not hear My Voice, as they are caught up in the clamor. But I have chosen to speak, and My Own will hear Me.

New Thoughts will I bring to you. Thoughts of new ideas and of great feats yet undone. Do not hesitate when I tell you to do the strange thing, or the unheard of thing. Bring forth the Life, as I lead you! Break open the way for My People! Be warned: Many will challenge you, and ask for your authority to do these things. But I say to you, I have brought you forth, and I have caused you to become New, and I will also cause your acts of faith to be complete, as you obey Me. I will perform that which I have spoken!

Walk forth, into My Leading.
Stand firm in My Truth.
Reach out in Obedience.
For the breaking forth is now before you, and the evidence will be seen by all.

Great Are My Ways
Susan Cummings

Great are My ways, child. Great are the things that I do and that I am accomplishing. At no time, am I ever not in control or am I not fashioning things according to My plan. I am always at work concerning you. You must remember that, and fear not. For I do not do things according to your ways or your understanding, but according to My will. All things work towards your good when you walk in absolute surrender and obedience to Me.

It is when you are totally surrendered to me, that I can do My greatest work. For it is then, that I can give you My greatest Grace in the midst of it all, to be able to change you in it all. It is to this goal, which you must continually walk. It is to this goal that you must continually place your eyes upon. Look unto Me, and leave all things in My hands. I can accomplish much with you at My side.

Things are uncertain around you at this time, for many decisions must be made, but I have already given you My Word. You can depend upon it for your guidance and strength. Through each step, you will walk assuredly, as you continue to lean upon Me in it. Although you do not understand the course you now walk upon, yet you choose to trust Me. It is because you trust Me without understanding, this is why you can remain in Me. This is why you can walk uprightly and maintain your peace. Great Grace is given to those who have great faith.

Great are My Ways, and yet, few truly and fully seek to understand them.

I am teaching you to know Me in the silent times, in the hard times, in the barren times, in the darkest of hours, and times of misunderstanding and persecution. For unless you know Me in these times, you cannot consistently follow Me when they come in greater intensity in the days ahead.

I am forming into you an even deeper relationship of absolute surrender, and absolute trust, so you can stand firmly and victoriously in the days ahead. You must ascend even higher and partake of Me even more. I have more to give unto you.

I am training you to walk in Me and abide in Me even deeper, even when you cannot sense Me. It is the heart knowledge of Me, and the intimacy with Me that will keep you and guide you. I am training you to reign with Me. You know My Voice and My Presence. Follow Me.

My greatest works are yet to be seen. I unfold My Ways unto you, as you follow Me. You haven’t seen anything yet, child. There is much yet to learn, to see, and to do. Continue on. I have begun the transformation, and it will fully unfold, as you walk it out. The process continues, as does the learning, but all work forth unto My Will. Even though many men in the earth do not see or hear, they will continue to see My Hand, for I work all things according to My Plans. But My People will see and hear, and walk in Great Grace as the days unfold.

The pressures will increase in the earth, but so will My Grace.

My Grace abounds towards those who humble themselves before Me, and who seek Me in all their ways. I know your limitations, your struggles, and your desires. I will work My work within you, even in these areas, for you have not hardened your heart. Because you have continually cried out for change, and for a new heart, this I can give to you, and do within you. My Grace is sufficient for you. Never underestimate the power of My Grace.

Take heed to listen to me and to walk with Me daily, even more so, as the days come. For the darkness deepens and the hearts harden among men. The love of many waxes colder and harder. This is why I am working My Work. I am fashioning a glorious people that will be emblazoned with Me, and who will glorify Me amidst the changes. All that is Mine, and that I have fashioned, will reflect Me within it, and through it. You are My Workmanship.

I have formed you, birthed you, raised you, and fitted you for Myself. You are Mine. Allow Me to work Myself through you and out of you, even more. So, reach forth, and continue to move, fully trusting and knowing that I am at work. Maintain your peace and your pace with Mine, and you will finish your race.

My greatest works are yet to be displayed in the earth, and now that Mine have been birthed, even greater will come forth.

My Visit To The Throne Room Of God

Peter Tan

Www.Eaglevision.Com.My Malaysia

In 1986 when the Lord Jesus Christ appeared to me, I was then sitting on a sofa chair. He stood in front of me on my left. I thought He had come to answer one of my prayers - which was to visit heaven. So I put out my hand and told the Lord, "I am ready to go." The Lord smiled at me and said it was not time for me to go yet. He began to talk about other things like the anointing of the Holy Spirit.

In early 1994 when we announced that that year would be the year of visitation, I knew in my spirit that my prayers would be answered. I did not know when but I knew it would be that year.

Sometime in early April of that year 1994, my spirit was caught up in the heavenly places. It was so fast and quick. I did not have time to see anything on the journey, neither did I see the other parts of heaven. I did not even see the pearly gates - I was caught right up in to the Throne Room of God.

Somehow God knows the desires of our heart and He knew that entering the Throne Room of God would satisfy my innermost longings. There was a consciousness in me that the saints in heaven knew that I was there. It seems the people in heaven know what happens to us spiritually. They know if you are walking with the Lord or not. They could sense your spiritual development and growth. When anything spiritual is about to happen in your life, they also seem to know it. Some of my friends and loved ones who were in heaven knew I was there. That was the first awareness of this realization I had when I was there. The awareness of them is as if you are very close to them even if you may be very far from them. There is no distance in heaven.

The first thing I did in the Throne Room was to fall before God and began weeping because I felt the love and the mercy of God. In the midst of the awesome presence of God I realized He had fulfilled every promise and every word He had spoken over my life. Everything that you desire if you pray constantly and believe God's word and do not let doubt and fear steal it from you, God will answer. Sometimes it takes time for the answer to come but it will come.

In His presence there was an awareness that the most important thing about visitations of God is the timing. It is not just in preparations alone, which is important for we need to have a right heart before God. It is not how holy you are, or spiritual or how much good works you have done for God but it is the fullness of the timing of God that determines the visitation of God upon your life. God has a place and time for it.

The reason God waited until 1994 to manifest Himself to me was because there was some spiritual knowledge He wanted me to be built up first before He could reveal the Throne Room. It was to make the visitation more permanent in my life. I believe if God had done it earlier, I would not have been spiritually ready. That is what I mean about proper timing. We cannot afford to be anxious about the visitations of God upon our life in any way. We need to tell Him, “Lord, it doesn't matter how you manifest or when you do it, we just want to be in the perfect will of God to receive the right things at the right time.” If it is not God's time for your visitation and if it happens (which would not) the impact and the effect of that visitation would not be permanent.

Then, the understanding came that God the Father, the Lord Jesus and Holy Spirit does not have a mansion or a place to stay unlike the saints in heaven who have mansions to live in. I was struck by the fact that the Throne Room was God's house. This was where He lived. God's Throne Room was His house. We know all of heaven is His habitation, but the Throne Room was where He lived. In John 14: 1, Jesus said in my Father's house are many mansions. Heaven is God's house.

You never read anywhere in the Bible where it says that Jesus has a mansion or the father has a special place where He goes in to retire from time to time or do whatever things He wants. The Throne Room was where He resided. It was His living room, bedroom and working place, where He permanently dwelt.

The next awareness I had was God was the source of all light in the whole heavens. The Bible says there are no suns in heaven for the glory of God lights up all of heaven. We read in the Word that angels radiate light and their presence have a shininess about them. In heaven, angels have different degrees of brightness of the glory of God, but the awareness was that all those brightness and shininess of all the creations of God in the heavens - angels, saints and others was only a reflection. The awareness of this fact was very strong.

All the heavenly garments were made from substances of the spirit realm like righteousness, praise etc. All these were living substances. When we worship God, these are the substances that go from our spirit to God. Jesus told the rich young man in Luke 18: 22 to sell off all he had and to give it to the poor, and he would receive rewards in heaven.

The most important thing about giving and doing any good works is not the works itself or what we do. It is the attitude of your heart that determines the reward. When we do it, led by the Spirit, and the heart attitude is right, there is some spiritual force and substance that goes to God from our spirit.

In Philippians 4: 18, Paul says to the Philippians that the offerings that they gave to him were a sweet smelling fragrance unto God. They had tangible spiritual substances. When Noah offered an animal sacrifice offering to God after he came out of the Ark, it was the right attitude of Noah's heart that God smelled as a sweet aroma - it was not the smell of the burnt animal sacrifice (which probably did not smell nice at all) that God was referring to. Noah's right heart attitudes gave rise to spiritual substances that went towards God.

In Revelation 14, it says that the white robe garments in heaven are the righteous works of the saints. This means that whatever good works that you do for God, will be your spiritual deposit in heaven. We read in Isaiah 61 about the garments of praise. In Revelation, it mentions about the prayers of the saints going up in heaven. These right attitudes of hearts of the saints as they carry out spiritual works on earth produce substances that make the heavenly mansions, heavenly rewards, heavenly crowns and garments, etc.

It is very important that anything you do for God, your attitude of heart must be right when you do it and the intention is out of love for God and the people - then the 'freeness' and the 'fullness' of the spiritual substances from your heart will go to God to make up your heavenly rewards. These heavenly garments are not able to produce light itself. They are like the moon to the sun. The brightness and the shininess of the moon is dependent upon the sun. In the same way the brightness of the angels and heavenly garments of the saints are a reflection of the glory of God. I was fully aware that if God were to somehow stop that light that came from the Throne, every angel, plant and heavenly garment would turn black. There would be none of that brightness anymore then.

There was an acute awareness as I looked into the glory of God that who I am, what I am, what I wear, whatever saints are wearing in heaven and all the brightness of the mansions surrounding the Throne were only a reflection. Literally you could say His life is in us. It is because of the constant pulsating river of life that keeps flowing out from the throne of God that lights up every life in heaven. Glory and life are one in heaven. To have life is to have glory. To have glory is to have life.

Another thing I was aware was that the garments were constantly changing for different purpose. We don't have the same clothing for 10,000 years times 10,000 years in heaven. There are different types of clothing that we wear and they are a reflection of God and what He is doing. On this earth, some people wear clothes that indicate their work and rank. In heaven, the garments are the same with an exception. On this earth, many uniforms are uncomfortable and most prefer to wear casual informal clothes. In heaven all the garments feel casual. They are not uncomfortable at all. In heaven, the two are one. All the clothings are an expression of the different rankings and work of the angels for the different type of work they do. I was really astounded as I saw what was happening. I did not know that angels changed clothes. They do not have a wardrobe in a sense like we have on earth. What I saw was when angels came to the Throne Room on an assignment, they would take away different things with them. Sometimes they took with them swords, sometimes a vase, or different things to send to the people on the earth.

And each of these things are powerful impartation of gifts or substances. It is literal in the spirit world although it is only a tangible feeling in your spirit when you receive it. When you receive a gift from God, say a ring, it is God literally giving it to you although in your natural body you may just feel only a heavy impartation of the anointing.

In the spirit realm, there are many, many types of gifts God sends to His peoples and the angels are commissioned to send them. As the angels came near the Throne Room to receive the commands of God, their garments are changed instantly and they march out of God's Throne with their commission.

After weeping before the Throne Room for sometime, Jesus stepped out from His Throne and invited me to sit on it. I replied, "Lord, I…" A sense of awe filled me not of an unwillingness to disobey Him but it was like saying this is more than I could take. I knew that Word of God says in Ephesians 2: 4-7, ' we are seated in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus' but this is heaven and you do not simply sit on God's Throne. But He held my hand and placed me on His Throne.

This was what it was like to sit on the Throne of God. The past, present and the future disappear. It was like a position you entered into where everything in the past and everything in the future is just like the present. There is no time. You do not feel it. And everything that God has spoken from the Throne through the prophets that spoke and what Jesus said while He was on the earth will come to pass. There was an awareness that Jesus and the Father need not to lift one finger to make the word of God come to pass. The power and impact of the spoken Word of God even if it was spoken ages ago was so powerful.

You could feel the awesome power of it in heaven and on the Throne seat of Jesus. You know the spoken Word of God has come to pass or would come to pass. There was an awareness that it was done, completed and finished. The consciousness of that power that emanated on the Throne of Jesus that could cause the fulfilment of the spoken Word of God was acute.

The power of the Word that was issued forth like a royal command was such that all Jesus had to do was to sit on the Throne and reign and it would come to pass. Hebrews 1:5-8. There is an authority that flows out from the Throne, a power that seems to compel everything, to conform to its reign.

The only reason God uses angels and the saints is not because He does not have enough power in Himself to do it but to give us an opportunity to experience what it is like from His point of view to do His things. Before there were any angels, God had an ability to call into being anything. This same ability is still there. There was such an intense power issuing out from the Throne of Jesus to put pressure upon every man, woman and child and everything on earth to conform to the will of God.

God has His angels to do His job. But God's power was such that He could do it without His angels. It was like a person with such power that all he needs is to say it and it is done. We know that took place in Genesis 1, where God said it and it was.

In 1 Corinthians 15: 25-27, 'For He must reign till He has put all enemies under His feet and the last enemy that will be destroyed is death.' For 'He has put all things under His feet.' But when He says 'all things are put under Him,' it is evident that He who put all things under Him is excepted. His being on the Throne puts an intense pressure on all things to come under His feet.

Jesus said in Mark 11: 23-24, that if you have faith in your words and do not doubt in your heart, the mountain will be removed when you speak to it. This verse is talking about believing in what you say and when you speak to the mountain and believe it, it will put pressure upon the mountain to be removed. That is what it was like in the Throne Room. The intense and awesome power of Jesus reigning upon the God made me unable to stand it for long.

There is another aspect of the Throne. We tend to think that all the things surround the Throne of God. And there is a glassy sea like crystal before the Throne. It is not quite like that. You could not see what was behind the Throne of God. If I take a chair and sit on it, you could see what is behind the chair and around it. It was like some sort of glory or life flowing out from it. It was like the Throne was connected in infinity. Behind the Throne is infinity. You could see as far as you wanted to see, further than the natural. Yet there was no limit to the life that issued forth from the Throne.

It was like looking into infinity. You cannot see the end. I believe there is possibly some other universe that Almighty God has created in His greatness and we are only one small tiny part of the universe.

It is like infinity times infinity of the worlds God has created. It was awesome to know how powerful and great our Almighty God is like I was aware that the manifestation of the Throne Room is to different degrees. I could hardly comprehend it. It was like if there was another universe somewhere with a different world, then the Throne Room of God which is linked up to infinity would also be linked to this universe and to many, many other universes. And God is conscious of what is here and what is further out there even to the furthest reaches of the entire universe.

Seeing infinity is like putting two mirrors opposite each other and you can see as far as you want to see and there is no end to it. And there are many manifestations of the Throne of God to every universe connected to it in infinity.

Then within heaven itself, it was like there were different planes in heaven. Within each place was a manifestation of God. It is not like having different planes or degrees of glory and there is a throne of God for each plane.

There is only one plane where the throne of God is but if you were on the lower plane and you approached God from that lower plane, you would still see God's Throne but the Throne of God you would see and experience would be from that lower plane. It is the same Throne but reflected through, for example, seven degrees of glory and you see the Throne of God differently from the way I see it. I was intensely aware that believers could reach to the Throne of God and see different parts of the Throne from what I saw.

That was what really astonished me. It is like if we have many layers of glass in different degrees of transparency. Suppose I put a light bulb in front of the different glasses. You could see the light bulb in different degrees according to the different degree of transparency of the glasses. If you were on the lower plane you could still see the light bulb but it is not just a reflection but it is like seeing it in a hologram. In the earth you would see it like a reflection. But in heaven if you approached the Throne on the lower plane, it is like seeing the light is there but you know it is not but from a different plane.

Because it has passed the different degrees of glory and you are seeing it from the lowest plane you will see the Throne of God differently. People could approach the Throne at these different levels or planes. When you are at the highest plane, you can begin to understand seeing the Throne from other different planes.

So in the Children's paradise, they will also have the manifestation of God's Throne Room too, only at a different level.

The Throne Room of God is not static. It does not stay the same where you imagine you see only the glory of God and the shininess of it all the time. Different things take place at the Throne at different times. After the experience of sitting with Jesus, I was allowed to stand and watch all those things.

When Elijah said, "I stand in the presence of God" I began to understand what he meant. It meant standing in the presence of God and being able just to watch all the activities taking place in heaven. Heaven is a bee-hive of activities. Different things were coming to the Throne of God and things were also being issued forth. Whenever people on earth worshipped God and sing how great is our God and Jesus our King and Commander in Chief, there is a type of glory that reflects His kingship, His authority and power in the kingly sense, and each with its different shades. And if people are singing about the God of love, the Fatherhood of God, then the Throne Room would have a different light that shines out and you could see the soft warm love flowing out from the Throne. God is who we say He is. And what God manifest to us at the Throne is what we see and say of Him on earth.

When you know Him as Jehovah Jireh and call Him Jehovah Jireh, He becomes Jehovah Jireh to you. When you call Him Jehovah Shammah, He becomes Jehovah Shammah to you, and you will have the nearness of His gentleness. When you call Him Jehovah Tsidkenu, the Righteousness of God begins to come forth. Whichever attribute you call God by, His manifestation changes accordingly. I was astounded by how much the Throne of God was going into the many different manifestations of glory according to the worship of His people. That is why He revealed His Name as I AM that I AM. When you begin to add whatever you perceive to the I AM, He begins to manifest accordingly because He is the Alpha and the Omega.

Whichever name you use to say and speak about God according to your revelation, that is what He is, because it contains all of the Alpha and the Omega you could understand of, even beyond what you can see and think. Revelation 4: 11, "You are worthy to receive glory and honour and power; for You have created all things, and for Your pleasure they are and were created."

The Lord Jesus appeared as a Lamb of God. This was the Throne Room. We know Jesus is in the form of a glorified Man. But look, He appears differently in Revelation 5: 6, "And I looked, and behold, in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as though it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent out into all the earth." Notice Jesus was representing something else. He was not just representing man seated on the right hand of God, but He was doing something different now for the destiny of nations and it was a full manifestation that was like a lamb.

In Revelation 5: 12, it describes the worship of the Lamb. Whatever we sing about, the heavens begin to manifest and the glory of the Lord begins to shine forth according The Great I AM that I AM. Not that we change Him for He changes not, but what we receive from Him according to what you see and say of God. Do not say of God according to your limited mind. Say what the Word says He is and He will be all that He is unto you.

Sometimes the manifestation of the glory of God was so powerful in the Throne Room that I felt like I was in a furnace and I could not even see the face of God. The sun is constantly having solar flares all the time and according to scientists, there is an 11 year cycle where more sunspots take place in the sun during these cycles. This is only a small illustration of the fiery things that are constantly taking place at the Throne of God. Hallelujah!

Somehow what we do spiritually on the earth, does bring some manifestation from the Throne of God. In heaven, one of the busiest times is when there are various activities going on with the saints on earth. Sunday is not only a very busy day on earth whereby many believers all over the world worship God. It pleases God when there are spiritual activities that go on in the earth. I saw the things coming out from the earth to heaven. Those things were substances of our praises, prayers, sacrifices, giving, right attitudes of our hearts described earlier that go up to God in worship.

It was not just a one-way thing upward, but a two way traffic - the rays of light that come upwards to heaven and rays of light going downwards. These rays were substances going up to heaven creating an activity in heaven and the angels of God were bringing the substances of the saints and bringing them to God like real offerings before Him. Oh, the awesomeness of the things of God.

One of the most beautiful things that God shared with me on the Throne was He gave me a glimpse of what my work would be in heaven. It is already so wonderful if you discover what God's will for you on this earth. It was so glorious God doesn't just want us to visit His Throne. He wants the Throne Room to be our home. And I began to realize what He was saying - that we do not go to visit God in heaven once in a while and then we come back to earth to do our earthly duties and responsibilities. But Ephesians 2: 6 says the opposite, "we have been raised up and seated with Christ in the heavenly places."

The most wonderful message that God gave was that heaven is our home now. Ephesians 2 is in the past perfect tense. It is not, "we shall be", though our physical bodies are on this earth. Our spirits can actually remain there. God gave me the understanding that my spirit can remain there, while my body can be down here on earth. From time to time our spirits have to descend to this earth to fulfil our earthly responsibilities but we need to go back there.

We should not visit God in heaven once in a while. Instead, it should be the opposite. What God meant is that our spirits can be there. The authority that we have on this earth is proportional to our spirits in the heavenly places (Ephesians 1: 20-23). These principalities and powers are demon forces that have set themselves up in the atmosphere of the earth to block the glory of God from coming to us and to hinder us from reaching His glory.

Our spirits can be pulled down by our soul and by our body if we allow it. We can then never escape from the gravitational pull of the law of sin and death. However, our spirits can ascend high above it. The reason why God wants us to ascend high up is that when our spirits are up there, our spirits can wrestle with principalities, powers and wicked spirits. Then we can begin to affect the throne of satan. A lot of Christians are fighting the lower ranks. They are just having skirmishes with the enemy. But, God wants us to enter the war of victory to overcome him. Unless the strongman is bound, we cannot spoil the goods. For example, when Jesus cast out the man with the legions, He only spoke to the main one. He did not speak to the other smaller demons.

A lot of Christians are wrestling with the smaller demons of the lower kind, and yet they are not having victory in their lives because they are not ascending to the Throne. The higher we go, the greater the authority (Eph. 6: 12-14). The only way we can overcome these powerful demons is to be in the heavenly places (Eph 3: 9-10). The only way we can shake the nations of the world is to shake the demon forces governing these nations. When we begin to ascend up, the demon powers begin to recognize our authority in God because we now come from the Throne Room of God. That is why the demons knew Paul well enough to scream his name out (Acts 19: 15)

Elijah had such an authority over the natural earth because he always said, "I stand in the presence of God." That is why he had such power over the weather and the natural elements because his spirit was not down on earth. His spirit had somehow ascended high up. The reason was he walked so close with God. Today, God does not want one Elijah. He wants many Elijahs. He wants His church to be in the heavenly places. We only receive the heavenly blessings when we are in the heavenly places. Then from the heavenly places, our spirit descends with the heavenly blessings and these blessings work out on this earth in our physical body.

It is not true to say that if you are so heavenly minded, you are of no earthly use. We can be so earthly minded that we are of no heavenly use. What God wants is not the dreaminess that the proverb is referring to. Unless you are in the heavenly places, you are a worm in this earth, making no real impact in it. The aim of this message is, "Church, the Throne Room is supposed to be your home now."

Make Your Choice

Heidi Cummins

“Hate what I hate, and love what I love. I hate the prostitution of My word for personal gain. It is a loathsome sore, a vile stench in my nostrils. I will vomit out of My mouth those who persist in pedaling their wares, saying it is Me, and it is not. Swift retribution will come from My hand, and I will not repent from My actions. I will not change My actions that I have determined for those who persist in their abominable sin against Me. They sin not only against My people, but they sin against Me, the Holy One. Those that follow them will also fall into a ditch, never to be recovered.

Is not My name to be revered? Is not My name Holy? Is My name common? Can My name be understood with human reasoning, brought down to your level, so as to make you feel comfortable and at ease? You do not understand or even fathom Me. How is it that the prostitutor’s of My Holy Word, think that they can do as they please? Blind leading the blind is what they are, puffed up in their pride and deception. What is reserved for them is the depth of destruction, fire and brimstone that never ends. This is their end. This is their reward. I will tell them I never knew them. I will feel no remorse. This is end for those who do as they want to do, never considering that they will have to give an account for their deeds and actions. Do not cry for them. I do not cry for them. They have made their choice. They have chosen to fight against me, and so, I will swiftly repay.

For those who are walking a line. Make your decision. Make your choice whom you will serve. Now is not the time for indecision. Choose this day whom you will serve. If I be God, serve Me. If you do not believe, you have made your choice already. So be it.

This is the hour of reckoning. This is time in history that is the culmination of all things. Many do not see the time it is. Many are asleep. I have those that are My own, which I will awaken soon. I have prepared My servants for this hour, to do this job. They will awaken those from their slumber, who are My children. The rest will remain asleep. They will sleep towards their destruction.

Many will fight My true servants. I have made My true servants strong. I will be with them in battle. I will not forsake them or leave them. Those who cling to worthless idols will perish in the coming days, but those who follow after Me, will be strong and do exploits. Encourage yourself with these words. I Am with you till the end of days.”

Measure Your Service By Years

Yolanda Ballard

(roarnworship@netzero.net)
Mar 6, 2005
Make arrangements with yourself to be determined to quit beating yourself up. You are not judged by the quality of your work but by your availability and your heart attitude to be willing for Me to use you continuously. Yes, I look at the heart, and many feel that they are not being used; therefore, they are not useful or needed by Me.

I do not look at the quality of your work, whether it is up to par, but I look whether you have been available all the years that you have known Me. I love you and I want you to know that I appreciate you and every prayer that you have petitioned for My people.

This is the day that I am calling My troops together, and I am looking for the faithful remnant, those who did not give up in the fight when it looked like nothing was going their way. They remained faithful to My word no matter if they saw results or not even after years had gone by. Yes, I am measuring your service by years and not by quality for I look to the heart.

Remain faithful unto death, and I will give you a crown of life. Love not your life unto death, and I will reward you with fruit that will last. Every time that you look at your situation and you see no change, remember that I AM the Faithful One. No matter what you see know that My word is true. I am just taking you through the fire purging the dross, and soon you will come forth pure as gold that has gone through the fire seven times. Yes, the number of completeness, and I will complete the work I have begun in you.

Yes, I am gathering My troops, and I am calling together the faithful, those who walk by faith and not by sight. Every time you look to My word see it finished for I have added to it My "yes" and "Amen". My word will never return void but will complete that which I sent it out to do.

So when you see that years have gone by, and there is no change to your situation, do not fret, for I see that you have endured the fire. I see that you have been faithful and even willing to die for Me. I know that you are willing to pay the cost no matter what it might be.

I am raising up My army, and I am looking to the heart. I know those who have not given up on Me no matter what they saw in the natural. They kept their peace and knew I would be faithful.

Now continue to look to Me for I AM the author and finisher of your faith. Don't look to your own faith to see whether it can endure the test, but look to Me, and I will take you to the finishing line where you will have reason to rejoice for I give you My victory. I give you My weapons of war. I give you My armor. All you need to do is follow closely after Me and stay behind your shield. Use your sword effectively.

I AM your Captain, and I have defeated the enemy. So take your land and your inheritance I gave My life for you to have. Today is the day to rejoice for this is your Jubilee!

"Go and make disciples of all the nations, baptising them in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age" - Matthew 28:19-20

A new move of My Spirit is about to hit the world, where many who have not been known are about to be known for My Glory and anointing upon them.

For many are being sent out now, in the suddenly. Many are being sent out into the world suddenly. Many are about to be launched forth. For none will see from where they came, or where they are to go next, but will move with powerful force, anointing and strength, My strength.

For these will come up against many persecutions and attacks from those who hold religiosity close to their hearts, who allow legalism to sit comfortably with them

For I am now putting these leaders in place. For there are leaders that I am sending forth now in a different way and many within My body, within My church, will look upon them with judgment, criticism and doubt the callings on their life, because I am moving out of the box. I cannot and My works cannot be contained in a box.

I am bringing forth even greater miraculous provisions. I am bringing forth greater moves for those who have planted seeds over faith over and over in secret. Who have struggled, while waiting on My timing.

For the wave of My Spirit is pouring over the world in a new way. The SUDDENLY has arrived. The “suddenlies” that I am sending out, have arrived. The doors are being flung open and the “suddenlies” that I have spent much time on, moulding, through the fire, shaping, are now being released, and their greatest enemy will be those within their own house. Their brothers.

As it was with Joseph My church, so it is with you who are the suddenlies being sent out, your biggest enemies will be your brothers. Repent church, and rejoice with others. Rejoice as I release others. Rejoice as I speak out and send others.

For you all have a time of release. Some now, some later. Rejoice in Me alone.

The “suddenlies” are being released now. These “suddenlies” are carrying a new and fresh anointing. Will bring a new flavour of mine to the church, which will ruffle the feathers of many Pharisees but the world and especially the church will see a new move of My Spirit.

Yes, even the church. The church will be more surprised than the world. For the church is condemning my “suddenlies”.

My “suddenlies” that I am sending out now, listen carefully. The enemy is wanting to disarm you before you step out, by telling you that you will be sent out once and not again. I speak to this and say it is a lie.

For I am sending you out suddenly now, and this is the bridge to carry you to greater things.

Continue to come and just soak in My presence and watch what I am about to do.

For as I am sending you out My “suddenlies” so will the work I am going to do in and through your lives be “sudden”.

Ministries will be established very quickly, new moves established quickly, many will doubt this move, but I the Lord your God am speeding things up in many areas. For time is short, and I long to see My church rise up. My church to truly dance with it’s Beloved.

Get ready My “suddenlies”. The doors are open, now take the step and walk through.

Your destiny will not stop here. This is the first step to all that you’ve dreamed of and MORE. I love you My church. My faithful children, you have sowed much, and now receive your harvest.

Church Gone Fishing
Lanna Perry

chosenwarriorprincess@yahoo.com.au
http://www.ourchurch.com/view/?pageID=216990

Today whilst praying the Lord kept showing me the church and the church was standing on a riverbed and as a body of Christ we were fishing. I began to ask the Lord what He was trying to say. Then I was shown.

I saw churches everywhere, lots and lots of churches and people were climbing up to the top of their churches and removing the cross. In place of the cross people were placing 'the church has gone finishing'.

While seeking the Lord about the meaning of this, I was quite saddened to what I believe He revealed.

Many within churches today, are standing on the riverbeds, and are dipping in their fishing rods, in the river of God, to only get what they desire. Many are following after Jesus only for what they can receive.

I then see Jesus standing in the middle of the ocean and He says "Leave your rods, and come follow Me" and very few move.

Most continue with their fishing.

What are we doing church?!?!?!?

Oh Lord forgive us for our fishing.

The Lord does not want part of us, the Lord does not want 3/4, the Lord wants ALL of us. The Lord is so grieved at the fact that many are walking with Him only to receive. Not truly surrendering and picking up their cross, but seeking Him only for what His hand can provide.

When we go finishing, you do not go fishing to give but to receive. You place a 'bait' on the string to 'lure' the fish in, but then you trap them and pull out what you truly desire.

Many are trying to do this with the Lord. Many are using the 'bait' of their lips. Trying to lure in the Lord with the praise of their lips, but their hearts are so far away.

When you fish, your fishing line goes deep, but why? To only receive what you want. Same with the church. The church has tried to go deep in Jesus only to get what they want.

The church is becoming blended.The church is only skimming the surface in proclaiming the truth. The church (body of Christ) in ways has started watering down the gospel. Preaching a gospel to receive, but not die to self and give.

The Lord cannot be lured. The Lord cannot be trapped or fooled. Church, the Lord sees the hearts of men. The Lord sees the intentions of all.

The church must repent for trying to bait the Lord. The Lord is calling for true repentance. The church is NOT meant to go fishing. The Lord despises this fishing and He will not stand for it.

As the body of Christ, the cross is being removed, the very meaning of the church is being drowned out by those who are wanting onto to receive. Use the Lord only for what they can receive. The idea of the church carrying their crosses is being drowned out by a self-satifisfaction that the church is embracing.

How can the church shine and draw others to Jesus, when the church is blending into the mould of the world.

The world says "It's all about me, satisfy me", and now the church is going there too. Many sit in church on a sunday for what they can receive, not what they can give. Through the week are many really carrying their crosses?

This is a message for ALL of us as the body of Christ. There is none exempt. If we are not guilty of fishing, then we must intercede for those who are. We must stand in the gap and cry out for the Lord's mercy.

For the judgment of the Lord is coming upon the church. He will not stand for fishing. He will not stand for His own creation trying to lure Him and deceive Him. What an abomination.

Even as I type this message my hands are shaking and heart is so grieved at the state of the church.

Oh church, we must repent!!!!!

Let not the world look at the churches and see the signs "gone fishing" instead of the cross, the true message of Christ.

Let us examine our hearts and our churches. Have we thrown the cross aside to embrace a sign that says "gone fishing"?

Oh church, let us truly seek our first love. (Revelation 2:4-5) Let us know Jesus, truly want to know Jesus. Seek NOT the Lord for what you can receive, but seek the Lord in thanksgiving for what you have ALREADY received from Him in Calvary, and for who He is.

As the message of the 'cross' and 'dying to self' slips through our fingers, and "gone fishing" signs start coming up everywhere, the church will die radically.

The judgment of the Lord is coming to the church if we do not repent.

Let us join together and BURN our "gone fishing" signs, and fall on our faces before Jesus in repentance, crying out to mercy from Him, who has loved us before we loved Him. (1 John 4:19)

Church Gone Fishing Part Two

I have been asked about the practicality of removing the "gone fishing" signs that seems to be over many churches.

After enquiring of the Lord, I believe that the Lord has dropped a few ideas in my spirit of ways which we as the body of Christ may respond to His calling.

1. Repentance & Fasting - I believe that the Lord is calling us to repent. We are called to repent of our 'gone fishing' signs, and fast for the Lord to change our hearts and remove anything within us that is not following after Him.

2. Speaking out our hearts surrender daily - daily let us proclaim our trust in the Lord. Examining our hearts daily, to make sure that they are in a surrendered state.

3. The continual surrender of our desires and expectations - the Lord gives us the desires of our hearts, but I believe that we must continue to lay down all that we desire and dream of to Him, so He may do what He wants to do. Trust Him knowing that He will bring the best out of all our lives - Romans 8:28

4. Sacrifice your time & Count the Cost - Sacrifice your time to spend with your Lord. Not for what you can receive, but spend time with Him in order to hear what is on His heart, and know more of Him. As the body of Christ, as we continue to sacrifice our time, which is something we all love and feel we do not have enough of, we will truly see the Lord. We will see Him for who He really is. Also, as we continue to count the cost of following Jesus, and laying down our lives for Him in practical ways, obeying His Word, and doing all that He asks through His strength, we will see the church again begin to shine.

5. Marinate in the Word - Make sure that you are daily in the Word, daily going deeper into the studying of the Word. Live it, breathe it, walk in, eat it.

6. Always pray for the Lord to take you deeper. Automatically through this surrender in prayer, the Lord will have His way. As you open yourselves up to Him through this prayer, you will not stand on the seashore with your rod, but throw your rod aside and jump right in. God will not despise a heart truly seeking after Him.

My Testimony
by Bill Somers

I was born in 45 in Wyandotte Michigan, and spent my first 39 years in that area, except for 4 years service in the Navy.

I had a roman catholic upbringing with 8 years of religious training in a catholic parochial school.
Once the priest told me in confession that my problem was that I did not believe what the Church taught me. Well he was right, what they taught was not real to me or believable.
When I walked away from that Church, I prayed that if God was real, he would lead me back.
In my high school years, I was agnostic and even atheistic. Very anti religious. I had an early interest in Science Fiction and later in fantasy.

My family even though Catholic was involved with occultism. Mother read tea leaves, and all the books by T. Lobsang Rampa and some by Edgar Cayce. Dad was alcoholic and so was I.

My college studies led me to logical empiricism and skepticism. A total rejection of any world beyond the 5 senses. Cool rationalism was the word. This was in 1965, just as the wave of eastern religion hit the USA. Drugs were popular, though my experience with them was nil. I started to look at Zen Buddhism, Yoga, Mystic Philosophy, reincarnation, parapsychology and ESP, and other new age things. I read Edgar Cayce, Arthur Ford, Jeanne Dixon, Daniel Logan, Ruth Montgomery, and others.

Along came the Jesus movement in the 70's. I heard the Gospel at that time but did not accept it. I had some bad experiences with denominational Baptists and Nazarene's. But I became exposed to Hal Lindsey, Salem Kirban and others at that time. Later I became aware of the Charismatic movement, and read several books from that group; even attending a John Giminez FGBM meeting in the mid 70's. I learned enough about the Gospel to know that It required a personal commitment that I wasn't ready [willing] to make.

At this point I left any interest in Christianity behind but maintained an interest in occultism and the New Age Movement. [Having rejected the truth, I then believed the lie.]

About this time I began a heavy 10 year involvement in the Wargaming Hobby. This at first meant an interest in military simulation games but also led into fantasy and science fiction games with their heavy involvement with occultic elements. During this time I met and actually had business dealings with both original authors of Dungeons and Dragons.

I met my wife in '75 and got married in 77. She also had a heavy interest in occult topics, even consulting psychics, etc.

I left the wargaming hobby in 83 and we left Michigan in 84 to move to the New Orleans area. Shortly after coming to Louisiana, my wife Mary needed a serious operation to remove a brain tumor. It was the aftereffects of this that led to our getting saved in May of 85. [That's another story.]

At the time I left wargaming, I thought to turn my time and energy to a more serious pursuit of the New Age Movement. However, thanks be to God, several influences led me to reject involvement in the New Age. I would like to briefly list them here.

A. Inconsistency
Certain aspects of the New Age movement are highly intellectual, this appealed greatly to me, a former major in philosophy, But other elements such as astrology and tarot were grossly stupid. They seemed to require one to completely lay aside his mental faculties and accept whatever information was offered. That this usually contradicted teachings in other branches of the New Age was never mentioned nor was it even noticed apparently. This seemed to be a taboo topic.

B. Dishonesty.
Some really good New Age writers, Robert Anton Wilson comes to mind, made a point of being eclectic. That is drawing upon the widest possible range of sources and extracting whatever human wisdom was to be found. This was with the notable exception of Christianity which was rarely considered even a possible source of truth or wisdom.

Those who wrote about Edgar Cayce were a rare exception, since they often included some elements of Christian teaching in their works. These though perverted contained enough convincing elements to lead me to regard the bible as authentic. One of these books even influenced my to call upon God in such a fashion that I actually received a touch of His Presence while in a lost condition.

C. Warnings
Many times over these years I encountered warnings against occult involvement. Once I was presented a religious paper teaching that astrology was satanically inspired. A few New Age or occult writers surprisingly warn against careless experimentation in meditation leading to contact with evil influences or spirits. Most however downplay this or don't mention it at all. Nowadays the most careless forms of channeling are widely encouraged.

The psychic medium and writer Daniel Logan devoted an entire book to warning against satanism, witchcraft and demonic powers.

Ed Warren wrote in his book "The Demonologist" about many real cases of demon possession and warned about occult practices that could lead to it.

The greatest help of all came through a book titled "Hidden Dangers of the Rainbow" by Constance Cumby. This book really opened my eyes to the real nature of the New Age as a vehicle for Satan. Someday I plan to thank Constance personally.

Myth

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite, (from Jan. 2000)

A few years ago we took a little trip to Jerusalem's Western Wall. No, it wasn't for praying purposes, but in order to 'journey' underground, along the 488 meters (approx. 550 yards) of the Western Wall, which is almost the entire length of the western side of the Temple Mount compound built by Herod. Our guide was a religious young woman and very knowledgeable about the area. However, while questioning her about the First Temple, she said that there was no physical evidence that it had ever existed. I couldn't believe my ears! I then proceeded to tell her about our visits to Joshua's Altar on the Mount of Curse (Eval). Again, she was refuting the authenticity of that site too. In my shock, I told her that her fellow orthodox Zionist settlers, who live in the area of Shechem, stake their claim for being there on such archeological evidence. She sat down for a moment on the mother rock of Mount Moriah, and confessed that she too believed that the altar was truly dated to Joshua's time, but.. After returning home and pondering for a while why this government employee would try so hard to explain away her own biblical history, I was struck by a word - "myth". A myth, as defined by the American Heritage Dictionary, is a traditional story presenting supernatural beings, ancestors or heroes that serve a primordial types in a primitive view of the world; a fictitious or imaginary story, person, or thing; a false belief.

The enemy of the Word of YHVH has basically one weapon that he uses for blinding and binding the people; deceiving his victims into believing lies. This is why Yeshua called him "the father of lies". "You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it" (John 8:44).

If the so-called peace process ("road map"), or land for peace, is going to succeed, an atmosphere of deception against some basic truths must be created. One such deception in particular, which is very subtle, has to do with the most important issues of legal and legitimate claims to Judea, Samaria, Gaza and Jerusalem; in other words, the entire Land of Israel. The world, using its most educated experts in the professions of archeology and history, have come to the conclusion that there is no physical evidence of an ancient people called the Hebrews; no Exodus from Egypt; no First Temple in Jerusalem; no Joshua's altar, etc. rendering any historical claim to the land null and void. If they manage to convince enough people in this generation to believe their lie, our children and grandchildren may just learn that the stories of the Torah are nothing more than mythology, and the Elohim of Avraham, Yitzchak and Ya'acov will simply join the ranks of the rest of the "gods" of the Greek beast.

The Islamic religious authorities of the Temple Mount (the Wakf) dumped 900 truckloads of debris, which were hauled from the Temple Mount area, into the valley below. Our government (and the powerful Antiquities Department) purposely turned their back on this, and as a matter of fact arrested a student of archeology for picking up ("stealing") from the dump precious artifacts of the Second and possibly First Temple Periods. Why is there such a blatant attempt to get rid of any, if not all, of these facts and evidence?

The land of Israel, our inheritance, is being contested like never before. Why? For the same reason that our identity is being warred against. This piece of real estate here in the Middle East is just as important to YHVH's plan of redemption as are the people. We cannot separate one from the other. Whether we find one archeological object or not, we still have the Word of Truth as written down by Moses and the Prophets. This will stand as the one eternal testimony that YHVH is who He says He is. Our heavenly Father wants us to be His witness on this earth, and has given us His Spirit for this purpose, to lead and guide us into all truth; a truth which will prove to be more than mere 'head knowledge', but rather will become a revelation of Him, through a people living in His land.

We, who have found our true spiritual identity in the Messiah and now also our 'natural' one, as the seed of Israel, are also being challenged by the enemy; he wants us to continue to live as if we are not who YHVH Elohim says we are. YHVH says that this nation, Israel, is to be a kingdom of priests and a holy nation in the land, one that will show forth His righteousness and justice, as light to the other nations. Yeshua has come to set up His Father's kingdom in us, the restored House of Ya'acov. Thus, to know who we are and to be sure of our calling, are vital matters. This truth of our identity as a redeemed first fruit people puts us back into a position that was lost in the Garden. We now stand, individually and corporately, through faith in what is true, as a beacon of light and as a sword in the hand of our Elohim to destroy all the strongholds in the heavenly places. The lies and deceptions that have covered our souls like filthy rags are being removed in and through the death and resurrected life of our Messiah, who is replacing the lie with truth.

"Beware lest anyone deceive you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the myths of men, according to the basic principles of the world, and not according to the anointing of Messiah (Colossians 2:8), Who is "the living way, truth and life". If this is all just a myth there would be no reason for Yeshua to return to this earth.

Natzavim – Stand

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

In last week's reading of the Parasha of "Nitzavim" (Deut. 29:10-31:30), we find our forefathers standing before YHVH. They have just received the awesome commands, along with the consequences of the blessings and the curses. But were they ready for the final oath that would catapult them into something so fearful, yet so promising as this covenant with the Elohim of their fathers? The conditions were clear, and so was their inherent weakness (which would make meeting the requirements almost impossible).

How could YHVH subject these men, women and children to such laws, when He already knew that they were born of the "sin nature", and would thus miss the mark of Torah and suffer the consequences? In the previous Torah portion we heard Moses say to them: "Yet to this day YHVH has not given you a heart to know, nor eyes to see, nor ears to hear" (Deut. 29:4). How unfair it all seemed, or was the Almighty concealing His plan in the darkness of the "mystery of iniquity" (ref. 2 Thes.27, Eph.2:1-2)?

"YHVH has not yet given you..." In this short phrase we see that Elohim Himself holds in His hands the future success, or failure, of His plan. Even after the flood, YHVH declared that man's heart is evil from his youth (see Gen. 8:21). Because of this inherent condition, Moses, under the anointing of the Holy One, begins to prophesy the destiny of the Hebrew people: "And it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon you, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before you, and you will call them to mind among all the nations, where ever YHVH, your Elohim has driven you" (Deut. 30:1). Before the Children of Israel had a chance to prove themselves, or even to make any kind of free will choice, Elohim already knew what would happen to them, because of the condition of their heart.

YHVH had taken full responsibility for the covenant that He made with their fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, a covenant replete with blessings of fruitfulness of a land in which they would multiply and thereafter become a multitude of nations ("me'lo ha'goying"). But this covenant of Sinai, this ketuba (wedding contract), was conditional. So, we see them standing before YHVH looking toward the land that they were about to enter, the land of milk and honey promised to their forefathers. However, the conditions for remaining there were hanging over their heads like a seething prophetic refining pot. "But if your heart turns away and you are not obedient, and if you are drawn away to bow down to other gods and worship them, I declare to you this day that you will certainly be destroyed. You will not live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess," (Deut. 30:17-18). It was as if YHVH were using this conditional covenant as a tool for fulfilling the Abrahamic covenant and preparing the way for an even greater promise.

History reveals that YHVH was true to His word, even though the result of the Sinai covenant may be interpreted as negative, disastrous and in fact one that brought on curses and not blessings. One could even venture to condemn the generations of our forefathers for failing to live up to the righteousness of the Torah. However, YHVH, who already knew the nation's weaknesses, built into the covenant the sacrificial system for atonement and forgiveness of sin to be in effect year after year throughout the cycles of the feasts. But did the Sinai covenant with its sacrifices take care of the condition of the heart? Obviously we would have to answer: "no, it did not," but in effect did the very opposite, it revealed the corruptness of the heart.

How then was YHVH going to have a people that would become a holy nation (Ex. 19:6) and be His witness (Isa. 43:10,12)? As Moses continues to prophesy we are given one of the first glimpses into the mystery of the will of Elohim (Eph. 1:9-10), and into a covenant that would once and for all deal with the condition of the heart: "YHVH your Elohim will circumcise your hearts and the hearts of your descendants, so that you may love Him with all your heart and with all your soul, and live" (Deu. 30:6). A door of hope was left open; the destiny of the people was sealed by the prophetic word of their Elohim. The irrevocable calling upon them as His people could not fail. YHVH said: "I WILL!!" Thus leaving no doubt that it was not going to be by the will of man, nor by might, nor by power but by the Spirit of the infallible faithfulness of a covenant keeping Elohim.

The seed of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob was called out for YHVH's namesake; called and chosen to be His firstborn (Ex. 4:22, Jer. 31:9). Yes, to become Elohim's possession; the Almighty's inheritance (Deu. 32:9). YHVH was not obliged to take care of them because of who they were, but because of His name, and the love that He had for their forefathers. They would become His witness and light to the nations (Acts 1:8), both from the standpoint of Torah (blessings and curses), and also founded on the rock of the faith of Abraham (Rom. 4:13).

The prophet Ezekiel reiterated these same promising words many years later, "Therefore say to the house of Israel, this is what the Sovereign One says: 'It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am going to do these things, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations where you have gone. I will show the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, the name you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know that I am YHVH', declares the Sovereign One, 'when I show myself holy in you before their eyes. For I will take you out of the nations; I will gather you from all the countries and bring you back into your own land. I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse you from all your impurities and from all your idols. I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit in you and move you to follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws. You will live in the land I gave your forefathers, you will be my people, and I will be your Elohim" (Eze 36:22-28).

Through His covenant-relationship with Israel, YHVH was literally putting His head, His "Godship" and His name (nature) on the "chopping block" of humanity. If He would not have been faithful to carry out His word, His covenant promises to His people, especially to Abraham, then our faith and trust in Him would be to no avail, and the bible would simply be a book of bad jokes.

YHVH was, step by step and line upon line, setting the stage for the final covenant that would accomplish His purpose of the ages; A blood covenant of grace and mercy, a covenant that would embody, fulfill and absorb all the previous covenants. A divine act of circumcising the heart, changing the very nature, in order for His elect to be able to love their Elohim with all their heart, and with all their soul and to keep the commandments and live. This future covenant guaranteed life because of the unconditional, unchanging, unfailing love and faithfulness of the Elohim of Israel.

Standing before YHVH is often seen as a time of consecration, therefore just as our forefathers stood before YHVH, let us stand before this portion of the Word of Elohim examining its prophetic past and its reality and fulfillment for today. May we all conclude and say "yes" and "amen" to YHVH who is sovereign, just, faithful and true, who keeps covenant and shows mercy, who gives grace and truth through His Redeemer – Messiah Yeshua who gave His life not only for us, but TO us.

Surely, we who have received the grace of the new covenant, having a circumcised heart that we may understand, eyes to see the reality of the Kingdom of Elohim and ears to hear the Word of YHVH, can agree with this factual statement from this portion: "Now what I am commanding you today is not too difficult for you or beyond your reach. It is not up in heaven, so that you have to ask, 'Who will cross the sea to get it and proclaim it to us so we may obey it?' No, the word is very near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart so you may obey it" (Deut. 30:11-14).

Naked Before God

Ryan Wyatt

With all that is going on in the world right now I really feel that we are in a season of stripping and refinement before the Lord. God is confronting the church and the world in this season and challenging us to lay down all the worldly things that we have covered ourselves with and allow Him to strip us and cover us with His glory. These are serious times and God has incredible plans to fulfill through this generation but the church seems to be asleep and God is waking them up. We have come to a fullness of time juncture and God is accelerating His plans in the earth.

Cloud Of Witnesses In Travail For This Generation

In September I was ministering at a Joel's Army conference in England and had an incredible encounter in the midst of worship. The worship band was playing and the people were loudly praising God and I began to hear people shouting my name. I audibly heard people shouting, "RYAN, RYAN, RYAN." I looked all around me and found no one calling to me. I then realized that I was having a spiritual encounter and entered into an open-eyed vision. I saw the Cloud of Witnesses and God's Generals from the beginning of time and they were lined up side by side in a very long line. Every generation from the beginning of time was represented in this line. Every person was someone who during their life had pressed into their promised land and tasted of the powers of the age to come and like the spies, they brought something back that touched their whole generation with the love and power of God.

I noticed that the space in the line between each person represented many years and the line came up to this present day. It was obvious to me that with each previous generation there were very few that affected a whole generation. I then noticed that the line continued on past this present day with forms of people but there was no one to fill those slots.

I then saw the Cloud of Witnesses enter into a state of travail as they were vigorously interceding for this present day generation. They were not just calling my name but countless thousands of names. Suddenly I saw the hand of the Lord come and very quickly begin to pick people up out of the world and fill those empty slots in the line of God's Generals. There was a massive acceleration that was taking place as God began to fill each slot with thousands of revivalists and nation shakers from our time.

Things are accelerating in the earth and for this reason God is pulling out all the stops and calling upon this generation to wake up and lay hold of Him like never before. For this reason God is beginning to strip his church of every worldly thing that keeps her from full devotion to Him. It is only when the church comes to realize her nakedness that she will begin to cry out in holy desperation for God to fascinate and empower a whole generation. We must first be stripped and come to realize our dire need for God.

The Bible says in Matthew 5:3;

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

The message of the hour is that the "Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." Being poor in spirit is realizing our level of emptiness and crying out for His fullness. The eyes of the Lord are roaming to and fro throughout the earth to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose hearts are completely loyal to Him (2 Chron. 16:9).

The Hand Of The Lord Is Being Pulled Back "Slightly" And The Shaking Of The Lord Has Come!

For many years I believe the hand of the Lord, in the form of grace, has covered us and allowed us to continue on our own path. During this time God has given the church a chance to repent and turn whole-heartedly to him on their own. However, the church and the world have continued to slip further and further down hill and away from Him.

The church has cried out for the Lord to come and He has come and is coming and now the church is being faced with the results of the coming of the Lord. Look with me at Isaiah 64:1-3:

Oh, that you would rend the heavens! That you would come down! That the mountains might shake at your presence – as fire burns brushwood, as fire causes water to boil – to make Your name known to your adversaries, that the nations may tremble at Your presence! When You did awesome things for which we did not look, You came down; the mountains shook at Your presence.

When the Lord begins to come He brings a shaking and a melting away of everything worldly in our midst. Look at Malachi 3:1-3:

Behold, I send My messenger, and he will prepare the way before Me. And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple, even the Messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight. Behold He is coming, says the Lord of Hosts.

But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire and like launderer's soap. He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver; He will purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer to the Lord an offering in righteousness.

When the Kingdom of God begins to come it shakes everything off of your life that is not of God and it leaves only those things behind that God has worked into your life (Heb. 12:25-29). I firmly believe that God is in the process right now of actually preparing us for the next great move of God to sweep the earth. However, before He can clothe the church with another level of His glory, He is first stripping us of every worldly thing that we have held onto.

The Laodicean Age

We are currently in the time of the Laodicean age. This generation is one of the most messed up generations to ever walk the earth yet we are also the generation that has the potential to walk in the most unprecedented level of power and glory, however, only if we submit to the current pruning of the Lord.

God is pulling back His hand just enough for a small portion of His judgments to touch the earth. He is doing this because what He might have allowed in the lives of believers in times past He is no longer allowing. When God begins to pull back His hand of grace you find yourself in a moment of great decision. This is not a time when God is going to allow nominal, middle of the road Christians in "His" church.

Those believers that will not embrace the Lord in this season will most likely grow more and more hardened to Him. Remember that as soon as Jesus came to earth in the flesh it was the religious people that hardened their hearts and persecuted Him. It will be no different in these days. Those that have been lukewarm will either grow colder or burn hotter for the Lord.

We are in a time of decision. Many in these days are coming to a place of realization that their life is empty and they are feeling the burning of the Lord upon their hearts. These believers are turning closer to Him and learning to live a live of intimacy and passion with the Lord.

The Bible says in the book of Joel that many are in the valley of decision and we have always preached that as unbelievers being in the valley. However, I also want to say that many believers are in the valley of decision as well and the Lord is no longer giving the church the option to just sit in the middle of the road. Battle lines are being drawn and we must choose to either grow colder or hotter for Him.

When the Lord spoke to the church of Laodicea He rebuked them because they thought they had every thing together when in fact they were wretched, miserable, poor, blind and naked. God first had to alert them of their desperate status before they would repent and follow whole-heartedly after Him.

Most of the church right now has sunk into a state of apathy and passivity because for the most part the western church lives a life of self-sufficiency. I was really struck with just how self-sufficient the western church really is after I ministered in Jakarta, Indonesia this last January. I have not seen a hunger for God like that of the Indonesians anywhere in North America or Europe. The Indonesians prayed and sought after God as if they were absolutely spiritually bankrupt and could not live another moment without a touch from heaven.

Most pastors in the western church have to poke and prod the people to even act like they are hungry for God. The church in North America is sitting in the middle of the road and has grown self-sufficient, thinking they need nothing. Below is the address that Jesus gave to that church:

Revelation 3:15-19
I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I could wish you were cold or hot. So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth.

Because you say, 'I am rich, have become wealthy, and have need of nothing' – and do not know that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind and naked – I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, that you may be rich; and white garments, that you may be clothed, that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see.

As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore be zealous and repent.

Not A Heartless Rebuke But Rather A Loving Warning

I don't see the above passage from Revelation as a heartless rebuke. It is actually a loving warning from a loving God that wants to alert His Bride of her state so that she might wake up and turn and seek the Lord.

The admonition from the above reference in Revelation is that if the church will realize her nakedness and begin to seek the Lord with desperate hunger then the church will hear the sound of the Lord knocking on the door and dine and rule and reign with Him.

Seek "First" The Kingdom Of God

In a day where everyone is doing what is right in their own eyes and just seeking to live the American dream, God is looking for a Bride that will do the exact opposite. One of the greatest enemies to the western church is "how blessed we are." The western world has lived under such a state of grace and blessing for so long that it has caused the church to slip into a state of apathy and passivity. The church has joined the rat race of the world that says, "Do what you have to do to not only make it but to be on top!" So we have become a generation totally consumed with "self".

The Bible calls believers "pilgrims" in this world. We are citizens of another realm and are to live our day-to-day lives from the place of abiding in heavenly realms and ruling on earth with heavenly love and power. The challenge for the church in this hour is to submit to the pruning and stripping of the Lord and turn our eyes and affections from every temporal thing and begin to "seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness."

When the church begins to live for heavenly things rather than for earthly satisfaction than the grace and favor of heaven will be poured out upon us abundantly.

Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' "For after all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things.

"But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you."

Our Response To The Shakings

I know that people are trying to figure out why all these hurricanes and earthquakes and tsunamis and all the other disasters are happening on the earth at this time. Some believe it is God judging us, some believe they are the result of man's sinful actions and still others believe they are attacks from the devil. I believe they are a result of all three.

Yes, I believe that the devil is trying to wreak havoc. Yes, I believe that some of these disasters are occurring as the result of the world's sinful actions. And yes, I do also believe that God is using them to teach the world righteousness and lead them back to Him.

Isaiah 26:9
With my soul I have desired you in the night, Yes, by my spirit within me I will seek you early; For when Your judgments are in the earth, The inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

Instead of joining the rest of the world and allowing our emotions to get the best of us in response to these world shakings, let's allow these events to awaken us to the reality and seriousness of the times we are living in. Let's allow these things to cause us to seek the Lord with all that is within us and lay hold of our divine destiny to walk upon this earth fully clothed in the glory of God!

Nakedness Provides Opportunity For Fullness

Let me close with this. Before the fall, Adam and Eve were naked and did not know it. I believe this was because their minds and hearts were so enthralled with the Lord that they were literally clothed with the glory of God. All they knew was 24 hour a day God-consciousness and face-to-face encounters with Him.

After the fall, the first thing they realized was that they were naked and they were ashamed. They immediately looked for something to cover their nakedness and wrapped themselves in fig leaves. God came to visit with them as He normally would and found them hiding and ashamed because of their nakedness. One of the first things God did was take off the fig leaves and clothe them with skins of animals.

God clothed them with animal skins because it required blood and the shedding of blood was the only thing that could cover their sin. God's divine design was to send Jesus to shed his perfect, sinless blood to cover and wash away our sins forevermore. This was so that we could, again, have our nakedness covered by His Glory!

God is again looking throughout the earth for those who have not covered themselves with the things of the world but for those who are willing to submit to His stripping and pruning work and be clothed again from glory to glory! Are you naked before the Lord? Do you need to be awakened and come to a realization that you are nowhere near laying hold of your high calling? Are you truly poor in spirit and desperate for a touch from heaven?

Allow the Lord to touch you afresh and put his finger on those areas of your soul that are not of Him. This is the season to invite the refining fire of God into your life because He is a consuming fire and He is jealous to fully lay hold of you!

New Clothes For New Orleans

Undrai and Bridget Fizer

Louisiana is my native homeland. My personal history is found in the Cajun-speaking regions of Louisiana. Louisiana is also the birthplace of my incredible experiences with God, birthed in the fields when I was a little boy. In my walks in the fields that my grandparents owned, I would take a sack lunch for God and myself and sit and talk with Him for hours. From this "kingdomic" simplicity, He opened my eyes to see incredible visitations, as well as, fed me things that my former denomination could not believe, especially from someone so young.

Louisiana is, indeed, on the verge of an Incredible Awakening. A new twist and turn has come upon it. Lives in Louisiana are about to experience an eye-opening depth in the realms of the Spirit, as it pertains to the Kingdom and its endeavors.

New Identity for New Orleans

I felt compelled to look up the meaning of the term "Orleans." There were various definitions of this term, but one in particular caught my eye!

Orleans, by definition, means "apparel, cloth, cotton, and wearing." Also, it means cloth made with worsted and cotton. The winds of the Lord will bring forth a new covering for New Orleans. A new identity comes as a result of a new nature, which in turn, requires new clothes. God is providing New Orleans with new clothes. This is the reason for a sudden shift and turn from Hurricane Katrina -- a shift that occurred as a result of the prayers of those with Global Vision, as well as, those with a caring and merciful heart!

The winds of change will, indeed, provide New Orleans with a new covering of the Spirit. The city has been known as a haven of sin, witchcraft, voodoo, and perversion. But in that city is a people of God, shining forth as a light that sits upon a hill. A hill has been raised in the city. The Kingdom of God has, indeed, been established in the midst of what many consider darkness.

He Has Us Looking Within

He is, indeed, providing a new apparel for the city of New Orleans.
Ecclesiastes 7:14 says, "When times are good, be happy; but when times are bad, consider. . ." In the days of adversity, look within. The prophetic words that are being released during seasons of transitions, shifts, and global unrest, are not a result of a hub of spiritual buzz words. It is the time in which the Father's insight is divinely released. During times of adversity, the Spirit causes us to look within.

As He has us look within, He reveals the establishing of a new covering of a glorious apparel for New Orleans. He is removing a hardened covering that has hovered above the city for years, and replacing it with the flowing apparel of His Heart!

Amongst the destruction, the winds, and floods, the hearts of the mighty believers in Louisiana will rise as never before. And those who are in the city, in whom the heart of the Lord is revealed, are becoming a Church that cannot be shaken, in spite of the winds of Katrina!

More Insights into New Orleans, its People, and its Change

Undrai & Bridget Fizer

September 3, 2005

I wanted to send this to you in response to the questions that many may be having as a result of the present happenings in our world.
Hopefully, it would provide more insight for others to consider.

God does not "overlook sin." He reproves it. He does not allow sin to "go free." He judges it. Many, many questions have been raised concerning the destruction and loss that has come as a result of this hurricane (Katrina). As a matter of fact, during any major storm, prophetic questions will arise.

How does change come? At times, it comes through judgment -- the type that leaves destruction and loss, as the manifestation of its appearance. At other times, change comes through mercy, when it seems that God will initiate a warning, along with light affliction. His mercy is seen when things could have been more worse than expected -- as was the case here for New Orleans.

New Orleans' NEW God-Given Identity

In the midst of the obvious darkness that this region has been known for -- perversion, sex, voodoo, and witchcraft -- there is still a people who carry the voice of God within their being. When a city is defined by the perspectives of the world, it would seem that that city hasn't got a chance with God. New Orleans is not synonymous with Righteousness, but has always been linked to parades of evil, lust, and perversion. It's a tourist town in the mind of the world. But does the mind of the world emulate the Mind of God?

The world sees New Orleans as one thing (as I'm quite sure they would see any other major city struck down by catastrophe). Judgment from God carries, within it, its own look, design, intention, and purposed outcome. God has always revealed wrath with a designed outcome.
For this particular place, He has initiated "New Clothes." A removal of the old covering, a tearing away of what should not be, and revealing what should be established.

A new identity comes as a result of an old one being taken away. I'm pretty sure that it would be "out there" for the world to see New Orleans as a church. However, God did not come to make New Orleans a religious pyramid. It has already been established in that. He has initiated a transition that will produce a new identity.

Judgment & Mercy

Even when God's prophets declare judgment on a region, they too will feel the pressure of what they have spoken. Elijah had prophesied a major drought in the land, and even the brook that was provided for him to drink out of during the drought, dried up. However, God sent him to a widow to be supplied for during the drought. What does God do when His servants are yet in a land where darkness is esteemed? Does their presence there provoke change, whether in the form of judgment, or mercy that is accompanied by loss? Are there believers who have been assigned to the dark places of the world?

Change comes through destruction, as well as "painful mercy." When times are good, be happy. But when times are bad, consider and look within. God is not surprised by destruction, especially a destruction that He designs. During every God-ordained judgment, He also showed His mercy, by establishing the lives who would be responsible for ushering in change. There is a people in these regions who are responsible for the change of apparel for these regions -- especially New Orleans.

The Process Has Just Begun

Mass destruction, even unexplainable destruction, can and will also produce mass mercy. Time brings about the change. Mindsets towards New Orleans, as well as other media focused cities, must be changed in order for change to be revealed. God's wrath can also produce God's Path to salvation and change. God has a people . . . regardless of circumstances, destruction, and judgment. Is it hard to focus on the Light that dwells within His people, who may reside in these places that are considered dark?

When a city, or region, has unconsciously and ignorantly embraced it's condemnation, change is the only thing that can be initiated there.
When Jesus' disciples went to prepare a village of Samaritans for His arrival and they denied Him entry, the disciples responded by saying, "Send fire from heaven and consume them!" (Luke 9:54) But Jesus said, "You don't know what kind of spirit you are of; for the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them."

When the "dead" are already dead, destruction is already present. But when the Father's voice is residing in His people, even amongst the dead, change is present. It is time to speak prophetically into the lives of those who possess the seeds of change, and stir up the rivers of transformation within them. The holiness that is assigned for these regions that have been touched by the storm, will not be built in one day. The process has just begun.

Who Will Be Responsible for Change?

New Orleans' new clothes will come as a result of prophetic process, time, and redefinement. Awakenings always begin with a massive moving away! The grounds of repentance must first be swept and prepared.

Adversity, brought on by a taking away, has within it, the power to produce repentance. It's name is defined as new clothes, even if this destruction would not have happened. But the destruction drew our focus upon the region, thus giving prophetic people the ability to discern, speak, and release the intentions of God for that region and beyond. And as a result of the region attracting mass attention, it's name was revealed. It had been hidden all of this time. A strong wind, however, moved away the pieces that would eventually reveal it!

Now, is God's focus on those who will be responsible for change? Or, is God's focus on what that city has been established in all of these years?
Can God, in one move of His hand, establish His intentions for both?
At the same time? In one move of His hand? I believe He can. I believe He did . . .

An Awakening In The Earth
Undrai and Bridget Fizer

August 26, 2005

"There is Indeed an Awakening in the Earth AS WE SPEAK!"
by Undrai & Bridget Fizer

An Awakening from God is presently residing in the earth -- AS WE SPEAK. However, this awakening is not religious, but one of "Kingdomic Proportions." Religion is a thing that can be shaken, but the Kingdom is a thing that cannot be moved!

This awakening is one that cannot be moved or steered in a negative direction. Once a move is "steerable," lives that were once empowered suddenly go off course. There is now an incredible atmosphere of salvations coming that may not be perceived as salvation from an evangelical state of thought.

God is doing something "unheard of" in the earth, but is common knowledge in the realm of the Spirit of Heaven. Just because something has not been heard "here," does not mean that it is not said where God is!

(But, believe me, there are those who are hearing what the Spirit is saying, even though there are Truths that many are afraid to affirm.)

A "Positive Nervousness" is Spreading over the Globe
There is an Awakening that is causing many to discover a shift in the paradigms of church, ministry, and creativity as we know it. The Kingdom is taking on a whole new meaning. The Word is being realized in ways it was never heard of before, and it is causing a "positive nervousness" to spread across the globe. God is being seen in ways unheard of in religion or mainstream evangelism.

(Things that appear new from God always seem to create a silent fear in the regions. When God releases the "Significantly Unheard Of," a nervousness and awe can erupt.)

The attitudes of "those who know an enemy is defeated" is different from "those who look for an enemy to defeat." This conqueror's attitude has indeed opened the realms of the Spirit and, things once considered unlawful to be heard, ARE BEING HEARD FREELY, as in the flowing of rushing streams of water. The "unlawful things" of revelation are now being sanctioned by the Spirit who has Divine Law!

"When the Sons are Threatened by the Darkness, They Become WISER, NOT FEARFUL! "

This Kingdomic Awakening is causing a stir in people groups, as well as thoughts, regarding religious beliefs, foundations, and centuries-old beliefs. God is shifting and not even bothering to ask questions about it. There is a difference between those who know an enemy is defeated, and those who look for one!

Those who look for an enemy to be around the corner will always carry the option to become complacent, still, and fearful. "There's a lion outside!" they say in themselves (Proverbs 26:13). Those who look for an enemy around the corner are hindered by news of world events and the tragedies of life, as well as the fear of impending judgment and the approval of men.

But those, however, who know the enemy is defeated, live, think, and move with the mentality of establishing the Incredible Will of Heaven in the earth. They live as the Father lives and think as the Father thinks. Creative miracles always follow those who know that the enemy is gone. They do not fear the residue of the enemy's past. They do not take into account that the enemy may come to mess with them if they do what the Father is telling them to do!

They do not fear what their lives will stir up as a result of their commitment and obedience!

They do not shrink back into fear when God releases a command into them. They do not hear God first and then fear the enemy later. They know within themselves that the kingdom of darkness shudders when the sons of God wake up every morning. They know that the warfare against the sons of God is simply the foundation of Incredible Wisdom for the believer. When the sons are threatened by the darkness, they become WISER, NOT FEARFUL!

The Unshakeable

The earth is being taught of, and by, the Lord at this moment. However, He is not teaching them through methods that are readily shaken or readily manipulated. He is not teaching in the ways that are comfortable to the religious mind. The earth, indeed, is being taught of the Lord (see John 6:45, 46; Isaiah 54:13).

The Spirit of the Father is providing a strategy of revealing the Righteousness of Christ in a way that cannot be shaken. When a method cannot be destroyed, the results will not be destroyed either. Methods of Perfection will produce Products of Perfection. The unshakable will reproduce the unshakable.

New Churches for New Wine
Dale M. Sides

No New Patches on Old Garments: New Churches for New Wine
Apr 18, 2005

While simply reading the Bible early one Saturday morning, the Lord began opening my understanding to truths that I believe will bless many who are trying to find and fit into churches. These startled me enough to immediately commit them to writing and to offer apologies to individuals whom I have wrongly counseled in the matter of finding a proper church.

The concepts He began revealing to me are from Matthew 9:16, and they are set in the context of Jesus' teaching on placing new wine in old skins.

Then the disciples of John came to Him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Your disciples do not fast?" And Jesus said to them, "Can the friends of the bridegroom mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast. No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch pulls away from the garment, and the tear is made worse. Nor do people put new wine into old wineskins, or else the wineskins break, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined. But they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved." Matthew 9:14–17

The truth concerning the patch on an old garment has laid alongside the wineskin analogy for millennia and, to my knowledge, has received little attention even though it shares a parallel, and additional, truth. Both illustrations present the reality that Jesus had brought something new to the church scene. John's disciples had come questioning why Jesus' disciples did not fast according to the customs and existing traditions. When Jesus gave His answer by sharing these two analogies, it must have splashed light and new revelation all over their faces. What He said was simply: You cannot put new things in old systems. The new thing will be stifled, and the old system will be destroyed.

There is an abundance of material on the new-wine-in-old-skins concept (i.e., the new wine can cause the old to bubble), but the dominant fact remains that new wine in its fermentation produces carbon dioxide and will expand and burst an old, dried skin. Notice that Jesus was concerned that both the new and the old systems would be preserved. To emphasize this, He said at the end of verse 17, "and both are preserved." Jesus is concerned about the new wine and the old wineskins. He does not want the new wine stifled nor does He want the old wineskin ruptured.

It's common knowledge that old wine is better than new, but if the new wine is not preserved by being put into the proper container, then someday there will be no old mellow wine. In addition, those who introduce the new wine must recognize that someday theirs will be the old wine. For example, many of the church leaders in Europe who prayed down the Iron Curtain are now standing in opposition to the newer apostolic reforms. To put the bubbling movement of apostolic reform into their networks would quench the fire and/or destroy their ministries. It may be desirable to reform the old system, but it is not feasible.

Being a reformer myself, I usually identify with new wineskin dilemmas, but I must keep in mind that there is usually a lot of resistance to the new wine of the next movement of God that comes along. Someday I may very well find myself in opposition to the next "new thing" that God is doing unless I stay flexible and open to change. The truth remains that the Lord is concerned about the preservation of both new and old.

We would all be better off thinking of ourselves as old wineskins or, more specifically, as "newer" old wineskins, then later as "not-as-new" old wineskins, and eventually as "older" old wineskins. Maybe this kind of thinking would help us to stay a little more flexible to change and the new things that God wants to bring to the church.

But, going back to our cloth analogy, again I am amazed that it has lain side by side with the wineskin truths, and yet, to my knowledge, has never received any exposure. The same truth is being shown in the cloth analogy as in the wineskin one: Putting new things in old systems will destroy the old and stifle the new.

Here is the lesson—given a condition that there is a tear in an old garment, there are a number of ways to repair it. Each way reveals how to match people to churches or how not to match them. The four methods we will look at are:

1. Putting a new patch on an old garment

2. Stitching a matching old patch on an old garment

3. Shrinking a new patch and then putting it on an old garment

4. Stitching a whole new garment

Each of these methods will yield a predictable result and provide varying degrees of success when applied to the concept of integrating a believer into a church. Considering these four possibilities will add tremendous wisdom when "church hunting" or replacing a leader in an established system.

Even though I only lack 12 semester hours from having a Bachelor of Science in Textile Engineering, it does not take a college degree to anticipate the results of these four approaches. However, being a church planter and overseer for over 30 years gives me even greater insight when viewing these from a spiritual perspective. By experience, I can assure you that for each of these patching methods, there remains a predictable outcome. I could use many examples to support this; however, my experience and/or examples are unnecessary in light of the truths that Jesus Himself revealed through these analogies. If we had taken heed to these lessons from the start, we would all be much better off now.

Putting a New Patch on an Old Garment

Even though this method is one that Jesus cautioned against—putting a new patch on an old garment—it still is one way of mending an old garment. When we think in terms of people looking for the "right" church, we see that this method relates to putting believers with new ideas into existing, stable, and maybe even stagnant (old) churches. We have probably all seen this happen many times and observed the division and damage caused to the churches, as well as the hurt caused to the believers with the new ideas. Even though this can be done, just the same as new wine can be put in old skins, the outcome will be disastrous. The new patch (representing the believers with the new ideas) will pull and tear on the already established system and create a hole bigger than the one that existed before they endeavored to fill the gap.

This approach not only disrupts a comfortable and seasoned group, but it also impedes the growth of the new believers. The new patch (or new wine) produces a strain on a stable condition, and often the pressure of shrinkage in the new cloth (or the pressure of the fermentation of the new wine) stretches the old system to the point of rupturing. The new wine blows it up, and the new patch pulls it apart. Many times, new wine proponents suggest that the old wineskin should stretch to accommodate them, but this usually does not happen. Generally speaking, the new patch needs to detach from the existing condition in a compassionate move to save the old system from damage, collapse, and/or ruin, and be attached to a conglomerate of individuals with similar goals and spiritual aspirations.

Stitching a Matching Old Patch on an Old Garment

This method often supplies the best solution to a stable environment, but finding such a match is oftentimes not easy. When a pastor or church leader moves on, retires, or dies, the church is usually left with the dilemma of matching a leader to the established system. If the church decides to initiate growth or institute any other changes at this time, making the wrong match (unshrunken cloth or new wine) could compound the problem. However, with the right match (an old patch), they will have a greater probability of success.

A common problem that occurs is when churches want to hire a youth director or pastor with the view of invigorating the youth department at the church. You can already see storm clouds gathering on the horizon. Youth always want a new wineskin, regardless of the youth pastor. So, when the new youth pastor is hired, he is going to have to appease both the youth and the established leadership. He must revitalize the youth and still not bust the system. I normally do not use this phrase, but here goes—good luck!

In circumstances where this is the correct choice, often we find that the Lord has been at work to raise up an associate pastor (or another colleague) to continue the work of the former leader and transition it into the future growth of the church. New patches on old garments will not work.

Shrinking a New Patch and then Putting It on an Old Garment

This method yields a poor solution because it mandates washing the life out of a person in order to get him or her to fit into an existing system. The sad part is that this is an indication that the system is being magnified at the expense of the person. It would be far better to find an already shrunken patch (as discussed in the last procedure), meaning someone who comes out of a similar system, than to shrink someone to fit a hole. It is much more ideal to fit the patch to the size of the hole instead of shrinking the patch to fit the hole. This is a major problem in "churchianity" and is the root of control and domination. Christian ethics demand a greater emphasis on the individual than on the system.

For example, magnifying the system above the person is the same logic Caiaphas used in sacrificing Jesus at Passover. Leaders often become pharisaical when the system becomes more important than the individual. This is a major managerial dilemma. I have seen whole ministries destroyed by utilizing this logic. The founding values of an organization (or in the case of Christianity, an organism) should determine the path they take regarding this predicament. Jesus' attitude was always one of love for the individual taking precedence over the system.

And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful? And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him? How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him? And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath. Mark 2:24–27

I feel that the re-emergence of the apostolic ministry may offer a solution to this dilemma of trying to fit into a system as a new patch on an old garment. This appears to be the new wineskin for the present and offers new growth and more individual liberties than are offered in existing systems of church government. I have ministered in denominations of very large congregations numbering in the thousands that have hundreds of full-time pastors squeezed into a system that is controlling them rather than releasing them. At the same time, I have ministered in apostolic networks of over a million people that release God's people and have seen these individuals rightly magnified over the system. Perhaps with the quenching of the apostolic ministry in the early church, the system began to be valued above the individual believers. No more preshrunk patches!

Jesus said that new patches cannot be put on old garments, and my contribution to the discussion is that they also should not be shrunken to fit the hole. If so, the system is more important than God's people. Jesus said that the Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath; likewise, the church was made for man and not man for the church. Clearly, the individual is more important than the whole and must not be made to fit the situation, but the situation should be matched for the person.

This is the place where I need to ask people to forgive me for suggestions and counsel that I have given over the years. My formative years in Christian leadership were spent in a group that was segregated from the body of Christ and even criticized all other Christians in an attempt to build itself against the case for unity. When I finally escaped from that system and helped others out of it, in my zeal to reintegrate with the body of Christ, I zealously counseled others to join churches. Although this seemed like good counsel and did work for many, the greater counsel would have been to direct them to find the corresponding place suitable for their gifts. In many cases, they would have been better off to use the next procedure (stitching a whole new garment), instead of shrinking to fit the hole or tearing the existing garment (church). I hope that all those who shrunk to fit the holes didn't quench or grieve the Holy Spirit while trying to find the place where they fit in.

If you are one of those people, please forgive me. I cried out so badly for forgiveness from disunity that I, through ignorance, sacrificed the individual for the sake of the whole. How wonderful it would be if we were all led by the counsel of the Holy Spirit rather than the counsel of others. Unfortunately, when those of us with leadership responsibilities are called upon to offer guidance, there may be times when our perspective is not correct. May God have mercy on all of His leaders. Perhaps this is why it says, "Grace, mercy, and peace," in the opening verses of 1 and 2 Timothy and Titus (epistles addressed to leadership).

Stitching a Whole New Garment

This option is the same as new wine in new skins. Since new cloth cannot be stitched into old garments, we have only one option left for it. It must be stitched into a completely new garment or there is no use for it. This is the reality of what Jesus was trying to communicate when responding to John's disciples. When they asked Him why His disciples did not fast, He responded by saying that His disciples did not fit the form of the existing structure, even though it was John the Baptist's. Jesus' disciples were cut from a new cloth and, therefore, could not fit into the existing garment. They had to become a completely new garment.

I have seen this scenario many times, and I have even been involved in it myself. Many have tried to fit into an existing church, but it seemed to pull apart at the seams (pardon the pun). The solution may be to launch a whole new church and group of people, rather than try to fit into an existing one or to be added on as an appendage. There is an option that has recently resurfaced in church government—the home church. The home church was a revelation of the Chief Apostle Jesus. He met with people quite often in their homes, and found a greater freedom there than in the synagogue. (See Liberating News Volume 4, Number 1, "The Home Church: Revolution or Re-Evolution?") Many times individuals need the freedom to fulfill their destiny and find they cannot do so inside an existing system.

This does not mean that establishing a home church or a new ministry is to be a divisive thing done without leadership and/or proper oversight. There certainly are times when an individual is not qualified to oversee a home church, but this usually becomes quite apparent when no one comes to the home group or when no one stays after they do come. With the return of apostolic and prophetic church government, individuals with gifts and commitment sufficient to coordinate and lead a home group can have proper coverings and leadership to help them. This is exactly what Jesus did with His ministry. Jesus set the standard Himself, and then turned the helm over to Peter and the other apostles when He left. The home was the accepted meeting place and the pillar and foundation of the truth until Constantine began building cathedrals around AD 330.

Conclusion

There is a new wave swelling in Christianity. This is not to criticize the old wineskin, but it certainly means that some people just will not fit into that system. New worship is emerging. New power is erupting. New commitment is flourishing. New ideas are being birthed, and new leadership is arising. New wine cannot be put into old skins, and new cloth cannot be stitched onto old garments.

We cannot put new cloth on old garments. The old garment needs to be preserved by patching it with matching cloth, not by shrinking a new piece and then stitching it. There is a season for new growth just as there is a time when new garments need to be stitched. The church is expanding under apostolic and prophetic leadership, and the home offers an ideal environment for that growth to occur. Let's not put the new cloth in places where it will tear a bigger hole. Let's put it into a whole new garment. There are new wineskins for new wine, and there are new garments for the body of Christ, just as there are old patches for old garments.

Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men. 1 Corinthians 14:20

If we have failed in this, let us ask for forgiveness and repent. Jesus wants both the new wine and the old wine preserved. No new patches on old garments—that both the new and the old may be preserved.

No Distance in God

Elena Gonzales

And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him. And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost. John 1:32-33

One of the stumbling blocks for many Christians in understanding that the fullness of the Godhead is resident within us as spirit-filled believers is the fact that they spatialize, for lack of a better word, the Godhead. In the minds of most believers is an image of the Father and the Son out somewhere in what they call heaven with the Holy Ghost as the only representative of the Godhead here on earth. The problem comes down to a misunderstanding of what actually transpired on the day of Pentecost as those patient and dedicated 120 waited in obedience to the direction of the resurrected Jesus. Let us look at another scripture, again from John's gospel, to see the source of the problem:

Nevertheless I tell you of a truth: It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you: but if I depart, I will send him unto you. John 16:7

From this scripture, specifically the word "send," Christians have formed the mental image of Jesus delivering the Holy Ghost to the church from a distance as we would send a package via FedEx. If this had been the case and the Holy Ghost is a separate entity, how was the prophetic word in John 1:32-33 fulfilled? In a passage of scripture that totally negates the rapture doctrine and the teaching that there will one day be a physical "second coming" of Jesus, he tells the disciples about the upcoming day of Pentecost:

I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more: but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also. At that day, ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me and I in you. John 14:18-20

The fact of the matter is that the three aspects of the Godhead are inseparable though distinct in function. This becomes clearer when we take a closer look at the Greek word pempo that was translated in the scripture above as "send." Pempo means to dispatch from the subjective point of departure, to transmit, bestow or wield. It is the exact same word that in Revelation 14:18 is translated thrust in (Thrust in thy sharp sickle….). What actually happened on the day of Pentecost was that Jesus in spirit form transmitted, bestowed, wielded and thrust himself into those 120 saints thereby making their bodies his body for the continuance of his ministry. The Holy Ghost is not some third rate manifestation of the Godhead sent from afar to hold our hands while we wait for the return of the real thing. The church has for too long maligned the Holy Ghost by not appreciating the fact that he is the means by which we are joined in holy union to the Son who contains within him the fullness of the Godhead bodily. And the body referred to by Paul is not the physical body of Jesus, which served its purpose and the world will see no more, but our physical body.

Nebuchadnezzar: A type of Christ

by Bill Somers

> Mark 4 10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable. ….
> 13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

Nebuchadnezzar: A type of Christ? But Nebuchadnezzar was a wicked character! Perhaps so, but God blessed him, saved him and gave him the honor of narrating an entire chapter of the Book of Daniel. See Daniel 4.
But wicked character or no, He is used as a type of the Lord Jesus Christ and his history forms a parable for us today.

The Story of Nebuchadnezzar in the Bible is a Parable.

The key events are:
God's role for Nebuchadnezzar, He is given dominion over all the world. [Jeremiah 27; Ezra 1; etc.;see below.]
Nebuchadnezzar 's conquest of Tyre
Nebuchadnezzar 's rulership and destruction of Jerusalem and Nebuchadnezzar 's conquest of Egypt.

In this parable the characters or elements are:
Nebuchadnezzar is a type of Jesus Christ,
The land of Judah and the City of Jerusalem are the Church.
The king of Tyrus is Satan, [Ezekiel 28; see below]
Pharaoh king of Egypt is also Satan.
The Lord is the Father God.
Egypt is the world. [The only new type here is Nebuchadnezzar.[

What the parable illustrates is the role Jesus plays in the Fathers plan.
Nebuchadnezzar first conquered Tyre, then Jerusalem, and finally Egypt.

Jesus first defeated Satan at Calvary. Now He is about to take over [conquer] the Church. Then He will judge and take over the world.

As Nebuchadnezzar was given the land of Egypt by the Lord, for his service in defeating the king of Tyrus, so the Father has given Jesus all authority and power under heaven for his defeat of Satan at Calvary. [Ezekiel 29, see below.]

And part of the judgment that Nebuchadnezzar carries out against Egypt is to destroy the houses of their gods. This alludes to the judgments the Lord made against Pharaoh and the gods of Egypt in Exodus. And it is a prophetic foreshadowing of the Second coming of the Lord Jesus Christ, when He will carry out vengeance against Satan's kingdoms [the houses of their gods] in the heavenly places. [Jeremiah 43; see below]

Then He will set up his throne in Pharaoh's house, and spread his royal pavilion there.

…And he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace Jer.. 43:12. Which is to say, Jesus will set up his kingdom on this earth, and assume control of the world and bring peace!

But First, Nebuchadnezzar destroyed Jerusalem and burnt the temple. And afterward He conquered Egypt. [Jeremiah 25; see below]
Which is to say: Judgment must begin at the house of God, and then judgment will come upon the world.

The main lesson for the church today:
Nebuchadnezzar as a type of the Lord Jesus brings judgment on Jerusalem. This is the coming judgment on the Church. Organized Christianity as we know it will be devastated, like Jerusalem was. The survivors are counseled by the prophet

Jeremiah to remain in the Land of Judah [praise] to dwell safely. If they go down into Egypt, they are in danger. [Jeremiah 42: see below.]
Likewise Christian who come through this judgment must stay in an attitude of Praise and Worship [service] to God, in order to be safe during the judgments coming on the world. If they loose heart and fall back into following the ways of the world [Egypt] they will be judged with the world.

The Judgment on the Church

The situation in Jerusalem when it was destroyed was that they were already under the rule of Nebuchadnezzar. The Kingdom of Judah was supposedly submitted to the Babylonian empire. Their King was a man He had set up and placed on their throne. He [Zedekiah] rebelled and brought down destruction upon the nation.

Our churches are supposedly submitted to the Lordship of Jesus. Our leaders are men he has raised up. Yet for our disobedience He [Jesus] must come as Judge. He will assume His authority and set up His throne in His temple, the Church. As Judgment begins at the House of God, so will the Kingdom of God begin in this revival.

This judgment is quite comparable to the destruction of Jerusalem. In Rick Joyner's article, Civil War in the Church, he speaks of it in terms of what will "look like a total meltdown of Christianity."

Isaiah speaks of a time when " When the enemy shall come in like a flood, …. Isa. 59:19

In another place Isaiah writes:

> Isa. . 33:14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?
> 15 He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil;

Paul speaks of the day of fire, (How often we pray, Lord send down the Fire!)

> 1 Cor.. 3;13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

Malachi mentions refiners fire when considering that day.

> Mal 3:2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap:

Luke mentions the fire in connection with purging.

> Lu. 3:17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

Hebrews speaks of judgment, shaking and fire, a consuming fire.

> He 12:26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.
> 27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.
> 28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:
> 29 For our God is a consuming fire.

[Note that some of these references refer directly to Jesus, some to Cyrus King of Persia and some to Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon. The common element is that God speaks of each of them as 'my servant' or 'my anointed'. And as you might guess, Cyrus is a type of the Lord Jesus Christ just as Nebuchadnezzar is.]

Jeremiah. 27:
6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

1 Behold my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth; I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

Isaiah 44:
1 Thus saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut;
2 I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron:
3 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.
28 That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

Jeremiah 25:
9 Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.
15 For thus saith the LORD God of Israel unto me; Take the wine cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it.
17 Then took I the cup at the LORD'S hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me:
18 To wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse; as it is this day;
19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people;

Ezekiel 28

12 Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.
13 Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.
14 Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.
15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

Ezekiel 29

18 Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it:
19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.
20 I have given him the land of Egypt for his labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord GOD.
21 In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

Jeremiah 43

8 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,
9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brickkiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in

Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;
10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.
11 And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword.
12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.
13 He shall break also the images of Bethshemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

Jeremiah 42

9 And said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him;
10 If ye will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you.
11 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.
12 And I will shew mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.
13 But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the LORD your God,
14 Saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell:
15 And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there;
16 Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.
17 So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them.
18 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more.

New Developments
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite Sept. 15, 2005

Yesterday we were informed that our supreme court had accepted the petition of five Palestinian towns that surround our town of Alfe Menashe (in Samaria), demanding that the security fence will be readjusted so as to enable these villages to remain outside of the fence. The new route of the fence will form a balloon-like shape around us, with the access road being the "string". Regarding the fence (which has aroused controversy around the world), the court decreed that, "every citizen [in this case Israelis] is entitled to protection [just like the Israeli citizen who lived in the Gaza strip], even upon the assumption that the settlements are illegal [again just like the block of Israeli settlements in the Gaza strip]." This new development did not totally surprise us, ever since we noticed, last year, a facility that looks like a border crossing just down the road from us. Judea and Samaria may now become subject to the same conditions that prevailed in the Jewish part of the Gaza strip up until the evacuation. We must keep in mind that UN resolutions 242 and 338 (which decreed that Israel must restore all territories gained in the Six Day War of 1967) still govern the "peace process".

If the uprooting of settlements seems to be terrible, the abandoning of the Philadelphi route, where Palestinian Gaza and Egypt meet, is an absolute disaster and madness (and so concur most military experts in Israel). To allow Egyptian soldiers into what was until now a demilitarized zone, and what's more to have them protect the border, in order to prevent drug and weapon smugglers and terrorists from crossing and making their way into Israel, is an unspeakable absurdity. In fact, today's news reported that this was already taking place. Israeli towns and cities along the border are ordered on a warning alert. The temptation that the Egyptians are faced with, to ally themselves with their brothers against Israel, is beyond their human ability to withstand. What's more, if Israel has to take military action, which no doubt we will have to do as Gaza is now being pumped with weaponry, and if some Egyptians happen to be injured, it won't take more than a spark to blaze into an all-out war.

Once we give the Palestinians those portions of the "West Bank" that border Jordan, Israel will no longer have the right to police what comes in and goes out there either. The Israeli Arabs also pose a threat, and every now and again find a pretext to air their grievances aggressively. One person involved in the 2000 rioting, who was disenchanted by the court's decision concerning these riots, made the statement that if Israel wanted a fight they would be more than willing to oblige. Thus the gas fumes are already present, all that is needed is for someone to light the match.

According to the prophets the times of the restoration of Judah and Jerusalem, days in which we are living, are a time of war, this is when Ephraim shows up on the scene. In past letters I have written over and over about this dynamic end time duo, Ephraim and Judah. These two have an enemy both in the spirit realm and on this earth. Judah has been equipped to do the battle in the natural, but she needs Ephraim back on the walls of Jerusalem with the power and the authority of the presence of the King of kings and Lord of lords. However, the nation/stick of Joseph in the hand of Ephraim is just beginning to fulfill its portion of the dry bones scenario: "So I prophesied as He commanded me, and breath came into them [the bones of the whole house of Israel], and they lived, and stood upon their feet, an exceedingly great army" (Ezekiel 37:10).

In Ezekiel 36:22-38 YHVH says over and over that He is not doing this restoration of the dry bones of the whole House of Israel for their sake, but for His Holy name's sake. He is going to clean house until He is seen in a people who will sanctify His name, which does not mean pronouncing it correctly according to someone's interpretation, but that His holiness and righteousness will be seen in the very nature and behavior of this second Israelite nation (v. 23). Verse 36 emphasizes another point: "Then the nations which are left all around you shall know that I, YHVH have rebuilt the ruined places and planted what was desolate. I, YHVH, have spoken it, and I will do it." There are many scriptures that speak of the war with the surrounding nations and its effect upon them. However, in this scripture we see that in the aftermath of the conflict only a few of these nations are left, and that all the promised territories are in ruins, as indicated by the previous verse: "So they will say, 'This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden; and the wasted, desolate, and ruined cities are now fortified and inhabited.'"

There is no question in anyone's mind that we are heading for a war. Joel declares: "YHVH bring down your mighty ones!" Zechariah answers the cry: "Ephraim shall be like a mighty man. Their heart shall rejoice in YHVH. they shall remember Me in far countries; they shall live, together with their children, and they shall return" (10:7-9). At this point in time YHVH is only in the preparation stages of these wars. We, of the house of Joseph/Ephraim, are being prepared in holiness and righteousness. The Church has always taught that sanctification unto perfection is something that the Spirit of Holiness reserves to when we get to heaven. But there are too many scriptures that indicate differently. For those who are seeking first His kingdom and His righteousness, there is a challenge to get out of religion and into a righteous, holy and intimate relationship with Him. May these words of Peter ring in our hearts this Shabbat:

"Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of Elohim and of Yeshua our King, as His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue, by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature [holiness and righteousness], having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust" (2 Peter 1:2-4).

DREAM 1/4/05

Scene 1 - I was observing two men sitting opposite each other at a small square table. The one man appeared to be from Pakistan or India and the other man was American.

Scene 2 - The man from Pakistan or India then appeared to have a hatchet in his hand and he was holding it in a threatening manner toward the American.

Scene 3 - Now there appeared to be a metal/iron shield erected between the man from Pakistan or India and the American was behind the metal/iron shield. I then joined the American behind the metal/iron shield. There was a narrow eye-lit type of slit in the top portion of the metal/iron shield allowing the American to observe the man from Pakistan or India.

Scene 4 - The man from India or Pakistan turned into a white snake and effortlessly penetrated the metal/iron shield. End of Dream.

DREAM INTERPRETATION 1/4/05

Scene 1 - The two men at the table stand for the conflict between Osama Bin Laden (the terrorists) and The American people.

Scene 2 - The hatchet in the hand of the man from Pakistan stands for the 1st 911 attack against America.

Scene 3 - The metal/iron shield (with the narrow eye-lit observation slit) erected between the man from Pakistan and the American stands for the protective shield against terrorist attacks afforded by HOMELAND SECURITY. The fact that I took my place alongside the American and behind this shield stands for my calling as a watchman (Ezekiel 33) to intercede and stand-in-the-gap for America.

Scene 4 - The man from Pakistan or India turning into a white snake or serpent and effortlessly penetrating the metal/iron shield depicts the utter uselessness of HOMELAND SECURITY apart from Divine Intervention (Psalm 127:1 - Unless the LORD watches over the city, the watchmen stand guard in vain.)

I believe this dream and its interpretation is an additional alert to the intercessors and watchman to 'man their posts' in order that the next 911 be averted. Just after sharing this dream with a watchman friend of mine he saw an advertisement for 'Phoenix, Arizona' pop-up on his computer screen. Numerous dreams and warning visions have been published since 2002 regarding the potential target that Phoenix, Arizona has become due to its housing of the largest nuclear power plants in the USA along with being less than 100 miles from the 'most easily penetrated border crossing in America'.(some of these dreams can be viewed by going to the site www.watchmanradio.com)

The white snake or serpent also ties in with the most recent dreams of Michael Boldea, the grandson of Dumitru Dudumann, where his grandfather 'Dumitru' appears to him in a dream and tells him of the numerous terrorist cells currently located within America and like 'coiled serpents' poised to strike - situated to bring terror and chaos to a nation the refuses to repent of her pride and godless ways. Then most recently Michael had another dream depicting 3 terrorist attacks (the first having been the twin towers) with two additional attacks each surpassing the former. These incidents depict America as a Great Eagle with the attacks perpetrated by increasingly vicious serpents bringing about the Eagles demise. (these two dreams can be viewed by going to the site www.handofhelp.com)

No Forgiveness Apart From Christ

Revelation 16:17

With a rebellious cause
I doubted Your love
Pushed aside Your message of faith
My world moved at a speed
That revolved around my own needs
No need to turn direction toward grace.
Your wrath was a message for fools
Only for those ignorant of knowledge and truth
Though my soul may have cried
To be released from self's, focused pride
The "good news" of the cross
Was a message I wanted no one to prove
I wanted to live life without excuse.

Now, I wonder if to believe
In what my eyes do not see
Would I be secure in Your love
If Your drawing me near
Means to be released from fear
Would I be secure in Your love.
If You held me close for one moment
And spoke words meant for me alone
I wonder what message would be spoken
So faith in Your love took control
What words could be spoken
To break unbelief's steady hold
So that I lived secure in the knowledge
That to walk with You
Means I never walk alone.

If Christ is the One who was chosen
To redeem my life unto You dear Lord
Then speak to my heart Holy Savior
Words purposed for me this hour.
If Christ is the One who was purposed
To bring salvation to the lost
Then help me be counted among those chosen
Who know of Your resurrection power.
Help me understand the message spoken
When Jesus cried "It is finished"
As He died upon the cross
So I can join with saints singing
You have found that which was lost.

"And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of > the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done." Revelation 16:17

> "But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; who will render to every man according to his deeds: to them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, eternal life; but unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile." Romans 2:5-9

In the beginning, before Adam and Eve partook of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, they considered the life they lived as being good. God, having breathed His spirit, His "breath of life," into their lives, had caused their hearts and minds to recognize and appreciate the goodness of the Lord. Having been awakened unto His majesty, they served God with gratitude. They knew God and were unafraid of Him. Their hearts and minds being unhindered by the knowledge of evil caused them to appreciate and enjoy the life God had created for them.

After Adam and Eve partook of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, their minds became veiled to the goodness of God. Their knowledge of evil caused thoughts and desires, which did not exalt God above all things, to dominate and control their lives. The spirit, God's breath that had caused their hearts and minds to become alive, so they were conscious of the goodness of God, so they interacted with God experiencing His presence, would become the light now hidden in great darkness. The spirit, God's breath that filled their lives, would no longer cause them to appreciate the life they lived unto God, because a great darkness, where the knowledge of evil exalted unbelief, veiled their thoughts to the goodness of God.

Though the darkness of the knowledge of evil caused unbelief in the goodness of God to fill their lives, which would then be passed unto future generations, so that the darkness that covered the earth was great, God promised to send a deliverer, who would restore that which had been lost. The spirit within mankind was at first able to respond to God, was created to respond to God; but because of the knowledge of evil, which veils the hearts of men to the goodness of God, it would take a mighty conqueror, a Light of great proportion, to dispel the darkness so that the spirit could once again bring inspiration to the hearts of mankind toward God. It would take God's beloved Son, "The Prince of Peace," to restore the hearts and minds of mankind once again unto a right relationship with God.

Though each person is alive physically, it is because their hearts and minds are shrouded in darkness that they do not comprehend nor appreciate the Lord. To not appreciate God, so they do not understand and experience His love, mercy and wisdom, is to live outside of God's protection and righteousness. When a person lives apart from God, their thoughts are dead to the purposes and intentions of God. Shrouded by darkness, unbelief has caused them to live contrary to God's will for them.

Though the spirit can respond to God, it is because of the knowledge of evil that mankind continues to exalt their own opinions above God's, so that their spirits remain hidden in darkness. To deny God's voice of truth causes much havoc to arise upon the earth. Yet, when it seemed that the hearts of mankind could achieve no greater realm of darkness, God pressed forward in fulfilling His purposes toward mankind. God had determined from the beginning of creation, that mankind would be delivered from the unrighteous suffering found in the darkness, through Jesus Christ.

God had chosen from the foundation of the world, that His Son, Jesus Christ would redeem that which was lost in the garden. From before the foundation of the world, Jesus Christ had been chosen of God to restore man's close fellowship lost in the garden. God had purposed that mankind would find no other way to be restored unto a right relationship with Him than through Christ.

> "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; to wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation." 2 Corinthians 5:17-19

God had purposed that through Jesus Christ's death, resurrection and ascendance into God's heavenly throne - so that the heavenly things themselves were purified - that the Holy Spirit would be poured out from heaven and made available to mankind. In receiving the Holy Spirit, the darkness of unbelief will be dispelled as a person's spirit is joined unto the Holy Spirit, so that they are inspired in the things of God. As a new creature in Christ, the sincere personal relationship with God, which was lost in the garden because of the knowledge of evil, will be found.

When the veil of the temple was rent, God was signifying that the day He purposed had arrived, where each person would be able to come boldly before God through faith in Christ. Just as the veil in the temple was rent in two, so must unbelief that veils a person's heart and mind to the goodness of God be rent, before a person begins to understand what God has accomplished for them through Christ. It is through faith in Christ that a person receives the Holy Spirit, so that they understand that what the law could not do, in transforming their hearts and minds, will be accomplished as God's Spirit of holiness moves in power upon their hearts and minds. Then they will understand that it was in seeking Christ that God was able to make them aware of their own weaknesses. And they will come to understand that it is in seeking Christ, that they will hear God say that the wrongs they have done, have been forgiven, because of what Christ has done, so that healing of heart and mind takes place.

> "But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus." Ephesians 2:4-6

No one is born into this world without the knowledge of evil. Because of this their conscious is defiled, so that they are not able to discern by the reasoning of their mind the goodness of God. They will naturally seek after ideas and activities that promise them safety and truth apart from God. God is not Lord of their lives, because of the knowledge of evil, which is passed down through the lineage of man. Though alive physically, their minds being defiled because of the knowledge of evil, will cause them to not experience the power of God; they will not experience the beauty and holiness of God. They are alive as physical human beings, but their minds are dead toward the purposes of God.

Though each person is born dead in their sins, because of their knowledge of evil, each person will be awakened unto righteousness when, through the hearing of the Word, they turn toward Christ in sincere faith, and receive God's Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the garment of righteousness that God places upon each child of faith. When the Holy Spirit is received within a person's life, then they will walk adorned in a new garment. They will walk wearing a white robe, the Holy Spirit, which exhibits the purity and holiness of God. The Holy Spirit is obtained, not through what anyone has accomplished through their works while laboring according to the knowledge of evil, but through turning toward Christ in faith, believing in what has been accomplished through His obedience unto the Father. In seeking Christ, a change will occur within a person's life, so that a person walks with the mind of Christ, knowing that to seek Christ in all situations will deliver them from evil.

> "Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the > word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works." Hebrews 4:1-4

Those who have had the veil of unbelief rent, as the Holy Spirit awakened their minds to God's mercy and longsuffering love toward them, will begin to understand entering into the rest that God has provided through Christ. These people will begin to understand that to look to Christ is to be released from striving caused by trusting in the flesh, which is in servitude to sin because of the knowledge of evil. They will begin to understand that, to look to Christ in all situations, is to find an escape from the snare of the fowler, which are the thoughts of anyone, including themselves, in which exalt self above God. These works were finished from the foundation of the world, God having determined that mankind would be restored into a right relationship with Him through faith in Jesus Christ. But if a person should deny that Jesus is the Christ, then they will continue to stand outside of God's protective shelter of love, mercy, and holiness.

God proclaims "the works were finished from the foundation of the world" and for those who receive the Holy Spirit, their faith in Jesus Christ being sincere, will find that God is their place of refuge, their escape from the suffering brought about by pride, prejudice and rebellion. Jesus Christ is the One ordained of God to give rest to a person's soul, so that they live secure in God's love toward them. To enter into a relationship with Christ, is to enter into holy union with God, through receiving God's Spirit, so that a person may know the love that God has toward them, so that they may proclaim that the life they live in Christ is good.

> "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." Hebrews 4:10-11

Those who refuse the gift of God's grace made available through Jesus Christ will not enter into God's rest. They will not experience the love of God shed abroad upon their hearts. They will not know that, if they look to Christ, He will be faithful to answer them, so that they live out their days under inspiration of His guidance, wisdom, and instruction in all situations. To turn from seeking after Christ is to remain in unbelief where God's mercy and love is not experienced.

God proclaims that He rested on the seventh day, and those who look to Christ, will understand the rest that He is speaking of. They will understand that, to turn to Christ, they will find rest from their endless laboring caused by their unbelief, which blinds them to the goodness of God. To rest in Christ is to find they can turn to Him, and He will make a way available so they are released from worry and fear caused by unbelief, which has brought unrighteous suffering into their lives. To rest in Christ is to have confidence that at all times they can call on God and know that He stands waiting to be their ever present help in time of need. As God rested on the seventh day, so will those who turn toward Christ rest in the knowledge that to look to Him is to find a faithful comforter, teacher and guide to help them on their journey through life.

> ""For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them. For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light." Ephesians 5:5-8

Apostle John was taken up higher into understanding the ways of God, as God's spiritual realm was opened up in great detail to him, with God speaking to him through the imagery of visions. The visions would reveal in great detail how God interacts with every situation mankind encounters. For someone who has received God's Holy Spirit, to enter God's rest is to appreciate the works that God had accomplished from the foundation of the world. To someone who loves the Lord, to enter into the seventh day rest, is to partake of God's heavenly kingdom of righteousness that had been purposed and prepared from the foundation of the world, through receiving the Holy Spirit.

To enter into the seventh day of God's rest, prepared from the foundation of the world, would be to receive the inheritance of great worth, the Holy Spirit, which will reveal the great depths of God's love to each person who receives God's gift of eternal life. But when Apostle John was shown seven vials full of God's wrath, he received insight not into the blessings of the God, but instead into the full and perfect consequences of what occurs in the lives of those who refuse God's gift of grace.

Seven represents completion. And when used in union with the vials of God's wrath, the vision is expressing the complete consequences of what occurs when someone denies that Jesus Christ is God's beloved Son, who was from the beginning purposed of God to obtain salvation for mankind. Seven, when used in union with the vials of God's wrath, is emphasizing the consequences of what occurs when someone stands outside the realm of God's love and mercy. God hates sin, which brings unrighteous suffering into a person's life. But if a person denies His gift of redemption found in Christ, then this person will remain in their sins. God's wrath, His perfect anger against sin, will demand that His protective hand of mercy and grace not shield and protect the one who has heard the Word and refused God's gift of eternal life found in Christ. God's anger, His wrath against a rebellious heart who refuses to believe in His Son, demands that He does not extend to this one shelter during the trials and tribulations they are sure to encounter.

> "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life." Romans 5:8-10

When Apostle John heard the words, "It is done" in regard to the seventh angel pouring out his vial into the air, He was given insight into God's proclamation that announced His perfect and complete judgment upon unbelief that denies what was accomplished through His Son, Jesus Christ. This was a message of great significance. It reveals how, if anyone denies that Jesus is the Christ, purposed of God from the beginning of the world to obtain eternal salvation for mankind, then they will stand outside God's protective arms of love. To remain outside the shelter of God's love is to remain in the realm where suffering abounds because of the knowledge of evil. Without being able to discern God's voice proclaiming, that this is the way, follow, then mankind will continue to stumble blindly through life. By denying that God is and has always been calling out to them, discounting what Christ has accomplished for mankind, then will they remain in the realm of unrighteous suffering, finding no healing for the many destructive thoughts that plague them day after day.

God has purposed from the beginning of the world that Jesus Christ was to redeem that which was lost in the garden. But, when someone hears the Word and does not turn toward Christ in sincere faith, then they will never realize the protective shelter from the enemy that God can provide for them. They will not hear His comforting voice proclaiming His great love toward them is a high tower that will keep them safe from the trials that come upon the earth. This is in accordance with God's perfect judgment.

Each person is born in sin, having knowledge of evil. Yet, God has purposed from the foundation of the world that His Son would make restitution for mankind's sins, so that they might once again enjoy close and personal fellowship with God. Though mankind has rebelled against God because of their knowledge of evil, they will be saved from unrighteous suffering caused by the knowledge of evil, if, upon hearing the Word, they turn in sincere faith toward Jesus Christ.

Apostle John was given great insight to what occurs when someone refuses God’s gift of life, found and received through faith in Jesus Christ. Thoughts, not under the cover and mercy of God’s love, will create havoc in their lives, and in the lives of others. Suffering for unrighteousness sake will abound. Yet, there is hope for a person, if today they should hear the Word and turn toward Jesus in sincere faith. Though mankind walks in rebellion toward His mercy, God continues to extend His hand of grace through Jesus Christ. There is a way of escape from out of all unrighteous suffering, it is found in turning toward Christ, and seeking after Him with a sincere heart, so that God’s Spirit of holiness fills their lives. It is experiencing the holiness of God, that true peace will be understood.

> “I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness. For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness. What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life. For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.”

News From Hurricane Katrina Front Lines

Chad Taylor

I will try my best to communicate to you in a few short paragraphs what we saw and experienced in our first of many expeditions into the front lines of Hurricane Katrina. We returned yesterday Sept. 8th only to retrieve more supplies and much needed help to return again shortly. Our target date is this next weekend of Sept. 16th. This trip we saw first hand the devastation and desperation in Gulfport, MS. and Biloxi, MS. (see link below for pics just listed on our website).

It is truly a city under siege. Army and police stand on intersections directing traffic and enforcing curfews. Helicopters keep a constant drone above our heads as relief efforts move forward day and night. Convoys of law enforcement and disaster related vehicles race down the freeways from as far away as New York City to bring aid and rescue. When we first entered Gulfport, MS. off of hi-way 49 it was as if the city was frozen in time. No lights welcomed us in buildings, no familiar neon signs in fast food restaurants assuring us we were ok, nothing. Only destruction. Parking lots that once hosted hundreds of shoppers now only served as distribution spots and emergency "pods" for the displaced and the desperate.

We asked a local police officer who welcomed us and prayed with us where we could drop off our supplies that we had brought from Georgia. He directed us to the volunteer area and emergency drop off zone at a local High School. We were welcomed there by volunteers from all over America that had come to help and we unloaded the much needed goods we had brought. We carried in our 10X5 trailer diapers, pallets of water, canned goods, clothes, brand new blankets, flash lights, batteries, boxes of dried milk and even dog good. Our donations were added to the piles of previous drop-offs that had already been made and as fast as it was unloaded the distribution began...

It seemed though that our supplies was a pebble dropped in a ocean because the need is so great. We connected with the national guard and army reserves and pitched in all we could. Our team of 6 were some of so many coming from around the world to help but even still the need is awesome. Friends, this is the greatest opportunity that we have had in one hundred years to present the grace and love of God that will inevitably lead to thousands of salvations. We must move now! Every ministry in American needs to reevaluate their priorities and mobilize teams to invade the Gulf Coast. This is where the rubber meets the road folks, are we what we say we are and do we have the intimacy with God we so boast of having? If we do then we will move now and fill this black hole of hopelessness with the love of Jesus Christ. As Keith Green said so long ago, "God can't cash out a state check in heaven, he needs you..."

Consuming Fire is ready and willing to help mobilize teams and go to these areas of destruction. At this very moment we have churches in Louisiana that need aid and assistance immediately. We can rendezvous in Thomasville, GA. (closest airport is Tallahassee, FL) and lead teams every weekend if needed. Our greatest need right now is a RELIABLE VEHICLE TO TAKE TEAMS WITH. Enterprise Rent-a-Car was gracious to give a great break on the Suburban we used but that is limited. We need to secure a larger SUV to take the people willing and ready to go and pull the trailer(s) of supplies. If you have any connections with Car Lots, Rental Companies or even have a SUV we could use for these operations please inform us right away. We can fly to your location to pick up if necessary. One way or the other we will go no matter what it costs. The donations that have been steadily coming in are priceless, they have enabled us to DO something not just talk about it. We just assisted two more people that left to New Orleans from Tallahassee today and are helping with repair of police radios and towers. Together we are unstoppable please consider what you can do today.

LIST OF IMMEDIATE NEEDS:

1) Generators. If you have any connection with Sears you can order a generator and have it delivered to Thomasville, GA. for us to pick up simply inform them of this.
2) Another trailer possibly larger to take more supplies and equipment.
3) Any and all non-perishable goods can be sent to our mailing address below.
4) Laptop computer. We have realized it is imperative to keep in contact with you as we travel into these area.

No Good Thing

Chip Brogden

“I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwells no good thing” (Romans 7:18a).

It is a great day for the Lord when a disciple of Jesus learns this most basic lesson: that in “me”, in myself, in my flesh, dwells no good thing.

This is a very difficult thing for people to learn. Jesus says that without Him we can do nothing. This verse is very well-known. Even so, Christians still attempt to do many things apart from the Lord. We feel like we simply must do something, anything. And even though the Bible says there is nothing good in our flesh, and the flesh profits nothing, we spend a lot of time doing fleshly things apart from the Spirit of Jesus, thinking they are good and profitable. It is impossible to say for sure just how many of the things we “feel led” to do and say are actually just things we feel like doing and saying. A lot of the time the Lord has very little to do with it.

This problem is part of our Adamic nature and it is at work in us long before we are born-again. Before a person becomes a Christian they sometimes believe that they are intrinsically good or moral. At least, they say, there are not as bad as others. But those who know God know that in order for a person to enter the Kingdom they must first see that their righteousness is as filthy rags, that all have fallen short of the glory of God, and that none are righteous in His sight. We protest that we are not so bad, but God says the imagination of man’s heart is only toward evil from his youth (cf. Genesis 8:21). To be saved, a person must stop claiming any righteousness of their own and accept God’s verdict of them. No matter how good they may think they are compared to the rest of mankind, they are, nevertheless, sinners in need of a Savior. They cannot be born-again until and unless they recognize and acknowledge what the Lord says about them and their condition.

We who have received the Lord as Savior have come to this knowledge of ourselves at least once in our lives. There came a day when we despaired of saving ourselves, and instead of clinging to our righteousness, we confessed our sins and admitted our need for a Savior. At that moment, Christ accepted us as His disciples. Confessing our sinfulness did not hinder us from entering the Kingdom; on the contrary, it opened the door for us to go in. The self-righteous, on the other hand, are disqualified by their own good works. How differently the Lord judges things.

Knowing Christ, Knowing Self

When we are new disciples we have truly entered the Narrow Gate but there is still much we do not know and there is still much we need to learn. We know very little about Jesus, and we know very little about ourselves. And so, the Lord begins to lead us along the Narrow Path. He primarily wants to show us two things: who we are, and Who He is. These go hand-in-hand. Self-knowledge is just as important as Christ-knowledge. The revelation of Christ begins when God opens our eyes to know Jesus. The revelation of Self begins when God opens our eyes to know ourselves. When we see the insufficiency of Self and the sufficiency of Christ we will naturally despair of ourselves and look away to Jesus. On the other hand, if we do not see ourselves correctly, we will invariably imagine ourselves to be quite a bit better than we really are. We will mistake fleshly strength for spiritual strength. We will confess with our mouth that we cannot do anything apart from Jesus, but in actual practice we will take it upon ourselves to perform many works. In time all of these works become nothing. We will fail hundreds or thousands of times until we learn the lesson – if it comes from me, if it comes from my flesh, it is no good.

Before he saw the Lord, Paul was self-confident and dangerous. Those who trust in themselves have neither seen themselves nor seen the Lord. I am afraid that many people have the idea that Jesus came only to lend them a hand and help them feel more successful and fulfilled. Today the most popular Christian books tell us how to have a better life, how to prosper, how to be a “winner”, how to improve our circumstances, and how to think nice, positive, encouraging thoughts about ourselves.

The focus appears to be on making life here on earth more enjoyable and making believers more self-reliant and self-confident. This may not be the stated intention but it is the inevitable result – and if a few Scriptures can be used in the process, so much the better. It would be a mistake to equate holiness with misery and drudgery; but it is an even greater mistake to tell someone how wonderful they are until they have first despaired of themselves and learned the lesson that Paul learned: “In me (that is, in my flesh,) dwells no good thing.”

Positive thinking is appropriate so long as I am living according to the Truth, but if I am unsurrendered to Jesus and living life according to my terms then I am in no position to think about myself in a positive light: I am positively deceived. We do not need Self-Esteem, we need Christ-Esteem. The more we see of Jesus the less we will trust in ourselves. That is why, once Paul learned his lesson, he wrote, “We have no confidence in the flesh” (Philippians 3:3b). He then goes on to list quite a number of things that seem important in terms of religion, status, social order, education, and good works – all the things that tend to make one self-confident and self-righteous. With one grand stroke, Paul says, “Yet, I count them all as dung, that I may win Christ.” He simply discards what some people spend a lifetime trying to achieve. Here is a man who knows the sufficiency of God as well as the insufficiency of himself.

“That is fine for new believers,” someone will say. “But I have been a Christian for many years now. I have a good relationship with God, I have had many spiritual experiences and have made great progress. This message is good for younger, less mature believers, but it does not apply to me.” On the contrary, to lose all confidence in myself is the mark of spiritual maturity. Real spiritual growth is evidence by increased confidence in Christ and a decreased confidence in myself. “He must increase, but I must decrease” (John 3:30). You never outgrow these spiritual laws. Anyone who thinks they do not need to hear it again did not really hear it the first time.

The Example Of Joseph

We have a fine example of this in the life of Joseph. When Joseph was younger he realized that God had appointed him for a special purpose. God confirmed this special calling by giving Joseph prophetic dreams about his future. Joseph should have treasured these things in his heart and quietly waited for God to bring about His Will. But being young and full of self-confidence, Joseph could not resist sharing these dreams with his father and brothers. As a result, his brothers became jealous and almost killed him. Joseph was sold into slavery and spent many years in prison. It appeared as though his dreams would not come true. Yet God was using all these circumstances to teach Joseph to have no confidence in the flesh.

After many seasons of God’s dealings, Joseph was brought to the palace to interpret Pharaoh’s dream. Here was an opportunity for Joseph to finally lift himself out of a terrible situation. Someone had finally recognized him for his gift and they had the power to reward him handsomely for it. But the younger, self-confident Joseph is gone. He has finally learned the basic lesson of “not I, but Christ.” “Can you interpret my dream?” Pharaoh asked. “It is not in me,” Joseph replied. “But God will give you an answer” (cf. Genesis 41:16). And so He did, because now Joseph, emptied of himself, could be trusted. Joseph demonstrated even more wisdom and maturity in dealing with his brothers, freely demonstrating supernatural grace and love towards the ones who meant him evil.

All of our circumstances, tests, and trials are designed to get us to the place that we can say along with Joseph, “It is not in me.” God permits many things to come our way that we could otherwise avoid if we were not so cocky and self-confident. God has to work long and hard to get through to us, but what a wonderful day it is when we finally learn the lesson, bow our head, and surrender everything over to Him. Then He can really use us; but even if He does not use us, we are His nonetheless. Submitted to Him, we are equally content to be where He has placed us, whether we are sitting in the dungeon or sitting on the throne.

The Example Of Peter

Peter is another good example of how every true disciple eventually learns that there is nothing good in his flesh. Peter began his walk with Jesus just as we did, acknowledging his sinfulness by saying, "Depart from me Lord, for I am a sinful man." Some will protest their own righteousness and feel as though they are doing God a huge favor by becoming a Christian. But Peter made a splendid beginning by frankly acknowledging himself as a sinner, and so the Lord took him just as he was and began to disciple him.

After making some progress, however, Peter started to lose touch with himself. He had followed Jesus for three years and enjoyed close fellowship with Him. He had both seen and performed miracles in Jesus' Name. To all outward appearances he was no longer a "sinful man", he was a "spiritual man". Before, Peter considered himself unworthy to be in the presence of Jesus. In just a short period of time you find this "sinful man" arguing along with the other disciples about which one of them will be the greatest! This ought to show us that there is a deeper death for us to die, and the more "spiritual" we become, the more easily we are deceived by our own spirituality.

If a dentist offers to remove one of your good teeth you will probably refuse. But if that tooth develops a cavity it is only a matter of time before you seek out the dentist and have it removed. The greater the pain, the quicker you seek relief. Similarly, when the Lord first speaks of taking up the Cross, we are apt to respond as did Peter: "Not so, Lord! This will never happen to you!" We see no need for death because Self has not yet become painful enough to us. When we are tired of the pain that comes from living in the flesh then we will gladly ask God to decrease us so that He can be increased. Until then no amount of teaching, argument, or doctrine is enough to convince a person.

Peter held out until the very end. He was a very difficult case, but the Lord was patient. When Jesus said that all would forsake Him, Peter protested and announced that even if all the other disciples fled, he would never forsake Jesus. Outwardly he acted and spoke as a deeply committed believer and disciple. But when temptation came he could not even stay awake long enough to pray. Perhaps he did not feel prayer was necessary; he was strong enough to resist without praying! Then, when Jesus allowed Himself to be arrested, Peter tried to defend Him with a sword. All these examples demonstrate how very little Peter knew about himself.

It was not until Peter actually did deny the Lord three times that he came to learn the same lesson that Paul learned: "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwells no good thing." After he denied the Lord he went out and wept bitterly. Finally he was broken. He hated himself for what he had done. At last he had seen something of himself, and he was ashamed. If he was capable of denying the Lord Jesus then he was capable of anything. Strangely enough, the more unworthy Peter believed himself to be, the more the Lord sought to restore and encourage him! The Lord does not break the bruised reed. When Peter was strong and arrogant, the Lord weakened him with a rebuke. When Peter was sufficiently weak and humble, the Lord strengthened him with encouragement. What a glorious Lord we have, Who meets us exactly where we are and ministers to us accordingly!

Failure Serves God's Purpose

Jesus was not surprised or disappointed when Peter failed. In like manner, He is not surprised or disappointed when you fail. Rather, He is waiting for you to fail so you will be reduced to Him. He has no illusions about you and He knows you through and through. He knows however much your spirit may be willing, your flesh is weak. Our weakness is not the trouble - the trouble is our unwillingness to acknowledge the weakness. Paul has no confidence in the flesh, so he can say, "I rejoice in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me" (II Corinthians 12:9b). But we do not rejoice in our weakness the way Paul does. We either refuse to admit it, or we hide it, or we try to improve upon it, or we try to make up for it by overcompensating in some other area. People will fight and argue with me on this point because they desperately want to salvage something for themselves. They have a fragile self-esteem and this kind of news is too painful too bear.

But I bring you good tidings of great joy, dear Christian friend! This failure of Self is the very key to living the Christian life. As painful as it is, the bitter tears of failure provide the water for nurturing the Precious Seed that is planted in your heart of hearts and making it grow. To despair of ourselves is the very key that opens the door to all the power, the victory, and fruitfulness in Christ that we seek. "I KNOW that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwells no good thing." I KNOW IT, Paul says. No good thing. I know that in me, in my flesh, in my Self, there is nothing. Apart from Him I am nothing. He is Everything. CHRIST IN ME is my only Hope. In one part of me, my flesh, dwells no good thing. In the other part of me Christ lives.

Why do you lack power? Why are you unable to walk in continual victory? Why do you not see fruitfulness? Because power, victory, and fruitfulness only comes to a person who is standing on resurrection ground. God's holy anointing oil was not to be poured out upon the flesh. God does not grant these things to people who are still living for themselves. Resurrection life is for those who have died already – how could it be otherwise? Unless a man has passed through death he cannot know anything about resurrection. If a person will not consent to the Cross then they will not die, and if they will not die then they cannot be resurrected. If they are not resurrected they cannot ascend with Christ and be seated with Him in the heavenlies, for "flesh and blood cannot enter the Kingdom of God" (I Corinthians 15:50).

If you have a Bible Promise Book one of your favorites is probably Philippians 4:13: "I can do all things through Christ Who strengthens me." Keep in mind, however, that the same man who said this also said, "I am crucified with Christ" (Galatians 2:20). I can do all things through Christ Who strengthens me, but this Strength is only perfected in my weakness (cf. II Corinthians 12:9). Also remember that "Apart from Me, You can do nothing" is a golden promise as well. Because I promise you that anything you do apart from Jesus will amount to nothing!

How To Enter In

Why is it so difficult for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God? Because wealth creates the illusion of control and this breeds self-confidence. Money is like a drug that makes one feel invincible. Once the money is gone the illusion is destroyed and there is a natural humility that follows. Those who are rich in spiritual experiences find it equally difficult to enter in. Often when a person considers himself to be "apostolic" or "prophetic" or "spiritual" or "called to the ministry" they present a formidable challenge. It is most difficult to teach them anything or even discuss something with them because they are not poor in spirit, they are rich in spirit. They like to argue, fuss, debate, and find fault with others. Like the younger Joseph they always have a dream, vision, or word to speak, but they lack wisdom and maturity. They are the type of people who will walk halfway around the world to preach a message but will not drive across the street to listen to one. They want to be seen and heard, but they cannot bear to see or hear others.

Friends, it may be difficult to enter in, but it is not impossible. It IS impossible with man, this is true; but with God, all things are possible. The quicker we accept man's impossibility the quicker we can accept God's possibility. The way we enter in is right here: "I am crucified with Christ, nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ lives in me." (Galatians 2:20). God's solution to our problem is to nail us to the cross with Jesus. If we will accept this sentence of death all our problems will die right along with us. The problems will not die until we are thoroughly dead ourselves. But the day we cease striving and meekly accept the Cross we will find everything is settled. We can protest our innocence and die slowly like the two thieves, or we can quietly commit ourselves into God's hand and give up the ghost.

What shall we do to enter in? The first thing to do is to stop doing. Then, let us learn to breathe words along these lines: Today, Lord, I give up. I am finished. I surrender. I know now that in my flesh dwells no good thing. Apart from You I am nothing, and apart from You I can do nothing. I do not even know how to pray. I accept the sentence of death, and I trust you to raise me from the dead. As I am decreased, may You be increased. I have learned that I cannot; therefore, I will not. Into Your hands I commit my spirit. You are the Resurrection and the Life, and I will wait for you to raise me from the dead. I will not raise myself. Let Your Strength be perfected in my weakness.

When this is a practical reality for a person, and not just a theory, it will sound like this: I used to be quite confident in myself and very sure, but today I have no confidence in myself. I used to be very active, but today I am content to be still. If God should rise within me, I will certainly obey Him; but if He does not move, I dare not step out ahead of Him. I will work, but I will not work according to the flesh. Instead, I will work according to His Power that works in me mightily, this power that strengthens me to do all things, this power that is perfected in my weakness. I no longer hide my weaknesses, I rejoice in them, and I look for Christ in me to overcome them all. I have surrendered myself over to Him as a bondservant, as a prisoner of the Lord. If I live, I am the Lord’s. If I die, I am the Lord’s. So in life and in death, I belong to Him.

Friends, Jesus did NOT say, “I am the Crucifixion and the Death.” He said, “I am the Resurrection and the Life.” Meditate upon the difference! Resurrection and Life is on the other side of this Cross that Jesus requires us to take up. The Cross is the Gate of Life that leads us into the Promised Land of Resurrection. Let us embrace the Cross and glory in the Cross, for it is the power of God for our salvation. Amen.

Letter To A Reluctant Prophet

Chip Brogden

Dear Friend,

It is with a certain fearfulness that I respond to your inquiry, for I am not an authority on such things. I can certainly relate to your reluctance at being identified among the company of the prophets when so many false apostles, prophets, and teachers abound. I wish I could point you in a proper direction, but I can only point you towards the Lord. It is He who selects His messengers, and I have nothing to offer you by way of what to do.

At most, perhaps you can look upon me as an example of what NOT to do, and take some word of counsel from a weak brother who has made many mistakes and endured many failures along the way. Perhaps you too will have to make even the same mistakes in order to learn, yet following my advice could perhaps help you to avoid the unnecessary heartache and cruelty inflicted upon yourself and others when thinking that you are doing God a service.

I would counsel you, first of all, to be a Christian. Do not spend too much time focused on that which is prophetic. Do not come to others as a prophet, but as a child. Let Christ be your obsession, not the prophetic word. For "the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy." There need not be turmoil in your heart about your calling; it is clear that you are among those that are "the Called, according to His purpose." And what is His purpose? That you be "conformed to the image of His dear Son." That, above all, is your first calling.

Many are eager to wear the Prophet's mantle, but are reluctant to bear the Christian's cross. This cannot be. Given the choice between Christian or Prophet, choose Christian. Serve God as the earthen vessel you are, in the place you find yourself to be. Perhaps the Lord will indeed use you in some prophetic way, but if not then at least you have been faithful with the "one talent" you have been given. God will not give five talents to those who cannot be faithful with one, and will not give ten to those who cannot be faithful with five.

If you are a Christian first you will remember that you should walk softly, with meekness and humility, while esteeming others as better than yourself. Then the prophetic word, when and if it comes, will be seasoned with the appropriate amounts of mercy and grace. Remember that without love you will inevitably become as sounding brass - all judgment. If we cannot or will not stay in Love, God will set out to humble us shamefully before our brothers and sisters that we may know the depths of our hypocrisy and self-righteousness. That is evidence of HIS great love for all of us.

Now, concerning the prophetic word itself. God will give you the "what", but the "when" and the "how" are left up to you. "The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets." You can be right on target with the "what", but if you screw up the "when", and especially the "how", you do yourself and others unnecessary harm.

Jesus says, "Take my yoke upon you (this speaks of RESTRAINT on the way WE want to go) and learn of Me, for I am meek and lowly of heart, and you will find rest for your souls." What then? He gives us liberty to speak, but allows us to suffer for speaking out of ourselves. He bids us to be restrained, to take our liberty and give it back to Him, knowing that we can do nothing of ourselves. He does not force us to wear the yoke, but invites us saying "take My yoke." By giving up our freedom, we will receive it again.

No, we cannot just do what Jesus did, because Jesus bore the yoke of His Father at all times. We cast off the yoke so quickly. We are untrustworthy, but He is faithful. Let us not just imitate Him, but let us learn of Him. Let us not only be familiar with His Word, but let us become acquainted with His Ways. It is not enough to memorize what He said, we must take His yoke upon us and walk in tandem with Him.

Since Christ bids us to "learn of ME", beware of those who will try to gain access into your life with an inordinate desire to mentor or shepherd you. We may certainly seek the advice, prayers, and counsel of other mature believers. Even the little children in the Kingdom of God can teach us much. But people can only carry us so far, and there is a certain human pride which results in the teachers trying to form the students into their own image. This will not do. The Anointing, Who is the Christ, will teach you all things. His Spirit will lead you into all Truth. His grace is sufficient. There is no man or woman who can give you anything apart from what you have already in Jesus, for we have been "blessed with every spiritual blessing in heavenly places in Christ".

Do you see dear friend, that God is more concerned with the messenger than the message? Do you see that the minister is more important than the ministry? If the messenger is wrong, the message will be wrong too. If the minister is wrong, the ministry will be wrong. And do you see that the Lord of the work is more important than the work of the Lord? Meditate on these things.

There really is no famine of the Word of God. If God is able to find the right vessel the Word will come forth in abundance. Therefore, He takes much time to mold, fashion, train, refine, purge, break down, build up, discipline and create His prophets. Yield to that process. It cannot be rushed, but it may certainly be hindered. We cannot force the Spirit, but we may certainly quench Him.

Ah, your gifts are given to you in a moment's time, but your fruit, your character, YOU, develops over many seasons of God's dealings. Do not be thrilled with your gifts, only observe if you are fruitful in Spirit, bearing much fruit, abounding in love, joy, peace, faithfulness, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, meekness, and self-control. You can be sure that there are more gifted people in the world than you, yet the fruit is what will remain when the gifts pass away. Never neglect the place of abiding in Him, and you will remain a fruitful branch in the Vine.

Expect misunderstanding. Expect persecution. Expect ridicule. Expect mistreatment. Expect suffering. Expect rejection. Then, you won't be surprised when it comes. And when it comes, shut your mouth, go to the cross, and die so you can live. Learn to kiss the hands that nail you to the cross, for as you are decreased, He is increased. It is not a better living we need, but a better dying. We cannot reach Pentecost but by way of Passover. There can be no resurrection without a crucifixion. There is no crown without a cross. To live, is Christ: to die is gain.

So if you want to boast, take pride in the things that make you weak, for when you are weak, you are strong - in Him. Be afraid of the praise and acceptance of others, for they are the fertilizer for the self-important and grandiose thoughts that are yours by nature anyway, which spring up in the shallow ground of your carnal mind. Carry about the Death of the Lord so you may have the Life of the Lord. Be ready to suffer with Him, that you may reign with Him.

And now, some practical advice:

As much as possible, stay away from money. Freely you have received, freely give.

Have no part in foolish and unlearned questions, either in the asking of them or in the answering of them. Give up your opinions and go to the cross.

Refuse to promote yourself, "your" word, or "your" ministry. If God gives you something to say, let Him see to the promotion of it.

The loftiest spiritual service will never take away from the most mundane earthly responsibility. Take care of your family, your pet, your lawn, your business, your neighbor. Keep your teeth brushed and your hair combed.

Don't be afraid to make tents. If you want to eat, work.

Be slow to anger and quick to forgive.

Before, you would never apologize even when you knew you were wrong. Now, be willing to apologize even when you know you are right.

This is my counsel, dear friend, and perhaps something I have said in this brief letter will bear witness with you. With these words then, I commit you to the care of the Lord Jesus Christ, Who is able to complete the work which He has begun in you and see you through to maturity, as you are rooted and grounded in Him, being thoroughly equipped and strengthened by His Might which works in those who have taken up the cross to find power in weakness.

Of course, if I may serve you in any way, I hope you will call on me without hesitation, for

I am your brother,
Chip Brogden

Never Give Up The Fight

NEVER GIVE UP THE FIGHT

Yes, this is the day of salvation. This is the day where My people will rise up and take the land like never before. For many are battle weary and have struggled in their own strength to see the victory manifest in their lives. But this is the day to be still and know that I AM God. This is the day to rise up the mighty warrior that you are, and give a final blow to the enemy. Let out a victory shout and watch the walls fall, the mountains crumble.

Watch with your eyes and see the victory before you, for I said suddenly and there appeared light. For I AM taking off your grave clothes, and I AM equipping you with My glory, My power and light. I will blind the enemy with the glory I pour out upon you for you are My glorious ones. Yes, I call you My sons of righteousness and glory, and no foe can stand up against you and succeed in the attack. You may struggle in the battle and may even have battle scars to show, but I AM equipping you and strengthening you through this warfare.

So I encourage you this day to rise up in faith, and give all the weariness to Me. Yes, cast all your care upon Me for I care for you. I AM for you. Only good I allow for you to go through even though your flesh struggles to leave My perfecting work. Be still and know I AM God and that I love you and will see you through. For you will see My promises comes to past for you if you do not waver in unbelief and doubt.

Do not leave your post. Be strong and bold and do not give up the fight. I will heal you and restore you for you have gone up against the "big guns". Yes, the enemy is defeated, and he is throwing out against you all he has this day. Yes, you are going up against the giants, and your testimony is that you overcome by the blood of the Lamb, the word of your testimony and that you love not your life unto death. Yes, you have laid your life on the line to prove the faithfulness of My Word, and I AM very pleased with you. The enemy has a fight on his hands, because I see you not giving up until you see the Promised Land in your hands.

Be strong and be bold for I AM with you. Do not dismay for I AM your God. I will strengthen you. Yes, I will help you. I will uphold you with My righteous right hand. Pursue in victory, My lambs, for I AM always by your side leading you and guiding you into all truth. For My truth sets you free says your God

New Heavens And A New Earth
Stephen Hanson

"Behold, I will create new heavens and a new earth. The former things will not be remembered, nor will they come to mind. Isaiah 65:17

But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare. 2 Peter 3:10

“These are the days that are hastening forward to my soon return. “
(The Spirit of the Lord showed me a scene of the earth from the distance. I watched as the earth revolved on its axis and moved as it usually would. Then the globe changed and the entire surface and color of the earth became black, and charred in appearance. It continued to revolve but it was all black. Then as I watched, the next revolution of the earth showed that it was now receiving a new surface. Where it was all in black, now it was illuminated and all was new. Finally, an angel was standing in space blowing a trumpet, and a banner was spread forth from this trumpet. I couldn’t read the words on the banner, but I knew that it somehow had meant that now everything was new, but that the inhabitants of the earth should prepare for what was to lie ahead.)
“I tell you that this earth will go through many changes. Where once everything was pleasant and green, now it will become charred. These days will come like a thief in the night. When you hear of attacks being made on certain cities then you will know that the time is near. Many speak of wonderful things that are to come, but I tell you that they are not listening to Me. Fortify your hearts and get your homes in order. “

Surely, A New Day Is Dawning
Stephen Hanson

For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Jer. 29:11

"I will repay you for the years the locusts have eaten--the great locust and the young locust, the other locusts and the locust swarm-- my great army that I sent among you. Joel 2:25

"Surely, the month of June will be good for my servants. For the things that have held you back will now be released from you. The roadblocks will be taken away. The things that have prevented ministries from being effective will now be taken away. What the cankerworm has stolen and the palmerworm, will now be given back many times over. For the signs are everywhere... Surely, a new day is dawning. Surely, a new day is coming. Surely, a new day will arrive. It is the day of my victorious church. "

"Promotions are coming for those who have stood their ground in Me. For many of you have waited long for my plans to unfold for you. The bells will ring and a new day will come forth. Out of your dry winters will come the spring of my glorious might. For I know the plans that I have for you, they are plans to prosper you and to give you hope and a future."

"And you will stand in the face of danger, and the Spirit that is in you will prevail. You will rise above the troubles of this present life and you will soar with Me in the heavenlies. You will sup with Me and you will hear what my Spirit has to say to you. Strategies will be given to you to fight against the enemy. The land will be taken back. Surely, the roadblocks will be taken away. "

"Surely, I will hasten these things and bring them to pass, says the Lord."

What Is The Status Of The Church
Stephen Hanson

June 11, 2005

12If any man builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay or straw, 13his work will be shown for what it is, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of each man's work. 14If what he has built survives, he will receive his reward. 15If it is burned up, he will suffer loss; he himself will be saved, but only as one escaping through the flames. I CO. 3

“What is the status of the church, would say the Lord? “

(The Spirit of the Lord showed me a scene of what looked like a scroll being rolled up on the ground. I watched as it was being rolled up on the ground, and then I saw that what had looked like a scroll was actually fire that was being rolled up. Strange creatures of some sort, possibly demons, were rolling up this fire. This continued for some time and then there was a figure that was clad in black that stood over the ground. I saw many types of jewels that were on the ground and then these jewels were covering many of the people who were wearing them. Many seemed to be seeking after these jewels, and this seemed to be the primary direction or emphasis, of those who were there. The scene shifted then and where there once had been fire that was being rolled up, there was now a torrent of water. I saw a figure who was clad in rags and was desperately trying to get out of the raging river. Someone had offered the person a hand at one time, but then the figure was lost in the torrent. I looked into the river and noticed that there were many who were there. There were figures of many people who were caught-up in this torrent, and there was no one there to help pull them out. Finally at the end of this vision, I saw the figures of a few people who were holding harps and playing them. They were amidst the clouds and seemed to be oblivious to anything else that was going on around them)

“I tell you that this is the primary direction of many who are in the church. They are deceived into thinking that they will receive jewels and riches. They are oblivious to many who are lost. But they think that they have eternal salvation in Me. There is a dark figure who hovers over many in the church. This figure promises them many things. They don’t know that they are being deceived by him. “

Night Vision

Steve Lindow

20th November, 2002

I was in a hallway talking with Tony Costa, an old friend of mine and fellow pastor, also with Gary Weins, who was once associated with Tony at Gateway Fellowship in Aurora, CO. Gary is now with Mike Bickle ministering in the International House of Prayer (Worship and Intercession Ministry) in Kansas City, KS.

From when I had seen him last Gary's appearance had transformed into a youthful state. His hair was no longer gray and thin, but sandy blond and thick. He no longer wore glasses, nor did he have any sign of aging whatsoever on his face. I shared with him about what the Lord was presently doing in moving His church through a transitioning or remodeling as His intent is to make it rightly represent His kingdom and not reflect its deteriorated state of human government concepts.

Gary understood what I was talking about. I invited him to come to our church, His Beloved Family, where he replied, "I'd love too! We (those in Kansas City) have not received many invitations lately because of the recession. Mike's funds (Mike Bickle) have been cut back from 8 million to 7 million, but its sufficient to do the work." I replied, "Yea, the amount we have been given by the Lord is all relative to the ratio of what we're doing for His Kingdom."

Just then I found myself turning and talking to Jesus Himself. He said to me, "Hey, I have been remodeling my House. Would you like to see it?" I said, "Yes Lord, I'd love to see it. At that we embarked out the door of the hallway where I had formerly talked with my friends.

It seemed that just instantly we were transported to another doorway and about to descend down a stairs. The Lord lead me down and said, "Watch your head," but didn't seem to mind the architecture of the stairs Himself as he passed through smiling and knew what was about to happen. As I descended I hit my head and it bounced off a beam. I didn't seem to react in a normal way by crying out. In fact it didn't even seem to hurt. I simply recovered and followed the Lord down. He turned to me and said, "I always start in the basement. If you don't take care of the foundation at first the rest of the house isn't worth anything."

I looked around and was amazed at how huge it was. I seem to understand that it was 5,000 square feet. Five is the number of grace and also represents the five fold ministries in Ephesians 4. For the dimension to be "5000" only suggested a great multiplication of these offices and grace. The basement seemed more like an old cellar, somewhat gray with its foundation walls made of stone, but it did not have the smell of a musty old basement. In fact the air was pleasantly cool, and extremely refreshing. I smelled pure, fresh, and if holy had a smell – this was it!

The Lord led me to the center of the room and then said, "I always start under here." While he was saying that we leaned over to look through the concrete floor that was just newly poured. As the Lord explained and pointed out details of what He did, I became as one of the craftsman who was working so that I actually experienced the building as it was in progress. I found myself jack hammering the old floor up and digging down to the desired depth. Strange as it was, I actually became the jackhammer itself. Though this seemed like it was less than an instant, simultaneously, I was myself with the Lord bedding over with Him as our bodies were looking and reaching down into this subterranean level below the concrete to view another under girding structure placed just under the perimeter of the walls. It was the footing or base on which the walls rested. The Lord said, "This is the footing base necessary before the walls are secured. It looked to me to be made of concrete, but the Lord said, "It's made of humility. Without it the walls would not stand."

At that we stood upright and stood on the clean smooth concrete floor as if the former experience never happened, but the knowledge of the under girth was planted securely in my mind. Then I noticed that the vast expanse of the floor was made up of two concrete slabs. The slabs seemed to be more than the material substance of cement. They were the consistency of granite, yet I knew that it was not hewn from quarried rock. This substance was poured. I asked the Lord why there were two slabs laid for the floor. He replied, “The basement floor of every good house is poured with two slabs. One slab is faith and the other is patience. Without these two you have nothing solid to stand on.”

I began to appreciate the wisdom of the Master Architect as he continued describing the details of His craftsmanship. At this the floor I was standing on took new appreciation and I felt a joy for standing on something that seemed now to radiate a life that surged into my feet and up my legs, making me stronger to stand. His faith was my sure footing and steadfast endurance would not have me alter my stance. The Lord then directed His glance at the walls and I followed his gaze. The cold gray stones began to take definition as they revealed themselves to be in warmer tones of various shades of tans and browns, some light and some darker. As I walked closer a stone would turn into leather bound book, well worn and read. These books and stones seem to float in and out of the walls as if the walls were breathing. Simultaneously, the word “Wisdom” would appear and emerge out from between the books and stones, then evaporate in the air. Individual stones would move in and out and apart from one another then back in their place.

As they moved a brilliant golden light would radiate from between the cracks as if light itself was its flexible mortar. Jesus said, “These walls are my Apostles and Prophets. My house will always be built on the true foundation of the Apostles and Prophets. They are living epistles to be read by those who have eyes to see what my Spirit is saying to the churches.” I was overwhelmed to be in the company of those who had gone on before me who made up these beautiful living walls and felt as if I were in the company of Peace itself. These who have experienced a remodeling of their souls, a transformation of the Lord, could themselves give off a fragrance of Wisdom of which its aroma was non-flavored, but cleaner than anything I could describe. It seemed as if it where a high and privileged honor to be place with these living stones and great cloud of witnesses to the glory of the Masters craftsmanship. At the same time I knew that there were present and contemporary apostles who also made up these walls. That was the joy of the master Builder – to see that these gifts were being restored back into the foundation of His House.

Then Jesus said, “Come look at this.” He led me to a corner and showed me a very larger hewn rock, larger than any in the foundation and said, “This is where I place My Cornerstone. Many churches don’t have this in their foundation and they’re built with wrong measurements. I need to put a cornerstone in each one of them. Many of My Houses are in need of My Cornerstone.” Then He turned to me and said, “Of course, I AM the Cornerstone” and just tranquilly smiled as if He knew precisely the time chart for doing this to every remodeling project He had planned.

Then I noticed a rather uncelebrated and common knelling pad somewhat embedded in the floor in front of the Cornerstone. Jesus said, “This is where I’ve had some of my best conversations with those who have come into My House.” Just His mention of prayer to me was like receiving a royal invitation to spend time in raptured intimacy with my lover. His presence became intoxicating and even more life seemed to radiate between us in relationship. I realized that the knelling pad represented “submission” and I knew it would become one of my favorite places in the House.

At that the walls themselves seem to take on the appearance of a delicate membrane. No longer did they seem of stone but living flesh. In fact, I felt as if I was inside a lung and the room was peacefully breathing fresh revelation at every breath.

I told the Lord, “I feel so purified by breathing this wonderful fresh air.” His reply to me was, “Every breath you experience is from My Bride as she lay in my bed. When I lay by her side and she rests in complete peace, I hear each breath that she takes to be as a prayer of love to me.” At that I began literally weeping in the natural real realm as His gaze was fixed on His Beloved. I was overwhelmed by His presence next to me. Now, enthralled by wanting to become a part of this room-breathing-prayer-lung, I realized that he counts every breath I take as a prayer of love to Him.

I turned back to see the wall breathing again and thought of the warm, life-giving nature of its function and though it to be like a pumping heart. Then the Lord said, "I am the heart of My Bride. Our hearts beat in unison." Of course, I thought. Jesus must be the life-giving beat that sets the pace of our walk and the source of our strength.

Looking, no, knowing and experiencing this entire room, this basement foundation was completely different than what it appeared to be when first coming down into it. It radiated life, contentment, purpose, rest, and joy. It was a prayer closet, yet it was so full of love you felt as if you were in a bedroom designed as a perfectly manicured garden.

On the way out and back up the stairs, I noticed that their seemed to be plenty of room to ascend without having to watch out for my head. Without saying anything, the Lord responded to my thoughts and said, “Most get knocked in the head on the way down because of their misconstrued lofty thoughts. Their thinking is all distorted by self-conceived religion. It is very easy for those who have knelt down to embrace humility to come up the stairs exalted.”

I realized that my thoughts are not His thoughts and my ways are not His ways (Is. 55:8) and that He would put His thoughts into my head so that my words would come from His heart.

Is. 59:21 "And as for Me, this is My covenant with them," says the Lord: "My Spirit which is upon you, and My words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart from your mouth, nor from the mouth of your offspring, nor from the mouth of your offspring's offspring," says the Lord, "from now and forever."

Then the Lord said "I’ll show you the rest of this house at a latter time." For now, write down what I’ve shown you.”

As I came into my office to write everything, the Lord said to me “What time is it?” I looked at one clock and it said 4:22 AM. I looked at another and it said 4:26 Then He impresses me with John 4:22-26 and said, “I AM.”

John 4:22 "You worship that which you do not know; we worship that which we know, for salvation is from the Jews. John 4:23 "But an hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth; for such people the Father seeks to be His worshipers.

John 4:24 "God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."

John 4:25 "The woman said to Him, "I know that Messiah is coming He who is called Christ; when that One comes, He will declare all things to us."

John 4:26 "Jesus said to her, "I who speak to you am He."

Certainly the church is presently undergoing a grand transformation. It is in need of remodeling to rightly reflect the Spirit and Truth. The way to submit to His transformation is by falling to our knees in submission and adoration and embrace humility as our footing.

Worship Him as intimately as you know how and He will escort you into things to come.

Part 2 - Night Vision – Remodeling His Church

At the end of the first segment of the vision, the Lord said "I’ll show you the rest of this house at a latter time."

It wasn't much later that this next vision came to me. Because the Lord is so diverse in His creativity, I simply didn't recognize it for what it was. However, the Holy spirit has quickened its message to me as Jesus fulfilling His promise to continue the tour.

Continuing the Tour

The second segment of the tour began again with Jesus bringing me through another door. I've now come to understand that these doors are "gateways" of understanding. They represent an "open door" to His Wisdom and can become pathways of understanding, guidelines for implementing His will into our eternal destiny while living in this 3-D world.

Jesus led me into the naïve of an old cathedral building where there was a huge choir singing in multi-colored street clothing. The structure of the building was very Gothic, however, the presentation being presented within the structure was very upbeat contemporary. In other words, modern activates of worship where being conducted in a centuries old structure. It was the typically beautiful and professional program one might wee on American TV or in a large church. As I listened to the singing I was not aware that it was any specific or particular song – just that it was professionally sung with great poise and presentation. The choir was singing with great enthusiasm and seem to enjoy being a member or part of something well received by all listening.

Two Women

On the front row very near to us where two very unusual figures. Their appearance was very much out of place with the upbeat colorful festivity of praise. In fact, they had no color and appeared as if on black and white TV. Jesus guided me closer to these two oddities that I might gain a better look.

Both of these figures were small in stature. They were women, but horribly and grotesquely disfigured. They wore garments somewhat like shrouds. As I gained a closer look at the first woman I could see that she was a severe burn victim. Her face was terribly disfigured. She didn't seem to notice me as I heard her singing rather off-key with a very weak voice. Though barely audible, she, too, was singing the same song as the choir. Yet you could see that the origin of her worship came from a heart of suffering through perseverance. Regardless of her intense tribulation, she gave full adoration to her Lord and Savior.

Then the Lord looked me in the eye and said, "The source of her worship pleases me very much." As Jesus reveled His pleasure in her heart of rejoicing, I understood that to offer God true worship that is pleasing to Him, it isn't about us or the emotional pleasure we gain or the knowledge of dutifully offering him "His due praise." True worship is about denying ourselves of what we want to get out of worship and giving God with what pleases Him.

Jesus allowed me to experience the delight He was taking as she was steadfast in her praises to Him. It was so pure and filled with joy, ...yet I was distracted by the second figure.

Perfect Praise

The second women was even smaller in stature. Her face resembled the texture of charred pottery, porous and stone-like. Her face was hard and more skull-like rather than skin covered. As I gazed at her face I could not see her eyes as they were empty sockets. The only part of her face that moved or showed any form of life was her mouth or jaw which went up and down like a hinged puppet in beat with the music. Leaning near her I could hear no sound coming from her mouth. She seemed to me like a walking tomb, but with her countenance there was utter peace and no possibility of further fear of death. In fact, whatever she encountered in her life caused complete death to her. I could not understand how she even had the ability to stand and conduct herself in praise.

Then Jesus came near to me. He didn't look me in the eye as He did with the first women. In fact, He could not keep his eyes of this wretched figure of a woman. He swooned with passion as if mesmerized by her beauty. He spoke so softly and gently as not to interrupt her presentation and simply voiced, “This - is perfect praise.” I quickly sensed an intimacy between Jesus and this woman that surpassed any other love or expression of praise I had ever known. She was enthralled in worshiping her lover and He lavished in her devotion as only He could understand. Somehow, in the progress of her life, she denied anything and everything of her own will that she might give herself to Him without spot or wrinkle.

At that the vision was over.

Interpretation

I did not recognize the meaning of the vision or see it as the continuation of the promised “tour” of His remodeled House until I told it to my wife, Mary. She said, “I think God showed you the next level above the foundation.”

Truly, God is restructuring His house as being built on the foundation of the apostle and prophet. He is using the network of all fivefold office gifts to equip the whole body “to build itself up in love.” (Eph 4; 16) The result is that the visible, “above ground” structure is being transformed in heart from industrial religious, cathedral-like performances to intimate adoration. This adoration is reflected from a pure heart and does not even require an audible voice for its expression of devotion. We are destined to be His tabernacle and radiate praise according to the standards of His Kingdom.

Allow me to describe this by using the Old Testament Tabernacle as a reference. In truth, that is all it was ever intended to be - a mirror of what is fully expressed in heaven.

The Outer Court

The Outer Court is equivalent in the Church Age to coming into salvation. It is proclaiming that Jesus is Lord and it joyfully accepts all that He did for us in atonement, but remaining only in this Outer Court merely sustains a limited relationship with the Trinity. Our contribution into a relationship with Christ remains infantile in its progression. Outer Court worship and relationship is very interested in what Jesus did for us. It supports and defends Jesus as the one true God. However, Outer Court relationships are very shallow and represent the majority of man-modified Christianity today. It supports and defends its own will rather than fully yielding to the will of the Father. It walks in the light, but that light is very often incoherent, such as when one turns an a light bulb and appreciates the general light-spread in a room.

We certainly enjoy what has been provided for us on the Cross, but we are not yet willing to follow in the Master’s footsteps. The reason for the Outer Court is to lead one into the Holy Place where the candle stand, the Truth of God, illuminates our soul. The candle stand represents the Lord’s obedient church, for if the seven churches in Revelations did not heed to His Truth, their candle stand way threatened to be removed. The absolute Truth of the Lord is to the submissive believer a coherent light, such as one experiences with a laser beam having a consecrated direction. If Jesus is Lord, then He is leader and we obey Him when he tells us, “Follow me!”

The only other light we have in the Outer Court is provided by the fire at the altar of sacrifice. If we are to follow Christ then we too, must take up our Cross by where sin is crucified in our flesh. [I am in no way suggesting here that we can become our own savior. On the contrary, I join with Paul in His statement to the church at Colossi. “Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I do my share on behalf of His body (which is the church) in filling up that which is lacking in Christ's afflictions.” Col. 1:24] By yielding to this Baptism of Fire, we willing walk into the refiner’s fire where all impurities are extracted. Further, we purpose to spend our life for the benefit of others as Christ did for us. This and this only is the type of Bride the captures His attention.

Allow me to give you a second confirmation of this from the book of Hebrews:

Heb. 9:8-10 The Holy Spirit is signifying this, that the way into the holy place has not yet been disclosed, while the outer tabernacle is still standing, which is a symbol for the present time. Accordingly both gifts and sacrifices are offered which cannot make the worshiper perfect in conscience, since they relate only to food and drink and various washings, regulations for the body imposed until a time of reformation.

I'll give my contemporary version: "The Holy Spirit is signifying this, that the way into the Holy Place has not yet been fully embraced by the Professional Cathedral-like Church, though some may be organized as non-denominational, independent charismatic. We have not surrendered our own Outer Court will or way of life to the coherent directives of the Father's will. Therefore, the church's lack of power is a symbol of the present time. Accordingly both gifts and sacrifices (of praise) offered to God (well within our comfort levels) cannot make the worshipper perfect in due to the lack of spiritual commitment from his conscience. They are just suitable regulations for the body of Christ imposed until a time of reformation of a pure and mature relationship to Christ. Just as the offering of bulls and goats, washings of the body, and offering gifts did not give Israel access to the Holy Place, and was a symbol of their time, similarly, worship presented with a benign sense of surrender is very shallow. This mediocre attitude must be placed on the altar of fire.

This is not dissimilar from what A. W. Tozer wrote in his Dark, Dark Night of the Soul.

Yes, there is a dark night of the soul. There are few Christians willing to go into this dark night and that is why there are so few who enter into the light. It is impossible for them ever to know the morning because they will not endure the night. In The Cloud of Unknowing, we have been told: "This work asketh no long time before it be truly done, as some men think, for it is the shortest work of all that men may imagine. It is neither longer nor shorter, but even according to the stirring that is within thee, even thy will. The stirring within us often is not enough. There are too many other factors, there is not yet a vacuum within, a prepared place into which the Holy Spirit may come and be at home."

I think the more we learn of God and His ways and of man and his nature we are bound to reach the conclusion that we are all just about as holy as we want to be. We are all just about as full of the Spirit as we want to be. Thus when we tell ourselves that we want to be more holy but we are really as holy as we care to be, it is small wonder that the dark night of the soul takes so long! The reason why many are still troubled, still seeking, still making little forward progress is because they have not yet come to the end of themselves. We are still giving some of the orders, and we are still interfering with God's working within us.

We struggle to keep up a good front, forgetting that God says the most important thing is for us to be humble and meek as Christ gave us example. It seems that Christians are obsessed with keeping up that good front. We say we want to go to heaven when we die to see old Jordan roll, but we spend most of our time and energy down here just putting on that good front. It seems that many of us say to God, as did King Saul the apostate before us, "Oh God, honor me now before these people!"

Those who live in this state of perpetual contradiction cannot be happy Christians. A man who is always on the cross, just piece after piece, cannot be happy in that process. But when that man takes his place on the cross with Jesus Christ once and for all, and commends his spirit to God, lets go of everything and ceases to defend himself —sure, he has died, but there is a resurrection that follows! If we are willing to go this route of victory with Jesus Christ, we cannot continue to be mediocre Christians, stopped halfway to the peak. Until we give up our own interests, there will never be enough stirring within our beings to find His highest will.

To experience His House built or re-structured according to the plan or pattern of heaven requires that all component building materials be proven by trial (or by fire). It is we who must volunteer of free will to face the dark part of our soul. - the self ruling, self-appeased level of commitment as our offering of worship. In reference to the vision, it is not that God rejects the “street-wise” version of our praise, but for the most part, the Outer Court of His tabernacle is the good and acceptable part of our union with Him.

Rom. 12:1-2 I urge you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, {which is} your spiritual service of worship. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect.

For myself, I am not satisfied to present my life to my King as a form of “discount worship” commitment so as to cheapen the value of the Cross. Rejecting the full package of “dying to self “can only merit the reward of hay, wood and stubble and be an embarrassment to Jesus when displaying the fruit of His works before the Father. Most of the Church has wrongly accepted that joining in corporate praise is the highest format of expressing our devotion to its maximum potential. After all, we read of corporate praise in the Old & New Testament and are given glimpses of devotion in Revelations. Worshipping corporately has always been a magnificent thrill to me. However, worship is best received by the Lord on His terms, when it is sacrificial and presented at our highest expense.

What God is intending to do during this re-structuring of His Church is to instill a Reformation of how we worship Him. We are to look eagerly into how we might follow in His footsteps. By this we will move from the Outer Court self-centeredness and into the Holy Place of power. Denying our self-life even unto death is “perfect worship” to Him. “For God inhabits the praises of His people.” Cathedral-style religious performance goes unnoticed by God because that type of “worship” is for us more than Him.

Certainly, many of us have suffered as “burn victims” from others. How we chose to respond to those offenses determines the “structure” of our heart and whether it is dispensary of revenge or mercy. The atmosphere we create within ourselves either invites or repulses the habitation of our God.

Therefore, the components of His house, built upon biblical foundation, consists of pure devotion and obedience at any cost. Jesus said, "And why do you call Me, 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do what I say?” - Luke 6:46.

So consider these verses:

“The law of the Lord (the law of love) is perfect, restoring the soul; The testimony of the Lord (a devoted life of faith) is sure, making wise the simple.” (Ps. 19:7)

“For I am confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus.” (Phil. 1:6)

“Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, have this attitude; and if in anything you have a different attitude, God will reveal that also to you; (Phil. 3:15)

The House of God is evident by the nature of its character. A “religious” attitude is a mockery of perfect love. If we love God just for what He does and not for who He is, our relationship is centered around self. To mature and become perfect in our adoration we also must “learn obedience through the things which we suffer.” (Heb. 5:8).

“For it was fitting for Him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to perfect the author of their salvation through sufferings. (Heb. 2:10)

"A pupil is not above his teacher; but everyone, after he has been fully trained, will be like his teacher.”

(Luke 6:40)

"For indeed when we were with you, we kept telling you in advance that we were going to suffer affliction; and so it came to pass, as you know." (1 Thess. 3:4)

"For this reason I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have believed and I am convinced that He is able to guard what I have entrusted to Him until that day." (2 Tim. 1:12)

"Therefore, let those also who suffer according to the will of God entrust their souls to a faithful Creator in doing what is right." (1 Pet. 4:19)

Attaining Perfect Adoration

None of us would sing-up to suffer on purpose. Yet, if we have made the decision to become disciples of Truth, we know that the refining fire is part of the perfecting process. To avoid this baptism of fire is to deny Christ and walk away from Him as did many in John 6.

John 6:65-66 And He was saying, "For this reason I have said to you, that no one can come to Me, unless it has been granted him from the Father." As a result of this many of His disciples withdrew, and were not walking with Him anymore.

We cannot create God in our own image and expect our worship to be acceptable in His sight. The Father desires that we made a bride without spot or wrinkle. Though badly burned in one case and having the appearance of death in the other, this Bride had no spot or wrinkle – no more attraction to indulge into the things of the flesh. She was fully purified. She only awaited resurrection's touch. The same Spirit that raised Christ from the dead dwelled in her.

Rev. 19:7 "Let us rejoice and be glad and give the glory to Him, for the marriage of the Lamb has come and His bride has made herself ready."

James 1:4 And let endurance have its perfect result, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.

1 Pet. 5:10 And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who called you to His eternal glory in Christ, will Himself perfect, confirm, strengthen and}establish you.

1 John 4:18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves punishment, and the one who fears is not perfected in love.

As to this second vision and its relationship to God remodeling His House and, in reference to the first vision, - that which is built upon the foundation of the apostles and the prophets is a house built with living stones, stones that have been tried in the fire, stones that have yielded and surrendered in full to the King. We, as living stones are rightfully measured from the Cornerstone. That has two meanings. Placement and quality of character.

As with most visions, there are other interpretations. I have gained more insight on the first than formerly reported. I pray that God may also give you revelation and lure you closer to His heart as the eyes of your heart are opened to His calling you.

Please feel free to share this vision or forward it to friends, but only in its entirety.

All prophecy is subject to interpretation and judgment.

Native Leaders Go To White House

Flo Ellers

Seven Native American Leaders go to White House

(Left to right) Dr. Flo E. Ellers, (Tlingit/Cherokee Tribes) author of the “Proclamation of Forgiveness”; Rev. Dewey Kirstein, III, (Cherokee) ordained with Goshen Ministries, Inc.; Rev. M. George Kallappa, Sr., (Makah Tribe), Superintendent of the American Indian Fellowship of the NW Ministry Network of the Assemblies of God; Chief G. Anne Richardson, Chief of the Rappahannock Tribe of the Powhatan Nations of Virginia; Mr. Ruben Barrales, Deputy Assistant to President Bush and Director of Intergovernmental Affairs; Rev. Linda S. Doxtator (Cherokee); Rev. Ivan Doxtator (Oneida of the Iroquois Confederacy); Bishop Glen W. Anniskette, (Tlingit Tribe), Bishop in Church of God, Cleveland, TN.

Rev. G. Anne Richardson, Chief of the Rappahannock Tribe of the Powhatans is a group of eight state recognized tribes descending from those natives who first met Capt. John Smith in 1607, negotiated treaties with the King of England, and helped the first permanent English settlement survive in America.

Rev. Ivan Doxtator is Oneida from the Iroquois Confederacy. The Oneida were the first allies ever of the United States. It was the Oneida warriors and their women that broke through British lines at Valley Forge and took supplies to George Washington and his troops.

The Great Law of the Iroquois Confederacy was the model for the Declaration of Independence and the young American Government. The Iroquois were present in 1776 at the development and signing of this historic document. Therefore, as a representative of his tribe, Rev. Doxtator carries much authority in the heavenlies to release this forgiveness.

History of the "Proclamation of Forgiveness": Dr. Flo Ellers was asked to be the Native American Indian Representative during the "2nd Washington for Jesus" rally in 1996 where 500,000 Christians from across the United States gathered at the Washington Mall in WA. D. C. to pray for this nation.

As she was in prayer for her 10-minute time allotment to address the nation from the Washington Mall grounds, she was moved upon by the Holy Spirit and wrote under His inspiration the words to the "Proclamation of Forgiveness". [See attachment 2]

Approximately a year ago, Flo once again sensed she was to try a second time to present the "Proclamation" to now elected President Bush. After nine years of trying to get a presidential appointment, Dr. Ellers, along with the help of State Senator Greenleaf of Pennsylvania got an appointment not with Pres. Bush but with his deputy assistant, Mr. Ruben Barrales, Director of Intergovernmental Affairs. The meeting was set for October 4, 2005, which fell on the Jewish holiday of Rosh HaShanah. She with her team of six other First Nations Christian leaders met with Mr. Barrales at 10am.

Each team member was given five minutes to present their words for the President along with their Native gifts. Each member spoke with dignity as they made their presentations to Mr. Barrales as he respectfully listened to them and accepted each gift with grace.

When Flo Ellers spoke, she stood up at the direction of the Lord and addressed Mr. Barrales with great honor. She thanked him for meeting with them and then said to him, "You are sitting in proxy for our nation's 'Chief' so I will address you as if you were the President of our nation. Our team represents the Native Christian community and we have come here to declare forgiveness on behalf of our people in the Name of Jesus."

When Dr. Ellers read the "Proclamation of Forgiveness" she spoke with authority but began to lose composure as she got to the part in the Proclamation where it says in Paragraph Nine, "Instead you force-marched them onto reservations and all their dignity was stripped from them—all hope for a future was gone." But the last paragraph was delivered with renewed strength as she looked into the eyes of Mr. Barrales and asked, "We believe if you will ACCEPT this Proclamation of Forgiveness we will see and experience a mighty outpouring of God's Presence that will affect all of the United States and then we will truly be ONE NATION UNDER GOD."

Flo then presented the properly framed document to Mr. Barrales who was visibly shaken by this prophetic act. His eyes were glistening with tears and he said, "Oh, you have had it framed for the President? I am impressed." He then asked her if he could give her a hug.

Dr. Ellers then concluded her remarks by asking the group to hold hands as a symbol of their unity and Mr. Barrales grabbed her hand with great firmness as she prayed for President Bush to be released further into his godly destiny and for a deeper impartation of Godly wisdom for him; and for the grace and the peace of the Lord to be multiplied upon his life. She then declared, as a representative of the host people of this nation, that the curse be broken off this nation and asked the heavenly Father to roll back the reproach and to once again bless America. She rehearsed back to the Lord what His Word declares in John 20:21-23 which says, "As the Father has sent Me, I also send you… [and] if you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them…" She declared with apostolic authority, "We now forgive the United States government for what they have done to us" and she asked the Lord to now release the goodness of the Lord upon America for the Word declares in Rom 2:4 that the "…goodness of the Lord leads to repentance" and concluded by asking the Lord of the Harvest to release laborers onto the reservations, the cities and upon the entire nation so that we might see a mighty revival in the land."

The atmosphere was charged with the Presence of the Lord as Mr. Barrales responded by thanking each of us for our words and for the Proclamation. He asked us for our business cards and said he would be corresponding with us for future involvement. A new era has begun between the tribal governments and the government of the United States.

For the group of seven Native Americans, it was a most moving moment forever etched in their memories for no other band of Indian Leaders have ever gone to the White House to address the Nation's Chief and say to him, "We forgive you for what you have done to us in the past!". Each leader presented his/her words and Native gifts but the greatest gift presented that day of Oct. 4th was the "gift of forgiveness".

Heaven has declared this historic declaration and the fruit of it will be the salvation of many souls and who knows, perhaps it will help to release the third great awakening in our nation.

[This PRESS RELEASE is not to be changed, added to or deleted without the express permission of Dr. Flo Ellers. You may contact her at floellers@comcast.net or phone her office: 360.532.0490.]

After the meeting with Mr. Barrales, the team of seven was escorted to the "Treaty Room" on the fourth floor of the Eisenhower Building and they each prayed in their own way for the 372 broken treaties between the Red Man and the US Government. Truly a new era has begun in the relationship between these heads of nations.

New Move of God

"Transitioning Into a New Move of God"

Revelation Into Transition
For some time now, I have noticed the number 11 appearing everywhere I go. I look at the clock and it is 11:11. I pick up my Bible and it falls open to chapter 11, and so on. As this was happening, I recognized that God was speaking to me, but I really did not know exactly what He was trying to communicate. Symbolically, the number 11 represents transition and revelation. I believe that God is giving deeper revelation into the transition that the Church is now beginning to experience.

Throughout history, God has sent revival and major movements that seem to ebb and flow like the tides of the sea. Just as we can predict the tidal patterns, I believe that if we study the history of revivals we will find patterns and great lessons that will prepare us for future moves.

As I began studying revival in North America, I noticed that since Israel became a nation in 1948, a major move of God's power would occur every 11 years or so beginning in 1950. Interestingly, you can follow this 11-year pattern from the 1906 Azusa Street Revival up to the beginning of the Toronto Blessing in 1994.

History of Revival in North America

In 1950, there was an incredible Healing Movement in which God anointed great healing evangelists like William Branham, AA Allen, Oral Roberts, and many others. They would actually empty out hospitals and bring the sick to tent meetings where thousands of people were miraculously healed. Within a few years, the intensity of this healing movement subsided.

11 years later around 1961, the Charismatic Renewal movement kicked into high gear. Previously only Pentecostals sought the fullness of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. During this move of God, Methodists, Catholics, Presbyterians, and many other denominational Christians began getting filled with the Holy Spirit.

Again, 11 years after that, in 1972, God answered the prayers of many people and sent the last known revival in America: The Jesus People movement. Hippies began to give their lives to Jesus and they poured into churches everywhere. Unfortunately, many Christians did not recognize this movement as being from God and rejected it. The hippies forever changed the way we experience church services by introducing culturally relevant music and casual attire which allows people to come just as they are.

Then, another 11 years passed and, in 1983, John Wimber and Peter Wagner came together and began teaching a course at Fuller Seminary on Signs and Wonders of God for today (Course MC510). They introduced the idea that the gifts of the Holy Spirit and the power of God was not just for a few anointed leaders, but for every Christian who sought them. This was known as the 3rd Wave Charismatic Movement and started many new charismatic churches such as the Vineyard Christian Fellowship.

11 years later in 1994, God brought a very unusual move called the Toronto Blessing. The Holy Spirit began to touch people with laughter and power. Millions of people from all over the planet have visited the Toronto Airport Church and their lives have been renewed.

2005: An Exciting Time to Be Alive!

If we add 11 more years, we come to 2005. I believe we are just beginning to see the start of this next move of God which is an evangelistic harvest like the earth has never seen before. God is beginning to draw the most strange and unusual people to Himself. This is evident by the responses we are getting as we do evangelistic outreaches on the streets and at major New Age and pagan events such as Burning Man. People are giving their lives to Jesus, yet many of them are not able to identify with traditional churches.

Just as in previous moves of God, many Christians may be tempted to reject what God is doing because it appears messy. If we take history into account, when God moves, it is usually outside of our own understanding and comfort level.

This is an exciting time to be alive! We can prepare for this next move of God by being ready to show God's love to anyone in need. Pray that we have "eyes to see" who it is God is drawing and that we have "ears that hear" what the Spirit is saying to each of them. The result may very well be one of the biggest revivals in human history!

"Then He [Jesus] said to them, 'The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.'" Luke 10:2 NKJV

No Offense

Don’t Take Offense, Don’t Give Offense

John 16:1, “These things have I spoken unto you that ye should not be offended.”

“I don’t want My children offended. So don’t take offense and don’t give offense. I’ve given you all that you need to be free of offense. Be willing to take on the role of servant. Follow the example I have shown you. Be willing to lay down your life. Lay down whatever you have are holding on to in order to demonstrate love to others. Follow My example and love others as I love you. Follow My example in loving even when others fail you, betray you, deny you or neglect you. Love with My love.

“Follow My example and do not reveal the identities of those who sin against you. Don’t reveal their sins publicly. Keep it a matter between us. Bring everything to Me in Prayer. Take their place and intercede for them while acting out My love toward them.

“Do not live in worry or fear. Do not fret over what anyone is doing or what they are not doing. Trust Me. Trust the Father, God. Do all that I have done and more.

Do greater works of service. Do greater acts of love. Ask for what you need. Ask for My love to fill you and overflow. Ask for a servant heart and then go and serve your brother and sister, your family and friends, your neighbors and the stranger in the way.

“Lay down your life and take up Mine. Lay down your life to serve others. Stay connected to Me. Draw from My wells of love. Draw from My strength. Go and love. Go and serve. Lay down your opinions, and don’t think your way is the only way, don’t try to have your own way, but do things My way. Do everything My way by allowing others to be who I’ve called them to be.

“Prefer others above yourself. Be willing to lift another up in loving service to Me, esteeming others before yourself. This is how to be free of offense. This is My plan for freedom. If you will lay your life down for others, die to your own selfish ways, your own opinions, and your own desires, then you will be dead to offense. And remember whatever you do to the least of My children you’ve done to Me.”

This verse in the RV says: “… that you should not be made to stumble.” The NLT says, “I have told you these things so that you won’t fall away.”

Nothing Hidden

Judy Curmi

Why don’t you let me decide, Judy? I know so much more than you do. In areas where you have no wisdom, knowledge or understanding, I know everything there is to know about the subject. Nothing escapes my scrutiny. There is absolutely nothing that can be hidden from my gaze.

Many men are doing things "in the dark", but no matter how deep the darkness, I can still see as clearly as if it were broad day light.

Nothing is hidden from me. There is no situation or plan of man that I can not turn the tables on. Some of the most evil plans being devised, I am going to turn inside out. Instead of the victims being the injured or destroyed, those perpetrators will find themselves the recipients of their own evil. This is not too hard for me to do!

Nor am I weak or indecisive. Many have taken my mercy, grace and great patience as a sign that they can do whatever they want with total impunity. Nothing could be further from the truth. The lies will be exposed. The evil will be exposed. I will bring it down in my perfect timing.

The flowers of the field have their day and then they fade. The jaded and jaundiced are in "full bloom" now, but they will mourn and weep when I am done with them. MY children shall rule and reign. I shall raise MY children up on high.

As the pieces of a puzzle fit together perfectly, so MY Plan is perfectly devised and will be executed to perfection. NO MORE WILL MAN BE RULED BY DOGS: THE VILE, VIOLENT, GREEDY AND PERVERSE.

A new day is dawning and is even now beginning to unfold. As the sun begins to rise and gradually the whole sky is brightened, so my glory will cover the earth. NO ONE WILL ESCAPE MY ETERNAL PLAN.

Numerics of the Church

by Bill Somers

Quoting from Theomatics, 1st edition
by Del Washburn, Page 235

Recently a correspondent asked me about the meaning of the number 777. We know that 666 is the number of the beast, and 888 is the number of Jesus, so what is 777. I recalled reading an answer to this question in Del Washburn's great book, Theomatics.

This extract comes in the midst of a chapter devoted to the meaning of 144, the number of the redeemed.

> One of the most significant terms in relation to all of the redeemed is the word Church. . The Greek word for Church means "an assembly, or gathering of believers."
> In going through the New Testament, we found very few features in reference to the Church that worked out to multiples of 144. This puzzled us at first, but then we discovered the reason why. Everything to do with the Church was structured on the number seven, which bespeaks perfection.
> The Church in Mt. 16:18 =700.
> The real significance of this, however, was discovered in the book of Revelation. The entire message of the Apocalypse is structured around John writing to the seven Churches in Asia. The reason there were seven churches is that the Church has been made perfect through the blood of Christ.
> Seven churches in Asia in Rev. 1:4 =777
> The Church of God is also portrayed throughout scripture as the tabernacle, or building, of God. Here now are three features that tie together perfectly.
> Church of God in 1 Tim. 3:15 =777
> Tabernacle of God in Rev. 21:3 = 777
> Building of God in 1 Cor. 3:9 =777
> Probably the one verse in the Bible that best portrays the perfection of the Church is found in Ephesians 5:27. We have already seen how this passage was a multiple of 144. Let us now examine it again.
>
> Church not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that it may be holy and unblemished

= 7777

That is all Del had to say about 777 at that time. But I was extremely impressed, especially by the last feature he mentions.

My correspondent had asked me 4 questions about the number 777, as I was answering the 4th question, I felt the answer was inspired so I am sharing it with you here.

The Four Questions about the number 777:
a. What does it mean?

777 stands for the church in perfection.

b. How is it connected to biblical prophecy?

I take it to be a prophecy that the church will in fact come to perfection.

c. Is there any written documentation to what it means and if so where can I find it? the bible does not mention it anywhere that I can tell.

I refer you to Del Washburn's book. You can check on the World Wide Web at www.theomatics.com

d. Is there any documentation that this number will be assign to person to indicate or bare witness that biblical prophecy is going to come true.

No. This number is the number of the church in perfection. Therefore when the church does come to perfection that will be a sign that the rest of biblical prophecy is going to come true.

God said: I know everyday that as you took up your cross the enemy was there to tear the cross down. I know that each day that you stepped forward in faith the enemy was there to hinder your faith. But I have been with you My children. I have been with you all the way. I am bringing you step-by-step; day-by-day; hour-by-hour; minute-by-minute through the trials, tribulations and storms that have been coming your way. I am asking you tonight to step down off of that lofty place that satan has tried to take you to and I am asking you to step into My Glory; into My Strength and into My Power, into My Divine Love and to go forth and do a great and mighty and powerful work for Me.

I have said it before and I will say it again, the enemy is finished in your life. That you are truly walking in total victory. Do not allow the enemy to come and bombard you in any area of your life ever again. You raise up a standard! You say to the enemy you will go this far and no further! You tell the enemy he is through in your life! You tell the enemy you are now going to serve Me and only Me! You set the standard, and raise the banner high. Raise the banner high. It has cost you much to come this far. Some of you have lost everything and some of you feel like there is no hope for tomorrow. But I tell you That even though the storm still rages; even though the enemy is roaring like a lion, he cannot touch you ever again.

I have given you My Shield (which is My Son.) I have given you My Buckler (which is My Son.) He will see you through. I promise you this, He will see you through.

Stand tall and stand firm and know that I am with you. Know that I am an everlasting father and I have never left you nor forsaken you, and even though the enemy still comes and still comes and still comes, I HAVE COME! I have come to return it all. I promise you this, I am going to return it. Trust in Me with all your heart tonight and yield not to your own understanding. Just trust Me, and know that I am working it all out. Know that I have a perfect plan laid out before you, and you will see great salvation. You will see great salvation within your lives, and you will see that all My promises are yes and they are amen, and that the enemy is truly finished in your life.

He has stripped you bare, and this is good, because I can redress you. I redress you in My fine white linen. I can dress you as My Bride. I can dress you now. The enemy is finished and now I shall begin saith the Lord. I shall begin newness in your life.

Its Time To Set Sail And Navigate Through The Waters Of Change --
Danny Korakas
Aug 24, 2005

MAPPING OUR COURSE

There has been and will certainly continue to be a lot of writings and discussions concerning the contrast of leadership between Saul and David. The arising of a Davidic order of leadership and authority is upon us. However, our navigation through the waters of change will be essential to the church's health and well-being. The transition from the "Order of Saul" to the "Davidic order" must be navigated through the wisdom and guidance of God's Word.

The issue at hand is not so much the "Saul's" that have abused their authority and mandate, but the RESPONSE of the "David's" toward the present situation that the Saul's have created. I write this in response to the witnessing of many people who seem to delight in seeing the defects in individuals within the church. The blatant disrespect for authority that is transpiring in the church is a prime indicator of our true spiritual maturity. Upon seeing Saul's true colors, David chose not to stay in Saul's camp. We also have this same choice. It seems that many are finding pleasure staying in the "Camp of the Sauls" — judging and criticizing rather than simply and honorably leaving. (See our "Breaking Away" article.) Leaving a "Saul-based" leadership gets the point across with much more impact than stimulating a frustrated and divisive environment by staying.

Even though Saul sought to "kill" the destiny of his faithful servant, David did not curse or gossip about Saul by the words he spoke nor the actions he took. On the contrary, David respected Saul's authority even when he was persecuted under that authority. It would be the spiritual maturity of David that God would find worthy of true leadership and spiritual promotion. Now, before you jump to any conclusions, let's finish the article with a teachable spirit. I am not pardoning or condoning the leadership of Saul, but can God use "Saul's" in the church to fulfill a far greater purpose than we may realize? Can God use the faults and mistakes of those in authority to expose the true condition of OUR hearts?

NAVIGATING THE WATERS

We read in the "Autumn Trees Without Fruit" article (You can pull this article up by going to our injesus site: www.watermarkministry.injesus.com and type in the article name and click "message.") Cain had to plow the soil that God had cursed. Likewise, after the flood, Noah would have to cultivate the cursed ground. The Bible says that Noah planted a vineyard and after drinking too much of his own labor, he retired in his drunkenness to his tent and removed his clothes — passing out naked.

Ham, Noah's youngest son, entered the tent and saw his father's nakedness. Immediately, Ham ran and told his brothers, Shem and Japheth. (We notice that Ham ONLY told "family.") Did this excuse Ham? I suppose that Ham told his brothers of their father's "drunk as a skunk" condition along with this deplorable situation for the purpose of feeling better about his own inadequacies. (Isn't this the reason why people desire to gossip or make others look bad?) I believe it was Ham's disposition and nature to SHOW his brothers their father naked and exposed. How else would Noah have known that it was Ham who disgraced him? He knew because of Ham's nature and the fact that he awoke to a "COVERING" that Ham was not mature enough to have given.

When Shem and Japheth heard what had happened, they took a blanket or a garment to cover Noah and walked backwards so they would not disgrace their father in his nakedness. When Noah awoke from his drunken slumber, he knew what Ham had done and proclaimed a CURSE over his descendants. (Read Genesis 9.) How can we explain the fact that Ham's seemingly minor transgression brought severe consequences, whereas Noah's drunkenness brought none that is recorded in the Bible? This is a question that we must answer as we navigate the waters of prophetic and ministerial change that is upon us. Our true anointing and spiritual maturity hinges upon the understanding and answer of this question.

It should be obvious that the moral shortcomings of Noah became a TEST of maturity to his three sons. Ham was proven through this unfortunate circumstance to be foolish and presumptuous. Shem and Japheth, although not approving of the circumstance, were found to be honorable and would not so much as speak a critical word knowing that Noah was in the hands of God -- The Righteous Judge.

The danger with the "Ham's" in today's church is that they attempt to openly discredit others in spiritual authority when no sin has been committed. This mindset provided Ham with a shallow EXCUSE to disobey his father whenever he desired or when he believed it was contrary to HIS opinion. The same can hold true with us. By openly and personally discrediting authority, we feel free to cast off restraint and demand release from godly submission. We become an impostor of God in our desire to be the Righteous Judge.

STORMY SEAS

Now, with all of the abuses and nonsense that we are witnessing in all areas of ministry, I can understand the frustration and even anger with what is transpiring. I am just as appalled that "leaders" in the church have somehow forgotten the verse that we are to "submit to one another in the fear of the Lord" in their lust for control. I am saddened by the neglect of the Word of God for the fanciful and irrelevant stories of man. However, this does not excuse us to take on the spirit of Ham. We need to prophesy truth and confront sin in the church as prophetic people. This IS our Biblical and primary call: declaring REPENTANCE. However, if we desire to JUDGE another personally, we risk the "Curse of Ham" if our motive is to discredit and damage out of a form of self-righteousness, spiritual insecurity or just simple opinion. Most of the personal criticism that I see in the church is not about doctrinal error or heresy. It is the OPINION of how one feels that church ought to be done.

Noah, as a spiritual leader, did not set a good example for a generation that had the opportunity to start over and anew what the preceding generations had abused. This is tragic when you really think about what was at stake. (Humanity had moved into a type of being born-again to fulfill God's intended purpose for our lives. In other words, humanity was given a second chance.) However, God would still use this event for the purpose of revealing the true heart condition of these three men that would father the future of mankind. Shem and Japheth honored Noah by choosing not to shame him in public and received a blessing from both God and Noah. These two wise sons, along with David, understood that these issues were the Lord's and not theirs to deal with. The same test and opportunity is upon us today as born again believers. How are we going to handle the exposure of misguided authority that will increase in manifestation as we move into 2005? Will we pray or judge?

THE VOICE OF MANY WATERS

"Who are you, O man, that fails to see the log in your own eye? Am I beneath what I have ordained and decreed before the days of your birth? Is My arm so short as not to reach and replace what I have set for a season? Who are you, O man, that takes My place as judge over My church and affairs? You seek to unmask and expose those whom you perceive to preach another gospel, but are you not in need of being exposed yourself for wielding My scepter? Who has given you this authority, My child? Will you avoid the correction that you so easily render to another? Peace, be still, for I am the Lord your God and I hold the bowls of authority in My hand. I give and I take to whom I choose for My good purposes and will not be mocked by another. Lay down your crowns, My dear children, and find rest in what I have called YOU to do — to love one another just as I have loved you. The world will know that you are My disciples by your love for one another. Truly, iron sharpens iron. But are you using the sword of My Spirit to prepare one another for the battle with darkness or to hurt one another?

RED SKIES AT NIGHT

The Scriptures have a lot to say about the "last days." I firmly believe that we are in the last days and that they will be both awesome and immensely frightful. It will be awesome in that the greatest harvest of all time will be received by our generation. (This is why we are experiencing the expediting of necessary change.) It will be exceedingly frightful in that God will judge iniquity (first, in the church) in His righteousness.

2 Timothy 3:1 states that "there will be terrible times in the last days." This warning is brought to our remembrance over and over in the scriptures. It seems that the over-riding analogy to these "terrible days" is not tyrannical governments, but DECEPTION within the church. The reason that so many authentic prophets are calling for DISCERNMENT in the body of Christ, is because the Lord has revealed to them the magnitude of how deception has crippled the effectiveness of the church.

The power of deception severely injures and even kills a person's destiny because they are deceived into believing that they are absolutely right, when in fact they have proven to be wrong. Jesus clearly warns us, "Take heed that no one deceives you."

HIGH SEAS PIRATES

We discussed the lawlessness and curse that comes with unjustified criticism and judgment of the brethren in authority at the top of the article. However, there are always two sides to a coin. Many in authority have become "pirates" of the destinies of whom the Lord has called them to SERVE.

"But be doers of the Word, and not HEARERS only, deceiving yourselves." (James 1:22)

Certainly, most in authority have HEARD the cry in the Spirit for them to equip the saints for the work of ministry. This calls for a leadership that is willing to facilitate and train the body of Christ as their primary call. How does control of the pulpit with a singular vision enhance and build the many visions of what others are called to do? Surely they have HEARD that the institution that so much of the church has become has been built by the traditions of man. (Many people don't come to church because they have already been there once. We must face the reality of this truth.) What is the fruit of simply going through the motions of religious traditions, a few hymns or songs, an offering, and a 30 minute message? Is this building the kingdom of God and equipping people for their spiritual destiny ... and one shot at storing up eternal treasure? Saul was consumed with building an earthly kingdom that resembled the worldly kingdoms around him. On the other hand, David was consumed with people experiencing the presence and power of God's kingdom in a real and tangible way.

Surely they have HEARD that sitting upon platforms on chairs that resemble ornate thrones and looking down on the people they are called to serve is not the posture of a servant. Is this the place of a "servants" call from God? Surely they have HEARD that the "orator – audience" and "clergy – laity" model is corrupt, divisive, and unbiblical. Why do we continue to rebel against the true "Lord's Prayer" in that we would be ONE by our systems of governmental hierarchies that resemble the world's system for power and recognition? Surely they have HEARD that only Christ is to be most revered as "reverend". Why must we continue in the spirit of Saul and cling to our titles that are meaningless? Is it not our function rather than our title that validates our ministry? The Davidic order knows that there is only One who can claim to be "Most revered."

Surely, they have HEARD that those whom they have been called to "lead" have not "led" one person to Christ. Surely they have HEARD that the system they are promoting because of their silence is spiritually bankrupt and ineffectual with little relevance to a lost world. Surely they have HEARD that My Word is not for sale and profit. Yet, deception continues to run rampant "because they did not receive the love of the TRUTH." (2 Thessalonians 2:10) To love the truth of what is really transpiring in the church is not just to HEAR it, but to obey in DOING something about it.

It seems that many leaders (Saul's) in the church love to preach and teach and carry on as if nothing is wrong with ministry today. What it boils down to is this: Many in authority love their own lives and ministry more than the TRUTH of God's Word and will. The Davidic order of leadership that is arising will put their lives, desires, and ministries down for the love of God's truth and His people.

I realize that what I am saying may seem to some like a contradiction from the top of the article. It is not! The disrespect for authority originates in the condition and motive of our heart and is usually personal in nature through past hurt and rejection. The prophetic call for repentance is based on truth and confronts ungodly systems that deceive people. This truth allows us to confront sin and abuse without moving into judgment and bitterness toward individuals. Bitterness will eat her own mother.

THE LIGHTHOUSE

The heart of the Lord as we move toward the Davidic order is that the "Saul's" within the church would come into the light of His love and anointing. (We read and notice that the anointing of Saul was held in a container made by the hands of man, whereas the anointing of David was held in a container made by the hand of God.) David is the only person in scripture to have the distinction of being a "man after God's own heart." Saul had many opportunities to learn the heart of God by David's life, anointing, and example. David held the key for what Saul needed to be an effectual and godly leader. My heart is that none who are presently in authority would fall in a "Saul-like" pride and spiritual jealousy. Change is going to happen and only the "Doers" of God's Word (Those who are obedient) will be left standing in authority. This is the church that Jesus Christ is soon coming back for.

God loves us so much, and those whom He loves, He will chasten and correct. The question is: Do we have a correctable heart? The Saul of the Bible did not and it not only caused him lose his authority, but his life as well. We know in our hearts that many things need to change in the function and purpose of the church. Jesus left us a wonderful model of desiring that we would do "greater works than these." What has happened to the passion and desire of leadership in the church to desire that others would do greater works than THEM? As the church, are we truly a city on a hill with our light burning bright for all to see? Or, are we a shade of grey — a dim and shifting shadow of what the church should be in reflecting the light and love of Christ?

PORT-OF-CALL — OUR DESTINATION

"And when He had removed him, (Saul) He raised up for them David ... I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after My own heart, who will do all My will." (Acts 13:22)

"After this I will return and will rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down; I will rebuild its ruins, and I will set it up; so that the rest of mankind may seek the Lord, even the Gentiles who are called by My name, says the Lord who does all these things." (Acts 15:16-17)

The Davidic order will have a mandate to rebuild a tabernacle (the body of Christ) that exhibits the manifest glory and love of God. The tabernacle of David was indistinguishable from any other common tent in the area. It was a place that others could feel comfortable and at home. It was a place that was relevant and radiated hope for the common man. There were no sides or hidden chamber to this tabernacle and the Shekinah glory of God would be available for whomsoever would come. Prophetic worship and intercession went on 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and it would be only during the reign of David that the people of God would possess their entire promised inheritance.

Those with the heart of David understand what it means to find "shelter under the shadow of His wings." Many have taken this verse and psalm of David as symbolic imagery. I believe that it was much more personal and real to David. As the hot Middle Eastern sun beat down upon the tabernacle, David knew that he could find shade and shelter under the wings of the cherubim over the Ark of God's presence. I believe that David spent a lot of time here ... close and in the arms of His loving Father.

Why the Soviet Union Thinks it Could Fight and Win a Nuclear War

by Richard Pipes
Baird Professor of History, Harvard University
Reprinted from Commentary, 1977

A Summary of the Argument by Bill Somers

American and Soviet nuclear doctrines are diametrically opposed. They are products of totally different historical experiences and political and socioeconomic systems. The apparent contradictions in Soviet nuclear doctrine and the dangers of U. S. unilateral adherence to a strategy of mutual deterrence are best understood when put in historical perspective.

The American view of war has been conditioned by the ideas characteristic of a Western commercial society. Underlying it is the notion that human conflict results from misunderstandings that can be resolved by negotiation. Marxism, on the other hand, holds conflict to be normal (and military forces as a political tool and a part of grand strategy. Americans generally regard war as an abnormal situation and want to end it rapidly through technological superiority and with the least possible loss of friendly (but not necessarily enemy) lives. Large peacetime forces are an unwelcome expense.

These contrary views of war were affected differently by the coming of nuclear weapons. In the U. S., atomic and thermonuclear bombs were considered "absolute" weapons, capable of destroying a society or even a civilization, and against which there was no defense. Thus, Clausewitz's dictum that war is an extension of politics was considered dead. Since nuclear war could serve no rational political purpose, the function of strategic forces should be to avert war. Because of the vast destructiveness of nuclear weapons, a "sufficiency" of weapons to retaliate was believed to be enough. Numerical superiority was thought to have little meaning. To ensure a stable balance, in which conflicts could be resolved by negotiation, the USSR should even have the ability to do unacceptable second-strike damage to the U. S. This concept of mutual deterrence, or mutual assured destruction, became U. S. policy and as nuclear delivery capabilities improved, remained the foundation of a somewhat more flexible policy.

These U. S. strategic theories were developed largely by civilian scientists and "accountants," with little contribution from military professionals. The theorists were guided significantly by fiscal imperatives -- the desire to reduce the defense budget while retaining a capacity to deter Soviet threats to U. S. interests. The theories were formulated without reference to their Soviet counterparts, and in the belief that we can "educate" the Soviets to adopt our views.

In the USSR, where strategy is considered a science and the special province of the military, nuclear weapons were not held to be "absolute," except perhaps briefly after Stalin's death. The idea of mutual deterrence was never accepted. Soviet theorists rejected the idea that technology determines strategy. They adapted nuclear weapons to their traditional Clausewitzian view of war as an extension of politics.

The Communist revolution eliminated that segment of Russian society that was most Westernized, and put the peasant class in power. History had taught the Russian peasant that cunning and coercion assured survival; cunning when weak; cunning and coercion when strong. "Not to use force when one had it indicated some inner weakness." That concept of the use of power and the fact that, since 1914, the USSR has lost up to 60,000,000 citizens through war, famine, and purges and survived has no doubt conditioned the development of Soviet nuclear strategy. Soviet nuclear doctrine, expounded in a wide range of Russian defense literature, has five related elements:

- Preemption (first strike).
- Quantitative superiority (a requisite for preemption and because the war may last for some time, even though the initial hours are decisive).
- Counterforce targeting.
- Combined-arms operations to supplement nuclear strikes.
- Defense, which has been almost totally neglected by the U. S. under its concept of mutual deterrence.

Soviet Doctrine is both a continuation and an extension of the Soviet belief that all military forces -- nuclear and conventional -- serve a political purpose as guarantor of internal control and an instrument for territorial expansion. Thus, large military forces are accepted in the Soviet Union as a rational capital investment, regardless of their impact on social programs.

Soviet writing on nuclear strategy has been largely ignored, or has been ridiculed in this country because if its jingoism and crudity, and the obscurity of Communist semantics. It is a strategy of "compellance," in contrast to the U. S. doctrine of deterrence.

But "... the relationship of Soviet doctrine and Soviet deployments (is) sufficiently close to suggest that ignoring or not taking seriously Soviet military doctrine may have very detrimental effects on U. S. security."

Finally, "... as long as the Soviets persist in adhering to the Clausewitzian maxim on the function of war, mutual deterrence does not really exist. And unilateral deterrence is feasible only if we understand the Soviet war-winning strategy and make it impossible for them to succeed."

End Time Prophetic Vision

New Warning Dream

David Kocurek

August 01, 2005
Brothers and sisters I have something I'd like to share with you and to all who have an ear to hear. The lord has shone me something important and I'll try to explain as best I can. Now I was a wild land fire fighter for about 8 years. That's the kind of fire fighter who fights wild fires in forests and national and state lands. Often I look at maps and photos of many forests. For the reason of knowing about the fires location and how far it has burned etc...

Some times I even look at old fires to see how it burned in the past. Fire fighters use them regularly in the field and in the class rooms as teaching tools on past fire behavior's, especially when a fire fighter has bin killed. So that in the lesson learned, we can see were they died, and what went wrong so we can peace things together so other fire fighters don't make the same mistakes.

So in doing this, the wild land fire fighters have come up with "10 standard fire fighting orders" and "18 watch out situations" to help make it safer for other wild land fire fighters. These are now taught to every fire fighter before he or she even becomes a wild land fire fighter. Its like the "fire fighters Bible" if that makes since?

(July 9 2005 I was given this dream)
I dreamed I was looking at a big black and white photo of a forest that was taken from the air. This photo covered about a 20 square miles. Now I've seen many of these types of photos before. They are often used when fatalities happen on large fires, so we can better understand what happened. Every year a wild fire gets out of control, and unfortunately at times people die. When this happens, the place where the firemen died is marked for future analysis, and photos of the area are often taken from the air.

I was looking hard at this photo to see if I could see where they made their mistakes and the place were the fireman died. So I can further understand the mistakes they made. So that I and others wouldn't be caught in a similar situation. I was unable to make out much because the photo was taken at too high an altitude. So I scanned it with squinting eyes. I could see lots of trees a meadow here a meadow there, the hills and roads. But I couldn't make out the place were the firemen had fallen.

As I was scanning this huge photo, suddenly a huge swath cut in to the forest came into view. My head snapped back because it was big. Then I refocused, it was a "safety zone" that the fire men had cut out of the forest for safety purposes when or before the fire goes ballistic. Only this was unusually large and it was made in the unusual shape of the number (3). I couldn't understand why they would do this?? End dream.

For the last few days I've pondered this mystery of Number # 3. I now think I understand what the lord is saying. In the wild land fire fighters bible, "standard firefighting orders" # 3 it states. "Base all actions on current and expected behavior of the fire". And under "watch out situations" # 3 it states "safety Zones and escape routes not identified."

Now these are two very important "standing orders" I think the lord is trying to convey to his children in the last days and here's why?

Standard firefighting order # 3 states "BASE ALL ACTIONS ON CURRENT AND EXPECTED BEHAVIOR OF THE FIRE. OK for instance, you might say what fire? And I would say, the Great Tribulation fire, Revelation, last days prophecies of the Holy Bible. Warnings of Gods wrath and since we are in the last days, and we know that God has warned us many times about what's to happen soon. He tells his children all the time. Things are going to get a lot worse in the last days right? So if we apply this order # 3 to you, what does it tell you? It tells me to prepare for the things God has told us would come in these last days, Right. And to take action now right? Also to visualize and act on what could happen for instance, we know that America and the world for that matter it about to come face to face with the All Mighty Gods Power and his son Jesus soon. Right?

So if the prophets are telling you its coming as well as the bible, then you need to base all actions on what you know about it and what you could expect to follow next. Well I still don't get it you say? OK I'm a wild land fire fighter, when I am fighting wild fires I know fire behavior and when a forest fire is ripping thru the trees in my direction, I know its time to move or die. But I also know enough "not" to put my self in this position in the first place. Right like wise, you know Gods behavior in the last days and his warning signs right? And all the prophets have said right? And if you do nothing then you're going to get burned by being caught up in world wide war, famine and disease right? So I believe the lord is telling his people to take action "now"

Gee you might say ok, I know all that "but" what do I do about it? This is where your second order comes in. Watch out situation order # 3 states. "SAFETY ZONES AND ESCAPE ROUTES NOT IDENTIFIED" but you might say what dose that mean? OK as a wild land fireman I know that for safety's sake I must have a safe place such as a safety zone to run to in case the forest fire gets out of hand. Also I know that it would do me no good if I had a safety zone but didn't know where it was. Right? In other words, if you know that world war 3 were emanate, and coming here to the good old USA and the whole world for that matter. with all of today's modern weaponries being released such as nuclear weapons, poison gas, floods, earth quakes and bio weapons, invading troops and many, many more on a scale as never before in history. Wouldn't you want to protect your self and your family? Sure you would.

Likewise, you know these things are indeed coming, even in your hearts. So God is telling his children to "prepare" and "Identify" on what is truly coming, so you can "Act Decisively". By preparing for the worst for instance, do you have a safe zone or a way of escape when all this happens? Do you have enough food water and shelter? Alternative heat and electric? Do you have a hiding place like a fall out shelter? You not only need to think about all these things, but identify all of the possibilities and Act upon them all. Use what God gave you, "Common since" "Prayer" "The Word" etc...

Well you might say I'll just trust in the lord to see me thru? Well your right the lord will protect his children. But if you have means to prepare by what God blessed you with and you don't use that. And just sit in your easy chair, then it "Will" be too late to do any thing about that then. Right? Every day in America God is warning and warning!!! So here's your warnings from the Lord, your "two standing last days safety orders"

(New Standing Safety orders)
"Identify your true safe zone the lord and savior Jesus Christ."
"Base all actions on current and expected last days events."

I feel in my heart, that the lord sends his love to all who read this message.

Island Invasion Dream
David Kocurek

I am compelled to send out this set of dreams the Lord has shown me. So out of obedience to the Lord I do so.

The dreams concerning this were related to a PC strategic military and civilian computer game. The Lord gave me this set of dreams in this format to convey the feelings and situation concerning this invasion of an unknown Christian island nation? These dreams were in August of this year.

Now I play this PC game from time to time, because it offers many great challenges. But I have not had the Lord convey a dream to me in this way before?

Dream # 1 I was up in the air looking down at this TV screen. I saw the PC game open before me that I had played before. On this screen was a Capital City that was taken by an unknown country? But nothing else was visible on the screen. This puzzled me because it made no sense, but left me with only feelings about this situation? End.

Feelings of the first Dream? I got the feeling that the invading army was trying to use its power to go directly to the capital city to dictate its power and fear to the people who they just invaded. The feeling was of hopelessness because the invading country was so powerful.

Dream # 2 same dream as the first but this time I could see little more of the playing field and realized that this country that was invaded was an island nation. But the enemy only held the capitol. And maybe one more city on the same island part. I could see other islands now and started to get a bigger view. But still I was puzzled and left with questions and feelings this time? End.

My question to the lord in prayer was how can an island nation defend its self against such a powerful foe?
My feeling was the people of this island nation were afraid of this fact too. And I couldn't think of any strategic way of helping the islanders. So I was still puzzled as to why I was being shown this?

Dream # 3 same dream as the first two, only this time I could see a much bigger area of this island county's islands. There were many islands to this nation other than were its capitol was. Then I saw the lord make a strategic move to help this island nation and his Christian children.

I saw the Lord shake the other islands to pull resources from the other islands to repel the invaders, starting with a big island to its south. This was not what the invading army was counting on, but was hoping for a full surrender. But now the Lord was moving fast in the hearts of the islanders. And had shown the islanders the enemy's weakness which was this fact. The enemy had to come from a long way to get there and to wait a long time for supplies. But the islanders only had to call on all the other islands for help and come they did. For the power of Lord was in their hearts and the lord was with them.

I felt the enemy invaders were now in great fear. The enemy was now being overwhelmed by islanders coming from all over, by boat, canoe and even surf board. Both native and non native came by the power of the Lord. The war drums of the islanders struck deep fear in the enemies elect forces. The islanders came with every type of weapon. They had guns of every shape and size even machetes and sticks and torches. Victory was in their grasp.
End dreams.

The Lord loves the islanders and his people. "The Lord be with us, who can be against us"

(Note) I don't know what island country was being invaded or who the invaders were? But remember there is victory thru Jesus.

Feel free to post on your web sites if you'd like along with my name and e-mail address.
God bless David Kocurek

Narrow way of Pure Religion

A Narrow Way Of Transition
From Religion Of Men To Pure And Undefiled Religion With God In A Holy Loving Relationship

Are you experiencing a very difficult situation?
You may say, "I think I am losing my mind"
God may say to you ...."you are"
"so you can have the mind of Christ"
You can be in error and catergorize all peoples thinking they are all religious from the place that you are at now
It is a very difficult place
You are being shown by God Himself as He sees it, and its not pretty
You will speak the truth in love
That is your mandate
You will heal
Yes a great loss has incurred
Rejected love and deception is merciless
Defiled manmade religion does not love with the love of God
Defiled manmade religion is deceitful and not in full truth
Though they may feel they are and convince you of the same
Jesus said they will throw you out of the synagogue and think they are doing the right thing unto God Through this we see the difference between relationship with God and religious duty for God
In relationship even the enemy is loved
In defiled religion even the brethren is rejected

Jesus died for all sinners
Jesus knows the heart of every imperfect soul
And loves them
Their blood is precious to Him
Dear one and beloved of the Lord who sees all
Dear lamb of God
Jesus said,
"I am the Good Shepherd who loves the sheep"

He also loves the 99 and 1
Beautiful Savior
What you have done to others and others do to you they have done to Him
He was rejected and scorned
You WILL be okay.
You are one of the fortunate ones then
Do not let Him go for you have found Him

He will not let go of you
You are born of Him
And proven to be steadfast, unmovable and trusted
It is a fact
No man gives it
No man can take it away

It is yours from heaven
And is proven to be so

You are an ordained vessel of God

You will fit through the narrow way
You will be led and guided by the Holy Ghost
Angels will speak in your ear of the voice of God sent by God Himself

You will speak the truth in love with great wisdom through experience

It will hurt for only a short while Rejected love is the worse kind

The hurt is unutterable
Though you suffer as one
Jesus knows
And also He took on all the suffering of the world

He will not give you more than you can bear
Thanks be to the Living God
His ways are perfect
We become perfect in the Way
What would we do without the hope?
Jesus loves you dear one

There will come a day when you will return to hurting ones and speak to those bound, hurting and not set free
Wait , be patient, endure and you will watch and see the vision speak
Enjoy His tender mercies and find yourself in His anointing receiving healing from the one who alone mends the broken hearted
This is a hard season
But you must obey

You are being proven in a trustworthy relationship...
With God Himself
Do only as the Spirit leads and all will be okay
Otherwise you will have to deal later with unforgiveness and bitterness
To be Holy one must forgive
Jesus knew such love as they put in the nails to His hands
And crucified Him
You will know Everlasting love
Cry
It is good to intercede, even for yourself
He hears and also sees every tear
There is a period of numbness in the process of grief
It would be good just to lie in His presence...yes without a word....let Him heal you

Just do that dear one Little by little you will heal and not be bitter
but be of good health
And be stronger
He is the health of your countenance
Let yourself weep unto your Master

Such love...He died for these hurts you are experiencing now
Your beloved Lord, your husband, and best friend loves you so much
He will heal you for He is your cure.

He alone will do what is necessary about the past
Let Him do it. Let Him justify you.
Remember to be led as a sheep dumb before the shearers

Your Good Shepherd has much communion for you

You will feel better as you lay with Him as Ruth

As you meet with Him like Esther
He waits.
Shalom dear one.

Blessings upon blessings.
Praise be to God

I thank Him also.
His Promises are Sure
And every Word He speaks is truth forever

Love and shalom,
Darcia

Many Go Before Us And Wait For Us
Darcia Sharp

deepimpact@rogers.com

Many have known the truth as Paul and have gone before us and wait for us.

Some speak on particular days of judgment has begun. Surely Jesus spoke of the coming judgment of the world and all that we have done at a specific time for all those that have lived and died and have not followed and lived in truth. Man does not proclaim particular times of judgment of God. It has been set from the foundation of the world. All who have come to the decision of obedience or disobedience will meet with the set time of God and judgment will be made then. Until then one will be convicted of the Spirit of the Lord to do what God requires each day that they live. As they become more intone with His desires in relationship they will have more decisions to obey as they grow in maturity and the knowledge of His leading.

Many times out of teaching at particular times and seasons of individuals as they COME INTO THE KNOWLEDGE and are illuminated by God Himself they are so moved and changed and because they have never been there or here before they then feel they have a word for the whole church.

Also there are those that teach of an anointing that will come to teach the Word that will be like non other that has ever been to this day. Jesus spoke of the last day anointing that He would send in the Holy Spirit and those that are converted surely have lived and live and will live in THIS ANOINTING that is the very living Word of the anointed ONE that converts the soul and brings salvation in righteousness unto Holiness. As one matures and grows up in the Lord and perfects and moves into the calling that God prepares them for in the days that are numbered for their purpose in His will, they will increase in the power of His might in the resurrection power of His substance and be sent in the pureness of His Holiness as a sent messenger. The Lord then confirming with signs and wonders. In each life there will be a time that God has purposed for His power to be manifest in such a way that the calling that is sure will be confirmed by the power of His Holy Spirit as they are sent as ambassadors and witnesses of His truth in this last day being part of the tribe of Israel, the New Jerusalem, the Church of God, the Bride of Christ, the Members of His body, the Sons of God, the Priests and ministers of the Lord, the Daughter of Zion, the Beloved of God, the Fruit of His womb that has multiplied from the Firstfruit Christ Jesus.

Many have built mission works SELLING THE WORD for gain and coheres people by a spirit of seduction with untruths that sound good by misappropriation of the Word yet are partially given in appearance as the truth “spoken by God”. This is none other than the angel of light that the Lord said would come and Paul gave teaching regarding. Also, the son of perdition that shows himself to be God is made apparent in these last days that were spoken of by those that have gone on and are waiting.

Jesus said His sheep hear His voice. This is possible even through a donkey. The voice of God is heard and recognized and is discerned by the Spirit in the soul as illumination is given by God Himself. Therefore it is possible to be in a denomination or in relationship with an individual, who is in some way deceiving you, yet speaks the Word of God. They play with Holy things at your expense. God Himself will bear witness when you hear His voice. It does not necessarily mean that the one bearing the Word is speaking himself out of the Spirit of the Living God. The donkey was not saved. However, God used the donkey to speak and the one who heard it knew it was the Spirit of God. This works in reverse also. Just because someone hears the Word and knows that it is God, does not necessarily mean that they are living for God. All men will hear the truth and know God has spoken. All men will bow and know that He is God and Jesus Christ is the Savior. Just because one knows or speaks does not necessarily mean they are saved. It has to become life to them through knowing God and relationship in Him who is LIVING. It has to BECOME us and FASHION us and convert our souls in the LIFE GIVING BLOOD, SPIRIT AND WORD OF THE LIVING GOD.

Therefore one must be cautious to not put their confidence in man but to trust in God. One must hearken to the voice of God and be sure to have relationship with Him in the Spirit and obey after they have heard. It is more important what you do after you have heard the Word. You must LISTEN AND OBEY and it must transform your soul and mind that you live unto the HOLY SPIRIT and serve not another that you were born of in sin and iniquity. The father of this world is sly in deception. Those born of the Water and the Spirit live in Spirit and in truth and serve the Father of Heaven our very Creator through Christ Jesus the Lord and are made new in Holiness glorifying His name and bearing precious seed, fruit and life.

God will unite His own with each other and they WILL SURELY BE FOUND IN FELLOWSHIP in communion in the power of the resurrection of the living God by the Spirit. You will know them by their fruits. They truly love each other. Pure love does not flow where there is deceit in a wholesome way of communion in oneness. A plug is put in the flow. You will know when the flow is hindered. You need to question why and seek God on it every time. For in Him we live and move and have our being. Pure love does love the sinner but not the sin. Jesus died for the sinner. He flows to the sinner. It is those that chose to live in unrighteousness and deception that then the flow stops. Pure and undefiled minds and religion will see the flow come to MAKE ALL THINGS NEW and build relationship that allow each member to supply a need that all things are working and flowing in unity and love in truth. It is a body that is named and belongs to the head Christ Jesus. From He who is the head, the oil of He who is the anointed one will run down the body and flow in unity as Aaron the High Priest. Nothing stops the flow of purity.

God will prove Himself in Truth to all that will seek Him for He is a rewarder of those who will diligently seek Him and answer His Holy call to come, know Him and commune with Him.

Tithing is taught in the last day period of earth time post Calvary in a way for gainsayers who gather and feed men with what is needed for today. Once we are of the Lord we realize all things are His and as led we will give in obedience all things to those in need. Things changed when Jesus came and we no longer are to live by the law as it was only a schoolmaster till Christ would come.

Though man will hear the Word, for Eternal purpose for tomorrow they will need to be separated unto God and separated from anything that is untruth for Salvation and Eternal life.

The devil believes the Word and speaks it. Just because he confesses the name of Jesus does not mean he is saved. The devil believes that Jesus is Lord. The devil has a deceitful character that comes to deceive the very elect and cause a plug and wedge in the body to stop the flow of the Living, Loving Word and Spirit who is God.

Pure love is undefiled and those of Gods love are found together eating the bread of life that Jesus said He was and drinking of the cup of the Lord and communing in the Spirit of the One God and Lord, the One Word and Spirit of the Living God made possible through Jesus Christ

Beloved, you are His. He will save you from deceitful workers of darkness as you seek the Lord with all your heart and hear and obey through circumstances of life.

You will know the truth and it will set you free. You are a disciple of the Lord as you continue in the Word and take up your cross and follow Jesus. As your soul is converted in His righteousness unto Holiness you will see with the eye of God and know Him and His ways and He will show you the way it really is. Some things are not as they appear and God will show you the way they really are. He is seeking those who will worship Him in Spirit and in Truth. He is with you always and will not forsake you.

Many know go before us and wait for us. The truth is unchanging. It is constant, has been, is and shall be. We are all brought into the knowledge of the Word by the Spirit. We will be united with those that are of the Lord Jesus Christ in Truth and Spirit and nothing will separate us from this love that has united us who is God.

Amen and Amen

Love and shalom,
Darcia

New Waves of Revival Fire

Keith Miller

The Lord is releasing a new, deeper level of revival anointing. Are you ready to catch the wave? In our meetings, we're riding the wave of a greater dimension of God-His presence, His power, and His prophetic flow, especially in the past few months. How about you; are you ready for an intense new level of revival anointing . . . have you caught the new wave of revival fire?

Set the wave in motion through a time of fasting and prayer. Set your course for holy pursuit because the Lord wants to bring increase. Set your sight toward a deeper dimension of the knowledge of Him.

During my own time of pressing in, I had prophetic encounters with the Lord, and Holy Spirit downloads for my own life and for our ministry. John 16:14 tells us that the Holy Spirit will reveal what the Lord is doing: "He will honor and glorify Me, because He will take of (receive, draw upon) what is Mine and will reveal (declare, disclose, transmit) it to you" (AB). I sense the Lord's increase of a new, deeper dimension of Him we've not known before.

Holy Spirit Hunger

I felt a great inner depth of Holy Spirit hunger swell in me. I cried out, "Lord, what You've done is awesome; I'm so grateful for all You've done, but Lord, I feel a deep and growing hunger to see You beyond anything I've ever experienced, read, or heard about. My heart and soul cries out for a level of You that we've not seen before!"

King David wanted to break into a greater dimension of the Lord, too, and he cried out to God:

> "O God, You are my God; early will I seek you; my soul thirsts for You; my flesh longs for You in a dry and thirsty land where there is no water. So I have looked for You in the sanctuary, to see Your power and Your glory. Because Your lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise You. Thus I will bless You while I live; I will lift up my hands in Your name. My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness, and my mouth shall praise You with joyful lips" (Ps. 63:1-5).

The Lord heard my cry, and during this time of holy pursuit, I was caught up before the throne in a prophetic encounter. I was in awe of Him; deep called unto deep, and every fiber of my being felt alive and sensitive to His presence. In Revelation 1:15, John shared about his prophetic encounter with the Lord and said that His voice was like the sound of many waters.

As the Lord spoke to me, it was like He released in my inner man, wave after wave of an incredible depth of love and adoration beyond what my human mind could comprehend.

As I beheld Him on the throne, I saw Him in a level of power that I had never seen before. Scripture describes the Lord on the throne as power! "Jesus said to him, 'It is as you said. Nevertheless, I say to you, hereafter you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven'" (Matt. 26:64).

As we behold Him, we are transformed into His likeness:

> "But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord" (2 Cor. 3:18).

And then God releases His power, as we see here in Acts 10:38, where Peter speaks of "how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with Him.

Prophetic Impartation and Strategies

In my encounters, I saw a new wave of His power as He released power mantles on believers all over the world. This was the same "wave" as described in Hebrews 2:4: "God also bearing witness both with signs and wonders, with various miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit according to His own will." He spoke a word to them (apostles), and it became prophetic impartation that was like fire in their bones. With the impartation came prophetic strategies for city, state, and also national impact. They spoke the Word with great intensity and ministered with great authority and power; and the masses of humanity turned and took notice of the Word and the anointing.

I saw the Lord impart fresh anointings upon multitudes for greater releases of miracles, signs, wonders, and healings in the mighty name of Jesus. In the book of Acts the disciples received an anointing of power to speak the Word of the Lord with boldness and to see signs, wonders, and healings done in the mighty name of Jesus. It started in Acts chapters 2 and 3 when a divine explosion breaks out and a great outpouring of the Holy Spirit takes place..

However, in Acts 4:28-31, the disciples pressed in for something even greater than what they'd already experienced and witnessed. They pressed in for more boldness and greater power from the Holy Spirit-then they spoke the Word, began to move in a much greater anointing, and eventually, shook the entire ancient world.

Since my prophetic encounters, the Lord has graced us with increased levels of revival anointing in our meetings. There is a great atmosphere of anticipation and expectation; the place is literally charged with the presence of the Lord. We are seeing a greater dimension of His presence, His power, and His prophetic flow. The Lord's invasion on our four-day meetings has caused them to last for months! We've received countless testimonies of lives impacted and transformed. God has poured out a fresh hunger; there's a new anointing falling not only upon, but on the inside-a strength within.

How do we bring this type of revival to fruition? We anticipate, rise early, expect, hunger, and press in for breakthrough.

Heavenly Pursuit

Let's look at the disciples' path to revival. The Lord Jesus had promised them in Luke 24:49: "Behold, I send the promise of My Father upon you." (Acts 1:4) After Jesus' resurrection they spent forty days together speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God (Acts 1:3). In Acts 1:4, Jesus reaffirms and promises his followers something is going to happen for them-it's the Father's promise, "you have heard from Me." So, in Acts 2:1, the disciples gathered together in heavenly pursuit of the Holy Spirit.

With great expectation, they were up early awaiting Jesus' promise. They anticipated breakthrough! Not only would this breakthrough impact their own individual lives, but it would affect the cities, regions, and the nations. There they were: waiting, pressing in, and hungering after the Lord's promise. They felt it deep in their hearts-nothing would keep them from getting what was promised to them.

Have you ever just known that something special or exciting was about to happen . . . do you feel it now? Many are sensing something similar deep in the spirit-that they are on the verge of something major. I know it! We are pressing in for the promise of God-promises for our families, our ministries, our cities, our nations. The sound approaches!

All of a sudden, they hear a sound, "and suddenly, there came a sound," (don't you love it?). "Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound! They walk, O LORD, in the light of Your countenance" (Ps. 89:15). It is the sound of the breakthrough, the sound of victory, the sound of advancement. It is the sound that signifies God's presence and that something major is about to happen. The heavens opened and there was a mighty outpouring. They became carriers of open heavens.

No You Have Not Failed

Al Thomas

THE VERY THING YOU THOUGHT WAS A DEFEAT, GOD SAYS WAS A VICTORY…

I strongly sense many people are feeling like they failed God. Many are being pushed around by Satan’s lies concerning (supposed) barren years and lost opportunities. Others feel time has slipped through their fingers, having missed the ‘moment.’ Yes, sometimes we do fail, but more than often the enemy convinces us we have blown it when we have not. Recently a dear lady e-mailed Sherry and me concerning the time my mother lived with us: “We know from our experiences in school, that many teachers grade their tests differently. The ones we think "I'm sure I failed that one", we get it back: "PASSED"! When we think about the Master Teacher, he grades his tests gently, I believe. There's more room for error, so to speak. The grading system is different than our human thinking and from His perspective, not ours. You may think you've failed some, but when you stand before Jesus, He will notify you: "PASSED!"

Some are about to get a revelation of their true situation from heaven’s viewpoint:

1. YOU ARE NOT “DEFEATED” - SATAN IS, YOU HAVE NOT FAILED – SATAN HAS…

Satan (for a short time) succeeded in making you feel like a failure. In your weakest moments you agreed with him. Now the real truth comes out like lighting from His clouds above: You passed the test (Matt. 25:21). Where the enemy had you thinking you were Demas ‘having loved this present world’ (2 Tim. 4:10) the Holy Spirit instead says, “This light affliction (which the enemy meant for evil) will allow you to recapture that resolve and determination that you thought was lost years ago…all is well my child.” Your heart leaps with hope. Heaven hints of more, the sun is rising.

2. WHAT YOU THOUGHT WAS A FOXHOLE IS ACTUALLY AN EAGLES NEST

No, you weren’t hiding in fear. You were simply waiting on God (Ps. 62:5). You’re smarter than you thought. You felt like you were being pursued by a monster, instead God was chasing you down for a blessing (Ps. 23:6). Now it’s all starting to fall into place. Those hellish, negative discouraging thoughts tormenting you now are transformed into compliments from heaven! Now that it all makes sense, you’re ready to comfort others in a similar state (2 Cor. 1:3-4).

3. INSTEAD OF A PAST LITTERED WITH FAILURE - REWARDS GO IN YOUR ACCOUNT

Now, instead of feeling little and insignificant you actually see the truth from God’s perspective: Great advance for the Kingdom of God was made. No longer berate yourself (that was the enemy) but instead start to hear the applause of heaven as you spontaneously give thanks to Jesus and all He has done for you (Col. 3:15). The enemy fooled you – but now he is revealed for what he really is: A lying, sneaky, deceptive foe who (God reminds you) is defeated and powerless because of the cross (Heb. 2:14). You sense freedom in your spirit coming (John 8:36). Joy awakens…you smile.

4. THINKING YOU BLEW IT BY WASTING ALL THOSE YEARS (AND EXPECTING TO BE CHASTISED) GOD INSTEAD SAYS "WELL DONE MY CHILD, YOU WAITED ON ME IN SPITE OF THE VICIOUS ACCUSATIONS BY THE ENEMY…YOU HAVE DONE WELL"

What you thought were barren years was instead God's preparation for great accomplishments. Like a glorious light coming toward you, suddenly God's marvelous plans are starting to become clear. You didn't blow it…the enemy did. God was holding your hand the whole time (Heb. 13:5). Yesterday you randomly picked up the Bible and it always seemed to fall on verses speaking of punishment and condemnation…now you purposely turn to scripture confirming that you are loved (Deu. 33:27) and accepted with open arms. You're not too late, but right on time (Phil. 1:6).

5. PREVIOUSLY CONVINCED YOU HAD FAILED, NOW HEAVEN OPENS UP BEFORE YOU

You now feel a glorious future before you. You're convinced doors of blessing and opportunity are about to open. Discouragement is burned away like dew when the sun comes up. Where there was confusion and bewilderment, now there is clear sailing and calm seas (Mark 4:39). It's like a dream…but it's real. Satan is humiliated and shirks back knowing he can do nothing to stop the avalanche of God's goodness coming your way (Ps. 31:19). An embarrassed devil (instead of just backing off) flees from you fearful he will get overrun (Luke 10:19). The truth of who you are is sinking in…a child of the King (Ps. 5:2; 84: 1-5). You not only feel relieved but once again happy and strong. You could fly (and your spirit does). You arise and are now strong, picking up (and dusting off) your weapons (Eph. 6:10-17). You sense that the Lord has not only restored your dignity, but given you the city (Eccl. 17:32b). You can go forth now, never looking back (Luke 9:62) only upward. Your vision is clear, your steps are firm and your soul has never been more on fire. That verse that previously seemed so hollow and distant is reverberating through your spirit: "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me" (Phil 4:13). It even seems like your faith has faith. You're back…and you're not alone (Mark 16:20). Glory!

Rise up, you mighty man of war, and worship Christ your King, for I called you to be an overcomer, not to dabble in situations that weigh you down. Pick up the pieces of your life, and march out and claim the inheritance that I invested My life for you to have. No more are you to dabble in situations that weigh you down or bring discouragement or despair. For surely this is the day the Lord has made, and you are to rejoice and to be glad in it.

Bring glory to My name by seeking My face far above all that the enemy tries to bring your way. Fly high above all the powers and principalities of the evil one, and soar with Me. For surely I have made you an overcomer and that you would march out conquering over all the foes in your life. For this is the day to rejoice and to be glad counting this day to be a new beginning for you. All things have passed away, behold all things have become new. And I am calling you to take My hand and to walk with Me leaving behind all the weight and the heaviness. I have given you life and that more abundantly.

So pick up the pieces of your life that seem to be scattered and are of disarray. Don't look at the present circumstances but look to Me. I am closer to you than a brother. Yes, I am your best friend, and I am calling you to a deeper and more intimate relationship that I may speak into your heart all that you need to know to overcome in the onslaughts from the evil one. Yes, I will give you the strategies and the tactics you will need to be able to strive in the flight to freedom from the snares of the enemy.

Many have been defeated because they have not drawn near to Me and listened to My heart beating for them. For I love My people so and long to see them overcome and prosper and to be glad. But many have been so defeated and have drawn themselves into a pit that only I can pull them out of and only if they will cry out to Me.

So I am calling you this day to rise up and overcome the defeat. Cry out and I will lift you up and place you high upon a Rock and once again you may soar like the eagle that you are. Leave behind the weight and heaviness and look forward for surely this is a new day in Me.

O AMERICA, O AMERICA
O AMERICA, LAND OF DREAMS
O AMERICA, O AMERICA
LAND WHERE FREEDOM REIGNS SUPREME TREASURED BY THOSE SUFFERING
UNDER TYRANNY
VISION OF THOSE LONGING TO BE FREE

O AMERICA, O AMERICA
BASED ON PRECEPTS OF THE LIVING GOD
O AMERICA, O AMERICA
PORT TO OPPRESSED AND THOSE DOWNTROD
AMERICA, YOU HAVE LOST YOUR GOAL
RICHES AND PRIDE NOW RULE YOUR SOUL

O AMERICA, O AMERICA
O AMERICA, HEAR OUR CRY
O AMERICA, O AMERICA
LIFT YOUR VOICE TO GOD ON HIGH
ALAS, DEAR LAND, THE DIE HAS BEEN CAST
YOUR DESTRUCTION NOW MUST COME TO PASS

O AMERICA, O AMERICA
O AMERICA, YOUR END IS NEAR
O AMERICA, O AMERICA
PUT ON SACKCLOTH; REPENT IN TEARS
THERE’S NO LONGER AMNESTY FOR THE LAND
SAFETY CAN BE FOUND ONLY IN GOD’S HAND

O AMERICA, O AMERICA
O AMERICA, GET ON YOUR KNEES
O AMERICA, O AMERICA
O AMERICA, GET ON YOUR KNEES

Dear Friends:

In recent months, the Lord has flooded my mind with sporadic memories of the dawn of my Christian walk, which began in the summer of 1981. As He has done so, He has brought to the surface some things that have challenged me deeply. Through this process, He is enabling me to crawl out from under the rubble of a recent and painful chapter in public ministry.

After praying and meditating upon the idea over several weeks, I am convinced that the Lord has prompted and released me to share this experience abroad.

I have learned over time, that the Holy Spirit is rarely in a hurry. His concept of time is that of timelessness. Although there have been some exceptions, most of the time He will not drive me to “get the word out.” Rather, He will entreat me to meditate on a word for an extended time. And when my heart is right on the matter, and I have been freed from the compulsion to save the world with my personal revelation, He may then say, “O.K., why don’t you share this with some friends now.” It is with this sense of release that I share the following to you.

It was just a few years ago that the Lord told my wife and I very clearly: “I want you to begin ministering out of your failures. I want you to be completely transparent and tell the Body about your gravest failures in serving Me. And as you share of how I have redeemed you in and through each season, you are going to speak life, strength, healing and hope to My Body.”

In keeping with what we feel to be our personal mandate, I wish to share with you a point of personal failure in my ministry. As I do so, it is my prayer that the Holy Spirit will honor what He spoke to me and my wife, and will speak some measure of strength, encouragement, healing and hope to you.

Having grown up in southern California through the 1960’s and ‘70’s, and to ultimately meet the Lord and begin to serve Him in southern California in ’81, I found myself swathing a path through a jungle of belief systems—within the Church.

Well into my radical conversion at the age of 21, I maintained a broad appetite for reading. Having ingested 100s of volumes of humanistic thought, I went on to study the annals of the works of the pioneers of psychology and psychiatry. I had developed a particular affinity with the works of Carl Jung and his study of the unconscious or subconscious mind, and that with particular emphasis upon dreams and dream interpretation. I had enjoyed much study and discourse with members of the Jungian Institute. I had also developed quite an appetite for several British authors and Southern American authors of prose, poetry, essays and novels. This reading appetite in conjunction with having been exposed to every conceivable expression of the New Age paradigm while growing up in Los Angeles County, made for quite an adventure as the Word of God begin to re-write the map of my mind—and the map of my heart.

Those who have spent any length of time in southern California, and that more pointedly within Los Angeles County, know that the clash between lightness and darkness far transcends the very best of Hollywood’s depictions of warfare. In such an environment, the Believer in Christ must by necessity cling to an authentic faith—one that they can clutch tightly, and even feel within the grasp of their hands.

As I began to assimilate into the Church, I quickly sought to wrap my hands around a substantive handle of faith. With the many streams of the Body present in southern California, I realized that I was fortunate to have access to some of the most authoritative and anointed voices on the planet. As I began to grow in my understanding of what lay ahead of me in my new journey, there was very little that I did not appreciate within the various streams in southern California.

It was roughly nine months into my walk, that I was introduced to a stream within the Body that raised red flags of caution in my spirit. I did not realize what this internal mechanism was within me, until I later understood it to be the Gift of Discernment. Internally, and without voicing my judgment of such to anyone, I labeled this stream, “The Faith Camp.”

The Faith Camp, as I so labeled them, was a sector of the Body of Christ that was largely representative of a geographic pocket in the United States, beyond southern California. The more recognizable figures within this camp where, at the time, characterized by the usage the word “faith” within nearly every other sentence of their teachings.

As time marched forward, it troubled me that I had an internal unrest about this “faith camp.” As my personal theology began to evolve, I realized that it was not their emphasis on faith that troubled me. Rather, it was their application, within their emphasis on faith, which troubled me. Their general application was that of “believing” for ostentatious measures of material wealth. Much of their collective teachings were founded upon the principles of “sowing and reaping.” One of many excerpts of scripture often alluded to was that of II Corinthians 9:6, which reads, “He who sows sparingly will reap sparingly; and he who sows bountifully will reap bountifully.” Typically, it was not long following the mention of this verse that an invitation was extended, to “sow” into their respective ministries. It was as I pondered this stream for some time that it ultimately dawned on me that the “red flag” I had felt was that of the absence of a vital ingredient in this equation. The vital and missing ingredient was that of the fact that we can only reap as the result of sowing, if we sow in obedience to what God has told us to sow into, and if we trust in Him in doing so, versus that of trusting a principle. For we cannot blindly sow into a given ministry, and rely on a formulaic theology that will yield a guaranteed return financially. To go one painful step further, is to understand that blindly sowing into a ministry that one has not been directed by the Lord to sow into, can actually have negative repercussions to ones’ financial health—if in fact such a ministry has willfully stepped out from under the favor and grace of God as the result of deceptive practices, among other practices. This is an entirely different conversation, and one that I will not address at this time.

As the Lord gave me revelation of these dynamics, I committed a grave error. I figuratively “threw the baby out with the bathwater,” by quickly removing myself from earshot of anyone who so much as used the word “faith” in a conversation. What I did not realize at the time was that these dear Saints within the Faith Camp did in fact have a solid handle on the concept of “walking by faith.” Some of them simply went awry in their application during this era. Many of these central figures have since gone on to mature and evolve into walking a faith-paradigm that is nothing less than authentic, powerful and contagious. Had I then granted these Saints the grace that God did, by allowing them over time to get back on course, I would have received a much-needed impartation of faith—25 years ago.

Not long into my walk in the early ‘80’s, I launched-out and into a season of evangelism ministry on the streets of Hollywood. After a few years of unspeakable failure, I realized that mass-evangelism was not my calling. This reality was later, humorously confirmed by an internationally known prophet as he prayed over me, and saw vivid motion pictures in the Spirit, revealing my goofy evangelism escapades on the streets of Hollywood. He had a good laugh over this one, as did I.

I then transitioned into several years of shepherding and counseling ministry. Following a long season of shepherding, I transitioned into several years of teaching, shepherding and counseling ministry. Following several years of teaching, shepherding and counseling ministry, I transitioned into several years of ministry in the prophetic.

In and through all that I have done in serving the Body over a 25-year period at this point, I can look back on many events wherein I felt the fiery presence of God and His anointing in and through what I was doing. However there was one mysterious ingredient quietly absent in all of this. That quietly absent ingredient was faith—faith to believe for the impossible.

It was easy to believe for the miraculous when the Holy Spirit was next to me, in His fiery presence. However, between public ministry sessions, and when the daily grind wore on me, I found myself faithless. It is this condition that is the tale-tell sign of one who needs to grow in faith. For those walking in faith that pleases God, will believe for the miraculous whether they feel God’s immediate presence or not. Faith that pleases God is a 24-hour lifestyle. It is so real that the natural world in front of our faces becomes but a passing fancy. It becomes one temporal hiccup in time.

When the circumstances of our lives slowly weave a web that entangles us in a mental fog of unbelief, doubt and despair, all that we must do to burn away this web is that of carving out a quiet segment in time, alone, without distractions, and meditate on Hebrews chapter eleven. This one chapter chronicles the true Heroes of Faith. Though my purpose within this letter is not to offer expositional commentary on this chapter, I will yet offer Hebrews 11:5 as a transitional and pivotal verse upon which I will share something of a personal nature.

Hebrews 11:5 reads, "By faith Enoch was taken away so that he did not see death, and was not found, because God had taken him; for before he was taken he had this testimony, that he pleased God. But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him."

Though I do believe that we might miss the point if we walk by faith for the express purpose of being sucked up into Heaven via a fiery Holy Spirit vacuum, and that preferably before the end of Tax Season; I yet believe that walking by faith, and thus pleasing God in this regard, will introduce us to experiences that will defy the rational mind. These experiences may include visits to the Third Heaven and that of being translated in spirit—experiences of which I can attest to being at God's disposal to apportion—in this very hour.

As you ponder the concept of faith within the context of Hebrews 11:5, allow me to share the following chapter of my life.

On New Year's Eve of 1981, I found myself in attendance at an enormous worship service in southern California. The auditorium was massive. I had arrived at the event rather late, and there were very few seats left. Out of what appeared to be shear "luck" an usher found a single vacant seat next to two empty, roped-off VIP seats that had "Reserved" signs on them. As I sat in my chair and began to enter into worship, I was feeling a sense of subtle conviction about something I had said to someone in answer to a question presented to me the day before. I had been with a friend, and we were watching an internationally known husband and wife who hosted an equally internationally known Christian program on television. I was asked what I thought of this couple. My initial reply was that I thought their attire was bombastic, flamboyant, and truly an affront to any semblance of humility. As I tried to enter into worship during this massive service, my words were grinding repeatedly in my soul. As I stood with my eyes closed, trying to enter into worship, someone brushed my sleeve next to me. I paid no attention to the activity next to me in the "Reserved" seating, as I so wanted to lose myself in worship. During the worship service, I continued to press-in, and eventually I felt the awesome presence of the Holy Spirit begin to overshadow my conviction and turmoil. I then lost myself for a time in worship. At one point, I opened my eyes, and my peripheral vision caught something a few inches away from me that sent me into shock and panic. The very couple that I had openly criticized the day prior, were sitting right next to me! In silence I yelled, "Oh-my-God!" Within seconds, I thought I was going to begin hyperventilating. I remember thinking to myself, "Lord, you have one warped sense of humor!" I am almost certain that I heard in my spirit at this moment: "Warped? Just give me a little time, I'll show you warped!"

As worship began to subside and make way for a ministry time, I sat down and dared not turn my head to the figure next to me. Everyone within reach was extending an arm to shake hands with this couple and thank them for their wonderful ministry to the nations. I just sat there like a corpse, transfixed upon an imaginary escape route. Just as I was praying that I would be translated back to my bedroom, I felt a soft, warm hand rest gently upon my forearm, followed by the sweetest voice I had heard to date. The voice went on to say, "Hi, my name is____, how are you?" When I turned to look into the eyes of this woman, I saw Jesus looking back at me. Time stood still for a moment. In an instant, and in only the way that He can, He downloaded a message in a literal nanosecond. He said, "David, I'm opening your eyes to see the very heart of this woman. You now see her as I see her. Can you now understand why her external appearance and seeming 'flamboyance' is of little concern to Me? She and her husband walk by faith, and this pleases Me."

The woman and her husband then went on to inquire of my personal status, and engage me in conversation, and that with a genuine interest in me. It was as if the meeting that was unfolding was of little consequence to them. I has humbled beyond words. All that I could utter was, “yes” and “no.” When the conversation finally subsided, the woman smiled broadly and patted me on the arm several times. As she did so, I was looking into the eyes of Jesus once again.

The Lord had given me the most loving rebuke. Though it certainly was a rebuke, He was yet showering me with so much love that I nearly burst into tears. So began my quest to see into the very hearts of people from that day forward. I began to pray in accordance with John 5:19, “I only do what I see the Father doing. That which the Father does, I do likewise.” I prayed that the Lord would enable me to see what He is doing in the hearts of people—beyond their external trappings. As I continued to pray this prayer, and as the years unfolded, He enabled me to see into the very hearts of 1000s of people within the context of prophetic ministry.

As I sat there motionless in my seat at this New Year’s Eve service, the presence of the Lord filled the massive auditorium. He had “inhabited the praises of His people” (Ps. 22:3). Just as the worship team made their way to their seats, an internationally known pastor and author began a New Year’s Eve message. This decidedly conservative-evangelical figure began a very eloquent introduction to his message. At several points in the development of his message, he paused in an awkward sort of way. He would stop himself in the middle of a sentence, and would stare out and into the sea of people, as if he were seeking to find the end of a sentence that he had just lost. Repeating this process several times, he ultimately closed his Bible very slowly, in a quiet and graceful manor, and said: “Ladies and gentlemen, I must apologize to you; not for having lost my way in my message, but for what I am about to tell you. I have never before done what I am about to do. Though I feel very awkward in doing so, I am going to speak-out a word of knowledge that I believe the Lord has given me for someone here tonight. I have prayed for events of this magnitude all of my life, and I believe the Lord has finally answered my prayer.”

What I would describe as a holy-hush then settled on this massive auditorium. The speaker went on to say: “I believe the Lord has shown me a man who is present in this auditorium tonight, who is going to receive a creative miracle of healing in his body.” As the speaker uttered these words, I heard the Lord speak to me: “This man, David, is moving in faith.” As the speaker uttered these words I could almost see with the naked eye, and certainly with the spiritual eye, an enormous sheet of God’s presence slowly blanket the entire auditorium. The blanket drifted as slowly and gracefully as a single feather from a dove. With this blanket of the Lord’s presence, many people around me began to weep quietly with joy, to include me. The speaker went on to say, “The man I’m talking to has had a glass eye for most of his life. He lost one eye as a child.” A deafening silence ensued. After what seemed like an eternity, the speaker began to speak directly to the man, as if he were looking at him. He said, “You’re 72 years of age. All of your life you have walked by faith. Despite your affliction, you have trusted God through every trial. You have humbly accepted your injury, and have thanked God for the one eye that you have remaining. Tonight God is going to honor your life of faith, and He is going to heal you in front of all of these people.”

Two full minutes passed as the speaker gazed intently about the circular mass of people that surrounded the platform. Following what seemed like an eternity, he slowly lowered his head toward his pulpit, in a posture of sad resignation. Though he did not voice his thoughts at that moment, I am certain that he felt he had made a terrible mistake. Another 30 seconds or so passed, and the sound of applause began to erupt from a distant corner of the building. As I looked toward the direction of the applause, I saw an usher walking very slowly while supporting a frail elderly man who was walking with a cane. As the man made his way toward the platform, the applause continued to intensify until the entire auditorium had erupted into a roar of applause. People were now standing to their feet and openly weeping in expectation. I watched as the man made his way upon the steps and onto the platform. Superimposed upon his 72 years, I saw the smile of a boy. What I was seeing was amazing. The Lord enabled me to see the face of the 10 year old, implanted within the 72-year-old face. I saw the smile of a boy that knew His Lord, who had trusted his Lord, and had believed that one day he would regain his lost eye. I then heard the Lord’s voice again: “This, David, is what it means to walk by faith. I have waited 62 years to bless this man in this way. I’m not only doing it for him; I am doing it for you; that you might believe.”

As the 72-year-old man approached the speaker on the center of the platform, things began to move in slow motion for me. The presence of the Lord was so thick that I felt I was in another world. Slowly the speaker raised his hand and placed it over the man's glass eye. As he did so, the speaker began to shake. At once, the speaker fell to his knees, with head bowed down, clutching his hands together. The 72-year-old man slowly lifted his hands upward, and I saw his cane fall to the floor. I watched as the man lifted his eyes straight toward the ceiling, as if seeing a vision of heaven. The 72-year-old man then let out a loud cry: "Thank you Lord! Thank you Lord! Thank you Lorrrrrd!" The speaker then made his way to his feet. He was weeping uncontrollably. He then raised one hand high in the air, palm upward. In his palm sat a glistening glass eye. The lights in the building beamed toward the eye so that it could be clearly seen by everyone. The Lord had formed a new eye so quickly that the new eye had pushed the glass eye into the speaker's hand. When this was realized, everyone's hands in the auditorium shot skyward, and we were enthralled in the presence of God for what seemed like 90 minutes or more, worshipping with total abandon. We let out a collective shout that made my entire body shudder. It was a measure and intensity of worship that I had to date never imagined. The Lord continued to fill the auditorium with so much of His presence that the air temperature climbed at least 20 degrees. At one point, His presence was so hot that I felt as if my lungs were burning.

The speaker ultimately fell again to his knees as he wept with joy. The 72 year old man danced about the platform like a 10 year old boy—the very 10 year old boy who had lost his eye 62 years prior, and who had trusted God for a new one—for 62 years.

I drove home that evening, shortly after the clock struck midnight (January 1st, 1982). I remained in a mental fog all the way home. I recall trying to interact with my older sister, who I was living with at the time. I am certain she thought I was on drugs. Rather, I was simply in a state of heavenly shock.

As the years progressed, I found myself in the middle of many ministry opportunities that were life changing, ongoing. I found that as I would prepare myself through a time of fasting and prayer, and would humble myself as I would minister, the Holy Spirit would most often honor my posture and endorse what I was doing, for the purposes of changing lives and baring fruit. I will never forget some of these encounters through the '80's. Though every bit wonderful, I believe they could have been even better, had I stepped-out in radical faith. Though I had never forgotten the words the Lord had given me on December 31st 1981, I yet failed to fully seek to walk by faith.

Ten years later, and toward the onset of the winter of 1991, I found myself serving an internship within an explosive church in the Midwest. The church was that representative of a movement that was equally explosive. Signs, wonders and miracles were not uncommon in our midst. During this winter season the founder of the movement scheduled a large conference in the area. The meetings, which spanned three or four days, occupied several large meeting rooms within a conference center. On one evening the founder of the movement, a very kind and loving grandfatherly figure, was in the midst of a tremendous message, when, in the middle of a sentence he went silent, and bowed his head downward. In a flash, I was brought back to my memory of December 31st 1981, some 10-years prior. As I began to process this flashback, I knew intuitively that something of the miraculous was about to happen—again. Moments later the speaker raised his head, and with an enormous smile, said, "I think God wants to grow legs tonight." It was a rather funny few seconds that followed his statement, as nearly everyone seated turned to at least one person on either side of them, speechless, and with a wide-eyed expression that said, "Did he just say what I thought he just said?"

As if it were "just the other day," yet in fact 10 years had passed, I heard the familiar voice speak into my spirit again*: "This, David, is what it means to walk by faith."*

Within seconds, I could feel an electrifying presence of faith in the room. Our collective faith then welcomed the Holy Spirit to do what He does best. At the time, I was standing in the back of the room with five other interns. We had enjoyed some sporadic interaction with the speaker during the conference. He knew who we were. After eyeballing us for a few moments and making us feel a little nervous, with a wide grin on his face he said, "You guys, come up here. I'm going to pray over you, and when people come forward, you're going to lay hands on them and watch them get healed—up close. Don't worry, I'll be standing right behind you through the whole process." We must have looked pretty frightened and awkward, as the entire room burst out in laughter as we turned to face them.

They were having a good time, at our expense. We had a good laugh at ourselves too. The Joy of the Lord was present, and had we not launched into a time of healing very quickly, we would have likely fallen on the floor and laughed until we cried [that happened much later in the evening].

In very similar fashion to the miracle that occurred on December 31st 1981, the temperature in the room of this conference center rose at least 20 degrees. I could see the faces in the crowd become flushed with heat. I could see them perspiring. I could also see elderly people with wide-eyed, childlike expressions of excitement on their faces as they fixed their gaze toward the front of the room. In the faces of the elderly onlookers especially, I saw a most precious spirit of earnest desire to witness the miraculous. I somehow knew that this expression was born of those who had deep within, believed all of their lives that God was capable of such things, and who had also believed that they would live to see such things before transitioning into eternal life.

In moments, the grandfatherly figure said: "I want anyone with foot, ankle, knee, leg or hip deformities to come forward." Even before these people made their way forward I heard screams in the crowd as some had immediately been healed and had begun to jump up and down with joy. As I tried to maintain my focus upon those making their way forward, I realized that I was being approached by a woman in a wheelchair who had a severe leg condition. When she arrived at the front of the room I realized that her right leg, which was fully extended forward and resting on a leg brace which was attached to the front of the wheelchair, must have been at least five if not six inches shorter than her left leg. To demonstrate the difference she pulled a handle on the left side of the wheel chair, which extended a brace that in turn enabled her left leg to fully extend. I could see then that her right leg was a good six inches shorter than the other leg. She began to explain how her condition came about, and over the noise in the room I could only make out a portion of what she was saying: "My hip…replacement….accident…removed…can't bend…riser shoe…I can't…I just…."

Instinctively, I knew that if I had allowed this woman to continue with her medical narrative she would talk herself right out of an opportunity to be healed. And so, I raised my hand in a gesture, which implied, "O.K., I get the picture." Just then the grandfatherly figure, looking down at a dozen or so people at the altar, said, "You guys lay your hands on these, and believe!" Each of us laid hands on the people, and a short silence ensued. Following several seconds, the grandfatherly figure shouted, "Do it Lord!"

The moment this man shouted this command, an uproar overwhelmed the room. Many people were letting out screeches as they met with healing miracles. As I then looked into the eyes of the woman I was praying for, I saw that her gaze was fixed upon her right leg. Her eyes began to grow, the corners of her mouth turned downward, and she began to cry. For a fraction of a second, I thought she was crying in disappointment. As I turned my eyes toward her right foot, all of the activity in the room began to play in slow motion for me. At this moment, the strangest thing happened within my inner ears. All of the noise in the room was tuned-out with the exception of the sounds of this woman's leg—moving. She had removed an orthopedic shoe that had a massive compensation sole of at least five inches in thickness. I watched as her toes broke through a hole in her nylons. I could actually hear the stretching and tearing as her leg lengthened and pushed her foot through the hole in her nylons. I could hear her polyester pants making a snap and crackle sound as her leg slid through them. I literally watched as her leg grew the full length of the left leg. Unexpectedly, she pulled me to her and I nearly fell over her as she clutched me and cried with joy. The grandfatherly figure just sat on a stool studying the events, smiling, nodding his head and laughing. People were jumping, shouting, running around in the back of the room, and lying on the floor crying. Some people had their hands lifted up in worship, and with eyes closed were lost in the Lord and completely oblivious to the activity around them. The Holy Spirit had filled the room, and our collective human physiology was doing what it always does when the Holy Spirit fills a given room—experiencing system overload.

I lost my sense of time on this evening. I only recall following this point, the grandfatherly figure saying later in the evening, "I think the Lord wants to impart His joy now." As absurd as my response may sound, I found myself saying, "O.K., I can buy the miracles I just saw, but I know this laughter-thing has to be manufactured." Think about how ridiculous this thought is for a moment. I had just witnessed multiple mind-boggling miracles, and my mind (more pointedly, my left-brain) was telling me that an impartation of the Joy of The Lord was nothing more than psychologically induced suggestion. Just as this thought began to rob me of receiving a dose of joy, I completely doubled-over, as the air in my lungs was thrust out of me. As I then inhaled, I burst-out and into the wildest laughter I had experienced in my life. I began to laugh so hard that I had to double over and hold onto the chair in front of me. I continued to laugh so hard that I fell to the floor. I must have laughed for at least thirty minutes, crying all the while. In that short thirty minutes, my mental and emotional circuitry was completely re-wired, and a recent season of depression was completely flushed from my system.

Many years have passed since these life-changing experiences occurred to me. These are but two of more than a dozen episodes of equal magnitude that I have personally experienced or witnessed. I would expound upon all that I have seen, but it would make for lengthy discourse that would transcend the bounds of my point in writing this letter.

As you ponder the two experiences I have written about, I trust you will conclude with me that the primary reason the miraculous was released in both settings, was that rooted in the unshakable faith of the ministers within the focal point of these meetings. Each of these men had cultivated such intimacy with their Father in heaven, and had leaned so close to His breast, and for so long, that they could hear His very heartbeat—His desire for what He wished to release and accomplish within a given meeting. For when you rest your head on someone's chest long enough, and settle yourself in quietness, you can hear the rhythm of a heartbeat—perpetuating life with every beat. When one can hear the Lord's heartbeat this clearly, the only missing element required to see the miraculous break forth in your midst, is that of childlike faith.

At times I experience seasons wherein despite my attempts to pour-over scripture on a daily basis, the Holy Spirit will speak but one verse to me, over and over and over again. In recent months, He has spoken one verse to me, daily. I usually do not hear the verse until I have settled myself in my quiet-time chair, late in the evening. In stillness, and as quietness ensues, this is what I hear: "Unless you…become as a little child, you will by no means see the kingdom of heaven" (Matt. 18:2).

This verse, transliterated, speaks of the context of entrance into eternal life. However in a very personal context, the Holy Spirit has been speaking to me, through this verse, that childlike faith is the gateway by which I can see the "kingdom of heaven" made manifest in my midst—through signs, wonders and miracles unspeakable—events that can change the course of a persons life in but a few moments.

In II Kings 6:24—7:20, we read of an account of the Israelites being besieged by the Syrians, in which they are kept within the walls of Samaria, completely cut-off from any source of food supply and commerce. As famine and starvation ensues, Jehoram, the Israelite King at the time, is driven to such despair that he curses Elisha, who is present; blaming Elisha for the demise of the city. Elisha's response is that to prophesy that this desperate and famished people would, in the context of but one day, go from utter depravity to an overabundance of food and riches. As Elisha prophesies such, a high ranking officer who was close to the king relationally, in fact so close that the king rested his head on this officer's hand as he had earlier cried out in despair, responds to Elisha's prophesy by saying: "I can't see it. How can the Lord make windows in heaven, and accomplish such a thing?" Seemingly and innocently enough, this simple measure of doubt, and more pointedly, unbelief, ultimately cost this man his very life the following day. For Elisha responded by saying: "Oh, you will see it alright, but you will not live to partake of it."

At the break of dawn the following morning, and as the Syrians were encamped not far from walls of Samaria, while premeditating their final military strike, the Lord fulfilled Elisha's prophesy, by causing the very Army of The Lord to appear to the Syrians—in full force. As this occurred, the Syrians fled from their tents and ran for their lives. They thought King Jehoram had networked and amassed many armies from distance lands in his defense. As the Syrians fled, they left many riches within their tents. They left their armor, their swords and their spears. Moreover, they left enough food to feed the Israelite city ten times over.

As word made its way to the Israelites, the officer who had doubted Elisha's prophecy approached the main gate, to venture out and take a look at the Syrian plunder. Just as he was about to exit the main gate within the walls of Samaria, a horde of people rushing out to partake trampled him under foot and crushed him to death.

It was late in the evening several months ago, that I reread this story. I had read it several times in years past. Yet never had it spoken to me as it did on this evening. For on this evening the Lord whispered something very sobering to me. It was so sobering that it felt as if my heart stopped for a moment. This is what I believe He whispered to me on this evening:

"David, in the same way that this officer's unbelief cost him his life; your unbelief can cost you the very life of the ministry that has been prophesied over you."

[A long and silent pause…………]

As the weight of this word began to settle upon me, I realized that I had allowed myself over the course of roughly a year, to drift into a state of unbelief that was virtually choking the fulfillment of the ministry that had been prophesied over me, over so many years. For I had resigned from facilitating (pastoring) a young church-plant in my locale as the result of a series of traumatic events which had devastated me. In my devastation, I failed to see why the Lord had allowed such atrocities to happen. Rather than seeking to understand what it was that I was to learn and grow from as the result of these events, I freely allowed the roots of bitterness to slowly, subtly and tightly weave their way around my heart—choking out what little faith had been there to begin with.

It is my belief that the vast majority of personal prophetic words spoken over our lives, are that which can be classified as conditional prophecies. The condition is this: "If you will…"

Were you to conduct a search within the many prophecies uttered within the pages of the Old Testament for example, you will find this conditional prefix attached to many of them. I have come to believe that there are two primary conditions that must be met ongoing, before the Lord will in turn fulfill the depths and breadth of the ministries to which we are called. The first condition is that of cultivating daily intimacy with Him ("Those who seek Me diligently, will find Me," Prov. 8:17). The second condition is that of walking by faith ("Without faith it is impossible to please God," Heb. 11:6).

The vast majority of the men and women that have shaken the world with the gospel over the past two hundred years, have, interestingly enough, been those who have kept daily journals of their walk with the Lord. The same men and women have, when met with cold, dark and rainy days, flipped through the pages of their journals and have been reminded of many of the profound words that had been spoken over their lives. These have been "diligent" (Prov. 8:17) to daily meditate upon the things that had been spoken to them. In doing so, they kept the flame of faith (Heb. 11:6) burning ever brightly. In this context, consider Revelation 1:2, which reads*: "Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and heed the things which are written in it; for the time is near."* In this verse, the words "reads," "hear" and "heed" are present participles. That is to say that this verse denotes ongoing reading, ongoing hearing and ongoing heeding of "…the words of prophecy…" Clearly this verse pertains initially to the Book of Revelation, however I believe it also speaks to the sure word of prophecy over our lives.

Those among us who press-in daily, to hear from the Lord, are given many nuggets upon which to chew. Many of these nuggets come in the form of dreams, which I believe are very often, gifts from heaven. It is when we fail to write these down and meditate upon them, that subsequent dreams are often withheld. Job 33:14-16 reads: "God will speak to men on several occasions, yet men do not perceive it. God then waits until they are sound asleep, deep in the night. He will then seal their instruction." Do a search on the word "dream" throughout scripture—you will be amazed at the frequency in which pivotal figures in scripture were led-about by dreams from the Lord. What is more interesting than this, is that nowhere in scripture does it say that the Lord has ceased to speak to His children in this way.

What happens to those of us who become lax in meditating upon the words that have been spoken over us, the dreams the Lord has downloaded within us, the visions the Lord has imparted to us, and the sure-word of prophecy that has been spoken over our lives? What happens when we allow the subtle roots of bitterness, as the result of traumatic injustices and subsequent wounds, to grow around our hearts and choke-off this revelation? I believe the prophet Isaiah answers this most pointedly: "They do not pay attention to the deeds of the Lord, nor do they consider the work of His hands.

Therefore My people go into exile for their lack of knowledge; and their honorable men are famished, and their multitude is parched with thirst. Therefore Sheol has enlarged its mouth without measure…"

It was one year ago that my wife and I resigned from facilitating [pastoring] a church, which was the fulfillment of several years of dreams and visions. We would never have imaged that we would meet with such ravenous opposition and spiritual warfare carnage, that if these events were chronicled, would make a Stephen King novel read more like an episode of Mr. Rogers' Neighborhood, by comparison. In a state of shell shock and emotional numbness, we withdrew into a behavior known by sociologists as "cocooning." And while we cocooned, I lost site of "the deeds of the Lord" and "the work of His hands," by failing to meditate on why He allowed these things to happen. Instead, I allowed the chords of bitterness, like vines, to wrap their way around my heart. As this occurred, "Sheol enlarged its mouth without measure."

We all know of the stern warnings within the book of Proverbs and the book of James, with respect to the power of the spoken word. It was David Yonggi Cho, apostolic leader of the world's largest church in Seoul South Korea, who once stated: "Jesus is bound by our lips." In essence, what David Yonggi Cho was suggesting is that the words we speak, do in fact release Jesus' presence in our midst. On the same token, we can open the floodgates of hell in our midst, by speaking-out those things that are rooted in bitterness and hardness of heart.

We are living in an age wherein every thought and deed in our hearts will release either the kindness or the severity of the Lord. We are fast-approaching a time when every thought must be held captive—around the clock, for His refinement of our souls is being accelerated as we fast approach the End of The Age—as we know it. It is with this reality in mind that I have made myself vulnerable to you, by confessing my season of unbelief. For following the traumatic events that my wife and I endured as we led our former church, we entered into a period of shell shock. This was followed by a period of anger, which was followed by a period of deep bitterness. As we then sought to forsake the bitterness, a heavy blanket of sadness was upon our shoulders. It has now been one year since our resignation from the church, and we are finally feeling the release of the deep and abiding sadness.

I have appreciated the emphasis upon the word "destiny" over the past decade. This word has found its way into countless conference titles, books, seminars, messages and prophetic words, and often within the context of the promise of a resurrection of ones' destiny in life. It has been a timely and relevant word for the Church. One small oversight within the application of this word as a theme however, has been this: there can be no resurrection, without there first being a crucifixion.

In and through the utter carnage that my wife and I faced while planting and pastoring our former church, our ministry-vision was crucified. We were ripped to mental and emotional shreds. This process made no sense to me at the time, as I recall having been crucified upon my conversion in the summer of 1981. Why would I need to die such a horrible death, all over again?

In the early stages of our shell shock following our resignation, I was having lunch with another area pastor, when he posed a simple yet profound thought. As we savored our Mexican food, and as he surely saw the veil of posttraumatic stress disorder over my face, he said this: "I wonder, David. If the Lord did not allow this to happen, to test you, and to see if He would remain your first-love through all of this? I wonder if He wasn't interested in seeing if you'd still love Him after all of this."

[A long and silent pause……………]

For many years, the overriding theme of most of my teachings and writings has been that of the extreme importance of the cultivation of personal quiet-times with the Lord—daily. However in the midst of a series of traumatic events within our church, accompanied by sleepless nights and extreme stress and fatigue, I had allowed the devotion to my first-love, to erode. It was replaced by the cares and concerns of my church. It was as I realized this that I was propelled to lay the church on the altar of sacrifice, and watch it go up in figurative flames.

My wife and I have learned a painful yet powerful lesson in and through this saga. We will never again allow anything to dilute the priority of our one-on-one time with the Lord, ever again. For it is in this practice that we find the deepest and the only lasting sustenance, affirmation and vision. There is no activity outside of this activity, which will sustain us, affirm us and impart vision to us, like our alone-time with the Lord.

As the psychological and emotional dust has settled around me following my resignation from the church one year ago, I have been challenged by the Holy Spirit to continue to believe for the fulfillment of the ultimate calling on my life. I have been challenged to accept that recent events were a necessary chapter on my way toward the ultimate fulfillment of the book of my life. In and through renewed quiet-times, I have had many things spoken to me—straight from the Throne Room of grace. One such thing spoken to me is that which I also wish to speak to you as I close this letter.

I wish to remind you that you are*"…fearfully and wonderfully made…"* (Ps. 139:14). No one on the entire planet has the combination of your physiological construct, your DNA, your temperament (psychological construct), your spiritual gift-mix and your personal testimony. Further, you have experienced facets of God that others have not. In turn, what you have to extend to the Body of Christ abroad, and to a dying world abroad, cannot be offered by anyone else. You are unique in all the earth. Your worth is infinite within the eternal plan of God. You cannot give up. You must not.

I know that I speak to someone who has tasted bitter sufferings as the result of being wounded by the Church. I know that I speak to someone who has become despondent to the vain religiosity and church-antics found within the church walls. I know that I speak to someone who is tired of beating the dead horse of your sense of obligation to submit yourself to the hands of those you do not even trust within the church. I know that I speak to someone who is sitting quietly in the shadows, awaiting the resurrection of the truly glorified Church. Moreover, I know that I speak to someone who has all but concluded that the lofty things prophesied over your life must have been a mistake, for all of the events following these words have been the radical and painful opposite. If this is you, you must know that I have prayed that as you read these words, a very small match will light a very small flame within your heart; a flame just bright enough to illuminate the parchment upon which your calling has been prophesied, over and over again. I have also prayed that faith would begin to circulate in your veins again, and would begin to infiltrate your thought processes again—the faith to believe for the fulfillment of what you know you have been called to do. For I know the slander that has gone before you. I know the erroneous judgment that has been levied against you. I know how you have been misunderstood and misquoted. I know how you have been underestimated and cast-off from those you once loved, trusted and submitted to. I know the grief and sadness that permeates your soul when you rehearse what people have been permitted to get away with within positions of authority and influence. I know that sometimes you wonder if your walk has been one terrible deception, because things have not turned out at all the way you thought they would. I know that you see the likes of true fellowship and love in your local pub, more so than in the local church. I know this sadness, loved one. However, I also know this: When you have come to this point, you have come to a place of being made of "…no reputation…" (Phil. 2:7). Having arrived at this place, you must understand that you are closer to crossing-over and into the fulfillment of your high calling than you have ever been before. For now you are free from the desire to pursue the accolades of men and the religious pomp. Now you only want to serve the Mighty One, and to be affirmed by Him alone. The only thing left, is to simply believe that your foot is about to touch down upon the very soil that has been prophesied over you for so many years.

I want to encourage you to imagine a picture for a moment: Imagine that high in the sky there is a majestic figure of a man sitting on a throne of gold, and radiating light that is more brilliant than anything you have seen. In His eyes, the depths of the oceans can be seen. About His face is wisdom and nobility that transcends the English language, and all languages on the earth. His eyes are fixed upon you. His left elbow is resting upon the armrest of his majestic chair, and in His left hand rests His chin, in a posture of patience and timelessness. His right hand rests upon the other armrest, and the fingers of His right hand are drumming very softly, as if waiting patiently for something. His right foot is tapping a floor of jasper, very softly, as if waiting patiently for something. The last thing you notice is that of his mouth, which has a very slight smile about it. You then hear these words:

"Well, what's it going to be?"

O Christmas Tree
Dave Hood

(UK)

They chopped down Gods tree. Laid on Him, the bare naked edge of their axe and cut him down from the Garden of Life. He was planted years ago, just like any other fir tree. Quietly and without fuss or real notice. Carefully placed by the hand of its creator. The planting of greatness, in the forest of man. Within, its seed, providing the hope, of one day this sapling surviving the rigours and dangers of this worlds life. Like us, to daily struggle to find height, to find light, to find space, that we might desperately find His life, space and place in Him.

They cut him down. This fair tree, destined for what? Does he now stand acknowledged in your room or on your shelf? Is he lit with lights or bedecked with baubles? No, this tree is the Light. Purity beyond purity. Light beyond light, and of himself is every Jewel, every Gem and Stone imaginable. Is he covered in glory, or tinsel and tat? Today is his tree, still, the tree of His cross? So grown, on which is hung your shame!

He has always lived. Always lived and grown amongst us, besides us and have we esteemed him not? But have we been, or are we aware of the greatness that stands within our homes, within the planting of our human hearts. The centre piece of life. This tree is life. For this tree is living, from him all others grow. From him the whole root of life abides and flows. Humbly planted within the soil of humanity. Lowly laid. Lowly lived. Lowly died. Destined for wood, destined for dying…destined for burning. Will we throw him away or, wrap him up for another year?

Jesus, Gods mans size tree.

Chopped down, laid low. Dragged from his place of falling, with chains of sin. The egos, the avarice, the pride and greed of man. This fallen tree, whose bark was crushed, splintered and bruised, became battered and bleeding, to bring him here to you, into the heart of your home, Brought by Gods good intention, so that you may find, He has brought Him here for you.

Yes Father Lord, as I look afresh on your frame, I find faith in your fir. Life in your frame. I find meaning, and light in your hope. Help Lord, help me to collect your life giving sap, that flows from your fractured bark, your broken branches, broken to help me find your place of expression for me. Crushed by the machinery of life, and the heel of mans boot, to help us discover by your grace, the Healing, Health and Hope, that is in the meaning of your coming. That we may find the true meaning of your hope.

One Church Of The City
David Orton

One Church Of The City –
The Dwelling Of God

"Do you not discern and understand that you (the whole church at Corinth) are God's temple…?"

1 Cor 3:16 (AMP)
God's purpose has always been to dwell with men.

From the beginning of time to its culmination, from Eden to the New Jerusalem, this has been his singular desire.

In the Garden, it was God's habit to come down and commune with the first human community, most probably at the close of each day (see Gen 3:8). Adam, in his rebellion, ran from God forsaking this intimate communion, cutting himself off from the presence of God, and plunging his progeny into its present darkness.

With this tragic failure, God intervened, calling Abraham and his seed, to whom he said, "…have them make a sanctuary for me, and I will dwell among them" (Ex 25:8). Likewise Israel , rebelled time-and-again, forsaking the devotion of her youth, until finally her house (or temple) was left desolate (see Jer 2:2; Mtt 23:38).

But God, in whom there is no variance, pursues with passion his purpose to dwell with men. Through redemptive history he has lived a peripatetic life, moving from the Garden, and then from one dwelling to another looking for a permanent place to live. As the Lord explained to David, "…I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel to this day, but I have gone from tent to tent and from one dwelling place to another" (1 Chr 17:5).

The God-Man

And so, finally, at the climax of history God declares of his own Son, the true Zion , "This is my resting place forever; here I will dwell, for I have desired it" (Psa 132:14). The eternal word has finally found a permanent repose in human flesh and "made his dwelling among us" (Jn 1:14 ; 'dwelling' - Gr. skunoo – 'to tabernacle'). God, in Christ, has fulfilled all that the Old Testament dwellings foreshadowed. He is now the "dwelling of God", made without hands, and we have beheld his glory (see Acts 17:24 ; Jn 1:14). The *shekinah(Heb. 'dwelling')* glory no longer dwells in temporary tents and earthly temples, but now abides eternally in the God-man, Jesus Christ. The glory of God's own presence has settled into a human breast.

The eschaton (the end) has been realised in Christ. He is God's final word. As the writer to the Hebrews shows, "God in these last days has spoken to us by his Son" (Heb 1:2). In his humanity he has become, "the radiance, the shining forth, of the Father's glory and the exact representation of his nature"(Heb 1:3). He is the climax of all God's outshinings and the full manifestation of all that he is – "For in him all the fullness of Deity dwells in bodily form" (Col 2:9). The man, Christ Jesus, has become the "one mediator between God and men" (1 Tim 2:5) – remarrying the human and the divine.

Prototype of a New Humanity

Even so, the fullness of God is not found in Christ alone, but in his union with his body, the church – "…the church, which is his body the fullness of him…" (Eph 1:23). "And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead…For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him" (Col 1:18-19).
The God-man, Christ Jesus, has become the firstborn of a new creation – in fact, the prototype of a new humanity.

First, in his death as the last Adam. He has terminated, once-and-for-all, the failure of the Adamic race to maintain communion with God.

Secondly, rising, as the second man. He is the beginning of a whole new order – a race of king-priests whose redeemed and perfected humanity becomes the dwelling place of the living God. Blazing the trail into the presence of God he has irrevocably joined, in himself, the human and the divine (see Heb 2:10-14; 5:9-10; 2 Pet 1:4; Rom 8:29; 5:12-21; 1 Cor 15:45-47; 2 Cor 5:17).

And so, joined to him, his body now becomes the dwelling of God –
"In him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord. And in him you too are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit" (Eph 1:21-22).

The Temple of the City-Church

This brings us to the unity of the body. As the head of a new humanity Christ is not divided.

The apostolic church knew nothing of denominational division. It was not denominated by theology or celebrity, but only by geography. Geographical boundaries and civil jurisdictions alone determined the church's boundaries. When the apostle wished to address a church he would speak to the whole church of the city – for example, the ' church of God in Corinth ' (1 Cor 1:2). Evidently, the church, even in these large cosmopolitan cities, was functioning as one unified whole. (See also 2 Cor 1:1; 1 Thes 1:1; 2 Thes 1:1; Rev 2:1, 8, 12, 18; 3:1, 7, 14; Rom 1:7; Eph 1:1; Phil 1:1; Col 1:2).

Anything less was an aberration, provoking apostolic rebuke. Paul had clearly taught, "…all the parts, though many, form (only) one body, so it is with Christ…" (1 Cor 12:12 ; see also v 20, 27; Rom 12:5; 1 Cor 10:16 , 17; Eph 2:14 -16; 4:4, 16, 25; 5:30). And so, when the church of God in Corinth violated this unity he wrote,
"I appeal to you, brothers…that there be no divisions among you… One of you says, 'I follow Paul'; another, 'I follow Cephas'… . Is Christ divided? …

Do you not discern and understand that you (the whole church at Corinth) are God's temple…. If any one destroys it, God will destroy him because God's temple is sacred, and you are that temple".

(1 Cor 3: 10 -13; 3:16 -17 Amp. & author's paraphrase).
Need we wonder any more at the destruction of the contemporary Western church! The scandal of our denominational divisions has invited the displeasure of God.

Now is the time to return to him – to repent of our pride and false value systems. To dismantle the mindsets and structures that are inimical to the spirit of Christ and the unity of his body. And together we will become a dwelling in which God is pleased to live.

All heaven will then erupt, declaring over our cities and nations –
"Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God". (Rev 21:3)

Open Door to Remain Open in 2005

Paul Cox

Chuck Pierce was right. In February 2004, he wrote of doors opening that year that would not be closed. It was in 2004 that the Lord started to mature my understanding of the door in heavenly places. The journey has been fascinating and ongoing.

Several months ago I woke up at 11:22, 12:22, 1:22, 2:22, etc. It was evident there was something with 22! Then Lord led me to Isaiah 22:22:
"The key of the house of David I will lay on his shoulder, so he shall open and no one shall shut, and he shall shut, and no one shall open." (NKJV)
I thought that there must be something with this verse . . . but what?

"HOW THE LORD TAUGHT ME TO DISCERN HEAVENLY DOORS"

Weeks later, during a training workshop at Aslan's Place, while talking to a young adult, I began feeling an odd sensation on my left side -- something like acid. The young man began looking past my left shoulder; an expression of terror, as someone seeing a horrific scene, crossed his face.

"What are you seeing?" I asked him.

"I saw a door open and a terrifying being standing at the door. He is looking at you right now, and is not happy."

My gift of discernment led me to believe I was experiencing some type of new revelation. I realized I was discerning a "spiritual force," a being I had encountered several times before. I knew it was not evil, but righteous. Why was he present?

"Why is he unhappy?" I asked.

The young man replied, "The Lord says there are walls around you that must come down so that He can accomplish in you what He wants."

That was all I needed. I prayed, "Lord, remove the walls." Immediately the being stepped from the door and poured an anointing of the Lord on me. He then moved back through the door and the door closed. The Lord had just taught me to discern doors in heavenly places.

HEAVENLY DOORS, HEAVENLY PLACES

During the following weeks and months, a Biblical door of information opened to me. The Lord showed me Scriptures throughout His Word. I went to Revelation 3:7-8:
"And to the angel of the church of Philadelphia write, 'These things says He who is holy, He who is true, he who has the key of David, He who opens and no one shuts, and shuts and no one opens,' I know your works. See I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it; for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name." (NKJV)

Isaiah 45:1-3, "Thus says the LORD to His anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have held to subdue nations before him and loose the armor of kings, to open before him the double doors, so that the gates will not be shut: 'I will go before you and make the crooked places straight; I will break in pieces the gates of bronze and cut the bars of iron. I will give you the treasures of darkness and hidden riches of secret places, that you may know that I, the LORD, who call you by your name, am the God of Israel." (NKJV)

Since the initial revelation, many have gone through the heavenly doors. Some have seen double doors. At times, the doors appear to be ancient. After going through the doors, individuals believe the Lord has given them new revelations.

Revelation 4:1, "After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven." (NKJV)
It is clear from this passage that these doors are in heaven. Ephesians 2:6 declares that we are seated with Christ in heavenly places. When we go through the doors, we go into the heavenly places. It is important to note that we are not seated in a place but in places.

THE DOORS THAT ARE OPENED WILL NOT BE CLOSED!

The Lord continues to teach me about the heavenly doors. One night He woke me and gave me this scripture:

Matthew 7:7-8, "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened." (NKJV)

Having memorized it as a child, I thought I understood its meaning. Could the passage indicate the possibility of going through the heavenly doors?

I have given this message at various venues, and now I know there are many doors and they lead to many rooms designed to hold many things. Now, when I discerned the door, I invited each person to go through it. Their reports are amazing. Each person sees the door in a different way and they do go into rooms unique for them.
What takes place in the rooms is not just an unverifiable spiritual transaction, but many experience physical and emotional healings, or miraculous encounters with the Lord which manifest in their everyday life.

There is a remarkable fact! As stated in Isaiah 22:22, the Lord has promised that the doors that are opened will not be closed! So the doors that opened in 2004 remain open in 2005.

WHERE DO WE GO WHEN WE GO THROUGH THE DOORS?

Operation Desert Harvest

by Bill Somers

The Burden

> The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies of Dedanim. The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fled. For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war. For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Within a year, according to the years of an hireling, and all the glory of Kedar shall fail: And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished: for the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it. (Isaiah 21:13-17)

The above scripture came to me more than once in the past year as a theme scripture for Operation Desert Harvest. What is Operation Desert Harvest? It's what I call the coming great harvest in Muslim lands. Yes the Lord intends to reap a great harvest from Muslim and Arabic nations. Operation Desert Harvest is named after Desert Shield and Desert Storm. How do I know there will be an Operation Desert Harvest? What has it got to do with Desert Storm? And what has it got to do with me? Well I'm Glad you asked!!

The Lord began by showing me the need for the Gospel among Islamic peoples. Then he graced me with an urgency and ability to intercede in this area. This is what we call a burden. Then he gradually revealed a vision of Islamic countries being reached with the gospel. A Desert Harvest. Then, astonishingly, he invited me to be a part of it. The Burden, The Vision and The Call. This is how I came to be called to Arabia. First, several influences led to a burden for Muslims.

I came to the Lord in 1985 in a Full Gospel Church. Reserve Christian Church in Reserve LA, has a long record of missions involvement. My spiritual outlook soon included a concern for world missions. It was intensified by the power of a dramatic musical, 'The Spirit and the Bride say Go!' There the Church, the Bride of Christ, was personified as the 'going bride' and the 'sending bride'. That is, those who go on the mission field and those who send them. The home church is the sending bride providing finances and most importantly prayer support. My personal situation, a heavy load of debt, would keep me from going out of course but I committed to be a diligent prayer and financial supporter.

The Islamic emphasis began with a 'borrowed' copy of Mission Frontiers. April-May 1989 Vol. 11 nrs. 4-5. I still have it and it still has the address label saying "Ed Pousson - Gulf States. Mission Agency."

In that issue, the US Center for World Missions announced their 1990 Unreached Peoples Poster. At the bargain price for quantity purchases I ended up getting a half dozen of them, mostly to give away. This poster is a real eye-opener. The people groups of the world are represented in a pie chart. The angle of the arc for each slice of pie is proportional to the group's share of the total world population. Their are 9 groupings. Within each group areas are shaded representing what portion of the people in the group fall into one of four categories. White = Great Commission Christians, Yellow = Other Christians, Gray = Non-Christians within reach, and Black = Non Christians still unreached.

It's both awesome and shocking to note the darkness in the Muslim region graphically portrayed. The area devoted to Muslims has only the tiniest speck of white, a dab of gray and the rest black. Nearly a Billion people in darkness! Of all the groups represented, Muslims had the least penetration by the Gospel.

I took out a subscription to Mission Frontiers to get my own copy. The 1989 issue of Mission Frontiers (Vol 11 Nrs 11-12), highlighted Muslim Missions. The issue included a book review of 'The Cross and the Crescent' by Phil Parshall and an in depth article by Tom Trueman titled "Fresh Thinking on Muslim Missions" He quotes World Christian magazine: "Historically, Islam has been Christianity's greatest challenge." and goes on to discuss problems with missionaries approach to Muslims. Here is part of an excerpt from a memo from a mission agency to Muslims which he also quotes in the article.

"The Challenge of the Muslim World"

As we move into the 1990's we rejoice that the Church of Jesus Christ has made significant inroads among:

* many Marxist peoples;
* major towns and cities of India;
* the Chinese;
* Latin America;
* Sub-Saharan non-Muslim Africa;
* all of Europe - even Eastern Europe...;

Therefore, the great remaining challenge in completing the Great Commission is indisputably the Muslim World...."

The great remaining challenge in COMPLETING THE GREAT COMMISSION is the Muslim world. It was becoming more apparent to me all the time.

My burden continued to be stirred up with the announcement by Gulf States Missions Agency, whose offices were housed at Reserve Christian, that it was time to cultivate Muslim awareness. Dr. Robert Douglas came to Reserve on Feb 11 1990 to speak on Islamic Missions in a talk titled "The Desert Shall Bloom (Isa. 35:1-7)." Douglas is or was the head of the Zwemer Institute, an agency, headquartered at the US Center for World Missions, dedicated to Islamic Missions. (It is named after Samuel Zwemer, an American of Dutch extraction who served in the earlier part of this century. He is known as the Apostle to Islam.)

Douglas spoke on Missions as finding out what God is doing in the world and then cooperating with him. He talked of the challenge that Islam presents to Christianity and the tremendous lack of missionaries actually working with Muslims.

I soon found myself praying with special intensity for the Islamic people when we held our missions prayer sessions. Late in the summer of 1990 around the time Iraq invaded Kuwait, I began to get the Vision.

Operation Desert Harvest: The Vision.

"And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper." 2 Chron. 20:20

To "Believe His Prophets" is extremely important. We live today in an age when God's is using prophets again to reveal his plans. The following excerpts and quotations are from the prophets that God used to birth an excitement in my spirit; a vision for a great harvest among Muslims. The first article quoted presents an astonishing prophecy of the fall of Islam. The others all provide confirmation in one way or other.

This first item is an excerpt from an article by Steve Lightle that appeared in Christ for The Nations mid 1990. "A Prophetic Bell is Ringing".

"In May of this year [1990], I entered the city of Bosra, Iraq. I was there with what we call a Holy Ghost Commando Team. I arrived on the 28th of May. On that day, a special summit conference of the Arab nations was held in Baghdad. The subject was how to stop Soviet Jews from going to Israel. It was called one week before we made the trip which we had planned three years earlier. Nothing came of the Arab Summit Conference. And I know why: because we had a twenty-four hour prayer chain going....

In 1985, the Lord brought Daniel Chapter Nine alive to me. As I read about the Babylonian captivity being only seventy years long, I began to think about how long Communism had been ruling, bringing 70% of the population of the whole world under its dominion.

The Bible says in the 19th chapter of Revelation that the ruling spirit in the last days is going to be the spirit of Babylon. I asked the Lord, "When are You going to deal with Communism?" The Lord said, "I am ready to deal with it. Go." Daniel read the prophecies of Jeremiah in the 68th year of captivity; for two years he prayed specifically about what he read there. He battled the principalities and the powers; God sent the archangels to help him as he pressed through to get things done.

Like Daniel, for two years we prayed and listened to the Lord. Lenin signed the Constitution of the Soviet Union on the 17th of October, 1917. On the 17th of October, 1987, exactly 70 years later, twelve of us were in the city of Moscow. As midnight passed, we were exactly in the spot where Lenin signed the Constitution. We made a circle, and in obedience to the Lord in prayer, we cancelled the Soviet Union's Constitution in the Name of the Lord and agreed He would make a new one.

Eleven months later, November of 1988, Mr. Gorbachev called the Supreme Soviets together and they changed 52 points of the Constitution of the Soviet Union. In January 1989, over a hundred points were changed, and in April of this year the part of the Constitution of the Soviet Union was struck out which had said there could be only one party, the Communist Party. The death blow came by prayer, "Without a vision, the people perish..." (Prov. 29:18).

One the way to Moscow in 1987, the Holy Spirit spoke to my heart: "Your next strike will be in Babylon..." On the airplane I was handed a newspaper; on the inside of the front page there was an article about Sadam Hussein of Iraq rebuilding the city of Babylon. And then the Holy Spirit spoke and said, "This step of going to Babylon will be the first one before you go to stand on the black rock in Mecca to preach the Gospel. I am going to break the back of Islam quicker than I broke the back of Communism." There are almost a billion Muslims in the world today and the Lord loves them and doesn't want them to perish. He is looking for those who really understand so that they will cooperate with Him - first in prayer and then to do his will.

We have the same God Daniel had. He is looking for those to whom He can give vision so they can participate with Him. "Where there is no prophecy the people cast off restraint..." (RSV) "...where there is no vision, the people perish... (Prov. 29:18 KJV). When people have not received that which the Lord wants to do, then all the restraint comes off and they just go do what is right in their own eyes, and the purposes of God are not accomplished.

God has chosen to do absolutely nothing except what He energizes by the Holy Spirit through prayer through the body of Christ. Through His servants, He is going to change the course of history!"

Those words: "I am going to break the back of Islam quicker than I broke the back of Communism." rang a bell in my spirit. They still do every time I reread them. When an awesome and exciting prophecy like this comes along, it may or may not stir your spirit. But it needs to "go on the shelf". It must wait judging by those in spiritual authority. And it must wait for other words of confirmation.

In the fall 1990 Desert Shield progressed into a massive troop buildup. Our missions pastor, GSMA director Brother Dick, confided to me that according to his contacts, nobody in the body of Christ had gotten a clear word from the Lord on the Mid East situation. (I felt the Lord was waiting to see if we would pray, so I prayed.)

Word was not long in coming. And it was a word that confirmed Steve Lightle's prophecy! Late in 1990 as the Allied forces were preparing to go to war against Iraq, it appeared in a journal put out by Francis Frangipane. In 'The Spirit of God's Kingdom', an article titled "Middle East Prayer Watch" by Reuven Doron contained this word.
